ARE UNITED!

The Silver Force: Unit on a Strong Ticket.

Charles R. Sligh of Grand Rapids for Governor.

The democratic, silver and populist party state conventions met at Bay City Tuesday and after a conference by committees from each party all united in one of the largest and most enthusiastic conventions ever held in Michigan, and nominated a union silver ticket and will work in unison for the election of Bryan and Sewall and the success of the silver cause in Michigan this fall.

The ticket is one that every man who believes that silver and gold should be the standard money of our government, every man who believes in the rights of the masses against the classes, every man who is in favor of an economical and business like administration of state affairs can give his hearty support. The following is the ticket which was nominated on Wednesday:

For governor—Charles R. Sligh, of Grand Rapids.

For lieutenant governor—Justin R. Whiting, of St Clair.

For state treasurer—Otto F. Karste, of Ironwood.

For auditor general—Arthur E. Cole, of Fowlerville.

For commissioner of state land office—Martin G. Leonnecker, of Jackson.

For attorney general—Alfred J. Murphy, of Detroit.

For sup't of public instruction—David E. Haskins, Hillsdale.

For member of state board of education—Franklin S. Dewey, of Alpena.

For presidential electors—Spencer O. Fisher, James H. Pound, Henry N. Brevort, M. T. Woodruff, Henry Chamberlain, Joseph Houseman, John Seymore, F. W. Hubbard, Amos O. White, G. A. Howe, Henry R. Lovell, R. B. Taylor, A. W. Nichols, John W. Ewing.

CRUMP VIEWS.

The republican congressional convention at Cheboygan yesterday renominated R. O. Crump, of Bay City for Congress, without much opposition from the Defoe forces.

The contesting delegation from this county was turned down with little difficulty.

Crump will probably find more opposition in being re-elected than he did in being re-nominated.

Life of Bryan and Sewall.

We have just received a copy of "The Life and Speeches of Bryan and Sewall" from the publishers, and we desire to call the attention of our readers, who may be interested, to this book which is of great value, and should be in possession of all who are anxious to know of these two candidates. The price of the book is 25 cents for paper cover, and $1.00 for cloth binding. The publishers desire an agent to canvass this town, and will allow any agent a commission of sixty per cent. A prospectus book and circulars giving full particulars will be sent to any address for 30 cts. Address J. S. Ogilvie Publishing Co., 57 Rose st., New York.

A HOT ONE!

The Crump Defoe Fight in Iosco County.

The Crump and Defoe factions in Iosco county have been having lively times during the past ten days. H. H. Alpin and several lieutenants, of Bay City, have been on the ground looking after the township and ward caucuses, for Mr. Crump, while Mr. Defoe and several able assistants have not been idle.

At the ward caucuses in this city Monday evening, a hot time was had, the bloody third ward indulged in a fist fight which resulted in a few black eyes, bloody noses and skinned faces. The entire circus ended in two sets of delegates being chosen at the county convention Tuesday.

C. R. Jackson chairman of the county committee, called the convention to order, at 1:30, and Arthur Pack moved that A. H. Fish, of Oscoda be made temporary chairman, which motion was supported. Jackson declared the motion out of order and called M. J. Connine to the chair. George Loud moved that the usual committees be appointed, which was carried. According to the pre-arranged program, the chairman named Mr. Loud as chairman of the committee on permanent organization and order of business, with the balance of the committee solid Crump men. The Defoe crowd were allowed members on the committee on resolutions and credentials. A recess was then taken to give the committees a chance to make their reports.

On reassembling the committee on credentials reported 48 delegates present. Mr. Loud then read his report of the committee on permanent organization and order of business, which, by the way was prepared before coming to the convention. The report recommended that the temporary officers be made permanent and that the manner of voting be by the chairman of each delegation announcing the vote of his delegation. Mr. Pack moved that the report be amended allowing the convention to choose its own chairman, which amendment was lost by a rising vote.

Mr. Pack then moved to amend the report and that each delegate be allowed to cast his own ballot, but the gag rule was again applied and the amendment lost. The report of the committee was then adopted. The vote on the amendments and the adoption of the report showed about 20 to 28.

The committee on resolutions then reported a lot of slush endorsing McKinley and his gold platform and Pingree and his free silver views, all of which was liberally applauded.

The convention then proceeded to elect their delegates without even so much as stopping to swear in the officers of the convention. For the first delegate the Crump forces put forward G. A. Loud and Defoe people Chas. Thompson, of Reno. The ballot resulted in 17 for Thompson and 31 for Loud and the entire delegation was elected on about the same vote.

