IOSCO COUNTY SCHOOLS

PATRIOTIC MEETING

It is expected that a rousing "Patriotic Meeting" will be held in each school district of the state July 8th, in connection with the school meetings.

Plans are being perfected to hold a meeting in every school house of Iosco County. Songs, recitations and address by some speaker will be the program for the occasion.

It is expected that every person will take an interest in the meeting held in his district. We expect crowded rooms.

As schools are not in session, it is all the more important that an interest be taken.

We trust that each person will consider himself a booster.

Call the school meeting early, say 7 or 7.30 p. m. and transact district business as quickly as possible so that plenty of time be allowed for special meeting.

Very respectfully,

J. A. CAMPBELL

If every boy and girl of school age in Iosco County purchases a War Saving Stamp, more than $15,000 will be added to Uncle Sam's War Chest. Let us show what we can do.

Junior "Red Cross" is making rapid stride in this county. Every school should have the "Red Cross" magazine. It costs two dollars. The children will enjoy it and profit by reading it.

THE NEW RAILROAD RATES

Residents of Tawas City and East Tawas who have been used to buying commutation tickets for use between the two points at the rate of ten tickets for 25c are feeling the new raise in railroad fares perhaps more than people at any other points.

Under the new rates the lowest fare to be charged is 10c, and since June 10th passengers between the two cities have been forced to pay this rate.

As the distance is only a little over one mile this rate seems extortionate but "what are you going to do about it?"

The new passenger fare rates which went into effect June 10, call for three cents per mile on all railroads for day coach seats, with an additional charge for seats in Pullman parlor and sleeping cars.

The special rate afforded by mileage books is also cancelled, the books now being issued with three cent coupons and the required number detached by the conductor to pay the fare of the passenger at full rates.

The freight increase, which goes into effect June 25 amounts to about 15 per cent increase made heretofore, makes a total of about 40 per cent increase within the past year.

In view of the big increase in rates, local shippers affected by these rates have remarked upon the fact that trains of empty cars have been run both ways over the D. & M. Ry recently, thus increasing cost of operation without any increase in freight handled.

To learn the cause of this seeming double work, the Herald editor consulted Mr. Pinkerton of the car services department. He informed us that the empty cars going north are intended for the use of shippers in the upper peninsula, while the empties going south are order cars being sent south to take care of the shipments of early vegetables and fruit which require this class of cars.

OUR FLAG'S 141st BIRTHDAY JUNE 14th

President Wilson says: "Don't let the activities of war make you forget the birthday of our glorious flag, June 14th."

Celebrate this day by attending the special show Friday night at the Family Theatre. Added to the regular program will be a special feature, one reel, "Spirit of the Red Cross," showing the working of this great society. Also a patriotic four minute talk on the subject of the day, with other patriotic features.

All for the admission price of 5c and 15c. Don't miss it.

POMONA GRANGE MEETING

ONLY TWO MORE WEEKS

Subscription Price of Tawas Herald Goes to $2.00 per Year on July 1

Subscribers to the Tawas Herald who wish to secure another year's subscription at the $1.50 rate will do well to make their payment before Saturday night, June 29 as on Monday, July 1, the price goes to $2.00 per year and no subscriptions will be received thereafter except at the new price.

As explained in the announcement elsewhere in this paper, the increase in price has been forced by increased costs of publishing the paper. But we are giving all our subscribers an opportunity to pay one year in advance at the old rate. If you don't take advantage of it, don't blame the editor. In any other line of business the increase would be put into effect without warning at all, and when you went to buy the article you would be compelled to pay the increased price at once. The following paragraph clipped from one of our exchanges explains the matter in a very concise and pointed manner.

"Newspapers are compelled by sheer courtesy to notify their subscribers of any change made or about to be made in prices. Does a merchant do this? Certainly not. When cotton goes up, the price of cotton goods goes up and he makes no excuse for raising the price—he raises because the price to him has been raised. Everything used by a printing establishment has increased in price from 100 to 800 per cent, and yet many newspaper subscribers howl and get mad at the editor when he increases the price of subscription. The farmer has no reason in the world to kick. He pays less for labor than anybody and he is now getting more for his produce than he ever thought he would. The man who runs a farm—a good one—has the world at his feet. He is the most independent man on earth..... The daily papers have increased subscription rates, and some of them have made over 100 per cent increase. It will not be surprising that all country papers will be compelled to go to $2.00 a year in order to exist. Within the next six weeks more than 200 weekly papers in the East, North and West will raise their prices of subscription to $2.00. Pay the price gladly and don't kick."

