M. Murphy, Editor and Prop.

THE superintendent of public instruction called the attention of Attorney General Ellis to the provisions concerning school taxes in sections 41 and 43 of act 200, public acts of 1891, and gets this truly comforting decision: "The delinquent school taxes may be made good from the state and county tax before the latter are turned over to the township treasurer." This virtually does away with delinquent school taxes and no more schools need be closed for lack of funds if there are any county or state taxes collected. The schools have the inside track.

THE people of the different counties composing the 23rd Judicial Circuit are to be congratulated on the fact that they have a man on the bench, in the person of Wm. H. Simpson, who is interested in their welfare to protect them against non-resident land owners and speculators. His decisions in the tax contest cases since he has been on the bench have saved the different counties thousands of dollars that during his predecessors term went into the pockets of outside firms and individuals who have had large holding in these northern counties for lumbering or speculating purposes, and have made him hosts of friends and adherents among the actual settlers. There is not the slightest question but that he will be re-elected in the spring of '93. The only question will be as to how much larger his majority will be than it was in '87. —West Branch Democrat.

GEN. ALGER's war record is receiving great attention just now, by reason of the publication of the fact that Gen. Custer recommended his dishonorable discharge for leaving his command without permission, and that Gen. Sheridan seemed to agree with Custer. There is no doubt but that the attack was made in Harrison's interests, to kill off Alger's chance for the presidential nomination. In no other way could these musty records of the war department become public. The charges will receive no attention from decent men, no matter what their politics. Gen. Alger's friends have often made themselves ridiculous by trying to make their hero appear a second Napoleon, but such senseless praise is more reasonable than the charges that he was a 'slink.' No man who knows Gen. Alger will ever believe that he ever failed to do his duty on the field, no matter what the records of the war department may say.

THE pretense that a duty on wool is necessary to enable farmers to keep sheep with profit has been exploded a hundred times. In 1890 McKinley increased the duty on wool and the next year the clip sold for a diminished price. Free-trade Great Britain and Ireland, with a population of only 37,500,000 and an area in square miles less than one half that of Texas, and in 1888 nearly 30,000,000 sheep. The highly "protected" United States, with a population of 62,000,000 and an unlimited cheap land, had in 1890 but 3,000,000 sheep. England supplies her home market with far better and cheaper domestic clothing than the people of this country are permitted to buy, and exports woollen fabrics to the four quarters of the globe. It is time that this enlightened country should abandon its old delusions and put a stop to oppressive and harmful taxation. —N. Y. World.

Cleveland in Detroit.

Detroit, Feb. 24—The Cleveland reception in this city last night was an enthusiastic outpouring, such as this city has never before witnessed. The trains from various parts of the state were crowded all day, beginning early in the morning. The receptions was held in the Hotel Cadillac, beginning at 8 o'clock and at 7 o'clock the streets in every direction were packed with people for many blocks. The decorations in the hotel were elaborate and unique. The reception committee comprised the first citizens of the city without respect to party, including such prominent republicans as Gen. Alger and ex-Senator Palmer. Among those who assisted in the reception were Bishop Davies, Gen. O. M. Poe, Don M. Dickinson, Gov. Winans, ex-Gov. Campbell, Gov. V. L. Lathrop, W. E. Quinby, Mayor Plingree and Gen. Parkurst. Mr. Cleveland was presented with a set of resolutions and the freedom of the city by Acting Mayor Coats.

It is estimated that fully 10,000 men women and children shook hands with the ex-president. So dense was the throng and so great the press that some 30 ladies fainted and one was quite seriously squeezed. The hand-shaking lasted from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Mr. Cleveland left for the east 8 o'clock this morning.

About 75 styles of men's overshirts, consisting of all wool flannels, flannel-ettes, sateens, cashmeres, jerseys and cotton, just received at T. Simon's which he will sell at very low prices.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Delancy Staats, wife of our fellow townsman, J. R. Staats, died at her home in this place Saturday evening, last, Feb. 20, aged 56 years.

