Several hundred women have registered in Iosco county for war service since the registration began May 13.

It is reported that there are some food slackers in this county who are making a practice of feeding their substitutes to the stock or chickens, or disposing of it in other ways, and using only the wheat flour. Anyone knowing of such methods being followed should report same at once to Food Administrator (Dimmick, who will see that he proper steps are taken to bring the slacker to time.

Anyone who does not use the substitutes in the manner they are meant to be used and uses the wheat instead is the worst kind of slacker and should be not only punished for their dereliction, but should be ostracized by their patriotic friends and neighbors.

OPUS CLUB REUNION.

Ten members of the "Opus Club" an organization which flourished here something over a decade ago, were delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Edyth Walker, last Saturday evening.

The decorations were in white and green and were very tastefully arranged. The guests, with more or less effort, assumed juvenile costumes and manners, for the evening. A typical Opus Club program was given, each number much appreciated.

Delicious refreshments were served concluding a very enjoyable evening.

The following ten of the original eighteen members were present: Miss Eda Redhead Bing, Miss Effie Graham, Mrs. Elsie Mount Harting, Mrs. Grace Redhead Hartley, Mrs. Nell Brabant Robinson, Mrs. Lidia Patterson Stickney, Mrs. Margaret Murphy Smith, Miss Mary Waterbury, Miss Edyth Walker, Mrs. Braddock.

Many Junior Red Cross organizations are being formed in this county, under the supervision of teachers and others. We expect much of them.

Uncle Sam needs money. If every child of school age in this county owned a "War Savings Stamp," the United States Treasury would be nearly $18,000 richer. We can bring this about if we get busy.

Many schools have an excellent record now. We can all do something to help the cause of Democracy and at the same time assist ourselves.

HOLD YOUR LIBERTY BONDS!

The American who buys a Liberty Bond and forthwith sells it has performed only half a service for his country. To buy bonds and then sell them immediately tends to make the war burden of the country heavier instead of lighter, as it decreases the market value of the bonds.

Liberty Bonds are the safest and soundest and one of the best investments in the world. To sell them unless imperatively required is not good business, is not good Americanism.

JULY 8th PATRIOTIC DAY

Rallies to be Held in Every School District in Connection With School Election Day.

Monday, July 8th, election day for school trustees, every school district in Iosco County will be the scene of a big patriotic rally, to be held simultaneously with similar rallies in every school district of Michigan.

There are 8,500 districts and the events will constitute the greatest patriotic demonstration ever held in any state of the Union.

Fred L. Keeler, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, evolved the plan, and he and William A. Comstock, Chairman of the Educational Committee, are cooperating with the County War Boards of each county in arranging for these meetings.

Superintendent Keeler's idea is to give the people of the rural communities an opportunity to attend a patriotic demonstration in their home districts, and at the same time give their whole state rallies to further spur the citizens of Michigan to still greater efforts in helping America's armies across the sea win the great war.

The date of the annual school elections was chosen because on that day the farmers can combine their duties of citizenship with a display of patriotism without added loss of time, so valuable at that time of the year in the production of foodstuffs, which are as necessary as men and guns and ships.

In addition to the regular program of patriotic numbers, it is suggested that every school district hoist a new American emblem with fitting exercises.

The County War Board, headed by Jas. E. Dillon will be in charge of the exercises, co-operating with the district school boards and the teachers in each school. Wherever possible, the children will take part and will begin at once to learn their songs, drills, etc.

The County War Board, with School Commissioner J. A. Campbell will secure and assign the best public speakers to be had to the various schools.

The program for each district will be announced in a short time.

"We regard these meetings as one of the most important civilian events since the war began," said State Secretary Mark T. McKee in announcing the plan, "in the cities, and villages, rallies and meetings can be held easily, quickly and without interference with ordinary duties. On the farms, it is impossible to drop work at any moment to attend meetings and when we first broached the subject to the county boards, they were keen for the meetings as it gives the farmers an opportunity to have a patriotic gathering of their own. Superintendent Keeler evolved the idea of combining these with the district elections, and the work of the County Boards in the recent Liberty Loan and Red Cross drives already assures that the rallies will be a big success."

YOUR COUNTY AGENT.

Do not forget that there is a sort of deputy secretary of agriculture who is always ready to help you with your poultry problem. He is the farm demonstrator for the United States Department of Agriculture. He is commonly known as "the county agent." If there are young people in your household he would no doubt like to enroll them in the clubs for poultry raising which are carried on in most of the States. He is a good man to get in touch with and to keep in touch with.

