There was a big increase in the attendance at the Soldiers' Home in Grand Rapids during November, the total number during the month being 1,372, while at the end of the month the number was 1,160 as compared to 1,070 the previous month.
According to the audit of the books of the Barbers' Board there is on hand $1,931 more money than the books call for. The books further show that since 1899, when the board was organized, it has turned into the state treasury $35,000. Must be good book-keeping there.
Rev. O. W. Nuzum, D. D. pastor of first M. E. church of Ashland, Wis., says: Mr. Milar's readings at the first M. E. church lecture course were pleasing, dramatic and gave excellent satisfaction. Mr. Milar will be at the Congregational church next Thursday evening, Feb. 17.
Capt. Edson M. Raymond, a former well-known resident of this county, and Postmaster of Edson postoffice, in Grant township, until it was discontinued, died at the Soldiers' Home at Bennington, Vt., January 28th, 1910. The deceased was born at Ornell, Vt., May 13, 1830, and served in the Civil war with a Vermont regiment. He resided in this county for a number of years, returning to his native state a couple of years ago, and entering the Soldiers' Home. He has a host of friends here who regret to learn of his death.

Wm. G. Milar appeared for the fourth time in this city. He is the most versatile impersonator on the platform. His Shakespearian parts show talented acting and sparkling oratory. At the Congregational church next Thursday evening, Feb. 17.—The Herald, Stratford, Canada.
Joseph Blust and Miss Annie Ebert, two well-known and highly respected young people of Tawas township, were united in marriage at St. Joseph's church, Tuesday morning, Rev. Fr. Jewell officiating. The Herald unites with their many friends in extending congratulations.
Iosco county is sure getting good. The juries drawn for the last two terms of court have been discharged before the term convened. The jury drawn for the February term, which convenes next Monday, has been notified that they will not be needed. There are only four or five minor cases on the calendar.
The state board of corrections and charities have asked the attorney general to mandamus proceedings against the board of supervisors of Alcona county to force them to build a jail. The county has been without a jail since theirs was destroyed by fire seven years ago. Since that time the board have been unable to agree where the new jail should be located.
Rev. Joshua Roberts, of Detroit, Superintendent of Missions, will preach at the Tawas City Baptist church next Sunday morning; at the Hemlock Road Baptist church in the afternoon, and at the East Tawas Baptist church in the evening. There will be no services at the East Tawas church in the morning or at the Tawas City church in the evening.
Last Saturday morning, in the circuit court at Mason, Frank P. Glazier, ex-state treasurer, who was convicted of misappropriating state funds, was sentenced to a term of from five to ten years in the state prison at Jackson, with the recommendation of ten. It has taken two years to complete this case, every possible delay having been taken by Glazier's attorney.
The Passion play at the Royal Theatre for three nights—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, February 14, 15-16. This play is the genuine and will be very interesting for everybody. It is 3,100 feet long and as clear as crystal. We will also have as the illustrated song, "The Holy City." Admission for all 10 cents. After the Passion play, the next show will be Saturday evening, the 19th inst.
A new postoffice ruling provides that on and after February 15th next, rural mail carriers will not be obliged to take loose money from mail boxes in payment for postage. Persons having no stamps who wish to post letters will be obliged to wrap their money in a paper or place it in an envelope if they wish Uncle Sam to take it up and buy postage for them. A better way is to keep on hand a supply of stamps and save your mail carrier the trouble of stopping to collect money in whatever form.
That it is a mighty poor proposition to be a knocker: Be a booster. Do your share toward advancing the interests of your home town and your own county. You will feel better and it will surely react your benefit. The west has made great by the boosting of its citizens, and its citizens profited thereby. The local newspaper is continually advertising the merits and opportunities of the home town and county. The wider the circulation the more valuable is this advertising. You can materially aid toward the development of your town and county by not only subscribing for your local paper for yourself but by having it sent to friends and acquaintances in other parts of the country. Every citizen, property owner and business man can well afford to boost this way. Try it.
An attack of the grip is often followed by a persistent cough, which to many proves a great annoyance. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been extensively used and with good success for the relief and cure of this cough. Many cases have been cured after all other remedies had failed. Sold by Red Cross Pharmacy.

