Col. W. J. Handy, of Pasadena, Cal., has been the guest of his nephew, L. H. Braddock, and family during the past week.

It is far better to ally oneself with the "I can't's" than with the "I can't's." With the one there is progress and with the other stagnation.

Mrs. Fred Lothian and little son returned to their home at Bay City Wednesday, after several weeks visit with her parents at East Tawas.

The Ogemaw county board of supervisors have voted $1000 for repairs on Miss Nina Crandal, who has been visiting at Detroit, since her school closed at Monta Vista, Cal., in June, came last Saturday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Do not forget the big G. A. R. and W. R. C. entertainment the "Singing Skule Begniment," postponed until Aug. 22nd. Miss Baker will return about Aug. 12th to begin rehearsals.

LOST, on June 28, a gold watch, Imperial movement, on the Plank road between Aug. Zimmit's and the plains. A suitable reward will be paid for the return of the same to the Herald office.

It would be wrong to judge ourselves or others by some sporadic thought or action. Our real self is rather to be learned by noting the direction our thoughts and feelings most readily take.

If people would only abstain from throwing banana peeling, paper and other litter into the street, fewer towns would have that slovenly, down-at-heel appearance which mars their attractiveness.

The "man higher up," about whom so much was heard some time ago and whose arrest and punishment for breaking interstate commerce and other laws was promised, is a most elusive being.
Anyway he has not yet been caught in the meshes of the law and the prospect grows dim.

Mrs. M. J. Connine, who stopped at the home of N. C. Harting for a few after the fire at AuSable, left Saturday for Traverse City, where she will remain for the present. Judge Connine is in this city at present, and may conclude to locate here permanently.

Supt. C. W. Luce, of the D. & M.
Ry., and James LaBerge, of East Tawas, are two of the gentlemen named by Gov. Osborne as members of the state fire relief commission. Both are excellent appointments. This commission has charge of all relief work for fire sufferers throughout the state.

The new law in regard to observing holidays in the liquor business which goes into effect August 1st, provides that saloons must close on New Year's day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Fourth of July, Decoration Day and Labor Day, also on Sundays and on all general and primary election days only until after the close of the polls. The new law thus eliminates Washington's Birthday, and Columbus Day which were formerly holidays.

F. H. Kelly, the well-known AuSable druggist, has located his family in this city for the present. Mr. Kelly is another of those who saved nothing from the fire.

Mrs. Rose McCardell and daughter, Miss Stella, returned Wednesday evening from Bay City, where they have been for a few days while Miss Stella underwent a slight surgical operation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jahraus, are happy this week over the announcement of the birth of a fine little daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Randall, at Oxford, last Sunday. This is their first granddaughter.

Dr. W. N. Yeager, the dentist, will be at Hale, Monday, August 7; at Whittemore, on the 8th; Turner, on the 9th; Twining, on the 10th; and Prescott, on the 11th, prepared to do all kinds of dental work.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dease, on Wednesday evening, occurred the marriage of Edson Miesner, of that city, and Mrs. Leona Holliday, of South Branch, Rev. Frazee officiating. The Herald unites with their many friends in extending congratulations.

Mrs. H. C. McKinnon, of Millersburg, is stopping at the home of her mother in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Mc-Kinnon were among those who were burned out by the fire that did $75,000 damage at Millersburg on Tuesday of last week. They lost all of their household goods.

The habit of boys in breaking windows in the ward school building is liable to get some of them into trouble.
The school board are taking steps to catch the guilty ones and the city marshal has been authorized to make arrests. Some of them will pay dearly for their fun.

Attorney Clark Snyder, who lost his home and law library in the fire at Au-Sable, has decided to locate in this city.
He will have his office in the building adjoining Brown's photo studio. Mr.
Snyder is a well qualified attorney and all business entrusted to his care will receive prompt and careful attention.

Mrs. John Gaul, who is with her daughter Pauline, at the Bay City hospital, came up and spent last Sunday with her family. Mrs. Gaul reports Miss Pauline as making very satisfactory improvement at present, considering her serious condition at the time she underwent the operation. With no set back the young lady will be able to return home in a week or ten days.

