A bulletin entitled: "Home Canning and Drying of Vegetables and Fruits," published by the National War Garden Commission, Maryland building, Washington, D. C., has recently been received at the office of the Forest Supervisor. Additional free copies can be obtained by writing to the National War Garden Commission, or through the Forest Supervisor.

A Bay City merchant, born in Germany, said with a good deal of fervor: "Any person from a foreign country who has lived in America five years, enjoyed its freedom and its institutions, and is not loyal to the American flag, lacks brain power enough to appreciate the benefits he is enjoying. There is certainly something wrong with his head."—Bay City Times-Tribune.

Mrs. Pauline Wank, wife of Ewald Wank, died at her home in this city on Wednesday, April 26, of old age and its consequent diseases. Mrs. Wank was born in Germany Oct. 20, 1842, and was therefore 75 years, six months and six days old at the time of her death. The funeral was held on Friday, April 28, and the remains were laid to rest in the German Lutheran cemetery on the Plank road.

Early this week mischievous boys damaged the flower beds at the school house in this city and destroyed many plants which were almost ready to bloom. The principal damage was to a tulip bed which Janitor Davis had tended with care and in which the flowers were almost out. Mr. Davis had offered reward of $1 for the detection of the culprits, but not yet discovered them. If found they should be suitably punished for such wilful depredations.

LONDO—LECLAIR.

Mabel L. Londo, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Londo, was united in marriage with Claude LeClair of Hale, Wednesday, April 24th, by Rev. R. S. Howarth of East Tawas. Marie Londo, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Elbert Self of Hale acted as best man. The color scheme was yellow and white. The bride wore a gown of white satin and georgette crepe, and the bridesmaid a yellow crepe de chine.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride to the near relatives, after which all returned to Hale, where a supper was given at the home of the groom.

In the evening a reception was given at the Gleaner hall of Hale, where about 200 guests were present.

The bride was a graduate of Iosco County Normal in 1915, and has taught three successful years, and the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

Their many friends unite in wishing Mr. and Mrs. LeClair a long and happy wedded life.

A SPLENDID MEETING.

The court house was again crowded to the standing room limit last Monday evening to hear an address by Cosswald James Ernest Wigel of the United States navy, who has seen much service, some of it with the troops on the European front.

L. J. Patterson acted as chairman of the meeting, and after the singing of "America" by the audience he introduced Judge Albert Widdis, who spoke for a few minutes on the reasons why we are at war. In a concise manner he brought out the psychological and economical reasons leading up to the war and impressed upon the audience the necessity for every one to bend their energies to bringing the war to a successful conclusion in order that our liberties might be preserved.

The chairman then introduced Coxswain Wigel, who in a quiet and unassuming manner related a number of his experiences during the present conflict. He was on the oil tank steamer Susquehanna when she was torpedoed in sight of the French coast and escaped by clinging to a chicken coop. He mentioned, however, that before the ship went down her guns registered three hits on the submarine, and stated that then "the devil had a few more boarders."

Mr. Wigel was for some two or three weeks in the trenches and participated in some hard fighting when the Allied troops "went over the top." He was an eye witness to some of the horrible barbarities which were practiced by the German troops on their captives and on the innocent citizens of the country. In one case he saw a baby about two years old hung on a butcher's hook while still alive; saw a man who had been torn limb from limb by a team of horses; saw women mutilated in the most horrible manner; and other atrocities which are almost unbelievable.

Mr. Wigel also gave his hearers some idea of the life in the navy service, for which he is on a recruiting tour, and told how necessary it is that men for this service be secured in order that the ships may transport our soldiers and their supplies to Europe.

At the present time the naval service is very important, and there is a chance for any man from 18 to 44 years of age to render valiant service to his country by enlisting therein.

After the conclusion of Mr. Wigel's address Mr. Patterson, as chairman of the Iosco County Liberty Loan committee took the occasion to present to the city of Tawas City the honor flag to which it was entitled. The flag was accepted in behalf of the city by Mayor Myles in a few well chosen words, and now files from the staff on the city hall. There is an extra star on the flag denoting that Tawas City has over-subscribed her quota 100% and we are informed by Mr. Patterson that the 200% over-subscription has been later reached and another star will be added as soon as received from headquarters.

