East Tawas Election.
The city election in East Tawas Monday was rather lively, 335 votes being cast. The contest was between the republican and citizens' tickets and the citizens won a complete victory excepting the alderman in the first ward where T. J. Oliver, the republican candidate, was elected. Mayor LaBerge was elected for the third time, his majority being 45.
Following is the result:

Mayor,
James LaBerge, citizen. 190—45
C. W. Luce, republican. 145
City Clerk,
A. J. Noel, citizen. 220—107
A. C. North, republican. 113

was elected alderman over Lyman Mc-Auliff by 15 majority, and Robert Mc-Murray was elected constable without opposition.

defeated J. V. Johnson for alderman by 43, and M. J. Stang defeated R. Herman for constable by 45.

The city gave 170 majority in favor of primary nominations.

The Banquet.

Tuesday evening about 75 members of the Citizen's Social Club of the 23rd Judicial Circuit, gathered at the Hotel Holland for their annual banquet and pursuant to the rules of the club, had a most enjoyable social evening.

The feast spread by Mine Host Anker was all that could be desired for an occasion of that kind, and ample justice was done by all.

President LaBerge, acting as toastmaster for the occasion, called the assemblage to order and introduced Rev.
E. A. Kinney as the first speaker, who proceeded to define "what makes a good citizen" in a manner which met the hearty approval of all.

Rev. O. E. Moffet compared "Turkish and U. S. citizenship" in an eloquent and pleasing address. W. H.
Sanborn of Harrisville, followed with "A Perfect Tribute," and P. J. Hottis told of some potatoes grown in Burleigh township. Dr. Crane was supposed to talk on "the specialist in medicine and surgery," but got his wires crossed and ran into Nick Harting's automobile.

W. B. Kelly told of some "queer things in Justice courts," and Judge Conine gave an able address on "too much legislation." There were a few more on the program, but as the hour was late these were "canned" for the next banquet which will be held at Harrisville in 1911.

The program was enlivened by several excellent vocal selections by E. F. Loud and Vernon Sharkey, of AuSable, and F. F. French, of East Tawas. Will Nickles, of AuSable, presided at the piano.

W. L. Chappel, of Harrisville, was elected president; James LaBerge, of East Tawas, vice-president, and N. C.
Harting, of this city, secretary and treasurer.

A Lesson in Mail Order Business.

The other day a local merchant complained that he was getting very little trade from the rural districts; that the mail order houses of Chicago were getting lots of business in this section and were greatly injuring business houses in small towns. This reminds The Tribune of an incident related to it by a citizen of one of the smaller towns just north of Bay City. It is intensely interesting. This is the story:

A local trader in my town was much flabbergasted the other day because so many of the farmers were buying of the Chicago mail order houses. One old farmer living close to town was cornered the other day and asked about it; asked why he did not patronize home industry and trade with home dealers, who made a market for the products of the farm. The farmer replied that he could do better by buying of the catalogue houses. The dealer then asked the farmer for his order blank and did a little figuring on it.

"Why," he said at last, "I could have saved you $4.80 on that order and have given you a better grade of goods and you would have gotten the goods right away."

"Well," said the farmer, "why in heck didn't you say so before? Why didn't you tell people in the papers what you have to sell and give your prices? I have never seen any of your goods advertised. How am I to know? The mail order people send me a catalogue and tell me how the goods look and the cost, and some of them look good to me. Why don't you people who want the farmer trade do the same? I don't see you advertising any bargains and persistently keeping at it in reaching out after the farm business?"

The foregoing is at least a partial explanation of the growth of the mail order business. The mail order people are persistent, capable advertisers. They keep everlastingly at it. They reach the farmers through the mails with newspapers containing their attractions, and as a result they get business. Buying in vast quantities, they are able to sell a little lower on some items, but in the long run they get good prices, in many instances for inferior goods.

If dealers in the small cities pursued the same course as the mail order houses do in reaching out after business by advertising aggressively and persistently every hour of the day and night, it isn't questioned the results would be satisfactory.—Bay City Tribune.

Norway Poplar.

Through the generosity of the Public Domain Commission, and on account of their interest in anything toward the improvement of Michigan lands, the Northeastern Michigan Development Bureau has been enabled to order 30,000 Norway Poplar cuttings for distribution in the territory comprised in their district. As these cuttings will be received very soon, applications for them should be sent to the Secretary of the Development Bureau as soon as possible.

