The meeting was called to order by Mr. Henry, who stated in his usual eloquent manner the object of the meeting. A. F. Zeiter was elected secretary. A resolution was passed calling for the closing of all saloons on election day, and many other important questions were discussed. Remarks were made by a number of those present. The good result of this meeting is very apparent as shown by the vote throughout the county on Monday last. The democrats of Iosco county have every reason to feel proud of their victory, and to none is more credit due than Mr. Henry.

RUNNING A HOTEL.
How a Society Woman Was Forced Into a Working Position.
There is a well-known society woman in Buffalo—one feels like apologizing for that term, but what else can one say of a woman who really is widely known as one of the most delightful women that has ever graced American society?—who has just taken the housekeeper's charge of a hotel. It happened in this way: One of the best-known hotels in this city belongs to the family estate, and, although in the hands of a proprietor, receives the general oversight of the owners. A few days ago hasty word was sent up to the home of the family, early in the morning, that the proprietor had decamped in the night, and, worse yet, had carried all the provender with him. There were two hundred guests in the house who would have to be fed, and somebody would have to take the helm immediately. Now, this very charming woman had taken the helm of many enterprises before, but never one of just this magnitude. Down to the hotel she marched, however, went into consultation with the steward, gave him an order on the grocery stores for the necessary articles of food, and when the first guest came down to his breakfast he never suspected that it had been set before him through the efficiency of one of the most prominent women in Buffalo society. No one else appeared to take up the household management of the hostelry. This woman had the leisure of the unmarried woman, and so she has gone on with the work. What before was the duty of the proprietor—the general management of affairs—now falls upon her. While she does not expect to take up hotel-keeping as a profession, she is still at it, and successfully at it, and the Buffalonians are all flocking to the hotel to eat dainty viands that are set forth with one of their most delightful women as caterer.—N. Y. Evening Sun.
HE WAS SAT UPON.
And So Was Bobby After Mr. Millikin Had Departed.
"I don't altogether like this young man Millikin, who comes to see you so often. I hear he is nothing but a poor clerk," is what the head of the family said to his daughter one day at the dinner table.
"He is a very nice young gentleman," replied the daughter; "besides, he is something more than a poor clerk. He gets a large salary, and is manager of one of the departments, and expects some day to have an interest in the business."
"I hope he may," responded the old man; "but he strikes me as a very flippant, impertinent young person, who in my opinion should be sat down upon."
"Well, I have invited him to take tea with us this evening," said the daughter, "and I hope you will treat him politely, at least. You will find him a very different person from what you supposed him to be."
"Oh, I'll treat him polite enough," he said.
That evening Mr. Millikin appeared at tea and made a most favorable impression upon the old gentleman.
"He is a clever young fellow, after all," he thought. "I have done him an injustice."
It was just here that Bobby spoke out. Bobby was a well meaning little boy, but too talkative.
"Papa," he ventured, "you know what you said to-day at dinner about Mr. Millikin, that he was an impertinent young man, and ought to be sat upon—"
"Silence, sir!" shouted the father, swallowing a mouthful of hot potato.
But the boy wouldn't be silent. "It's all right," he continued, confidentially, in a whisper loud enough to be heard out of doors. "he has been sat upon. Sister sat down on him last night for two hours."
After this tea went on more quietly, owing to Bobby's sudden and very jerky departure.—Jury.

LLOYD BREZEE, the well known Michigan newspaper man died in Chicago Sunday.

It is amusing to hear some of the republican organs sputter about President Cleveland's foreign appointments. It is safe to predict that if he makes any as bad appointments as Mr. Harrison's appointment of Egan, he will not be long in recalling them.

THE Oscoda Press will please take notice that those large majorities that it predicted last week for Mr. Connine, from all parts of the circuit, failed to materialize. Probably a March wind caught them and carried them out into the lake.

Who said Secretary Hbke Smith was controlled by the big railroad corporations? His first land decision was against the Southern Pacific railroad, and will throw open to settlement thousands of acres of desirable land. Score one for the democratic administration.

THE voters of the 23d judicial circuit showed by their votes last Monday that they were in favor of non-partisan judicial elections. Judge Simpson had made a fair and impartial judge and they went to the polls and helped to re-elect him regardless of their party belief. That they made no error goes without saying.

The First Ambassador to England.

