Baldwin township made the best record in the present Liberty Loan campaign of any township in the county. The township apportionment was $1,800 and the first report sent in by the township chairman showed a total of $1,850 in applications.

Iosco county is well over the top on the Third Liberty Loan. The apportionment for the county was $44,200, and this figure was reached last Saturday noon. Up to Wednesday night applications to the amount of $60,800 had been reported to Chairman Patterson, and it looks very much as though the county would be entitled to an extra star on the honor flag. The county honor flag was received by Chairman Patterson Thursday and is now flying from the staff in front of the postoffice.

J. C. Wigal of Henderson, Ky., a navy recruiting officer, who is touring northern Michigan, gave a short but inspiring address at the Baptist church Sunday evening. He has been in the navy eight years and was under fire at four different times. He took part in the charge at Vera Cruz and his ship was sunk by a German submarine a few miles off the French coast. After drifting for several hours he was picked up by an English gunboat and landed near the firing line in Belgium, where he was allowed to go "over the top" with the British soldiers. Mr. Wigal's description of trench warfare and of the Hun atrocities were most vivid.

The Herald editor received a card this week from Russell A. Birney, who is with the U. S. troops at Camp Hancock, Georgia. Russell says he likes the army life. He sends best regards to all his friends.

The court house was crowded until there was hardly standing room last Monday evening to hear the address given by Hon. Walter W. L. Meyer of Chicago. Mr. Meyer gave a short address in the German language and then changed to English and gave a stirring patriotic address which was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

The Herald is in receipt of a copy of the speech of Hon. Gilbert A. Currie before the national house of representatives last Monday on the sabotage bill which is now before Congress for consideration. Mr. Currie presents some strong arguments in favor of the passage of the bill, and there is no question in the minds of patriotic citizens but that the bill should be immediately passed and made a law.

James Ernest Wigal, a coxswain in the American navy, at present on recruiting service, but who has seen service in Europe, will give an address at the court house, Tawas City, next Monday evening April 29, at 7:30. Mr. Wigal spent some time in Belgium and saw at first hand the results of many of the German atrocities in that country. He is a very interesting talker and it is hoped that all will come out to hear him.

O. G. Prettyman of Scottville arrived here Monday to take charge as secretary of the Tri-County Y. M. C. A. work in Iosco, Alcona and Oscoda counties. Mr. Prettyman will move his family here and make his headquarters in Tawas City. The Herald will publish next week an article by Mr. Prettyman explaining the work that is expected to be accomplished by the Y. M. C. A. among the boys of the three counties.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith returned from Pontiac Tuesday afternoon, where they have been visiting several weeks.

Next Tuesday midnight the striking of the clocks will toll the death knell of the liquor traffic in Michigan, May 1st being the date on which the prohibition law goes into effect. The liquor interests of the state have a movement on foot to partially nullify this law by putting up an amendment at the next election allowing the sale of beer and light wines. The decisive majority for the prohibition amendment, however, makes it likely that any such scheme to defeat its purpose will be likewise defeated.

FROM EARL ST. MARTIN

Somewhere in France, March 19, 1918.

Dear Mother—
Just a few lines to let you know I am well, and hoping you are the same. Well, mamma, I got here all O. K. and like it real well. It is nice and warm here, the farmers have got all their stuff in and all up, and I suppose it is cold in Michigan. Well, mamma, we have got a good place and good officers, so what more do I want? Well, mamma, this is a nice country, but there is no place like home. We had a swell trip coming over. Tell grandpapa if I could talk French as good as him I would be all right, as the people here can't talk English at all, but we get through by talking with our hands.

How are all the folks? Tell them I am well and that I said Hello, and tell the fellows that are in the army from Tawas maybe I will see them when they come over here.

Well, mamma, there isn't much to write about, but write as often as you can and write as much as you please. From your loving son Earl.

ARBOR AND GARDEN DAY PROCLAMATION.

By the Governor.

Although Michigan has been largely denuded of her stately and magnificent forests of a former day, we still take high rank as a timber state; and a wise policy of reforestation will help to restore, in the years to come, what has been lost. Let us continue, too, the custom of observing Arbor Day by the planting of trees around our homes, our schools, our churches and in our streets and public parks.