The instructions from the nursery direct the planting of the cuttings in rows 6 feet apart and four feet apart in the rows, putting them in about 7/8 of their length, allowing only the top two or three buds to stick out. They suggest a sharp pointed iron or dagger-shaped steel be used to make the holes, putting the cutting into such holes and tamping the soil down fairly around the same. Cultivate the first two or three years and then mulch. Later as they commence to die out they should be thinned out to almost one-half. According to these directions it would require about 1,800 cuttings to the acre, but as they suggest thinning out later on, and as in practice many people do not put them out so thick, perhaps fewer to the acre would work out as satisfactorily.

Norway poplars are claimed to thrive on any soil, but are especially adapted to light soils. Senator Forsyth, of Standish, has exhibited boards 12 to 14 inches wide cut from Norway poplars planted by him less than 15 years ago.

All that is necessary for responsible parties to obtain these cuttings is to agree to set out and care for the poplars and report results later on. As stated, above applications should be sent to the secretary of the Northeastern Michigan Development Bureau.

Hints to Country Correspondents.

The Ronceverte (W. Va.) West Virginia News recently printed a set of rules for the guidance of its country correspondents. These rules are in part as follows:

First of all, the News is a newspaper, designed to give the news of the neighborhood, county, state and nation, and no effort should be made to make it the surveyor of mere gossip or the instrument of personal revenge. In disseminating the news it must be reliable and impartial to the utmost degree. Once in a great while some one who has a grudge against a neighbor writes a letter to the News in which a sly thrust is made at the person he or she doesn't like. Sometimes it is cleverly disguised and the editors are unable to detect it. This should never be done, and it is earnestly hoped that no correspondent or occasional contributor will so abuse our trust. Personal feeling should never dictate in giving news. Never overlook the comings and goings of neighbors whom you may not like. Give all the news of all the people, whether you like them or not.

Avoid as much as possible chronicling the calls made by one neighbor upon another who live on adjoining farms. There is little news value in such items. Do not note the calls made by the beaux on the belles of the neighborhood. Do not forecast marriages, but report them after they occur.

In giving the news of the birth, say: "A son (or daughter) was born to Mr. and Mrs. So and So on such-and-such a day of the week, month and year." Leave off making comment on the father's actions.

Write about the comings and goings of your neighborhood—those who visit from a distance or from some other town or neighborhood, and those who go away on business or to visit. Tell who they are visiting and where and when, and write names plainly and correctly. Don't use nicknames, but always the proper name.

Get all deaths, giving full particulars—date, age, residence, cause of death, full name, number of children, if any left, and where they live, and all other particulars.

Give all marriages and particulars of weddings.

Give account of all accidents; fires; new buildings of importance; sale of farms of large property—who sold and who bought; crimes, if any are committed, with correct and accurate details.

Report large crops and crop prospects.

Report any unusual business activity.

Report social events, parties, etc., and give names of those invited or attending.

Report everything of news character.

Leave nothing out which has news value or which will interest readers.

Report nothing of a personal nature or which will wrong anybody in the slightest.

Don't report any rumors which have no foundation, or rumors which would injure a person if untrue.

Date letters and write with this date in mind.

Write on one side of paper only.

Near by Farmer Pays High Tribute to Michigan Alfalfa.

Seth Lovell, a farmer who became a homesteader near Burt Lake some thirty years ago, paid a visit to Petoskey Wednesday for the first time in many months. Mr. Lovell is owner of about four hundred acres of fine farm land near Burt Lake, with much of it bordering directly on the lake. He harvested five hundred bushels of apples last fall from a very small acreage, and will this year set out other fruit. He is especially interested at present in alfalfa, having had splendid success in its culture, though only a few acres were sown to this clover two years ago. Mr. Lovell feels certain that it is the future clover of this locality, and will get forty acres into the production of it as rapidly as possible. He says one of the most notable things in regard to this hardy grass is that the forest fires of two seasons ago scarcely affected it, the one year grass only a little, and the two year crop not at all, while all other grasses and grains in the locality suffered from the intense heat severely.—Petoskey Independent.

Rose City is Swept by Fire.

Fire which started about 2 o'clock Sunday morning in W. D. Benjamin's store practically wiped out the business section of Rose City, entailing a total loss placed at $150,000. In all 27 store buildings were destroyed with their contents. The flames spread rapidly from the Benjamin store in both directions, and fanned by a brisk wind, got beyond the control of the bucket brigade and leaped across the street.

