Several times recently some of our correspondents have sent in news regarding raffles for various articles in their locality. We have mentioned this matter before, but take this occasion to again remind them that we cannot publish anything of this nature. The U. S. postoffice regulations provide that any newspaper publishing anything regarding a lottery or raffle can be summarily excluded from the mails, and while the rule is not often enforced we do not wish to violate either the spirit or letter of the law. Spring is coming and the time will soon be here when people who are interested in farm land will be paying visits to the various sections of North-eastern Michigan. These investigators look, in part, to the farmers and business men for reliable information about the community they are visiting. Have you ever realized what you can do toward interesting a prospective settler or farm buyer? You can make him feel the justification of buying and settling in your community because you are not interested in selling. You can cause others to see why you are here and willing to remain. By boosting your home community, helping your business men and co-operating with your neighbor you will aid greatly in making a greater Northeastern Michigan. Remember it isn't your town its you that makes a booming place. Adopt the slogan, I'm a booster for my community and Northeastern Michigan and you will help make things more attractive to the prospective neighbor.

MRS. SAWYER DEAD.

The announcement of the death of Mrs. Benjamin Sawyer, which occurred at the Saginaw General Hospital on Sunday last came as a shock to her many friends in this city. Mrs. Sawyer went to Saginaw the 24th of last October for treatment for bronchial trouble from which she had suffered for years. She entered the hospital December 14, and it was thought that the disease was yielding to the treatment.

Emma Jane Lovelace was born May 2, 1864, at Ameliasburg, Ont. She came to Tawas City in the fall of 1880, and was united in marriage to Ben Sawyer, at Belleville, Ont., February 22, 1882, returning almost immediately to this city, where the family has since resided. Of this union eight children—three sons and five daughters—were born, all of whom with the husband, are left to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother. The children are: Minnie, of Chicago, Mrs. Lillian Lucken, of Memphis, Tenn., Grover, of San Francisco, Cal., Mrs. Edw. Schanbeck, of East Tawas, Nina, of Saginaw, and Collin, Edith and Nelson, of this city.

The funeral services at the Presbyterian church Monday afternoon were attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends, and were conducted by Rev. John Pinches, of the Methodist church. The remains were laid at rest in the Tawas City cemetery.

C. E. NOTES.

Last Sunday the C. E. held a very interesting meeting led by the prayer meeting committee—Helen Buckle, Mina McCordell, and Dorothy Latter. One minute talks were given upon ways in which the meetings could be improved, and some very helpful hints were obtained. There was special music by Mr. Anderson. The attendance at our meetings is steadily increasing, we had as visitors Mr. and Mrs. Davis and Mr. Nichols, all of whom helpfully contributed to our discussions.

The last half of the meeting was devoted to an interesting resume of the first chapter of the new Mission Book which is being studied. These discussions were given by Edith Bard and Bruce Campbell. The book "Social Aspect of Foreign Missions" by Wm. Herbert Perry Faunce, Pres. of Browne university is a standard one, is inter-denominational, and covers a broad field in a clear and concise way, first showing what questions missionaries must come up against in regard to their outlook upon the individual versus society.

Next Sunday these discussions will be given by Pearl Cooper, Mrs. McCombs and J. A. Campbell. The first part of the meeting next Sunday, will be led by Philip McCombs and the topic is "How to Make this a Happier World." Now this is a subject that cannot fail to interest every one of us and everyone is cordially invited to come and talk it over or hear it talked over. Every member is especially urged to be present as it is a consecration meeting. If you cannot come, do not forget to send your bible verse. Visitors are always welcome. We begin at 6:15 local.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

March 7, 1915, 6 o'clock standard time.

Topic—The Promise of Sonship to God.

Leader—Irl Baguley.

Everybody invited.

We had a fine meeting last Sunday evening. With "Wingsome to Win Some" as the topic, good discussions were listened to. Miss Addie Hunt sang, and Mrs. Bristol and Ruth Oliver gave recitations.

A very pleasant time was had at the business and social meeting last Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in games of the good old romping order after which the refreshment committee served luncheon that they certainly are to be congratulated upon. In the business meeting it was decided to hold the Easter meeting at 7 o'clock in the morning and to suspend the contest for that day. Some profitable discussion on contest matters resulted in a clear outlook on future membership matters. Thirty-one new members were received into the League.