A. Crank, who had the misfortune to be one of those who lost his home and all else in the fire at Oscoda last week, has located in this city with his family. Mr. Crank is an experienced painter and paper hanger, and will follow his trade here. If you have work of that kind give him an opportunity. It will be appreciated. See his adv. in this issue.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday August 1st, 2nd and 3rd are the dates of Dr. Yeager's next visit to his office in this city. Arrange to have him do your dental work if you want it done right.
Special attention given to crown and bridge work and all work guaranteed, and prices reasonable. Painless extraction.

Backward, turn backward, oh time in your flight, and give us a maiden dressed proper and right. We are so weary of switches and rats. Billy Burke clusters and peach basket hats.
Wads of jute hair in a horrible pile, stacked on their heads to the height of a mile. Something is wrong with the maidens, we fear, give us the girls as they used to appear. Give us the girls we once knew of yore, whose curls did not come from a hair dresser's store.
Maidens who dressed with a sensible view, and as dame nature intended them to; give us a girl with a figure her own, and fashioned divinely by nature alone.
Feminine style's getting fiercer each year; Oh give us the girls as they used to appear. Give us the days when the hats women wore were not the real reason why Christian men swore. Over our way such a maiden steer—yes, give us the girl as she used to appear.

Hogs Wanted.
We want a car load of hogs, to be delivered between now and July 28.
CHAS. T. PRESCOTT.

Notice to the Generous Public.

Having been appointed by Gov.
Osborne as a member of the state fire relief commission, I wish to inform the public that all contributions of goods and supplies for fire sufferers in this vicinity should be held for shipping instructions. Contributions of money should be sent to me as soon as possible. The commission recommends that from now on, so far as possible, contributions be made largely in money, as that is what is most needed at present.
JAMES LABERGE,
Member State Fire
Relief Commission.
Newspapers in this district please copy.

School Officers.

The newly elected school board met last Saturday and organized by the election of the following officers:

President—N. C. Harting.
Secretary—J. M. Waterbury.
Treasurer—J. A. Mark.

All members of the board being new, they visited the school buildings and looked things over that they may become familiar with conditions and ascertain what is needed to put the buildings in condition for the beginning of the school year.

Their Silver Wedding.

Word from Everett, Wash., announces that on the 9th inst. 110 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Hayes, gave them a most enjoyable surprise, in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary which occurred July 8.

After an afternoon spent in visiting by the older members of the party, and in games by the younger folk, a fine luncheon prepared by the visiting ladies, was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes were presented with a handsome monogram silver tea set, and their guests departed wishing them many happy returns of the day.

Boost The Bureau.

The Northern Michigan Development Bureau has a big job on its hands and it needs all the encouragement and support an interested press can give.
The association is a promoter of live ideas that are bound to eventually prove the salvation of northern Michigan. If its promoters err in judgement once in a while, it only proves that they are live people and are doing things. People who reside in cemeteries are the only perfect ones. Therefore we have no kick on the N. E. M. D. B., but are here to give it the glad hand, and boost 'er along.—Onaway Inter Lake.
Go thou and do likewise.

Bids Wanted.

The building committee of school district No. 3, Tawas township, will receive bids up to and including Monday, July 17, 1911, for the carpenter work on a new school building to be erected in said district.
Plans and specifications can be seen at the residence of the undersigned.
The committee reserve the right to reject any and all bids.
JAMES H. BARNES,
Chairman of Committee.

Excursion to Bay City

Via D. & M. Ry. Sunday, July 23.
Excursion train leaves Tawas City at 9:11 a. m. Round trip rate $1.00; children between 5 and 12 half fare.
Tickets good only on excursion train.
See hand bills and D. & M. agents.

Kill More Than Wild Beasts.
The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs.
No life is safe from their attacks.
They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back, if not satisfied. Only 50c at J. M.
Wuggazer & Co.'s and Jas. E.
Dillon's.

