Emanuel church this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock. The parents have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends in their sad affliction.

The Romeo Observer says a preacher in a neighboring district is responsible for the statement that God made the earth in six days and then rested. Later on he made man and rested. Then he made woman, and said the preacher, in tremulous accent, "since that time neither God nor man have had a rest".

Some student of human nature has figured out the following; Under the new game law, book agents may be killed from August 1 to October 1; spring poets from March 1 to July 1; scandal mongers, January 1 to December 31 inclusive; umbrella borrowers from February 1 to May 1. Open season all the year around on life insurance agents and men who will not subscribe for their home newspapers.

Now is the time when the close and careful buyer more than ever scans the advertisements in the newspapers before going to make purchases. And the merchant who has something to offer at satisfactory prices which people want, is sure to reap the benefit of judicious advertising.

During the huckleberry season M. Murphy purchased 2,436 bushels of berries for which he paid $3,165.78. This amount distributed among our citizens and farmers has been a great help during the hard-times. While Mike has lost money on some shipments, on the whole he will be about $300 ahead.

Miss Edith Walker, of this village has been engaged to teach one of the departments of the East Tawas school the coming year. She commenced her duties Wednesday morning. Miss Walker is a teacher of considerable experience and good ability, and many of our citizens regret that our school board failed to employ her in our schools.

School opened Monday in all its branches. Saturday evening the board received a telegram from Prof. Birkhead that he was unable to accept the position of principal. The board immediately telegraphed Prof. Clark, of Sand Beach, who arrived on the City of Mackinaw, Sunday afternoon and took charge of the school Monday. The trouble regarding our schools which has been the all absorbing topic for the past two weeks, is much to be regretted, as it can not help but to work injury to our school. Whether Prof. McDonald or the school board are wrong the HERALD is not prepared to say, and we propose to take no sides in the matter whatever. For the good of the school, however, is the duty of both parents and pupils to use their best endeavors to make it a success, and not allow petty jealousy to warp their better judgement.

SHORT crops in Europe this year will put considerable European gold in the pockets of American farmers, and it could not be put in a better place.

THE professional agitator threatens to do the wage-earners in the large cities more harm than the financial stringency can possibly do them.

A LITTLE politics, of the right kind, might prove advantageous to the country and to the democratic party, if injected into Senatorial financial legislation.

JUDGING from the tune of some of our exchanges, the republicans of New York really intend to take part in a State campaign this fall. Just why is not apparent.

THE Chicago banks scored a point on New York when they declined to cash drafts on New York, except at a discount equal to the currency premium prevalent in New York.

The present forced economy among the people will pave the way for the economy in public expenditures that the democratic Congress and administration are expected to introduce.

SOME people say that wheat is so cheap because we have produced more than there is demand for. Yet, there are, according to their newspapers, many hungry people in our large cities.

No democrat should join the mugwumps in abusing Senator Hill; he has done nothing to deserve abuse, and no more patriotic words have been heard in Congress than those spoken by him in the Senate, on the financial situation.

WHAT does Secretary Herbert suppose that the Carnegie Steel Company want with a naval officer for its Washington agent, if that officer is to be denied access to the inside workings of the Navy department? The Secretary evidently is not in touch with Carnegie.

ONE need not necessarily endorse the action of the House to give deserved credit to its members or the spirit shown in the silver debate. Fairness and good nature prevailed from start to finish, and the example should not be lost on the Senate.

AUDACITY can go no further than republican editors carry it when they call these "Cleveland hard times". The country is but paying the penalty for a long series of vicious republican legislation, and it is to President Cleveland and a democratic Congress that it looks for deliverance.

THE practice of the pensioners Bureau that Secretary Smith has changed in the interest of the old soldiers was established twenty years ago, so that he is doing more for them than did the Republican lawmakers in the time so nearly succeeding the termination of the war.—Free Press.

In arresting some of the loudest-mouthed anarchists the New York police officials have only done what could have been done long ago. The freedom of speech given by our constitution empowers no man or woman to openly advise weak-minded people to break the laws of both man and man.

ORDING to recent official reports of the national banks suspended this year have all resumed business. This shows that it was not so much inherent weakness as it was the previousness of thoughtless depositors which hung them up for awhile.—Muskegon Chronicle.

