TAWAS CITY MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1897.

No 42.

State S. S. Convention.

The following circular has been issued by the officers of the state S. S. association:

The attention of all persons connected with, or interested in Sunday School work, is called to the fact that the thirty-seventh annual convention of the Michigan State S. S. Association will be held at Port Huron, November 16, 17 and 18. This gathering being international and interdenominational in its spirit and aims, and withal spiritual, edifying, educative in its methods, we can confidently commend it to the general patronage of the public.

The committee would specialize a few matters:

First: The sessions will be held in the new and magnificent auditorium now approaching completion.

Second: The program already adopted will be eminently practical and helpful, and ably sustained from outside the state by Alfred Day, general secretary of the provincial association; Mrs. J. W. Barnes, of New Jersey, a primary worker of national renown, and E. O. Excell, of Chicago, who will conduct the song services; and by representative talent within the state. It is expected that some member of the international committee will be present.

Third: One-half day will be given to a field worker's conference, in charge of Mr. Day; and a half day to primary methods, the discussion of primary principles, etc., led by Mrs. Barnes, and in addition several important conferences will be held, independent of the regular program.

Fourth: The Michigan R. R. association has granted a rate of one fare for the round trip from all points in Michigan. Dates for the sale of tickets, Nov. 15th and 16th. Return limit 19th, 1897.

Fifth: County and township associations are entitled to two delegates each, besides their officers; and every Sunday School in the state should send its superintendent and one delegate.

Sixth: Entertainment, so far as lodging and breakfast is concerned, will be provided by the people of Port Huron; dinner and supper will be provided at 20 and 25 cents each.

Programs in full, with further details, will be supplied to the schools and workers soon.

Town Line.

The roads are very muddy.

Mrs. Samuel Proper, sr. is very ill. Parker Clarke is working at the Ottawa Hardwood mill at East Tawas.

Chas. Wright, jr., of East Tawas, spent Sunday with his parents at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Smith are the proud parents of a twelve pound girl.

The entertainment given in the M. E. church was a grand success. Much praise is due F. F. Stephenson, county commissioner of schools. Although a young man, Mr. Stephenson is in thorough sympathy with school work and as he intends to give a series of lectures through the county. Everyone interested in school work should attend. BADGER,

Land Marks Gone.

About 2 o'clock Wednesday morning our village was aroused by the ringing of the fire bell. It was discovered that the two old store building next to the Mathew street bridge were in flames and beyond all hope of saving. The fire apparatus was got out and the fire kept from the bridge. The buildings were old and dry and burned like tinder and had it not been for the rain which had been falling all night there would have no doubt been several other fires, as large pieces of shingles were carried seven or eight blocks, and the roofs of buildings within two blocks were literally covered with fire brands. No clue as to the cause of the fire is known. The buildings were owned and occupied by William Barker, with a shoe shop. He also lived in the building. But very little of his stock was saved. He estimates his loss on stock at $100 with $50 insurance. He also had $150 insurance on buildings, which will about cover their loss. The buildings were two of the oldest in the city, having been built by Moses Miner about 30 years ago, who occupied them with a shoe shop. Theo. Simon, now of New York City, commenced business in them when he first came to Tawas City.

Tawas City Literary Club.

A meeting was held at the home of Miss Nettie Daring last Friday evening for the purpose of organizing a literary club. The meeting was well attended and an organization was completed with the following officers:

President—Miss C. N. Mc Elhenney.
Vice President—Rev. S. Schofield.
Secretary—Miss Jessie Robinson.
Treasurer—Miss May Crandall.

Committees were appointed on constitution, and to recommend a course of study, and an adjournment taken until Wednesday evening, when the club met with Miss Lida Patterson, and adopted their constitution and by-laws. It was voted to take up the study of American literature and general history. A committee on program was appointed. The club will meet with Miss Mc Elhenney next Tuesday evening, when the regular work of the club will be commenced. The club starts with a membership of about 25, and the members expect to gain much benefit from a winters study and pleasant social evenings.

The Supervisors.

The board of supervisors adjourned last Friday until Tuesday of this week. The principal business done this week was the report of the committee on equalization. A hard fight was made by AuSable township and East Tawas to secure a big cut in valuation, but was unsuccessful. The report as finally adopted as follows:

AuSable township	$325,000
AuSable city	90,000
Alabaster	100,000
Burleigh	85,000
Baldwin	45,000
East Tawas city	325,000
Grant	45,000
Oscoda	325,000
Plainfield	60,000
Sherman	50,000
Tawas City	160,000
Tawas	110,000
Wilber	60,000

The board will probably finish its work today.

Supper and Entertainment.

