Rev. Schermerhorn's subjects for next Sunday will be: Morning—"Gods readiness to give when asked in sincerity." Evening—"A trouble conscience or sleepless night of a King."

The Epworth League of this village is experiencing a very pleasing growth both in the interest manifested and membership. At its meeting Tuesday evening fifteen new members were admitted.

Odillon Grice has commenced the erection of a neat, new blacksmith shop on Lake street, opposite Simon's store. The building will be 24x50 feet, and one story high. George Shaw is doing the building.

Commencing with this week the Detroit Evening News and Evening Journal each advanced the price of their paper from one to two cents a copy, and also enlarged their sheets to eight instead of four pages.

If you wish to secure a certain and speedy result, when using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, be careful in observing the rules of health, or the benefit may be retarded. A fair and persistent trial of this medicine never fails, when the directions are followed.

Sparrows are again multiplying rapidly, especially in the country, since the law went into effect prohibiting the killing from April 1 to November 1. A bounty of three cents may be paid for each one of the little pests killed between November 1 and April 1.

Prof. F. Gilch, one of the best known scientific opticians in the state is treating patients in the Tawasess. All who are troubled with their eyes should see him before he leaves. You can find him at the Holland hotel in East Tawas, or at Mrs. Conover's in Tawas City.

Don't commit suicide on account of your "incurable" blood disease. The sensible thing for you to do is to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If that fails, why, then—keep on trying, and it will not fail. The trouble is, people get discouraged too soon. "Try, try, try again."

The German Aid Society, of Alpena, will on next Sunday throw their grounds and building open to the excursionists. The celebrated Germania band will give a sacred concert during the afternoon. This will give all those taking in the excursion a very pleasing entertainment.

Last Tuesday morning Martin Heath, who lives near the mouth of the river, picked up a bottle on the beach, in which was a note evidently written on board some boat in distress, but as there was neither the name of the writer or the boat it was impossible to know from whence it came.

Rev. R. Woodhams, presiding elder of the Bay City District, will preach in the M. E. church Sunday morning and administer the "Sacrament of the Lords Supper." The usual services in the evening. The quarterly Conference of the society will meet on Saturday Oct. 21st, at 7 o'clock sharp, in the church.

Mrs. Carrie Rhodes wishes to announce that she has moved her stock from the postoffice building to the Schlegler house, on the bay shore. She will close the entire stock out cheap, with the exception of the magazine and book trade which she will continue. She will deliver all books and magazines to regular customers.

Tuesday, Oct., 31, Sheriff Cox, will offer for sale the three engines and a quantity of coal, belonging to the D. B. C. & A. R. R. Co. which has been seized to satisfy the judgement of Thomas Keating against said company.

We invite our farmer friends to call at this office and get a copy of the "American Farmer and Farm News." It is one of the most progressive farm journals published in the United States, and contains many useful hints that is of great value to the farmer and stockmen.

The business man who gets his printing done elsewhere need not grumble if the home newspaper does not notice him when he thinks it ought to. The man who thus denies his support to one of the best means for the advancement of his own interests and the place in which he lives, is like the man who was said to have cut off his nose to spite his face.—Ex.

This is the season of the year when the busy housewife spends four hours and fifty-five minutes each afternoon and evening wrapping all the old sheets and newspapers in the house about 87 cents worth of plants. She keeps this thing up for about six weeks, and just as she makes up her mind to save the precious things, the covering drop of some frosty night and they are frozen stiff.

Harry Laird, of Reno township, was in town the fore part of the week. Mr. Laird informs us that he had tried five different varieties of corn this year, all of which ripened, and yielded an excellent crop. Five acres of yellow dent corn yielded 100 bushels per acre. Mr. Laird has sown forty-five acres of fall wheat and will put in a large amount of crops next spring. He has proven that by practical farming, Iosco county can complete with any country in the state.

As will be seen elsewhere the well and favorably known expert optician Prof. R. B. Emmons, has opened optical parlors at the Strong House East Tawas. Where he will be in readiness for the next two weeks to promptly attend to all who may be suffering of defective vision. He has a trunk full of recommendations from his patrons in other places, and our readers can rest assured of careful honorable and skillful treatment from him. To all who are in need of the services of an expert oculist and optician we would advise them to make an early call on the professor at the Strong House. And have their eyes tested free of charge.