The contest is very close and exciting at present. Last Sunday the Blues had fifteen, giving the Reds a six-point lead in the contest. More people attended League last Sunday evening than at any meeting since the last organization of the League.

Consecration Sunday next Sunday evening.

I. O. O. F. BOWLING ALLEY NOTES.

Highest scores that have been pins are held by A. Wyman 208-201-266-218.

W. Grant, 205.
F. E. Pinkerton, 211.

The prizes for the month ending March 6th will be awarded March 8th.

Highest scores that have been bowled in seven pins this season are as follows:

Wm. Grant, 61-63.
H. E. Hason, 71-61-68.
J. G. Dimmick, 69-66-73.
L. G. McKay, 55-61-58.
A. W. Elack, 70-55.
A. Dillon, 68-61.
A. Wyman, 76-62-60.
N. Barkman, 78-58-55.
H. N. Butler, 50-53.

J. G. Dimmick leads with strikes in seven pins with a total of 6 to date. H. E. Hanson, 3; L. G. McKay, 2; A. Wyman, 2; A. W. Black, A. Dillon, N. Barkman, H. N. Butler all have 1 to their credit.

The interest is growing in bowling and the seven pin game attracts the most attention at the present time. There is also a boxing match every evening that creates a great deal of excitement. No rowdism about the matches and it is enjoyed by all who witness them. Young Corbette is the attraction and takes on two or three men during the evening. There is also shadow boxing witnessed which is performed by Corbette before sparring any of the opponents. Corbette has for his sparring partners Joe Ryan, Happy Britt, Kid Murphy and Art Drowlard. The boxing is clever and enjoyed by all and makes the bowling alley a very popular place of amusement. Some thing new came up the past week at the bowling alley when our friends Wyman and Pinkerton deliberately stood side by side and issued a challenge to any two men between Bay City and Alpena to bowl 5 games or any number of games on different nights, total pins to decide the winners of the games with a bet of any amount on the side. Hanson and Barkman would make a good team if it can be arranged to get the two men together but it is understood that there may be some trouble in booking the two men on account of both parties being pressed very heavy by the warring nations for aid, and therefore may not be able to post a side bet. The running broad jump we have all heard of, the standing broad jump we all know. But the jump that Wyman and Pinkerton have made at this time just came from Mars, and will any one at home get nerve enough to call them on their challenge?

How would you make the following shots in ten pins—Wyman and Pinkerton, if you please.

CECILIAN CONCERT COMPANY.

The Cecilia Concert Company which comes to the local Lyceum Course March 10th, is a thoroughly competent Ladies' Quartet of several seasons experience. This company has been specially selected to give artistic presentation to the best in quartet music for ladies and has the most thorough training under Mr. Elias Day, the well known musical and dramatic coach of Chicago. The personnel is strong and Miss Wheat, the reader of the company, is an exceptionally clever one. Their program is popular, and given with spirit and dash exceptional in its attractiveness. The company originally announced under the Cecilia Company, and whose circulars have been distributed, is not available, owing to circumstances over which the Bureau has no control and the necessity for the new arrangement did not arise until too late to have proper advertising circulars prepared for distribution.

FARMERS SHOULD USE PAPERS.

The Record-Advertiser, published at Houston, Va., is urging its rural subscribers to do just what we should like our farmers to do—give us their news from their farms—to make our paper a sort of clearing house of ideas for the farmers of this vicinity.

Farmers do not use their local papers enough, and yet the papers afford the quickest and best way to build up their farms and communities. They do not use the papers because, perhaps many of them feel they cannot use a flow of eloquence; others underestimate the effectiveness and value of publicity or are too engrossed with their own affairs.

Every farmer should tell his local paper about his successes on the farm and how they were achieved. We are always glad to get a "farming story," for it enables us to spread the news of progress in our vicinity. And no one needs a flow of eloquence to tell of his success. The facts of a farming success are eloquent in themselves. So write us. The editor can re-arrange the wording if such need be done.

No farmer should be too indifferent or too engrossed in his own work to pass a good idea along to his fellowmen, thus giving them the benefit of his experiences. Such articles always are an inspiration to others. We well know the true and lasting advancement of our community can come in no other way than through the upbuilding of our farms, and so it is not political and social news we want any more than it is news from the farms.

A NEW MOVEMENT.