TAKING IT FROM BABIES

Every ounce of wheat products in excess of six pounds per month, that you eat, Mr. American Citizen, is that much literally taken from the mouths of the starving women and children of France. The armed Allies may go without wheat, but these innocents will actually die unless we give them of ours in generous proportion.

AMERICAN DESTROYERS IN SUBMARINE ZONE COVER MANY MILES

Some indications of the ceaseless watch kept on the high seas, in the path of American troopships, by United States naval forces operating in European waters, may be gained from statistics just compiled at the naval headquarters in London. These statistics show that a single force of American destroyers operating from one base had steamed almost 1,500,000 miles up to April 1. The maximum distance covered by a single destroyer was more than 580,000 miles from May 1, 1917, to April 1, 1918. This destroyer was one of the first to arrive aboard after war was declared.

It has been announced that Vice-Admiral William S. Sims, commanding United States naval forces abroad, offered to send an auxiliary force composed of naval units to the French front at the beginning of the German offensive. The chief of the French Navy and Gen. Foch did not consider that the circumstances demanded the presence of such a force at the front.

The French have had a naval division operating in the forces of the Lorraine sector for some time, and the naval units have made their part of the line as shipshape as possible, with everything from big naval guns down to sleep hammocks and ships' cats.

The American soldier billeted in England for temporary training or enroute for France are more and more compelling the admiration and cooperation of the English people. The National Sporting Club of London has started a series of weekly entertainment for enlisted men of the United States Army and Navy.

ROAD PROJECTS APPROVED.

In March and April the Secretary, on recommendation of the Office of Public Roads and Rural Engineering, approved 212 State road-building projects involving more than 2,500 miles of highway under the Federal Aid Road Act. The estimated cost of these improvements to the States is about $15,000,000. The Federal aid allowed is more than $5,000,000.

Boy Scout organizations are active in locating black walnut trees. Black walnut lumber is needed by the War Department for use in making airplane propellers and gunstocks.

MEMORIAL DAY IN EAST TAWAS

The Memorial Day exercises held in the G. A. R. Hall last Thursday afternoon were both interesting and instructive. Short addresses by Rev. McAndrew, Rev. Goodrich, C. R. Jackson and Miss Edna Otis, were given, after which the Misses Grace and Hazel Westfall sang and recited and Dorothy Schill favored with a piano solo.

A touching feature of the day was the march to the water, where flowers were thrown upon the waves to honor our soldier dead who lie in watery graves. The procession was led by the G. A. R. members, followed by the members of the W. R. C. and they in turn by children dressed in white and carrying flowers. On the docks, patriotic songs were sung, and while the color bearer dipped the flag, the children threw the flowers upon the water. This is the first time this ceremony has been performed here. Let us hope it establishes a precedent.

NATION-WIDE ECONOMY.

To carry out the program of national economy demanded of the American people by the war they must adopt scientific and systematic methods of economy. Spasmodic and periodic saving will not fulfill the demand upon us.

One method that has been proposed and has the approval of the Treasury Department is for every American to pledge himself or herself to economize and save, and with the saving at definite periods purchase specific amounts of war-savings stamps.

We must give our Nation, we must give our men in arms, all the strength and support possible. To do this we must cut our own demands on the labor, material, and money of the country to the limit, and increase to the limit the supply of money, material, and labor available to the Government. All of our energies and resources should be devoted to the winning of the war, and to accomplish this we must economize, save, and lend to the Government.

A definite systematic plan of saving, strengthened by resolve and a pledge to save and lend to the Government, will be productive of the best results. The saving plan campaign is now on. Every patriotic American should make a pledge to save and keep the pledge.

FLY TIME HERE—SWATTING IN ORDER

Not only fly time is here, but the flies themselves, and unless these first arrivals are met with swatters, traps and other means of extinction, here will be millions to swat next week or in a few more warm days. Now is decidedly the right time to swat flies, says the Board, "when they can be counted on the fingers and not when they become countless hordes. Swatters get individual flies, those that come early and stay late, and those that slip in at the screened doors, but swatters are useless where there are no screens and where there are no efforts made to fight flies.

By far the best means of fighting early flies and preventing them from coming and staying, is cleanliness, that absolute cleanliness that is starvation to the fly. What is sometimes passable and harmless in the way of filth or lack of cleanliness in cold weather becomes dangerous and intolerable in hot weather. In other words, filth of any kind is decidedly more filthy and dangerous in summer than in winter. One of the first thoughts of the careful housewife on the first warm day is, what is there about the house that houstaoi shrdiuu emfwypp house that may be food for flies. She knows that whatever becomes a feeding place for flies becomes also a breeding place, and that flies are attracted only where there is something to eat.

