Clayton Baguley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baguley of this city, and employed in the office of the Michigan Screw Co. at Lansing, has enlisted in Battery B. Lansing Artillery, Michigan National Guard.

The ladies society of the Emmanuel Lutheran church gave a pleasant surprise party at the home of Mrs. A. Weir last Sunday afternoon in honor of Mrs. A. Steinhurst, who left for Standish this week. A pleasant social time was enjoyed and a nice lunch was served, after which the ladies departed for their homes after wishing Mrs. S. the best of success in her new home.

Mrs. James Baguley, who has been ill for some two weeks, was taken to the Bay City hospital last Saturday to undergo an operation for appendicitis and kidney trouble. It was a very serious case, the surgeon stating that another twelve hours delay would have made the operation useless. However, at last reports Mrs. Baguley is recovering nicely and her early recovery is anticipated.

The Herald editor is in receipt of a letter from Congressman Gilbert A. Currie, wherein he informs us that he has been appointed as a member of the committee on roads and also a member of the committee on expenditures on public buildings. In view of the fact that the government is embarking on a policy of Federal aid for roads, this committee is a very important one to a district like the Tenth Michigan, and we are fortunate in having Mr. Currie on this committee.

One of our local business men and his wife have found it necessary to publicly announce their loyalty to the United States flag on account of unjust criticism, and their notice is published in this issue of the Herald. This is a regrettable incident, as criticism or judgment should be withheld in all cases unless absolute proof of disloyalty is adduced. We believe that the overwhelming majority of the Germans in this country are loyal to their adopted country and nothing should be said or done to cause hard feelings because of the present war between the two countries.

Going fishing next Tuesday?
Next week is Clean-Up Week. Get busy.

Twenty births and eight deaths were reported from Iosco county during the month of February.
The forty-third annual meeting of the Michigan Pioneer and Historical society will be held in the senate chamber at Lansing, Wednesday and Thursday, May 9 and 10. An excellent program has been prepared and a record breaking meeting is anticipated.

The U. S. Forest Service began their spring planting operations at the head of Buck creek on Tuesday. Ranger Johnson is in charge of the work and has a crew of 8 men engaged. The area being planted adjoins the former plantations at this location made in 1911 and which have proven very successful. It is expected that about fifty-five thousand trees will be planted upon an area of 70 acres, or at the rate of 800 trees per acre. In this planting work furrows are first plowed and the trees are later placed in the furrows by means of planting tools or bars with which a slit is made, the tree inserted and the slit then closed by pressing the soil tightly around the roots by another insertion of the bar.

CLEAN-UP PROCLAMATION.
The week of April 30 has been designated Clean-Up Week, and it is urged that all citizens of Tawas City join in this movement and assist in making our city one of the cleanest in the state.
Rake up and burn all accumulated rubbish, pick up the tin cans, broken dishes and other unsightly litter and have them disposed of, and make everything clean and sanitary.
If you have a manure pile or other places that might be a breeding place for flies, spray them with kerosene. This will destroy the larvae and prevent the flies from increasing. All vaults should also be cleaned and disinfected.
Proper attention to these things at this time will not only improve the appearance of your premises, but will also tend to the prevention of disease.

TO THE PUBLIC:
The undersigned have been the victims of a malicious rumor to the effect that we are not loyal to the American flag, and we hereby brand the rumor as false. Mr. Woizeschke, though of German descent, is American born and knows no other flag than the Stars and Stripes. Mrs. Woizeschke declares her loyalty by membership for more than twenty years in the Woman's Relief Corps, which loyalty is vouched for by the officers of the Corps, and by the commander of G. K. Warren Post No. 63, G. A. R.

Also by the fact that her father was a member of the 9th Michigan Infantry from 1861 to 1865.
An American flag flying over our home is an added proof of our loyalty. What more can we do to prove it, we ask of the man who criticizes us?
E. J. Woizeschke,
Mrs. Effie Woizeschke.

Attest
Mrs. F. E. Hayes, Pres. W. R. C. No. 170.
Mrs. Carpenter, Secretary,
Mrs. Wm. Legacy, Treasurer,
F. E. Hayes, Com. Post No. 63.

