Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Botz expect to leave next Tuesday for their new home in Pennsylvania. The estimable couple have a large circle of friends hereabouts, who regret their departure, and whose best wishes accompany them.

The return game of base ball between the Oscoda's and Standards, played on the home grounds last Tuesday, proved to be the best and most exciting game of the season, requiring ten innings to decide the contest. Fred Noel and Charles Berry were the battery for the home team, Carson and Rogers occupied the points for the visitors. C. S. Pierce acted as umpire. The score by innings was as follows:

Standards 2 0 6 0 1 1 0 0 2 2-14.
Oscoda 3 1 5 0 0 0 3 0 0 0-12.

TAWAS CITY SCHOOLS.

A class of Business Penmanship has been organized in the higher grades.

Mabel Bannan is with us again this year, reviewing the higher branches.

School opened Tuesday morning, Monday being Labor Day, a legal holiday.

The 4th and 5th grades are learning Longfellow's poem, "Paul Revere's Ride."

The high school was visited this term, so far, by Mr. Chas. Hathaway and Mr. Wm. Kehoe.

Hereafter teachers meetings will be held every Monday p. m., after school, under the direction of the Supt.

A reading table for use at recess, noon, etc., will be maintained in the high school, and our list of magazines and periodicals numbers twelve this month.

Text books in the high school remain the same, except the one in Physics, and Steele's Physics, is replaced by Mead's Physics, a thoroughly modern up-to-date work.

The 4th grade are making a collection of the various woods of the vicinity. Each specimen as it is brought in, is carefully labelled, and the characteristics of the wood will be observed.

Here is our enrollment in detail: Miss Taylor, 68; Miss Funk, 44; Miss Brown, 46; Miss Drake, 40; High School, 70, a total of 268. More are coming in each day, so we expect to reach the 300 mark before the end of the month.

The State Teachers Reading Circle for this section of Ioseo county, will hold its first meeting in the high school, in Tawas City, on Saturday, Sept. 28, at 10 o'clock, a. m. All teachers in this vicinity are invited to attend this meeting.

If anyone tries to tell you that the Tawas City teachers do not read professional papers, just tell him these facts: The total number of educational magazines and periodicals, is eighteen, of which the majority deal directly with schools and school work.

Every pupil in the high school takes the work in spelling, and some fine spelling contests may be looked for soon. The text book in this subject is the celebrated "Michigan 800," prepared by State Supt. H. R. Pattengill. The Supt. of Public Instruction furnishes them free of cost to the school.

Here is a nut for the 8th grade pupils in the county to crack. Suppose some 8th grades papers and mammas try it, too: Bought stock at 10 per cent discount, which rose to 5 per cent premium, and sold for cash; Paying a debt of $33, invested the balance in stock at 2 per cent premium, which, at par, left me $11 less than at first, how much money had I at first. Send solutions to School Dept., TAWAS HERALD.

A Lansing dispatch says: Reports from a large number of counties go to show that the August examinations of applicants for school teachers' certificates resulted most woefully for the would-be pedagogues. It is estimated that not more than one-quarter of the applicants successfully passed the ordeal, and as a goodly number of them had already engaged, to teach school, the outcome has created more worry and ill-feeling among the rural school teachers of Michigan than has ever before been experienced. In some of the counties so few of the teachers will be provided with certificates that only a small proportion of the country schools can be opened the first week in September, and this has led the commissioner in some of these counties to arrange for the issue of "special" certificates to applicants who failed to pass the examination. These special certificates are issued only on receipt of a request from the school board employing such teacher, and the provision accompanying the certificate is that the teacher shall make up the examination deficiency and attend the October meeting of the commissioners for re-examination. State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Pattengill, contends that the examination questions are not too hard, and says: "The reason examination questions are hard is because we wish a change in teaching; to get a change in teaching we must change the teacher. Teaching must be made more of a profession, which will require more of a preparation on the part of the teacher. There are not too many teachers. There need not be but a few more teachers than there are schools, and when such a time comes the teachers may expect to get as high wages, at least, as the farm hand."

THE new compulsory school law is raising the old Ned in many parts of the state, truant officers having undertaken its rigid enforcement. It provides that all children between the ages of 7 and 16 shall be required to attend the public schools, sickness being the only bar. As a consequence many young girls and boys employed in factories, etc., where they are assisting in the maintenance of their families have been ordered to quit work and go to school, and in case of non-compliance with the order, the parents and guardians will be arrested. The law also requires school boards to appoint a truant officer.

