FINDPIRATES' HOARD

WINDFALL FOR PEOPLE OF PORTUGUESE VILLAGE.

Hidden Plunder of Long-Forgotten Sea Banditti Revealed Through the Encroachments of the Atlantic Ocean on Coast.

The inhabitants of Paradelha, a tiny fishing village on the Portuguese coast some distance south of Lisbon, have been growing rich of late on what seems to have been the hidden plunder of some long-forgotten pirate band. Some of them have gathered in as much as $1,000 worth of treasure.
That part of the coast of Portugal is suffering from the encroachments of the ocean. Many houses have been undermined in the last few years and have had to be abandoned. Sometimes big slices of dry land slip off into the Atlantic ocean on a stormy night and the people wake up to find all landmarks changed.
This is what happened a couple of weeks ago in a furious gale. The waves washed far in over the upland and carried away vast masses of the upper soil, leaving the shelving beach a couple of hundred feet wider than it had ever been before. A fisherman walking along the edge of the strand saw something glistening in the slope and rooting it out of the ground found it was an ancient silver cup. He dug some more and found quantities of scattered gold and silver coins.
When the news got around the village the whole population turned out to dig. They found still more money, all dating back to the end of the seventeenth and beginning of the eighteenth centuries. There were rings and brooches, crucifixes and jeweled chalices, jeweled sword handles and table plate. Nobody knows just how much the treasure amounted to, since the fisherfolk hid it as fast as they secured it, and when the official inquiries were made every one denied his own share.
They are still digging, however, and an occasional find is made. The sea seems to have broken up the cache and distributed its contents over many acres of beach. Objects are picked up as far as low water mark, and some are doubtless washed back from time to time from deep water.
It is believed that the treasure represents plunder from Spanish coast towns. It is said that long ago there were numerous bands of Portuguese pirates which committed depredations on a considerable scale both afloat and ashore, and when Portugal was at peace with Spain they were obliged to be very careful and hide their plunder. From time to time other hoards of the same sort have been discovered. When this collection was buried, no doubt, the spot was far enough from the water's edge to be regarded as safe for all time.

Serious Thoughts.

The multimillionaire was being shaved. As he lay back in his chair, looking upward, his grave face gave the impression that he was in deep study.
"Ah," whispered one of the barber-shop loiterers, "I'll wager a dollar against a toothpick that he is thinking of railroad mergers."
"No," said another, "he is thinking about bear raids in Wall street."
"But he is pondering over the rebate system," echoed a third.
"I'll ask him."
Walking over to the chair he said politely:
"Beg pardon, sir, but to settle an argument, would you kindly tell us what mighty question you are studying over?"
The multimillionaire turned his lathered face around and smiled. "I was just studying two flies doing hand springs on the ceiling," he chuckled, and the trio of guessers looked so sheepish they failed to hear "Next" when it was called to them.—Chicago News.

Antidote for Ingersoll.

Colonel Ingersoll was to speak in a Western town. As an antidote the good people announced for the following night: "An answer to Ingersoll!" Circulars were even scattered about the hall the night before, and one was banded to Ingersoll by mistake as he made his way toward the platform.
He was fairly into his subject, when a mule attached to one of the vehicles about the entrance opened up an opposition, after the manner of mules. Ingersoll paused, listened intently till the music ceased for an instant, then, shaking a menacing finger in the direction whence the sound had come, he cried:
"Hold on there! - You stop! Can't you play fair? This is my evening! You are advertised for to-morrow night!"—Illustrated Sunday Magazine.

Always Good.

"Ah, yonder goes a wicked beauty," said the Fool, the while he pointed out a very handsome woman in the street.
"Friend Fool, there is no such thing as a wicked beauty," was the Sage's answer.
"But, Master Sage, that beauty I am showing you, she's very wicked!" cried the Fool. "Why, she has ruined men galore! Wicked—well, I should say she was!"
The Sage smiled simply as he made reply:
"You may be right in that the woman's wicked. But—"
He paused an instant to drive home his point.
"Her beauty, Fool, is good, exceeding good!"—Hertzberger's Weekly.

Those who have had experience with this stubborn disease can hardly believe at first that Wonderful Dream Salve can and does cure Eczema.

There is no doubt about the matter whatever. A great many letters are on file in our office from grateful patients, telling of the quick and easy way in which Wonderful Dream Salve has removed all traces of this torturing skin affliction.

Mr. John T. Kealey, a well-known business man, located in the Stevens Bldg., Detroit, Mich., was recently cured of a bad case of Eczema of fourteen years' standing. After treating with many doctors and taking many remedies without relief, Mr. Kealey was induced to try Wonderful Dream Salve, and in four weeks was entirely cured. He says:

"I certainly consider this a remarkable cure, inasmuch as I have spent hundreds of dollars in the fourteen years of annoyance with this troublesome itching skin ailment. I have since the cure of my case heard of other cures, some of them even more remarkable than mine, which go toward demonstrating the value of Wonderful Dream Salve as a great skin healer."
If you have Eczema, why not try a box of Wonderful Dream Salve. If it fails, your druggist will refund your money. Isn't that fair enough?
