Will, Ferd and Ernie Smaltz, of the Plank road, who have been employed in the sugar factory at Madison, Wis., since last fall, came home last Friday.

Rev. William Cholgher, of Deshler, Neb., is visiting relatives and friends here for a short time. He was called here by the death of William Burtzloff.

Why not get the full market price for your hides, rubbers, rags, etc. You can by delivering them on Friday of each week to H. Cooperman at Tawas City.

After an extended visit with relatives and friends in the Tawas and vicinity, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Brien, Jr., left Tuesday for their home in Missoula, Mont.

A. S. Allard, Jr., Optometrist, will be at the Hotel Iosco, Tawas City, March 14. He will make regular trips here every 60 days. Have him examine your eyes.

For Sale.—One good driving horse, eight years old, with Concord buggy and driving harness. Inquire of Chas. Bennington, Wilber road, Baldwin, P. O. address, East Tawas.

The annual city election occurs just one month from today, yet there appears to be no interest manifested as to who should be chosen to look after the affairs of the city for the coming year.

Try for a short time the experiment of buying only advertised articles for your home, choosing wisely and giving the task enough of your attention to determine whether or not it is worth your while. No one who does this will ever go back to the old way of guessing where to get it, and wondering if it cost too much.

BE KIND TO YOUR HORSES and all Dumb Creatures—it shows the Gentleman.

Malcolm McKenzie, of Duluth, was in the city a few days during the past week renewing old acquaintances. This is his first visit here in a dozen or more years.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Proctor, who recently sold their farm on the Meadow road, left Monday evening for St. Marys, Ohio, where they will make their home. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

Mrs. Thomas McGill celebrated her 16th birthday yesterday. Although the lady was born in 1852 she has had the privilege of celebrating only 16 birthdays, that being the number of times February 29 has occurred.

"Mr. Bob", a two act comedy, will be presented by local talent at the Congregational church, Thursday evening, March 12, for the benefit of the lecture course fund. It will be under the direction of Miss Eva Bing.

Mrs. James Hinton, who was called to Clinton Mills, N. Y., about three weeks ago by the death of her father, returned Tuesday. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. James Moore, who will make her home here.

Miss Hazel, daughter of Henry McDougald, of East Tawas, was taken to Mercy hospital, at Bay City Tuesday evening, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis. She is reported as having withstood the operation and is recovering.

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, March 5th, 6th and 7th, are the next dates on which Dr. W. N. Yeager, the dentist, will be at his office in this city. He makes a specialty of crown and bridge work, and guarantees all work satisfactory. Painless extraction.

James E. Dillon, Worshipful Grand Master of the Michigan Grand Lodge F. & A. M. arrived home Sunday morning from a trip to Alexandria, Va., where he attended the annual meeting of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial Association, which met on February 22.

John L. Benson, aged 65 years, and a pioneer resident of Alabaster, died on Saturday last after an illness of nearly a year. The deceased was a man highly respected by a large circle of friends. The funeral was held from the Alabaster Presbyterian church Wednesday, Rev. O. E. Moffet, of this city officiating. Interment in the Alabaster cemetery.

The legislature met in extra session at Lansing last Monday. Aside from the introduction of a presidential primary bill, the week has been spent in "wind jamming" and a discussion of whether the primary bill can be given immediate effect. The various political factions with a vengeance.

Charles T. Prescott was down in Indiana a few days this week and purchased a carload of good general purpose horses. They arrived here last evening and were unloaded. This bunch of horses were selected to meet the needs of this section and will be included in the big auction sale at the Prescott Sales Stables next Tuesday.

The Tawas Grain Co. has sold their business in this city to Thomas Wilson, a prominent elevator man of Marlette. The deal was closed Monday and the new proprietor took possession. Mr. Wilson is a man of large experience in the grain business and is one of the substantial business men of Marlette. He will retain C. M. Davis as manager of the business here which assures the farmers of this locality courteous treatment. Mr. Wilson will devote considerable time to the business and expects to make this one of the best elevators in this section.

Mrs. William Gurley, of East Tawas, died at Mercy hospital, Bay City, Monday evening, from the effects of an operation which she underwent a few days previous. The deceased was thirty years of age and is survived by a husband and three young children. Mrs. Gurley was highly respected by a large circle of friends and her death in the prime of womanhood has cast a gloom over all. The bereaved husband and children have the sympathy of the entire community. The funeral will be held from the East Tawas M. E. church this, Friday, afternoon, Rev. W. A. Gregory officiating.