If Smutted wheat or oats are sown, the smut parasite grows up with the stalks, attacks the forming grain and causes great loss. Hence, if we kill the smut on the seed before sowing it, the danger of smut in the crop is immensely reduced. To absolutely kill the smut spores, immerse the seed grain in water at 133° F, adding hot water as needed to keep up the heat, but never letting it go above 135° or below 130°. The immersion must be at least 12 but not over 15 minutes, when the seed must be at once dipped into cold water, or cold water poured over it, then spread out to dry. Prof. Arthur, of Indiana, recommends a temperature of 140° when the seed is put in, renewing it in a few minutes when down to 130°. This does not injure the seed, as is apt to be the case with bluestone (sulphate of copper) treatment. A simple apparatus for doing this on a big scale, was described in our issue of March 30.—Orange Judd Farmer.

Crop Report.

The following crop report was issued by the Secretary of State, last Saturday:

For this report correspondents have secured from threshers the results of 4,929 jobs, aggregating more than 76,000 acres of wheat threshed in the state, the yield from which was 962,832 bushels, an average of 12.61 bushels per acre. In the southern counties more than 61,000 acres threshed averaged 12.37 bushels per acre. In the central counties the average is 13.83 bushels, and in the northern counties 11.29 bushels.

The number of bushels of wheat reported marketed by farmers since the August report was published is 702,999. Of this amount 263,195 bushels were marketed before Aug. 1, but not reported until late in Aug., and 439,804 bushels in Aug. The amount of wheat reported marketed since the August report was published is 249,804 bushels less than reported for the same time in 1894, and the amount reported marketed in the twelve months ending with July, which is the wheat year for Michigan, is 11,270,799 bushels or 4,180,159 bushels less than marketed in the same months of the previous years.

There are 317 stations in the state from which reports of wheat marketed were received regularly each month during the two years 1893-4 and 1894-5. The amount marketed during the former year was 6,872,583 bushels, and during the later year 5,287,792 bushels, a decrease of 1,584,791 bushels.

Oats are estimated to yield in the state about 23 bushels, and barley 16.50 bushels per acre. Beans promise 76 per cent; potatoes, 81 per cent; apples, 28 per cent, and peaches 80 per cent of average crops.

The mean temperature of the state for the month was 67.9 degrees. The mean temperature of the southern four tiers of counties was 70.4 degrees of the central counties, 66.5; of the northern, 64.8; and of the upper peninsula, 92.4 degrees. Compared with the normal there was a slight excess in each section except the northern.

The average rainfall in the state during the month was 3.09 inches; in the southern counties, 3.35 inches; in the central, 3.14 inches; in the northern, 2.68 inches, and in the upper peninsula, 2.30 inches. Compared with the normal there was an excess in the southern and central counties and the state, and a deficiency in the northern counties and the upper peninsula. In the southern part of the state the rainfall after the 22d was nearly three times the amount previous to that date.

How to Learn to Talk.

Learn to listen well, and very soon you will find yourself speaking the word in season and surprising yourself as well as others by the quickness with which your thoughts will be expressed.

Read the works of great writers; think them over, and conclude in what you may differ from them.

The woman who talks well must needs have opinions—decided ones—but she must have them well in hand, as nothing is so disagreeable as an aggressive talker.

Say what you have to say pleasantly and sweetly; remember always that the best thing in life—dear, sweet love—has often been won by that delightful thing, "a low voice."

Be not too critical; remember that every blow given another woman is a boomerang, which is bound to return and hit you with double force.

Take this into consideration: It is never worth while to make a malicious remark, no matter how clever it may be, for those who may laugh at it at the time will lay it up against you unconsciously and retain a vague sort of impression in their minds that you are not of the sweetest and gentlest nature.—E.E.

Education of Children.

So many parents who live in the country think because their children will probably be farmers' wives, that an education beyond merely the mastering of reading and writing is a superfluity. How often has not that question been urged, and it is one that will be a matter of discussion until people will see things in the best light. Children, as a rule, do not care much about school; but a parent usually feels duty-bound to give his child some education, and in a great many instances the strictest surveillance, and sometimes force must, be exercised in order to get him to study. A child like that is a source of untold anxiety, to both teachers and parents and if it could be impressed upon him that no one but himself is the loser, he might be induced into a habit of study. The possession of a good sound education has never yet been deemed a burden, nor has the time spent in acquiring it ever been regretted by anyone who was fortunate enough to have it.

