IOSCO COUNTY CHAUTAUQUA.

"This is the boldest and most audacious raid on the public treasury that has been attempted in recent years." Thus Senator Kern characterized a short time ago a building bill passed by congress, and it is this bill, together with innumerable other examples of the squandering of public funds through "pork" that Congressman George E. Gorman of Illinois, will attack and expose in his thrilling lecture, "Patriotism and Pork," on the fourth afternoon of the Chautauqua.

Congressman Gorman has long been a leader in political life, and is fully acquainted with the why and the how of the "pork barrel" abuse.

"The principal cause of the 'pork barrel' is the absence of a budget system, and until such a system is adopted the 'pork barrel' method will continue. Sooner or later we must adopt business methods in appropriating public funds."

Congressman Gorman will show how representatives come to congress with this plea: "There are two factions back here I live. One has the postmaster. I want the other to have this site. It will make better feeling all the way round."

Congressman Gorman's lecture is full of many instances of the defrauding of the public by unscrupulous and "pork" hungry congressmen - instances that have come under his own observation as a representative. His lecture is a dramatic and powerful presentation of one of the most vital and important public problems confronting the American people.

But no less an orator than Congressman Gorman and with a subject fully as vital, is Byron C. Piatt, who will be heard on the expressive topic, "Dead or Alive," on the fifth day of the Chautauqua.

"Dead or Alive" is a plea on the part of the lecturer for men to use their brains. "Nature lays upon man's back the necessity for labor," says Mr. Piatt. "If he goes to his work without using his brains, Nature makes him a slave and a common drudge. But the moment he begins to mix brain-stuff with his work, that moment the shackles of misery and poverty fall off. The difference between 'farmer' and agriculture and the difference in gray matter. The difference between 'keepin' house' and domestic science is only gray matter. When a man works with the hump on his back instead of the brains in his head, we call him a 'common laborer,' and when he specializes, we call him a master."

On the same day with Mr. Piatt the Swiss Alpine Singers and Yodlers, one of the most novel and spectacular attractions on the entire program will be heard.

This company, under the direction of Constantin Wunderlich, appears in picturesque Alpine costumes, and sings their native songs, including the famous wedding songs, to the tune of the quaint Swiss instruments, the zither and harp guitar.

The members of the Swiss Alpine Singers and Yodlers company are all "natural born" yodlers, and many of the most difficult and delightful of the yodling songs are included in their program.

The Swiss Alpine Singers and Yodlers are only one of many varied and interesting attractions to be heard during the five days' program of the Chautauqua. Among the others are the Hoosier Male Quartet, Dr. Lucian Edgar Follansbee, popular lecturer; the Theresa Sheehan Concert company; Hans P. Freese, authority on Mormonism; Robert O. Bowman, character impersonator; Denton C. Crowl, Sam Jones portrayalist, and Angelo Vitale, the youngest band leader in the world with his concert band.

FERGUSON-TUTTLE. The many Tawas City friends of Miss Elizabeth Ferguson were surprised last week to learn of her marriage to Mr. Raymond West Tuttle, which occurred at Ionia on Friday, August 4. The wedding was a feature of the West family reunion which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Eddy in that city, and in reporting which the Ionia paper said as follows:

"The sumptuous dinner served to the guests was one of the features of the guests present came as a surprise to most of them. Just at high noon as the guests were seating themselves at the table, Clarence Eddy, accompanied by Miss Gladys West of Arkadelphia, Ark., sang 'Because,' by Guy D'Hardelot, and the bridal couple took their places, and Rev. D. L. Thomas, uncle of the groom, united in marriage Miss Jean Ferguson of Tawas City and Raymond West Tuttle of Lansing. The ring service was used and there were no attendants. The bride was charmingly gowned in white crepe de chine and carried pink and white carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle will make their home in Lansing."

PLENTY OF CANDIDATES

No Lack of Material to Choose From in the Coming Primary.

With the primary election for the nomination of candidates to public office only 12 days away the situation is growing more tense every day, and would-be office holders are straining ever effort to advance their interests and place their qualifications for the positions before the voters.

Candidates are plentiful for every office from governor down, and if the people do not nominate men for the various positions, they will be their own fault, for they have plenty of material to choose from.

On the democratic ticket the candidates are not so plentiful as on the republican ticket, there being only one candidate for most offices. Following is the list: Governor, Chas. H. Bender; lieutenant governor, John P. Kirk; U. S. senator, John T. Winship; state senator, 28th district, Wm. H. Caple; representative, Iosco district, J. Edward Betz; circuit judge, 23rd district, Albert Widdis; judge of probate, Wm. West; sheriff, Thos. H. Hill and Leo Berry; county clerk, Edward Boucher; county treasurer, Jos. W. Minor; register of deeds, A. J. Noel; coroners, C. A. Wakeman and John Weed; drain commissioner, Albert Bleau.

On the republican ticket the candidates are more plentiful and the competition for the favor of the voters is correspondingly stronger. For governor there are five candidates, Frank B. Leland, Albert E. Steeper, Washington Gardner, Gerritt J. Diekema, and Sybrant Wesselius. Of the five Leland and Steeper seem to be leading, with the former a slight favorite.

For lieutenant governor there are also five candidates, William D. Gordon, Luren D. Dickinson, Frank P. Bohn, David E. Heineman and Robert Y. Ogg.

For United States senator Charles Townsend is a candidate for re-election and is opposed by Wm. H. Hill.

For congressman from the 10th district there are three candidates, Gilbert A. Currie, Geo. A. Loud and Roy O. Woodruff. Congressman Loud will undoubtedly receive a large vote in Bay County, though the vote will be split between him and Woodruff, another Bay City man.