The funeral of William Burtzloff was held from the Zion Lutheran church last Sunday afternoon, Rev. Frederic Sievers officiating. A large congregation gathered to pay their respects to a highly respected friend and neighbor. The deceased has been a respected resident of this city for more than 30 years, having come direct from Germany here. He was 75 years, six months and seven days of age. He is survived by the widow, two sons, Edward and Ernest, both of this city. Also the following step children, Mrs. Rudolph Smaltz, of Tawas township, Rev. William Cholgher of Deshler, Neb., Mrs. Frank Miller and Charles Cholgher, of this city, and Mrs. Fred Reitter, of Detroit.

Who Will be Sheriff?

This question seems to be the one that is going to cause the most contest in the county campaign for the coming few months. Sheriff Hadwin is serving his second term and a new candidate will be chosen at the primaries next August. At present there are a number of avowed candidates and a number more of the receptive kind. On the republican side we hear the names of Louis Pringle, superintendent of the county farm; William Allen, the well-known Reno township farmer; ex-sheriff Collie Johnson; William McMurray, of East Tawas, the present county trustee officer, and Nada Mills, under sheriff, of Oscoda.

On the democratic side we hear the names of Win Vaughn, of Oscoda, William West, of Grant, John Jordan, of Sherman and Byron Lomason, of Burleigh, mentioned.

Probate Judge A. R. Wier, of Oscoda, will be a candidate for a re-nomination on the republican ticket, and John W. Tait, of East Tawas, is after the nomination. On the democratic side, Mayor James LaBerge, who made an extraordinary run two years ago, will be the candidate, and hopes to overcome the 28 majority by which he was defeated.

The next few weeks will without doubt develop a number of candidates on both sides for the other county offices.

Circuit Court.

The case of Benjamin Makinen vs. John McInerney, et al, which was started on Thursday afternoon of last week was not given to the jury until six o'clock Monday evening. Forty-four jurymen were called before a jury was secured, taking from Thursday noon until 10 o'clock Friday, including an evening session Thursday. The jury considered the case 18 hours before they agreed, and returned a verdict in favor of the defendants Tuesday noon.

The case of Vernor Nestle vs. Carl E. Schmedt to recover damages for injuries received while working on the defendant's ranch at Cedar Lake, was taken up with a jury Tuesday and considerable of the complainant's testimony was heard, when Judge Connine took the case from the jury and ordered the plaintiff nonsuited.

Saturday afternoon Judge Connine passed sentence on John Lake convicted of violating the local option law, and Alfred Freschette, who pleaded guilty to the same charge. Lake got 20 days in the county jail and assessed the cost of trial, $24, and in default of payment to serve 30 days additional. Freschette was given four months in the Detroit house of correction and a fine of $100 and $36.45 costs.

Governor Osborne for vice-president on the ticket with Roosevelt! Teddy would have to go some to carry Michigan with that handicap.

Representative Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, and leader of the democratic forces in congress, has announced his candidacy for the democratic nomination for the presidency. We fear Oscar will have to wait a few years longer.

"How old is Ann?" was a simple problem as compared with the one of the man who attempts to figure out who is the popular candidate for the presidency and bases his deductions on the "straw votes" being taken by the various newspapers of the country.

Roosevelt announces his willingness to accept the republican nomination for the presidency. If nominated and elected it is reasonable to believe that he would be a candidate for re-election in 1916 on a platform demanding that he be made Czar of the United Colonies of the United States.

The expense of conducting five departments of the state government for six months of 1911 shows an increase of $18,605.75 over the same period of 1910. What has become of Chase S. Osborn's reform program? Housecleaning at Lansing comes pretty high, doesn't it? —Hastings Journal Herald.

Notes From The Capital.

[By CANFIELD]

