The recount of votes for the office of sheriff developed the fact that some of the township election inspectors are sadly deficient in their reading of the law or very careless, and that many electors are even more so. Many ballots were found to be counted which were, under very plain instructions of the law, illegal. In two townships the vote was thrown out entirely, as the inspectors had not initiated the ballots or had initiated them on the perforated corner and torn them off. The law intends the initials as an identification of the ballot and provided that they shall be placed on the ballot proper. Some electors seem to think that the more marks they can get on a ballot the better they vote, and as a result many lost their vote. No mark should be made on a ballot that is not absolutely necessary to express the choice of the voter. It is to be hoped that future elections in this county will be conducted on a better understanding of the law and in a more careful manner.

Dr. W. N. Yeager, the dentist, will be at his office in this city again Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, December 3rd, 4th and 5th. He does all kinds of dental work in first-class manner and guarantees all work satisfactory. Special attention given to crown and bridge work. Painless extraction.

2 KILLED IN BOILER EXPLOSION

The Boiler in Albert Widdis' Wood Fiber Mill at East Tawas Exploded Monday Killing Albert Nash and Merle Henry. Two Others Injured

What is without doubt the most shocking accident in the history of the Tawas occurred at East Tawas at 12:30 p.m. Monday, when the boiler in the wood fiber factory of Albert Widdis blew up, instantly killing Albert Nash and Merle Henry, and seriously injuring Ralph W. Emmerson and John Wier.

The force of the explosion was terrific. Mr. Nash, who was evidently working on the top of the boiler, was thrown fully 200 feet, and eye witnesses state that his body went 50 feet in the air. The body was found nearly 200 feet from the mill, on the opposite side of the railroad and street. His head was smashed in and the body otherwise mangled.

The body of Henry was thrown across the railroad tracks and street, and struck against the side of S. Anker's brick store building. His body was much more mutilated than that of Nash. The back of his head was smashed in, and one arm was entirely blown off and was found under the porch of the Holland hotel, opposite where the body was picked up.

These two men were the only ones inside the mill. Ralph Emmerson, who was also employed in the mill, had just stepped outside. He was thrown about 50 feet and was picked up on the railroad track. He was badly scalded about the face and suffered some serious bruises, altho no bones were broken.

John Wier, the other injured man, was employed as a section man on the D. & M., and with the rest of the crew was working on the track two blocks from the mill. His injury was caused by being hit with a two-inch cut-off valve weighing about five pounds, which was hurled fully 900 feet before hitting him. He was struck in the chest and suffered internal injury.

The boiler broke into three pieces, the largest of which was hurled over 600 feet and landed in the bay; while the next largest piece was found near the Walker foundry, about two blocks away. The third piece was thrown across the street, wrecking the porch and knocking a hole in the corner of Mr. Nash's residence. The engine room was blown absolutely to kindling, and was scattered over a space equal to two city blocks. The main part of the mill was also badly wrecked.

The injured men, Emmerson and Wier, were taken to Mercy hospital at Bay City, by a special train, where their injuries were attended to, and at last reports were resting nicely, with every indication that they would recover.

County Coroner R. G. Harting was summoned and impaled the following coroner's jury: James LaBerge, F. F. French, John Goodall, Fred Noel, Thomas Dean and Harry Poppleton. After viewing the bodies and the wrecked mill, the inquest was adjourned until 1 o'clock Wednesday, when the following witnesses were examined: Albert Widdis, Wallie Luce, Thomas Oliver, Al Mathews and Dr. C. A. Wakeman. The testimony showed that the boiler was in excellent working order and that at the time of the explosion there was no lack of water in it and that the steam gauge showed a head of about 75 pounds of steam. The cause of the explosion it was unable to ascertain. The jury returned a verdict that "said Albert Nash and Merle Henry came to their death by the explosion of the boiler in Albert Widdis' wood fiber mill in East Tawas, at 12:30 p.m., Monday, November 18."

As near as possible to ascertain, the facts were about as follows: Some difficulty had been experienced with the "pop valve" on the boiler during the forenoon, and Mr. Widdis had asked Mr. Nash to come in and adjust it, and it was while working at it that the explosion occurred. Mr. Widdis states that he was at the mill when Mr. Nash came, and that while Nash was adjusting the valve Henry, who was the fireman, came in, and then he (Widdis) left the mill to go to the Holland hotel, where he boarded, and that just as he reached the hotel door the explosion occurred. That the steam gauge showed about 75 pounds of steam, and that the water gauge showed plenty of water in the boiler. These facts were substantiated by Wallie Luce, who was in the mill but a few minutes previous to the explosion. In fact all of the testimony at the inquest showed that the boiler was in first-class condition and had been doing excellent work since it was installed along in the summer.