The delegates to the congressional are:—Geo. A. Loud, Temple Emery, M. J. Connine, C. S. Pierce and T. P. Cox.

To the senatorial convention: H. M. Belknap, A. H. Fish, John Arn, C. D. Bennett, Geo. E. Sharpe, Norman Murchinson, George Laidlaw and Chancy Livingston.

Representative convention:—A. E. Sharpe, P. E. Shein, Edward Ely, Arthur Pack, C. E. Wilcox, A. H. Fish, Willard Robinson, Geo. Sutherland, John Sullivan, A. H. Long, Reuben Wade, M. J. Connine.

The convention then adjourned without even a cheer for McKinley or Pingree.

CONVENTION NO. TWO.

After the convention adjourned the Defoe men passed the word around and gathered in the court room at about 4:30. W. L. M. Blaklee was chosen temporary chairman and L. N. Gagnier temporary secretary. The usual committee were appointed, and upon their report the temporary officers were made permanent and duly sworn. The convention then proceeded to the election of delegates as follows:

Congressional:—W. H. Warren, A. H. Fish, Thomas Vowles, Arthur Pack, and Charles Thompson.

Senatorial:—P. E. Shein, H. Stockman, W. E. Wilson, Joseph Carbeau, Edward Ely, A. H. Long, Nels Polson, L. N. Gagnier.

Representative:—H. Stockman, Arthur Pack, A. H. Fish, W. E. Wilson, C. E. Wilcox, R. H. Muncie, Al Rowarth, W. L. M. Blaklee, Samuel Anker, A. H. Long and Geo. Walker.

The contesting delegation then proceeded to secure the necessary proof of the unfair and arbitrary manner in which the first convention was conducted, as well as to the fact of its failure to comply with the law in not swearing its officers, necessary to establish their claim to seats at the congressional and other conventions, and adjourned to fight it out at Cheboygan.

CRUMP proved too much for Defoe in Iosco county, but the democratic nominee in this district will prove too much for both of them in November.

THAT eloquent, polished orator, Hon. Burke Crockran, may yet be brought to a recollection of January 30, 1894, when he was most thoroughly squelched by William J. Bryan, in a debate on the income tax law, in the house.

THE fight in the republican ranks in Iosco county is one of the prettiest examples of dirty politics that has been seen in the state this year. The Crump men under the leadership of G. A. Loud and Temple Emery, assisted by "Tip" Aplin and other Bay City politicians ruled the caucuses and the county convention with the most fragrant kind of "gag law." A rule was adopted in the manner of voting at the county convention that was never before used in this county, simply to keep a few doubtful delegates in line who did not have the courage of their convictions, to vote in opposition to Mr. Loud's wishes. Unless oil (or something else) is freely poured on the troubled waters between now and November the democrats of Iosco county will have more than a fighting chance of winning.

Scare Schemes.

It may be expected that from now until the election every failure and every reduction of hours or time of labor will be vehemently proclaimed by the gold papers as "due to the silver agitation." Whenever a shaky concern finally reaches the end of its rope and finds that the day of reckoning cannot longer be delayed, it will be heralded as another object lesson of the "silver craze." It matters not that the concern was floundering just as badly a year ago when it had hardly become bruited about among the people that the country's financial ills were due to the demonetization of the silver dollar. Little was then said of silver. It was all "McKinley and prosperity." But still the trade winds failed to come and break the business calm. Concerns that have staggered along, straining every nerve to avert inevitable disaster, will continue to go under and the silver agitation will have the least to do with these calamities. Those who seek to bolster the gold cause by mendaciously ascribing such failures to the popular demand for the restoration of silver, will deceive only themselves. Every failure is but an argument in behalf of elevating the white metal to the position it occupied prior to the "crime of '73." The days of deception are past. The people have studied the question. The humblest voter knows fully as well as the banker, the broker and the speculator what has caused the all-prevailing distress. The workman in the factory is fully as well posted as the proprietor regarding the causes and results of the depression. It is useless to tell him untruths or to try to scare him. He has got beyond that stage. He has dismissed the doctors that were keeping him on the sick list for the sake of bleeding him. He is working out his own cure. If the gold advocates are sensible they will cease telling him lies which are no longer of force and effect. In the same life warning should be taken by corporations. It will be of no benefit to them to apply the thumb screws through forced reductions of wages or threats of that kind. The day of such schemes has also passed. The employes will read such promulgations in silence and through fear of attempt-ted enforcement of the threats suppress open rebellion at the outrage on their citizenship. Their time, however, will soon come at the polls. No one can justly blame them if they dissemble under duress and then quietly exercise their rights and vote their convictions when the ballot is placed in their hands.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The American Money Problem.

