Mrs. Chas. Curry of East Tawas returned Monday from the Bay City hospital. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Quackenbush.

Just to let us know that he had not lost his grip, Old Winter turned to last Sunday and gave us a fall of about three inches of snow. His supply must be about exhausted by this time.

A large number of wild ducks have been disporting in the open water of the bay this week, and some of the local nimrods have been bewailing the fact that there is to be no spring shooting.

The caucuses in Tawas township were held this week and the following nominations made: Peoples ticket: Supervisor, Geo. Anshuetz; clerk, Julius Rhode; highway commissioner, Henry Anshuetz; justice, Chas. Force; member board of review, Geo. Martin; constables, John Quick, August Ebert, Roy Wood, Martin Long. Republican ticket:
Supervisor, Harry Preston; clerk, Edward Londo; treasurer, Joseph Blust;
justice, Malcolm McLeod; highway commissioner, Carl Look; member board of review, Chas. W. Curry; constables, Geo. Streuer, Louis Gauthier, Frank
Lang, Martin Long.

There is one thing certain and that is that Cheboygan can grow bigger if it will. All it requires is for the people to cast off the cloak of pessimism and put on the raiment of optimism. If a proposition comes up don't knock it until you know what you are knocking about. If you know something wrong about a proposition state it so that it may be corrected. It is your duty to look into the merits of every proposition that is presented, but it is not your duty to knock it before you know anything about it.—Cheboygan Democrat.

A little dose of the same medicine
might be a good thing for Tawas City.

Some men seem to think if they get into a "scrape" and the editor mentions it in his paper that he does it out of malice toward them. In nearly every case of this kind nothing could be farther from the truth than such a belief. It is the editor's business to publish local happenings, good or bad, and if a man furnishes material for a bad item he has no one to blame should it appear.—Ex.

Without good teeth there can not be thorough mastication. Without thorough mastication there can not be perfect digestion. Without perfect digestion
there can not be proper assimilation.
Without proper assimilation there can not be nutrition. Without nutrition there can not be health. Without health what is life? Dr. Carson, dentist,

At the civil service examination to be held at Bay City April 11 applicants will be examined to fill a contemplated vacancy in the position of postmaster at Alabaster. The compensation of the postmaster at this office for the last fiscal year was $412. The usual qualifications will apply at this examination.

Miss Helen Applin of East Tawas was one of the fortunate prize winners in the Saginaw News contest which closed recently. Miss Applin won the district prize of $75. She had a total of 4,000, 000 votes, the same number which won second prize in the whole territory last year.

The ding dong tubular bells are now
in place in the tower of Christ church, East Tawas. The expense has been borne by the Sunday school, St. Cecille society and ladies' guild. Tubular bells are bell metal tubes of various lengths, these being about 8 and 6 feet, and about 6 inches in diameter. They are hung perpendicularly in a frame and rung by striking the side near the upper end with a wooden faced hammer. In time the number can be added to so that when there are 10 or 15 almost any hymn can be played.

We publish in another column of this paper the program for the Sunday school convention to be held at East Tawas
April 4 and 5.

In a letter from Edwin Rawden, Ann Arbor, he informs us that Mrs. Rawden has been very ill the past two weeks
with the grippe, but is slowly recovering
at present.

Services at Christ church next Sunday: Evening prayer, 7:00. Lenten services next week: Litany on Wednesday at 3:30; holy communion on Thursday at 9:00; evening prayer on Friday
at 7:00.

We go to press too early to secure a report of the democratic banquet held at the Iosco hotel last evening. The indications were, however, that there would be a good attendance of democrats from various parts of the county.

Miss Harriette A. Perkins Stark has been secured for an entertainment in the high school building next Monday evening for the benefit of the school. Miss Stark comes highly recommended as a reader and elocutionist, and a pleasant treat is anticipated. Admission, adults 25 cents; children 15 cents. adv

From present indications there will be several vacancies to be filled in the teaching staff of our schools for next year. The anticipated vacancies are superintendent, county normal teacher, grammar and first primary. Misses Brown, McNair, Muriel Murphy, Ina
Bradley and Lulu Murphy have accepted their respective positions for another year.