BULLET-PROOF HELMETS FOR MARINES.
Washington, April 24.—Bullet and shrapnel-resistant trench helmets have been adopted for the U. S. Marines. These "Soldiers of the Sea" are the first American armed forces to adopt this spitzer-proof headgear, and to actually prepare for its manufacture.
The new Marine Corps helmet, with which the entire Corps will be equipped, is a compromise between the French and the British types. It conforms to the size and shape of the average head and can be snugly fitted by the adjustment of a cloth cap inside. It is made of a single piece of chilled steel. Under test the helmet resisted eight steel-jacketed bullets at 100 feet from the Springfield rifle, and broke only upon the impact of the ninth missile.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.
Notice is hereby given that on and after Tuesday, May 1st, our barber shops will be closed on Monday and Thursday evenings at 6 o'clock p. m. Also that the price of shaving will be advanced from 10c to 15c.

"NO FLAG, NO SCHOOL"
The pupils of the Pinconning schools struck last Monday because the school board had not fitted up a suitable pole from which to fly the American flag during school hours, as required by law. The pupils took the flag and marched through the streets for two hours shouting "no flag, no school." By that time the school board had fitted up the pole and the national banner now flies over the school while in session.

It is really surprising, especially at this time, how many of the schools throughout the country fail to fly the flag during school hours as provided by law. On a recent trip from Bay City to Tawas the writer noted the school houses that could be seen from the train, with especial reference as to whether they were flying the flag or not. Out of 18 schools which could be seen from the car windows only 8 had the flag flying, or less than fifty per cent. And from past observations we believe that this percentage will hold good throughout the country.

This is a regrettable state of affairs and should be remedied. Every school board should provide a suitable pole and flag and see that it is displayed on every school day. Teachers should insist on having a flag, and if all other methods fail the pupils would be justified in following the example of the Pinconning students and declaring a strike until a pole and flag are provided.

A PROCLAMATION.

At an earlier day Michigan was the home of magnificent forests of pine and hardwood. We have still enough hardwood trees left to make Michigan the leading hardwood state in the union, but scarcely a vestige remains of our once splendid pine forests. What can we do today to help restore what has been destroyed? Reforestation by the state and tree-planting by the individual—that is the answer. Trees mean beauty and blessing. They mean health and wealth. They mean shade and shelter and food.

For many years it has been the custom, at this season of the year, for the Governor to issue a proclamation, calling upon the people of the state to observe Arbor Day by the planting of trees and by other appropriate exercises.

This year, important as the planting of trees undoubtedly is, there is a still more important matter to engage our serious attention, and that is the planting of gardens. Through none of our own seeking, we have been plunged into war; and we are threatened with the greatest food shortage in our history. It may be that disaster, great and irretrievable, can be averted only by utilizing for planting purposes every available foot of ground. One-quarter of an acre can be made to produce, for example, potatoes enough to supply two or three families, and vacant lots in cities, towns and villages are available for this purpose. PRODUCTION and CONSERVATION—these should be our two great watch-words this year.

Therefore, I, Albert E. Sleeper, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby designate and set aside Friday, May Fourth, 1917, as Arbor and Garden Day, in the hope that both the old and the young of our people may be impressed with the needs of the situation, and may be stimulated not only to plant trees, as has been our custom on Arbor Day, but to plant their garden plots with potatoes and corn and beans and other nutritious vegetables.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State this twenty-fourth day of April, 1917, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-first.
ALBERT E. SLEEPER, Governor.
COLEMAN C. VAUGHAN, Secretary of State.

HAMILTON-CADORETTE.
A quiet home wedding was solemnized Thursday afternoon of this week at Bay City when two of our young people were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Miss Eva Hazel Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hamilton of this city to Valmore L. Cadorette also of this city. The marriage ceremony took place at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Henry Stoores at 901 E. Florence Ave. Mrs. Stoores is a sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of Trinity church, Episcopal, Miss Iva Anschuetz of this city acted as bridesmaid and George Hamilton, brother of the bride attended the groom.

The bride was attired in a white satin imported gown, trimmed with gold and silver braid and seed pearls and carried a shower bouquet of yellow roses. The bridesmaid wore white organdie.
After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served in courses.
Mr. and Mrs. Cadorette will make East Tawas their home for the present.