It is easy enough to find fault with Congress for not reaching an immediate agreement on the financial question, but if you will take the trouble to attempt to harmonize the financial views of a dozen men of your acquaintance you will get an idea of the work that is being done by democrats in Congress.

THE court is the proper place to settle the legality of the action of the Pension Bureau in suspending pensioners, but republican stump speakers cannot be made in court and circulated through the mail under a Congressman's Frank; that's why the case will be heard in Congress before it gets to the courts, if it ever does.

HOWEVER true Judge Lochran's accusation against Congressman Morse, of Massachusetts, might have been the Judge was a little injudicious in the choice of Language when he wrote that Morse was an ill-informed demagogue with a capacity for wilful and malignant lying. The Judge evidently believes in calling a spade a spade.

THE Livingston Republican asks "If fear of tariff reform has almost ruined the country what will the reform itself do?" Why it will strip the rags off from the Republican scarecrow and stop the mouths of the blatherskites who are trying to divert public attention from their own stealing by crying "stop thief!" Your industrious "calamity shrieking" will work a little bit now, esteemed contemporary, but you'll be out of a job then.—Pontiac Post.

ONE bill before congress for relieving the financial stringency we believe has merit. It provides that any one having bonds of the United States may deposit them with the treasury of the United States and receive in exchange legal treasury notes to the amount of the par value of the bonds, and that the bonds shall be registered in the name of the person or corporation depositing them. Also providing that the notes may be returned to the treasury and the bonds again taken by their former owner; the interest on the bonds to cease when they are in the hands of the treasury. It is believed that his plan would provide a simple method of increasing the currency in times of stringency and an equally simple method of retaining currency when it was no longer in demand. An increase in the issue of legal tenders would be necessary, and the amount could be limited by the law so as to prevent an undue inflation.—Time Press.

Then and Now.

Washington, March 4, 1889.—Outgoing Grover Cleveland to incoming Benjamin Harrison: "I have the honor to transfer to you all government affairs which I have had in hand during the past four years. They are all in first class condition, with over $100,000,000 in the treasury for contingencies. All sections of the country are prosperous, and the people are correspondingly happy and contented."

Washington, March 4, 1893.—Outgoing Benjamin Harrison to incoming Grover Cleveland: "I have the honor to return to you all government affairs transferred by you to me four years ago. They are in anything but first class condition and the treasury is empty—the $100,000,000 and over having gone up the spout. All sections of the country are discontented and unhappy; labor strikes are common in every direction; mills, mines and other industries are closing down, and there is a panicky and despondent feeling everywhere. I have been to yielding to party behests, and signed when I should have vetoed. Take the great responsibilities, call an extra session of congress to undo bad legislation of republican congress, and God help you."—Ex.

Another Case of Sick Devil.

The immaculate Detroit Journal gently chirrup:

What is the best for the country? is a question which the republican party has always answered conscientiously and to the best of its ability.

tiously and to the best of its ability.

This is the joyous and appreciative way a pharisee talks about the pharisees' party.

The claim that the republican party has always acted conscientiously in dealing with large questions is a piece of superlative effrontery. Did it thus act when it put in the McKinley bill the tax schedules—word for word and figure for figure—which had been carefully prepared by the eastern manufacturers and mine owners for the express purpose of giving them additional power to "punch" the people?

Was it conscientious motives when it increased the national expenditures to the billion dollar mark?

Was it conscientiousness that led it to pass the Sherman law as a stop to the rising Populist sentiment in the west.

Was it acting to the "best of its ability" when it filibustered against the Democratic attempt in the last Congress to repeal the Sherman law after the ruinous effects of the latter enactment had become plainly observable.

And is there any reason to believe that it will act with any conscientiousness in the present emergency, when its leader in the senate, the great and good John Sherman, explains his position in these words: "The people have called upon the present administration to handle these questions, and I have no advice to offer."

That states the position of the hypocritical "grand old party." It is incapable of high and disinterested action. It is always playing for political "points." It has never had a thought above its own partisan interests. It is confessedly the greatest "people be-d" organization that ever rose to prominence in any country making any pretension to observing the forms of free government.

It is because it had proved itself utterly destitute of all conscientiousness that the republican party was everywhere so overwhelmingly beaten and repudiated last November. It is simply essaying the role of the sick devil now.—Lansing Journal.

Signs Of Improvements.