Last year the people of the state were urged to plant gardens also, and the response to this appeal was so general that a huge crop of vegetables resulted. The need of garden products is even more urgent this year. Our soldiers in France must be fed, as must the armies of our Allies. Every pound of vegetables raised in a Michigan garden will release so much wheat for shipment abroad.

Let every family then plant a war garden. If you can't plant a big garden, try a little one; and take care of it.

There is another matter to which, at this time, I desire to call attention. Strong representations have been made to me that the High-bush Barberry (Berberis Vulgaris), with its purple-leaved variety, has become a dangerous nuisance, because it harbors and spreads the BLACK STEM RUST of wheat and other grains.

The annual loss from this rust amounts to millions of bushels of grain. The Japanese Barberry (Berberis Thunbergii), on the other hand, is declared to be quite harmless in this respect. Accordingly, I earnestly request that the aforesaid noxious shrub be dug up and destroyed, wherever it may exist throughout the state, and replaced by some innocuous variety of ornamental shrub.

Therefore, I, ALBERT E. SLEPPER, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby designate and set aside, Friday, May 3rd, 1918, as Arbor and Garden Day, in the hope that both the old and the young of our people may be impressed with the needs of the situation, and may be stimulated not only to plant trees, as has been our custom on Arbor Day, but to plant their garden plots, with potatoes and corn and beans and other nutritious vegetables; and I suggest that this day be marked also by the destruction of the High-bush Barberry.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State this eighteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-second.

(Seal) ALBERT E. SLEPPER,
Governor.

Coleman C. Vaughan,
Secretary of State.

STATE LEGISLATORS TO STAY OUT OF RACE

State Senator Duncan McRae of Greenbush will not be a candidate to succeed himself for the position in the coming campaign.

Mr. McRae has been in the senate since 1917 and his retirement will leave Alcona county without representation in the capital.

It is currently rumored that Representative McGillivray of Oscoda will also drop out of the race after having served one term. This could not be confirmed.

It is understood that Arenac and Ogemaw counties will furnish candidates for the vacant posts.—Alcona County Herald.

W. S. S.—BUY THEM!

TO THE PATRIOTIC CITIZENS OF IOSCO COUNTY.

The need for food conservation is constantly increasing. Any person who in any way wastes food or is not using their share of substitutes for wheat flour, or is hoarding sugar or flour, is giving aid to the enemy and is more of a slacker than one who is able and refuses to buy Liberty Bonds or subscribe to the Red Cross. Wheat we must have for our army and our allies, and the American people at home can (if they only think so) get along without it.

The food regulations have had to be adjusted to meet the changing conditions. Below find copy of the present regulations for householders, and I hope the people of the county will carry them out to the letter (or go them one better).

Respectfully yours,
J. G. Dimmick,
County Food Administrator.

Present Food Regulations for Household-ers Briefly Stated.

All householders who can entirely eliminate the use of wheat until the next harvest, about September 1st, should do so.

Householders who are obliged to use wheat should not use more than a total of 1½ pounds of wheat flour or prepared wheat, in any form, per person per week, including the wheat flour in Victory Bread, and including the wheat flour or prepared wheat in crackers, pastry, macaroni, breakfast and other foods.

In estimating flour consumption every 1½ pounds of Victory Bread, which is bread manufactured by bakers under the Regulations of the United States Food Administration, may be considered equal to 1 pound of wheat flour.

This rationing requires a more restricted use of wheat than that asked for by the observance of wheatless days and meals, which are no longer obligatory, but in practice it will be found that an even wider and more strict observance of wheatless days and meals will aid greatly in limiting the household consumption of wheat flour and other prepared wheat to 1½ pounds per person per week.

Meat of any kind may be eaten on any day in moderation until May 1st. In buying wheat flour an equal weight of other cereals as substitutes for wheat flour must be bought pound for pound. In buying graham, whole wheat or mixed flours the substitutes in them may be counted so that a smaller proportion of substitutes may be bought with these flours than with wheat flour. This is the 50-50 Rule.

Wheat flour substitutes are hominy, corn grits, cornmeal, corn flour, edible corn starch, barley flour, rolled oats, oatmeal, rice, rice flour, buckwheat flour, potato flour, sweet potato flour, soybean flour and feterita flour and meals.