Get out your fly swatters and use them now. If you haven't good ones left over from last year, buy new ones now and don't wait till your house is full of flies to be reminded that you haven't any. The next step is to clean up and keep so perfectly clean that when flies come they will either starve or refuse to tarry. —Public Health.

The two picric acid plants to be built at Little Rock, Ark., and Brunswick, Ga., contracts for which have been completed by the War Department, will cost approximately $7,000,000.

WAR NEWS DIGEST

A group of 100 women telephone operators, to serve with the Expeditionary Forces, have already been sent to France, and 150 are now in training schools to meet future demand. Wives of officers and men who are eligible for duty in France are not accepted. "Keeping Our Fighters Fit—For War and After" is the title of an official book issued by the Commission on Training Camp Activities, describing the athletics, mass singing, social life and other recreations of men in Army and Navy camps. The book tells of the theaters, the work of the Y. M. C. A., Knights of Columbus, and other organizations associated with the commission in welfare work, and gives details of life in the camps.

Women between the ages of 21 and 35 who have had a high school education or its equivalent, will be eligible for admission to the Army School of Nursing, arrangements for which were recently made by the War Department. It is intended to start several schools in selected military hospitals. Unless otherwise specified, applications should be sent directly to the Army School of Nursing, office of the Surgeon General of the Army, Washington, D. C.

Deliveries of the 8,000 motor trucks recently ordered by the Motor Transport Service of the War Department are to be made between August 1 and December 1. These trucks known as "Class B. Standard" will have a capacity of from 3 to 5 tons, and will be distributed as needed through the various branches of the Army. Ten thousand of these class B standard trucks have previously been ordered and are now in process of manufacture and delivery.

Under a new agreement the Army will handle all mail for the expeditionary forces after it leaves United States ports. The Post Office Department will deliver the mail to military authorities at the port of embarkation in this country and receive it from them at a port in France for dispatch to the United States. The domestic money-order service to the troops will, for the present at least, continue under the direction of the Post Office Department in France.

FROM WALTER REIMER

Camp McArthur, Waco Texas
May 31, 1918.

Friend Mr. Yawger.

I thought I would drop you a few lines to let you know that I am well, and hope you are the same. I think I am too far away for you to come and see me. I would much rather have gone to Camp Custer. We had a fine trip coming down here. We came through seven states. Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Arkansas Louisiana and Texas. The people at every station where we stopped cheered us. There was fifteen coaches in our train. We had sleeping cars all the way. I was appointed a guard on the train. My duty was to keep the boys on the train and to keep strangers off the train.

It is very hot down here. It is 105 in the shade, and no shade. They have been harvesting grain here for about ten days. They are picking peaches here also. It is cool here nights. The wind blows all the time from the south west off the Gulf of Mexico. It blows dust when we are drilling so that we can hardly see. It is also very hard for us to hear the drillmaster's commands. We have real nice officers in charge of our company. Far better than we expected. Aeroplanes are flying over our heads from daylight until dark.

We did not drill today. It is Decoration Day. We had a nice chicken dinner. We had ice cream for dessert. The water is alkali and luke warm. It comes from a hot spring. It is boiling hot when it comes out of the ground. All the boys wished they had a drink at the good old Michigan water.

I hope to be back in Hale some day I was quite lonesome for a while. I didn't get any mail for two weeks. I went to the post office every day, but I was disappointed each time. I finally gave up hopes of getting any mail. But God spoke again, and I got my first letter today from home.

I like it so far, but it is very hot. I would like it far better up at Hale, and I will not be very long getting there when they turn me loose. The fastest train will be too slow. I have got three shots in the arm and two vaccinations. The shot in the arm is inoculation for typhoid fever. They stick a big needle in our arm about two inches and inject something into our blood. It makes our arms so sore that we can hardly raise them for a few days.

There were five of us Iosco county boys when we left Tawas, but they kept two at Columbus Barracks, Columbus Ohio, where we got our uniforms. Three of us are still together, sleeping in the same tent. It is not quite so lonesome when we have someone from home to talk to. Our entire company is from Michigan. There are boys from nearly every county in the state. They say that we go to France in September. We cannot get a furlough to go home, because they only give us five days, and we could not go and come in that time. So I won't be back until it is over "over there."

I had my picture taken in Columbus, Ohio, the first night I had my uniform on. I am inclosing one of them. I have joined the church since I have been here. We have services at the Y. M. C. A. I am going to be a good boy. I am going to do all I can for my country, and end the war as soon as possible.

