What has become of our business men's organization? Let's get together and see if we can't put some vim into it again. Tawas City has many advantages that cannot be obtained elsewhere and it is up to us to put them before the people who are interested.
Master Thomas Kane, aged five years arrived from Chicago Wednesday for a visit at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bischoff. The little fellow made the trip alone. He is the same boy who came alone all the way from Oklahoma last summer for a visit here.
Matters in the circuit court have progressed slowly this week. Up to Thursday evening only the two criminal cases had been disposed of. Joseph Benedict, charged with attempted rape and Oliver Peters, charged with violation of the local option law, were both found guilty by the jury.

Don't forget the road bee next Monday. Enough men and teams are wanted to put the road from the Halletown bridge to the Townline in first-class shape. It will be a benefit to city and country alike, so all should be ready to do their share of the improvement.

Several complaints have been made recently in regard to bicycle riders using the cement walk on Bay Street between Friedman's and Prescott's corners, and we have been requested to remind them that there is a city ordinance prohibiting the practice. Several accidents have occurred recently and it has become dangerous for small children to be upon the walk when some of these reckless riders pass.

The appearance of our city would be greatly improved if people would use a little care in the disposal of their rubbish. For instance the river at some points is clogged with brush which some one has dumped into it as the easiest method of disposal. Such things as this are unsightly, and steps should be taken by the proper authorities to compel the guilty one to remove the debris and dispose of it in the proper manner. If each citizen will do his share in keeping the city clean and neat a much more favorable impression will be created among strangers who visit the city or pass through it on the trains.

Linen Shower.

A very pretty and delightful affair was the linen shower given by Misses May Murray and Maud Mosher at the home of Miss Murray Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Jennie Bizney, who on July 2nd will become the bride of Mr. George H. Otto.

The bride-to-be was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts and the evening passed very pleasantly. A two course luncheon was served, the dining room being handsomely decorated in pink and white, Miss Birney's favorite colors.

Eleven young ladies were present besides the hostesses and the guest of honor. They were: Misses Victoria, Sophia and Helen Green, Evelyn and Arminta Brabant, Charlotte Jahraus, Grace Birney, Mamie Swartz, Josie Bigelow, Elsie Musolt and Edna Gates.

County Eighth Grade Commencement Exercises.

The eighth grade commencement exercises held in the court house, Tawas City, June 13, were a decided success. The court house was much too small to accommodate the large number present, and the program rendered showed careful preparation on the part of the children and others participating.

The first numbers were a "folk song" and a Scottish song rendered by the Tawas City eighth graders. These numbers showed careful training and elicited much applause.

Miss Mabel Smith of Grant, gave a paper entitled, "The Model School," which showed careful thought in preparation. She closed with a humorous recitation entitled, "The Up-to-Date East Tawas class sang in a sweet, spirited manner a very pleasing school song which was much appreciated.

Wilber eighth graders, assisted by Byron Brooks, rendered two dialogues which provoked much laughter and showed very careful training on the part of pupils and teacher. The children taking part in above dialogues were: Amy Abbott, Hilma Schaaf, Lulu Newberry and Ruth Lilliquist.

Emma Lawrence, Freda Bucholz and Nyda Campbell of Tawas City, gave excellent recitations in a very satisfactory manner.
A duet by Miss Graham and Mr. Buckle, "A Garden of Roses," was the next musical number on the program. Those who have heard Miss Graham and Mr. Buckle can well appreciate this number. It was rendered in a very artistic manner.

A baritone solo given by James Mark shows this young man possessed of a beautiful voice which promises much in the future.
A duet, "Larboard Watch," by Messrs. Hood and Campbell closed the musical part of the program. This old English ballad was well rendered. Mr. Hood has proven his musical worth since coming to Tawas City and his pleasing tenor voice charms all. Mr. Campbell's ability in this line is well known to our people and needs no comment.

The evening's address, given by Rev. W. R. Blatchford, was a most interesting and inspiring one. He spoke of the duties of citizenship and the responsibilities of the young men and women of our country. His words were full of wisdom and truth, and they will surely be remembered by all who were present.