The vast improvements in the condition of the New Yorks banks is shown by a comparison of figures. August 2 the deficiency in their reserve was $19,545,375. September 2 the deficiency was $1,367,525, a gain of more than $15,000,000. There has been an importation of gold during the past month amounting to $45,000,000. At the same time there has been a market cessation of purchases abroad. During the past week the imports at New York reached only $7,500,000. A few months ago they reached nearly twice as much per week. The New York World says: "Money is really plentiful and is to be had on easy terms. A high rate is no longer paid at Philadelphia, Boston and the west for exchange on New York. The tariff in currency and gold, moreover, has about come to an end. The drain on the savings banks has been checked. No better proof of this is to be had than in the number of deposits returned and the extensive cancellation during the past week of notices of withdrawal at all of the institutions of savings."—Times Press.

Attention

In time to any irregularity of the Stomach, Liver, or Bowels may prevent serious consequences.

Indigestion, costiveness, headache, nausea, biliousness, and vertigo indicate certain functional derangements, the best remedy for which is Ayer's Pills. Purely vegetable, sugar-coated, easy to take and quick to assimilate, this is the ideal family medicine—the most popular, safe, and useful aperient in pharmacy. Mrs. M. A. BROCKWELL, Harris, Tenn., says:

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills cured me of sick headache and my husband of neuralgia. We think there is

and have induced many to use it.

"Thirty-five years ago this Spring, I was run down by hard work and a succession of colds, which made me so feeble that it was an effort for me to walk. I consulted the doctors, but kept sinking lower until I had given up all hope of ever being better. Happening to be in a store, one day, where medicines were sold, the proprietor noticed my weak and sickly appearance, and, after a few questions as to my health, recommended me to try Ayer's Pills. I had little faith in these or any other medicine, but, at last, to take his advice and try it. Before I had used them all, I was very much better, and two boxes cured me. I am now 80 years old; but I believe that if it had not been for Ayer's Pills, I should have been in my grave long ago. I buy 6 boxes every year, which make 240 boxes up to this time, and I would no more be without them than without bread."—H. H. Ingraham, Rockland, Me.

Miss Mary Bell Hanlon has returned home from East Tawas, where she has been visiting friends for the last week or two.

Mrs. Luther McCoy, of East Tawas, who has been here on an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilson, left for her home.

Maurice McCassey can claim the best yield in this locality, from the facts that he thrashed something over 600 bushels of grain, wheat, barley, peas, rye and oats.

Abraham Scotts' new block is rapidly nearing completion, when completed it will give a prosperous appearance to our thriving burg in so close proximity to depot.

Mrs. Peter McDonald, of West Superior, Wis., is here now en route for her home from Western Ontario, where she has been on an extended visit with relatives.

William Wissmer, who was accidentally shot at Whittemore a few weeks ago, has recovered so as to be able to walk around. He is here visiting with relatives and friends, the guest of his brother Amber.

Miss Maggie Black, an estimable young lady, of Maple Ridge, was united in marriage on Wednesday the 23th ult. to Rev. Mr. Nicholas, of Philadelphia, a pastor of one of the Presbyterian churches in the named city. Rev. Mr.

Rofs, of Detroit, officiating in performing the ceremony. Only a few intimate friends were present on the occasion. The bride was a recipient of presents, which were costly and numerous. The happy couple took their departure by the noon train here Wednesday for their future home in Philadelphia, with the best wishes of everybody.

BONAFIDE.

Whittemore News.

Rev. L. Wigle of Au Gres is in town.

Ed. Williams has returned from Canada.

Dr. Wakeman a former resident of Whittemore has been in town for a few days on business.

Our school commenced last Monday under the tutor ship of Mr. John Campbell. A young man of energy and ability and who resides among us. The new school bell has been hung in its place and it can be heard in all parts of the village. There is a large attendance of scholars, and the term promises to be one of success and profit.

The Methodist church was dedicated last Monday by Presiding Elder Caster assisted by Rev's Wigle and Fee. There was a large congregation and all seemed much pleased to know that the debt on the church which has hung over it so long has at last been wiped out. There was one candidate for Baptism which act Elder Caster performed by sprinkling.

The saw and shingle mill of A. H. Wiltzie caught fire last Friday and was burned to the ground. It caught from the fire room while the men were at dinner and every thing being very dry and the wind blowing hard it was rapidly consumed and in half an hour it was entirely destroyed. The boiler burst and was thrown several feet from its place. A large piece of it alighting in a neighboring dooryard, but doing no harm. This is the third time Mr. Wiltzie has been burned out and he will probably not rebuild.