WASHINGTON, February, 26, 1912

After much fuss and feathers the minority in the House voted almost solidly on Saturday for the adoption of the resolution assigning to the several standing committees the duty of proceeding with an investigation of the so-called money trust. Under the pretense of wanting a "real" investigation, such old-time standpatters as John Dalzell and Joe Cannon berated the democracy for its apparent desertion of Mr. Bryan, when, as a matter of fact the resolution covers every phase of the situation as demanded by the Nebraskan and had the fullest endorsement of Chairman Henry of the rules committee, and who has from the start defended every position of Mr. Bryan on the floor. Representative Dalzell, whose record as a standpatter on the floor has for years been well known to every voter, almost shed tears in his pretended defense of the original Henry resolution, and he succeeded in hypnotizing many of the insurgent republicans, whose desire for such an examination of the financial situation has long been conceded as honest. The serious anxiety on the part of Messrs. Dalzell and Cannon was really occasioned by the fact that the democrats now propose to proceed with an investigation which they have most successfully blocked during all the years of complete republican control. As was made clear by Representative Heflin, of Alabama, during the discussion, and in a reference to pretended investigations under republican rule, when Secretary Cortelyou, of the department of commerce and labor, had gone to the corporations to investigate them he went with "a badge on his coat marked 'Republican Campaign Committee.' I came to investigate you," he said, and they said, "how much do you want?" The several committees to which this great question has been referred declare that they will proceed without delay and that if they find they are lacking in sufficient authority to get the information wanted that they will return to the House for further and greater power. Without question the people will soon learn that the present House is not disposed to dodge or neglect the work a long suffering country is clearly demanding.

This city is now the headquarters of three prominent candidates for the democratic nomination for the presidency, as well as that of one republican. Messrs. Clark, Underwood and Harmon, democrats, and Taft, republican, have established bureaus for the announcement of their representative candidates, and each is in charge of men greatly devoted to their chiefs.

Among the recent Michigan visitors to this city was Hon. LaFont T. Hemans candidate for governor in the last two campaigns and who came nearer carrying that state than any other democrat since 1890. He spent days in viewing the democratic house in action, and in a careful examination and inquiry into the disposition of the leaders toward a complete redemption of party promises. In discussing his conclusions after such examination he said to your correspondent: "It has been the greatest pleasure of my life to witness the solid members of my party entrusted with the work of the promulgations of democratic principles as enunciated through our, recent platforms. I have been greatly impressed with the serious determination on the part of these men to redeem every pledge. They are working long hours, carefully considering every proposition, and so far have not made a mistake. I am confident that their services to the party presage a great victory this fall, and my message to the democracy of Michigan is, let harmony and unity of action be your watchword; organize to the last school district, and carry the message of hope to every residence. The opportunity is now at hand to accomplish a great work for the whole people, and to rid nation and state of the conditions which have grown out of a too extended control by one party. It is my most cherished hope that the democracy of my beloved state will join in a united effort to put up the greatest fight in its history, and with proper organization and a reasonable sacrifice upon the part of each member of the party, victory will be sure and complete."

EAST TAWAS, January 30, 1912

Mr. Bristol:—I wish to say a few words of praise for your most excellent diphtheria remedy as a cure for scarlet fever sore throat and quinsy. I was called to help care for a young lady very low with scarlet fever. Her throat was very bad. She had one of the best Dr.'s in the city attending her but her throat got so bad all hopes of her living till morning seemed impossible. I thought of a small quantity of your remedy I had at home and as a last resort we tried it and in less than an hour her throat was so much better that all hopes returned and as soon as morning came her father got a full bottle of your remedy and it alone cured her. I also used it in two other cases when the doctor could not do any more and it effected a cure in each case, giving them almost immediate relief. If you are in need of a medicine for any form of sore throat you can do no better than use Mr. Bristol's Diphtheria Remedy.

Teachers', Attention!

The eight grade examination in reading for May, 1912, will be based on Longfellow's "The Courtship of Miles Standish."

Reading for teachers' examination in April will be based on "Hudson's Introduction to the Study of Literature. This is an especially strong book. It is very comprehensive and of especial interest and value to all teachers.

School Law and Topic of Course of Study will be part of the reading.

One half of the second grade examination in botany will be based on Warren's "Elements of Agriculture."

The third book of the Reading Circle Course is "The Personal Equation," by Lawrence McTurman. This book will inspire for better work; not only teachers, but all who read the book.

In addition to credits given above, 100 per cent will be allowed in Theory and Art those taking this course.

Respectfully,

J. A. CAMPBELL,
Commissioner.

Repels Attack of Death.

"Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made by Stillman Green, Malachite, Col. "They told me I would die of consumption. It was up to me then to try the best lung medicine and I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery. It was well I did, for today I am working and believe I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim." Its folly to suffer with coughs, colds or other throat and lung troubles now. Take the cure that's safest. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at J. M. Wuggazer & Co's, Tawas City, and Jas. E. Dillon's, East Tawas.

comes from Dr. J. T. Curtiss, Dwight, Kan. He writes: "I not only have cured bad cases of eczema in my patients with Electric Bitters, but also cured myself by them of the same disease. I feel sure they will benefit any case of eczema." This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is a most effective blood purifier. Its an excellent remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Price 50 cents. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. M. Wuggazer & Co., Tawas City, and Jas. E. Dillon, East Tawas.