Well it is almost nine o'clock, and that means, lights out in the army. So I will close for this time. With kindest regards. And best wishes to yourself and family. I remain as ever your friend,

Walter Reimer

East Lansing, Mich., June 3--Forty-one M. A. C. men, all of them undergraduates of the college, left this week for Fort Sheridan to enter the reserve officers training camps for advance work. On completion of their course, all of the M. A. C. boys will come back to the campus to serve with Major P. G. Wrightson next fall as officers of the college regiment.

BASE BALL TEAM AND BRASS BAND ENLISTED

St. Paul, Minn., May 31—Isle, Minn., was a village of seventy five population, situated on the Soo line near Mille Lacs Lake, Minn.

Not a small part of its population was of young men, so it had a baseball team and brass band, just as any other really ambitious village should have.

The past tense is used advisedly. Isle, Minn., still is a village, situated just where it always has been. But in no other way can the past and present be compared. It is without its baseball team, its brass band—and its young men.

For the baseball team and the brass band—twenty of 'em, have enlisted in the Marine Corps.

COUNTY AGENT COLUMN

C. P. Milham.

Office, Court House, Tawas City, all day Saturday. Week days from 8 to 9 in the morning.

It costs as much to cultivate a good stand of corn as a poor one. If you have a poor stand, plant in more seed. The Government has sent a supply to the County Agent. Phone 28-F-21

Growers of pure Rosen Rye who intend to sell their crop for seed should have their crop inspected. Application blanks may be secured at this office. The same thing holds true with Red Rock wheat. A list of growers of these, and other high yielding grains is desired.

The labor situation will not improve as the war continues; and the sooner the American farmer takes advantage of the help the boys have enrolled to give at fair wages this summer, the better we will be able to carry on our duty of feeding the world. There are several boys in the county who wish to help you. Their names can be secured from this office. John Johnson and Edward Anderson of Alabaster, who enrolled in the U. S. Boys Working Reserve were sent to Jackson county to work on farms. Every farmer boy, who is working on the farm is entitled to the Reserve Badge, but in order to secure it must enroll.

During the session of 1917 the legislature proposed, and at the April election the people ratified an amendment to the constitution permitting any drainage district established under provision of law to issue bonds for drainage purposes within such district. This law has not worked out as expected. At present one county can issue an injunction restraining other counties whose drainage water crosses their county, from completing the drain. There is a petition for a new drainage law being circulated which will be presented to the legislature at the next session. This proposed law permits the issuance of bonds by drainage district, and organization of drainage districts, based on natural drainage areas rather than on county or township lines as at present. This should have your backing. The County Agents are behind it. Petitions may be signed at this office, or see County Drain Commissioner Robert C. Arn.

Iosco County has been apportioned two day institutes in Agriculture and Home Economics. The Extension School is intended to meet the needs of communities in which a number of people wish to make a more intensive study of few subjects than is possible by means of a single lecture. The Extension Schools should not be confused with the institutes held every year. Two instructors are sent to each school, who present two lectures a day followed by a discussion and demonstration when opportunity permits. In order to secure one of these schools it is necessary to have an application signed by thirty interested farmers in the locality where the school is to be held. For a Home Economics School a similar application is made by thirty women. A fee of 50c is collected to defray expenses. Any two of the following subjects may be selected; animal husbandry; dairying, soils, plant diseases, animal diseases, poultry, farm management, crops, horticulture and agricultural engineering. For the Home Economics Schools a definite course is given at each place dealing with household problems and home nursing. The two communities sending in applications first will be accommodated. For further information, and applications write to the Supervisor of Extension Schools, East Lansing.

THE ECONOMY OF VICTORY
No matter what this war costs the Government and the people of the United States in the way of money, it is going to be much cheaper to win this war than to lose it.

The commercial and financial losses that would follow a German victory are not to be calculated. All that we spent would be lost, indemnities beyond calculation would have to be paid, and along with these losses would come a continuing loss in foreign commerce that would spell disaster.