If a Democrat official should ever undertake to please the average Republican editor, he should commence by committing suicide. A few weeks ago when the Associated Press dispatches announced that the President had gone to Buzzards Bay for needed rest, they editorially wrote: "There is no use in denying the fact. Grover Cleveland is a very sick man and will probably never return to the White House". A day or two later when the wires told of the President going down the bay fishing, they scolded; "What a spectacle! The President of the United States going a-fishing when he should be in Washington attending to his duties". Then they printed a fake about an operation for cancer, and repeated their assertion that Grover Cleveland was a very sick man. Now comes the Grand Rapids Herald with "Rugged in constitutional, lusty with health, and overflowing with animal vigor, he is again at his post. He ought to have been there all this month." To read their scoldings one would infer that they had forgotten how President Harrison went duck hunting and shot a farmer's hog.—Free Press.

Good Intentions.

It is of unspeakable advantage to possess our minds with an habitual good intention, and to aim all our thoughts, words, and actions, at some laudable end, whether it be to the glory of our Maker, the good of mankind, or the benefit of our souls. A person who is possessed with such an habitual good intention enters upon no single circumstance of life without considering it as well-pleased to the Author of his being, comfortable to the dictates of his reason, suitable to human nature in general, or to that particular station in which providence has placed him. He lives in a perpetual sense of the divine presence, regards himself as acting, in the whole course of his existence, under the observation and inspection of that Being who is privy to all his motions, and all his thoughts, who knows his "down-sitting and his uprising, who is about his path and about his bed, and spieth out all his ways." In a word, he remembers that the eye of his Judge is always upon him; and in every action, he reflects that he is doing what is commanded or allowed Him who will hereafter either reward or punish.—Addison.

To the World's Fair.

THE FLINT & PERE MARQUETTE RAIL AND WATER LINES offer the public a way to reach Chicago, that for comfort, far surpasses the all rail lines, to say nothing of the difference of fare in its favor, an item well worthy of consideration.

Passengers are landed in Chicago in the morning after a night's refreshing and invigorating rest in a commodious state room on a first-class steamship. The experienced traveler need not be told of the advantages of a rail and boat route, for summer travel, over the all rail route with its crowded, dusty sleeping cars, and very little thought on the part of the inexperienced, will convince him of the same. Ask your local ticket agent for rates and time of trains.

Neighboring Notes.

The State Library association meets in Grand Rapids Sept. 20 and 21.

Dave Stephens has closed his meat-market in Au Sable and will move to Croswell, Sanlac county.

A 10 per cent reduction has been ordered on the Detroit, Bay City and Alpena railroad, effecting all hands receiving more than $1.25 per day.

The Alpena quarantine against Presque Isle diphtheria has been raised. The cases in that county are now guarded and health regulations established.

Baldness is either hereditary or caused by sickness, mental exhaustion, wearing tight-fitting hats, and over work and trouble. Hall's Renewer will prove it.

The Michigan Central depot at Bay City was broken into Saturday night and two boxes of smoking tobacco and a box containing five pairs of ladies' shoes were stolen.

The store of John G. Berry at Vanderbit was entered by burglars one day last week and a hole drilled in the safe. That is as far as the burglars got, being evidently scared away.

A. W. Jahraus has sold out his cigar business to H. W. and Geo. F. Venners. Mr. Jahraus will remove with his family to Travers City, where he will go into business.—The Press.

The annual meeting of the Alpena Baptist association will take place at the Baptist church on the 11th of this month. The association comprises the Baptist churches of Alpena, Iosco and Alcona.

H. G. Beach, hardware merchant of Alpena, made an assignment last Saturday—secured liabilities, $7,500; unsecured, $5,000. Assets: Stock, $6,000; accounts, $3,000, about one-half collectible.

Many of the judges throughout the state hold that the law passed by the last legislature, and just taking effect, given magistrates the power to send drunken offenders to a jail cure establishment is unconstitutional and will not pass any sentence under the law.

In all that goes to strengthen and build up the system weakened by disease and pain, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the superior medicine. It neutralizes the poisons left in the system after diphtheria and scarlet fever, and restores the debilitated patient to perfect health and vigor.