Albert Nash was superintendent of the East Tawas electric light and water plant, and was one of the best known and most highly respected young men of that city. As a mechanic he was a genius, and his ever jovial and pleasant manners and a desire to be useful at all times made his services ever in demand when repairs of this kind were needed. Besides the bereaved widow and little son, he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nash, and a number of brothers and sisters.

Merle Henry, the unfortunate fireman, was about 18 years of age and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Henry, of that city. He was born and raised there, and was highly respected by a large circle of friends who sincerely mourn his sad and untimely death.

Ralph W. Emmerson, who was injured, is the son of Conductor Elias Emmerson, of the D. & M., and is about 18 years of age. John Wier resides in this city, where he is numbered among our most industrious and highly respected German citizens. He has been in the employ of the D. & M. Ry. Co. for a number of years.

The funerals of the unfortunate men were held yesterday from the Episcopal church—that of Merle Henry at 11 o'clock in forenoon, and of Albert Nash at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Rev. Blachford officiating. The business places of the city were closed and funerals were probably the most largely attended ever held in the Tawas.

Jordan Wins on Recount.

The county board of canvassers completed the recounting of the votes cast at the recent election for sheriff Monday evening, and issued a certificate of election to John Jordan, the contestant, who was found to have a majority of nine on the recount.

Mr. Jordan, who was the democratic nominee, was defeated on the face of the returns by Collie Johnson, the republican nominee, by two votes. He petitioned for a recount of the votes in the city of Whittemore, the second precinct of Oscoda and the townships of Baldwin, Tawas and Wilber. Mr. Johnson petitioned for a recount in Sherman, Reno, Burleigh and Plainfield.

The votes in the township of Baldwin and Reno were thrown out entirely because no initials were found on the ballots, they having been put on the perforated corner with the ballot number and torn off. In Baldwin, Johnson lost a majority of 12 and in Reno, Jordan lost a majority of 17, giving Johnson a net gain of five on the votes thrown out.

But slight changes were made in the inspector's report of any of the townships, except Wilber and Sherman, the contestants gaining or losing from one to three votes in each precinct. In Wilber Jordan made a net gain of six votes and in Sherman ten votes. The final result was a majority of nine for Jordan.

The county canvassing board was composed of John W. Tait, of East Tawas; William McFarlane, of Oscoda, Eugene Bing, of this city, and their rulings were just and fair to both sides. Chas. A. Jahraus was attorney for Mr. Johnson, and John E. Kinane, of Bay City, looked after Mr. Jordan's interests.

Basket Ball.

The Tawas Athletic Club is now organized to play basket ball the coming winter. The boys met Tuesday and decided to go into the game as they meant to improve in the lighting, floor, rooms, etc., of the Friedman hall will be made by the club, and a good time is looked forward to by the members. A game is scheduled with East Tawas for Thanksgiving night with a preliminary between the Oscoda and the East Tawas girls. It is expected that Supt. of Schools Mitchell, of East Tawas, will referee, insuring a game with roughness eliminated.

Owing to the small size of the hall members only can be allowed to attend. For membership see one of the officers, President and coach, Ford Bradish; secretary and treasurer, Fred Swartz; business manager, Jas. F. Mark.

TAWAS CITY, MICH., Nov. 22, 1912

A school of instruction for township election boards in Isosco county would be a mighty good thing.

The report that President Taft is considering seriously the question of removing all postmasters and other federal officers of known bull moose tendencies is causing a number of tenth district office-holders to wonder where they are at.

The statement of President-elect Wilson that he will call a special session of congress soon after his inauguration next March is received with satisfaction by the members of his party. It is the desire of all that the democracy shall as early as possible put in operation the reforms which they have advocated during the recent campaign.

There are whisperings in political circles that, notwithstanding the fact that there were 79 men elected to the state legislature as republicans, it is very doubtful if William Alden Smith can again be elected United States senator. A number of the so-called republicans elected are known to have strong bull moose leanings, and it looks very much as if they were coming out flat for that faith.