Wednesday evening, October 27th the M. E. society, of this city, will give a supper and entertainment at the church and parsonage. Supper will be served at the new parsonage from 5 to 8 o'clock. The following program will then be given at the church:

GEORGE M. PULLMAN, died at his home in Chicago, Tuesday, of heart disease.

THE citizens of Detroit will make no mistake if they reelect William C. Maybury mayor of that city. During his seven months in that position he has proven a capable and careful official.

THE race for mayor of Greater New York, lays between Henry George and Seth Low, with George the favorite. The Platt and Tammany machines are both doomed as they should be.

CHARLES A. DANA, the best known newspaper man in this country died at his home in Glencove, L. I., last Sunday afternoon. Mr. Dana has been the editor of the New York Sun since 1868.

LICK observatory has discovered a new comet. It is situated in the constellation Camelopardalis, 17 hours and 45 minutes Greenwich mean time. It is of moderate brightness and can be seen in a telescope of three inches aperture.

CZAR REED sends his compliments to Mr. Platt, and begs leave that, as he understands geography, Portland, Maine, is not one of the boroughs of greater New York. For that reason, by his present intentions, Mr. Reed will take no part in the mayoralty fight now being waged in the latter place.

THE postmaster general has promulgated an order that persons in the employ of the department who do not pay their debts shall be relieved of their positions. The government pays regularly and those in government employ are expected to do the same. This would be an excellent rule to extend to all persons employed in a public capacity.

ACCORDING to the statement of the 10-year-old daughter of a Massachusetts clergyman there are ways of making an old sermon seem almost new. "Molly," said one of the friends of this young critic, "does your father ever preach the same sermon twice?" "I think perhaps he does," returned Molly, cautiously; "but I think he talks loud and soft in different places the second time, so it doesn't sound the same at all."

The commander of the first ironclad that participated in a navy engagement died in Washington Monday at the age of 80; yet Admiral Worden was in the prime of his manhood when he became the hero of the magnificent battle off Hampton roads. And the miracle of it is that he lived to witness a revolution in the navies of the world, a revolution that is the product of the Ericsson genius and the Worden valor. From the Monitor to the Terrible and the Kaiser Friedrich 111 seems a mighty step in the warfare of the nations; but the death of one man serves to remind us that a single generation has witnessed the achievement. From wooden frigates to steel battleships in four decades, what may not the next four decades produce?—Evening News.

It is estimated that in one city, Chicago, the coin-in-the-slot machines are devouring more than $2,000,000 a year. There are two kinds of the machines. Those that have a slot for petty gambling operations, and those that are supposed always to give something in return for the slot investment. Those who put money in the gambling slot take their chances of getting something out, and the makers and owners of the machines take care that these chances are none too good. Those who drop coins in ostensibly vending slots are not gamblers, but they are frequently dupes; the contrivance swallows the coin, yields nothing worth having, and seems to ask: "What are you going to do about it?" There is practically no choice between them, and both classes of slot machines should be avoided by all save millionaires, and outlawed by the state.—Ex.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

OCTOBER, 18th, 1897.

The Platt-McKinley deal, first shown up in this correspondence, has been fully proven by the actions of the administration, public and private, within the past few days. It was to whip all administration republicans into line for Platt's man Tracy, that Mr. McKinley had secretary Bliss write that gushing letter in Tracy's favor and announce his intention to personally take part in the New York campaign. The fate of other national administration candidates in New York should have warned Mr. McKinley.

According to private letters received from those who move in diplomatic circles in London, Mr. McKinley became very much afraid about the time the Governor of the bank of England made that silver bluff, that his own bluff, the international bimetallic commission, was being seriously taken by the British government and caused it to be unofficially intimated to Lord Salisbury that this government had no real desire that any steps should be taken that were likely to lead to international bimetallicism, as it was slowly but surely paving the way to make the single gold standard permanent in the United States.

Senator Gorman's manly open letter to the publisher of the Baltimore Sun, offering to withdraw from the leadership of the democratic party of Maryland, if the Sun would show its loyalty to the democratic party, by honestly supporting its candidates, and its publisher would take the management of the present campaign, has been the most absorbing topic of conversation in Washington since it was published. Inasmuch as the Sun has claimed Senator Gorman to be the only obstruction to its support of the nominations of the democratic party in Maryland, Senator Gorman's offer has placed it where it must present some better excuse for ignoring the offer than it has yet done, or run the risk of losing the confidence of many democrats. Democratic sentiment in Washington is practically unanimously on the side of Senator Gorman in this controversy. In that open letter Senator Gorman thus defines his attitude towards the civil service law: "I am unalterably opposed, except in judicial places, to life tenure of office. It is incompatible with our free institutions. I believe that the highest standard for admission to the civil service should be honesty and capacity. When appointed, persons in public employ should be free from political assessment, but I am unalterably opposed to any rule which will prevent the people, at stated and fixed periods from changing their public servants."