WOMAN SUFFER-AGE.
Not her struggle for the ballot, but her sufferings, seclusion, degradation, and the forces that are gradually emancipating her will be discussed Sunday night, at 7:00 o'clock at the Methodist church. The lecture will be illustrated with choice stereopticon views. No admission will be charged, although a collection will be taken to defray the stereopticon expenses.

"Women of the Orient" is to be the title of this lecture which is the fifth of this series given in the Methodist church. These slides are furnished by the Missionary Education Movement, an interdenominational organization of great scope and efficiency. While each set is the best that can be procured under the given topic, a special interest attaches to this one on womanhood, not confined to any one country.
The Mission Study Class studying South American Neighbors will hold its eighth and last session Monday night, at seven standard at the Methodist church. The closing lesson is of the great "Congress on Christian Work in Latin America" held in Panama, in February, 1916. Visitors cordially welcome.

COMING.

FURTHER PARTICULARS REGARDING E. L. KING.

E. L. King of this city met with a tragic death Wednesday morning, April 18, between nine and ten o'clock. He was on his way to answer a call from Whittemore. He was told never to go alone in his car as was subject to fainting spells which had become very frequent of late. He had not been feeling well that morning but was unable to find anyone who could go alone. About one mile from the city near the Scheffer farm, now occupied by Clayton Irish, the tracks of the auto seemed to show that a sick spell had come on as the auto gradually swerved off into the ditch and overturned. Mr. King was found underneath the car by Mrs. Irish. She called her husband and others but the body was found lifeless and death must have come suddenly.

Edward Lyman King was born Oct. 29, 1860 and was 56 years, 5 months and 2 days old. He was born at Northampton, Mass. The family lived for a time at Ionia, Mich., and about 30 years ago Mr. King came to East Tawas and opened up business as an undertaker and furniture dealer in the opera house block, now occupied by Kunze and Applin. Later he moved into the building on State street, where he has been in business for twenty years or more. He had also opened a large branch store in Tawas City some years ago.

On Dec. 31, 1889, Mr. King was united in marriage to Miss Alice C. Dimmick in this city. To this union six children were born, four daughters and two sons, all of whom survive. Relatives who are left to mourn are the wife of this city, the four daughters, Esther, teacher at Midland, Dorothy of Detroit, Marian a student at M. A. C. Lansing, Alice of this city, the sons, Edward and Kenneth, both at home. Mr. King also leaves two brothers and three sisters, Will King of Cleveland, Ohio, Stephen King of Chicago, Mrs. Meme Dayton of Chicago, Mrs. Wm. Phelps and Mrs. Anna Dunlap, both of Detroit.

Funeral services were held from the Methodist Episcopal church last Saturday afternoon at 1:30 standard time and the hundreds who attended, many of whom could not find standing room, showed the respect and esteem in which Mr. King was held. Friends from all over the county were in attendance. Rev. Samuel Howarth of the M. E. church and Rev. William Roberts of the Presbyterian church officiated, assisted by Rev. G. E. Sloan. Mrs. R. H. Budworth sang "He Giveth His Beloved Sleep," accompanied by Mrs. A. G. Jackson. A duet number was also given. Mr. F. Carle, undertaker from Harrisville took charge of the funeral. Mr. Carle had been a student under Mr. King.

The pallbearers were Messrs. C. A. Pinkerton, C. Chrysler of Oscoda, E. E. Kunze, F. Randolph, Thomas Bradley of Tawas City, Capt. R. M. Small, all members of the Masonic order. The deceased was also affiliated with the Odd Fellows, the Rebekahs and the Maccabee orders of this city.

Relatives from out of town at the funeral were the daughters, Esther of Midland, Dorothy of Detroit, Marian of Lansing, also Mr. and Mrs. Will King of Cleveland, Stephen King of Chicago, Mrs. Anna Dunlap and Mrs. W. Phelps of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Hiser and Mrs. Fred Smith of Alpena.

BUSINESS MUST GO ON AS USUAL.