On the other hand, if a child loves books it is cruel not to encourage it in that love, and, too, if it enjoys its school life, that should be prolonged as far as lies in the parents' power.

It is astonishing how many families there are in the country, and in the city too, for that matter, who have no books and but few papers, for in this day of cheap books and papers, it really seems that there is no excuse for being without them. To have a liking for good reading, one must be accustomed to it from early childhood. This matter of reading is one that parents, who have the future wellbeing of their children at heart, will carefully see to. Thoroughly look over what your children read, and see that it is pure in tone. Too much of this sensational trash now abounds, and the amount of harm it is working is alarming. A child's mind is like a young tree: the way it leans the way it will grow. It cannot be straightened without much labor, and the effects of poor and improper reading may never be erased from the mind.

It is not well, either to give a child nothing but heavy reading, such as history, biography, etc., but with a little judicious care the solid and light reading, may be very interestingly, and also healthfully, intermingled, because we know that the mind, as well as the body, needs rest and relaxation.

It is astonishing how little good talk one hears in society. Personalities are freely indulged in, and the latest scandals are eagerly discussed. It has been considered bad form to be serious in society, and anyone who has a fad or a hobby is frowned upon until he is almost ashamed of his enthusiasm. Give me any day an enthusiast on one subject, rather than one of those silly, insipid nonentities, who can do nothing and knows nothing but gossip! Conversation is an art, and the sad need of its cultivation is often felt in a company of people where one would expect to find otherwise. If a person has not the inclination and cares not to spend time in reading something good, how can it be expected that he should talk intelligently?

An education broadens one's views, it enlarges life, and in every way makes it richer. The boy's time for money-making will be delayed a year or two, but when he does go to work it will be done in a more enlightened manner, and with greater possibilities opening before him, the value of the time spent will be returned manyfold. The girl's life, too, will be more of pleasure. The work she must perform will not seem such drudgery, not now, when a capable woman is looked upon with admiration instead of scorn.

Send the children to school. Give them the best education you can afford, and thus lift their minds out of the common plane. Even if they live on the farm throughout their entire lives, their work will take upon itself a very different aspect, and where before things seemed dull and commonplace they will then find—

"Tongues in trees, books in running brooks, Sermons in stones, and good in everything."
—Pierie Furner.

state of Wisconsin, and nineteen Endeavor Societies are maintained.

Evangelist D. L. Moody will hold a series of meetings in Atlanta, Ga., during the Exposition. A tabernacle capable of seating several thousand people is to be erected for him.

At a gathering of ministers and members of various denominations at New York recently, the question arose as to how many in the company could repeat the books of the Bible in their order. Out of the two hundred or more present, one person only, and that person was a woman, had the confidence to raise her hand, and acknowledge that she was equal to the occasion.

A congregation in Kansas have found a new way of raising funds for their church work. They have agreed to sow 160 acres of land with wheat, and after deducting a certain sum for rent, devote the rest to paying church expenses. The members furnish teams, ploughs, laborers and seed, and expect to be able to provide preaching for every Sabbath from the proceeds.

A wonderful missionary meeting was lately held by the Christian Alliance at Old Orchard, Me. In a few minutes $72,000 were raised for foreign missions. Watches and jewelry of every kind went into the collection basket, many people exchanging their valuable timepieces for those made of iron. One member gave land in California worth $10,000, which represented the savings of years.

The Presbyterian church of Canada has 2,239 churches and stations, 179,527 communicants, 1,888 Sunday-school, 17,527 teachers, and 153,013 scholars. The annual income aggregates upward of $2,000,000. The figures received give $1,007,071 for congregational purposes alone, $63,703 for home missions, $31,407 for the Augmentation Fund, $59,688 for foreign missions, $25,239 for the Evangelization Fund, and $48,770 by the Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies.—N. Recently the Archbishop of York, in order to promote social intercourse between the Nonconformist ministers and the Anglican clergy of the diocese invited them to a luncheon at his palace. In his letter of invitation to the Nonconformist ministers, the Archbishop said it had always to him been a subject of regret that the clergy of the church of England should have so few opportunities of social intercourse with the ministers of other religious communities, however, much they may be divided on questions of church order or even of Christian doctrine." The occasion was a eventful one and ought to have a good effect on all parties.—N. Y. World.