The label on your paper or on the wrapper in which it is enclosed will tell you the date to which your subscription is paid. If you are paid in advance, by sending us the $1.50 you may have your subscription extended one year beyond its present date. If you are in arrears, by sending the amount you owe to July 1, 1918, and $1.50 additional you can have your subscription extended to July 1, 1919, at the old rate. Don't delay, but pay up at once.

"FOR THE FREEDOM OF THE WORLD."

Great war drama, coming to the Family Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday, June 18th and 19th.

You who fly the Service Flag before your home, you who have watched your closest friend depart—here is the living picture of the life that America's youth is leading in training camps, in transport, behind the front—and soon—in the very trenches themselves.

First in the training camps. You see Americans learning the arts of war for the first time in a generation. You see five thousand men charging a trench—the rush and sweep of the attack, the race up specially built inclines of board and dirt. You see them leap the barbed wire, and bayonet the mimic enemy on the other side—all that America of the National Army is learning you see.

YOUR boy, YOUR sweetheart, YOUR pal. Here is the story of HIS struggle "For the Freedom of the World."

Throughout its eight remarkable reels you sit spellbound. Don't fail to see this wonderful picture. Two nights. Admission 15 and 35 cents, includes war tax.

COUNTY AGENT COLUMN

C. P. Milham.

Office, Court House, week days from 8:00 to 9:00, and all day Saturday. Phone 28-21.

The County Agent will be in Lansing June 17 and 18, attending a meeting of the Crop Improvement Association. Plans will be made for the distribution of Rosen rye and Red Rock wheat for seed purposes.

Have been advised that the time will soon come when grain sacks will be unobtainable. If you need a supply this year, either purchase or get an option on them now.

Under the requirements of the government grading rules as applied to wheat, the presence of even a small amount of rye is objectionable, and will cause the wheat to be given a lower grading. It must not be forgotten that wheat containing rye to any extent is liable not to bring the full market price, and when the time comes, farmers should cut the rye from their fields. My attention has been directed to this and I am asked to make the statement.

Reports are coming in from various parts of the State saying rust is attacking wheat. This is a serious trouble, but one that can easily be remedied. If the barberry is destroyed, rust will die out. The condition of wheat and other cereals is none too good, and it is literally up to everyone who has any interest in things to destroy the barberry. If you can not identify the barberry, bring in a twig and the County Agent will tell you all about it, or give you a bulletin on the subject.

STAND BEHIND THE BOYS AT THE FRONT. BUT NOT TOO FAR BEHIND

The American who is using one pound of wheat flour that can be substituted with anything else is the worst kind of a SLACKER.

A merchant that sells any amount of wheat flour without an equal amount of substitutes is as much a traitor as one who trades with the enemy.

Don't ask your merchants to sell you anything that the food regulations do not permit.

Remember that production and self denial are the guns that will get the Huns.

EAST TAWAS DEPARTMENT

Devoted to the General and Personal News of the Week From Our Neighboring City on the East

Rev. J. W. Koyle of Oscoda was in the city Tuesday.

Archbishop Jermin and Rev. Goodrich will hold service in Whittemore Thursday, June 20.

William Lloyd who has been employed at Plymouth for some time arrived home Tuesday for a short visit.

Mrs. Moss and her sister Mrs. A. Manness who is visiting her here, went to Bay City Monday on a business trip.

Miss Aurora LaBerge left Tuesday morning for a two weeks visit in Detroit and Ypsilanti. She will also visit relatives in the service at Camp Custer.

A. J. Berube, always on the lookout for the comfort of his patrons, went to Detroit last Friday to purchase some new fans for the Family Theatre.

Miss Eva Cooper, who is in the government service in Detroit, has been visiting friends in the city for a short time. She returned to Detroit Tuesday morning.

Mrs. McAuliff left on Sunday evening for a two months visit with her father and brother in Texas. While there she will take medical treatment, her brother being one of the foremost specialists of that state.