In the present war crisis much talk has been heard regarding the closing of shops, stopping road work, and other interferences with the ordinary activities of business. This is a situation which must not be allowed to occur, for there is no occasion for the slowing up of the ordinary industries of every day life. On the contrary production should be increased to the limit wherever possible in order that the country may be in the best position to uphold the hands of the government in its efforts to push the war to a speedy conclusion.

A panic at this time would be the worst possible contingency that could happen, as it would tie up the financial resources of the country at a time when the utmost pliability is demanded. The government has been advised of the situation and will take steps to increase confidence and prevent a situation which would be most serious.

Every business man, every manufacturer, every farmer, all those who are concerned in the industry and production of the nation should give no heed to panicky stories, but should pursue the even tenor of their way with a determination to bend their every effort to keeping the country in the best economic condition. Let us adopt for our slogan the motto that England adopted at the beginning of the war, "Business will go on as usual," and keep our productive energies at the highest pitch, ignoring the twaddle of those who would make us believe that there is to be a slowing up of our industries.

The Michigan Manufacturers' association is behind this movement to keep up confidence and is sending out bulletins broadcast throughout the state to encourage people in all lines of trade. Let us join with them in the movement and talk and think optimistically instead of giving way to the idea that we are on the verge of a panic and that all business must proceed on a cautious and retrenching basis.

The slogan for every farmer in the country this year should be "Produce all you can." In the campaign for increased production the Michigan Agricultural College is taking a leading part, and is placing the resources of the college at the disposal of the farmers of the state, that they may have the best of expert advice on the problems which may confront them. The M. A. C. is a state institution for the benefit of the people of the state and will readily give any information asked for by the agriculturist and advise him intelligently regarding any problem which may confront him.

Men of military age who have married since the declaration of war will not be able to escape service through this means. The war department has promulgated a ruling that all those who have married since war was declared will be treated upon the same basis as unmarried men as far as their military obligations are concerned. It is regrettable that any American citizen should take such means to escape serving his country in time of need, and the war department has taken the right means to deal with the "slackers."

W. J. Bryan's "million men who will spring to the defense of the flag over night" are rather slow in getting the momentum for their spring.

OBSERVE CLEAN-UP WEEK.

Every citizen and property owner in Michigan should take pride in observing the week of April 30th, Clean Up Week. All rubbish, ashes and inflammable material should be cleaned up and removed this week from back yards, alleys, sheds, basements, attics and from all places where accumulated. Everybody is urged to carefully inspect their premises and take every precaution to prevent fire. Look your property, home, business place or factory, over thoroughly. See that the wiring and heating plant is in absolute safe condition. Install fire extinguishers or other fire extinguishing equipment in convenient places and instruct your family and employees how to use same and above all things instruct them along fire prevention lines to be carried out every day in the year.

Our Special Correspondent At Lansing Relates Doings of Legislature

GOV. SLEEPER'S WORK BEGINS

Legislators Have Passed 398 Bills—Several Joint Resolutions—Over Eighteen Million Dollars for Appropriations, Besides the Five Million Dollar War Loan.

By Lewis W. Bailey.

Lansing, Mich., April 24.—Governor Sleeper's principle task between now and May 10 is accepting or rejecting the work of the legislature of 1917. Out of a total of 921 bills introduced the legislators have passed 398, besides several joint resolutions. They have made appropriations for institutions and state departments totalling $18,166,813.59 as against sixteen and a half million in 1915. This does not include the war loan of $5,000,000. Among the additions to the regular appropriation measures, many of which it has been necessary to increase are the $500,000 to permit the state to share in the federal appropriations for road building, $500,000 for state reward road and $380,000 spread over four years for a state office building in Lansing.

Prohibition Bills.

Of widest interest in the state are the prohibition bills and the war loan measure. The former legislation went through as predicted in these columns several weeks ago. The house put an end to discussion by the passage of the Wiley bill in a form which made it merely regulatory of the sale of liquor for chemical, mechanical, medical, scientific and sacramental purposes, and added provisions for search prohibitions in clubs, solicitation of orders or advertising; and seizure in case of violations; the passage of the McArthur bill prohibiting possession in the state or bringing into the state of liquor for purposes not permitted by the constitution, making the state bone dry; the Lewis bill putting enforcement of the liquor laws in the hands of the food and drug commissioner—the title of the dairy and food commissioner after Jan. 1—gives that official a $3,500 salary and a four-year term and authorizes the machinery for enforcement of the law; the Amon bill providing for closing as nuisances for a period of one year of places where liquor is sold illegally, the sale of furniture and contents of such buildings and a contempt of court penalty for violation of a court order in such cases. These measures, according to program, were all approved by the senate with the exception of the McArthur bill, for which the senate substituted a bill introduced by Senator Damon. The Damon bill passed the house with meager opposition and the prohibition laws of 1917 were ready for the governor's signature.