Fix up. The most humble cottage in our city can be made neat and attractive.
A common board fence, without plane or paint, can be made neat. Don't let up your gate with a fence post. You can get a fastener for 10 cents, or make one yourself in 30 minutes without a cent of cost. It takes no money to burn up the old rubbish, fix up broken fences
and make your home look homelike.
The busy and industrious find time to fix up their fences, but often the men who make little or no garden and let the yard resemble a last year's bird's nest,
are those who have the most leisure time
on their hands.

| Grant and Dimmick       | 3     | 9    | .250 |

The games between the different teams this week have been very exciting, for the reason that each team is trying to get placed for the second half of the contest.

Next Saturday night will end half of the match, and every team will be off for the finish. The main feature this week was Wyman's bowling three games with scores of 204, 216 and 213, the latter bowling was in Pinkerton's place,
who was unable to bowl.

Hollibaugh also came through with a score of 207, which was sensational, and Poppleton was in the lime light with 208. The general talk is that in order to win the first prize Dillon and Poppleton
must be defeated two out of three games
in the next half of the series.

SCORE, FIRST GAME, MARCH 18:

| Wyman     | 216 | 187 | 146 | 183 |
| Pinkerton | 213 | 152 | 191 | 185 |

Highest number of pins in one match
was bowled by Wyman and Pinkerton, March 23, with 1,105 pins for three games each. Hollibaugh and Sullivan came second with 1,043 pins for six games.

Highest score to date for the men:
A. Wyman, 216; H. L. Hollibaugh, 207.
Highest scores to date for the ladies:
Mrs. H. E. Hanson, 146; Mrs. Fred
Adams, 123—125—135; Miss M. Garner, 126.

The ladies prize will be decided April 1, 1914.

Come early and stay all through, prepared to ask questions and take part in discussion.

Be sure that your Sunday School is represented.
Delegates will be entertained.

The Untilled Field.
There are 6,500,000 farms in the United States. The annual crop value is estimated at $6,100,000,000. More than half the crops remain on the farm to be consumed, with the result that the average farm income is only about $900
a year. More than seventy per cent of the land that ought to be available for farming in the United States is not under cultivation.

Yet there are people who seriously argue that there is little room for development along agricultural lines in this country. Because a relatively small proportion of the farmers are making big money, they insist that the growing of grain has reached a high state of perfection; because so much of the rich, easily tilled land is in cultivation, they think the area limit is in sight. If these persons could but witness the effect of intensive farming in countries which are compelled to utilize all land that can be made productive, they would change their views concerning the situation in the United States.

The biggest business proposition in this country is farming and the possibilities far outweigh anything yet accomplished in this line. Farming in the United States, despite all the flamboyant talk concerning it, is still in the experimental stage. No one realizes this better than practical farmers who are generally accounted successful. Every man among them knows that he has lost a lot of energy and time because of the things
he did not know.

Proof of this is found in the fact that the best students and most careful investigators of new agricultural theories are found among men who have made a success of the farming business.

Teachers' Examination.
The next regular teachers' examination
will be held in the court house, Tawas
City, Thursday, Friday and Saturday,
April 30 and May 1 and 2.

Reading for this examination will be based upon George Eliot's "Silas Marner."
J. A. CAMPBELL,
Commissioner.

Notice to the Electors of Grant Township.

Notice is hereby given the electors of the township of Grant that there shall be submitted to the voters at the annual township meeting to be held in the township hall, April 6, 1914, the question of adoption of Chapter 25 of the highway laws of Michigan.

JOHN C. BURT,
adv Township Clerk.

Roads.

By L. H. Belknap.

The 1912-13 legislature made some very progressive changes in the highway laws. The present plan of the state reward law, however, in so far as it leaves to the townships and counties the privilege of saying whether any roads at all shall be built, and if built, where they shall be located (with slight statutory restrictions), remains unchanged. The local supervision remains unchanged except that the State Highway Commissioner is charged with making all surveys and plans for trunk line roads and building all bridges on trunk lines when the spans are greater than 30 feet.

Previously, all rewards have been paid
for each class of road ($250, $500, $750, and $1,000) regardless of the width surfaced, providing it was not less than nine feet. Now the law provides an increase of 10 per cent of the above figures.
Thus a macadam road, receiving $1,000
for nine feet will receive $1,100 for 16 feet. And these rewards are doubled for trunk line roads.

The trunk lines is a plan to make a broad and comprehensive system of roads. The state until last year has been handicapped by the fact that any township or county could demand state aid for any road regardless of its location. The result has been the building of a great many short lengths throughout the state that are not connected and are of purely local benefit. While the communities can still build at any point they desire they are induced to build on designated lines laid out by the State Highway Commissioner, County Road
Commissioners, Boards of Supervisors, or Township Boards, by being paid
double the reward for ordinary locations.