Householders in towns and cities may not buy more than ½ of a barrel of flour at any one time. In no event shall any purchaser have more than 30 days supply on hand.

All kinds of food, especially wheat, meats, fats and sugar, should be economically used.

Grow and use local supplies; this saves transportation.

These regulations are necessarily subject to change at any time as the needs of the allies and our own needs demand.

Washington D. C., April 3, 1918.

FOLLETT FOR REPRESENTATIVE

It is reported that an organization is being perfected in the counties forming the Iosco legislative district having for its object the bringing before the people the name of Hon. E. B. Follett of Hale as candidate for representative in the state legislature at the fall election.

The proposed name for the organization is the Iosco District Legislative League, and its formation is being urged by men who are acquainted with Mr. Follett's record when he was in the legislature before and who wish to see a man of his sterling qualities and patriotic principles represent this district at Lansing next winter.

Mr. Follett is a farmer and a man of the people, and while in the legislature before he was on the job all the time and looking out for the best interests of all of his constituents and of the state at large. Should he be re-elected this fall his former experience would be of great assistance to him and would make him of even greater value to the district.

With an active organization like the proposed League to further his candidacy there is little doubt but that Mr. Follett will be successful in the coming primaries and election.

U. S. BOYS WORKING RESERVE.

C. P. Milham, County Director.

The aim of the U. S. Boys Working Reserve is to enroll from patriotic motives for service on the farm or other productive industry everybody from 16 to 20 inclusive.

The boy must first obtain the consent of his parent or guardian; must be free from communicable or other disease and possess no inherent weakness unfitting him for the rigors of his intended service; and must subscribe to the oath of service before the enrolling officer.

Upon enrollment the boy is presented with an enrollment button and certificate. The official badge bearing the National seal is awarded after the boy has rendered service to the Nation by actual work on the farm for a period of at least six weeks, and that he has proved his fitness for the particular occupation in which he is engaged. For it is intended that membership in the Reserve shall consist of only the capable and steadfast.

At present it is not intended to award membership to the boys who are engaged in cultivating vacant lots and gardens, but only to boys who are actually taking a man's place on the farm. Boys who are at present on the farm should enroll. They will not be changed from their present position, but will be given Federal recognition for the patriotic service they are rendering their country.

The following persons have been appointed enrolling Agents for townships and large centers. Burleigh, Burt Dunning; Whittemore, Chas. McLean; Reno, Fred Latter; Plainfield, Louis Nunn; Grant, John Burt; Sherman, George Schroeder; Alabaster, Travers Osterhout; Tawas, Waldo Curry; Baldwin, John Johnson; Wilber, Mrs. John Alda; Oscoda and Au Sable, Wm. McGillivray; Tawas City, Eugene Swem; East Tawas, Mary Stang; Hale, J. A. Bailey. These persons will be furnished with certificates and buttons.

The wage committee, composed of Jos. Dimmick, George Anschuetz and Malcolm McLeod, have set a minimum wage for inexperienced boys of $20 a month, and increased wages according to experience. For further information see the Enrolling Agents or C. P. Milham, Director.

To the Farmer.

This country knows that you will not allow an acre of land to remain idle if you can prevent it—not while your sons, nephews and cousins are facing the fire of battle and enduring hardships of war. Thousands of willing boys have raised their hands and sworn to aid our country by working for you. They are unskilled, but strong, and at an age to learn quickly. They are filled with a patriotic desire to do real work. Take them; teach them; use them. If the war lasts very long we shall depend upon these boys more and more. Train them now for next year.

To the Boys.

You are offering a great service to your country. The work will be hard, the hours long, vacation days few. But so are those of your older brothers in the trenches. You must help win the war. Learn quickly, and work patiently and hard. You can not carry rifles, but you can serve at home. Our farmers need your help to produce the food our soldiers and allies must have. No badge you can wear is more honorable than that which shows you have enlisted in the U. S. Boys Working Reserve. Can you find a more noble use for your summer vacation?

GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.

I feel it my duty as Governor of Michigan, to warn the people of the state against the tendency to take the law into their own hands, because of certain conditions in their own community life.