The logical man for this position and the man whom we believe will be nominated by an overwhelming majority, is Gilbert A. Currie. Mr. Currie is a man who has shown his mettle in the state and county offices which he has already filled and about whom there is no doubt as to his ability to fill the office of congressman with credit to himself and to those who assist in his election. Mr. Currie was a candidate two years ago, and had it not been for strong opposition in the western part of the district and also in his own county, he would have undoubtedly won out at that time. This year Midland county stands as a unit behind him, with about 1500 more votes than two years ago, and there is no opposition in the western part of this district, which, together with his increased popularity in this part of the district makes his nomination almost certain.

The candidates for state senator are Duncan McRae, M. M. Callaghan and John M. Perry. The latter two of these candidates live in the extreme western part of the district, Callaghan at Reed City and Perry at Tustin. Both are, so far as we know competent and reliable men for the office, but the majority of the votes in this part of the district will undoubtedly go to Duncan McRae, an Alcona county man and one with whom the people here are well acquainted. He was born in AuSable and has lived his entire life in this section of the country. He is familiar with the needs of the district and if nominated and elected will undoubtedly fill the office in a manner satisfactory to his constituents.

E. B. Follett, the present incumbent of the office of representative from the Iosco district, is a candidate for re-election and is opposed by Will McGilivray. The latter was endorsed by the republican county convention this spring, and has never asked for an office before. Follett was endorsed by the Grange, and has made a record while at Lansing that commends him strongly to the voters, and the Herald believes that he will be re-nominated.

For judge of probate, there is but little doubt that David Davison, the present judge, will be re-nominated by a big majority. He has had but one term and has ably and efficiently conducted the business of the probate office, and by all the rules of precedence is entitled to re-nomination for a second term. We predict that he will win by a large majority. He is opposed by Thos. F. Robinson.

The race for the nomination for sheriff is a three cornered one, the contestants being the present sheriff, Collie Johnson, Chas. W. Curry of Tawas township and Frank Long. In this office the law says that a man shall hold the position for but two consecutive terms. However, through the results of the litigation incident to the election of sheriff two years ago, Mr. Johnson has held the office for the past six years with the exception of about six months. As the case was dropped after being sent back by the supreme court for retrial it will never be settled who was the rightful sheriff during the years 1914-15, but Mr. Johnson held the office the major portion of the time. Technically he is asking for a second term, but many of the voters feel that he is asking for a fourth term instead and will support one of the other candidates. Mr. Curry and Mr. Long are both well fitted to hold the position and if either are nominated and elected the people will be assured of a satisfactory administration of the office.

John A. Mark, the present county clerk, is again a candidate and is opposed by Lewis Nunn and Frank E. Dease. Mr. Mark has given long and faithful service in this office and announces that he asks only one more term, and he will be ready to retire. And we believe the electors will take him at his word and give him the nomination for another term.

For register of deeds there are two candidates, Frank B. Stickey, the present incumbent, and Charles A. Currey. The former is asking re-nomination on his record as a competent and efficient official. Mr. Currey is a reliable farmer of Grand township and has made the race for this office twice previously, being defeated both times, but believes in the old adage "try, try again."

Three candidates are contesting for the nomination for prosecuting attorney. They are C. H. W. Snyder, F. F. French and Jno. A. Stewart. Mr. Snyder was a candidate two years ago and was defeated by a small majority. Mr. French has also been a candidate on former occasions, but Mr. Stewart is a new-comer in the county, having lived here but about a year and a half.

For county surveyor John W. Applin and Howard Belknap are the candidates, and for drain commissioner R. C. Arn, the present official, has no opposition.

There is no doubt more interest centered in the contest for the nomination for circuit judge to fill vacancy than in any other office in the county or district. There are four contestants for this nomination, two from Iosco county, William H. Flynn and Albert W. Black, both of East Tawas, and two from Alcona county, O. H. Smith and Henry R. MacGillis, both of Harrisville.

It is conceded by most people that the present democratic incumbent of the office, Albert Widdis, has made a good judge, and the republican nominee will have no walk-away to beat him in the election. The republican party therefore, should see to it that the best and most capable man among the four candidates is nominated in the coming primary election, and then whether he or Widdis wins in the November election we shall have a competent judge. The Herald believes that we have that man right here in Iosco county in the person of William H. Flynn. Mr. Flynn is a man well qualified for the position by education, practice and temperament. The man who occupies the position of circuit judge should be one of mature years, able to weigh the important questions he is called upon to decide in a fair and impartial manner, and thoroughly grounded in the intricate points of the law. Such a man we believe Mr. Flynn to be. He is a graduate of one of the best law schools in the state, and his long practice in Detroit, where he came in contact with the brightest and sharpest legal practitioners in Michigan, has peculiarly fitted him to fill the office to which he aspires. Some of the leading judges and lawyers and a number of the best known men in the state have expressed their high opinion of Mr. Flynn as a citizen and a lawyer, and have stated that they believed him well qualified for the office of circuit judge. We believe that the republican electors of Iosco county will make no mistake if they cast their vote for William H. Flynn at the primaries August 29th.

IOSCO COUNTY CHAUTAUQUA, August 20-24

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Wayne County is Solid For Frank B. Leland

VERY DAILY PAPER IN DETROIT HAS EDITORIALY ENDORSED THE LELAND CANDIDACY.

Frank B. Leland

Frank B. Leland

Candidate for Republican Nomination for Governor Opposed to Present Methods of State Tax Commission.

Frank B. Leland, candidate for the republican nomination for governor, struck a note that met with a warm response in the hearts of all tax payers when, in his recent address at Ewart, Mich., he pointed out the unfairness of the present method of sending strangers into a community to assess the valuation of property.

(Detroit News editorial Aug. 5, '16) Now that the Wayne county and Detroit republican organizations are pledged to Frank B. Leland's candidacy for governor, his chances of securing the nomination have been greatly improved. Detroit has not produced a governor since Pingree—and Michigan admits that he was a good one. But Mr. Leland has more than a geographical claim to consideration. He combines the education and training of a lawyer with those of a business man, and is thus fitted not only to give Michigan that "business administration" which of late years has been so clamorously desired by certain groups, but also to give expert attention to legislation.