Wisdom.

The Foolish Virgins regarded one another in blank dismay. "We are out of oil!" they exclaimed.

But the Wise Virgins had bought for the rise, and now that the tugge had come they were watching the tucker excitedly.

"Ten points up—on the report that the government will not prosecute!" they cried gleefully.

Showing that where virgins mingle in affairs, they will find wisdom quite helpful.—Puck

Children are much more likely to contract the contagious diseases when they have colds. Whooping cough, diphtheria, scarlet fever and consumption are diseases that are often contracted when the child has a cold. That is why all medical authorities say beware of colds! For the quick cure of colds you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all dealers.

In Full Costume.

An artist was describing a revue that he had seen in Paris. "It was a very decollete revue," said he. "In certain parts of it I was forcibly reminded of the story of the Parisian chorus girl. This girl had been put through her paces, and finally engaged. 'And now,' she said 'about my costume. What costume shall I wear?'" "Let me see your tongue," said the manager. "Ah, it's coated. That will do." —Watch Dog.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of coughs, colds and croup. It can be depended upon. Try it. Sold by all dealers.

Northeastern Michigan

C. J. Bousfield is the new president of the Bay City Chamber of Commerce.

Alex. D. McDonald, formerly a well-known resident of Greenbush, died at Sault Ste Marie last week.

Gladwin county will vote at the spring election on the question of bonding for $45,000 to build good roads.

H. A. Blake & Son, of Cheboygan, are preparing to begin the manufacture of gasoline engines in that city.

Cheboygan finds the matter of running its city water plant a loosing proposition and is making an effort to lease or sell the same.

Saginaw needs to raise but $7,000 more to assure the complete the $36,000 fund to assure the Northeastern Fair proposition.

The Alpena Wooling Mill Co. have remodelled and enlarged their plant and will engage in the manufacture of all woolen and knit goods.

The clothing store of West & Alt, of West Branch, was destroyed by fire last Friday night. The loss on stock and building is estimated at $8,500.

The Bay City Times is authority for the statement that the building operations in that city during the coming seasons will eclipse all previous years.

H. F. Barbour has been elected president of a newly organized Donis Fire Alarm Co., of Alpena. The company is organized with a capital of $10,000.

Alpena and Cheboygan counties, which are "wet," are endeavoring to steal the doubtful honor of having more "blind pigs" than "dry" Presque Isle.

A. C. Neilson, of West Branch, is the new president of the Michigan Retail Grocers' and General Merchants' Association, having been elected at their annual meeting last week.

The business men of Standish have organized and proposed to do all possible to push their town to the front. A good business men's association is a necessity in all live towns.

Rev. William W. Rafters, formerly rector of the Episcopal churches at Alpena and Cheboygan, and well known in this section a few years ago, died at Buffalo on the 19th inst.

George Boston, of Bay City, one of the best known commercial salesman in Northeastern Michigan, died on Thursday of last week from the effects of an operation for appendicitis.

A Gladwin man left his purse containing $125 lying on the desk in the bank while he stepped up to the cashier's window. On his return it had disappeared and search failed to locate it.

Three small children of Henry Fisch, of Gladwin, were seriously injured by the explosion of a dynamite cap with which they were playing. One lost a hand, another three fingers while the baby's face was seriously burned.

Fire destroyed four business places in the village of Linwood Sunday morning. The total loss being $15,000. George Nesser, a Grand Rapids traveling man, was severely injured by being struck with a falling wall, while assisting in fighting the fire.

Word has been received here of the death in Denver, Saturday, of Mrs. Fred W. Winter, of New York City. Mrs. Winter was formerly Miss Libby Hutton of AuSable. She had many friends here who learn of her death with regret.—Oscoda Press.

Several large Alpena concerns will contest the payment of winter taxes on the ground that the valuation made by the state tax commission last fall was illegal and the city treasurer is making seizures of the property to enforce the payment of the taxes. The taxes will then be paid under protest and the matter taken to the court.

According to the report of the school commissioner of Saginaw county there are 42 districts in that county which will not draw any primary money this year. The new law provides that where any district has sufficient funds on hand to meet their teachers, wages for two years that their share of the primary shall be divided among the other districts.