The most vital institution in the open country is the school. It is not only the educational center for the community, but in many cases is the social and cultural center as well. The school, in many instances, decides whether or not the child becomes dissatisfied with country life; it gives the child those ideals which are to guide his future. Right now, many farmers are asking themselves and their neighbors this question, "Is our school really doing its job?" In other words, the farmers of the future are going to demand higher and better things of this fundamental institution. In fact, they are already demanding more efficiency in the school.

This new movement has been recognized by the Michigan Agricultural College in its plan to hold a Conference for Rural Leaders in connection with its Summer Session next July. Lectures, discussions, etc., will be given along practical lines for all interested in rural problems. A special bulletin gives detailed information and can be had upon application.

Damages are fully covered by insurance.

DEATH OF GEORGE G. KING.

George G. King, another old and well known East Tawas resident passed to his rest at 3 o'clock last Saturday morning February 27, at his home in this city. He had been suffering from congestion of the lungs for more than two months which ultimately caused his death. Christmas night Mr. King fell and broke his leg while passing through a dark hallway from one part of the house to another, and had been confined to his bed since. A few days after the accident on Dec. 31, Mrs. King, who had been sick for many months passed away, which sad event hastened his death.

George G. King was born in New York state, February 24, 1829 and was therefore 86 years of age. He has been a resident of East Tawas for the past forty years or more. He was on the civil war veterans.

Mr. King was a kind hearted and loving father and he leaves seven children to mourn his loss, one daughter, Alice M. LeRoux of this city, six sons, Fred E. of Tacoma, Wash., Walter G. of Everett, Wash., Lynas W. of Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada, James J. of Summit Hill, Pennsylvania, Clarence G. of Alabaster and George Dewey of this city.

The funeral services were held from Christ church, Episcopal, last Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. W. R. Blachford officiating. Interment was made in the Tawas City cemetery.

The sorrowing children have the heart-felt sympathy of many friends in their distress in the loss of both parents within so short a time.

THE SPLIT LOG DRAG.

The split log drag has contributed more toward the economic maintenance of public highways than any implement of modern usage. It does not require special acts of the legislature, bond issues nor expensive educational campaigns to make it available as usually precedes construction work. A drag can be built or purchased for twenty dollars and is easily operated by any one who can drive a team. We need more drags in this state.

THE "GENERAL DELIVERY."

Editors of newspapers and other public men are not the only ones who have their troubles. Even postmasters have their tribulations as is noted from the following article taken from Postmaster George Minchin's paper The Evert Review:

The "general delivery" window, we imagine, is the nightmare of every postmaster. One who has never taken the trouble to give the matter a little thought may think it strange to be old there is no mail for them, when the postmaster or clerk "does not look to see." The probabilities are that he, or she, has looked through that box fifty times since the last mail came in. Parents, thoughtfully, permit their children to call for mail, and when this is done, the children abuse the privilege. Take a family of three or four children in school. Many times each one of them will call for their mail at the general delivery window—and not half an hour apart. In such cases the person waiting on that window well knows there is no mail for the family in question, and he or she, is not going to look through the mail in such cases. Often, too, children lose mail. They should not be sent for it when it is possible to get it in any other way. Older persons, too, sometimes insinuate the postmaster or clerk is discourteous, even hinting that they have mail, or at least cannot understand why it isn't there for them. Nothing could be more ridiculous. Mail accumulates fast, and we feel sure the postmaster and employes are glad to see it leave the post office as quickly as possible after receipt.

AUTOMOBILES AND JAILS VERSUS SCHOOLS.

The following paragraphs from the Waupaca County School Bulletin are worthy of serious consideration in connection with criticisms on the shortcomings of the public school system.

"We venture the assertion that there are school districts in which are owned automobiles which cost the owner more than the entire school plant of that district is worth and that the automobile costs as much for annual upkeep as the entire annual expense of running the school. Where such a condition prevails the public can not complain very much of the expense of education.

"There are many counties in Wisconsin where the county jail, equipped with bath, running water, electric lights, vacuum cleaners, steam heat, etc., are infinitely superior in comfort and sanitation to the large majority of school buildings in those counties. So great is the difference in many cases that it is small wonder people prefer going to jail to going to school. Oughtn't conditions to be equalized a little more and the children given as good as the jail birds?"

We wish to add that the same conditions prevail quite generally in Michigan. The legislature now in session in Lansing can render the state a distinct service in passing laws that will improve conditions in the schools as far as health is concerned. The Governor's recommendation in his message to the legislature on this matter should be carried out.