War Loan Measure.

The war measure mentioned creates a Michigan war board composed of the governor as chairman and the attorney general, auditor general, state treasurer and superintendent of public instruction. The $5,000,000 appropriated is to be used for promoting enlistments in the Michigan National Guard, for insurance and relief funds for Michigan soldiers and their families and for organizing a Michigan home guards.

The battle which women have waged for the ballot for a score of years resulted in another advance for the sex. Right to vote at presidential elections was given by statute and authority again granted for submission of a constitutional amendment to give women full rights of suffrage. This amendment will be voted on by the electors of the state in November, 1918.

Early in the session little attention was paid to military measures but after the declaration of war with Germany there was no difficulty in passing and giving immediate effect to all measures bettering the condition of the national guard, providing for building and improving armories and otherwise fitting the state for its part in eventualities. Rep. Culver's bill, which had once been tabled, providing for optional military training in high schools, was brought forth and passed with the additional provision that the course must be desired by 25 high school students.

The governor's plan for a budget commission which should investigate and report the budget plan best suited to Michigan went through with the added provision that one commissioner should continue to work after Jan. 1, when the commission is to report, on a budget for consideration of the next legislature.

The railway fare increase proposal was likewise disposed of by a bill for appointment of a commission which will have access to all books and reports of Michigan railroads and determine if the railroads are entitled to a fare increase.

One of the last measures to pass carries an appropriation of $1,000,000 for erection of a "Michigan Training School for Women" to which women offenders may be sentenced. This institution is to be controlled by a board of three men and two women. At present the Detroit House of Correction, to which women convicted of offenses throughout the state have been sentenced, will not receive women from outside Detroit. The new institution will relieve the necessity of holding them in county jails. It is to be, as its name implies, more than a penal institution. It is to be located on a tract of land sufficiently large that lighter agricultural work may be done and trades will be taught the inmates.

Along the line of education provision has been made for adding two years of post graduate work to the twelve grades of city schools in districts above 30,000 population, being equivalent to two years of college study. Legislation making it possible for the state to accept federal aid offered for vocational, agricultural and domestic science training has been passed, and a measure has been adopted which permits three or more township schools to consolidate for the purpose of establishing agricultural schools, besides a number of other important measures. Townships are permitted to go in debt for construction and equipping of library buildings.

Stringent laws against stealing automobiles or tampering with them were passed and also against driving them while intoxicated.

Numerous local game and fish acts were repealed and a general law which permits declaring a closed season in any county upon petition of supervisors was adopted. Bounties were increased on wolves, weasels and other noxious animals.

Many Desirable Bills Defeated.

These are a few of the desirable measures passed, yet not a few met defeat. Among those lost which created most interest during the session, some of which brought large lobbies and drew spirited debate at public hearings, Rep. McArthur's bill to make it optional with teachers to come under the teachers' pension law; providing for a closed season on partridge; appropriating money for a governor's residence in Lansing; repealing the law creating the state tax commission; placing a specific tax on credits; permitting the reading of the Bible in the schools; establishing a minimum wage for women; increasing railroad fare in lower peninsula to two and a half cents and in the upper peninsula to three cents a mile; creating a state welfare department; giving children born out of wedlock rights of inheritance; pensioning policemen; prohibiting punchboards; authorizing selection of primary candidates for party conventions; substituting a utilities commission with greater power, longer term and more salary for the railroad commission; repealing the mortgage tax law; exempting fraternal societies from taxation; providing for a public defender; compensating persons erroneously accused of crime; raising salaries of Michigan supreme court justices to $10,000; taxing cash surrender value of insurance policies; pensioning circuit judges who have served 25 years continuously; putting telephone companies outside jurisdiction of railroad commission; establishing state social insurance; establishing courts of domestic relations; providing for non-partisan election of judges; making insanity grounds for divorce when incurable; pensioning dependent blind of state; creating state welfare department for care of children; prohibiting manufacture and sale of cigarettes; tonnage tax on minerals; medical inspection of rural school children; providing for census of men fit for military duty; state industrial insurance; double election boards to facilitate counting of votes.