PROTECTING THE CONSUMERS.

East Lansing, Mich., Aug. 7.—With the appearance of Michigan fruits in the market in quantity interest again centers around the legal precautions provided for the protection of the consuming public. The legislature of 1913 passed the Jakeway law and this has already proved of value in the selling and reselling of fruits. This law among other things requires that the name and address of the packer of the fruit shall be placed upon every closed package of Michigan fruit offered for sale in the state.

Another provision of the Jakeway law is that no person shall sell fruit or vegetables packed so that the faced or shewn surface gives a false representation of the contents of the package. The law presumes false representation when more than twenty per cent of the contents of a package are substantially smaller in size or inferior in quality to the shown surface.

The same legislature enacted a law which forbids the packing of unripe or unhealthy grapes in any basket or package of less than sixteen pounds capacity. This law insures that the small baskets of grapes purchased for table use will be of high quality.

GRANT SLOCUM SAYS:

"From my own personal experience in connection with legislation in this state, I believe that Mr. Currie has done as much, or more, than any other man toward the enactment of the beneficial laws which have been passed during his service in the legislature, and I believe the interests of all the people of the Tenth District will be best served by his election."

THE MICHIGAN PATRON SAYS:

"He represents no interests but those of the people. He has fought the worst kind of machine politics for years. His private life and public record are without a flaw."

OFFICE OF REGISTER OF DEEDS.

Does not the above office require a person competent to do the work himself?

If I have been satisfactory to the voters of Isoco county I ask for their support August 29th.

Respectfully, FRANK B. STICKNEY.

TO THE REPUBLICAN ELECTORS OF IOSCO COUNTY.

Gentlemen:—As you are aware, I am a candidate for renomination to the office of County Clerk. Some objections to my renomination are heard because as some say "he has had it long enough." The United States government has done away with the "long enough" cry, have passed the civil service act, and now, instead of discharging thousands of clerks at the end of each administration, the clerks are retained so long as they are efficient.

Did any of you ever ask an accommodation of Jno. A. either day or night that you didn't get it? Wasn't he always "Johnny on the spot" when you phoned him that you couldn't leave your work but to meet you at the office after supper? I am willing to run on my reputation as an officer and a citizen. I only wish for one more term, and then some one else will be welcome to the office.

Thanking you very sincerely for past nominations and elections, and awaiting your answer to be given at the polls August 29th next, I remain, Yours faithfully, JNO. A. MARK.

Follett Prominent Among Members of the Last Legislature.

The Grand Rapids Herald in reviewing possible candidates for the Speakership for the 1917 session of the Legislature printed the following regarding your representative of the last session:

"Follett hasn't said he was a candidate for the speakership or that he would be one, but some of his friends have been urging the candidacy upon him and he rather likes the idea and admits it. He's one substantial fellow, always found on the right side of things and is moreover a student of each bill so that his votes are intelligently cast. If Smith doesn't come back, Follett undoubtedly will be in the race for the place."

The law upon our statutes that compels all produce commission merchants in Michigan to give you and I a square deal when we ship the produce from our farms to them was introduced and fathered by myself. This law has saved the farmers and produce shippers considerable money by compelling absolute honesty in all dealings. (A list of licensed commission merchants may be obtained from State Dairy and Food Dept., Lansing). I believe this law should have also included live stock commission merchants and if returned will endeavor to have it so amended.

"The farmer member from Isoco (Follett) showed up the Howell statutes and killed the bill legalizing the set."—Lansing Press.

"The member from Isoco Dist. kills law book scheme that would make state pay $264,000 for compilation of its own statutes. The state can compile its own laws for about $60,000."—Detroit News.

"It remained for a farmer, a real, live, genuine one too (Rep. Follett) to slip it across the city fellows yesterday in the House. They will have to go some when they get it over these fellows who have had their training in peeling tamarack poles and skidding railroad ties. They know how to grease things to make them slide."—Grand Rapids News.

"The Isoco Dist. has in Representative Follett a very able man who was everlastingly on the job. A force to be reckoned with. For the best interests of our state he should be returned by the district he now represents."—D. A. Hinkley, chairman ways and means, 1915.

The North Dakota farmers have achieved a notable victory, will have complete control of the legislature after January first. When will the farmers of Michigan wake up—Grange Patron.

I appreciate fully the loyal support received from my friends in the past and solicit your vote and influence at the present time.

Vote for Frank B. Leland August 29 The Republican Who United the Party in Wayne County

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE

William H. Flynn is the Logical Candidate, Having the Best of Qualifications. Read What Those Men Say Who Are Best Fitted to Know

The voters of this Judicial Circuit will do well to consider the excellent qualifications of Mr. William H. Flynn, candidate for the republican nomination for Circuit Judge and to compare them with those of the other aspirants for the office, remembering that Isoco county is entitled to have a man of its choice selected by reason of having 500 voters more than the other two counties combined, a larger population, assessed valuation and amount of taxes paid each year.

He has lived his whole life of nearly fifty years in this state; has been a practicing lawyer for over twenty years, sixteen of which were in the city of Detroit where he built up a splendid reputation for ability, honesty and integrity; nearly five years ago, owing to ill health, he was advised to return to the section of the state where he had formerly resided and he located in this county, speedily regaining his health; he at once invested in lands in this county and has been a taxpayer since that time; he has always been regarded as a sane, safe, practical and reliable lawyer, to whom the people could go with assurance of fair treatment. Before this present campaign opened he was urgently requested to become a candidate by all the members of the Isoco County Bar Association, excepting his opponent and associate.

It would perhaps be a mistake to choose him merely because he is a resident of this county but by a comparison of the candidates you find that he is very much better fitted for the position and it is a duty every voter owes to his home county to cast his vote for him.