In the circuit court at Mason during the past week one man has been sent to prison for from five to ten years for stealing $680,000.00, while another gets five years for stealing a $45 watch. The latter will probably serve his time, and the former will probably be pardoned.
A dispatch from West Branch says: With the thermometer registering 14 degrees below zero, J. T. Sargent and John Rau, while returning from the Hauptman branch, where they had been inspecting ties, had the experience of watching their team stand still for three hours and fifteen minutes when about eight miles from town. First one horse balked, then the other one and then both balked. There was a high wind blowing and both men were nearly frozen. The horses were, too, when they decided to go. Both men are recovering, but had a close call.
At Last.
The committee is prepared to announce that William Gorham Milar, entertainer, will be the next number on the course. The date is next week, Thursday evening, Feb. 17.
"Mr. Milar appears before this audience without the aid of scenery or change of costume, and renders an entire drama. He delineates each character so clearly and powerfully that you comprehend the full meaning and movement of the play without difficulty, and feel its humor and pathos. In impersonating Shakespearean Tragedy or Modern Comedy he is equally realistic. He is an accomplished actor of high merit, possessing talents of wide range. His absolute control of a voice that is little less than magical, is wonderful, as he passes with lightning rapidity from one character to another. Mr. Milar is a marvel on the platform and his complex personality stamps him as a genius of rare power and peculiar type."
—The Critic.

Cannonomism and Partyism.

Getting rid of Cannon won't get rid of Cannonomism. The people will dig deeper than Uncle Joe.

A big majority of congressmen are no better than Cannon. Most of them stand for the same things he stands for. And not all of these belong to his party.

There are democratic as well as republican tools of privilege in congress. We feel that we are on the safe side of the truth in saying that most of them represent the people not a bit more than is necessary to hold their jobs.

And jobs is the essence of today's American politics. Even the president thought he could bring the insurgents to time by withdrawing patronage. He evidently thought they would trade principal for jobs.

All of the people ought to know by this time that there is no difference in meaning between the names republican and democrat. Republican rule in Philadelphia and democratic rule in New York city spell the same kind of graft; and the same kind of misrepresentative government. And republican policies under Roosevelt and republican policies under Taft are as far apart as the poles.

What is a republican?

Roosevelt says he's one. But Aldrich and Cannon also claim to be republicans. Here's one instance where things that are equal to the same thing are not equal to each other.

What's a democrat?

If Bryan, Harmon, Taggart, Guffey and Murphy are democrats, then a democrat stretches all the way from Bryan to Murphy. And they're as far apart as Roosevelt and Cannon.

The truth is that each of the so-called great parties of today has in it every shade of political thought, from extreme radicalism to boneheaded conservatism; and neither stands out boldly for anything definite but jobs.

And the bosses of both party organizations, and many of the congressmen and state legislators represent campaign-fund-contributing privilege and misrepresent the people.

At that the people are responsible for it because they stand for it. They'll continue to get it in the same old lace until they swear off being democrats and republicans and become free men. And they ought to learn from privilege how to do that.

Privilege is independent of partyism. By controlling both party organizations, privilege wins no matter which party loses.

But there is always the chance that some day the honest voters of this country will open their eyes, tear off their party tags and labels, beat both corrupt party organizations and take possession of their own government.—Bay City Times.

For Those Who Worry.

"When we begin to carry our trouble to bed with us at night, and think about them instead of going to sleep, then we want to look out for squalls," writes Dr. Woods Hutchinson, for Munsey's magazine. He says that worry is a disease.

Life, as a whole, is composed of at least nine parts of happiness and sunshine to one of suffering and gloom. The healthy mind sees it in proportion. It's a sign of disease when discomfort begins to loom greater than comfort. When this happens look and you will find you are mistreating your body, by overwork, underfeeding, lack of sleep or lack of play.

"It is really appalling," the doctor says, "when we come to consider it broadly—the narrowness, the monotony the everlasting repetition of average workaday life; the prospect of performing the same petty duties day after day, month after month, year after year, with nothing to end it short of the great sleep. Variety is not merely the spice of life, but its salt, the very essence of its continuance. Intelligent recreation, interests outside of the daily grind, changes of scene—these are not merely luxuries, they are necessities of life."

"The best and only cure for worry is to live an active, interested, vigorous, cheerful life, with plenty of interest outside of your daily work and in other people as well as yourself, and with full recognition of the gospel of play. Keep up your interests, your work, and your hobbies, and you will seldom worry, and will never realize that you're old."

Another Oats Scheme Being Worked on the Farmers.