The mission to England being, for reasons of all sorts, political, social, commercial and linguistic, the most important and most attractive of all our diplomatic appointments, there is always twice or three times as much public interest in the filling of it as in that of any other. Consequently there will be a general feeling of satisfaction, which—considering what strange things sometimes happen in our diplomatic service—might almost be called a feeling of relief, on hearing of Mr. Bayard's selection for the place. His professional equipment is of the very best, for besides his long service in the senate, he has had the benefit of four years' experience as Secretary of State, during which his management of our foreign relations was both dignified and prudent, efficient and law-abiding, and upheld worthily the traditions of Webster, and Marcy, and Seward, and Fish, and Evarts, and Fielinghuysen. He has too, the great advantage of being a sound lawyer; the importance of which qualification was unhappily brought out by his successor's want of it. Mr Bayard's social equipment, which is of more importance in England than elsewhere, we need not insist on. If he is not as brilliant an after-dinner speaker as Mr. Lowell or Mr. Phelps, he has always lived in good company, and among men of education can always give a good account of himself, and in the matter of personal character, which in these days needs mention, occupies a place which never calls for explanation or apology. He in fact, will worthily fill the place of our first Ambassador to England, even if the title possess the enormous importance which some of our jurists attribute to it.—New York Evening Post.

THE ELECTION!

Judge Simpson carries every County in the Circuit.

Iosco County gives a Democratic Majority for the State Ticket.

Rev. A. C. Kay Elected School Commissioner by a Good Majority.

THE STATE GOES REPUBLICAN.

Last Monday's election passed off very quietly, a light vote being polled. The state gives a republican majority, electing Frank A. Hooker justice of the supreme court by about 10,000 plurality. The republican regents have about the same. The probabilities are that constitutional amendments have all been carried. The populists and and prohibitionists polled a very light vote throughout the state.

Notwithstanding the bitter fight made by Mr. Connine and his friends against the re-election of as judge of the twenty-third judicial circuit, he was again triumphantly elected by a majority of over 500, carrying every county in the circuit by good majorities. The following is the estimated majorities from the various counties of the circuit, and are as near correct as can be secured at this time:

Iosco.....	275
Alcona.....	100
Crawford.....	50
Ogemaw.....	125
Oscoda.....	40

This gives Judge Simpson a majority of 590. The official count will not change the above figures a great deal either way.

IOSCO COUNTY.

The democrats of Iosco county have every reason to feel proud of their splendid victory. We have been unable to secure the full returns from all townships, but those received indicate that they have carried the county by a good majority for the state ticket. Returns so far as received indicate that

ALEXANDER C. KAY.

Has been elected school commissioner by about two hundred and fifty majority. This is a selection that the people of Iosco county are to be congratulated upon.

The following are the returns by townships so far as we have been able to get up to the time of going to press:

TAWAS

Township did nobely, 439 votes were cast, divided as follows: democratic, 208; republican, 173; populists, 10 and prohibitionist 9. Judge Simpson carries the township by 99, and A. C. Kay for school commissioner by 97. The voters express their gratitude to Michael Murphy for the able manner in which he has conducted the affairs of the supervisor's office during the past year, by re-electing him by 71 majority. The vote on the amendments was light, but gave a majority in favor of all. The democratic ticket was elected except Mount for treasurer and Halsey and Cornville for justices, by the following majorities:

Jus. Sup. Court—Durand	16
Regent—Harmond	21
Regent—Bunker	19
Circuit Judge—Simpson	90
School Com. Kay	97
Supervisor—M. Murphy.	71
Clerk—A. F. Zeiter	12

The Duty on Coal.

One of our contemporaries in Philadelphia points out that the quantity of bituminous coal exported from that port has increased from 73,178 tons in 1887 and 134, 166 tons in 1888 to 402,477 tons in 1892. This is the coal which should be protected, our high-tariff friends in Pennsylvania say, by the existing duty of seventy-five cents a ton.
They can sell it in the West Indies and South America in open competition with the coal of foreign countries, sending out even 400,000 tons in one year, but they would have us believe that they cannot compete with the same coal of foreign countries here at home without the aid of this duty of seventy-five cents.
The revised tariff should contain no duty whatever on coal.—New York Times.

HOW I EARNED
ISLAND.

Enterprising Young Man: True & Co. instructed and started me. I worked steadily and made money faster than I expected to. I became able to buy an island and build a small summer hotel. If I don't succeed in that, I will go to work again at the business in which I made my money.
True & Co. shall be instructed and start you, reader?
If we do, and if you work industriously, you will in due time be able to buy an island and build a hotel, if you wish to. Money can be earned at our new line of work, rapidly and honorably, by those of either sex, young or old, and in their own localities, wherever they live. Any one can do the work. Easy to learn. We furnish everything. No risk. You can devote your spare moments, or all your time to the work. This entirely new line brings wonderful success to every worker. Beginners are earning from $25 to $250 per week and upwards, and more after a little experience. We can furnish you the employment—we teach you FREE. This is an age of marvelous things, and here is another great, useful, wealth-giving wonder. Great pains will reward every industrious worker. Whenever you are and whatever you are doing, you want to know about this wonderful work at once. Delay means much money lost to you. No space to explain here, but if you will write to us we will make all plain to you FREE. Address:
TRUE & CO., Box 400, Augusta, Maine