EMBERS.

Fire Notes From AuSable And Oscoda.

Gov. Osborne made a visit to the stricken towns Sunday.

Sam B. Gardener, the barber, has opened his shop on the front porch of his residence.

"What is the future of the twin cities?" This question is often heard, but the promise seems anything but bright.

Postmaster Will McGillivray, of Oscoda, has established the postoffice at his residence, and supplies the mail thru a front window.

Cashier Barbour, of the banking firm of Geo. D. McNichol & Co., is erecting a temporary office 18 x 24, and the bank opened for business Wednesday.

Maurice Marks, the leading dry goods and clothing merchant of Oscoda, announces that he will open up a new store as soon as arrangements can be completed.

Relief for the destitute has been most liberally supplied by the people of other cities and has been distributed under the direction of Capt. Beckwith, of Bay City, who has been in charge of the relief work.

Congressman George A. Loud, who arrived from Washington Sunday morning, says: "Our company will have no announcement to make as to the future under 60 days. Our insurance matters must first be adjusted."

Some parties have, by "playing to the gallery," secured a lot of cheap advertising out of this calamity, while others who have been bearing the largest portion of the relief work have failed to receive even so much as a mention.

At no time this year have forest fires threatened the Tawas, nor have they been within 10 miles of either city, the daily press to the contrary notwithstanding. The damage done to Northeastern Michigan by fool reporters would be hard to estimate.

The people from the burned towns have been leaving for other places very rapidly during the past few days, and probably not to exceed 30 remain. There are no immediate prospects of employment for the people there and a realization of this fact should hasten those who still remain to seek employment elsewhere.

The death of Jacques LaVoie, at Mercy hospital, Bay City, Monday morning adds another to the death toll of the fire.
Mr. LaVoie was 75 years of age and was one of the refugees who was driven into the lake, and his exposure developed pneumonia. He was taken to the hospital Saturday. His aged wife is being cared for at East Tawas, and is in a serious condition.

Another Pioneer Gone.

Martin Musolf died at his home in this city, at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, July 18, 1911, at the age of 80 years and nine months.

The deceased was one of our well-known German pioneers, having come here from Germany in 1874. He is survived by the aged wife and six children, Harry, of Tawas township, Julius, Mrs.
Herman Birt, and Edward, of this city, Gust, of Aloha, and Mrs. William Har-pin, of Wyandotte, and a large circle of other relatives and friends.

The funeral services will be held from Zion Lutheran church this, Friday, afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

D. & M. Ry. to Buffalo and New York.

Passengers taking Detroit & Makinac Ry. train 4, which arrives Bay City 11:20 a. m. can connect M. C. R. R. "Wolverine Express" leaving Bay City 11:35 a. m. arriving Buffalo 10:20 same night, and New York City next morning 8:03 a. m. standard time or 9:03 a. m. eastern time. Only one night enroute to New York City. Through sleeping Bay City to New York.

Happiest Girl In Lincoln.

A Lincoln, Neb., girl writes, "I had been ailing for some time with chronic constipation and stomach trouble. I began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and in three days I was able to be up and get better right along. I am the proudest girl in Lincoln to find such a good medicine." For sale by all dealers.

Exaggerated Press Reports.

From the telegrams and letters received by people in the Tawas from friends outside it is evident that the daily press of the state have most effectually impressed the outside world with the false belief that this part of the state has been devastated by forest fires and practically every city destroyed or threatened.

Nothing could be further from the truth. The fire which destroyed Au-Sable and Oscoda started right at the towns and could not be called a forest fire at all.

The only fire in Isosco county which could be classed as forest fires is a small area south of the burned town where fire run over a small tract of sand plains.
The entire territory burned, outside of the towns of Oscoda and AuSable, will not exceed three square miles and at no time did it threaten any property of value. No farm or city property was at an anytime in danger.

These untrue and exaggerated reports of the daily press has done Northeastern Michigan untold injury. Unless these newspapers at once take up the matter of righting the wrong they have inflicted upon this section of the state, our people should cease to patronize them in any way.