J. B. Brown, showed careful thought in preparation. In a very impressive, eloquent manner he advised the young graduates to build characters that will stand the test of time; to emulate the noble men and women of the past; and to have high ideals and a fixed purpose in life.
The meeting was opened and closed by Rev. O. E. Moffet.
Much credit is due the various teachers for the well grounded eighth graders of this year's class.
County Clerk, John A. Mark presided in his usual pleasing efficient manner.

innings to do it. The game started with our side, scared to death, the first four striking out, Neal getting 12 altogether in 7 innings. They got runs early on our errors and it looked like a walk-away as the score was 7 to 2 at the end of the sixth. Then in the seventh, with three on base, Moore knocked a three-bagger out in the center field clearing the bases. Then Moore scored when Clement dropped Murphy's fly. In the ninth Tawas City got two more on two hits and a passed ball. Bay City tied it in their half when Nelson got a three bagger and scored on Thomas' single. In the tenth neither side scored. In the eleventh Tawas City was unable to do anything. Bay City won in this inning when Nelson got a two-bagger and scored on an error. A fast triple play by Tawas City featured the game.

TAWAS CITY, MICH., June 20, 1913

Considering the great amount of matter sent free through the mails by U. S. senators and congressmen, it is no wonder that there is a constant deficit in the postal department. And to cap the climax some of the senators have allowed private parties and corporations to send out tons of matter under the frank supposed to be used only for the senator's personal business. In the lobby investigation now in progress in Washington it has been brought out that Senator Lodge allowed the sugar interests to send out nearly 2,000,000 pieces of matter in opposition to the reduction of the tariff on sugar, at a saving to the trust of $28,050. This wholesale abuse of the franking privilege should be drastically dealt with and the guilty parties made to reimburse the postoffice department for the loss occasioned by them. As a matter of fact the franking privilege should be entirely abolished and the senators and representatives required to pay their own postage, as most of the mail sent out by them is either campaign matter advocating their re-election or circulars meant to create public sentiment for some special measure in which they are interested.

The efforts of the state fire marshal's office to enforce the law relative to buildings considered a fire menace has aroused a storm of protest throughout the state and the aggrieved ones are threatening to sue the department. However the convenience of the few should not be allowed to interfere with the safety of the many.

The senatorial probe into the strike situation in West Virginia has brought out a great many points which both mine operators and Governor Glasscock would rather have concealed. The story of the measures used to quell the striking miners and force them to resume work sounds like a chapter from the dark ages.

If those Moro bandits in the Philippines keep on with their brigandage we shall be forced to decide as the early settlers did with the Indians, that "the only good Moro is a dead one."

Lazarus and Dives.
Despite much that has been said and written to the contrary, health conditions in American cities, as elsewhere in civilization, are improving, if diminished death-rates are a criterion. And yet health conditions in our great cities are not good enough to satisfy the humanitarian—at any rate those conditions which accompany or follow the gravest social and economic diseases of the body politic. At a recent woman's industrial exhibition were placards showing disease-engendering conditions: obviously insanitary sweat shops, in which consumptives work on underwear, shirtwaists, bed and table linen, lace collars and other garments, to be sold on the bargain counter, and to be introduced with all their germ content into other homes. A placard bore a doctor's statement: "I have found 182 families, 179 with contagious diseases, doing this tenement work." Nicely bottled pecans are sold as tibbits for the well-to-do; in this exhibition were photographs of a mother and two children in a squalid room cracking the nuts, one of the children facilitating the work by using its teeth. By such poor women and little children also (often illegally kept from school) are bristles put into hair brushes, artificial flowers made and paper cigarette tubes rolled—and licked. One of the most melancholy aspects of our civilization, says the Journal of the American Medical Association, is the pay for sweat shop work: $1 a dozen for skilled work at gloves for which the retailer charges $3 a pair; 30 cents for four hours crocheting of a hand bag which sells for $1.50. In 204 inspected homes 25 per cent of the workers were between 5 and 10 years of age; nearly half were under 14; a fourth of the children worked five hours or more a day after school; three fourths of these home-working families earned less than 10 cents an hour altogether. In the end, however, the consumer not infrequently must pay an awful price in sickness and in death for "bargains" prepared under such pitiless and often pestilential conditions. Well, indeed, has Dr. Solomon Solis-Cohen observed that "the poverty of Lazarus makes itself felt in the house of Dives"; yes, and his infections also!

