The reason why the 4th. of March is the day on which our Presidents are always inaugurated is that congress appointed the first Wednesday in November, 1789, for the people to choose electors; the first Wednesday in February for those electors to choose a President and the first Wednesday in March tle-one dark gray Colt, 11 years for the government to go into operation. The last named day, in 1789 fell on the 4th. of March; hence the 4th. of March following the election of a President, is the day appointed for his inauguration.