In order to stop the flames from spreading into the residence district, Mayor Karcher authorized the use of dynamite with which two stores were blown up. F. G. Bell was knocked down by the explosion and severely bruised, W. D. Benjamin suffered a dislocated ankle.

Rose City Fire Act of Revenge?

A West Branch dispatch says: Clare Thornton was arrested Tuesday on suspicion of being responsible for the big $160,000 fire at Rose City early Sunday morning. His examination is set for Thursday of this week. Early Saturday evening Thornton and a friend, it is alleged, were drunk and the friend was arrested. It is said Thornton was heard to say he would burn the town if his friend wasn't let out. After the fire started people met him on the road and he told them he would be blamed for the fire. He has always had a good reputation in the past.

Notice to Cream Shippers.

Shipments of cream via the D. & M. Ry. must have attached to each can or case a shipping tag, properly addressed to the consignee so as to insure prompt delivery on the going trip, and also show the consignor's name and address to insure its return to proper place and party. Agents have been instructed not to receive cans or cases for shipment unless they are so tagged or otherwise properly and plainly marked. It is advisable that owners of cans show on same by means of a brass or copper or metal plate their names or initials and the station to which the cans belong.

The Demon of the Air is the germ of lagrippe, that, breathed in, brings suffering to thousands. Its after effects are weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore health and good spirits after an attack of grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by J. M. Wuggazer & Co., and Jas. E. Dillon.

NOTICE.

The Detroit & Mackinac Railway Company have for the past five years experimented with a forestry nursery on its Tawas Beach property. At the present time, they have on hand trees of the following kinds for transplanting:
White pine, Scotch pine, western yellow pine, spruce and western white cedar.
They desire to dispose of these trees and will give them to parties who will plant them and see that they are properly taken care of. The only charge made will be for the expense of packing and freight charges from East Tawas to destination.

Notice of Hearing Claims.

It is especially requested that the farmers on and adjacent to the line of the Detroit and Mackinac Railway make requisition for these trees for the purpose of setting them out for reforesting some of the lands that they have cut over on their farms.
The trees will be ready for delivery as soon as the frost is out of the ground which will probably be about April 1.
Those interested should communicate as early as possible with Mr. C. W. Luce, General Superintendent, Detroit & Mackinac Railway Company, East Tawas, Michigan

WHO NAMED KALAMAZOO?

Nobody knows. There is one thing that everybody does know, however, and that is that Mild-Lax has made the town famous. Some time ago nearly everyone in Kalamazoo suffered from constipation. Now whenever you run across a clear faced, healthy looking individual, set it down he's from Kalamazoo and uses Mild-Lax. All druggists.

Ganderbone's Forecast For April.

I dreamt that I dwelt in overalls,
With Nature all around me;
And the smiling countryside in thralls
Of deep affection bound me.
I loved to milk and do the chores
Around that simple dwelling,
And I didn't give a whoop outdoors
How groceries were selling.
I dreamt that I dwelt in overalls,
With hired men to serve me,
And something when misfortune falls
To happily preserve me.
I heard the lowing of the kine
As deep-toned as an organ,
And the thrill of ownership was mine,
The same as Mr. Morgan.
I dreamt that I dwelt in overalls,
As all the railroads want me;
And the city and its gloomy walls
Were nevermore to haunt me.
I lived on something more than crusts,
With nothing much to fret me,
And I hopped around and dared the trusts
To come out there and get me.

April was anciently the second month, and it was entirely satisfactory in that position until the founding of Rome. This occurred upon April 21, and the Romans found it necessary to keep the day with one of their patriotic parades. After they had lost most of their toes and stopped the parade three or four times while everybody went in and got warm, they yielded second place on the calendar to February, and shoved April along to balmy weather.

The name is from the Latin Aprilis, or the opener, who was the Roman god of plover. This was a great pastime with the Romans, and it is so deeply impressed itself upon the national life that Aprilis became in time a sort of all around corkscrew for opening Spring or whatever else pertained to the Roman experience. It was a form of humor among the Roman wits to say that Aprilis had opened Spring and bet a robin or something similarly characteristic, and the weather bureau of that time wholly confined its conjectures to what Aprilis probably held or would draw, which made this branch of the Government a great favorite with the people, instead of something that everybody damns, as it is with us.

The gentle rain will green the lawn, and seed the Congressman sent on to prove his usefulness to men will hazard the insurgent hen. The breath of summertime will blow, the sap and poetry will flow, and the farmer will deny his dog to feed that $30 hog.