Mrs. Staats was born in Wilson Twp., Niagara Co., N. Y., and removed with her parents to Michigan, when she was about a year old. Her maiden name was Delancy Brewer. When 23 years old, she married Joseph R. Staats. Four children blessed this union—two sons and two daughters, the former both dying in infancy, the latter, Carry and Cora still survive her, with her husband.

Mrs. Staats, during her residence of over 22 years in East Tawas, has been a consistent member of the M. E. church. To a naturally amiable disposition was added a cheerful religious experience. She was active in all charitable and church work, having labored with the young in Sunday School teaching as long as health permitted. She had been confined quite closely to the house for the last year, and her family and friends had seen her gradually fading away, and were partially prepared for the terrible shock. It is unnecessary to say a host of sympathizing friends surrounded the grief stricken family.

Mort Cornor, who is well known in this place, died at Saginaw Tuesday. He has been working at Pott's Headquarters for some time, and several weeks ago he was attacked with the la grippe. He did not cease work, however, and continued to grow worse, when he finally concluded to give up his position and go to one of the hospitals in Saginaw, which he did about a week ago. Here the disease lead to something more serious, and ended his life on Tuesday. He was brought to the home of his uncle, Thos. Cornor in this place, and was buried in the East Tawas cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral was held in the M. E. church, Rev. C. B. Steele preaching the sermon. Mr. Cornor belonged to the I. O. F., K. O. T. M., the Masonic order, holding insurance policies in each, beside one in another life insurance institution, the name of which we are unable to ascertain. He leaves a wife and two children, surrounded by sympathizing friends, to mourn his loss.

E. L. King, undertaker and funeral director, has a full line of burial goods, constantly on hand.

"A Crazy Lot."

A numerous audience assembled at the Windsor last evening to witness a presentation of the new farcical comedy "A Crazy Lot." The author has been especially happy in his title, as it is typical of the piece. The mainspring of the action of the farce is the effort of the servants of a household to air their abilities on the stage. There is nothing strikingly original in the conception of the piece, which proved to be a conglomeration of oddities and absurdities. The success of the performance depends upon those who participate in the entertainment. The first act dragged a trifle; but the second act a number of specialties were introduced, that were so much better than was anticipated, that the audience showed its appreciation by frequent and hearty applause. The specialties were in fact, among the best that have been here in a long time and included Tyeolean wabbling by George P. Watson, who possesses a fresh and pleasing voice; a performance on stilts by James R. Adams, that has never been equalled here and for which he was encored several times; a clever dialect sketch by Harry Fielding and Maggie Walker, a turn by Nellie Franklyn, who caught the audience in English character songs and dances and an exhibition by the Lenton Brothers, whose acrobatic performance excited a furore. "A Crazy Lot" is really a jolly entertainment and is much more enjoyable than those given by more pretentious companies.—N. Y. World, Nov. 3, 1891.

DEPT.

"A Crazy Lot" will appear in the Opera House Mar. 12. Don't miss.

CORRESPONDENCE

BALCOM'S MILL.

Lumbering institutions, and especially small operators, are having good weather just now, which they are taking good advantage of, and every mill in Reno is swinging full blast with ample stock on hand which will last as long as ice roads can be maintained.

Ladies of the Happy Hill, Mrs. Jesse Nisonger and Mrs. C. A. Balcom, made a shopping tour to Whittemore Wednesday and returned laden down with various articles of value and the full enjoyment of their first sleigh ride this winter.

Mrs. Chas. Griver received a telegram from Bay City last Saturday, announcing the death of a relative, and in company with her mother, Mrs. Wheeler, took the afternoon train for the City to attend the funeral.

C. A. Balcom, who has been sick for some time, is now convalescing, and hopes to soon be able to resume duties again.

C. E. Allen and E. A. Haynes have purchased the Arlington from Mr. Duby of Saginaw, and the same will be conducted by Mr. Wheeler of Bay City.

