We notice by our exchanges that number of merchants of small cities and towns are taking advantage of the parcel post to start a mail order business with the adjoining rural routes. The rates are so much better than can be had with more distant cities, that the rural customers are quick to respond when the proper kind of advertising is done. If the merchants set back and let the catalog houses have an undisputed field they should not complain when they find they are beaten to it. The big mail order houses never go to sleep on the job, and any business man who succeeds must be ever on the alert to take advantage of everything as it comes along.

Oscar McDonald was arrested at Bay City last Saturday evening for the second time within a few weeks on the charge of accosting women on the street, but succeeded in getting away without prosecution. Oscar always was lucky in escaping from these scrapes, even when weeks ago, came home Monday. He is they do not even realize when they are a resident of this city. In speaking of his last scrape the Bay City Times says:

Oscar McDonald thinks he is a victim of misplaced suspicion and that the police have it "in" for him. "They arrested me on Center avenue Saturday night while I was walking peaceably along talking to no one and interfering with no one. They took me to the county jail and kept me there two nights, until Monday noon, when they turned me out, saying there was no charge against me. They said I was the man who accosted a woman Saturday night, and they brought the woman before me and she did not identify me. I defy any woman in Bay City to say that I spoke to her Saturday night on the street. I never asked any woman what she was running for, and did not say anything about not having evil intentions. That is all a make-up on the part of the police. There was no foundation for it."

Wilson's Speeches on Business and Government.

Gov. Wilson has always possessed, in very rare and enviable measure, 'the gifts of public speech. He made number of excellent speeches during the campaign. But it may be said with some assurance that he has never spoken with such wisdom and power as in series of addresses since his election and his return from the month of vacation in Bermuda. Three speeches are so notable, in their exposition of the rela tions between business and governmen in the United States, that they ought to be put in some form which, would make them available for careful study, The first of these, early in December, was a speech before the Southern Society in New York. The second was delivered in the city where he was born, Staunton, Va., on his fifty-sixth birthday, December 28. The third was a speech before the Commercial Club at Chicago, on January 11. The condensed reports have wholly failed to do justice to these remarkable addresses. In the case, for instance, of the Chicago speech, the New York newspapers printed a meager column or so of telegraphed extracts, while the Chicago Tribune gave six columns to the unabridged speech. These discourses are in perfect temper, and cannot be said to contain any attacks upon the so-called "captains of industry." But they show, with a wealth of convincing analysis, what economic freedom really means in point of principle. - From "The Progress of the World," in the American Review of "The little bell your mother Reviews for February.

Bonding Would Decrease Taxes.

Judge A. L. Deuel, who recently occupied the probate office of Emmet county, and who, for many years, has been a hearty advocate of good roads, It is a blushing penitent, and to whom much credit is due for bringing the proposed bonding proposition to the attention of the board of supervisors, herewith gives some more facts and figures which show the benefits to be deriveed from bonding:

As you know, the board of supervisors last week voted to submit to the qualified electors at the spring election the question of bonding the county in the sum of $225,000 for the purpose of And in the thoughtlessness of youth building a system of county roads, which system was submitted to said board by a special committee consisting of Messrs. Walond, Ward and Mallory. The report of said special committee recognized the needs and wants of all parts of our

Bankers say that said bonds can be floated at four per cent interest, which means an annual interest of $9,000. Last year it was voted by the board of supervisors to spread a tax of $22,000 for the construction of county roads and under our present system of building them it would be fifteen or twenty years before they would be completed, and then for that entire period, we would have to raise annually at least $22,000 under our piece-meal system of building them, and some of our townships would be paying taxes all these years for county roads, might not have a single mile of same within their borders. Under the proposed bonding system all parts of the county would receive prompt and just recognition, and the annual tax for good roads, instead of being $22,000 would drop down to $9,000, the annual interest on the bonds, a saving of $13, ooo annuelly in taxes.

The $225,000 raised by bonding, together with the $91,000 received from the state in rebates, would make a grand total of $316,000 to be spent here in county, and hundreds of our farmers would receive remunerative employment while the said It is a playful father roads were being constructed. Such a system of roads would wonderfully And cries: "To find you so is worth stimulate the building up of our rural communities, and the more prosperous they are and the greater their population, the more our cities and villages would prosper. Such a system of roads would not only draw thousands of settlers resorters with their autos to enjoy our magnificent climate and use our up-toto the wealth of our county.

What about the future February was rounded up and assigned of our county? Soon its magnificent to the place it occupies now. heritage of timber will be gone-a thing of the past. Upon what, then, must Petoskey and our villages depend for their future growth and development? It is an axiom, old but true, that "the prosperity of a state depends upon the prosperity of its farmers." Emmet county needs a farmer on every 80 acres of land, who is intelligently tilling the soil. How can this be accomplished? Only by making all parts of the county easily aecessible by means of a proper system of county roads over which a team can draw two or three times the load they are now hauling over our sand roads.