A fire started Tuesday afternoon in the drill house of the G. S. & F. L. Co.'s salt block. The fire quickly ran to the top of the drill house, but the fire department had it under control in a very few minutes after the alarm was given. The damage was perhaps $50 to $75.—The Press.

Senator Stockbridge has introduced a bill for the relief of Thos. Chambers, of Mackinac Island. Chambers was a mail contractor and was compelled by a change of routes to carry much more mail than could possibly have been anticipated when he took the contract. The bill for his relief passed the Senate, but failed in House.

The amount of work done by the railway mail clerk on the Alpena and Alger route, is large, and the Argus has found out that on a recent trip C. C. Whitney handled and sorted 260 packages of letters on the down trip, and 135 on the up trip. The packages average about sixty letters each, making 23,000 letters. There were also twenty-one sacks of papers.

A lovesick swain stood at the railing in the police station last evening. The girl was not yet 20 and her lover was much older but knew only little more. Her brother complained that the lover wanted his sister to go and live with him and he objected. The trio left the station house together. The lover had a strong hold on his girl so she could not slip up on a banana peel.—Bay City Times Press.

As incredulous as it may seem, Oscoda has a new industry. Fred Welsh's woolen factory started up Wednesday. The loom, manipulated by Fred, was quite a novel sight in Oscoda, and the spectators were numerous all day. Quite a nice looking quality of woolen cloth was being woven the first day. Fred's brother-in-law came over from Germany to operate the loom. Another loom will be put into operation soon.—Press.

According to the bills recently filed with County Clerk Smith, the total cost incurred by Alpena county in prosecuting the Molitor murder cases is $5,882.86. This, however, does not include Attorney McNamara's fees for assisting in prosecuting the cases, which amounts to $1,650 more. The total amount which Presque Isle county will be obliged to pay since the commencement of the cases is computed to be about $10,000.00.—[Rogers City Advance,

The Echo, of Alpena says that the Alpena Cedar company has already started about 25 camps, which employ from 10 to 15 men each. They are engaged at present in picking up fallen timber which will be made up before snow falls.

The great sea serpent that escaped from Chicago some time ago, has left Port Austin and swam clear back to Traverse City during the past few days. He throws water to the high of 50 or 60 feet, so they say, and scares swimmers out of their wits.—Evening News.

In March Mrs. Michael Murphy, of McKinley, visited Mrs. Elizabeth Coffield of this place. Mrs. Coffield later accused Mrs. Murphy of having stolen while there a $100 bill. Mrs. Murphy has made complaint before Justice Dietz, charging Mrs. Coffield with slander. The case was set for Monday of this week, but was adjourned over on account of the sickness of Mrs. Murphy. Mr. James McNamara of Alpena, has been retained to defend the case, by reason of some arrangement made with M. J. Connine, Prosecuting Attorney.—Monitor.

Three schools in Saginaw on the east side were closed Tuesday morning, and when the pupils arrived they found the police in charge. The trouble is between the board of health and the board of school inspectors, the former board claiming that the dry closet system is dangerous to the public health, and that the school board does not intend to carry out its agreement to remove the offensive system. The board of health got an opinion from the city attorney on which the chief of police acted. The school board will probably take out a temporary injunction restraining the board of health from closing the schools and will reopen pending a decision.

Last winter Green Pack, of Alpena, appeared before the House committee on corporations, and asked for a favorable report on a new charter for that city. The city is democratic. The proposed charter was so palapably constructed for a purpose Chairman Hammond inquired its object? "To give us control of the council," replied Mr. Pack. By a ridiculous gerrymander the charter proposed to create a few big democrat wards, and a larger number of small Republican wards. The reply disgusted Mr. Hammond, but that kind of work was what the late Legislature was there for, and the hump-backed charter went through. The Democracy of Alpena held a meeting last Thursday and decided to move right along under the old charter, and let the Republicans keep their monstrosity to look at.—Free Press.

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

SKOOKUM ROOT HAIR GROWER

Is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither minerals nor oils. It is not a Dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing Tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads. Keep the scalp clean, healthy and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Skin Soap. It destroys parasitic insects, which feed on and destroy the hair. If your druggist cannot supply you, send direct to us, and we will forward prepaid, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 6 for $5.00. Soap, 50c per jar; 6 for $2.50.