The following appeared in the London Financial News, March 10, last. Voters of Michigan do you wish England to control this nation or do you wish to govern yourselves. This article shows conclusively which is for the interests of the American farmer and laborer:

The financial situation in the United States is very serious. The senate has blocked all relief measures, proposed by President Cleveland, and congress is at a dead standstill on the money question. The free coinage senators are masters of the situation.

The condition of affairs in the United States congress demands the immediate attention of British financiers and statesmen. The trade of the world is now in our hands, but it will not long remain there if the United States goes on a bimetallic basis with free and unlimited coinage of silver.

With the addition of silver to the volume of money, everything in America would take on a new face; labor and industry would gain new life. The grip of the gold standard on the products of the world would be loosened and prices would rise. Great Britain would lose her markets in South America, Asia and Europe, and American ships would not be long in capturing the carrying trade of the world.

British creditors must now apply themselves quickly to the American money problem. The sound money men and banking interests, led by Senator Sherman, Cleveland and Carlisle, with a plentiful supply of means have been beaten. The American people are now thoroughly aroused and educated in the power and use of money, and made desperate by debt and business depression, they are forcing free silver as the main issue.

Great Britain need fear no injury to her trade or investments if the republican party can force "protection tariff" as the main issue in the coming presidential campaign, but if free silver dominates the American mind and carries at the polls, it will bring about a change in England that will be ruinous from its suddenness and severity. The damage that can be done to British manufacturers by a protective tariff is slight compared with the disasters that would be entailed by a change from a single gold to a complete bimetallic standard.

It is evident that the democratic party will not renominate a man who holds to President Cleveland's ideas on money, and the only hope for a continuation of Mr. Cleveland's financial policy will be in the success of the republicans in the next election.

The success of free coinage will bring down the rates of interest on money, and cause an immediate rise in the price of all commodities. When silver becomes primary money the American mines will pour their products into the mints, and a new era similar to that produced by the issue of greenbacks during the civil war will begin. Gold will leave the banks and enter into competition with silver in the avenues of trade, and the manufactories of the United States, which have been shut down or crippled since 1892, will again resume their fight for the English markets.

It is doubtful whether the republican party can be held much longer in check by sound money statesmen, as its adherents are divided by powerful factions. The democratic party is also breaking up under the weight of the free silver agitation. It matters not to Great Britain which party succeeds if the gold standard is maintained, but either of the old parties or a new party which goes into power pledged to free coinage will be inimical and prejudicial to English manufactories and trade.

The American people cling with wonderful tenacity to party organizations, but financial embarrassment and business stagnation have become too severe for their patience, and they are ready for any change that promises relief. They are becoming convinced that it cannot be found in the protection theory, as that has been tried, and they are massing now on free silver. When that issue comes squarely before the American people, England will regret her apathy and adherence to the single gold standard.

WERE VERY FAVORABLE.

Weather Conditions During the Past Week

Lansing, Mich., August 25.—According to the state weather bureau the weather conditions of the past week may be characterized generally as cool and dry and very favorable to farm work and crops. Light frosts Wednesday morning were quite general in all sections of the state, but did very little damage and were confined to low ground. Much farm work of all kinds has been accomplished; oats have at last been secured, but in a very badly damaged condition; threshing has been pushed, and plowing and fitting the ground for fall seeding progressed rapidly. Farmers report the ground in excellent condition for plowing and seeding and considerable rye has already been sown. A few correspondents report winter wheat seeding, but that work is not yet general.

Corn continues in fine condition and very promising. Some early corn has been cut and within two weeks corn cutting will be general. Correspondents report that it is glazing, thus making it better able to withstand early frosts, should they occur. At the very latest September 15 will see all of Michigan's corn beyond the danger of frosts, and present conditions indicate that it will be an immense crop.

The continued moist weather of the past summer has been detrimental to potatoes: the complaint that they are rotting in the ground is quite general. Beans are now maturing and bean pulling has quite generally commenced; the crop is in fair condition, but has had too much moisture in many cases. Pastures by all correspondents are reported in excellent condition, a rather unusual thing at this time of the year.