Payment on these bonds could commence in about 15 years, and let the future generation, which in the long run will receive the greatest benefit if these roads are constructed, help share the burden. Every live man who has the interest of Emmet county at heart should boost for the construction of good roads now.

Ganderbone's Forecast.

FEBRUARY,

It is an angry father Who stoppeth one of three. 'Now, by thy youthful innocence, Why choppest thou the tree?

'It lieth in the orchard To wither and decay, And nevermore its blossoms bright Shall burgeon in the May.

"The birds it has supported Are sad to see it pass, And all the slugs and parasites Are weeping in the grass.

The sentimental borer Is audible with pain, And never shall the cherries sweet Stain human lips again.

Suspended in the tree Will never tinkle forth again Its warning melody.

'The cool and shady bower Upon a Summer's day, And the wine leaves of the Autumn-Why choppest them away?"

With hot tears in his eyes, Who fingers with his handkerchief, And shamefully replies:

'I chopp-ed it, my father-I cannot tell a lie. The other boys are innocent-The criminal is I.

I chopp-ed with my hatchet, As hard as I could hit, Decapitated it.

'But thou'rt a poet, father, And I am but a lad; t did not strike me until now That what I did was bad.

I did not think of Summer, Of blossoms when they blow, or if the slugs and parasites Had anywhere to go.

"I did not think of wine leaves, Ot borers and of birds, Till they arose to torture me In thy poetic words.

I only thought of getting The wallop in my hips, And showing both the other boys How I could scatter chips.

I chopp-ed it, my father, Contritely be it safd, And willingly will I repair With thee behind the shed."

t was a softened father Who answered: "I relent. Thou'lt never be a poet, son, But may be President.

'Thou can'st not see a vision, And can'st not dream a dream, But these are only little things Which no one will esteem.

Thou art no castle builder To waken from a trance-Thou art a practical, my son, And thou hast got a chance." Who turns him on his knees,

A million cherry trees!"

Alfalfa in Michigan.

Prof. A. R. Potts, of the Michigan Agricultural College, declared Michigan could not grow a more productive crop than alfalfa. He declares there are many advantages in growing the crop and that it is an excellent soil builder.

He says that three or four crops can be produced each year, and each crop is much heavier than ordinary clover crops. He strongly advocated the growing o alfalfa, not only as a revenue producing crop, but also as an excellent way to enrich soil that had become worn out.

Henry E. Krueger, farm expert Wisconsin, who spent last summer advo cating the growth of more rye and alfalfa in Michigan, said Michigan farmers should awaken to the advantages of growing alfalfa. He told of the numerous good qualities of this crop and cited instances where farms had been deserted as practically worthless but had been turned into rich producing lands.

I Know the Diseases of Both Sexes Like an Open Book. I have Been Cut ing Them for 49 Years. In fact, My Entire Life Has Been Devoted to Curing Where Others Have Failed.

I Have Changed Hundreds Upon Hundreds of Nervous Wrecks Into Fine, Strong Men and Women. I Accept No Case I Cannot Cure.

It will cost you nothing to write me, and I will gladly tell you your condition, truthfully, honestly—accepting no case that I connot cure—holding out no false promises. I have spent my whole life in the study and cure of chronic diseases, and my study and investigation have been blessed by the discovery of many new and marvelous methods of treating disease. Forty-nine years ago I graduated from the Western Homeopathic Medical College of Cleveland, O., for two years, Head Physician at the Alma Sanitarium, Alma, Mich. I have spent many long years as a specialist, treating chronic diseases of all kinds with wonderful success, and am now owner of one of the largest sanitariums in the country, giving my entire time to the treatment of Nervous Diseases of both sexes. I cure the worst forms of Epilepsey, St. Vitus Dance, Paralysis, etc.

I CURE BLOOD POISON—I cure Blood Poison in the first, second and third stages—driving the poison from the system, the taint from the blood; curing pimples, copper spots, sores in the mouth, tumers and ulcers.

I CURE FITS—Epilepsy, St. Vitus Dance, Paralysis, etc., by striking direct at the cause, restoring the diseased nerves to perfect health. Specialist in Chronic Diseases. CURE PILES-in 30 days to stay cured and to never return

I CURE CONSUMPTION, the Great White Plague, in the first and second stages. Have made a special study of this disease for fifty years. Have cured hundreds given up by home Doctors. Those I cannot treat at home by seeing or by mail, I will take to my Sanitarium, where best of medical skill, nursing and private rooms are given, for Ten Dollars a week. I GUARANTEE TO CURE, to stay cured, liquor, morphine, cocaine, nicotine or cigarette habits. Most cases treated at home Call and see me or write to either Sanitarium as below.

No matter what disease you are suffering from, write me fully today. I will answer at once, and my advice, which costs you nothing, may be worth hundreds of dollars—life itself—to you. If I cannot cure you I will tell you so. WRITE TODAY. Faithfully yours,