The particular route that Iosco county
is most interested in is the Huron Shore Trunk Line. This route has been definitely established as follows: The said route enters Iosco county on the route directly north of Twining in Arenac county, and goes north on road
through Whittemore to the Water's schoolhouse on the Hemlock road. Thence it turns east and follows the Hemlock road to Tawas City. Leaving Tawas City it goes north on Wilber road, which is the town line between townships 22 north, ranges 7 and 8 east, and follows said road to the ¼ post on east side of section 13, township 23
north, range 7 east, Wilber township.
Then goes east on ¼ line road and angling road to the corner sections 9, 10, 15 and 16, thence east on section line to corner sections 11, 12, 13 and 14 of said township, thence northeast to the north corner of sections 5 and 6, township 23
north, range 9 east, thence east along said town line following main road to Ausable and Oscoda, thence from here
northwest on VanEtan road on west side of VanEtan lake, leaving county
at north corner of sections 1 and 2, township 24 north, range 8 east.

TAWAS CITY, MICH., MAR. 27, 1914

If present prospects hold for a few months longer the coming campaign will be the hottest seen in Michigan in an off year for some time. The progressives are sure that they will carry everything, the republicans are equally sanguine of success, and the democrats—well did you ever see a democrat who wasn't sure his party was going to win?

Great Britain seems to have run against a snag in trying to force home rule upon the Ulster Irish. From present indications there will be some shillelahs flying in that part of Ireland before many moons.

Spring began last Saturday, but have you seen any change the past week?

Must File Election Expense.

Deputy Secretary of State Mills has prepared blank forms which will be distributed to the various county clerks to be used by all candidates for office at the spring election, who are required under the new election law to file a statement of their election expenses with the county clerk within 20 days after the election. Failure to observe this law makes the candidate liable to a fine of $1,000 and imprisonment for two years.

For County Treasurer.

I wish to announce to the electors of Isosco county that I will be a candidate for the nomination for county treasurer on the progressive ticket at the August primaries. Your support will be appreciated.

For Sheriff.

I desire to announce to the electors of Isosco county my candidacy for nomination as sheriff on the national progressive ticket. I acknowledge my sincere thanks to my friends for their kindly support at the primary election in 1912, and I shall be grateful for renewal of their support this year. Cordially,

adv. 14 LOUIS PRINGLE.

To The Voters of Isosco County.

I wish to announce that I am a candidate for the office of county treasurer on the republican ticket, and will appreciate your support at the primary election to be held August 25 1914.

Respectfully Yours,
EDWARD L. KING.

Wilber Warblings.

M. F. Harrod is away this week on business.

Birt Sharp has moved his family into the house on John Dawe's farm.

Geo. Stickle is getting material on the ground to build a new barn this spring.

Harry Goodale left Monday for Presque Isle county on business for the forest reserve.

Mr. and Mrs. John Leggett of the plank road were business callers here one day last week.

Miss Lilly Harrod left Monday for Mrs. J. Leggett's on the plank road, where she has employment.

Mrs. Augusta Schaaf of Detroit came last week to spend the summer at the home of her son, Andrew Schaaf.

Wm. Cross has moved his household goods into the house belonging to G. L. Stickle. Mr. C. has rented the 40-acre farm, and will also work the farm where Mr. Stickle lives.

The people's caucus was held on Monday, and the following candidates were nominated: Supervisor, John Searle; clerk, William Green; treasurer, John Newberry; highway commissioner, Nelson Smith; justice, John Miller; board of review, George Kirkendall.

At the republican caucus held here on Saturday the following nominations were made: Supervisor, John McMullen; clerk, Alexander Corner; treasurer, John Alda; highway commissioner, August Cholger, jr.; justice, Richard Cornett; for board of review, John Schreiber, jr.

Miss Hazel McLeod entertained a few friends from here at her home Saturday evening in honor of her birthday.

The young ladies who so successfully drove the colt a few weeks ago, are contemplating leaving school and taking up the work of breaking bronchos, owing to the numerous calls they have had since the last issue of the Herald.

Mr. Schmidt of Saginaw, owner of the cheese factory, brought Mr. Locke of Midland up last week to look the site over. Mr. Locke canvassed a part of the neighborhood Thursday, and indications are very favorable for the factory to be opened this spring.