You will be interested in the proof of these statements offered by the men who have known Mr. Flynn for a number of years and whose opinions are the very best the state affords.

Judge Carpenter, President of the Michigan State Bar Association and retired Chief Justice of the Supreme Court:

"I knew Mr. Flynn very well indeed during the years he was practicing law in Detroit and I have a very favorable opinion of his legal ability, character and reliability. I can see no reason why he is not just as worthy of confidence now as he was at that time." (Signed) WILLIAM L. CARPENTER

One of Detroit's wealthiest and most respected lawyers:

"I recall the fact that for the several years I knew Mr. Flynn as a practitioner in the courts of Wayne county, he was a success and I further recall the cases I had with him and against him and I know that his ability is good. I know he is not only fitted for the position but that, if elected, he will persuade the county in due time that he is a good judge." (Signed) C. K. LATHAM.

Clerk of United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan:

"Having known Mr. Flynn for over fifteen years, I can say that he has excellent qualifications for the office of circuit judge. His unquestionable good habits, honesty and diligence should give every voter in the district perfect confidence and I do not hesitate to say that nothing would gratify me more than to learn of his nomination as Circuit Judge." (Signed) ELMER W. VOORHEIS.

Assistant United States District Attorney, Eastern District of Michigan:

"I am confident that with his experience while practicing law in Detroit Mr. Flynn would become a very satisfactory judge as he has the judicial mind for just such a position." (Signed) J. EDWARD BLAND.

A leading citizen of Michigan: "I am glad to say that I know Mr. Flynn to be loyal and square, big hearted and free hearted, a man who has more than a common interest in humanity and who is in every way fitted to discharge the duties of the high office of Circuit Judge." (Signed) MYLES F. GRAY, Lansing, Mich.

City Clerk of Detroit:

"I know that Mr. William H. Flynn is in the active practice of law in the city of Detroit for many years, a good portion of the time at the head of a prominent law firm—Flynn & Sevald. He was employed by a number of our best citizens in a professional capacity and entrusted with important litigation. Several years ago I employed him myself in a very important legal matter and found his services in every way satisfactory to me. I do not hesitate in saying that I know him to be a capable lawyer and bears a first-class reputation in the city of Detroit for honorable dealings with clients and a man of good judgment." (Signed) RICHARD LINDSAY, City Clerk.

Library Commissioner for twelve years and at present Republican candidate for Mayor of Detroit:

"I recall with a good deal of pleasure our days as students together in the office of my father, General Henry M. Duffield and in the office of Mr. Thomas S. Jerome, and I can bear testimony to the fact that Mr. Flynn had very excellent preparation and experience and that if General Duffield and Mr. Jerome were alive they would be very glad to add their testimony to mine. His sixteen and more years of real practical experience makes him especially well fitted for the position and I wish him every success." (Signed) DIVIE B. DUFFIELD.

Another prominent and successful lawyer of Detroit:

"Mr. Flynn gained for himself an enviable reputation as a successful lawyer and was interested in many important cases in Detroit. I know him to be a man not only qualified in every way for the position of Circuit Judge but one who in his every day affairs is strictly honest and honorable." (Signed) JONAS B. HOUCK.

Judge of the Recorder's Court of Detroit:

"Mr. Flynn practiced at this bar for sixteen years, viz: 1896 to 1912. In the latter year he removed to Isoco county. He was engaged in important litigation here and bore an excellent reputation as a lawyer." (Signed) W. F. CONNOLLY.

Civil Service Commissioner of Detroit:

"I have known Mr. William H. Flynn for several years as a practitioner in the Wayne Circuit Court and my association with and knowledge of him in the practice of the law has been such as to reflect credit upon him for honesty, courteousness and ability." (Signed) JAMES D. MAY.

Another prominent lawyer:

"For a number of years Mr. Flynn had his office in the same building as mine and I saw him frequently. Later, I was more or less aware of his conduct as a lawyer. I have always found him to be a quiet, courteous gentleman—careful, candid, painstaking—a student and one on whom his clients could rely. I know that Will Flynn is loyal, capable and true." (Signed) FRANK T. LODGE.

The following prominent men have also added their words of commendation for Mr. Flynn and expressed their confidence in his fitness for the position.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.
FAVORS BUDGET SYSTEM
CALLAGHAN GIVES IDEA ON TAXATION.
Market Bureau for Farm Products—Square Deal for All Citizens.

In an interview with M. M. Callaghan, candidate for the nomination of senator in the twenty-eighth senatorial district, the gentleman from Reed City had the following to say regarding the big issues that must be faced by the new senate the coming term:
"The question of taxation has disturbed the minds of our greatest men for centuries. Politicians and seekers after office during all time have been promising less taxes but every year the figures on the tax receipt have shown larger denominations. State taxes in Michigan have shown an enormous increase in the last few years. The causes seem to be many but to my mind the principal cause is the system of handling the appropriations. The semi-annual appropriation bill passed by the legislature is the pork barrel of the state. Every senator and member of the house of representatives who happens to have a public institution in his district considers it a great achievement to get a large slice of this appropriation for his home institution. POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.
FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY.
Clark H. W. Snyder, candidate for the nomination of Prosecuting Attorney on the Republican ticket, through his own efforts, successfully completed the State Normal School and College courses and received the high college degree of Master of Arts. After teaching school for a few years he entered the law department of the University of Michigan where he successfully completed the law course and received the degree of Bachelor of Law. Soon after graduating from the law school at Ann Arbor, Mr. Snyder located in Isosco county where he has been engaged for a period of six years in the successful practice of the law.
Mr. Snyder has been conducting a clean campaign. The stories being circulated about him are untrue and are prompted by improper motives and desires in order to deceive the voters of Isosco County just before the election and to deprive Mr. Snyder of the nomination and Isosco county of a capable and proper man for Prosecuting Attorney.