Proposed constitutional amendments for municipal fuel yards were desired and for municipal ownership of telephone companies were also lost. The bill for establishment of the Torrens system of recording land transfers was one of the last measures killed by the legislature. In its original form it made the system optional with counties. In the senate amendments were tacked on to require a 25 per cent petition of electors for its adoption and providing any property owner whose land was registered under the Torrens system might withdraw it from registry at any time. In conference the house stuck out for 10 per cent petition and refused to concur in the senate amendments so the bill was re-referred to committee and there died.

The closing hours of the session were marked by conferences on numerous bills and a deadlock on appropriations which lasted for eight hours after the last measure had been passed and resulted in compromises, the house yielding in part to increases which the senate insisted must be made. Fear that a quorum could not be maintained led Speaker Rice to refuse to recess late Friday afternoon and the house was in continuous session till 10 o'clock at night.

Although some horse play marked the idle moments of the afternoon, the ritual of adjournment was carried out without the enactment of kid pranks that have marked other sessions. No palls of water from the gallery flooded the senate committee which reported to the house the readiness of the upper house to adjourn and the honorable committee marched unmolested, and amid cheers, down the center aisle of the house where in former years it considered itself lucky if one man reached the bar of the house and the delegates were subjected to violence equalled only by a college rush. The senate adjourned with the singing of the national anthem.

COLLEGE WILL MAKE FREE BEAN TESTS.

East Lansing, Mich., April 23.—Preparedness enthusiasts who are spreading abroad the gospel of "grow more crops," are losing sight, in many instances, of other factors in farming which are almost as important in their effect on yield as is the number of acres planted, it was pointed out today by plant disease experts of the Michigan Agricultural college. One of these problems is that of plant diseases, and so to minimize the danger from this source, the college, through its department of botany, has offered to make free tests of bean seed to determine whether or not there is infection, for every farmer who will mail a bean sample to M. A. C.

"Many farmers," said J. H. Muncie, bean specialist at the college, "are uncertain whether their bean seed is frosted or blighted. If these men will send a small sample of their beans here, say half a pint, test will be made free of charge.

"Commercial picking of beans does not rid them of blighted seed.

"Many farmers are enjoying a false sense of security in regard to their beans for the reason that last summer's excessively dry weather prevented unusual losses, but they should in reality be as much on their guard as ever. If care is taken in securing clean seed, however, there is every reason to hope that both anthracnose and blight will be practically cleared up."

THE FIRST FLAG.

By Gertrude Buck, Age 13, 7th Grade, Hale Schools.

The first flag of the United States was made by Betsy Ross in 1777. It is the most beautiful flag of the world, which floats over the nation and the home of the brave.

The first flag was made out of a red petticoat, a white tablecloth and a man's blue shirt.

The first official adoption of the flag was on June 4, 1777, displaying the Union with 13 stripes and stars.

When Vermont and Kentucky were admitted to the union, two new stripes and two new stars were added to the flag. And no further changes were made until 20 or 25 years later.

The stars and stripes now keep pace with the total number of states. On July 4th after each admission. I think every American citizen should honor the stars and stripes.

In this beautiful land which God has given us, I think we should show this by letting the stars and stripes float high above us and that we should love the flag with all our heart and hands, and do all we can to help to hold its colors high above us at all times.

We should have our flags raised in the stores, banks, homes, streets and everywhere we go so we can show our patriotism and love for our nation.

The stars and stripes now float over Danish West Indies, re-christened by Uncle Sam, the Virgin Islands.

Your flag and my flag, And how it waves today In your land and my land, And half a world away! Rose red and blood red The stripes forever gleam; Snow white and soul white, The good forefathers' dream; Sky blue and true blue with stars to gleam bright; The glories of the day; A shelter of the night, Your flag and my flag! And oh, how much it holds— Your land and my land— Secure within its folds! Your heart and my heart Beat quicker at the sight, Sun kissed and wind tossed, Red and blue and white. The one flag, the great flag, the flag for me and you— Glorified all else beside— The red and white and blue.