AN EXCELLENT RECORD.

The many friends of Miss Tirzah Roberts in this city will be glad to learn of the excellent record she has made during the last year, her final year at Wilson college, Chambersburg, Pa.

At the close of 1917 she was chosen to represent the Y. W. C. A. at the Northfield conference, after returning from which she became a student volunteer for foreign service as soon as old enough, and secured a number of other girl volunteers.

During the first semester of the present year she was given AA, the highest standing. Two weeks ago she won the literary society essay prize and was accordingly chosen to represent Wilson college in the Inter-Society contest between Goucher, Hood, Gettysburg and Wilson colleges. In this contest she was also the winner, her subject being "The Policies and Aims of the United States in the Present War."

Miss Roberts will finish her college course and receive her degree in about six weeks.

FROM GEORGE SOMMERFELD.

Camp Custer, April 18, 1918.

Dear Parents and All:

Just a few lines to let you know that I am feeling fine and dandy. We get all that we want to eat and most anything that you want, and the best of care.

I cannot see what some people are kicking about. I always thought that I would like a soldier's life and I guessed it right. We get exercises and drilling every day and that is just what a man wants and needs.

I saw Ralph Markel from Munger the other day. He has been here since last fall and is looking fine. He expects to cross the pond soon.

My address at present is George M. Sommerfeld, 23rd Co., 6th Batt., 160th Depot Brigade, Camp Custer, Mich.

Don't write until you hear from me again. Good bye. From your son, George.

THE TRI-COUNTY YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

By O. G. Prettyman.

The purpose of the rural Young Men's Christian Association is identical to that of other organizations that are engaged in the extension of the Kingdom of Christ among the young men. The Young Men's Christian Association is composed of boys and men in any community who participate in its activities or in its opportunities for service. The association is a local institution, like the school or church. It sends its roots down into the community soil and thrives in the environments of the county. The State and County Committee guides and supervises, but the success of an association is always what the people of the community make it. The slogan of the association is: "No work undertaken without adequate leaders." A leader is a man or older boy who, under the guidance of the association and the committee, undertakes a definite service with the men or boys of the community.

The Young Men's Christian Association seeks to unite men on a common platform of community service rather than to establish a new institution. It recognizes the home, church, and the school as the primary institutions of society, and endeavors to aid these fundamental institutions. "If it can persuade the right type of a man to lead a class of boys in a Sunday School, or procure a leader to supervise the play and athletics of a school, or a farmer to give his boy or some other boy a man's chance, it has made a contribution to the community life, and the leaders of the association are as well satisfied as they would be if a new institution were established." I feel in this we have a federation not for the purpose of adjustment, but for service.

The Young Men's Christian Association recognizes the co-operative service for those young men and boys of a community who desire the best personal homes and community life for themselves and others—the life exemplified by Jesus Christ. Efficiency of every such association depends largely upon close supervision of trained leaders. In large centers of population such supervision can generally be provided without serious difficulty. To secure equal efficient supervision for similar work in communities of smaller size—towns, villages and rural districts—is a problem, but there are a few Christian laymen, a small group of eager workers in nearly every community. The secret of the successful organization lies in the combining the available resources of the locality in a number of communities located within a reasonably accessible range of territory.

With a county as a unit, and in this particular territory three counties, the County Work combines the group of workers into the association brotherhood. It combines the resources into a common fund, and unites the strongest Christian laymen into an efficient administrative committee, capable of commanding the support of all good citizens for a county wide work. The thing that we will need most in this Tri-county work here is young men of strong, noble character, who are willing to volunteer their services to the Y. M. C. A. of their community, wherein lies the secret of community success and organization. It is the development of the material already at hand in the community in which we live that makes our community its own little Garden of Eden.