It is no longer a secret that Gen. Fitz Lee, who has been much before the public since he became our consul general to Cuba, will be a candidate for the seat now held by senator Martin. It is also fully understood that Gen. Lee will, when he returns from Cuba, probably early next year, begin a personal canvass for the senatorship, which he intends shall cover the entire state of Virginia, even to its remotest corners.

The administration fully recognizes the danger of a big treasury deficit during the next fiscal year, added to that which is being piled up during the current fiscal year, and at the last cabinet meeting it was determined that the departmental estimates for appropriations to be submitted to the coming session of congress, should be cut down as low as possible, in order to try to get the expenditures down to the receipts of the government. This is confirmation of the arguments presented by prominent democrats while the tariff bill was before congress—that the bill would not raise sufficient revenue.

No one in administration circles has denied the statement that Attorney General McKenna is to have the vacancy made by the retirement of Justice Field from the U. S. supreme court, on December 1, although there is one special and particular reason why Mr. McKenna should never sit on the supreme court—he is too friendly to the big corporations, this was known before he came to Washington, but additional proof was given by his avidity to ratify the bargain made under the Cleveland administration for the sale of the Union Pacific Railroad to the Huntington reorganization committee, under conditions which practically shut out competition in the bidding. An attempt is now being made to get Mr. McKinley to interpose his authority in some way to stop the sale of the U. P. at least until the conditions of the sale can be changed so as to make them as fair to one set of bidders as to another but there seems to be some doubt of his authority and more of his inclination to interfere, after Boss Hanna had told the Huntington ring that the sale should be put through under the old agreement, although the government will lose millions of dollars by the sale under present conditions.

Order of Star of Bethlehem.

A very enjoyable evening was spent by 75 people at the parlor entertainment given by the members of Hemlock lodge at the residence of Frederick Latham, Tuesday evening, Oct 19th.

Literary and musical selection were rendered by Miss Corrine Benedict and Miss Goldie, of Tawas City; Miss Otis, of East Tawas; Mrs. Chase, of Owosso; Misses L. and C. Long and Miss Hanna, of Vine; Miss Anna F. Martin, of Detroit; Mr. Chas. Smith and Mr. W. J. Smith, of Grant; Mr. F. Benedict, of Baldwin. Members of the order also took part. Games etc., were in order after the program was completed, also refreshments which were enjoyed by all.

At the regular meeting on Wednesday evening, fifteen applications for membership were brought in and nine new members were initiated. *

A Young Girl Should.

Try to cultivate pleasant manners to all, and especially to married woman. Young girls often forget that the matrimonial estate demands respect.

Always remember to speak distinctly, and that "a low voice is an excellent thing in woman."

Not think that every one in the room is thinking or talking about her, but try and forget self by taking a lively and intelligent interest in the conversation around her, for unconsciousness is one of a young girl's greatest charms.

Not imagine that every man who pays her a little compliment has fallen a victim to her charms, undoubted though that may be.

Not allow any man to make her conspicuous by his attentions; a girl ought to make it impossible for her name to be mentioned lightly.—Ex.

The November number of McClure's Magazine will contain the first of three papers by Ferdinand Bruenitiere, the French critic and the editor of the Revue des deux Mondes, giving his impressions of America. America found not a little to say of M. Brunetiere during his recent visit, and it will now be interesting to see what he, in his turn, has to say of America.

Joseph Cox, aged 42 years, died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Force, in Tawas township, Friday, Oct. 15. Mr. Cox had been an epileptic for years and for a few weeks previous to his death had been suffering from diabetes. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Force, also of T. P. and James Cox, of Bay City and Lon Cox of this city. The funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon and the remains interred in the Tawas City cemetery.

Much complaint is heard among our business men regarding the poor mail service we are receiving at this office. A large portion of our mail from the south that should be delivered here in the morning at 7:00 o'clock is carried to Alpena or other northern offices and does not get here until 9:06. Cases are also reported where important mail matter has been on the road three days before it was received at this office, which was mailed at Alpena. Postmaster Kelly is making an effort to have better service rendered.

Here's a marriage notice that appeared in an exchange: "Married at Flintstone, by Rev. Windstone, Mr. Nehemiah Whitestone and Miss Wilhelmina Sandstone, both of Lime-stone." This is getting "mighty rocky," and there's bound to be a "blasting" of these "stone" hearts before many "pebbles" appear on the conjugal beach. The grindstone of domestic infelicity will sharpen the ax of jealousy and discord, and sooner or later one or the other of this pair will rest beneath a tombstone. Then look out for brimstone.