The meeting of the Northeastern Michigan Press Association at Bay City last Friday was attended by about twenty of the papers of the territory, many others being detained owing to the trains being unable to get through. At the afternoon business session the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, B. M. Wynkoop, Bay City Times; vice-president, Fred J. Rieter, Saginaw Post-Zietung; secretary-treasurer, Harry H. Whitley, Millersburg News. Twenty-five guests sat down to the banquet given the association at the Hotel Wenona at 6:30 by the Northeastern Michigan Development Bureau, with Secretary T. F. Marston as host. A number of entertaining talks were listened to and much enjoyed. The Press Association starts out on its third year with the brightest prospects.

Notice to Industrial Manufacturing Plants, Shippers, Etc.

The Detroit & Mackinac Ry. will publish a new Industrial Folder in the next few weeks, giving the names of every industry, manufacturing plant, shipper, etc. located on and adjacent to its lines, and in addition thereto other information of a general nature regarding the productiveness and commercial possibilities of its territory. This folder will be given a general distribution in several states and furnished to all inquirers for information concerning the D. & M. Ry. and its local patrons. In order to make this folder complete in detail, it is requested that proprietors and managers communicate with the undersigned or D. & M. Ry. local agents, furnishing correct names and addresses of industries and manufacturing plants and state what articles they manufacture, shippers and receivers of lumber and forest products, shingles, agricultural products, coal, lime, brick, etc. No charge will be made for the publication of this information. Early replies are requested. J. K. HUDSON, General Freight Agent, Detroit & Mackinac Ry., Bay City, Mich.

To Mothers—And Others.

You can use Bucklen's Arnica Salve to cure children of eczema, rashes, tetter, chafings, scaly and crusted humors, as well as their accidental injuries,—cuts, burns, bruises, etc., with perfect safety. Nothing else heals so quickly. For boils, ulcers, old, running or fever sores or piles it has no equal. 25 ct. at J. M. Wuggazer & Co.'s, Tawas City, and Jas. E. Dillon's, East Tawas.

World's Smallest Armies.

If ever the dream of the disarmament of the world shall be realized there are several countries that would not have much to do in this line, as for instance, Monaco, whose army consists of 75 guards, 75 carabinieri and 20 firemen. The next smallest army is that of Luxembourg, with 135 gendarmes, 170 volunteers and 30 musketeers. In the Republic of San Marino they can put in the field a total of nine companies of 90 men and 38 officers, commanded by a marshal. The army on a peace footing consists of one company of 60 men. The most amusing of all the "armies," however, is that of Liberia. That country's fighting force is composed of 700 men and 800 officers; but the latter are evidently deemed very terrible by their own government, since the republic issues proclamations of neutrality when wars break out between any of the powers.

Getting the Value of Coal.

The scientific method of buying coal, not by weight, but by thermal value, is likely to be adopted by the St. Paul city government. The "B. F. U." system, it is called, the initials standing for British thermal units. The school board estimates that it will save six per cent., or $2,600, on 9,000 tons, the year's consumption. Many railroads are buying their coal, not for what it weighs, but for what it can do.—Springfield Republican.

Many sufferers from rheumatism have been surprised and delighted with the prompt relief afforded by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Not one case of rheumatism in ten requires any internal treatment; whatever. This liniment is for sale by all dealers.

MAKING HOME HAPPY

QUESTION OF RIGHT LIVING VERSUS WRONG LIVING.

Every Individual in the Family Has Some Rights That Every Other Member of the Household Should Respect.

It should be remembered in the home, that every individual in the family has some rights that every other member of the household is bound to respect.

The husband and father should be made comfortable and to feel that his wishes are to be considered and home a place in which to rest from the daily grind whether it be the wrestling a living from the soil or labor in any other walk of life.

These thoughts were suggested by a neighborly call not long since which showed the thoughtlessness of a wife.

The husband, by the way, the provider, he it remembered, came in from the field in working clothes and comfortably seated himself on the couch made attractive with cushions of various sizes and descriptions supposed to be for use.

The tired man had no sooner sunk into the downy depths of the supporting pillows than the wife exclaimed, "John you ought not to lean against those pillows in your working clothes, you will soil them."

The man was not to blame when he quickly pulled them away from his doubtless weary body and threw them across the room. One naturally blushed for the thoughtless wife.

There should be nothing in a home too good for use, especially in the living room, or by the man of the house, whose bodily strength is given freely that his loved ones may be made happy and comfortable.

It is not well thus to confound values. Surely the man who labors constantly for others and must have the welfare of his family at heart should be valued above any sofa pillow no matter how dainty or expensive.