It is no time for mob rule to supersede the jurisdiction of regularly constituted authority. I fully appreciate conditions which have aroused some people to an opinion that they can only accomplish the desired results by taking the law into their own hands. There are courts and laws in the land, and citizens must allow them to handle matters affecting the peace and dignity of this State and Nation, rather than to attempt snap judgment. We must all exercise patience and remember that unless, in our practice, we follow the methods of government which we claim to be so dear to us, other peoples can hardly have the respect for us and our institutions which they should have.

If any citizen believes he has cause to complain of the conduct of any other citizen or inhabitant of his locality, the matter should at once be reported to the authorities, and left for them to deal with. I call upon all our people to make this time of stress a period of careful law observance. The authorities of each community and county must see to it that peace and good order prevail, and that the laws of the State are upheld.

ALBERT E. SLEPPER,
April 13, 1918. Governor.

After making several tiresome train rides we are of the opinion that the automobile and the airplane will gain the day.

BE KIND TO YOUR HORSE AND ALL DUMB CREATURES. IT SHOWS THE GENTLEMAN.

MacAndrew, the 4-minute man of the evening, gave an inspiring and interesting patriotic speech which was well applauded. At the suggestion of F. F. Mrs. J. F. Mark rendered a patriotic solo, "What Are You Going to do to Help the Boys?" and the program then closed with the singing of "America."

"SAVAGELAND."

All who went to "Savageland" last Wednesday evening enjoyed the trip and were well repaid for their journey. The play was given in the East Tawas opera house to a full house. The curtain rose on a chorus scene of girls in delightful summer costumes and with bright colored parasols, and young men in jaunty sporting suits. The chorus work was fine and showed credit to Mrs. R. H. Budworth's ability as a trainer.

The first scene was a summer hotel in the Catskills; the second a mountain in Savageland. The performers were well trained and the play well staged through the expert drilling and direction of S. A. Wood. Roy LaBerge as "Heinz," a Dutch character, Earl McElherson as "Birdie, the Irish Cinderella," and Irene Marontate as "Daffodil Doty," showed their talent for comedy, and it was remarked professionals could do no better.

Lawrence Gardner as Sherlock Combs, Miss Swanson as a Quaker maid, Caius Gordon in the part of Mr. Clay, and Rudolph Appin, a cowboy from Savageland, rendered their parts admirably and showed by their natural, easy and unaffected manner their ability and natural talent for the stage.

The costumes and scenery were some of the best ever shown on the East Tawas stage. The Indian tableau scene with Roy Appin as the Indian chief, Indian maiden, and Mrs. R. H. Budworth in an Indian love song is well worth mentioning, making one of the most beautiful scenes of the whole performance. Altogether the play was, in my opinion, one of the best ever put on by home talent in East Tawas.

Specialties were music by Miss Mary Gardner, piano, Miss Dorothy King and Edward King, violinists, and a vocal solo by Mrs. R. H. Budworth.

The proceeds were divided between the East Tawas high school senior class and the athletic association.

The senior play, "The Call to the Colors," a stirring patriotic production, is the next home talent to be given early in June, or the latter part of May.

Four minute talks were given by C. A. Pinkerton and Mr. Prettyman, secretary of the Tri-County Y. M. C. A. work. Mr. Pinkerton in his address thanked the people of East Tawas for their loyal support during the Third Liberty Loan campaign, and urged them during the closing days of the campaign to give all they possibly could. He said although Iosco county has gone "over the top," we should put forth every effort to double our quota or more.

Mr. Pinkerton closed with reminding the people that if we should lose the war we would lose everything put into Y. M. C. A. and K. C. war work and everything put into the Red Cross and Liberty Loan. He said the people of America should go so far "over the top" in this Liberty Loan drive that they have no chance to win in this war.

Tawas City, Mich., April 26, 1918

--- This paper has enlisted with the government in the cause of America for the period of the war --- 1776-1918.

The descendants of the patriots of Washington and Paul Jones are fighting once again side by side with the descendants of the patriots of Lafayette and Rochambeau. The time and opportunity have come for a nation to pay a great debt of gratitude for service rendered in great national need, and America is paying France the debt she long has owed.