Next Sunday an excursion will be run from this place to Alpena. This will afford all who wish to visit friends at Alpena and to have a pleasant time, a grand opportunity to do so. The German Aid Society of that city will throw their grounds open, and the celebrated Germania band will discourse sacred music during the afternoon. The train will leave Tawas City at 6:50 a. m. and East Tawas at 7 o'clock a. m. Fair for the round trip will be $1.50. Returning the train will leave Alpena at 4:30 p. m. and arrived here at 7:40 p. m. The excursion is under the supervision of C. Swindell and W. K. Dillon, which is sufficient guarantee that it will be conducted in a manner acceptable to all.

One thing we are not in the habit of doing is to enter into a mud-slinging contest with any of our exchanges, but we wish to notify the monkey-faced editor of the Au Sable Monitor, that were we in the habit of doing so, we would never sink so low as to notice an animal that is void of both decency and principal. So far as Mr. Murphy is concerned, he in no way dictates the policy of the HERALD, nor are we obliged to defend him against attacks from such a venomous reptile as the above named editor. Mr. Murphy, like all other citizens of Iosco county, pays no attention to the barking of this cur, who spend most of his time seeking whom he may devour, but devours no one. From now on the cross between a baboon and a hog may spout but we hear him not.

Teachers are reminded that the last examination for certificates for 1893 takes place in the court house Tawas City on the 27 and 28. It is a special and begins on Friday morning at 9 a. m.

A GREAT OPTICIAN.

Prof. F. Gilch, of Detroit, will visit our Village next Week.

Prof. F. Gilch, of Detroit, one of the best known opticians in the country, has been at East Tawas during the past ten days. During that time he has been meeting with wonderful success, having furnished at least fifty persons, of both sex, young and old, with what is known as prescription spectacles and eye glasses. He is thoroughly skilled in the science of the optics, and has met with wonderful success throughout this and other states. He has thousands of personal recommendations from all parts of the country, including Hon. A. R. Bakley, of Alpena, and Hon. A. S. Rose, of Rose City, state senator and representative, from this district, and a large number of other members of the Michigan legislature.

During his stay at East Tawas he has furnished glasses to the following well known persons: Mr. and Mrs. Milo Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. French, Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Flick, Mrs. Rieley, Temple Emery, and W. A. Reeves.

Commencing Saturday, Prof. Gilch, will be at Mrs. Conover's, in Tawas City, for the following week. Any of our citizens needing their eyes fitted with glasses should not miss this opportunity to have it done by one who is an expert at the work.

In his microscopic examination of the eyes, the professor readily and accurately detects the defects of vision, thus being able to supply the lenses needed in each particular case. For this reason they have a curative value, and not only overcoming the defects of vision while in use and making it as strong and perfect as ever, but often permanently restoring to the impaired sight its loss power.

Entered at the Postoffice at Tawas City, Michigan, as second-class matter.

EVIDENTLY, Gov. McKinley, of Ohio, is not so certain of being re-elected as he would have people believe. This is apparent by the fact that he is making three speeches per day.

No dishonest vote ever went into the ballot box in consequence of the Federal Election laws.—Crawford Avalanche. The fact that it has kept many an honest vote out is the reason it must go.

THERE are yet a few republican organ who have not got onto the fact that a new era of prosperity dawning under the democratic administration, and that the country is recovering from the effect of republican misrule. What these organs will do for thunder remains to be seen.

It makes no difference whether it is in a republican ratification meeting or in a democratic ratification meeting the mention of the name of the president of the United States and his firm and unflinching stand for sound financial methods awakens equal enthusiasm. Massachusetts is very solid for Grover Cleveland on that issue, and all honor to the men of all parties that she is so!—Boston Herald.

WHEN the people of this country stop and compare such men as Peffer, Stewart and Allen to Clay, Webster and Calhoun is not to be wondered at that they think it is time to abolish the American "house of Lords." America is supposed to be a progressive country, but in so far as the upper house of congress is concerned it is obliged to admit the progress is in the wrong direction. The time was when it required brains instead of money to be a United States senator, but that time is past until constitution is so amended as to take the election of senators from the hands of corrupt legislatures and put it where it belongs, by a direct vote of the people.

SOME of the shallow and callow republican organs throughout the country keep up the campaign pretense that the business depression is due to the result of the last election. Are not tariff and other taxes just as high as the republicans left them? Is not the treasury suffering from the republican deficiency? Is not the gold reserve just about as "Calico Charlie" left it? Are not compulsory silver purchases still going on under a law passed by exclusively republican votes and signed by a republican president? What has changed except the incumbency of the higher officers and the purpose of the government in relating to the wrongs and the evils which the people condemned? Too many partisan journals are conducted on the theory that the people are fools.—N. Y. World.