Guaranteed Eczema Remedy.
The constant itching, burning, redness, rash and disagreeable effects of eczema, tetter, salt rheum, itch, piles and irritating skin eruptions can be readily cured and the skin made clear and smooth with Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. Mr. J. C. Evedland, of Bath, Ill., says: "I had eczema twenty-five years and had tried everything. All failed. When I found Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment I found a cure." This ointment is the formula of a physician, and has been in use for years—not an experiment. That is why we can guarantee it. All druggists or by mail. Price 50c. Pfeiffer Chemical Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis. For sale by J. M. Wuggazer & Co., Tawas City, and J. E. Dillon, E. Tawas. adv

Forty Acre Farmer Successful.
The recent government report being circularized in the newspapers at the present time, that a man cannot make a living on forty acres of land in Michigan is a fair sample of the tommyrot that the government experts sometimes pass out. A short time ago it was something to the effect that the average dairyman was losing money each and every year. Perhaps it is so that the majority of farmers on forty acres are losing money, though we are somewhat skeptical on agreeing to the proposition, and yet, even if they were, does that prove that a living cannot be made on forty acres of land? We believe it is claimed that 90 per cent of the business men fail some time during their business career, but does that prove that a success cannot be made in business?

Perhaps nine-tenths of all those engaged in farming are not successful, but we cannot say from that that farming is not profitable to the man who knows how to make it so.
It is rather surprising that Michigan papers would be willing to publish such a report, for as it stands it would make it appear to anyone who gave it little thought, that the land was so poor that it was impossible to make a living on forty acres, when the truth of the matter is, the occupants of the forty under consideration couldn't make a success if he had a thousand acres.

Big Money for Roads.
There are upwards of $400,000,000 of good roads bonds issued and outstanding, according to the Good Roads Year Book of the United States, the 1913 edition of which has just been issued, containing a resume of the whole road situation. It is evident that whatever may be the faults in methods of construction and maintenance money is being spent in sufficient amount to bring about a vast improvement in the public roads. The Year Book shows $137,000,000 of state road bonds authorized, and $156,500,000 of county bonds outstanding on Jan. 1, 1913, making a total of $293,500,000. As this is based on reports from about 75 per cent of the counties in the United States, and as a large number of the individual townships have not reported, it is estimated that the amounts not reported would run the aggregate up to probably $350,000,000, to which should be added ten or fifteen million dollars of the bonds voted in 1912 which have not yet been issued.

Gratifying progress in road construction during the past few years is indicated by the statement in the Year Book that while the percentage of all road improvement in the United States at the close of 1909 was 8.66 per cent, the revised statistics to Dec. 31, 1911, show an improved mileage of 10.1 per cent, or a net gain of 1.44 per cent. This does not sound so impressive in terms of percentage, but it means that in the two-year period more than 34,000 miles of improved roads were constructed or 10,000 miles more than the entire mileage of national roads in France.
The American Highway association, which issues the Official Good Roads Year Book, has as its president Hon. Logan Waller Page, director of the United States Office of Public Roads, and for the chairman of its executive committee the president of the Southern Railway company, W. W. Fialay. The association has a large membership of prominent men in all parts of the country and is the clearing house or national representative of between thirty or forty of the various state and inter-state road associations.—Michigan Roads.

USE MUCH ASBESTOS

Domestic Mine Production Is Small Compared with Canadian.

If the United States can not boast of pre-eminence in asbestos production, as it can for other minerals, it is at least a matter of some gratification to know that the bulk of the world's production comes from America, and that the Canadian deposits yield by far the larger part of the total. In this too the United States benefits, for the nearness and reliability of the Canadian supply, largely owned in the United States, afford the basis for our eventual unquestioned supremacy in the development of asbestos manufactures. Even as it is, there are, according to J. S. Diller of the United States Geological Survey, some valuable deposits and promising prospects in the United States, and these would undoubtedly be much more largely developed were it not for the extent of the Canadian deposits. The domestic production in 1912, according to Mr. Diller, was 4,403 short tons, valued at $87,959, and although this was a decline of 42 per cent in tonnage compared with the output for 1911 it was only 27 per cent less in value, owing to the larger quantity of higher grade asbestos in 1912. Georgia, Vermont and Wyoming are the three states which mine asbestos. The Canadian exports of asbestos in 1912 amounted to 88,008 tons, of which 71,426 tons, or more than 81 per cent, was imported into the United States. This quantity was 67 per cent of the entire Canadian production.

Asbestos is the most important fireproofing material known. Its fibrous structure adapts it to a wide range of applications—from woven fabrics, such as theater curtains and articles of clothing, to asbestos shingles, stucco, plaster, asbestos "wood," and various other forms of building material that render structures thoroughly fireproof. Its lightness, strength, durability and insulating properties against heat and electricity give it special advantages for use in constructing cars and electric motor subways.
The most common uses of asbestos are for asbestos paper, millboard, pipe covering, and lagging to inclose heat pipes, furnaces and locomotives in order to prevent loss of heat in transmission. As a non-conductor of heat it may be used not only in the preparation of fireproof safes and vaults but also for cold storage and cooling structures. Houses made of asbestos materials or coated with asbestos throughout are not only warmer in winter but cooler in summer.