The G. T. S. club met with Mary Smith last Wednesday night, and a very pleasant evening is reported. The girls have decided to meet every two weeks while the traveling is so bad, and they hope they may be able to purchase a "lantern" for the two girls who are "Afraid to go home in the dark," and then those girls won't have to do any borrowing.

Its never late until two, then its too late to get home before sunrise after leaving town, nevertheless Earl has his horse well trained and can make up a little lost sleep, even though it does startle some of the Hemlockers and cause the use of the telephone, thinking it to be a stray horse and buggy, only to find the driver having sweet dreams under the robe to keep Jack Frost (who always comes with the early morning air) from nipping his nose.

Why Collections Are Large.

A pious old lady of our acquaintance devotes the proceeds from the eggs her hens lay on Sundays to the church. Fortunately for the church nearly all her hens are Sabbath-breakers.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly falling to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. ### American Fence Has Large Wires

Our price is less than 3 cents per pound. In comparing prices with other makes be sure and figure price per pound.

Bear in Mind

1. That the number of pounds of steel per rod governs the price per rod. Consider carefully weight per rod when buying.
2. That a hard, stiff steel wire is most satisfactory for fence purposes; not too hard so that it will be brittle, nor too soft so that it will sag.
3. That years of experience have proven that this kind of wire is necessary to withstand all kinds of weather conditions. This is the quality of wire used in the Original and Genuine American Fence.
4. That when you compare American Fence with others on the market, consider first, the quality of wire; second, the gage of wire used throughout the fabric; and third, the number of pounds of steel per rod.
5. That American Fence is made in all heights, weights and gages of wire best suited to your requirements.
6. That American Fence is guaranteed by the manufacturer and by the dealers handling same.
7. Most farmers insist upon using fences made by the American Steel & Wire Company because long experience has shown them to be well made. Our weights, sizes of wire and length of rolls are full measure. No skimping of weight, the wires are full size and our rolls are full and complete lengths.

WE HAVE American Fence in stock at all times and will be more than pleased to show you the different styles, weights, etc. Our prices are right and we know we can save you money on your fence requirements and at the same time furnish you with the best fence money can buy.

LITERARY CONVULSIONS

Being a series of Dementia Halluciana reported semi-occasionally for this paper by Ernest C. Foster

Copyrighted 1914 by the Foster Service

APRIL

In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love. Now some painted, padded "chicken" is his cooing turtle dove. Time is fleeting, soon they're married—no more "chicken" is she then—nothing stirring with the coo stuff—just a fussy, cackling hen.

Excepting All Fools' Day, when we must laugh and consider it a good joke if anyone wants to shoot off one of our ears or burn our home—excepting the foolish custom of teaching children that rabbits lay Easter eggs—excepting these afflictions, the annual house-cleaning, and a round or two with chills and fever, April is alright. The month, too, has a coquettish habit of beguiling a fellow out in his low shoes and B. V. D., and then surprising him with a hurry-up snow storm or a "spring shower" that feels like it had been held over from the December stock.

In days gone by, Easter—April's one big event—was religiously observed in commemoration of the resurrection of our Saviour. It is now observed as an international exhibit of millinery, its only relation to the original resurrection being the resurrection and rebuilding of last year's hats by women whose husbands have been too stingy (or too sensible) to provide a 1914 model.

This is the month we sow the seeds and later reap a crop of weeds, for men, somehow, to save their lives, cannot make a garden like their wives. And, while 'twould be with much regret, I feel that all we men should let our better halves the credit take—yes, all there is in hoe and rake.

For the Home Town.

If the town has a lot of vacant stores, idle factories, mills running on half time, there can be no substantial value to property. Therefore, to keep the stores rented, the dwellings occupied and a general good tone to property values it is necessary that you give to your home people your entire support. Patronizing mail order houses is not altogether limited to poor people or to farmers or to people who do not know the hurt they are doing the home town, but it is a common practice among certain well-known, well-to-do men. I believe this is more the result of thoughtlessness and of being misled by embellished and highly exaggerated descriptions than through a spirit of antagonism to the home merchant. Moreover, I firmly believe that when you think over this matter seriously and carefully, analyzing it in every detail, hereafter you will give your home merchant your trade.—Ex.

An Old Problem.