In the Revolutionary War for the freedom of America the French fought on American soil under the command of an American. Today in the war for the freedom of France and for the preservation of liberty to America, and indeed to all the world, Americans fight on French soil under the supreme command of a Frenchman. The honors are even and the honors are great. No true American who knows the history of his country and loves the honor of his country but thrills at the thought of the American army in France. The noble Americans will turn the tide of war; they will bring to France and her allies a victory for liberty such as France assisted us to win, and repay with interest a debt to liberty and to France long owing and honorably acknowledged.

LEND - NOT SPEND - YOUR MONEY.

If you lend your money to the Government, you may be quite sure that it is going to be used for some national purpose—to prosecute the war successfully, to care for, equip, arm, and supply our soldiers in France, to be used by our navy in riding the seas of the murderous U. S. boats.

But if you spend your money even with the belief that by putting it into the channels of trade others into whose hands it comes will lend it to the Government, you will have done something the patriotism of which may be very questionable.

First, you have withdrawn from the supply of material of the Nation some thing to replace which in the market will require labor and material which should be devoted to war purposes.

Second, the person to whom you pay your money may also use it to purchase things requiring material and labor which should be devoted to war purposes. And the person to whom he pays it may repeat the operation.

But when you lend your money to the Government instead of spending it, you will at once lessen the drain to a certain extent on our country's resources, its material, its labor, and its transportation facilities, and in addition you supply your Government with money to be used in winning the war.

Every purchase of a Liberty Loan Bond is an individual act toward bringing victory to America and her allies.

PLANS FURLONGHS TO HELP FARM WORK.

For the purpose of augmenting agricultural production it is the intention of the War Department to grant furloughs to enlisted men to enable them to engage in farming during the present season. Commanding officers may grant such furloughs within prescribed rules whenever it appears they will contribute to increased farm production.

Furloughs may be given by commanding officers of posts, camps, cantonments, divisions and departments. They will be for short periods, largely for seeding and harvesting time. They will not be granted to enlisted men of or above the grade of first sergeant, nor in an organization that has been ordered to move or is in transit from points of mobilization or training to a port of embarkation. All furloughs granted will be recalled and the men ordered to their organizations when they have received preparatory orders for duty overseas.

Furloughs granted for farm work will be without pay and allowances, except that enough pay will be retained in each case to meet allotments in force on the day of the order, war-risk insurance and pledges on Liberty Bonds.

For specially qualified experts in agriculture furloughs may be granted by the Secretary of War upon application by the Secretary of Agriculture, providing such furloughs are voluntarily accepted by the persons for whom application is made.

Individual applications for furloughs submitted by relatives will be on a form to be furnished by local draft boards. Two sections are to be made out and presented to the local board, which will complete the form.

If the furlough is granted the application will be filed by the commanding officer and a certificate furnished the soldier. If not granted the application will be returned with reasons for disapproval.

If the soldier initiated the application he will give the name of the person for whom he desires to work, from whom will be ascertained the need for farm service.

Furloughs may be granted en bloc to men who are willing to accept them, upon requests of farmers, when time consumed in traveling from the post to the place of labor will not exceed 24 hours. In making these applications farmers will use a form of the Provost Marshal General's office, also going to the local board.

A SPRING CLEAN-UP DAY—ITS VALUE IN ELIMINATING FLIES

By A Village Health Officer.
Since my work is confined to a small town and the surrounding country, I shall speak of conditions common in small towns. These conditions may be better or worse, according to the inhabitants; according to whether they are intelligent and progressive, or whether they are ignorant of the common rules of sanitation, and blind to their own best interest in regard to health. We will consider the average small village.

During the long winter, there is always an accumulation of filth and debris. Many villagers keep cows, horses, pigs and chickens. Manure is thrown out of the stables into yards or alleys; pig pens become filled with filth and remnants of food, while about the chicken yards there are usually cobs and litter from winter feeding. There are also the outdoor closets which are the bane of the small village. Back of restaurants and boarding houses, and often of private residences, there is a heap of tin cans, broken dishes, and very often refuse from cellars, such as frozen or decayed vegetables and fruit. Wood and coal waste makes an unsightly appearance.

As soon as the snow disappears there should be a thorough cleaning up of all premises, both for the sake of appearance, and because filth affords a fine breeding place for flies. It is of course the duty of the health officer to notify people to clean up, but it is to the interest of all those who wish to see the town a more beautiful and healthful place in which to live, to co-operate in carrying out the plan decided upon. Where there is a club or society for civic improvement, the members will always do all possible to make any plan successful. School children can be interested, and if given a day off will give practical assistance in cleaning up the town.