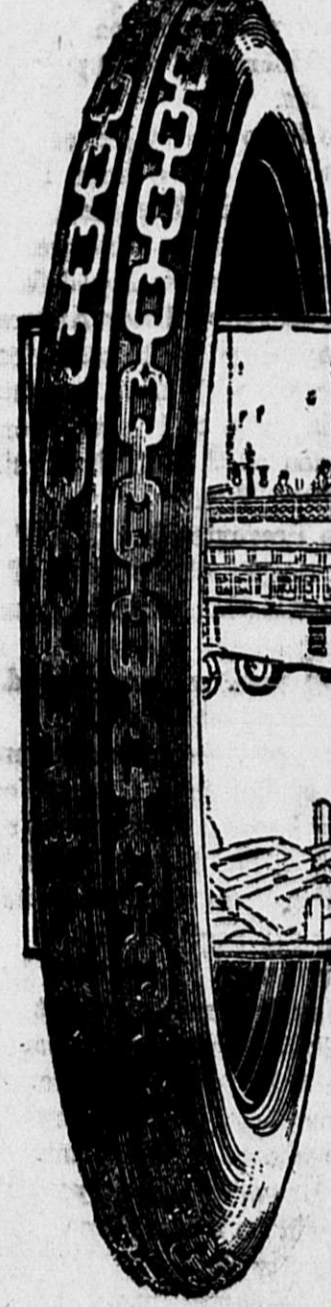

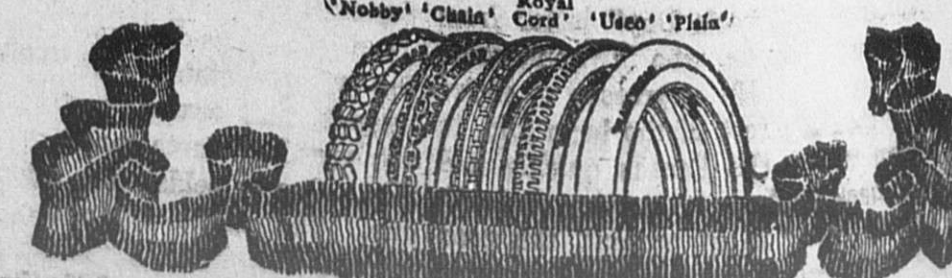

With these material losses we would lose our national liberty and independence, our power to secure our international rights, our right to live in a world ruled by the dictates of humanity and civilization.

PROTECTING FIGHTERS FROM BAD MEAT

Sixty-seven inspectors of the Bureau of Animal Industry are now with the army inspecting the meat products supplied for the soldiers, and thirty others are similarly engaged with the navy. Operations are under Federal supervision from the time the live animals are driven into the slaughter houses until the finished product is delivered in good condition to the mess cooks.

HERALD ADVERTISING GETS RESULTS

ANNOUNCEMENT To Herald Subscribers

In common with all other forms of business The Herald during the past three years has been forced to contend with the upward trend in prices. Everything that goes into the making of a newspaper, paper, inks, type, and all other materials have steadily increased in price until at the present time the cost of these things is double and in some cases more than double what they were three years ago. During this time we have kept the subscription price at the same figure, in the hope that there might soon be an end to the increases and that prices would begin to take a downward trend. However, there seems to be no relief in sight, and paper and other materials keep on climbing in price. Added to this the U. S. government has passed a new postal rate law which goes into effect July 1, 1918, and which gradually increases the rate on newspapers from this date until July 1, 1921.

For these reasons, and because we believe that every business man is entitled to a fair return for his investment, we have decided that the only recourse is to raise our subscription price. We believe that this action will be more acceptable to our subscribers than to decrease the size or lower the quality of the paper we are publishing. Therefore,

Beginning July 1, 1918, the Subscription Price of the Tawas Herald Will Be $2.00 Per Year, in Advance

This increase will not affect any subscriber who is paid in advance, nor any who may pay up before July 1. We will not, however, accept more than one year's subscription in advance at the $1.50 rate. If you are in arrears you may, by paying up to July 1 and a year in advance, secure your Herald until July 1, 1919, at the rate of $1.50 per year. Or if you are already paid in advance, by sending us $1.50 you may have your subscription advanced one year from the date to which you are now paid. This MUST be done before July 1, 1918, however, as after that date all subscriptions, whether new or renewal, will be charged for at the higher price.

RECENT EIGHTH GRADE EXAMINATION

Last week we promised to contribute a short article regarding the failure of many pupils to obtain a passing grade at the recent eighth grade examination.

The questions prepared by the State Educational Department were not too difficult, yet less than forty-five per cent succeeded. A brief analysis of the situation may assist us in remedying conditions detrimental to the success of our young people.

Many of our children are poor in spelling. The simplest words are misspelled. If teachers in the future school examinations discredit to some extent the careless spelling, capitalization, and poor English submitted by pupils, much improvement would be soon in evidence.

No eighth grade should begin proper names such as Washington, Spain etc. with a small initial letter. Yet many of our future citizens were guilty of such errors. Do not accept such careless work.

Many showed a lack of knowledge of correct history. Several never heard of Camp Custer, and did not know the meaning of cantonment, notwithstanding the fact that many of our boys are leaving frequently to be trained for overseas service at above named cantonment.

It does not pay to send poorly prepared pupils to take an eighth grade examination. We wish it to mean something to our boys and girls as many of them leave school at this time of their lives.