The Profit on Sugar.

The sugar trust has certainly got the "sugar." It is the almost incredible fact that the trust rolls into its coffers in this city alone the enormous sum of nearly half a million dollars each week. For every barrel of sugar that is rolled through the refinery door the magnates pocket $3 profit, at least and every day 20,000 barrels of the refined product cross the threshold. A very comfortable little profit, to be sure, and a good neat-egg every seven days for the bankers; but the profits do not cease here. The wholesale grocer adds sixty cents to the cost of the barrel for himself and 10 cents for the drayman. It is almost as good as a political barrel—but for all that the housewife must still stir the saccharine luxury in the morning coffee of her spouse and sweeten her own cup of afternoon tea.—Philadelphia Record.

The Lower Branch of Congress

The national House of Representatives has shown itself a truly representative body, and worthy of the trust reposed in it. Pursuant to a public wish it passed the Wilson repeal bill inside of two weeks. Several propositions in the nature of a compromise being disposed of within that time. The division of sentiment was as strong as in the senate, but the sense of duty and of responsibility to the people was stronger. The repeal of the federal elections law came up and again the majority moved promptly to the enactment of legislation demanded in the interest of the government and by the popular will of the country. The House has not failed to recognize the real nature of a public trust in a representative from a government, and can be relied upon to continue that course of action to which it is committed by the declaration of principles made when it went before the people and ratified by so decisive a majority.

The action of the House is in pleasing contrast with that of the senate which has been justly designated as an infirmary for worthless politicians. In that branch of congress there has been a determined and apparently successful effort to defeat the expressed will of the people. The opposition to repeal is led by silver senators of the republican faith in politics, while in the ranks of the majority are those of the same political faith who are willing to see the country irreparably injured for the sake of securing a partisan advantage. In these facts appear the utter foolishness of attempting to place the responsibility upon the party which opposed the passage of the very law which is now on trial, and affords convincing evidence that the senate is not needed to help shape the future destiny of this country. The reliable servants of the people must now be selected from those men in the House who have so loyally performed the duties made plain to them by the people.—Free Press.

Exactly, Mr. Harrison.

Ex-President Harrison has graciously permitted himself to be interviewed upon the repeal of the federal election laws, and among the characteristic statements made by him was this: "If the present federal election law is repealed, all federal control and supervision of election of national officers is withdrawn, and local sentiment and local laws will govern such elections." Gen. Harrison has not misstated the facts. But the results which he pictures are not such as terrify the country or disturb its confidence in the wisdom of the legislation enacted by the house. On the other hand, such results are exactly what the American people wished to secure. Local sentiment and local laws have controlled this great nation for more than a century, save for a portion of the years that Mr. Harrison's party was in power, and it must be conceded that they did it very well. The sentiment of politicians in control at Washington is not wanted to control the people's elections, whether they be for sheriffs, for congressmen or for president.

The trouble with Mr. Harrison is that he is not disposed to trust the people. This was plainly indicated when he had his delegation to the last national convention made up almost exclusively of office-holders, whose loyalty to him was insured by the fact that he controlled them by the patent power of patronage. He has also been disposed to complain of late because of the way the people treated him at the election a year ago. He doubtless thinks that if he had enjoyed the advantage of a stiffer election law, something in the nature of Mr. Lodge's force bill, he would have managed to elect himself. And it is very probable that he could have done so, but that is exactly what the people wish to provide against by wiping out entirely the system of federal interference.—Detroit Free Press.

Judge Cooley's Views.

Hon. Thomas M. Cooley, the distinguished constitutional lawyer in a letter to ex-Mayor Hodges, of Baltimore under date of October 9 voices the opinion all right thinking minds on the situation in the senate. His view will be widely endorsed and the situation he describes (which was alluded to in The Times-Press of Friday last) should arouse national sentiment in favor of the adoption of rational rules by the senate which shall restore majority rule. Judge Cooley said:

"On the status of the silver bill in the senate I must confess to being in a mood far from agreeable. If it is true that the majority cannot force a vote, a revolution has in some manner been effected in the government—it is no longer the government out fathers created, but one so changed by one legislative body that a majority in that body may at pleasure defeat any legislative measures. I feel humiliated as an American citizen—more than that, I feel robbed of liberties that would never have been voluntarily surrendered by the people. The constitution is violated in one of its most important particulars, and not so far as we can see for once merely, but in a way that for all time leaves it at the mercy of a few persons."—Bay City Times-Press.