Just how much work we will be able to accomplish this summer will depend largely upon how fast we are able to get acquainted over the counties and just how much the United States Government will ask us to put in with the boys' work reserve. Our summer work, however, consists of clubs of different natures, namely—norm, garden and canning clubs—conducted in connection with the State Department of Agriculture. But arriving here late on the field, this may be impracticable this season.

FROM LIEUT. F. H. MARSH.

France, 3-26-18.

Dear Mother—

A few lines to find out how you are and if your health is good. Hope it is, and that you are enjoying life.

We are well and getting along nicely. We have a good camp site here and are quartered in tents. The weather is beautiful in the day time but cold nights. Wild flowers are beginning to bloom.

The forests are mostly oak, beech and some jack pines, and they are well taken care of, only certain trees are we allowed to cut. They are marked by the French foresters. The brush is in demand. Women from the towns come out with carts and haul it home. People live so queer here. All have stone walls around their houses, with big iron gates that they keep locked at all times. I haven't seen a cow since I've been here, only a few goats. Occasionally a farmer's wife comes along with eggs and butter, the latter smells just like a goat, and I don't take any chances on it. Although the eggs are good, we get only a few. The French have a fondness for snails, and serve them in the restaurants, but I haven't eaten any so far. One sees a lot of aeroplanes around here every day, but they are a long way from the front.

It's getting near bedtime, and as I have put in a hard day, will close with love.

Love to all the family.

Yours,

Lieut. F. H. Marsh.

BE KIND TO YOUR HORSE AND ALL DUMB CREATURES. IT SHOWS THE GENTLEMAN. adv

FROM MISSES APPLIN AND COOPER.

Detroit, Mich., 4-30-18.

Dear Readers:

We arrived safely in Detroit, but found disagreeable weather awaiting us. We had a delightful trip, although the beginning of our trip was rather exciting. The first experience one of the soldiers missed the train, and the train was stopped. As soon as the soldier boarded it, and the train had started, a great fuss was raised because one of the volunteer nurses had been left. Again the train was stopped and the company were safely on their way. While on the way to Bay City, at the instigation of Mrs. H. T. Thomas an impromptu program was arranged for the soldiers. Arbutus was purchased at some of the stops, and Mrs. Thomas and three East Tawas young ladies proceeded to make up bouquets for the 47 soldiers on board. Following is the program given by the party taking positions at the center of the car:

Distribution of Bouquets

Introductory Talk.....Mrs. Thomas

Vocal Solo—"What are you going to do to help the boys".....

.....Miss Helen Applin

Recitation—"The Little Black-eyed Rebel".....Miss Bernice Randolph

Song—"Raus Mit the Kaiser".....Misses Eva Cooper and Helen Applin.

"America".....By All

The program was enjoyed immensely by the soldiers, judging from their hearty applause, and all joined in the singing of "America," reverently standing with bowed heads.

At Bay City the boys were met by soldiers in khaki uniforms, with rifles, who escorted them to the Michigan Central depot, to the music of a Bay City band.

We boarded the train for Detroit. On the train we visited with a very well read man, a superintendent of schools of Saginaw, and had an interesting discussion on war topics. We spent some time studying French, and met a student in French who assisted us greatly. We are anxious to get started in the work and are sure we will find it very interesting, although we are not undertaking the work for the interesting things in it, but because of the great need. We have been told that we are the first volunteers of Iosco county for Red Cross training in the nursing service, and our call is to the girls and women of Iosco county. So many of our boys here should be excused that because of certain circumstances we cannot go? Let's have no slackers in Iosco county among the girls. The boys need our help. Get into the service, girls, and help to save the lives of the boys of Iosco county.

Miss Helen M. Applin.

Miss Eva Cooper.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS.

C. P. Milham.

Court House, Tawas City, mornings from 8 to 9 o'clock, and all day Saturday. Phone 28-P-21.

Order seed corn now, supply is limited.

More boys have gone to camp. Let us back them up. If they are not fed they cannot fight. Farmers who want boys to help on farms this summer, send application to Enrolling Officers or County Agent. Boys wishing to help should enroll and help back the boys who are protecting us.