The following from the Cheboygan Democrat should act a warning to the farmers of this vicinity:

It has been almost long enough since the Bohemian oats swindles swept the country for the farmers to forget how they were stung once, and it seems that many have already forgotten the experience of thousands of farmers in Bohemian oats time, because an oats selling scheme savoring much of that one time swindle is again being worked in the state and the men have been selling to the farmers of the west half of the state of late, and have plied their business far into the north counties, and are possibly headed this way, and may be will visit Cheboygan county ere we can sound this warning.

Word was sent to a prominent farmer of this section of the scheme being worked, and to keep his eye out for the fellows, as they would visit this section.

They go to the farmer and sell him seed oats at four dollars per bushel, these oats they claim will run from 25 to 30 more bushels per acre than the average variety of oats, and each bushel will weigh from 4 to 10 pounds more than the oats now being raised. They agree to purchase back of the farmer all of the oats he raises from the seed at market price. They are selling lots of the oats in the sections they have visited as reported, and will no doubt be able to pick even some men that were caught on the Bohemian game, of which this bears a very dangerous resemblance.

It will be well to keep your lightning rod up for these smooth sharpers, and set the dogs on em when they come through the gate.

We hope our warning has not been too late to save some Cheboygan county farmers, and that all may take warning herefrom.

Hand Shakes.

There's the man whose hand is clammy, as a fish that's lately died, and to grasp it sends a shudder percolating through your hide, and you feel its cold impression in your muscles and your glands, and you wish he'd wear an oven on his blamed Antarctic hands. There's the man with hands so horny, that they feel like chunks of slate, and when he's shaking with you, you can feel them grind and grate; and he nearly breaks your fingers, and you mutter through your hat: "I would run them through a smelter if my hands were hard as that." There's the man whose hands are always pawing, pawing while he talks; they are fussing with your whiskers, they are reaching for your socks, they are patting on your bosom, they are tapping on your arm, till you'd like to meet the owner on the Mrs. Gunn farm. There's the man whose hands are always sliding down into his jeans, to relieve some broken pilgrim of their miseries and pains; and such hands that in their giving, never falter, never tire, in the golden time a-coming will be twanging at a lyre.

Tell The Man.

Don't think because the reporter sees you getting on the train that he ought to know who you are and where you are going, or if he sees you greet some friends that he knows who they are or where they came from. We aim to get all the news, but you may be the one we don't happen to know. We try to become familiar with the names and faces if possible, but during the years past we have been to church and failed to see you there; we have hung around the town pump, but some of you weren't there; we have loafed on the street, we have even risked our reputation on back streets on a dark night, but you weren't all there. And we'll be hanged if we know where to find you. So if you are going or coming or know of anyone cutting up queer capers, let us know.—Exchange.

In sickness, if a certain hidden nerve goes wrong, then the organ that this nerve controls will also surely fail. It may be a stomach nerve, or it may have given strength and support to the heart or kidneys. It was Dr. Shoop that first pointed out this vital truth. Dr. Shoop's Restorative was not made to dose the stomach nor to temporarily stimulate the heart or kidneys. That old-fashioned method is all wrong. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to these failing inside nerves. The remarkable success of this prescription demonstrates the wisdom of treating the actual cause of these failing organs. And it is indeed easy to prove. A simple five or ten days test will surely tell. Try it once, and see! Sold by C. H. Prescott & Sons.

Co-Education Meets With Success At Michigan.

The University of Michigan was one of the first leading educational institutions to adopt the co-educational system. In January, 1870, the legislature adopted the resolution allowing women to attend the University of Michigan. One month later the first woman student enrolled in the literary department. In 1870 and 1871 several women were registered in the different departments. The first woman graduate was Miss Amanda Sanford of Auburn, N. Y., who secured the degree, M. D., March, 1871.

The idea of co-education in the university developed gradually, and received much opposition. Finally when it did come, there was a good-natured curiosity and contempt for the "co-ed's" as they were at once called.

In the year 1893, the women constituted 37 per cent of the attendance in the literary department, and for several years following the proportional attendance of women to the total attendance was between 20 per cent and 22.4 per cent. In 1899, the ratio was 5 to 1, but the literary department had increased in the women's attendance till the ratio was 44 to 56. The number of women in the medical department was very large in the early '90's, but has decreased rapidly, till today women "medics" are scarce. Much of this is caused by the increase of co-educational medical schools.

The total attendance of women in the university today is 735, of which 650 are undergraduate literary students.

One significant fact is that the freshmen girls' class is decreasing, while the senior class is increasing.

President Helps Orphans.

