* * * The July Woman's Home Companion.

An interesting feature of the July Woman's Home Companion is an article entitled "The Fatal Penny" by Mary Heaton Vorse, in which the author reports many startling facts about the dangers that children undergo who buy cheap candy, cheap ice cream, and other impure sweets sold to youngsters for one cent.

In the same number appear the letters descriptive of vacations which won prizes in the "Real Vacation" contest. Other interesting contributions to the July Companion are: "The Spiritual Message of Nature," a sermon by Dr. Charles E. Jeffer-on of Broadway Tabernacle; "Tae Friendly Summer Trees" by Frank A. Waugh of the Massachusetts Agricultural College; "Tempting Hot-Weather Dishes". by Fannie Merritt Farmer: "Summer Time Books" by Jeanette L. Gilder, and a number of valuable articles in the regular Household, Fashion, Home Decoration and other departments.