Through an error in last weeks issue, in the account of the "Call of the Colors" the "vivacious" little French peasant was transformed to "vicious." Had the character been real instead of fictitious the mistake might not have been so amusing. We acknowledge the error and apologize to Mademoiselle Villette.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner and daughter Miss May, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker for the past week returned to their home in Knife River Monday. Some years ago Mr. Turner was station agent in this city and the family have been greeting many old friends during their short stay.

A patriotic service was held at St. Joseph's Catholic church on Monday evening, the occasion being the dedication of a service flag containing 32 stars, representing the boys from the parish who are now in service. Addresses made by the pastor, Rev. Albyn, and other and a splendid patriotic spirit was shown.

Bert Bonney has begun work on his new home, State Street, east, after having torn down the old house which has stood there for over forty years. As is the case with so many of those old houses built for homes, the lumber is of superior quality, such as Michigan produced in her best lumbering days. The old house was built by John Walker, who for many years owned and operated the Walker foundry on Bay street. The razing of the building was to many old residents like the passing of a life long friend.

A force of men varying from ten to thirty-five have been at work this week rushing the cemetery road to completion. The work is being done gratuitously and is under the supervision of F. F. Randolph. Dinners are served each day, by Mrs. Lyman McAuliff and Mrs. Ambrose Schill, which perhaps accounts for the willingness of the men to volunteer for the work. The supplies for meals are furnished by the public spirited citizens. The road when completed will be a great improvement over the old sand roads which are so hard on both horses and cars.

PATRIOTIC MEETING AT M. E. CHURCH

An enthusiastic meeting was held in the Methodist church Tuesday evening in the interest of Christian workers among our soldier boys in this country and in Europe. Rev. Hoard of the First M. E. church of Bay City and Rev. Yeoman of the Midland M. E. church were the speakers. They painted graphic word pictures of the needs—moral, spiritual and physical of our boys in the service and told of what mobilized Methodism was endeavoring to do to supply those needs. These men are working under direction of Bishop Henderson and are thoroughly conversant with and enthusiastic over their subject. There was a generous response to the call for funds on the part of the audience. Before the meeting a supper was served by the Ladies Aid.

The patriotic impression created by the fiery and inspiring utterances of the reverend gentlemen gave vent in a subscription totalling the sum of $91.48, to be applied to the Methodist War Fund, in providing for special expenses in connection with the costs of sending chaplains to the war zone and to the cantonments in this country, to take care of the spiritual needs of the soldiers.

WAR NEWS DIGEST

The British meat shortage is being felt more severely than at any time since war was started. That the shortage is not confined to meats, however, is shown by the fact that effective control of the milk supply is already being considered, in order to meet a possible greater shortage later in the year, and that some sections of English labor are favoring extensions of the compulsory rationing system to bread, cheese, and tea.

The War Trade Board has limited the importation of crude rubber to 100,000 tons a year, and has instructed its Bureau of imports for the current quarter to limit the issuance of licenses to a total of 25,000 tons up to June 31, 1918. Some changes may be made after experiences are gained by this three months' test. Imports of crude rubber during the previous year had been at the rate of 157,000 tons per annum, so the cut is over one-third.

TIME TO PREPARE FOR FALL VEGETABLE CROP

East Lansing, Mich. June 12—If gardeners make plantings during late June and July it will be possible for them to keep the home tables supplied with vegetables until far into the autumn, according to word from the department of horticulture of M. A. C.

"Many gardens which start very favorably with the first early spring crops gradually become patches of weeds as the season advances," the bulletin declares. "There are many vegetables, however that may be planted in late summer especially for fall use. These can be used to replace such early crops as radishes, lettuce, early peas and other crops that have been removed.

"Planting of string beans and Golden Bantam corn may be made as late as June, beets and rutabagas, June 15 to July 1; radishes (summer and winter), turnips, endive, spinach and leaf lettuce, July 15 to August 1. Planting of late celery, cabbages and cauliflower should be set during the first two weeks of July."