Fights Mormonism Because It "Broke His Mother's Heart"

HANS P. FREECE.
Born in Mormonism, his mother being a plural wife. Hans P. Freece, who lectures on the second afternoon of the Chautauqua, is particularly qualified to speak on the interesting subject "The Inside of Mormonism." Mr. Freece has been fighting Mormonism for years because, as he says, "it broke my mother's heart."
"Joseph F. Smith, present leader of the church, is today living openly in Salt Lake City with five wives, in violation of the law, and the same is true of many other leaders of the Mormon church," says Mr. Freece. "The Mormons boast that the reason it is practically impossible to get legislation against them is because the church is so wealthy and all its members vote as directed by the Mormon prophet, Joseph F. Smith, who is the president of twelve corporations and a director in fourteen others, among them the Union Pacific Railroad."
Mr. Freece will show that Mormonism and the practice of polygamy are on the increase in the United States. He is regarded as an authority on Mormonism and has spoken in all parts of this country, as well as abroad.

der of the nomination and Isosco county of a capable and proper man for Prosecuting Attorney.
The following is taken from the Oscoda County Telegram and News of March 8th, 1916: "Lawyer Snyder is a most capable man, a good pleader, careful in preparation and thorough in law," said Mr. Hitchcock to the newspaper. "You'll hear more from this man yet." Mr. Hitchcock was Prosecuting Attorney of Bay county for three terms and is regarded as one of the ablest lawyers of Bay City and made this statement while opposing Mr. Snyder in the trial of a case.
Mr. Snyder is a man of mature years and experience and seeks to be Prosecuting Attorney in his home county where his property and interests are and where he shares the burden of the taxes and where he has his home and all that is near and dear to him. He knows the needs and conditions existing in Isosco county and how to deal with them and can legally and correctly advise the officials and Board of Supervisors. At the primary August 29th, your vote and influence will be appreciated.

CIRCUIT JUDGE

To the voters of Isosco County:
I think we all agree that the office of Circuit Judge is the most important in this county, carrying with it the largest amount of power and authority and should be confided only in a man possessing judicial temperament, legal ability and a cool and deliberate judgment. After the death of the late Honorable Main J. Connine, my friends throughout this circuit insisted upon my becoming a candidate, first, for the appointment, and secondly, for the nomination, now in the hands of the Republicans of the Twenty-third Judicial Circuit.
It is not necessary that I advertise my own qualifications for this office, for the reason that I have lived among you for nearly fifteen years, during which time you have had many opportunities to know me thoroughly, in fact, all of my business life has been passed here. Nor, on the other hand, do you need to be told by others what my qualifications are, because you know and see me daily. The confidence you have placed in me as a public officer, forces me to the conclusion that your ultimate judgment will be correct in this instance.
I have conducted a clean and honorable campaign, believing that any office merits that kind of a campaign—I have urged my friends to do likewise; the Isosco Judicial Republican Club has also omitted from its advertisements and its recommendations anything that might possibly offend my opponent. I believe that the people will see that we are using fair treatment toward others, and will not be misled by anything to the contrary. I will appreciate your active support and your vote.
Yours respectfully,
ALBERT W. BLACK.

"But why didn't you draw the horse?" "Can't you see," said Bob disgustedly, "the horse is in the barn?"

You Paid For This Silo Last Year — But Did You Get It?

Even if you didn't erect this silo you paid for it in lost profits that came from unnecessary feeding costs. You, as well as any other farmer who feeds stock, can profitably use a silo. By cutting feed costs in two the Saginaw Silo will pay for itself the first year.

The silo preserves the complete corn plant in concentrated form—a sweet, succulent and palatable feed always ready for use—Put a silo on your farm and summer droughts or high feed prices will not worry you.

You can feed more stock on a given area of land, make more profit per acre. Silage fattens stock quickly and is a great milk producer. Costs from two to four dollars a ton; cheapest roughage you can raise.

Why a Saginaw Silo?

The Saginaw Steel-Built Silo will absolutely assure you of the increased profits that come from silage feeding. It is Steel-Built, built around steel and surrounded by steel, made permanent and rigid by this wonderfully strong material. Wood is used for the Saginaw Silo wall. Experiments show that wood is best because the proper fermentation of silage requires that the silo wall be non-conducting of heat and cold and impervious to moisture—qualities found only in wood.

Saginaw—the Proved Silo

The Saginaw Silo has proved itself by years of use. Saginaw Sales have steadily increased; last year five factories were kept busy supplying orders.

Saginaw Silos mean siloservice—a service vouches for by one of the largest Silo Manufacturers. A Saginaw Silo is a sure investment.

Make silage feeding profits pay for your 1915 Saginaw Silo. There is a Saginaw Agent in your locality who will give you accurate and profitable information on silage feeding. See this man or write for Silage feeding book No. . . A Saginaw will make money for you.

PRETTY GIRLS AND OTHERS

After All, the One Who is "Nice" is Apt to Be the Most Popular With Everybody.

We all know the old joke of the pretty girl who is presented as saying to the homely girl, "It's too bad not to be good-looking, isn't it?" and the homely girl's response: "Yes, because one has to be nice, and that's hard; did you every try it?"

Of course we enjoy the reply, especially as we know how much greater the impression that is made by being nice, the Milwaukee Journal observes. The pretty girl who doesn't think this necessary is away behind the homely girl who has really learned to be what we describe so satisfactorily and indefinitely by the word "nice."

But do we ever think of this as one of the definite accomplishments of life that can be acquired, not so easily perhaps as a knowledge of algebra or history, but just as surely? Every day we meet someone, often several persons, whose lives exemplify the beauty of being nice. Very soon we learn to know them and we are ready almost without thinking to go a little out of the way to see that we do meet them.