Then there are the rights of the wife and mother to be always respected. Her especial domain should be arranged with care and a regard for her convenience. Work in the ordinary ill-constructed kitchen requires more expenditure of strength and nerve power than is needed for the successful carrying out of a large business that is thoroughly systematized.

The ceaseless traveling from one end of the room to the other for articles that should be confined within a small compass, wear out more women than the work.—Mrs. T. L. Andrews.

Soup the Chief Dish.

For practical living most of us ought to make soup the chief dish of the meal, and with some fruit dessert it is most satisfying and sustaining. We should recognize that the vast majority have more need to conserve their money and foods than to cultivate appetite. Children, especially when in good health, need no coaxing to eat all that they need, and if tendency to be dainty is discovered, it is often best that they, or we, be induced to eat plain foods by the sauce of real hunger, rather than derange already perverted digestion by artificial stimulants to appetite. Plenty of plain food, and in not too great variety, is the natural need and demand of real growing health. Age or infirmity need appetite coaxers, but vigorous health sharpens its own appetite. Indolence or acquired daintiness are to be most honestly condemned.

Norwegian Cabbage Salad.

As an appetizer for other dishes of the Dutch supper sort this is without compare—that is, where the cabbage taste is liked. It goes with a beer drink:

Select a hard red cabbage, take off all loose and defaced leaves and shred it with a machine or sharp knife as fine as is possible. Then drop the slaw into cold water for two hours. Drain dry and cover it with boiling water—not too much—and simmer until almost cooked. Drain off the water, add salt if needed, cayenne, sugar and caraway seeds, putting the last two between layers of the cabbage. Two tablespoonfuls of sugar and two of the seeds will be needed. Then cover the cabbage with boiling cider vinegar and finish the cooking. This can be eaten hot or cold.

Cheese Custard.

Beat up four eggs, add half a cupful of boiling milk, three heaping tablespoonfuls of grated cheese, seasoning of salt, pepper and red pepper; divide into some small buttered timbale molds, stirring all the time, so as not to let the cheese settle. Stand the molds in a saucepan, allowing the water to come within half an inch of the top; simmer very gently until set. Serve on rounds of toast.

Crumbs for Frying.

Care should be taken in drying bread to be used for crumbs. Do not let it remain in the oven long enough to brown, for cutlets or croquettes rolled in over-browned crumbs will not brown when frying.

Sugared Popcorn.

Boil one cup white sugar, three tablespoonfuls water and one teaspoon butter until ready to candy. Then throw in three quarts popped corn. Stir well and cool. Nuts may be prepared in same way.

Getting Started

Genevieve is always in a hurry. The only possible thing that, according to her friends, could prevent her from hurrying would be a state of general paralysis.

One of the contributory causes to her normal state of being in a hurry is that she does not make up her mind until the last possible minute. That was why it was not until her husband had pushed back his chair from the breakfast table that she suddenly exclaimed: "I think we'll go down to Springfield, Ill., to Cousin Nettie's wedding today, after all. The train leaves at 11 o'clock and we'll get in with plenty of time to rest and dress, for the wedding is not till eight o'clock."

"All right," said her husband. "You'd better drive down in the electric and pick me up at the office. I'll have a boy from the office get the car at the station and take it home."

Genevieve started from the house with plenty of time and with three suit cases blocking up all the interior of the electric that she did not occupy herself. To be sure, she had a few errands, such as stopping at the milliner's for her latest hat, getting a bracelet at the jeweler's and picking out some flowers to wear that night, but she knew that she could do these errands in a hurry. When she arrived at her husband's office he was just able to see the tip of her nose above the luggage and the boxes beneath which she was apparently buried.

"Drive on!" he ordered. "I'll take a street car. Why didn't you bring along a truck to carry all that stuff?"

Genevieve engineered her car through the perilous way to the railroad station and there waited for her husband. As the big clock pointed to one minute past train time he came rushing up, red and breathless. His street car had been blocked. They had, indeed, missed the train.

It was a sad ride home. Genevieve's husband had to go along to drive the car, in consequence of Genevieve's being dissolved in tears over the fiasco. Her grief seemed to be equally divided between sorrow at missing the wedding and woe over not being able to show off her new evening gown. When she grew tired of telling her husband that it was his fault, he told her that it was hers; until she grew rested and could resume the theme.

By the time Genevieve reached home she had revived somewhat. Rushing to the telephone, she called up three railroad offices, sent two telegrams and got Springfield on the long distance phone. Then, just as her husband reached his office, she phoned him.