Dollars First.
While the doctors were quibbling about where their pay was to come from, a poor devil by the name of Stewart from Saginaw, died in Gaylord a few days ago. Stewart was only a hobo, stealing a ride on a Michigan Central train when he fell off and had both legs cut off. He died five and one-half hours later. Are we to presume that Otsego county medical ethics will not permit an attempt to save a human life because there is some dispute as to the pay for the services? Gaylord doctors need a few lessons in humanity and the fellowship of man.—Bay City Times.

THE NEW OSBORNE MOWER

Its simple in design and at the same time a machine of great strength. Simplicity in design means ease in handling—and the great strength is gained by the use of malleable iron and high grade steel in its manufacture. The main frame is cast in one piece and extends to the wheels so near the mower frame that it is impossible to bend the axle when one of the wheels receives a severe strain. The cutter bar is the business end of a mower and on the new Osborne it is made to stand the wear and tear of plowing through ant hills, butting into stub posts, tree trunks and roots that the driver is often unable to see. All of this causes wear in the pins, so the cutter end of the cutter bar is bound to sag sooner or later. The New Osborne is equipped with a device that will realign the cutter bar at the point where the bar is out of alignment. Call on me for a thorough explanation of the New Osborne Mower.

DEFINES PURPOSE.

Supt. Wright's Ideas as to Function of High School.

With criticism and discussion so general in regard to the American high school, definition of the purpose of this educational institution by Luther L. Wright, superintendent of public instruction, is most pertinent. Mr. Wright says: "Viewed from the standpoint of the citizen and the business man, the function of the public high school paid for by common taxation is threefold: First, to give a pupil training that will aid him in making a living; second, to give culture that he may enjoy living; third, to so train his intelligence that he shall be a good citizen. From another viewpoint, we may give as the function of the high school, preparation of those who are going to college and preparation of those who are not going to college. Each of these latter equals the other in importance and differs from it. Much has been done for the first; not much for the second. We must not do less for the small percentage who do go, but I think we must do more and differently for those who do not go.

"The function of the high school is to give a young man a working knowledge of English, history, mathematics and science; and also an opportunity to apply this while in school to some of the fundamental manual occupations. Thus the school will afford culture and training for life's activities. In the latter, mechanics, agriculture and household economics are fundamental.

"The high school must know from the beginning to what use its product is to be put. What we call a general education is not of great practical use today nor will it be in the future, hence the idea which the high school possesses now of teaching a little of everything to everybody in a certain and prescribed time needs correction. The high school, if it keeps its place in the confidence of the people, must aim to turn out a product which will fit into the present social and industrial world. There has been too much refitting necessary in the past. The present high school goes on the supposition that a little of everything except industrial work is necessary in order that a person may discover himself. The result is that few are discovered, and the waste in readjustment after leaving school is enormous. The school must turn out people who can produce something, or at least be efficient distributors and economic consumers. The school ought to do its utmost to make a fellow choose something by which he can make a living. There must be more study of things and less study about things."

Best Laxative for the Aged.

Old men and women feel the need of a laxative more than young folks, but it must be safe and harmless, and one which will not cause pain. Dr. King's New Life Pills are especially good for the aged, for they act promptly and easily. Price 25c. Recommended by J. M. Wuggazer & Co., Tawas City, and Jas. E. Dillon, East Tawas. adv

$40 For a Bushel of Potatoes.

The Northeastern Michigan Development Bureau agrees to pay twenty dollars for the bushel of potatoes, of any variety, winning first prize at the State Fair this fall provided they are grown and exhibited by a resident of Northeastern Michigan.

Prizes on potatoes at the State Fair this fall have been materially changed: Instead of a prize as in the past of a few dollars each, on many different varieties they now offer for the best bushel of early potatoes, prizes of $20.00, $15.00, $10.00, and three prizes of $5.00 each. The same amounts are offered for the best bushel of late potatoes. This gives the grower of one or two varieties of potatoes an opportunity to enter his potatoes and win a prize worth while and then by selling the bushel to the Development Bureau for twenty dollars the winner, if from Northeastern Michigan can get forty dollars for the best bushel of potatoes at the State Fair.

The Development Bureau is very anxious that all these prizes, each and every one, offered for potatoes at the State Fair shall be captured by Northeastern Michigan growers. We believe Northeastern Michigan produces the best potatoes, let our growers prove it.

Ulcers and Skin Troubles.