A certain day should be set, and as much enthusiasm created as possible, so that every one will work heartily and effectively. The fame of a healthful and beautiful town goes abroad and not only more people, but a better class of people choose to live there.

Not only should yards but adjacent streets and alleys be cleaned thoroughly. Tin cans, broken dishes, bottles and other like refuse should be thrown into barrels, while spoiled fruit, vegetables, etc., should be put into other receptacles, and all these placed into a convenient place for collection. Litter from pig-pens, hen-coops and cow or horse barns should either be spread on the garden to be plowed in, or carted away out of town. Waste from wood and coal may be raked up and burned.

It is usually impracticable to hire teams to remove the collected refuse, but usually those who live in the town and own teams will donate the use of them and their work if a certain time is set for all to be ready, and in the proper shape. Farmers are glad to get manure for fertilizer, and will draw it away if notified that they may have it.

The removal of manure piles destroys one of the chief, if not the chief, breeding places for flies. If it is done early enough the eggs will not have hatched. The removal of food waste also eliminates another fly breeding source. Manure which accumulates during the summer should either be screened to keep flies out, or treated with a disinfectant to destroy fly larvae. Out-door closets should be cleaned, the refuse buried, then the summer accumulation kept covered with wood ashes or chloride of lime. Food remains should be kept in covered receptacles until buried. Tin cans and dishes containing small fragments of food should be buried at once.

Dish water, wash water and slops should not be thrown in one spot continually, but in different places or where it will drain off rapidly. Careful attention to each of these small matters will go a long way toward the elimination of flies.—Public Health.

WASTAGE OF FOOD IS COSTLY IN MICHIGAN.

East Lansing, Mich., April 22.—An intimation that a vast wastage of food is occurring annually in Michigan through the failure of citizens to make greater use of skim milk and cottage cheese is contained in the plea of Dr. Mary E. Anderson of the M. A. C. for a more general consumption of these products.

"On January 1, 1918, we had in Michigan 874,000 dairy cows, producing over 350,000,000 gallons of milk annually," declares Dr. Anderson, whom the extension department of the college is employing for the purpose of encouraging the wider consumption of dairy products, "and from this, according to our latest reports, at least 85,000,000 pounds of butter was made—giving us as a by-product to be disposed of more than one and one-half billion pounds of skim milk."

"If made into cottage cheese this skim milk would supply us with 225,000,000 pounds of food for humans—practically the same food value as meat. At the same time this is equivalent to 225,000 head of cattle weighing 1000 pounds each.

"The question we have to decide is whether we can allow this wastage of food to continue."

STAND BY OUR FIGHTING MEN.
From hundreds and thousands of American farms, in answer to the call of their country and in obedience to the law of their country, American boys have gone and are today fighting side by side with hundreds of thousands of American boys from the cities and towns of the country, confronting danger and death.

The duty of us who remain at home in safety to afford the means to make these boys powerful and victorious is a most imperative one.

GLASS FOUND IN FOOD BUT ONE CASE OUT OF 200 INVESTIGATED.

The frequent and widespread publication of statements concerning the presence of ground glass in foodstuffs has led the Committee on Public Information to inquire into the authenticity of these reports. It has been advised by the Food Administration that thorough investigations of more than 200 of the cases has disclosed only one instance in which ground glass was found in the foodstuffs inspected.

The case in which glass was found occurred at Fort Smith, Ark. A baker in that town had had trouble with his employes, one of whom, desiring to destroy his employer's business, had filled with glass a loaf of bread which was to be delivered to an orphanage. When the bread was served to the inmates of the institution several of them suffered lacerations of their lips. No more serious injuries resulted.

Needed Two of Them.
Mary Ellen had a new baby brother, and it was her delight to sit in her little red rocker and hold baby brother in her arms. Aunt Amy was visiting them one day, and Mary Ellen, coming in from play, found her holding baby brother. She stood watching her aunt with longing eyes for several minutes, then, turning to her mother, she said: "I wish brother was twins."

True Friendship.
It is only the great-hearted who can be true friends. The mean and cowardly can never know what true friendship means.—Kingsley.