HEART DISEASE,

like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and Don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I haven't lost a day since. I am 55 years old, 6 ft. 4 1/2 inches and weigh 250 lbs. I believe I am fully cured, and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

The D. & M. Ry. will run an excursion from Alpena to Niagara Falls Saturday. The train will leave this station at 12.42 p. m. Fare for the round trip $7.50.

Mrs. M. D. Hurlbert left Wednesday for Detroit, to purchase her fall stock of millinery goods. She will return in about ten days, accompanied by Miss Grace Briggs, who will again have charge of her trimming department.

Rev. Taylor preached his farewell sermon at the M. E. church Sunday. Mr. Taylor has preached here for the past five years and given good satisfaction. He goes to conference soon and will receive a new appointment for his future field of labor.—Grayling News.

What are you going to take to the fair? This is a question that should be answered by all, by taking anything you may have from a pumpkin to a fast horse. Every citizen of Iosco county should take something to add to the success of the meeting.

William Groff, who lives four miles from this city, on the Townline road, brought to this office Tuesday, a chunk of lead ore, weighing ten and a half pounds, which he unearthed at a depth of 13 feet from the surface, while digging a well. The lump is almost pure lead, and was found embedded in solid clay. The indications are that a lead mine can be found in that locality, and is certainly worth investigating.

A comparison of population of the cities and villages along the D. & M. Ry. between Bay City and Cheboygan, not including that of those two cities, and that of the towns on the Mackinaw division of the M. C. shows an excess of 13,000 in round numbers on the D. & M. route. The figures being 23,000 on the D. & M., to 10,000 on the M. C. This does not include the farming population or small towns, situated near either line. Were these considered the total in favor of the D. & M. would be much larger.

The Wolverine correspondent to the Cheboygan News says: N. E. McLean, pastor of the M. E. church, having completed his year as such, delivered his farewell address last Sunday, basing his remarks on Romans 14:4. Bro. McLean leaves us during this week for Albion College, where he resumes the completion of his studies. The Bro's presence will be greatly missed, for he proved a faithful and ardent worker in the labors assigned him by his Creator. Success to you, Mc., hope to see you again.

Steamboat captains all over the lakes have, it is said, recently been changing of their patient logs so they will read statute miles instead of nautical miles. The old engineer charts of the lakes have all distances given in statute miles, and the dials of the logs gave the nautical miles. In view of the fact that the hydrographic office charts give the distance in nautical miles, and that they are being used generally by steamboat men, it would seem that the navigators are changing their logs at the wrong time.—Ex.

Hear the Mehan Quartette, at the Congregational church next Wednesday evening.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Agricultural Society will be held at the court house, on Monday, Sept. 16, '95. Very important business is to be considered.

There is a movement on foot to have the three minute races, billed for the last day of the fair, changed to Thursday, the second day, so as to give horses a chance to enter both that and the free-for-all race. The directors will decide the question Monday.

If the ruination of any boy is desired, let him roam the streets at will. There is nothing that will ruin a boy so quickly as unwatched liberty. It is during these night carousals that he learns the vulgarity which later on will grow to something worse, and the idea of having so little respect for himself or those around him. Alas, the above paragraph is only too true, but the average parent is much more to blame than the boy. Too much carelessness on the part of the parents is indulged in by allowing the boys to roam about of an evening when they should be at home or employed at some occupation.—Ex.

Obituary.

Henry McKiddie, who was instantly killed by an electrical shock while working on a telegraph pole at Detroit, Sept. 5th, '95, was buried in the Alabaster cemetery, Sunday, Sept. 8th.

Mr. McKiddie was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife and three children, and many other friends to mourn his loss.

The funeral services were held at his home in Alabaster, Rev. P. Schermerhorn, officiating. Text—Isa. 38: 1. "Set thine house in order, for thou shalt die, and not live."

The music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Halsey, Thos. Garber, Miss Nettie Darling, and Miss C. Schermerhorn, of Tawas City. The Hymn,—"We shall sleep, but not forever," was rendered at the grave, and the many who were present could not but feel that,—

This world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
'Tis not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.
Beyond this vale of tears,
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.