They are not all homely girls; some of them are pretty, and many of them aren't girls at all. Most of them always seem to be "nice" by nature. But anyone with an atom of justice in his reasoning knows that at some time and probably often, there has come to these persons who make life brighter the question, "Does it pay?" Maybe they never really proved that it did.

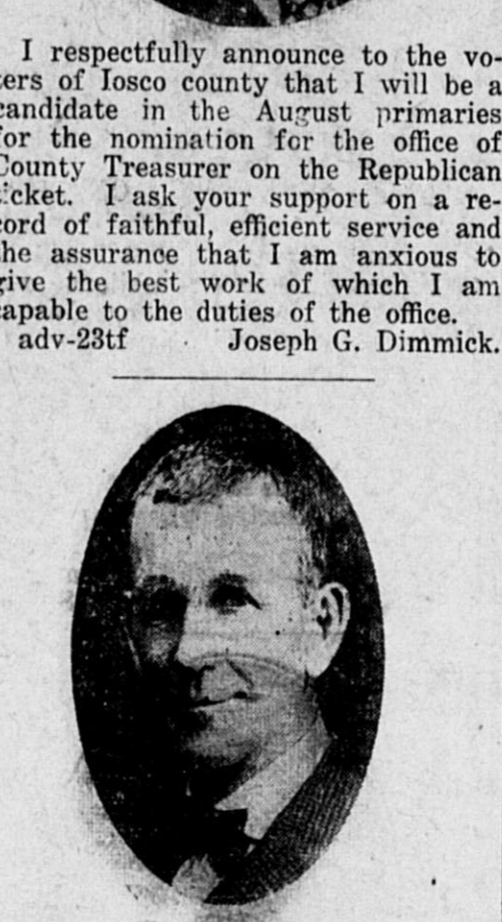

That doesn't matter so much, for they have kept on with the cheery look, the pleasant greeting, the friendliness and graciousness that are the world's greatest joy bringers. And that is enough to make them far better remembered and far more beloved than if they had been named the reigning beauties of their day.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

I respectfully announce to the voters of Iosco county that I will be a candidate in the August primaries for the nomination for the office of County Treasurer on the Republican ticket. I ask your support on a record of faithful, efficient service and the assurance that I am anxious to give the best work of which I am capable to the duties of the office.

TO THE VOTERS OF IOSCO COUNTY:

I am a candidate for the Republican nomination to the office of County Clerk and make this appeal to you for your support. I have lived in Iosco county for thirty-five years and have never aspired to political office before. My friends have frequently requested me to come out for office but up until the present I've refused to consider their demands. I have been a tax payer for over thirty years and now at the request of my friends I've consented to run for County Clerk. I am fully competent to handle the duties of the office and if I should be nominated and elected I shall perform the duties to the best of my ability. It may be impossible for me to see you all before primary voting to the fact that my work requires me to be present, but don't construe that to mean that I didn't want to see you as I fully intended to see all the voters in the county. Thanking all for what kind consideration you have given me I am

Yours very truly,
FRANK E. DEASE.

LAZIEST OF ALL THE BIRDS

Feathered "Weary Willie" Sleeps All Day and Absolutely Refuses to Go After Food.

Laziest of birds is the frogmouth. He sleeps all day, and instead of flying about in search of food he sits still on a limb and literally waits for the insects to come and feed him. He's such a sound sleeper that you can knock him off his perch with a club and he'll not wake up. He inhabits the islands of the Indian ocean and Australia.

He's about the size of the whippoorwill and gets his name from his wide mouth, which also serves as his insect trap. Too lazy to fly for his food, like other birds, he crawls along the limb of a tree, opening his wide mouth and snapping it shut, catching what flies and gnats come within his range.

At night he's found perched with his mate on the roofs of houses, on fences or stumps. Only after the sun goes down does he show any inclination to move about. All day he sits, feet glued to the limb of a gum tree, indifferent to rain, tropical sun or the call of the woods.

One species of frogmouth has tufts of hair rising from the top of his head like ears.

Birds Cannot Understand Glass.

It has been frequently noticed that no wild bird can understand the properties of glass, and great numbers, ranging in size from a pheasant to a timousee, are killed by flying against the windows of country houses.

If a room possesses a large mirror reflecting the view seen through an open window birds are particularly liable to be deceived, and especially if frightened into thinking that they can fly through it.

Sparrow hawks will sometimes chase their intended victims into strange places. Some years ago a member of this species pursued a small bird through the open window of a railway carriage in motion. In its blind determination to secure the panting fugitive it entangled its claws in the meshes of the hat rack and was ignominiously slain by an astonished passenger with an umbrella.

Before and After.

The members of the club were telling yarns when a quiet man in the corner was asked to contribute.

"Well," said he, "I once entered a restaurant where they weigh you before eating and then after eating, and then charge you by weight. I got a good feed and was charged five shillings. The next time I went I took in my pocket bricks, weights, old iron and such like. I was weighed and then went upstairs and had a banquet three times as big as the last. After getting rid of the ballast I went down and was weighed again, but they couldn't make it out."

He paused.

"Couldn't make what out?" asked the club members.

"Why," answered the quiet man, "they owed me four-and-tuppence."—London Tit-Bits.

Poor Hubby.

The young bride was doing the family marketing for the first time. She stopped at the fish stall and looked over the array of sea food.

"All perfectly fresh, mam'am," said the dealer, ingratiatingly.

"Oh, dear," exclaimed the bride. "That's what everybody says. I wish I could find some stale fish. You see, my husband has indigestion, and the doctor won't even let him eat fresh bread. I'm sure fresh fish would be even worse for him."

Iosco Judicial Republican Club.

FRIENDS:

Charles A. Currey, of Grant, Republican candidate for Register of Deeds of Iosco county, will highly appreciate your support at the August primaries, August 29th, 1916.

If nominated and elected I will give careful attention to the office and perform the duties in connection therewith.