Little things count. Treat potatoes for scab and black scurf. It will pay.

County Agent will be in Saginaw May 7th to 10th, attending District Conference of County Agents.

LAILDWILLE DEFEATS EAST TAWAS.

Last Sunday the Laidlawville baseball team defeated the East Tawas team by a score of 3 to 2 in a seven inning game. The game was called in the last half of the seventh, with Laidlawville up to bat, two men on base and no one out.

Applin of East Tawas got a two base hit to right field and A. Kobs of the Laidlawville team a two base hit to left field, which were the only good hits made and which gave the fielders something to do.

This is the first game the Laidlawville team has played. Following is the score by innings:

1 2 3 4 5 6 7-8

E. Tawas.....0 0 0 0 0 2 0-2

Lad'ville.....0 1 0 0 2 0-3

Batteries—Hadwin-Buchholz. Applin-Burnside. Runs—A. Kobs, Anshuetz, Hadwin, Woizeschke, Applin, Struck out—By Burnside, 7; by Buchholz, 10.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

May 5th, 6:30 p. m.

Topic, "Christian Duty and Privilege." Conduct in the Home and School." Leader, Stella McCordell.

Remember that this is consecration Sunday, and every member is earnestly requested to be present. Everyone will be made to feel at home. This is YOUR C. E., and it is your duty and privilege to help to make it worth while.

NOTICE TO THE PEOPLE OF TAWAS CITY.

I have received an order from the Food Administrator to instruct the Marshal to see that the law is enforced in regard to people keeping chickens and livestock from running at large. He states there was a lot of damage done by chickens last year, and in order to conserve the garden products this action is necessary.

JNO. A. MYLES, Mayor.

EAST TAWAS DEPARTMENT

Devoted to the General and Personal News of the Week From Our Neighboring City on the East

Duncan Boomer left for Flint Wednesday where he has secured employment.

Mrs. Thomas Borland is a visitor at the home of Mrs. Emma Lomas this week.

Mr. Wesley Sims of St. Paul, was in the city this week to attend the funeral of his brother Allen.

Miss Selma Hogstrom of Detroit arrived home Monday at midnight. She was called here by the serious illness of her father.

Mr. Robert Copeland and little son were in the city the fore part of the week, called here by the death of his nephew, Allen Sims.

Mrs. George Rippey and two children of Ellis, Kan., who has been visiting relatives in the Tawas for the past month, left for her home on Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Goodrich went to Saginaw Wednesday morning where Dr. Goodrich will address the northern Archdiocese on the subject of loyalty to the church.

Miss Ruth Oliver returned Tuesday night from Bad Axe, where she accompanied the remains of her grandmother for burial. She will return to Bad Axe shortly to spend the summer with relatives.

James E. Dillon went to Saginaw Wednesday to attend a meeting of the chairmen and secretaries of the Michigan Red Cross. The meeting was called to discuss plans for the coming Red Cross drive.

Miss Helen Applin and Miss Eva Cooper left Tuesday morning for Detroit to take up their training as Red Cross nurses. Miss Applin came near not going at the last minute, but the train kindly stopped for her near the trestle.

The complimentary recital which was to have been given by Miss Grace Richards before the members and friends of the Monday Musical club, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Jackson, has been postponed indefinitely owing to the nervous breakdown of Miss Richards.

Word has been received here of the death of Albert Andrus at Stanwood, Mich. death being caused by a nervous breakdown. Mr. Andrus was manager of the Tawas telephone exchange for the past six years, and had a wide acquaintance among the people of the Tawas and vicinity. He leaves a wife and two little daughters to mourn the loss of an indulgent and loving husband and father. Burial was from the home of his aged mother in Stanwood.

Last Friday evening a large number of friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Applin to surprise Miss Helen Applin and to show their friendship and good will before she left for her hospital training in Detroit. Music and games were enjoyed, and light refreshments were served. Rev. McAndrew, in behalf of the members of the Presbyterian church, presented Miss Applin with a beautiful pearl set brooch. All the different branches of activity of the Presbyterian church will surely miss Miss Applin, as she was prominent in the Ladies' Aid, Sunday school and Christian Endeavor, as well as attending to the music for the regular services.