STATE OFFERS PUBLIC BOOKLET ON GARDENS.

East Lansing, Mich., April 23.—The proposed flooding of the state with literature on the subject of gardening will, in the opinion of M. A. C. men, make ignorance no excuse for the individual who this season stays out of the gardening game on the plea of inexperience in the agricultural arts. As part of its plan to inform every Michigan citizen upon the subject, the college has secured from the federal government over 20,000 copies of a booklet entitled "Home Vegetable Gardening." These bulletins will be mailed out to every person writing in to the college for them.

The pamphlet is one which goes into the gardening arts in detail, setting forth every operation from seeding to harvesting, and giving in addition simple methods for efficient management.

To persons who have planted a garden, or who purpose spading one, the bulletin is expected to be a big help. It can be secured by dropping a card to the bulletin department of the Michigan Agricultural College.

APPEAL TO BANKERS TO MAKE SEED LOANS.

East Lansing, Mich., April 23.—The high price of seed, particularly for beans and potatoes, threatens in many sections of the state, to deter farmers from planting maximum acreages to these crops, in the opinion of the farm crops department of the Michigan Agricultural college. Within the past week appeals have been coming daily to M. A. C. for financial assistance in procuring seed, and accordingly the suggestion is being made to Michigan bankers today to make long term loans to agriculturists for the purchase of seed, with the crop as security. This is a method for aiding farmers which some state bankers have already adopted, and which is an established feature of agricultural finance in the south. "Short term loans of from 60 to 90 days will not meet this situation," declared J. E. Sox, acting professor of farm crops at the college, "but by arranging special seed loans running until the crops are harvested, both the farmer and the banker will be benefited. In the south the entire banking system in rural communities is based upon the cotton crop, and loans are freely made, payable at harvest time. The adoption of this plan in Michigan will do much towards insuring the planting of every available acre. The situation offers a rare opportunity for bankers to render a great service to the state."

From the Halls of Montezuma, To the shores of Tripoli, We fight our country's battles On the land as on the sea. First to fight for right and freedom And to keep our honor clean We are proud to claim the title Of United States Marine. From the Pest Hole of Cavite To the Ditch at Panama, You will find them very needy Of Marines—That's what we are! We're the watch dogs of a pile of coal; Or we dig a magazine, Though he lends a hand at every job Who would not be a Marine? Our flag's unfurled to every breeze From dawn to setting sun, We have fought in every clime or place Where we could take a gun; In the snow of far off Northern lands And in sunny tropic scenes, You will find us always on the job—The United States Marines. Here's health to you and to our Corps Which we are proud to serve. In many a strife we have fought for life And never lost our nerve; If the Army and the Navy Ever look on Heaven's scenes, They will find the streets are guarded by The United States Marines. THE NEW DE LAVAL

THE worth of a separator depends very largely upon its bowl. A separator bowl must be scientifically designed, properly constructed and perfectly balanced or it will not only lose some cream to begin with, but will soon get out of balance and lose a great deal more cream, besides wearing out the bearings and gears in a short time. That is why the average life of a cheap separator is only two or three years.

The bowl of the NEW De Laval is self-centering

The new De Laval bowl is so constructed and so balanced upon its detached spindle that it will run true and do perfect work even after the machine has been in use for a long time. The De Laval bowl has always been noted for its close skimming under all conditions, but the new De Laval patented milk-distributing device, together with the larger discs, makes the new De Laval bowl an even closer skimmer than the old one and gives considerably greater capacity into the bargain.