Hundreds of orphans have been helped by the president of the Industrial and Orphan's Home at Macon, Ga., who writes: "We have used Electric Bitters in this institution for nine years. It has proved a most excellent medicine for stomach, liver and kidney troubles. We regard it as one of the best family medicines on earth." It invigorates all vital organs, purifies the blood, aids digestion, creates appetite. To strengthen and build up thin, pale, weak children or rundown people it has no equal. Best for female complaints. Only 50c at J. M. Wuggazer & Co. and Jas. E. Dillon's.

Mother, father, school officer, did you ever stop to think if you had a boy or girl in an onion patch out behind the barn, you would want to know what they are doing? "Better visit the school."

Took All His Money.

Often all a man earns goes to doctors or for medicines, to cure a stomach, liver or kidney trouble that Dr. King's New Life Pills would quickly cure at slight cost. Best for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, jaundice, malaria and debility. 25c at J. M. Wuggazer's and Jas. E. Dillon's.

Short and to the Point.

One of the shortest speeches recorded in forensic annals is that of Taunton, afterward a judge. Charles Phillips, an Irish orator, had made a flowery speech in an assault case. Taunton, who was for the defendant, said in reply: "My friend's eloquent complaint amounts, in plain English, to this: That his client has received a good sound horsewhipping; and my defense is as short—that he richly deserved it."

Won't Need a Crutch.

When Editor J. P. Fossman, of Cornellius, N. C., bruised his leg badly, it started an ugly sore. Many salves and ointments proved worthless. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it thoroughly. Nothing is so prompt and sure for ulcers, boils, burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, pimples, eczema or piles. 25c at J. M. Wuggazer & Co. and Jas. E. Dillon's.

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve-sickness—nothing else.
It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success out that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. Gentlemen:—Your committee on drains and ditches was respectively reported that we met on Oct. 27 and 28 and examined the work done by the county drain commissioner. On Oct. 27 we examined the work done in Sherman township on the Elm creek drain and the Gregory drain, and found the work to have been done in a good and workmanlike manner and believe that it will be of lasting benefit to the county and Sherman township in particular. On Oct. 28 we examined the State Ditch drain in Wilber township, found that the clearing out of said ditch has opened up a large amount of good farming land, being a great benefit to the county. Your committee was well pleased with the work done by the drain commissioner and we recommend drains for the low lands of the county.

Soldiers and Sailors Exemption

Owing to the near approach of the time for making assessments of property, many old soldiers have been concerned as to the proper interpretation of the provision of the new tax exemption law relating to soldiers and sailors. Many have supposed the law exempted all property of soldiers and sailors up to the $1,200 limit no matter what amount of property they might possess over and above that amount. It has been also considered that this provision of law exempted from taxation property of soldiers and sailors in their wives' names.

Attorney-General Bird has now rendered an opinion that seems to clear up all questions. Any soldier or sailor, or widow of such soldier or sailor, who served three months or longer in the Civil war, may have his real estate exempted from taxation, if used as a homestead and not of a value exceeding twelve hundred dollars. If it is of greater value, then there is no exemption and it may be assessed for the entire valuation. Taxable personal property over and above the twelve hundred dollars of real estate works the forfeiture of the exemption on any of the property.

The exemption is held to include the widows of soldiers and sailors but not their wives. In very many instances the homesteads of the old veterans stand in the names of their wives. In all such cases there will have to be paid as heretofore. It is expected in such cases that the title will generally be changed back to the husband.

Threatening feverishness with children is quickly and safely calmed by Preventics. These little Candy Cold Cure Tablets should always be at hand—for promptness is all-important. Preventics contain no quinine, nothing harsh or sickening. They are indeed, "the stitch in time." Carried in pocket, or purse, Preventics are a genuine safeguard against colds. 25c. Sold by C. H. Gentlemen:—At a meeting of the State Board of Corrections and Charities held on the 2d inst, a report of the visit recently made to your jail by a representative of this board was submitted, and I was directed to advise you that it is the opinion of the members of this board based upon the report submitted, that immediate action be taken with reference to the conditions in your county. It is necessary that a separate detention place for juvenile offenders be provided. It is reported by the representative who made the visit that there are some rooms in the basement of your court house which could easily be made suitable for this purpose. Some facilities for bathing, and a padded cell should be provided, and a grating should be placed on the windows of the lower floor to prevent the introduction of liquor and food. In the central counties five said yes, while 151 reported no. Northern counties reported 132 no, and of the upper peninsula counties 20 answered in the negative.