NEIGHBORING NOTES.

A new flouring mill is being built at Rogers City.

Deer are unusually plentiful in Presque Isle county this season.

The Mio jail now has an occupant for the first time this year.

The dates of the Ogemaw county fair have been changed to Sept. 24, 25 and 26.

Pack, Woods & Co.'s mill at Oscoda was closed down last Thursday, for want of logs.

The Bell Telephone Co. has been forced to vacate Potter street, Saginaw, by the city council of that city.

Michael Kiltson, a M. C. brakeman, was killed at Alger last Monday, by falling between the cars of a long timber train.

The Hodgeman manufacturing Co.'s plant at Roscommon, was destroyed by fire Monday night. Loss about $60,000. Insurance unknown.

A swindler is working up in Manistee county, his lay being the writing of insurance policies in a company that does not exist. He collects $10 from each victim.

The Alpena council has decided to get after certain lot holders in the city cemetery with a sharp stick. Many persons bought lots as much as twenty years ago, and have not paid for them yet.

Editor John Randall, of the Mio Mail Telegram, and general all round hustler, has commenced the manufacture of brick, from an excellent quantity of clay recently found on the banks of the Ausable, at that place.

The Daily Independent, is the name of a new paper launched at West Bay City, last week, by W. C. Clark. If the people of West Bay City know a good thing when they see it, Wall's new enterprise will be a success.

The next convention of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the 10th district will be held at West Branch, Oct. 4, 5 and 6. The society of that village is doing all in their power to make the coming convention the best ever held in the district.

The grist mill which was destroyed by fire at Sanlac Center a short time ago, will be rebuilt. The new mill, which will be put up by Bickle & Edwards, will be a 50 barrel affair, and the proprietors will receive a site and $1,000.

One of the large boilers in the Oscoda Lumber Co.'s mill burst last Thursday forenoon, demolishing the brick walls inclosing the furnace. Edward Ely, engineer, was badly scalded. The mill will be closed down for some time.

Last Sunday afternoon Alpena had a narrow escape from being destroyed by fire. One of Churchill's mills, engine house No. 2 and a large amount of cedar posts and shingles were destroyed. Loss about $50,000, with small insurance.

Fred Denny Larke, as agent for Chas. R. Miller, of Adrian, has received instructions from Mr. Miller, to plat out the shore front between Rogers City and Crawford Quarry into lots of about 10 acres, with water fronts. They will be sold for orchard purposes.

Forty thousand dollars will be paid this season to the farmers in the vicinity of Charlevoix by the D. M. Ferry Seed Co., for seed peas and beans. The seed company has a large warehouse at Charlevoix and buys thousands of bushels of peas and beans for their extension seed business in Detroit.

Fred Rayburn, near Alpena, lost his house, four barns and several sheds, besides large quantities of grain and many vehicles. The loss is $7,000. The insurance lapsed a month ago. Agent Hitchcock declining to renew it, owing to the prevalence of forest fires.

The new steel steamer now being built by F. W. Wheeler & Co. of Bay City, for L. H. McCormick & Co., will be put in commission Oct. 1. She will carry between 1,500,000 and 1,800,000 feet of lumber. This will make her the largest steamer regularly engaged in the lumber trade.

Rev. Mr. Taylor, the Oregon preacher, under trial at Saginaw, charged with defrauding several citizens on western land deals, has a prominent lawyer sitting by his side, but insists on conducting his own case. He has shown remarkable finesse in asking questions, restating them in different form when he fails to get the answer he desires. The general opinion is the reverend gentleman missed his calling.

The blue ribbon lazy man does not live outside Cheboygan county—in fact, he resides on the Benton road. The other day he spent several hours studying how to get his potatoes dug for nothing and without any labor on his part. When he retired for the night he had not solved the problem. Fate, however, did it for him. About midnight during the eclipse of the moon he heard a noise in the potato patch. Looking out of his window he discovered two men about to help themselves to the tubers. The lazy man did not alarm them—on the contrary he quietly got down an old blunderbuss, filled it half full of powder and waited till the men had finished. The sequel may be easily guessed—big explosion—badly frightened men—potatoes left on the ground. The lazy man is ahead an hour's work and four good grain bags. He is patiently waiting for more callers.—Cheboygan News.