THEY PAINT 'EM YELLOW IN FLINT

Painted yellow from head to foot, with heavy chains fastened to his feet and a rope about his neck and carrying signs on which were inscribed "German hog" and "I. W. W." William Roneich, 38 years old, a cigarmaker, was forced to walk several blocks through Saginaw street to Flint river where he was ducked all because of his alleged refusal to contribute to the Red Cross when approached yesterday. It is said Roneich admitted he had not contributed to any war fund nor purchased Liberty bonds or thrift stamps and said he never would. After being ducked he was marched back over the same route to Red Cross campaign headquarters and then taken to the county jail. Hundreds followed Roneich as he was marched along the street. There was no police interference.—Ex

BOYS VOLUNTEER FOR FARM WORK

It is estimated that 3,000 Chicago boys will volunteer to do farm work this season. Those who have offered their service have been giving a course of training. The campaign to register and place this labor has been carried on by a farm-help specialist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture co-operating with the labor committee of the State Council of Defense.

Every time you buy anything people work for you. Save labor and materials for the use of the Government.

THRIFT STAMPS TAUGHT THIS MAN TO SAVE

Armless Man Sells Pencils On the Streets of Detroit and Buys Two Thrift Stamps Every Day—"I Cannot Fight," He Says, "But I Can Spare Some of My Earnings to Finance the Fight."

One coat sleeve was hanging empty, and he was buying pencils over the counter of a Detroit stationery store. Curiosity drew us nearer just to get a better glimpse of the man and his purpose. But he caught our eye and being a little ashamed of our crude attempt to get this man's story, we stepped forward and commented on the morning, accompanying the word with an offer to shake hands.

He turned, smiled and shook both coat sleeves with two gruesome stamps at the shoulders. Both arms were missing.

It required four visits to the stationery store to get this man's story. His name is E. A. Westcott, of 814 Gratiot avenue, and he has been without arms for more than twelve years. It takes a sound philosophy to maintain a happy disposition with the misfortune that this man has suffered.

"What's the use of worrying," said Mr. Westcott, "if you are out of luck—you're out of luck. That's all there is to it."

Every morning between 8:30 and 9 o'clock, Westcott calls at the stationery store to buy a supply of lead pencils. The clerk takes the money from his pocket, puts the change back, placing the pencils as directed on his coat.

Westcott has established a legitimate business in the sale of lead pencils. Many of the down town merchants and office men are numbered among his customers. In this way he earns enough to live, enjoy life, study human nature and spread the philosophy of cheerful endurance to all who cross his path.

There was a time, just previous to the now historic first of May, when Westcott did not save money. Indeed, his happy-go-lucky philosophy kept him poor. Then, one day when he was buying his daily stock of pencils he noticed a thrift stamp on the counter.

"What's that," he asked. And the

Suggestions for Meat Saving

Reduce the Family Allowance of Meat. This can be done in two ways: First, purchase less meat, and by careful planning and cooking make it go further.

Don't throw away meat left-overs. The tiny bits of meat or the small amount of meat liquor will add a meat taste to other foods and reconcile someone to the substitution of other protein foods for the meat to which he is accustomed.

Second, get into the habit of serving meat substitutes in the place of meat. There are certain foods which will give the body very much the same kind of nourishment as does meat. Milk, eggs, cheese, beans and peas, nuts, fish and poultry will do this. Use these often.

The following hints may prove helpful in making the family happy on both meatless days and other days:

USE SOUPS.

If the amount of the meat left over is too small to use in the following recipe, it can always be made into a palatable soup. Cut up the meat, add water, and cook a few minutes. Add one-half cup left over tomato or one tablespoonful of ketchup, and seasoning. Small pieces of any vegetable that happens to be left over may be added, celery, onion, beans, etc. Many will like the addition of a little rice or cold cooked macaroni. Croutons or toasted bread cubes are good substitutes for crackers and often more convenient. The liquor in which the meat was cooked may always be substituted for meat and water.

USE GRAVIES.

Any meat left over or meat liquor may be made into a gravy. Grind or chop the meat, add water, and cook. Serve on toast for lunch or with potatoes for dinner.

Use Meat with Potatoes.

Small pieces of ham or bacon are an addition to a dish of scalloped potatoes. Put the meat in the bottom of the dish or on top of the potatoes. A slice of bacon laid on a salmon loaf and baked with it makes an appetizing dish.

Use Bread Crumbs, Etc., With Meat.

Use bread, cracker crumbs, cooked oatmeal, cornmeal, cracked wheat and hominy with meats that are left over. By such additions you give your family a wholesome and comparatively inexpensive dish, at the same time satisfying their craving for the flavor of meat.