The amount of wheat marketed by farmers in January at 130 flouring mills was 201,097 bushels, and at 119 elevators and grain dealers, 192,442 bushels, or a total of 412,539 bushels. Of this amount 318,578 bushels were marketed in the southern counties, 65,024 bushels in central counties and 18,937 bushels in the northern and upper peninsula counties. The estimated total bushels of wheat marketed from August to January is 7,000,000. Seventy mills and elevators throughout the state report no wheat marketed during the past month.

Forty-two years of steady, continuous progress, along conservative lines, has made the Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Company one of the strongest and sturdiest financial institutions of the Middle States. Its methods have never been spectacular. Its management has striven for safety and security, rather than ostentation and display. As a consequence, the Company has attracted and numbers among its policy-holders that large class of conservative insurers who recognize and appreciate careful, conservative management and absolute protection at the least possible cost.

During the year 1909 the Company paid for living policy-holders the still greater sum of $639,000.60. It has also loaned to its policy-holders on their policies the sum of $1,573,783.93, and during its existence has paid to its policy-holders $17,500,000.00—over one and one-half times its total assets.

The Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Company has some good field positions open for men of ability and integrity.

To the Hon Board of Supervisors:
Gentlemen:—In regard to the case of Arneac county vs. Iosco county, I have to report that the Supreme Court has decided this case against the defendant, and in their opinion the plaintiff was entitled to recover the amount sued for, viz: $91.83, as the same had been allowed by the local board of health, which action was final and binding upon the defendant. I can see nothing to be gained by trying the case again in circuit court, as the court would have to direct verdict for the plaintiff and sue for under the decision of the Supreme Court.

Following are the items which make up the amount now due to Arneac county on this claim:

Uncle Sam's Employees.

The government's employ list is growing by leaps and bounds. The grand total of all federal employes at present is 370,065, as against 506,141 in 1907, an increase in the two years of about 64,000 persons, or about 20 per cent.

There were 28,947 persons in the federal employ in Washington on July 1 last; the annual payroll for them is $31,542,225, an average of nearly $1,100 each. This total will be temporarily swollen next year by the addition of about 5000 persons to the clerical force of the census bureau, adding nearly $5,000,000 in salaries during the year or more of employment.

With regret we received the sad news of the death of Miss Nellie Goodwin, of Pittsburg, Pa., whose body was laid to rest at the Saints cemetery last Tuesday evening. Much sympathy is manifest here for the aged mother and other relatives in their bereavement, may they find comfort in the thought—Not this the end.—There is a larger life beyond the boundaries of time, where all who were the victors in the early strife, are near companions.

The death of H. B. Stone, at St. Louis, Mich., came as a shock to the many friends of the family here. Mr. Stone has been in poor health for some time, and last Monday went to St. Louis with Mrs. Stone to attend the funeral of the latter's mother. Wednesday a message was received to the effect that he had died suddenly of heart failure. Mrs. Stone arrived home on Wednesday. The body was shipped home for burial. Much sympathy is expressed to the bereaved family in their affliction.

A marked increase in the attendance at the Baptist Sunday school is the result of the contest, "A Trip to Palestine," which has been in progress for some time past, and which ended last Sunday when the "Blue Buttons" on board the Louisiana carried off the honors being just to complete the journey. It now befalls the "Red Buttons" on board the Montana to serve the banquet, which was the forfeit to be paid by the losing side, and the committee will arrange for the same at an early date. About 125 were in attendance last Sunday and the contributions have been very gratifying.

Some large enterprises have grown from small beginnings, and if the enterprising firm of Rowley & Broadworth continue to extend their business as rapidly as they have since locating in our city about three years ago it will not be long until Whittemore will have a manufacturing concern of large proportions. This firm is composed of E. C. Rowley and Robert A. Broadworth, who opened a general blacksmithing business here about three years ago, after buying the old school building. They have gradually expanded until they now have a large addition built which contains an engine, plainer, band saw and other wood-working machinery, and they have built up extensive, and rapidly growing sales for sleighs, board scrapers, tanks, cisterns, and other products of this kind. As soon as spring opens they will build a foundry in connection with their present business, their being able to do all their castings which will be a great help to them in turning out work. They have contracts for a large number of sleighs for next fall delivery. Our little city is to be congratulated on the location of these hustlers with us, and a few more of the same kind would soon put Whittemore in the list of manufacturing cities.