Speculations are lively for February, as predicted the first of the month, especially spirited horses change hands easily and are in good demand when their happens to be anything "in it." L. D. McCrumb closed last weeks deals by purchasing one Rosinant for himself. The animal is gray, and has many admirers. Several others have been ventured but all are declined and some even with a snarl.

We understand that there has been no definite change in the Siloam post office of late. And brother Anderson continues to hand out the inky messages.

John Sugden's team is said to have hauled the largest load of logs, taken to Soper & Bearinger's roll way this winter.

Wager & Puffer's mill is running on steady time with a good tally and ample log supply.

Balcom's mill is doing a rushing business. Griver has raised the old standard and spears them off while Haynes fairly showers shingles down on the knot sawyers and packers till they get dizzy. J. W. is filling.

RED BIRD.

Redheads Mill.

We skipped last week because our time was given to matters out side, and we had forgotten our correspondence was due until too late to mail.

Mr. Redhead has just completed a deal with H. W. Sage & Co., by which he gets 400 acres of fine hardwood land. The timber will be lumbered immediately, the logs having been purchased by G. H. Chamberlain of Tawas. A crew of 25 men will be added to the present one, and it is expected that work will be crowded along under the efficient management of Alex. St. Mary. Mr. Redhead says that he will make a stock farm of the 400 acres after the timber is taken off. It is well located, sufficiently rolling to insure good pasturage, and is finely watered by springs. We have every reason to believe that the energy and push displayed by Mr. R. will insure success to the enterprise. If anyone deserves success it is J. B.

A leap year dance at the Cook camp, Saturday night. The boys being a little backward, the ladies sailed in and made it an enjoyable entertainment.

The heavy snow bothered them to run the Lima, and the mill shut down one day in consequence. J. B. improvised a snow plow and trailed it over the road once, making a clean track and everything has moved along the same as of old since.

The breaking of the excentric saddle in the drag saw caused that part of the mill to stop for two days. There happened to be bolts enough in the yard to keep the machines going while it was being repaired.

The K. O. T. M.'s held a dance at Thompson the 22d.

Theo. McKee is filling a vacancy on one of the machines until such time as Anker's mill may start.

For the first time since cold weather set in, old grip has let up, and every man around the mill is able to fill his place.

Ed. Stewart had his face pretty badly scalded with steam.

Geo. Bolton is away on a trip to Tawas and Bay City.

BRAD.

Plainfield Pointers.

Stacie Yawger, of Plainfield, has gone to Bay City Creek.

The dance at Mr. Baker's last Tuesday evening was a great success. A splendid time and grand supper.

The dance at the Town Hall Monday, Feb. 22, was well attended.

Mrs. Rosa Gardiner is very low with the grip.

Mr. Airhart's house was almost burned the other night.

Mr. Dean has gone away to hunt a new home in foreign lands.

Quite a number of the boys of Hale are working at Taft.

Mr. Bastler met with a sad accident Tuesday, by having a log roll on him.

READ THIS.

If there is one thing a working man ought to do now it is to provide for himself a home in the shape of a farm of at least forty acres, because he cannot hope much longer to find work in the mills when pine is gone, therefore the chance to get a farm on the following terms ought to be taken by every man who has none. N. C. Hartlough will sell a forty or eighty acres to any good man who will go upon same and settle and clear at least three acres per year and pay interest and taxes, at $5 per acre and give him five years to make first payment. Land near Town-line in sec. 8-21-7, near Railroad in sec. 17-21-6 Sherman. Near Tawas and also at Mills Station, all within from one mile to two miles of Tawas, best land in the County. I have sold eight farms within past month and it should be spoken for quick. Good timber, water and schools.