If voters would learn to put no marks on their ballots except those absolutely necessary to express their choice of candidates, a less number of ballots would be spoiled at each election. Cross at the head of your ticket is all that is necessary to vote a straight ticket, and a cross in front of a candidate's name is all that is necessary to vote for a man on another ticket. Had this plan of marking ballots been followed at the recent election there could have been no question raised as to the final results.

Ancient Civilizations.

There is no field of research today which offers greater fascination for the layman, as well as the scientist, than archaeology. The forthcoming comprehensive display in this line at the great San Diego Exposition has given a stimulus to archaeological research. Not merely in the United States, but all over the world, scientific men are busy delving into the secrets of the past, wresting from long buried and forgotten cities and monuments the secrets of the now unknown people who built them. It is even believed that science has practically solved the secret of the lost Atlantis, the great island that was the home of the wonderful civilization of the past and which a cataclysm of nature sunk in the Atlantic ocean, perhaps fifteen thousand years ago. The Egyptians and other ancient nations had clearly defined traditions of Atlantis, and Egypt was, indeed, perhaps the earliest and greatest of the colonies of Atlantis, that in Central America being next in point of age and importance. The wonderful temples and monuments in Guatemala, recently explored by United States scientists and officials of the San Diego Exposition, are among the most interesting yet found anywhere, and these, with many other strange monuments of vanished civilized races, will form an intensely interesting display at the San Diego Exposition.

Leading Editor's Opinion of Chicago Stock Show.

Mr. W. R. Goodwin, managing editor of the Breeders' Gazette, Chicago, in speaking of the International Live Stock Exposition, which will this year be held from Nov. 30th to Dec. 7th, said:

"I have seen more of the great stock shows and fairs in America in the past thirty years than any other man, and I ought to be somewhat case-hardened; but the 'International' annually fills me with awe. I approach each exhibition of the consummate triumph of the breeder's art with a fairly reverent mind. A man may become indifferent to the roar of Niagara, but I do not see how any man can fail to find new instruction and inspiration in each of these shows. If I were wholly a stock farmer, as I am partly, I would sacrifice much rather than miss an annual trip to the 'International.' The professional breeder may about as well take down his sign as omit this show from his year's program, and the stock farmer can gather almost as much of value from a study of its lessons. We must have meat to eat. The jaw of the civilized world rises and falls in the mastication of meat. The farmer of America—chiefly the farmer of the corn belt—must make this meat. He can learn more about its production at this great exposition than at any farmer's institute or special stock train that ever offered information. The stock farmer who works his brain as well as his body can make no more profitable investment than a study of the exhibits of the 'International'—the cattle, horses, sheep and swine. The farmers of no other nation have such opportunities. There is only one 'International' on the globe. American stock farmers have built it. Their fellows should appreciate its lessons and learn them."

Bread made with Royal Cream of Tartar Powder:

Flagged Train With Shirt.

Tearing his shirt from his back an Ohio man flagged a train and saved it from a wreck, but H. T. Alston, Raleigh, N. C., once prevented a wreck with Electric Bitters. "I was in a terrible plight when I began to use them," he writes, "my stomach, head, back and kidneys were all badly affected and my liver was in bad condition, but four bottles of Electric Bitters made me feel like a new man." A trial will convince you of their matchless merit for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Price 50 cents at J. M. Wuggazer & Co.'s, Tawas City, and Jas. E. Dillon, of East Tawas.

Institute Prizes.

The following is a list of the prizes which will be given at the Woman's Congress which will be held in connection with the Iosco County Farmers' Institute at Whittemore, in January next:

	First	Second
Plain sewing, girls under 10, running stitch	.75	.50
Button holes, girls 10 to 16	.75	.50
Hemstitching, girls 10 to 16	.75	.50
Embroidery, y'ng ladies and women	.75	.50
Knitting	.75	.50

Is your husband cross? An irritable, fault-finding disposition is often due to a disordered stomach. A man with good digestion is nearly always good natured. A great many have been permanently cured of stomach trouble by taking Chamberlain's Tablets. For sale by all dealers.

One Day Institutes.

Secretary Campbell, of the county Farmers' Institute Society, announces that one day institutes will be held in this county on the following dates and at the following places:

- Hale, December 3.
- Grant, December 4.
- Sherman, December 5.
- Alabaster, December 6.
- Tawas City, December 7.

The state speaker for these meetings will be E. M. Moore, one of the best institute conductors in the state, and topics of vital interest to the farmers of Iosco county will be discussed.

Porto Rico's New Wonder.