THE MAKING OF YELLOWSTONE

How its History is Written in its Plateaus, Mountains, and Alternate Levels of Petrified Trees and Lava

To comprehend what we have in Yellowstone Park, we must begin at its making. The entire region is of volcanic origin. The mountains around it on both sides and the mountains within it are products or remnants of great volcanoes of the far past; and the great plateaus, from which spring its geysers and hot springs and through whose forests now roam so many wild animals, are composed of the ash and disintegrated lavas which were once ejected from these volcanoes. Of course the plains are now all deep with soil. But such evidences of the past as the black volcanic glass of the Obsidian Cliff and the fantastic whorled lava rocks of Mount Washburn are plain to the least instructed eye.

One peculiarly fascinating glimpse of Yellowstone's tempestuous past is afforded in the petrified forest of the Specimen Ridge neighborhood, where many levels of upright petrified trunks may be found alternating, like the layers in a cake, with levels of lava; which plainly shows that, after the first forest grew on the volcano's slope and was engulfed by a fresh run of lava, enough time elapsed for a second forest to grow upon that level; and that this, in turn, was engulfed with new lava to make the level for another forest, and so on. There is a cliff 2,000 feet high composed wholly of these alternate levels of engulfed forests and the lavas which engulfed them.

In magnificent contrast with the volcanic plateau and its border of volcanic mountains there rises from the plains, 30 miles south of the park, one of the most abrupt and stupendous outcroppings of granite in the Western Hemisphere. From the western shore of Jackson Lake the Teton Mountains lift their spired peaks 7,000 feet in apparent perpendicular. Many glaciers rest upon their shoulders. Their climax is the Grand Teton, whose altitude is 13,747 feet.

Thus does the Yellowstone run the scenic gamut.

Once Jackson Hole, as this region is still popularly called, was the refuge for the hunted desperado of mountain, plain, and city. In the recesses of these granite monsters he was safe from pursuit, and the elk herds of the plains provided him food. But that picturesque period of American life has passed with the warring Indians, who also here found temporary safe retreat.

FOOD RULES ARE DEMOCRATIC

IN ENGLAND, THE KING'S HOUSEHOLD IS SUPPLIED THROUGH SAME CHANNEL AS THE LOWLY PEASANT

In America Medical Director Nash of U. S. Navy Indicted for Hoarding by Federal Grand Jury

Lansing, June 10—The Food Administration is no respecter of persons and its authority is supreme. In England, food for the king's table is supplied through the same card system used by the lowly peasant. In Washington Medical Director K. S. Nash, U. S. Navy and his wife, have been indicted by the federal grand jury of the District of Columbia for violating the Food Control Act. The indictment states the Nashs had on hand $1923.36 worth of food articles including every conceivable staple and luxury from thirty pounds of gumdrops to 387 tins of sliced bacon.

The Nashs are prominent in the official life of the national capital and both are charged with hoarding foodstuffs, in violation of sections six and seven of the Food Control Act, which provides a penalty of not more than $5,000 fine, imprisonment for not more than two years, or both fine and imprisonment.

Investigations by Clarence R. Wilson, Federal Food Administrator for the District of Columbia showed that Dr. and Mrs. Nash had stored at their home in Washington foodstuffs valued at more than $1,900.

Mr. Wilson's attention was first attracted to the case when he was told that ten barrels of flour were stored in a private garage near his office. Visiting the garage he was told that the flour had been sent to a Washington grocer, who in turn said that he had been ordered by the doctor to sell one barrel and to hold the balance until further notice. When questioned, Dr. Nash said he was holding the flour for distribution among the poor. Further questioning brought out the fact that this was only a small part of his holdings.

The grand jury indictment shows the food administration officials found the following amounts of goods: 6 quarts whiskey, 48 quarts of California brandy, 84 quarts sherry, 1 can G. IMPORTANT NOTICE!

HON. WILLIAM G. McADOO, SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, PROCLAIMS

FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1918

AS NATIONAL WAR SAVINGS DAY

GOVERNORS AND MAYORS MAKE SIMILAR PROCLAMATIONS

MEETINGS WILL BE HELD IN EVERY COMMUNITY TO SECURE SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

Pursuant to the call of the Treasury Department of the United States and the proclamation of the Governor of this State, I, War Savings Director for Michigan, acting under the authority of the United States Treasury Department, have called all tax-payers and wage-earners to meet on Friday, June 28th, to give their subscriptions for War Savings Stamps. In rural communities and the smaller towns and cities, meetings will be held in the school houses at 2 p. m.