OUR BRAND OF NEUTRALITY.

It may be taken for granted that the neutrality maintained by the administration in Washington, is the proper sort.

President Wilson and those who counsel with him are doing their utmost to preserve an official course which will leave no incidents to be regretted.

As we have said a number of times, the best illustration of our complete impartiality in the European war is that given by all of the countries involved in the conflict. The United States is not suiting any of them. It is not favoring any of them, and unless a country which is involved in such a tremendous clash of arms as are the countries of Europe, is shown some outward sign of friendship and partiality, as against the other, it becomes peeved and disappointed. It is impossible for a neutral country to satisfy both parties. Bearing this out is an editorial in the London, Ont., Advertiser, which closes with these very pertinent lines:

"German papers have been profuse in their criticisms of the United States for failure to preserve the spirit as well as the letter of its neutrality obligations. Our neighbors (the United States), may be excused if they look on the dissatisfaction of both the other parties as the best evidence that they are themselves steering as nearly right as possible." —Bay City Times.

LAZY FARMERS, DON'T READ THIS.

The United States Department of Agriculture, the state boards and the experts all over the country are urging the farmers of America to cultivate every available acre during the coming year. The war in Europe assures the sale of almost everything that can be raised. Every article that is exported to feed the soldiers and the citizens and the stock of Europe means just that much less for home consumption, therefore, even with big crops of everything, the prices will be high. If it is not a good crop year the farmer will at least raise enough for home use and will not have to pay the high prices that will prevail. Utilize every available acre for grain, grasses and vegetables. In many sections farmers are urged to try a double acreage of potatoes. It should not be necessary, under proper conditions, to import potatoes into any agricultural county. Put the hens and the turkeys to work and give them a square deal. Raise pigs, cattle and horses in as large numbers as the accommodations of the farm will justify and any losses that any farmer, planter or rancher may have sustained last year will be more than made good. The war in Europe may last for months or years, but while it continues there will be an active demand for everything we produce. Should the war end this week the nations will need all our surplus products for a year at least. Take our advice, for once, and do not permit good, tillable land to lie idle in 1915.

AS IT SHOULD BE.

In the school house in Belleville, Wis., a few weeks ago, upon motion of the Catholic priest, the Methodist minister was elected president of the community's social center for the coming winter.

Then three basket ball teams were formed, including the priest, the minister, the blacksmith, the editor, a farmer, the keeper of the village restaurant, a dentist, a clothier, a teamster, a druggist, a garage owner, the banker, the saloonkeeper, a hardware merchant and a house painter.

They differed in religion, in politics, an income, in social status about as widely as men can differ. But in the common school building, in the free democracy of the social center, they agreed to lay aside their differences for the novel purpose of discovering how much good fellowship there was in meeting together, now and then, as equals, as brothers.

In the democracy of play, in the democracy of frank, fair discussion of public questions, they are finding out these differing men of Belleville, that, as human beings, they're amazingly alike, once you get below the surface.

And out of this agreeable discovery will come, for Belleville, more tolerance, more kindness of feeling, more give and take than it had ever known before. Even when they shall differ again—as, of course, they often will—it won't be with as much bitterness, as much bigotry, as much mean hate as of yore.

It's a wonderful solvent, is brotherhood.

Health Promotes Happiness.

Without health, genuine joy is impossible; without good digestion and regular bowel movement you cannot have health. Why neglect keeping bowels open and risk being sick and ailing? You don't have to. Take one small Dr. King's New Life Pill at night, in the morning you will have a full, free bowel movement and feel much better. Helps your appetite and digestion. Try one to-night. adv-1

FARM FACTS.

By Peter Radford.
Cheap money will solve many of the farmers problems.

There is not enough of the community spirit among our rural districts. Success in farming depends largely upon proper marketing methods cheap money and co-operation.

Something is wrong in our marketing system when a small crop brings more money than a bountiful one.

Co-operation between practical farmers and proficient business men will eliminate ignorance and prejudice.

The highest duty of state and Federal governments is to place agricultural education within the reach of all.

The farmer cannot be helped until he organizes, and the government can best help the farmer through organization.

By co-operating with his neighbor the farmer can learn new methods of culture and the intercourse of ideas will benefit both.