John VanPatten of East Tawas, has returned from Pontiac, where he has been drafting out plans of a new saw mill for J. E. Potts, which will be erected at Camden, Arkansas, located on the Cotton Belt Route. The dimensions are 54 x 250 ft. with one circular, band and gang.
In order to make room for a new supply of spring shoes, we will sell our present stock of shoes at greatly reduced prices T. Simon.
Sheriff Bradley escorted a young man by the name of August Klaus, aged 19 years to Traverse City insane asylum Monday. He had an attack of the grip, got well, got cold again, a relapse set in, and he became deranged (mentally.) His people live in Au Sable.
The poor unfortunate Gertude Burk to Au Sable, who was sent to the works for 60 days returned Monday, spent one night on our streets and is again of the star borders at the county bastille.
Alfred Bradley of East Tawas boasts of a young son—a 12 pounder at that.
We called to see Tommie Keating today, who was so severely injured in that R. R. accident last summer, and although much improved he looks like a cripple for life.
County Clerk Jahrans and wife, took a sleigh ride to Au Sable Sunday.
Our thaw caught a cold to-day.
Henry Purkiss, of Oscoda made a business trip to this city to-day.

The Detroit Journal has been purchased by Ex-Senator T. W. Palmer and William Livingstone, Jr., and it is announced that no effort or expense will be spared to make it the most complete afternoon newspaper in the west. Mr. Livingstone who assumes the active management of The Journal, is a representative republican whose experience in newspaper work and management covers quite a period of years.
Quite an enthusiastic meeting of our citizens met in the village hall Monday and Tuesday evenings last, and adjourned to Tuesday evening, March 1, when the citizens speak very favorably of organizing a Business Men's Association for the purpose of encouraging industries to locate in our village. Turn out, everybody.
We have been interviewed by men who get logs cut at our villages, and they claim taxes are so high that they cannot afford to put their logs into our mills for manufacture. They state our taxes are 1/2 per cent. higher than in the Saginaw Valley. No wonder our mills don't run over half the time for want of stock.
Our citizens give this matter some thought, and bring the matter before the board at the spring election.
P. O'Brien and lady returned Wednesday from Wood, N. Y., and other points east, where they have been visiting their parents and relatives the past three months.

Citizens and tax payers of Iosco county! Remember that at the spring election you will have a resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors to vote upon, to raise $15,000 for the purpose of opening up roads from our villages to our farming townships in the interior. We would like to hear from some of our tax payers an expression of their opinions, pro and con, Edward Mitchell, of Alabaster, who has charge of the mail and express between the towns, and who has been superintendent of the cooper shops at that place for a number of years, has been called to Chicago to superintend the cooperage business there for the new plaster mill of the Western Plaster Works. His family will remain here for a period.

The Moon and the Weather.

To the Editor: I notice you have a good many queer questions asked and that you take a good deal of pains to answer them. I have one and I do not think you can find the answer in your encyclopedia. It is not in my books.

Can the almanac makers tell us which side of the sun the new moon will set whether north of where the sun sets or south of where the sun sets?

East Tawas, Mich. OBSERVER.

It is an old saying, dating back in the centuries along with scores of similar sayings, founded on a close observation of the moon and other heavenly bodies, by our learned progenitors, that when the moon is to the north of the sun, cold would follow; and vice versa, when on the south warm. "Almanac makers" can easily map out the progress of the moon through the heavens as to its position north or south of the sun for any length of time ahead, as easily as they can determine an eclipse to a second, of time. They may not, however, as readily give the philosophy of the (apparent or real) resulting cold or heat.

Speaker Crisp is at Fortress Monroe, and unless he disobeys the positive orders of his physician he will not return this week, although he said when he left that he would return in time to preside over the house on Wednesday, unless he was too unwell to do so. In his absence no meeting of the committee on Rules can be held to act upon the request of those who signed the petition asking that a date be set for the consideration of the free coinage bill, and, in view of the announcement that the Ways and Means committee would on the first of March call up one of the tariff bills for consideration, the situation is a little embarrassing, and calls for some very fine party management.