If you are suffering with any old, running or fever sores, ulcers, boils, eczema or other skin troubles, get a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and you will get relief promptly. Mrs. Bruce Jones, of Birmingham, Ala., suffered from an ugly ulcer for nine months, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured her in two weeks. Will cure you. Only 25c. Recommended by J. M. Wuggazer & Co., Tawas City, and Jas. E. Dillon, East Tawas. adv

Should be Fittingly Welcomed.

The second annual good fellowship excursion of the Bay City business men, under the auspices of the Bay City board of commerce, will leave Bay City on the evening of July 6 for a four-day trip over the D. & M. The special train will run through to Cheboygan and the excursionists will spend a day at Mackinac Island, the balance of the time being taken up with visits to the various towns and cities along the line.

The excursion train is scheduled to reach Tawas City at 10:25 a. m., July 10, and will remain here until 10:50. During this short time it is up to the business men of Tawas City to do the honors of the occasion in a fitting manner.

Accompanying the train will be Messrs Norman L. Fraser and Walter S. Sinclair, Detroit's famous Highland Scotch bagpipers, who have played a number of times in Northeastern Michigan, and there will also be a military band. A number of special attractions have been arranged for and tasteful souvenirs will be presented to ladies and children.

How to Help the Corn Crop.

By Henry G. Bell, Agronomist.

There will be a great deal of immature, unsound corn next fall if present conditions do not change materially.

Late rains delayed the planting two or three weeks. On June 1, much corn was still being planted. What was planted before rainy weather set in is just showing above the ground. Few farmers have done their first cultivating at this date. (June 3.)

Killing frosts may usually be expected between Sept. 15 and Oct. 1, which would catch the corn before it is ripe. Now, a great deal can be done to hasten the corn to maturity. Suitable, available plant food will undoubtedly hasten ripening.

Top dressing the crop with 200 to 400 lbs. per acre of fertilizer analyzing from 1 to 2 per cent ammonia, 8 to 12 per cent available phosphoric acid and 2 to 4 per cent potash will do the work. This top dressing is best applied some time before the corn reaches 12 to 18 inches in height. It can be distributed through the fertilizer dropper of a grain drill. When using the grain drill for this purpose, if the shoes or the disks are taken off, fertilizer can be applied to the corn without disturbing the plants.

One of the simplest and most effective ways to apply the fertilizer is to put it on through the regular fertilizer distributor. This implement is carried in stock by large implement manufacturers and can be obtained at a comparatively small price. It is especially built for the distribution of fertilizer and can be regulated so that as small a quantity as 200 lbs. can be evenly distributed.

The fertilizer should be applied just before a cultivation. If the ground is stirred to a depth of 2 to 3 inches by cultivation, the plant food will be brought into immediate reach of the feeding roots.

Something must be done if much of the corn is to be well matured by fall. Top dressing is a good practice. Nitrogen hastens stalk growth; phosphoric acid and potash push forward the maturing of the crop and the filling of the ear.

BILL NYE ON YOUTH.

Youth is the springtime of life. It is the time to acquire information, so that we may show it off in after years and paralyze people with what we know. The wise youth will "lay low" till he gets a whole lot of knowledge, and then in later days turn it loose in an abrupt manner. He will guard against telling what he knows a little at a time. That is unwise. I once knew a youth who wore himself out telling people all he knew from day to day, so that when he became a bald-headed man he was utterly exhausted and didn't have anything left to tell anyone. Some of the things that we know should be saved for our own use. The man who sheds all his knowledge and doesn't leave enough to keep house with fools himself.—Bill Nye.

"Pittsburgh Perfect" Fence

Look For THE WELD THAT HELD

Because the joints in "Pittsburgh Perfect" are welded by electricity, you can pick it out first pop. Examine a weld—the galvanizing piled thickly around the joint affords double protection here.

Heat a weld white hot, then try to separate the wires. You can't. This is the only permanent, unbreakable joint.

"Pittsburgh Perfect" looks better, is strung in less time with less labor, and, AS MADE TO-DAY from our own special Open Hearth Wire, is stronger, lasts longer and gives more satisfaction than any other. Don't spend your fence money—invest it. Read our catalogue, investigate, then decide.

Made in Different Styles for FIELD, FARM, RANCH, LAWN, CHICKEN, POULTRY and RABBIT YARD and GARDEN

Every Rod Guaranteed

Ask your dealer for "Pittsburgh Perfect" and insist on his furnishing it. Do not allow him to persuade you that some other fence is just as good. If he doesn't sell it, write us direct.