The playful colt will pirouette
And turn the double summerset.
The festive calf will buck and snort
And tip up where his hair is short.
The farmer will get in his corn,
The meadowlark will wake the morn,
And Pinchot will display the welt
He got to Papa Roosevelt.

For All-Fools' Day you may rejoice to learn that you will have your choice. The first, the sixth and twenty-one have all been beautifully dunned; but of the three it may be said the first is virtually dead, whereas the sixth is something new. It is the day that Peary drew himself erect and said, to-wit: "This is the pole, and I am it." And likewise on the twenty-first another great explorer burst upon that quiet Arctic nook and cried, "Eureka, tally Cook!" Just help yourself to either date you care to keep and celebrate. It matters not which one is set, since nothing has been settled yet.

The first of April Teddy lands
Upon the dock at Naples,
With lion blood upon his hands,
And skins and other staples.
He'll then proceed by easy trips
To lecture toward New York,
And add to Europe's scholarships
The study of the stork.

Upon the night of April 8, or some not very distant date, we shall at last with naked eye see Halley's comet in the sky. It will appear to be a stick of living fire and twice as thick as that which Roosevelt was wont to carry when he made his haunt around the capitol. Its head will wave this way and that, and dread will seize upon the people who have not been giving us our due.

Our Uncle John will push his plan
To elevate his fellow man,
And as the comet closes in,
He'll grow impatient to begin.
Our Uncle Andy will recall
That he has not begun at all
To give, and Uncle Pierp himself
Will scatter his abundant pelf.

The Rockefeller fund to date
Is all there is to demonstrate
The comet's usefulness, but wait
Until the money syndicate
Looks up and sees that awful sign

Upon the sky. They'll get in line To square themselves. The trusts will Go forward to repent, and bawl
And howl around upon their shins,

H. G. Wendland & Co.

Bay City, Michigan

Implored pardon for their sins.

And then the census man will come around the house and haw and hum. He'll lead at this and lead at that, and ask the birthplace of the cat. He'll fiddle here and potter there, and take a sample of your hair. He'll measure you between the eyes, and figure and philosophize. He'll make the acid test for wealth, and ask of everybody's health. He'll count the children and the goats, and ask how much you have in oats. He'll kick his shins against his calves, and add and multiply his halves. He'll show his star and stick around, and finally declare his ground and ask the womenfolk their age, and exit bleeding from the stage.

Some fifteen million, it is said, will go to see how many head there are of us, or black or white, or whether we can read or write, and what the plus of women is that no one yet is calling his, and other unimportant facts concerning our domestic acts, when most of us, to all intents, would rather have the 15 cents it costs us per, and do not care how many of us have red hair, or who can read and who can write, so long as simply throwing light upon the matter doesn't make the bachelor spruce up and take the pining spinster to his heart, or teach unlettered folk the art of writing, or as far as we, at least, are competent to see, improve our happiness a bit, but congress wills, and so be it.

April will chiefly consist of Taft weather, with occasional showers. The moon will be in apogee on the 24th, which will be the last day the hog will jump over it. Mr. Cannon will be storm center.

And then the month of May will come. Of all the months the worst, And forty kinds of bugs will fight To see who saw us first.

Huron Shore Picnic.

Huron Shore Woodmen will have their annual excursion and picnic at Cheboygan, July 21; Huron Shore Odd Fellows will have theirs at Millersburg, August 4 and the Huron Shore Maccabees at Onaway, August 18th. Announcement will be made later regarding the Huron Shore Sunday School picnic, association, the Huron Shore Foresters, the Huron Shore Gleaners, the Huron Shore Orangemen and others organizations.

You Get Style Plus Quality

A SERIOUS condition of the Clothing trade today is a continuous sacrifice of style for quality, or quality for style, to maintain a sensible cost. A few makers do combine style and quality, but you know it results in an exorbitant price.

Let us tell you the problem to combine style and quality, yet keep the cost within the limits of the average man, is solved in Clothcraft Clothes. Clothcraft makers have blazed the trail in their scientific tailoring methods.

We investigated the clothing market thoroughly and were independent, because we wanted to offer you the very best the country afforded. And we are proud to be known as the Clothcraft Store.

CLOTHCRAFT
All-Wool Clothes $10 to $25

Clothcraft are the only clothes that guarantee you both style and quality at popular prices. We and the makers take all the risk; you take none.