DEATH OF GEORGE ALLEN SIMS.

George Allen Sims died in St. Paul, Minn. April 25, after a short illness of pneumonia, followed by spinal meningitis.

Mr. Sims was born in East Tawas in 1881, and at the age of eight years removed to a farm in Wilber, where the mother of the deceased still resides.

Fifteen years ago he went to St. Paul where he was employed by the Omaha and St. Paul R. R., being at the time of his death a conductor.

April 16, 1905 he was united in marriage to Miss Mabel Corner of this city, they having celebrated their thirteenth wedding anniversary but nine days before his death, which came as a great shock to the family as no fears were entertained until a few hours before the end came.

As boy and man, he led a most exemplary life, enjoying the honor and esteem of all his many acquaintances. His death occurred on the first anniversary of the death of his father, the late George Sims.

CAN'T BUY IT NOW.

You can't buy Babbitt's soap now, a few years ago sold by every dealer, large and small. The reason is the company stopped advertising and lost the value of name which had been estimated by advertising men to be worth more than a million dollars. This kitchen and laundry soap, by advertising, had almost driven competition from the field. The manufacturers, with a plant big for those days, were pressed to turn it out fast enough. It was demanded by patrons of the cross road store and the big city department stores. Housewives would accept no other.

"We are so well known and our product is in such demand it is not necessary for us to advertise any more. We might better add to our profits the money we pay newspapers and advertising agents," the officers of the company decided. They cut off that "useless" expenditure of money.

About this time, in a matter of court litigation, advertising men testified "Babbitt's soap" had been so extensively advertised that the two words, they estimated, had an actual cash value of more than a million dollars. In other words, that it would be worth that much to a rival manufacturer to secure the right to use the name "Babbitt's soap."

The company persisted in its non-advertising policy. Younger men in the soap business with "new fangled ideas," fellows fresh from college were fighting for soap profits. They launched a big advertising campaign as soon as the Babbitt firm stopped theirs. There were several rival campaigns. All showed increased business. The old soap which so many housewives had demanded gradually lost its hold. The demand decreased in proportion to the length of time Babbitt was not heralded to the public, and the advertising done by the newer firms. At first slowly, but afterwards rapidly, the demand decreased. Dealers stocked with the new soaps, and finally the company which once had dominated the field as Ford does his today, found no market for its product.

Advertising money had been "saved," but there was no company to bank the savings. Merchants of Tawas City can draw their own deductions from the experience of Babbitt's soap.

Moved by Rouillier and supported by Bowen, that report of Committee on Claims and Accounts be accepted and adopted and bills allowed as read. Motion carried.

Yea—Rouillier, Preston, Miller, Grueber, Bowen, Nays—None.

On motion council then adjourned. JNO. A. MYLES, Mayor. JAS. E. BALLARD, City Clerk.

NOTICE.

As Postmaster of this community, I am authorized to accept applicants for enlistment in the U. S. Marine Corps. I am prepared to furnish information to patriotic young Americans about our military service. Applicants accepted at this office have their transportation furnished to a Marine Corps recruiting station by the Government; and from there on to the training stations. No money is needed, as the Government pays the necessary expenses from the start.

Registered men will be accepted provided they have a certificate from their Board to the effect that they are not needed to fill the current quota of the Board, and that they have the permission of the Board to enlist in the Marine Corps. The certificate should give order and serial numbers. If you are 21 by June 5th, next, you may be eligible for the selective draft. Now's the time to choose your service. LEN J. PATTERSON, Postmaster.