In an Ohio city a wife has recently won a divorce because, among other things, hubby, after a hard day's work, wouldn't pilot her to the movies or go out and make calls, but insisted upon donning smoking jacket and slippers and reading the paper as he puffed his pipe and toasted his toes.

Note the words: "Among other things!" Of course it takes more than tiredness or selfishness to legalize a divorce in Ohio. But the other things need not concern us now. The present point is—was tired hubby's staying at home selfish?

With all due sympathy for a tired man he must have been guilty as charged. Don't you suppose wife was tired, too? She had been cooped up within the four walls of home all day, as busy at her work as hubby ever was with his. Moreover, her day began early, and no whistle ended it at night. With her it was work and drudge day after day with barely a bit of variety to break the sameness.

Do you wonder, then, that sometimes, in the evening, she wanted a little amusement, wanted to step beyond her door?

Of course, it's bad never to stay at home nights, but there's danger, also, at the other extreme. Stay-at-home husbands, husbands who never take their wives calling, become stupid, crusty chaps, don't they? For their own good they ought to get out now and then and mix with their neighbors.

Beware of Cheap Papers.

It is not the cost of the paper (the highest price is nothing), but it is the time wasted in reading matter of no value that determines the actual price of a paper. Besides, these papers, getting less than the cost of the white paper out of their subscribers, are obliged to take almost any kind of advertising that is offered, and hence lead the reader, if he reads them at all, into foolish investments. It is only the paper that charges a good price and requires each subscriber to pay his share that can afford to turn down fake, deceptive and immoral advertisements.—Wallace's Farmer.

Old papers 5c bundle. Herald office.

Forest Notes.

Connecticut has one and a half million acres of timberland, mainly in farmers' woodlots.

India is developing an important turpentine industry, though it does not supply the home market.

The Canadian forestry association, which recently met in Ottawa, has selected Halifax, Nova Scotia, for its next annual meeting place.

The stringent requirement of the forest service that all sheep be dipped before entering the national forests, has practically eradicated scabies on those areas.

The lumbermen of Maine in 1900 originated in this country the use of mountain lookout towers with telephone connection for the prompt location and suppression of forest fires.

Only one wood—Spanish cedar—is commonly used for cigar boxes. Sometimes a cheaper wood may form the basis of the box, with paper-thin veneers of the tropical cedar over it.

A California firm is selling eucalyptus charcoal at $24 a ton, as against $20 a ton for oak charcoal. Since most of the California-grown eucalypts do not make good lumber, uses for other products of the tree are being sought.

Fifteen small saw mills are cutting timber from the Powell national forest in southern Utah, more than 100 miles from the nearest railroad. They are run by settlers during time that can be spared from the crops, and supply local needs since there is no opportunity to ship timber in or out.

The department of agriculture is trying to eliminate the danger to cattle from poisonous plants on national forest ranges. Of these plants, larkspur, loco weed, death camas, and water hemlock are the most poisonous. Larkspur does the most harm, because it is so widely distributed and is particularly bad for cattle. Ordinarily, horses will not eat larkspur, and sheep can eat it without apparent injury.

American "Health Scouts."

From the world standpoint here are strategic points in the fight against disease. From the Far East there is always the danger of inroads of deadly bubonic plague or equally deadly cholera. Yokohama, Shanghai, Hong Kong, Amoy, and Calcutta are points where these diseases may originate and from which they be spread, because the ships of the world call there.

Naples is a lookout point for the Mediterranean; Libau, the Port of St. Petersburg, is the gateway for many emigrants; Guayaquil is a pest-hole of South America; Havana is the watch-tower of the Caribbean; Rio Janeiro, the strategic point of the east coast of South America.

At all these points and at 20 others the public health service of the United States has highly trained health scouts regularly stationed. The duty of these commissioned surgeons is to watch with unceasing vigilance for contagion and keep the home office posted. Likewise are they ever ready to strike when occasion arises. So vigilant are they that any one of them knows immediately when there is a dangerous outbreak of disease in his part of the world.

Supplementary to these scouts of the public health service are the United States consuls. Disease spreads through trade, and a consul is stationed in every trade center of importance from pole to pole. In all there are 500 cities in the world in which are stationed representatives of the consular service, and these are the 500 most important commercial centers.

Every consular officer is a health scout. While he may not be a medical officer, as is the special representative of the public health service, it is none the less his duty to maintain an eternal vigilance for contagion than to watch trade conditions. Each week each of these consular officers makes a written report to the public health service. Every mail brings a stream of these reports to headquarters at Washington. Wherever there may be an outbreak of any sort of disease that may be regarded as serious, the consul uses the cable and Washington knows immediately.