The nation's menu must be made up from the fields, pastures, orchards and gardens, and to farm intelligently the farmer must know what is needed.

No Use to Try and Wear Out Your Cold It Will Wear You Out Instead.

Thousands keep on suffering coughs and colds through neglect and delay. Why make yourself an easy prey to serious ailments and epidemics as the result of a neglected cold? Coughs and colds sap your strength and vitality unless checked in the early stages. Dr. King's New Discovery is what you need—the first dose helps. Your head clears up, you breathe freely and you feel so much better. Buy a bottle to-day and start taking at once. adv-1

DEMOCRATIC WARD CAUCUSES.

There Never Was —
A girl who wouldn't chew gum.

A cook who was not afflicted with wanderlust.

A skeleton in the closet who chose the right time to peek out.

An architect who could build a house within specifications.

A persimmon too green to be bitten into by some trusting human.

An imitation woman who did not think herself superior to the real thing.

A shoe string that seemed in a mood to be pleasant when you were in a hurry.

Wise or Otherwise.
Handsome isn't always handsome as he thinks he is.

Many a man wakes up and finds himself infamous.

The less a woman means it the loudest she can laugh.

Marriage is responsible for the loss of many a vacation.

Better be up and doing before the other chap beats us to it.

The United Railway Bulletin says the jitney busses are a craze, which makes us wonder why we never were suspected of lunacy before.

Kitchen Kinks.
In heating the oven, the drafts should be closed when the coal is well started. In a word, to save fuel plan ahead and then watch the draft.

When washing glassware do not put it in hot water bottom first. Slip it in sideways and turn it quickly in the water and it will not snap.

If the turkey is not very fat, avoid its being dry after roasting, by spreading butter over the outside, and baste it frequently, while it is roasting.

A pretty salad is made of lettuce leaves shredded, sliced red radishes and young onions sliced thin. Mix together with a good French dressing.

Tin is a great saving of the expense of equipping a kitchen, if one wishes the outlay to be as small as possible. But it should be the thickly coated kind.

Household Helps.
Cold soft water and soda will remove machine grease from washable goods.

Soften pitch, wheel grease or tar stains with lard and soak in turpentine. Scrape off all the loose surface dirt with a knife, sponge clean with turpentine and rub gently until dry.

To renovate an alpaca skirt dampen a cloth and lay it on the wrong side of the material; press with a moderately warm iron till the cloth is dry; continue in the same way all around the skirt.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN.
Apple Croquettes.
Pare, quarter and core enough tart apples to fill a pint measure, place in a frying pan, add one tablespoonful of butter and two or three spoonfuls of water unless the apples are very juicy. Cover and cook slowly until tender, then put through a colander or sieve. Return to the stove and add sugar to taste, one tablespoonful of cornstarch and a little salt mixed to a paste in cold water. Stir until thickened, then cook slowly for 15 minutes, being careful that it does not burn. Set away in a greased dish until cold, make into small croquettes of any shape desired, roll in cracker crumbs, then in beaten egg and again in cracker crumbs and fry in deep fat. These are nice to use as a garnish for a platter containing pork or goose.

Picture Brides.
A photographers' magazine says: One hundred and twenty picture brides recently arrived in San Francisco from Japan. Picture brides are women their prospective husbands have never seen, but photographs have been exchanged, contracts signed, and they are legally married, according to Japanese custom and only need a short ceremony to make them man and wife to conform with the California law.

GOOD ROADS NOTES.

By Homer D. Wade.

No other citizen realizes the value of good roads as does the farmer.

A community can safely be judged by the kind of highways it maintains.

The greatest chasm between the producer and the consumer is the mud hole.

Production must cease when the transportation costs eat up the profits.

There is something radically wrong with the farmer who is opposed to good roads.

Without good roads, there can be no development that will be permanent and enduring.

Bad roads keep children away from school and impair the efficiency of church work in a community.

The elementary principles involved in improved highways are social and domestic happiness and business economics.

OUR SCHOOL COLUMN

Reading.

The mastery of word forms begins in the first grade. Here the children master the forms only without knowledge of the letters at first. They are told what each word is. In the 2nd grade they begin by phonics and more general knowledge to recognize new words by their own unaided efforts and possibly by the end of the fourth grade they are able to handle almost any word of which they know the meaning and many words the meanings of which they have not learned.