From far away Porto Rico come reports of a wonderful new discovery that is believed will vastly benefit the people. Ramon T. Marchan, of Barceloneta, writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is doing splendid work here. It cured me about five times of terrible coughs and colds, also my brother of a severe cold in his chest, and more than 20 others, who used it on my advice. We hope this great medicine will yet be sold in every drug store in Porto Rico." For throat and lung troubles it has no equal. A trial will convince you of its merit. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by J. M. Wuggazer & Co., Tawas City, and Jas. E. Dillon, of East Tawas.

Washington Letter.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 19.—(Special.)—With the "tumult and the shouting" over as the result of the election, the carpenters and the joiners will begin the construction of a cabinet for President-elect Woodrow Wilson, and the names already suggested give some indication of how the various elements in the democratic party view their tremendous victory.

William Jennings Bryan; the "Warwick" of the incoming administration, is most generally "touted" for Secretary of State although there are those who believe that the "Commoner" would rather be a free lance than attach himself to the person of the President in a ministerial capacity, believing that he could do the party greater good in the open than by holding down a cabinet position. Undoubtedly Bryan can have the choice of any position should he so desire.

Louis Brandeis, of Boston, is among the favored ones suggested for Attorney General, although William F. McCombs, chairman of the national democratic committee, must also be reckoned with, as he has been a tower of strength for Wilson, and as he is a lawyer of repute might find the Department of Justice to his liking.

It is generally believed that Congressman Albert S. Burleson, of Texas, will be accorded a cabinet position, and possibly may accept the Interior portfolio, although it is known he has leanings toward the Secretaryship of Agriculture. But Dr. Harvey S. Wiley, late chief chemist of the Department of Agriculture, is seriously mentioned for the head of the department with which he has been connected so many years.

Joseph Daniels, of North Carolina, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, who had charge of the Publicity end of the Wilson campaign, may possibly become the "headsman" of the new administration, more generally known as the Postmaster General. Daniels is a "live wire" and undoubtedly would take rare pleasure in relieving the "hated" republicans of their postoffice jobs.

Then, too, one hears the names of Rolla Wells, of St. Louis, William G. McAdoo, of New York, Walter Huddspeth, of New Jersey, and even Senator Robert M. LaFollette for cabinet places, and the carpenters and the joiners' have just begun the construction of President-elect Wilson's official family.

The forthcoming convention of the National Rivers and Harbors congress, which will be held in Washington on December 4th, 5th and 6th, gives promise of bringing together a larger number of influential business and professional men than ever before participated in the deliberations of this great congress organized for the purpose of securing annual appropriations for the improvement of the rivers, harbors and canals of the country, and to bring about a fixed policy of waterway betterments on the part of the general government.

The convention, which is ninth in numerical order, will be of intense interest to the nation, as it is hoped President-elect Wilson will be present and in an address to the delegates define his position on many of the questions relating to the water highways of the country. President Taft will open the convention with an address, while with him on the program are a score of the ablest men of the country who are down for addresses during the days of the convention.

Must Learn How to Pack Apples.

"Apples that taste right" is the label on eastern and middle western fruit in the Chicago market that shows a new turn of the public's fickle taste, although the high color and careful packing of far western fruit continues to give it the call over the different grading and packing of apples grown east of the Mississippi river. This is where our people fall down when their apples are compared with the tasteful and finely packed far western fruit. Here in Michigan the flavor and aroma of the apple is unrivaled, but it will stand little show in the Chicago market when in competition with the western fruit unless packed as they put up apples in the west.

Here in Michigan the apple grower sends his apples to market either in bulk or in barrels, and in cities like Chicago it stands no show alongside of apples polished, wrapped in tissue and packed neatly in boxes. When Michigan producers learn to pack their fruit to catch the trade, they will experience no trouble in selling and at better prices.

Lee H. Pierce, of the Michigan Land and Apple Association, says apple growers in Michigan will lose over $1,000,000 this year. "The crop is enormous," said Mr. Pierce, "but it is selling in the orchards as low as $1 a barrel, while western growers are getting 90 cents a bushel box. If Michigan growers would adapt the western method of grading and packing apples, they would get $2.50 a barrel at a low estimate. These apples are marketed in the eastern cities and in Liverpool. The advantage the Michigan growers have over the western growers in freight rates is such that they can undersell them and control the market, or if they cannot compete with the westerners in price they can make a larger profit."

The very few brands of Michigan apples boxed and sold in Chicago that compare in packing with western fruit find growing recognition that apples are to eat and that taste is an important factor.