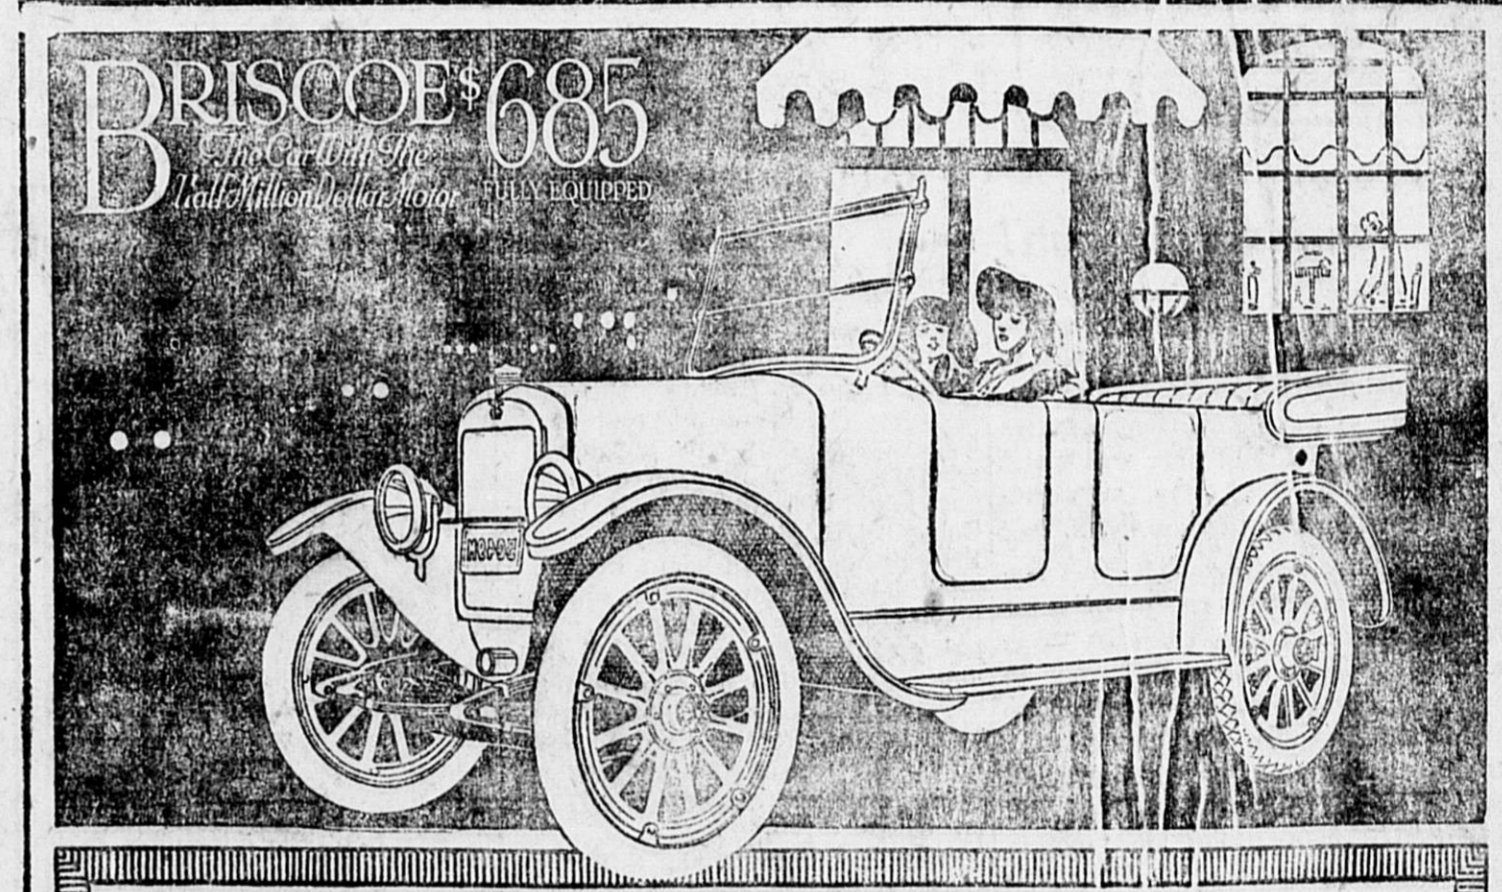

The new De Laval bowl has been called by people who ought to know, "the greatest improvement in cream separator construction in the last thirty years."

Come in and see one of the new machines. We'll be glad to explain it to you in all its details, and we know you will be interested in examining the new bowl, the bell speed-indicator, and the many other improvements.