A knowledge of our country's history, some idea of governmental machinery is essential, yet too many of our young people are sadly deficient, judging from the last examination.

Pupils must understand that only well prepared work is acceptable. If we follow this rule closely a noticeable improvement will soon change the order of things.

Many schools show a decided improvement in penmanship, others are still below par.

Poor work in arithmetic helped to discredit many mental arithmetic, so important, showed poor preparation in many cases.

The Board of Education consider it their duty to call attention to above conditions. The schools are the bulwark of the nation. Let us make them as efficient as possible. The best teachers will fail to correct above named deficiencies unless parents and all concerned show a decided interest in bettering conditions. We again ask teachers to accept no work from pupils that shows a careless, indifferent attitude toward the vital interests of school life.

In justice to all we realize that the school year has been broken up to a great extent in many districts. Epidemics of contagious diseases, illness of teachers, changed conditions because of the present war have made the work more difficult than usual, but the great questions of the future must be solved by the young citizens of our country. This being self-evident, they need as excellent a preparation as our schools can give.

Very respectfully,
J. A. CAMPBELL,
R. D. BROWN

REGISTRATION OF GERMAN ALIEN FEMALES

The registration of German alien females, to begin Monday, June 17 and end Wednesday, June 26, will be conducted in cities or municipalities having 5,000 population or over by the police officials. In communities having a population of less than 5,000 the registration will be handled by postmasters.

In general the plan of registration is the same as that followed in the registration in February of German alien males. Each person who must register will be required to register her finger prints. This method of identification is also used in the military and naval services of the United States.

Every farmer who talks maximum profits instead of maximum production is aiding Germany.

PRUDEN URGES PEOPLE LAY IN COAL SUPPLY NOW

Farmers Will be Doing a Patriotic Service to Set Aside Hard Coal Burner and Use Wood.

Lansing.—The state fuel administrator while urging people in cities to buy coal now in order that another fuel famine such as was experienced last winter will not be repeated, calls upon farmers and others located where wood is easily accessible to lay in a store of that kind of fuel for several reasons.

It will relieve the fuel situation in these places throughout the state where wood is not obtainable at any price and will give the railroads an opportunity of transporting what coal there is obtainable to the larger industrial centers where huge munition factories are working night and day shifts getting out munitions of war.

In most rural districts there is a certain quantity of wood that can be easily obtained and at a slight expense especially to the farmer who has the means of hauling it. Rainy days during the spring when farming operations are at a standstill can well be used in gathering in next winter's wood supply or when that task is completed cutting a supply that neighboring towns may be furnished with fuel next winter in the event coal is not obtainable, which may be the case.

Attention is called to the shortage of anthracite coal this year. The government is using great quantities on its boats, thus cutting down the natural surplus that accrues during times of peace. This coal is needed badly by the government, being smokeless and furnishing heat for steam power boats used in transporting soldiers across the Atlantic. Every farmer will be performing a patriotic service by putting aside the hard coal burner the coming winter and burning instead, wood that can be secured from forests and wood lots.

The wood lot proposition in Michigan as outlined by experts calls for a cutting out and thinning process each year that the wood lots may become more thrifty. Much dead and down timber is found in these lots, of which a number may be found on almost every farm and the trees many times are left to rot for want of someone to cut them up into wood. In reality proper care of wood lots will prove real conservation of the timber of that state.

Fuel users in cities are already finding themselves in the position of not being able to procure anthracite coal and even when they do secure any a blank must be signed and sworn to, showing that they require a certain amount for next winter's use. Even then the coal dealer in any community is required not to furnish more than two-thirds of the customer's normal requirement and there is already a serious question whether fuel users in the cities will be able to secure their usual amount of anthracite coal.

Soft coal is being placed in cellars this spring where such coal was never before used and the supply of this variety of coal is already becoming scarce as far as some kinds are concerned.

Old rail fences that abound in many sections of the state make good wood for fuel when cut up and the average farmer finds certain time during periods between farming operations to cut these fences into wood as is being done already in many sections of the state. Those living near state lands may easily obtain a supply of wood by getting in touch with the Public Domain Commission at Lansing, which state commission will be only too glad to authorize the cutting out of dead and down timber for fuel.

WAR INQUIRIES ENORMOUS

Government Prints Bulletin Every Day Concerning Important Orders, Etc.

Lansing, Mich.—Owing to the enormous increase of government war work the governmental departments at Washington ask Michigan residents to refrain from making inquiries on every conceivable subject concerning the war, as it has been found a physical impossibility for the clerks, though they number an army in themselves now, to give many of these inquiries proper attention and reply.