Letter From Mr. and Mrs. Pierce. Benzonia, April 16, 1918. Mr. Frockins: Dear Friend—You can tell every one that we arrived on schedule time, pulled into our place at about 5 p. m. Monday, eight days on the road. We stopped the first night at a Mr. Smith's, six miles from West Branch; the second night we spent in our wagon between the sand hills west of West Branch. My colt got scared at the cars in West Branch and broke my buggy pole and held us up about two hours there. The third night was again spent in our wagon near Houghton lake, alongside of some buildings. The fourth night we spent near buildings in Missaukee county, in our wagon. The fifth night on top of a hill in the wagon, west of Morey, Missaukee county. The sixth night in our wagon, in an exceptionally nice camping ground, where there was a cook stove for our convenience, and we dressed and cooked a chicken. The seventh night we stopped at the corner of four counties in a school house yard, and the eighth night we spent in our own house. The principal towns we passed through were West Branch, Houghton and Houghton Heights, Cateheon, Morey, Manton, Sherman, Wexford, Nesson City and Thompsonville. We are all feeling well, and the baby grew fatter every day we were on the road. From Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, Benzonia, Mich., R. 1.

P. S.—We found exceptionally good and accommodating people all along the road. Our expenses for the trip were about twenty dollars.

Thomas Wood, Sr., Summoned.

One of Sherman township's early settlers has been called to receive the reward of his long, well-spent life in the person of Thomas Wood, sr.

He had been in poor health for the past couple of years, and death came as a relief to his long suffering Monday evening about 6:30.

Thomas Wood was born in Hull, England, Feb. 28, 1837; his age was 81 years, 2 months and 1 day. In his early days he was a sailor on the salt water seas and spent twenty-one years of his life on the water, and has no doubt been in every country on the globe. He was married to Mary Martin July 2, 1862, at Stable Bridge, England, and to this union seven children were born. Henry, who preceded his father to his final resting place about two years; Charlie, who is exploring in Alaska; Mrs. Nelson Brabant and Joe of Flint; John Thomas, jr., and Miss Alice, who are at home.

Mr. Wood came to this country in 1868 and located at Alabaster. The next year he moved to Sherman and took up a homestead and made this his home since that time.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning at St. Joseph's church, East Tawas, Rev. Albin officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery beside his wife, who preceded him in death about 18 years ago.

His relatives have the sympathy of the entire community during their sad hours of bereavement. May his soul rest in peace.

The young people in the neighborhood spent a pleasant evening with games and music at Mr. and Mrs. John Anschuetz' Tuesday.

While in Tawas City writing on the teachers' examination during the week end, Miss Hannah Kobs visited her sister, Mrs. C. E. Moeller.

There was a meeting held at the school Thursday evening for the purpose of enrolling boys from 16 to 20, inclusive, in the U. S. Boys Working Reserve.

PAUL COBB JOINS MARINES.

Cleveland, O., April 29.—Paul Cobb, brother of Ty Cobb, the sensational Detroit outfielder, and at one time a big league ball player himself, has enlisted in the United States Marine Corps here, and is now on his way to the Marine training camp at Paris Island, S. C.

Young Cobb was given a trial with the Detroit club several years ago, but was finally turned over to the Cleveland club of the Western League. His light batting was responsible for his exit from the big tent.

Cobb makes the third ball player of note to join the Marines, Dots Miller, captain of the St. Louis Cardinals, and Nig Clarke, Cleveland catcher, being already at Paris Island.

High Value—Low Cost

As people demand more of themselves, their time and their money, the value of this Model 90 looms larger and larger.

The upholstery is deep, and the tires are large, non-skid rear.

It gives all the five essentials for complete satisfaction.

No matter where you drive, expert Overland service is always available and is a vitally important advantage in owning a Model 90.

Its never-give-up performance makes it as efficient as it is convenient.

Its price is remarkably low in proportion to the value you get; the value of quality materials, the value of room, beauty, and modern improvements, including Auto-Lite starting and lighting and vacuum fuel system!

The powerful sweet-running motor squeezes every bit of power from every drop of gasoline.

Busy men and women crowd more work into a day with less fatigue with this efficient, time-saving and health-building car.

Its appearance and comfort leave nothing to be desired. It has buoyant cantilever rear springs, easy-riding 106-inch wheel base, spacious interior and wide seats.