Chas. A. Currey.

OFFICE OF SHERIFF.

To the voters of Iosco County: You will soon have to nominate a candidate for the office of sheriff and as I am in the field desire to say a word or two to you. I am a candidate for the second term and I stand upon my record. I've tried to enforce the laws of the county to the best of my ability and how far I've succeeded, I am willing to leave you to be the judge. I am satisfied that when we compare our county with other counties that the comparison will be well in our favor and I claim some credit as an official for this. If I am renominated and elected I will continue to perform the duties of the office in the same manner as heretofore and thanking my friends for their support in the past I am

Very respectfully,
COLLIE JOHNSON, Tawas City, Mich.

TO THE VOTERS OF IOSCO COUNTY:

The time is near at hand when you must nominate a candidate for Prosecuting Attorney, and it behooves the voters to be careful in the matter. The office of prosecuting attorney is important to the people in two ways:

1. That a man is elected who will enforce the law without fear or favor and with malice toward none.
2. That he will carefully investigate all complaints brought to him; get the evidence in the case and then act in accordance with the facts.

It is not a question of voting for a man because he is a good fellow, but simply a business proposition. I've had six years experience as prosecutor and I am thoroughly acquainted with every phase of his duties. I lived in an adjoining county all my life and you can easily find my record if you desire. If nominated and elected I will perform my duties fearlessly and impartially. Thanking my many friends for favors extended me in the campaign, I am

Very respectfully,
JOHN A. STEWART, East Tawas, Mich.

REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD PURCHASE SEASON TICKETS:

1. Is to help the public spirited men who have given their time and money to make the Chautauqua possible in this community. We are obliged to guarantee the sale of 500 season tickets and single admissions all go to the Chautauqua Association and do not help the committee at all in making up the amount.
2. You also assist in getting others interested in the Chautauqua by showing your approval of the enterprise and purchasing tickets.
3. You save money if you only attend half the time. The single admissions for adults total $3.40 and children $1.70 and season tickets good for 10 entertainments can be secured of the committee or any of the merchants for $1.50.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

THE OFFICE, THE PARTY, AND THE MAN

WILLIAM H. HILL
Candidate for the Republican Nomination for United States Senator August 29th.

Read the following speech by Hon. Champ Clark, the Speaker of the House of Representatives at Washington, and then apply it to the selection of your own Member of Congress at the coming primary August 29th.

"THE MAKING OF A REPRESENTATIVE."

Remarks of Champ Clark, of Missouri, Speaker of the House of Representatives, delivered at the National Press Club reception to "Baby Congressmen," at Washington, Thursday, March 16, 1916. (Printed in the Congressional Record March 17, 1916).
Mr. Bell. Mr. Speaker, under the leave granted to me to extend my remarks, I include remarks of Hon. Champ Clark at the Washington Press Club reception to "Baby Congressmen," Thursday, March 16, 1916.
The remarks are as follows:
"The Making of a Representative."
Remarks of Champ Clark at the National Press Club reception to "Baby Congressmen," at Washington, Thursday, March 16, 1916.
I heartily congratulate you gentlemen in being even what are facetiously denominated "baby Congressmen." It is a high honor to be a Representative in Congress, for only one term, and with the number of terms the honor increases in geometrical rather than in arithmetical proportion. A member's usefulness to his country should increase in the same proportion. A man has to learn to be a Representative just as he must learn to be a blacksmith, a carpenter, a farmer, an engineer, a lawyer, or a doctor.
"Poeta nascitur non fit"—a poet is born, not made—says Horace; but Congressmen—that is, useful and influential Congressmen—are made largely by experience and practice.
The old Charlotte district in Virginia knew this and kept John Randolph of Roanoke, in the House till he became a great national figure. Then the Old Dominion sent him to the Senate and Gen. Jackson sent him to St. Petersburg. There are sporadic cases of similar action in other districts.
It is an unwise performance for any district to change Representatives at short intervals. A new Congressman must begin at the foot of the class and spell up. Of course, the more brains, tact, energy, courage and industry he has the quicker he will get up. If he possess these qualities, and if his constituents will keep him in the House, he as certain to rise as the sparks are to fly upward. No human power can keep him down. It is only fair and rational to assume that every Representative's constituents desire to see him among the "topnotchers."
Let us take the present House and see how long the men who hold the high places have served. I can not name all, but will cite a few as samples.
Mr. Speaker Cannon is serving his fortieth year. He holds the record, or, in pugilistic parlance, "he holds the belt," for length of service in the House in our entire history. In several Congresses he was chairman of the great Committee on Appropriations and then was Speaker eight years, only one man, Henry Clay, having been Speaker longer.