There is published daily at Washington, under authority and by direction of the President, a government newspaper—the official U. S. Bulletin. This paper prints every day all of the more important rulings, decisions, regulations, proclamations, orders, etc., as they are promulgated by the several departments and the many special committees and agencies now in operation at the National Capitol.

This official journal is posted each day in every postoffice in the state of Michigan and may also be found in all libraries, boards of trade, chamber of commerce, the offices of mayors, and government and other officials.

MAKING POTATO FLOUR IN MICHIGAN

Lansing, Mich., May 25.—Potato flour is now being successfully manufactured in Michigan by the John C. Morgan company of Traverse City. Howard C. Morgan, vice-president of the concern, told Food Administrator George A. Prescott today the plant is now using 1500 bushels of northern No. 2 stock daily, and they will double their output and operate as long as their product can find a market.

"The process is entirely new," said Mr. Morgan. "Our opportunity to try the experiment came through the dismantling of the plant of the Michigan Starch company of our town, which gave us the necessary starch machinery forthwith. The potatoes are unloaded by water power from cars and bins and are first washed and ground into pulp. The pulp travels over starch sieves, and in this way about half of the starchy substance of the potato is washed out. This leaves the pulp so that it can be pressed and dried with our regular cider machinery. The pulp is then cooked, which gives the flour in this stage a yellow color. The starch is saved and dried in the usual way and the dry pulp and dry starch are successfully mixed and milled by flour machinery. The finished product, while a trifle darker than potato starch, which is being sold for flour, has superior cooking qualities in that it contains the starch, gluten and pulp in a cooked form. Potato flour is the most common of all European flours, and our bakers have long imported it, as a small portion of the products helps to keep the bread moist. We concentrate one bushel of potatoes into eight pounds of potato flour, which of itself explains why it will go twice as far as other flours. This flour has many commercial advantages over other flours, as it will keep for years if stored in a dry place. Potato flour can be used to advantage in all cooking and baking," concluded the Traverse City man.

One of the leading wholesale grocers in Chicago has already bought three carloads, and the product is being successfully used in Grand Rapids. Food Administrator Prescott expressed his pleasure at the enterprise of the concern, not only from an industrial viewpoint but in the prospect of opening a home market for thousands of bushels of potatoes in the Traverse region.

"Potato flour has a double appeal just now," says Mr. Prescott. "It is our patriotic duty to encourage and support every plan to use up our Michigan potato surplus and as substitute potato flour will go twice as far as other flours because of the possibilities of concentration and drying. Germany disposes of its immense potato crop with these plants which today is their best proof against starvation. It is a war step in the right direction, so far as Michigan is concerned."

Mail for prisoners in German camps goes free from postal duties. American prisoners of war in Germany are entitled to receive and send letters, money orders and valuables, and parcel post packages weighing not more than 11 pounds, when intended for international mail, free from all postal duties.

Mail should be addressed to the prisoner of war, giving his rank, the name of the prison camp where he is held, if it is known, followed by "Prisoner of War Mail, via New York." All such mail should also bear the name and address of the sender.

Parcel post packages for prisoners of war in enemy countries may not be sent by organizations or societies, and only one package a month may be sent. If more are received the one apparently from the prisoner's next of kin will be forwarded and the others held in New York pending communication with the senders, with whose consent such excess packages may be sent to other prisoners of war who had received no packages during that month. Lacking this consent, the packages will be returned to the senders.

Only the following articles may be included in the packages: Belts not made of leather; hair, hand, tooth, shaving, and shoe brushes; buttons; hard candy; cigars and cigarettes; combs; crackers and biscuits; gloves not made of leather; handkerchiefs; pocket knives; needles and thread; pencils and pens; penholders; pins; pipes; safety razors and blades; shaving soap, powder or cream; shirts and scarfs; shoe laces; smoking or chewing tobacco; toilet soap; socks; sweaters; tooth powder; paste or liquid mouth wash; towels; underwear; personal photographs; periodicals published prior to the beginning of the war.

Letters and packages will be subject to careful censorship.

The Food Administration has sent out through all State administrators a warning to corn, barley, and oats millers and to wholesale and retail dealers in these products that at the present prices of these grains corn meal and oat meal should be selling at least 20 per cent below the price of wheat flour and that corn flour and barley flour should be selling at least 10 per cent below wheat flour.

Production of honey will be greatly increased during 1918 in many localities according to the Department of Agriculture. The increase in Colorado, it is said, will probably be 100 per cent.