"There's a train on a different road going at 2:30," she informed him. "I've phoned for tickets to be ready and have made all arrangements. All you've got to do is—"

"I won't!" her husband interrupted in the loud determined tone that men use when they are mortally afraid they are going to give in. "I wouldn't go through all that agony and fuss again for—"

"And I'll meet you right by the big gate," Genevieve ended as calmly as though he had not spoken.

"But—" yelled her husband.

"And if we miss the wedding we'll be there in time for the reception," added Genevieve, sweetly. "Goodbye, dear. At 2:15, remember!"

"But—" roared her husband as she hung up the receiver.

Genevieve's husband was there on time, and so was Genevieve, with the three suit cases, the hat, the flowers and triumph at really getting off after all. Even her husband melted under her cheerfulness.

After they had rolled along for an hour he admitted that a little rest and change from the office was a good thing and that he really should enjoy the wedding and seeing all the relatives. Then Genevieve got out some cards and they played penuche. Then they read a story and had dinner. The train was due at 7:45, Genevieve said. Strange to say, it was on time. They rushed out of the car with all their hand luggage and ran for a cab.

"We can make the house in ten minutes and get dressed in twenty," Genevieve said. "We—my goodness, Arthur, what's happened to the place? Why—why—"

She grabbed a passing native. "Isn't this Springfield?" she shrieked. "Yessum," he said, in surprise. "Springfield it is. Springfield, Ind."

Possibly Regretted Enthusiasm.

An enthusiastic member of the anti-tobacco party was a guest at a dinner at a house on the upper West side recently, where he allowed a course to go untouched while he spoke of the "tobacco nuisance," concluding by saying that he hoped that all the men present would agree, if they could do no more, to refrain from smoking in public places and in the presence of women. In telling of the incident the host said: "We all agreed without further argument, and our friend seemed to be elated over his victory until he learned that there was only one smoker in the house and that was my daughter, whose husband is going to learn in order to keep her company."—New York Tribune.

Women Students in Berlin.
 The educational statistics of Berlin show that the number of women students is increasing there. The theological department alone shows a falling off, there being only one woman registered, while there were several last year. Besides the 258 women who attend lectures without matriculating, there are 12 women in the school of jurisprudence, 172 medical students and 659 in the department of philosophy. There are in all about 1,115 women students, of whom the majority are in the philology and history departments. The record shows that many of the important professors have student daughters and that these do not, as a rule, aim to perfect themselves in the branches taught by their fathers. Among the representatives of the official class is the daughter of Dr. Reicke, mayor of Berlin, who has matriculated in the department for the study of German.

Just a Man!
 In the long line of cabs and automobiles in front of a big New York hotel was one car around which a few idlers had gathered. Something was wrong. Prone upon the ground lay an animal of some kind. A dear old lady happened along. She saw the little knot of people and put up her glasses to observe the cause. Then she saw the brown fur of the thing on the icy asphalt.
 "Poor creature, poor creature!" said she aloud in her compassion. "Is its leg broken?" She pushed close to the prostrate figure in the brown fur. It moved. The dear old lady took a closer look. Then she made a sound approximating a ladylike snort. It was the chauffeur of one of the taxicabs, clad in his brown fuzzy coat, in the usual attitude of flinching, tinkering the under part of his machine with a monkey wrench.
 "The dear old lady, all her sympathy curdled, hurried on."

Remember Rev. J. B. Brown's lecture, "The Passing of the Cow-boy," Saturday evening, March 9.

Wm. Naab and Ernest Washburn, who have been serving as jurymen in the circuit court, came home Wednesday.

Jesse Chase mourns the loss of his faithful old gray horse. In some way the horse got out of the barn Tuesday evening and when found was fast in an open post hole, with his leg so badly broken that it was found necessary to shoot him.

Owing to the bad weather last Friday evening the high school entertainment was postponed until Tuesday evening. A goodly number gathered and greatly enjoyed the entertainment which was presented in a most pleasing manner. Each part was well taken and showed careful preparation. We hope they will favor us with another in the near future.

Queer Burial Customs.

The attempt made by thieves to plunder the grave of a famous Parisian actress reminds a writer in the Journal des Debats that the ancient custom of depositing valuables in tombs still prevails in France. But it is not only jewels and the like that are buried with the dead.