I am serving my twenty-second year. Minority leader Mann is serving his twentieth year; Mr. Kitchin, chairman of Ways and Means, his sixteenth; Mr. Fitzgerald, chairman of Appropriations, his eighteenth; Mr. Moon, chairman of the Post Office and Post Roads, his twentieth; Mr. Jones, chairman of Insular Affairs and "father of the House," his twenty-sixth; Mr. Flood, chairman of Foreign Affairs, his sixteenth; Mr. Hay, chairman of Military Affairs, his twentieth; Mr. Glass, chairman of Banking and Currency, his sixteenth; Mr. Webb, chairman of the Judiciary, his fourteenth; Mr. Adamson, chairman of Interstate and Foreign Commerce, his twentieth; Mr. Stephens, chairman of Indian Affairs, his twentieth; Mr. Slayden, chairman of the Library, his twentieth; Mr. Henry, chairman of Rules, his twentieth; Mr. Lever, chairman of Agriculture, his sixteenth; Mr. Padgett, chairman of the Navy, his sixteenth; Mr. Burnett, chairman of Committee on Immigration, his eighteenth; Mr. Lloyd, chairman of Accounts, his twentieth; and Mr. Sparkman, chairman of Rivers and Harbors, his twenty-second. There are other big chairmanships, but these will suffice to show that as a rule the big places go to old and experienced Members; for most of the men who rank close to the chairmen are old timers. The same thing holds good with reference to members of the minority. As an illustration, Messrs. Gillett and Cooper, who are serving their twenty-fourth year, are the ranking Republicans on Appropriations and Foreign Affairs, almost certain to be chairmen thereof should the Republicans ever again have a majority in the House, as in that event, in all probability, Mr. Mann will be Speaker unless he is nominated for President next June.
Go through the whole list and you will find, with few exceptions, that the men of long service have the high places.
New England and the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh have understood the value of long service all along, and, having elected a fairly good man to Congress, they keep him in the harness.
The Member of longest consecutive service is called "the father of the House." Five Philadelphians in immediate succession bore that honorable title—Randall, Kelley, O'Neill, Harmer and Bingham. Then it went to Mr. Dalzell, of Pittsburgh. When Gen. Bingham announced the death of Gen. Harmer, his immediate predecessor as "father of the House," he stated that the five Philadelphia "fathers of the House" had served a total of 147 years, and he served 8 or 10 years after making that interesting statement.
In the second and third Congresses in which I served, Maine with only four Members, had the Speakership and the chairmanship of the great committees on Ways and Means, Navy, and Public Buildings and Grounds—a most remarkable circumstance, giving the Pine Tree State an influence in the House and the country out of all proportion to her population and wealth. These four men, Reed, Dingledy, Boutelle and Millikin—each served in the House 20 years or more. Other States might profit by her example.

No man should be elected to the House simply to gratify his ambition. All Members should be elected for the good of the country.
The best rule, it seems to me, is for a district to select a man with at least fair capacity, industrious, honest, energetic, sober, and courageous, and keep him here as long as he discharges his duties faithfully and well. Such a man will gradually rise to high position and influence in the House. His wide acquaintance with Members helps him amazingly in doing things. We live in parlous times. Abraham Lincoln's favorite argument for his own reelection was that it is unwise to swap horses in the middle of the river—which applies to Congressmen as well as Presidents.
I can speak freely on this subject without violating the proprieties, for my constituents have kept me here 22 years, and for 20 years have given me nominations without opposition, for all of which favors I thank them from the bottom of my heart. Their generous action and unwavering friendship have enabled me to devote all my time to the public service. I have not been compelled to spend any portion of my time in "mending my fences." My constituents have attended to that. God bless them!
One other thing. I do not know what committee assignments you new Members secured. If they are good, you are to be congratulated. If bad, do not be cast down. No congressional tenderfoot ever had poorer assignments than I had—Claims and Old Pensions—but I never complained or kicked. I went to work as though those committees suited me exactly. Here is an illustration of what may happen and how luck plays an important part. I was next to top Democrat on both Foreign Affairs and Patents for eight years—never advanced a peg so far as committees went. Just when, at the beginning of the ninth year on those two committees, I was about to become top Democrat on Foreign Affairs, Hon. John Sharp Williams, then minority leader, assigned me to the foot of Ways and Means, and at the end of four years through the happenings of politics in five different states I jumped from the foot to the head of the Democratic minority on Ways and Means. So it may be with you. Events over which you have no control may advance you more rapidly than you dream of or hope for. My advice is this: "Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with your might."

After reading the above speech why should you not go to the primary on August 29th and vote to return your competent and faithful Member of Congress, George A. Loud?

William H. Hill is a Republican and it is as a thorough-going, uncompromising Republican that he offers himself at the Primaries August 29 for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.
But there are certain characteristics of Mr. Hill's Republicanism that he wishes thoroughly understood. He is neither a radical, nor a conservative; least of all is he a reactionary.
By radicalism Mr. Hill understands action not based on good judgment and common sense; by conservatism, a lack of action that amounts to timidity, failure to grasp new conditions; by reactionism, no action at all—stagnation.
Mr. Hill is progressive in his practice and application of Republican theory and doctrine.
By that he means that he recognizes new facts, new conditions, when they arise and believes that theory and principles of government should be adapted to fit these new facts and conditions.
There should always be progress. One cannot stand still. One should advance with the times—molding and adapting principles to the new problems that arise, but never altering the fundamentals. It is this sort of Republicanism that Mr. Hill practices and will practice.
That he has the courage of his convictions was proved in 1912 when, believing that the conditions of that year demanded it, he followed Colonel Roosevelt. He ran for Congressman-at-large and polled the largest vote, next to Roosevelt, running ahead of his ticket 20,000, and exceeding the vote of the Republican nominee for governor by 5,000.
Mr. Hill remains unshaken in his belief in the soundness of the progressive Republican theories. Those who believe in progressivism as a necessary element in all political theory and who supported Mr. Hill so generously in 1912 may rest assured that the same ideals of government for which he stood at that time will actuate his conduct if he is nominated for United States Senator and elected on the Republican ticket.
Support him as you did four years ago and it will mean that the advocates of progress and humanity will have a friend in court. The Primaries are August 29th. Get out and place an X before the name of Wm. H. Hill.

What Tawas Butter Co. of Tawas City

have to say about cream separators this week

YOU will find the De Laval is the easiest and most satisfactory to use and keep in good running order. There is nothing about the operation, cleaning, adjustment or care of a modern De Laval which requires expert knowledge or special tools.

Only tool required

There are no parts which require frequent adjustment in order to keep the machine running smoothly or to conform to varying conditions in the every day use of a cream separator.

There is nothing about this machine that cannot be taken apart, removed or replaced by anyone who can use a wrench or screw driver. In fact, the only tool which is needed for the operation of a De Laval Cream Separator is the combination wrench and screw driver illustrated above, furnished free with the machine.

We will be glad to have you examine a De Laval and see for yourself the simplicity and convenience of its construction.

Sooner or later you will buy a DE LAVAL