It is estimated that not less than six weeks will be required for the debate on the three tariff bills, and as several of the appropriation bill will meanwhile be reported and disposed of, it seems safe to say that it will be May before the final vote is taken on the last one of the tariff bills. Mr. Bland, speaking for the silver democrats, says they will not object to the tariff bills having precedence, if the Committee on Rules will set a day for the consideration of the free coinage bill, but that they will give way to nothing unless such a day is set. He will not hear of the compromise proposition which has been suggested, that an early day in

The superintendent of public instruction, called the attention of Attorney General Ellis to the provisions concerning school taxes in sections 41 and 43 of act 200, public acts of 1901, and gets this truly comforting decision: "The delinquent school taxes may be made good from the state and county tax before the latter is turned over to the township treasurer." This virtually does away with delinquent school taxes and no more schools need be closed for lack of funds if there are any county or state taxes collected. The schools have the inside track.

The people of the different counties composing the 23rd Judicial Circuit are to be congratulated on the fact that they have a man on the bench, in the person of Wm. H. Simpson, who is interested in their welfare to protect them against non-resident land owners and speculators. His decisions in the tax contest cases since he has been on the bench have saved the different counties thousands of dollars that during his predecessors term went into the pockets of outside firms and individuals who have had large holding in these northern counties for lumbering or speculating purposes, and have made him hosts of friends and adherents among the actual settlers. There is not the slightest question but that he will be re-elected in the spring of '93. The only question will be as to how much larger his majority will be than it was in '87. —West Branch Democrat.

GEN. ALGER's war record is receiving great attention just now, by reason of the publication of the fact that Gen. Custer recommended his dishonorable discharge for leaving his command without permission, and that Gen. Sheridan seemed to agree with Custer. There is no doubt but that the attack was made in Harrison's interests, to kill off Alger's chance for the presidential nomination. In no other way could these musty records of the war department become public. The charges will receive no attention from decent men, no matter what their politics. Gen. Alger's friends have often made themselves ridiculous by trying to make their hero appear a second Napoleon, but such senseless praise is more reasonable than the charges that he was a 'slink.' No man who knows Gen. Alger will ever believe that he ever failed to do his duty on the field, no matter what the records of the war department may say.

The pretense that a duty on wool is necessary, to enable farmers to keep sheep with profit has been exploded a hundred times. In 1890 McKinley increased the duty on wool and the next year the clip sold for a diminished price. Free-trade Great Britain and Ireland, with a population of only 37,500,000 and an area in square miles less than one half that of Texas, and in 1888 nearly 30,000,000 sheep. The highly "protected" United States, with a population of 62,000,000 and an unlimited cheap land, had in 1890 but 43,000,000 sheep. England supplies her home market with far better and cheaper domestic clothing than the people of this country are permitted to buy, and exports woollen fabrics to the four quarters of the globe. It is time that this enlightened country should abandon its old delusions and put a stop to oppressive and hurtful taxation. —N. Y. World.

Cleveland in Detroit.

Detroit, Feb. 24.—The Cleveland reception in this city last night was an enthusiastic outpouring, such as this city has never before witnessed. The trains from various parts of the state were crowded all day, beginning early in the morning. The receptions were held in the Hotel Cadillac, beginning at 8 o'clock and at 7 o'clock the streets in every direction were packed with people for many blocks. The decorations in the hotel were elaborate and unique. The reception committee comprised the first citizens of the city without respect to party, including such prominent republicans as Gen. Alger and ex-Senator Palmer. Among those who assisted in the reception were Bishop Davies, Gen. O. M. Poe, Don M. Dickinson, Gov. W. L. Campbell, Gov. V. L. Lothrop, W. E. Quinby, Mayor Pingree and Gen. Parkhurst. Mr. Cleveland was presented with a set of resolutions and the freedom of the city by Acting Mayor Coats.

It is estimated that fully 10,000 men women and children shook hands with the ex-president. So dense was the throng and so great the press that some 30 ladies fainted and one was quite seriously squeezed. The hand-shaking lasted from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Mr. Cleveland left for the east 8 o'clock this morning.