The stories sent out by their reporters were ridiculous. There was sufficient facts to be obtained to have supplied plenty of news stories without wilful misrepresentations. If these men had made an effort to get facts, instead of taking every wild rumor, enlarging on it, and then sending it in as facts, they could have been of a benefit to the county. As it is their distorted statements have injured us materially.

The Circus In Town.

The famous circus arrived in Cohoes during the small hours of the day and the experienced workmen erected the big tents with the rapidity of which the mushroom springs from the pasture lot.
The layman invariably marvels at the quickness with which circus men build the tents from a comparatively chaotic intricacy of ropes, pulleys and poles. If one believed in the power of magicians, one would almost declare that every big circus must employ a wonderful magician to wave his wand over the men when they erect the tents. However, the combined efforts of all the magicians on the face of the earth would not prove efficacious in the matter of building the white tops, for there isn't a bit of magic connected with the work at all, it is simply system that does the trick—a splendid system which is carefully adhered to by every working man, from the superintendent down to the humblest canvass-man. And to the careful observer of this system it is truly remarkable.

To the infinite joy of the small boy and his sister and to the evident delight of the older folks, the circus parade replete and resplendent in majestic, scintillating, bewildering beauty, was taken over the principal streets of Cohoes this morning.
And the pagant made a favorable impression on all who thronged the line of march.

The doors will be open at seven o'clock this evening and the performance will start at eight.—Cohoes Republican.

Will exhibit at East Tawas Tuesday, July 25.

TAWAS CITY, MICH., July 21, 1911

This world is not going to be made more heaven-like by an indiscriminate condemnation of everything that life affords us. Life in this world is not to be frowned upon and despised, but to be enjoyed and exalted.

Some people seem to be so averse to cheerfulness and happiness that they take it in homeopathic doses and always with a wry face. It may appear contradictory but they get their main satisfaction in being miserable.

The British house of lords, in making amendments to the veto bill, has gone to a good deal of trouble for nothing. The house of commons will reject all the amendments and then the lords, sooner than face the creation of hundreds of new peers, will accept the inevitable.

Just at present there seems to be a scarcity of international weddings at which good American gold is exchanged for empty titles? Does it mean that American society girls are getting more sensible or is it that the supply of impetuous nobles is running short. Whatever the reason, no sensible person will regret the scarcity of such alliances.

The length of life is not to be measured by years, but by what one puts into it. People may live to a very old age and yet between the date of birth and that of death their life may be little more than a cipher. Everyone should aim to crowd into his life everything that will make for his own uplift and that of his fellows. Such a life will measure large and long in its good deeds and consequent blessing.

If an article falls from the place where it was put we instinctively put forth our hand to check its fall and replace it. In like manner and with even greater desire we should put forth our hand to support a fellow being who shows symptoms of falling morally. And if, unfortunately, some have fallen, instead of sitting in harsh judgment upon them, we should do our utmost to set them once more upon their feet that having learned wisdom by bitter experience they may with renewed hope and greater resolve and caution once more tread the path of life.

Probably the man was suffering from acute indigestion caused by poor cooking who said that, "God sends food and the devil sends cooks." No doubt the second half of that statement is a slander upon the great majority of American wives and housekeepers but it is equally true that bad cooking is responsible for a good deal of domestic infelicity. If the way to a man's pocket is largely through his stomach it is by the same route his affection may, in many cases, be reached and held. If domestic science were more generally taught in schools many a home might be made happier.

In the matter of vice Chicago may not be a sinner above any other large city. But the extent to which evil in that city does exist and flaunt itself, and the success with which law is defied is anything but creditable to the city authorities who could, if they were so minded, enforce law and guard morals very much better than they do. As in nearly every large city every incoming administration promises reforms and law enforcement which it conveniently forgets to fulfill. Small cities and rural towns may miss some of the advantages of larger centers of population, but the comparative freedom from vice is one great compensation.