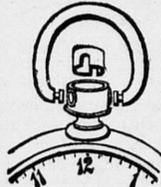

Seeding to Grass.

The present low price of wheat in this country recalls the experience of the English farmers when the price began to fall in that country. Some of the wise farmers there dropped wheat and seeded the land to grass alone. The result proved that it was a wise move and one that the farmer here might do well to follow.

If a proper stand is secured, a meadow or pasture can remain for several years without re-seeding. If rotation is followed, the good sod will add largely to the fertility of the soil. A good crop of grass, whether used as pasture or cured, is a cheap feed, and when once established the harvesting is the only expense.—N. Y. World.

is an arbitrary word used to designate the only bow (ring) which cannot be pulled off the watch.

Here's the idea
The bow has a groove on each end. A collar runs down inside the pendant (stem) and fits into the grooves, firmly locking the bow to the pendant, so that it cannot be pulled or twisted off.

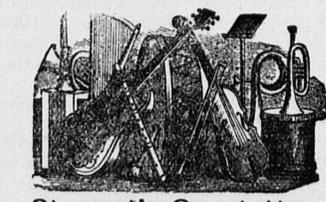

It positively prevents the loss of the watch by theft, and avoids injury to it from dropping.

IT CAN ONLY BE HAD with Jas. Boss Filled or other watch cases bearing this trade mark.
All watch dealers sell them without extra cost. A watch case opener will be sent free to any one by the manufacturers.

SKOOKUM ROOT HAIR GROWER
What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.
Is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither minerals nor oils. It is not a dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing Tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.
Keep the scalp clean, healthy and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Skin Soap. It destroys parasitic insects, which feed on and destroy the hair.
If your druggist cannot supply you, send direct to us, and we will forward prepaid, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 6 for $5.00. Soap, 50c. per jar; 6 for $2.50.

"When I was a Boy,"

Writes Postmaster J. C. WOODSON, Forest Hill, W. Va., "I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary medicines, and advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time, not considering it safe to be without it."

"I have been using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for 30 years, with the most satisfactory results, and can cheerfully recommend it as being especially adapted to all pulmonary complaints. I have, for many years, made pulmonary and other medicines a special study, and I have come to the conclusion that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral occupies a position pre-eminence over other medicines of the class."—Chas. Davenport, Dover, N. J.

EAST TAWAS NEWS.

Joe Demick left Wednesday for an eastern trip.

The tug Reliance reached this port Friday with the crew of the tug Acme on board. About three o'clock Friday morning these two tugs, while towing a raft about 25 miles from Black River, were struck by the heavy gale, and after a hard struggle for three hours, were obliged to let go the raft and seek shelter. It was soon discovered that the Acme was leaking badly, and could not weather the storm. It was with great difficulty that Capt. Frank Burk, of the Reliance, succeeded in rescuing the imperiled crew of the Acme, which consisted of Capt. Dore Elliot of Bay City, and nine men. The Acme was owned by the Michigan Log Towing Co., of Bay City, and was valued at $25,000. The raft contained 4,500,000 feet of logs, and belonged to the Holland & Emery Lumber Co. of this village, and is almost a total loss.

Crop Report.

Secretary of State makes the following crop report for October 1, 1893:

The wheat crop of Michigan this year as indicated by reports at hand is 23,690, 693 bushels. This total is obtained by multiplying the number of acres in wheat in each county, by the average yield per acre in the same county and adding the products. The acreage is taken from the farm statistics as returned by supervisors last spring, and the average per acre from records kept by threshers, supplemented by a special canvass by correspondents.

The total area in wheat as shown by the farm statistics was 1,578,252 acres. The number of acres in the southern counties was 1,297,156, in the central 233,883, and in the northern 46,911. Of the total area the records of threshings include more than 163, 000 acres.

The average yield in the southern counties is returned at 15.36 bushels; in the central counties at 13.99 bushels; in northern counties at 10.40 bushels, and in the state at 15.01. Wheat is good quality and full weight. The total number of bushels of wheat reported marketed during September was 2,277,925.

The total number of bushels of wheat reported marketed in the two months, August-September, is 3,526,504, which is 474,332 bushels more than marketed in the same months last year.

The average yield of oats as shown by threshers' records, is as follows: southern counties, 27.14 bushels; state, 26.96 bushels.

Corn is estimated to yield in the state 48 bushels of ears per acre. The estimate for the southern counties is 44 bushels; central 56; and northern 58.