WHAT THE PATRIOTIC FAMILY DID WITH $1,000

When the Solicitor approached this Household he was received enthusiastically as a Neighbor who was asking the Householders to join him in the mutual effort to protect their Homes and Families from the cruelties and harsh exactions of Autocracy—and with the True Spirit of those who are saving and buying for Liberty. Mr. Head-of-the-Household signed a subscription card for 200 War Savings Stamps. His Wife signed for 40 War Savings Stamps, and she also signed for two of the stamps for Baby Daughter. They bought the Stamps on the Child's fourth birthday anniversary—the latter part of February—at $4.13 each. Daddy's 200 Stamps, at $4.13, cost... $826.00 Mother's 40 Stamps, at $4.13, cost... 165.20 Baby's two Stamps, at $4.13, cost... 8.26 Total invested by the Family... $999.46

Daddy's Stamps had a maturity value of $1,000.00 Mother's were worth, on Jan. 1, 1923... 200.00 Daughter's had a value, when she was 9 years old, of... 10.00 Total value at maturity... $1,210.00 Now we deduct the cost of the Stamps... $999.46 And we find the Family's Net Profit to be... $210.54 On an investment of $999.46—and they still have 54 cents left over from their $1,000 with which to buy two Thrift Stamps toward another War Savings Stamp for Daughter, and 4 Cents besides. Now, let's see what the Percentage of Profit was to this Household:— We'll assume that Adversity did not overtake the family and that it was not necessary that their money be withdrawn until the due date (although they would have done this if it had been necessary), in which case they would have received the value of the Stamps at the time of withdrawal, with what would be the equivalent of practically 3 per cent interest. The length of time this Family had its money invested in War Savings Stamps was fifty-eight months,—so we will divide the Family profit of $210.54 by 58, and we find the monthly profit to be $3.63, or $43.56 a year. The Family invested practically $1,000 and received interest of 4.356 per cent on the investment—free from all Taxes, county, state or federal. This family subscribed for its Stamps in the True Spirit of Patriotism, and discovered that through purchasing them it had not only done its duty to its Country, but that it had made a most excellent investment at a remunerative Rate of Interest—an investment backed by all the wealth and earnings power of the nation. The Family had done its Full Duty in protecting its Home and that of its Neighbor from Autocratic Rule—and helped the Whole World to achieve Liberty, besides making a Fine Investment for the Family Funds, and laying the Foundation for the Teaching of the Habits of Thrift to the Little Daughters. The Example set by this Family can—and WILL—be duplicated by many other Families in the state of Michigan. Only members of units of the senior Division Reserve Officers' Training Corps, now in attendance at various educational institutions maintaining such units will be eligible to attend the one month's course of training to be held from June 3 to Aug 3 at Plattsbury Barracks, N. Y.; Fort Sheridan, Ill.; and the Presido at San Francisco. There are 120 colleges maintaining these units, from which 6,500 students will be selected. Those who complete the course of training will not be eligible for commissions. A great number will be under military age.

HUNT FOR WAR TIMBER.

The War Department and the Forest Service are aiding the Boy Scouts in efforts to find black walnut timber needed for airplane propellers and gun stocks, following President Wilson's appeal to the Scouts to locate supplies of the "Liberty Tree." Special report forms have been prepared for use of the Scouts, who will submit them for tabulation to the Forest Service, which in turn will report the results to the War Department. The bulk of the standing black walnut is said to be in farmers' woodlots in the Middle West, the Middle Atlantic States, and the southern Appalachians, and it is mainly these sources that the Scouts will comb in their search for material.

Three Signal Years in American History

1898—War with Spain! Humanity and liberty brought by America to oppressed Cuba and Philippines, the United States taking its firm place as a world power. 1908—Peace and prosperity! America's battleship fleet, "Ready for a fight or a frolic," as Admiral "Bob" Evans remarked, gone on its 45,000-mile, around-the-world cruise, pointing out to all nations the fact that we had become a power to be reckoned with, and a cruise which European experts said could not be completed. But it was! 1918—America in the Great War, throwing its every energy into the combat to make the world a decent place to live in. In 1898, TRUMAN H. NEWBERRY, one of the organizers of the Michigan Naval Reserves, served through the Spanish war as a lieutenant on the "Yosemite," which was manned by Michigan's Reserves. In 1908, TRUMAN H. NEWBERRY prepared the battleship fleet for its famous cruise and from assistant secretary became Secretary of the Navy in the Roosevelt cabinet. In this crisis, the office demands the ablest and most experienced man available to help conduct the nation's affairs. TRUMAN H. NEWBERRY is such a man. Every Michigan voter an support his nomination and election with confidence in his record, his ability and his 100 per cent Americanism.