It was not to be supposed that with the rediscovery of the sea serpent the mermaid would keep herself hidden. Therefore it is not surprising to learn that she has been found stranded on a southern sea beach. It was fitting and shows the commendable impartiality of the discoverers that while the sea serpent appeared near a northern watering place the mermaid should come to hand "down south." Hard-headed, sceptical people will, of course, refuse to believe either story, but even the most sceptical must admit that the stories prove that the summer hotel and watering season has arrived. If, in spite of the torrid heat, some still doubted that fact, the sea serpent and the mermaid have set the matter beyond all conjecture.

A Great Novelist.
Thackeray was one of the great masters of English fiction during the Victorian era and the centenary of his birth, which falls on July 18, is sure to reawaken interest in his works. Thackeray was one of the most genial of men, tender of heart and yet possessed of a determination and courage that enabled him to overcome the misfortunes of his early life.

As for his literary productions they are known and read wherever the English tongue is used. Few are the people who have not read his Vanity Fair, Pendennis, Henry Esmond, The Newcomes and The Virginians. And it is safe to say that nearly every reader has been fascinated by the charm of his diction, his genial wit and humor, and his exquisite delineation of character.

But Thackeray's works had also a positive value in that through them he effectively attacked many a social sham, and exposed the follies and sins of aristocracy. In truth there was in him a good deal of the democrat which accounts for much in his writing that makes them especially acceptable to American readers.

Council Proceedings.

To The Honorable Mayor and Council of the City of Tawas City.
Your petitioner, the Eastern Michigan Power Company, respectfully represents that it is about to commence the construction of a transmission line for the purpose of carrying electricity across the Township of Tawas.

The transmission line consists of lines of wires supported on towers, which are constructed of galvanized steel fifty feet in height, the base of the towers forming a triangle.

The route desired for the transmission line across said land is as follows:
West of and along and adjoining the east line of the land with the right to erect one (1) tower on the land at such a point where it will not interfere with the removal of gravel from the land.

Your petitioner represents that it has secured the consent of the owners of the adjoining property, and desires to make the same kind of arrangement with your honorable body.

Defining Marital Rights.

That Massachusetts judge may imagine that he showed a wisdom worthy of Solomon in defining what he considered the respective rights of husband and wife, but probably most people think otherwise. Apparently the judge made two mistakes, one of which was in thinking that the true relation between husband and wife in domestic matters can be set forth in black and white. The other mistake consisted in putting the wife in a very inferior position in the household.

It requires no vivid imagination to picture the result that would follow in the average home if the judge's rules should be printed and placed in a conspicuous spot to continually remind the wife of her duties to her husband.

As a matter of fact it is not by judicial definitions, however profound, that the true or ideal family relation is to be attained. Affection, common sense and mutual consideration are a thousand times more effective. In truth, where these qualities exist judicial advice is not needed, and when they do not exist such advice but adds fuel to the fire.

One thing every intelligent person must recognize, which is that the old medieval idea that woman is a sort of inferior being subject to the whim and caprice of her lord and master no longer exists except among benighted people and nations that cling to old civilizations. Certainly here in America the principle prevails, and justly so, that woman is the equal of man and that in the home a true regard for each other and good sense will amicably adjust all relations without any appeal to the law or to outsiders.

Federation In Churches.

Down in Brighton, Mich., the good church people have decided that it is better to have one strong church than two weak ones. Next fall the Methodists and Presbyterians will worship under one roof and be ministered to by one pastor. It is expected that three other churches in the village will also unite, so that instead of five or six struggling organizations the village will boast of but two. Brighton has a population of about 800 and surely two protestant churches will be sufficient. With fewer denominations much better church work may be done and edifices may be built to which the people will point with pride. Why have a lot of little chapels to gratify personal whims and further encourage a spirit of jealousy and strife when one or two strong organizations would foster the growth of unity and concord? Overchurched communities are common. The present tendency is towards union in an effort to uplift and better conditions. Civic associations of all kinds have as their watch cry, "Pull together," why shouldn't religious organizations?

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C. for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure."