About 75 styles of men's overshirts, consisting of all wool flannels, flannel-ettes, sateens, cashmeres, jerseys and cotton, just received at T. Simon's which he will sell at very low prices.

Enterprising Young Men: True & Co. instructed and started me. I worked steadily and made money faster than I expected to. I became able to buy an island and build a small summer hotel. If I don't succeed in that, I will go to work again at the business in which I made my money. True & Co. shall we instruct and start you, reader? If we do, and if you work industriously, you will in due time be able to buy an island and build a hotel. If you wish to make money, let us show you a new line of work, rapidly and honorably, by those of us who are young or old, and in their own localities, wherever they live. Any one can do the work. Easy terms. We furnish everything. No risk. You can devote your spare moments, or all your time to the work. This entirely new line of business is wonderful success to every worker. Wherever you are, and whatever you are doing, you want to know about this wonderful work at once. Delay means much money lost to you. DEATHS.

Mrs. Delancy Staats, wife of our fellow townsman, J. R. Staats, died at her home in this place Saturday evening, last, Feb. 20, aged 56 years.

Mrs. Staats was born in Wilson Twp., Niagara Co., N. Y., and removed with her parents to Michigan, when she was about a year old. Her maiden name was Delancy Brewer.
When 23 years old, she married Joseph R. Staats. Four children blessed this union—two sons and two daughters, the former both dying in infancy, the latter, Carry and Cora still survive her, with her husband.

Mrs. Staats, during her residence of over 22 years in East Tawas, has been a consistent member of the M.
E. church. To a naturally amiable disposition was added a cheerful religious experience. She was active in all charitable and church work, having labored with the young in Sunday School teaching as long as health permitted. She had been confined quite closely to the house for the last year, and her family and friends had seen her gradually fading away, and were partially prepared for the terrible shock. It is unnecessary to say a host of sympathizing friends surrounded the grief stricken family.

Mort Cornor, who is well known in this place, died at Saginaw Tuesday. He has been working at Pott's Headquarters for some time, and several weeks ago he was attacked with the la grippe. He did not cease work, however, and continued to grow worse, when he finally concluded to give up his position and go to one of the hospitals in Saginaw, which he did about a week ago. Here the disease lead to something more serious, and ended his life on Tuesday. He was brought to the home of his uncle, Thos. Cor-nor in this place, and was buried in the East Tawas cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral was held in the M. E. church, Rev. C. B. Steele preaching the sermon. Mr. Cornor belonged to the I. O. F., K. O. T. M., the Masonic order, holding insurance policies in each, beside one in another life insurance institution, the name of which we are unable to ascertain. He leaves a wife and two children, surrounded by sympathizing friends, to mourn his loss.

E. L. King, undertaker and funeral director, has a full line of burial goods, constantly on hand.

"A Crazy Lot!"

A numerous audience assembled at the Windsor last evening to witness a presentation of the new farcical comedy "A Crazy Lot." The author has been especially happy in his title, as it is typical of the piece.
The mainspring of the action of the farce is the effort of the servants of a household to air their abilities on the stage. There is nothing strikingly original in the conception of the piece, which proved to be a conglomeration of oddities and absurdities. The success of the performance depends upon those who participate in the entertainment. The first act dragged a trifle; but the second act a number of specialties were introduced, that were so much better than was anticipated, that the audience showed its appreciation by frequent and hearty applause. The specialties were in fact, among the best that have been here in a long time and included Tyeolean wabbling by George P. Watson, who possesses a fresh and pleasing voice; a performance of stilt by James R. Adams, that has never been equalled here and for which he was encored several times a clever dialect sketch

by Harry Fielding and Maggie Walker, a run by Nellie Franklyn, who caught the audience in English character song and dances and an exhibition by the Lenton Brothers, whose acrobatic performance excited a furore. "A Crazy Lot" is really a jolly entertainment and is much more enjoyable in those given by more pretentious companies.—N. Y.
World, Nov. 3, 1911.
"A Crazy Lot" will appear in the Opera House March. Don't miss.