Through state and municipal health agencies and from its own representatives the public health service gets similar reports from every corner of the United States and its possessions. This completes the survey of the world. From each week's accumulation of health reports is compiled a clinical chart of the world. This chart shows at a glance just what there is abroad in the way of disease the world around, and just where it is located. The chart is distributed to all the health and consular representatives that have contributed to its making, that they, in return, may be thoroughly posted as to the general health condition, and aware of what may be expected. Any man in all this great plan can tell you at a glance the exact health condition of all the world. If a ship comes to his port from any other port he looks at the chart and knows what disease he should look for on the ship.—American Review of Reviews for March.

Here's a Thought.

It is much safer to shout with the crowd than against it. That is why the crowd makes such a noise.—Printers' Ink.

Candles to Fit.

To make a candle fit any candlestick, soften the wax by dipping in hot water. Then push it in the candlestick; if too small, the candle can be squeezed in; if too large, the soft wax will spread and hold the candle up.

Worth Knowing.

The average male brain among civilized races weighs about 49 ounces; in the female about five ounces less. It measures about 105 cubic inches. It consists of 300,000,000 nerve cells, of which 3,000 are disintegrated and destroyed every minute, so that we have a new brain every 60 days. The brains of public and famous men, as well as criminals, weigh about 60 ounces.

ACTIVITIES OF WOMEN

There are 3,167,232 widows in the United States.

In Persia carpet weaving is done exclusively by women.

Housewives purchase $225,000,000 worth of food each year.

A woman can jump 62 per cent. of the distance a man can.

Princess Mary of England is making a collection of pagan gods.

Of the 737 women who took examinations last year for positions as sorters in the British postal department, 659 qualified, out of which number 70 were given appointments.

Miss Lena Baltz of Pochahontas, Ark., has demonstrated that a woman can be just as big a success as a farmer as a man for she cleared $22.15 from one-tenth of an acre of ground.

For the first time in the history of Switzerland a woman has been called to the bar. She is Fraulein Lill Zgragen, daughter of a Bernese lawyer, and passed all the necessary qualifying examinations.

Of the 7,000,000 women in the United States who are engaged in occupations, 40 per cent. are in our kitchens, 23 per cent. in the factories, and one-third of the whole number are under twenty-one years of age.

MUSINGS OF A GRASS WIDOW

It is not the most intense love that lasts the longest—the fiercest blaze is the most easily burned out.

No man can come nearer to the understanding of a woman than to understand that he cannot understand her.

When a woman turns her "scorching glance" upon a man, quite naturally it makes him "hot under the collar."

No, I was not jealous of the other woman. I knew the little uncontented thing he called his soul was incapable of love.

Yes, there was one patient and enduring husband. Adam never complained of his mother-in-law or of his wife's extravagance in dress.

After marriage men expect their wives to take their love for granted—a lot of good it does to know the sun is in the heavens when the rain is pouring down.

It takes an expert to detect the difference between flirtation and "the real thing," just as it takes an expert to detect the difference between the imitation and a diamond.

THE GENTLE CYNIC.

The spendthrift wears his purse on his sleeve.

Many a fellow who is crooked goes straight to the bad.

The average man's most vulnerable spot is his pocketbook.

The man who kicks himself goes back on his best friend.

We all have an aim in life, but most of us are mighty poor marksmen.

It's a good plan to stand your ground, but be sure you have some.

We all know that wealth brings happiness; that is, we know it from hearsay.

A woman can solve the secret of a happy married life by simply spending more money with the butcher than with the milliner.

"FIRST AID" HINTS

To men who have to handle injured comrades, the Coal Age gives the following common sense advice:

Don't disturb blood clots.

Don't be rough with the patient.

Don't put bandages on too tight.

Don't touch a wound with the hands.

Don't pull or tear off clothing—cut it away.

Don't wash wounds unless you sterilize the water.

Don't bring ammonia too close to the nostrils.

Don't let the patient know his condition is serious.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

The clean-tablecloth catches the early grease spot.

Even a girl's headache is forgotten when she has the toothache.

One can never buy a satisfactory brand of popularity at out rates.

But the man with money to burn may not love the smell of smoke.

Some candidates ought to take the rest cure for their ingrowing politics.