Fruit is very plentiful and of good quality, especially apples and peaches. Many plums are rotting on the trees; the same complaint is also heard to a lesser extent regarding other fruit.

A slice of mince pie made of the right mince meat is a lunch in itself—an epicure's lunch.

FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

The eighth Michigan cavalry will hold a reunion at Holly on September 5.

A Cheboygan young man, with a salary of only $3 a week got married the other day.

Chas. Seneyck, of Saginaw, has commenced a $10,000 suit for false imprisonment against Fred Krohn.

The bondsmen of ex-County Treasurer William Erratt, of Cheboygan, have paid $8,000 to settle his shortage.

Mrs. Wm. Taugh, of Bay City, aged 70 went down town the other day for the first time in 16 years. It was the first time he ever saw a street car.

Mrs. Robert Maxwell, of Clare Saturday, rushed after her 3-year old child, who was playing dangerously near the railroad track. Seeing her coming, the child ran upon the track. Mrs. Maxwell tried to snatch the little one out of danger, but an engine struck them, throwing both 30 feet and killing them almost instantly.

Gustave Hine, of Bay City, through his attorneys, filed a $1,000 damage suit in the circuit court against the Bay Cities consolidated Street Railway Co. On July 8, 1893, his 12 year-old daughter was knocked down by a car and in addition to sustaining serious injuries was badly disfigured about the head, face and arms.

The Detroit & Mackinaw will not run cars into Bay City till September 15, and perhaps not for 10 days after that. Saturday a Leungsville man, who had not yet been paid for right of way, strung a chain across the track from tree to tree and locked it, then stood guard with a loaded rifle. Later in the day a settlement was effected, and the chain removed.

Merrill & Ring, the big lumber firm, of Saginaw, who Friday asked for an extension of time from their creditors, are said to have assets of $2,200,000 and liabilities of $900,000. The lumber, logs and book accounts amount to nearly $750,000. Thomas Merrill, it is said, offers to secure all creditors with his entire individual estate, estimated at nearly $1,000,000. The firm owns an immense plant at Duluth, a lumber yard at Toledo and thousands of acres of pine lands in Michigan, Canada and the west. Their trouble arose from the failure of purchasers to take and pay for lumber cut under contract.

The editor of the Willmar, (Minn.) Argus lives in a house located between a Methodist church and a dance hall. One evening recently there was a gathering in both places. It being to warm for comfort indoors, the editor sat on the veranda and took in the situation. This is what he heard: "Let us pray—all salute—we beseech thee to join hands and draw near—circle to the left—listen to us—first forward and back—as we all promenaded—kneel before thee and balance all—present your petition—grand right and left—for Christ's sake—seat your partners." The editor was more than saddened at the degeneration of the village and went off and joined a base ball club in order to be neutral.

McClure's Magazine for September.

McClure's Magazine, with a stirring barack room ballad by Kipling, a thrilling installment of Anthony Hope's "Phroso," a dramatic sea story by an actual sailor, and characteristic stories by Mrs. Spofford and Clinton Ross, maintains, in the September number, its usual enticing aspect. In scanning a table of contents of McClure's, one never experiences, it must be allowed, the familiar difficulty of finding something one really cares to read.

More interesting even than the fiction, in this number, are some of the graver articles. Mr. Low's recollections of his art student days in Paris and of the notable painters whom he came to know more or less intimately there; Mrs. Morton's intimate account of the heroic labors of her husband Dr. W. T. G. Morton, in overcoming incredible prejudice and obstruction and getting his humane discovery of anesthesia perfected and introduced, and so giving painless surgery to the world; the vivacious, yet sympathetic account of the painter Whistler (that most picturesque of men) and his eccentric ways and witty speeches; and Elizabeth Stewart Phelps' account of her life down among the Gloucester fishermen,—all of these are the very best of good reading in their several ways. All are fully illustrated with portraits and other pictures. Considering abiding value as well as present interest, the feature of the number is Lincoln's "Lost speech" raised to the fullness of life as it were from the very dead. It is truly a great speech, as persons who heard it have always so ardently testified. Delivered at Bloomington in 1856, it practically created the Republican party in Illinois. But the reporters were so absorbed in listening that they forgot to report, and the speech was supposed until now to be irrevocably lost. Mr. Joseph Medill, editor of the Chicago Tribune, who heard the speech, introduces it with an interesting description of the occasion. The S. S. McClure Co., New York City.