Potatoes are estimated to yield 56 per cent of an average crop. The figures for the sections are, southern, 52; central 61; northern, 67.

Winter apples are estimated to yield one-eighth of a crop in the southern counties, and 22 per cent of an average in the central counties and the state. The figures for the northern counties are 58.

The drouth, noted in the September report as having prevailed in the state since the 22d of June was not broken in the southern and central sections of the state, until September 12 and 13. On these two days there fell 0.29 of an inch of rain in the central counties, and 1 inch in the southern counties. The southern counties are here understood to include only the southern two tiers of counties, and the central counties the 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th tiers according to the divisions in the meteorological tables. After the 13th a number of light showers occurred in these sections, but no heavy, soaking rain. The average rainfall in the southern counties in September was 2.46 inches, a deficiency of 0.57 of an inch. The average in the central counties was 2.04 inches, a deficiency of 0.79 of an inch.

About one-fifth of an inch of rain fell in the northern counties and the upper peninsula on September 1. The average rain fall for the month in the former section was 2.92 inches, a deficiency of 0.46 of an inch, and the average in the upper peninsula was 2.02 inches, a deficiency of 1.04 inches.

The dry weather has greatly damaged corn and potatoes, delayed wheat sowing and reduced the wheat average.

THE FLINT & PERE MARQUETTE RAIL AND WATER LINES offer the public a way to reach Chicago, that for comfort, far surpasses the all rail lines, to say nothing of the difference of fare in its favor, an item well worthy of consideration.

Passengers are landed in Chicago in the morning after a night's refreshing and invigorating rest in a commodious state room on a first-class steamship. The experienced traveler need not be told of the advantages of a rail and boat route, for summer travel, over the all rail route with its crowded, dusty sleeping cars, and very little thought on the part of the inexperienced, witness him of the same. Ask your local ticket agent for rates and time of trains.

COUNTY ROADS.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

December 4, the Date set for the Special Election.

The following resolutions was presented to the board of supervisors last week by C. R. Henry, and adopted:

Resolved, That the board of supervisors, having by resolution passed October 10th, determined to submit the question of adopting the county road system, to a vote of the electors of the county of Iosco on the 4th day of December, 1893, the clerk of this board, give the requisite notice prescribed by Section Two of Act Number 149 of the Public Acts of Michigan for the year 1893; and that he cause such notice to be printed as provided by section three of said act, procuring and posting as many handbills provided by section three, as in his judgement, will sufficiently apprise the electors of the county of such election.

It is further resolved that at the next ensuing spring election five commissioners be elected by the people of the county of Iosco, pursuant to section six of said act, provided, however, the County system of roads shall by said special election to be held on the 4th day of December, 1892, be carried.

And it is further resolved, that the county of Iosco issue bonds to raise the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, for the construction and maintenance of county roads; that the question of issuing said bonds and the purpose of raising said money be submitted to a vote of the electors of the county, at the next general election, provided, at said special election to be held on the said 4th day of December, 1893, the county shall adopt the said county road system.

That the bonds so to be issued shall not be payable earlier than twenty-five years from the date of their issuing, excepting, however, interest thereon may be payable annually or semi-annually.

That a committee be appointed by the Chairman of this board, consisting of five members, whose duty it shall be to council with the Prosecuting Attorney, concerning the legality of the proposed proceedings to raise the said money by bonds, and further to make a careful investigation of the lands in the county of Iosco through which the construction of county roads would most materially advance the general welfare and prosperity of the entire county, which said committee shall receive reasonable compensation for any actual time and services performed in making such investigations and plats and maps thereof; with authority to employ draughtmen to make careful representations of the proposed lines of said roads; that said committee shall make a report in writing to be published in two of the country papers of this county, one paper to represent each end of the county, which said report be published by the paper offering to do it for the least money, and which said committee shall make a full report of all their doings and conclusions, at the next meeting of the Board of Supervisors of Iosco County. Said committee do no work entailing expence unless said election on December 4, 1893 said county road system be adopted.

The above resolutions and the matter to which they pertain is of the utmost importance to every tax payer of this county and should be carefully considered before the time to cast your vote. It will be seen that the proposition to adopt the county road system has nothing to do with the $100,000 bonds, but is an entirely different matter.

At this time the Herald is not prepared to express any opinion as to the matter of the bonds, but we are of the opinion that a county road system will be more satisfactory that the present system, and should be adopted by the voters of the county. We will discuss the matter more fully in the future.

The columns of the HERALD are open to discussions of the question from all parties. Let us hear from you.