The school officers will conduct the meeting in each school house, keeping a record of the proceedings and reporting the names of all persons present and the amount of War Savings Stamps subscribed for by them. The names of absent persons, and of those who refuse or neglect to subscribe, with their reasons for so doing, will also be reported.

War Savings Stamps (which are United States Government Bonds the same as Liberty Bonds) can be paid for during any month in the year 1918, but it is intended that subscriptions will be signed for them on June 28.

The price of each War Savings Stamp depends upon the month during which it is bought. During June each Stamp will cost $4.17. In July each Stamp will cost $4.18, and so on, one cent more each month during 1918. On January 1, 1923, the Government of the United States will redeem all War Savings Stamps at $5.00 each, no matter during which month in 1918 they were bought. They cost less during the early months in 1918 than during the later months because the person who buys earlier has loaned his money to the Government for a longer time than if he should buy later.

By way of illustration, note the following table:

COST OF WAR SAVINGS STAMPS DURING JUNE, JULY, AND AUGUST, 1918

	Cost in June	Cost in July	Cost in August	And are Worth on Jan. 1, 1923
1 Stamp	$4.17		$4.19	$5.00
50 Stamps	$208.50		$209.50	250.00
100 Stamps	417.00	418.00	419.00	500.00
200 Stamps	834.00	836.00	838.00	1,000.00

The law provides that no person can hold in his own name War Savings Stamps exceeding $1,000 maturity value. War Savings Stamps, however, may be purchased for other members of the family, including minor children.

The money invested in War Savings Stamps is not a gift, or a donation, but is a loan to the Government. It will all be paid back with 4% compound interest. If, because of some serious financial reverses, or calamity, it should be necessary to get your money before January 1, 1923, you may do so by giving ten days' notice to any Money Order postmaster, in which case you can get what you paid for the Stamps, with interest to date of payment. The Stamps are free from all State and local taxes; when registered at the postoffice they are insured against loss; they are backed by all the property in the United States; they cannot fall in value below the price you pay; they are as convenient and as well paying an investment as has ever been offered by our Government.

A definite quota of War Savings Stamps has been assigned each school district and community, which will be announced at each meeting on June 28th. The Government of the United States expects all the citizens of every school district and county to subscribe for its quota and to pledge themselves to save and economize to help win the war.

It is to be hoped that the subscriptions taken at the meetings in your county will show you and your neighbors to be loyal Americans to whom our Government, in this hour of need, does not call in vain.

ANNOUNCEMENT To Herald Subscribers

In common with all other forms of business The Herald during the past three years has been forced to contend with the upward trend in prices. Everything that goes into the making of a newspaper, paper, inks, type, and all other materials have steadily increased in price until at the present time the cost of these things is double and in some cases more than double what they were three years ago. During this time we have kept the subscription price at the same figure, in the hope that there might soon be an end to the increases and that prices would begin to take a downward trend. However, there seems to be no relief in sight, and paper and other materials keep on climbing in price. Added to this the U. S. government has passed a new postal rate law which goes into effect July 1, 1918, and which gradually increases the rate on newspapers from this date until July 1, 1921.

For these reasons, and because we believe that every business man is entitled to a fair return for his investment, we have decided that the only recourse is to raise our subscription price. We believe that this action will be more acceptable to our subscribers than to decrease the size or lower the quality of the paper we are publishing. Therefore,

Beginning July 1, 1918, the Subscription Price of the Tawas Herald Will Be $2.00 Per Year, in Advance

This increase will not affect any subscriber who is paid in advance, nor any who may pay up before July 1. We will not, however, accept more than one year's subscription in advance at the $1.50 rate. If you are in arrears you may, by paying up to July 1 and a year in advance, secure your Herald until July 1, 1919, at the rate of $1.50 per year. Or if you are already paid in advance, by sending us $1.50 you may have your subscription advanced one year from the date to which you are now paid. This MUST be done before July 1, 1918, however, as after that date all subscriptions, whether new or renewal, will be charged for at the higher price.
