There is no right way of doing a wrong thing, but there are many wrong ways of doing a right thing. The aim should be to do the right thing in the right way and to let the wrong thing severally alone.

Senate employees at Lansing are so thick a person hardly gets into the capital building. There are 65 of them and it is little wonder it calls for economy. Every senator is supposed to get as many appointments for his friends as possible, and these fellows have to be paid. One-half the number could do all the work that is required, and probably the senators themselves could if they had to.

Just received, our new spring and summer samples from those master tailors, Ed V. Price & Co., and Kahn Bros. It will be a pleasure for me to show you samples and help you in a selection at any time. Clothes made by these tailors are strictly up-to-date, all wool and guaranteed to be perfect in every detail, as they are made expressly for the man who is to wear them. Harry is one of the county's most enterprising young business men and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his continued success. Mores and Leah Marks of Oscoda are the stockholders whose interests he has just purchased.—Omer Progress.

It remained for the recently organized Ottawa basket ball team of East Tawas to demonstrate that there was enough skill in the boys of that city to win a game. Last Friday evening they played against the storng AuSable team and won by a score of 21 to 17. In the three years that the game has been played here this is the first game won by the boys of East Tawas. The young ladies also defeated their sisters from the north by a score of 13 to 8.

Prosecuting Attorney A. W. Black has removed his office from East Tawas to the prosecuting attorney's office in the court house. He announces that his office hours will be from 10 o'clock a. m. to 4 o'clock p. m. For the accommodation of those who may wish to consult him at East Tawas, he has arranged offices with Justice J. W. Tait, where he may be consulted previous to or after the hours above mentioned, by appointment. Tawas City phone No. 28-2L. Residence phone No. 81.

Three valuable bulletins have just been issued by the Agricultural College. From the horticultural department special bulletin 44 treats on "Varieties of Fruit Originated in Michigan," bulletin 262 on "Suggestions for Planting Orchards," from the animal husbandry department bulletin 261 on "Baby Beef Production," and from the chemical division bulletin 263 on "Fertilizer Analysis." Any or all of these bulletins may be had by writing the Agricultural College at Lansing.

The Cheboygan Democrat completed the 31st year of its existence last week, and with it comes the announcement of the retirement of its veteran editor, Edward Forsythe. For years the Democrat has stood in the front ranks of Michigan's weekly papers and its editor conceded a place among the ablest of the state's newspaper publishers. His retirement will be received with regret by the fraternity. Al. H. Weber, who for the past five years has been the able assistant of Mr. Forsythe, becomes editor and manager. This is sufficient guarantee that the paper will maintain its high standard, as Al is one of the progressive fellows who is never satisfied to follow some one else. The people of Cheboygan have every reason to be proud of the Democrat.

Slidewell collars, Delta dress shirts, hosiery for men, women and children, hats, caps, suspenders, neckwear, handkerchiefs, you will find no better place to buy these articles than at Nels Brabant's, whose motto is "live and let live."

The Tawas Butter Co., is certainly making a record. It has recently closed a contract with the Hotel Ponchartrain, of Detroit, for not less than 600 pounds per week, also good standing orders from other Detroit concerns. A representative of the Hotel Ponchartrain recently visited the factory and was most highly pleased with the fine sanitary conditions and the careful, cleanly manner in which butter making is conducted by Mr. McCartney.

Daniel Wood, died at his home in this city at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, aged 76 years. The deceased was one of the very earliest settlers, having been here considerably over 40 years. He has been in very poor health for the past two years, being confined to his home the larger part of the time. He is survived by the widow and three sons, John, of Bay City, William, of this city, and Ony, whose present location is not known. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon, Rev. Dibley, of the M. E. church officiating. Interment in the Tawas City cemetery.

Life Saved at Death's Door.

"I never felt so near my grave," writes W. R. Patterson, of Wellington, Tex., as when a frightful cough and lung trouble pulled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is due solely to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. Now I weigh 187 pounds and have been well and strong for years. Quick, safe, sure, its the best remedy on earth for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, and all throat and lung troubles. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by J. M. Wuggazer & Co. and Jas. E. Dillon.

GREATEST OF ALL CONQUESTS

In the Art of Flying We Stand at Threshold of Man's Greatest Achievement.

The mighty powers of nature have only been conquered by man at his peril. Think of the holocaust of human lives that have gone up as a burnt offering. Look back at the beginning of coal oil as an illuminant, the elevator, the steamboat, the railroad, the automobile and the tremendous powers controlled in high explosives. In the art of flying we stand upon the threshold of, perhaps, the mightiest of all of man's conquests of nature, and there will be no faltering, even if there be much sacrifice of life. The niches are ready and waiting for the martyrs—the greatest martyrs of all.

The fishes of the sea navigate within a fluid by the manipulation of fins for propulsion. But man has devised something far superior to fins. It is the rotating propeller. In the air the birds soar on planes which, at the same time, are used for propulsion. And here again, man has substituted the more efficient propeller with fixed planes for soaring. There remains the extraordinary and little known movements of the air, within which the new navigation must take place. To say that we know little that is precise about these movements is to state the greatest difficulty in the way of aerial navigation, and point the way for man to soar to higher flights of flying. And out of the blue empyrean we will surely snatch the knowledge to guide the flyer on his way.—Brig. Gen. Jones, U. S. A., in Columbian.

"The Soul of Golf." One who knew the soul of golf saw it and described it. It was a tricky green, with a drop of 20 feet behind it. To have overrun it would have been fatal. There was a stiff head wind. The player would not risk running up. He cut well in under the ball to get all the back spin he could. He pitched the ball well up against the wind, which caught it, and, on account of the spin, threw it up and up until it dropped like a shot bird about a yard from the hole, and the back spin gripped the turf and held the ball within a foot of where it fell. It was obvious to one man that it was a crude shot. It was equally obvious to another, who knew the inner secrets of the game, that it was a brilliantly conceived and beautifully executed stroke. One man saw nothing of the soul of the stroke. He got the hulk, and the other took the kernel.—P. B. Valle, in North American Review.

Invulnerable to Attack. The weight of years never bears heavily on one whose heart is light.—Florida Times-Union.

Death of Mrs. McDonald.

Mrs. Ed. McDonald, died at the family home in this city Thursday evening, January 26, 1910, after several months of intense suffering from a cancer in the throat. The deceased was born in Canada July 15, 1847, and has been a resident of this city about 31 years. She was united in marriage to Mr. McDonald 27 years ago. She is survived by the husband, and two children by a former marriage, Mrs. Herbert Horr, of this city, and a son Mathew Pollock, of Montana, also seven sisters, all of whom reside in Manatoba.

The deceased was universally beloved by all who knew her for her kindly disposition. Although a great sufferer for the past ten years she always had a smile and kindly greeting for all. The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family.

The funeral was held from the home at 10 o'clock Monday forenoon Rev. Dibley, of the M. E. church, officiating. The remains were laid at rest in the Tawas City cemetery.

Royal Fence "The Best Fence"

I have just received a large shipment and invite you to see me before buying.

The quality of Royal fence is the best. The galvanizing is second to none, and the structural features of Royal fence speak for themselves. There is not and never has been a square mesh, continuous stay fence on the market to compare with the Royal. It is guaranteed by the manufacturer and by the dealer selling it. It is all right, and will more than bear out our claim.

No trouble to build Royal fence on rough or level ground. No slipping of stays. No sagging or bagging.