A few years ago it was the custom in La Vendee to put a polished stone within reach of the corpse. This was supposed to guide the dead on their new journey. In the district of Dinan a piece of consecrated bread was used for the same purpose. The people of the Bordeaux district place in the coffin a sprig of myrtle blessed at Easter. This is considered to insure entry into paradise.

On the borders of Brittany and Poitou a little pebble is placed on the tongue of the deceased. Without this it is thought he might plead his case before the great tribunal with such volubility as would insure his condemnation without appeal.

We understand that Dave Stevens will be with us again Saturday, after spending three months at Eliot.

Word received from Mrs. V. H. Rodman, at Burley, Idaho, reports that the winter has been very mild there.

The surprise party planned on Walter Clute for Friday night of last week was postponed to Tuesday evening, when a most pleasant evening was spent. Refreshments were served and dancing and cards furnished the amusement.

Glorious News

comes from Dr. J. T. Curtis, Dwight, Kan. He writes: "I not only have cured bad cases of eczema in my patients with Electric Bitters, but also cured myself by them of the same disease. I feel sure they will benefit any case of eczema." This shows what thousands have proved, that Electric Bitters is a most effective blood purifier. Its an excellent remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion, builds up the strength. Price 50 cents. Satisfaction guaranteed by J. M. Wuggazer & Co., Tawas City, and Jas. E. Dillon, East Tawas.

Reno Bumlings.

Mrs. DeBolt who has been ill is reported better.

Little Norman Sibley who was ill last week is much improved.

We were visited by the second fierce blizzard of the month last Monday.

The two-year-old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson was reported very little better yesterday, from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Mary Jackson was called to Bay City Friday evening by the critical illness of her daughter, Miss Esther who underwent an operation at Mercy Hospital. She returned home Monday and reports the patient as improving since Friday.

The dwelling house on the farm of Mrs. Hartly a half mile south of the Reno Baptist church was destroyed by fire on Wednesday afternoon of this week. Very little of the furniture was saved. How the fire started is not known. No insurance.

Miss Rosena Charters was badly hurt Wednesday noon by being hit in the face by a shiny club which accidentally flew from the hand of one of the boys engaged in that sport. Hereafter shiny playing at school is to be "ruled out," and rightly so.

Notice to Industrial Manufacturing Plants, Shippers, Etc.

The Detroit & Mackinac Ry. will publish a new Industrial Folder in the next few weeks, giving the names of every industry, manufacturing plant, shipper, etc. located on and adjacent to its lines, and in addition thereto other information of a general nature regarding the productiveness and commercial possibilities of its territory. This folder will be given a general distribution in several states and furnished to all inquirers for information concerning the D. & M. Ry. and its local patrons. In order to make this folder complete in detail, it is requested that proprietors and managers communicate with the undersigned or D. & M. Ry. local agents, furnishing correct names and addresses of industries and manufacturing plants and state what articles they manufacture, shippers and receivers of lumber and forest products, shingles, agricultural products, coal, lime, brick, etc. No charge will be made for the publication of this information. Early replies are requested.

AUTOMATIC CREAM SEPARATOR

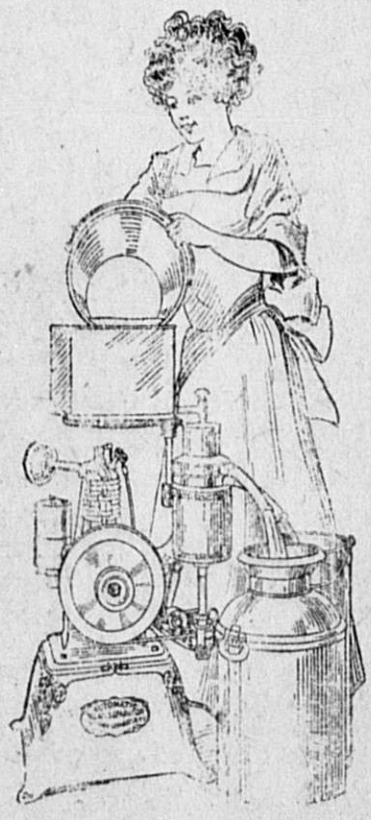

The Old Way.

Nothing like it has ever before been invented. One size machine for any size dairy. The drudgery of dairying is now a thing of the past.

It separates the milk perfectly, faster than ten men can milk it.

Start the separator when the milking begins and it being both automatic and continuous in its operations, when the farmer is through milking he is through skimming.

Speed of bowl brought up in 15 seconds and will run for hours without the slightest variation. It is destined to revolutionize the dairy business.