The children come to school able to use their vocal cords, so that all the school has to do is to perfect their use. In the grades today the work is taken up unsystematically. When articulation is poor, drill is given along this line. When pupils mumble they are encouraged to speak more clearly. When they speak too loudly, their voices are brought down to a reasonable level of force.

Finally in understanding the author's experience, and reliving it with him again, there is no fixed arrangement. Stories, fables, myths, etc., follow one another in no logical order. What order does exist, exists because of the feeling that the subject matter taught should fit into the sages of development of the children taught. A child 7 years of age should have reading matter different from that of a child of 14 years of age.

The interests of children change from year to year. That they study with greatest zeal those things that are of the most interest to them is a fundamental pedagogical doctrine.

Because of this, attempts have been made to mark off the child's interest by stages. If we only knew what interests are strongest in each successive grade, we should have an easy time getting the children to work hard and intelligently. Unfortunately up-to-date no one has made a really suitable classification.

Next week we shall discuss "Primary Reading."

VALUABLE IN POWER AND IRRIGATION PROJECTS.

This information is necessary for the proper and economical installation and operation of water-power plants, irrigation projects, systems of municipal water supply, works for the prevention of the enormous damage caused year after year by devastating floods—in fact, all works that involve the use or control of water. In all the important and perplexing problems relating to water rights, including questions that often lead to extended controversy and expensive litigation, a knowledge of the quantities of water involved is essential. The work of obtaining this fundamental information after the need for it has become immediate leads to further and more costly delay. It is for the purpose of supplying this information and having it available when needed that the study of the flow of streams is carried on year by year by the Geological Survey and reports of the results obtained by the survey engineers are distributed to the public.

The Survey's work of streams measurement in the Colorado River basin is conducted in co-operation with other national bureaus, including the Forest Service, Reclamation Service, and Weather Bureau, and with State organizations of Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah, and is assisted by many private persons.

Courage and effort alone are required to insure victory to the worthy. In the struggle of life the good is the more powerful. It is only when the giant lolls by the wayside that evil creeps upon him and inflicts its wounds. "Thrice is he arm'd who hath his quarrel just" is not an idle adage.

FARM PLANNING.

If each farm in any community is clean, tidy, and well kept, presenting a thrifty, home-life appearance, the whole neighborhood will be attractive to visitors and satisfying to residents. Local and county fair boards might create a very valuable farm improvement habit by offering a liberal prize for the best planned farm in a neighborhood or in a county.

Sisterly Thought.

Grandma was taking care of two little girls one evening and in passing the cake made a serious mistake by giving Martha the smallest piece and Elva the one intended for her big sister. Martha looked puzzled and then the little diplomat said: "Well, grandma, I do hope Elva won't be sick tomorrow."

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. In SILOS this will be a Redwood year
To Build Permanent, Build of Redwood
It positively will not decay. Redwood will not shrink or swell. Furthermore it is fire resisting. Extremes of heat and cold, moisture and dryness, will not affect this wonderful wood. Into every Redwood tree Mother Nature has put a marvelous preservative that keeps Redwood sound and permanent.
The Saginaw Silo is Steel-Built
The Saginaw Silo has a framework of structural steel like that of a giant skyscraper. Five big dominant features make the Saginaw wind-proof. Empty or filled, the Saginaw stands like a rock.
Saginaw All-Steel Door Frame—a keystone of wonderful strength to which the Silo is built.
Saginaw Angle-Steel Rib—encircling the Saginaw overcomes vibration in the wall under severe wind stress and absolutely prevents any possibility of cave in.
Saginaw Spine-Dowels unite all the staves into a rigid, immovable wall, and each Dowel locks and interlocks the staves in four places.
Saginaw Inner Anchor uniformly distributes the anchoring pull on all the staves.
Saginaw Base Anchor holds the Saginaw immovable to its foundations with the grip of the roots of giant oaks.
Or a Siloed Yellow Pine Silo. Silo is a wood preserver that penetrates the Yellow Pine Staves making them impervious to rot or decay. It gives to Yellow Pine many of the permanent qualities of Redwood.
The Saginaw Dome Roof. A new Saginaw feature that gives full capacity to your silo. Made of copper bearing steel galvanized, corrosion-proof and rust-resisting. Self-supporting, leaves "clear field" inside. The Saginaw Dome Roof is a permanent, money saving roof, pleasing in appearance—puts the finishing touch to your silo.
