FRUIT PITS AND NUT SHELLS WANTED BY GOVERNMENT

A nation-wide campaign is in progress for the collection of fruit pits and nut shells, which have been discovered by chemists to be the best material from which to make carbon for the gas masks which protect our soldiers from the poison gas used by the Germans.

Only the pits of peaches, plums, apricots, olives, cherries and dates are wanted, and the shells of hickory nuts, walnuts and butternuts. These must be cleaned and dried before being turned in. No other material should be mixed with the pits and shells as much valuable time would be lost in sorting out the undesirable material.

Save your fruit pits and nut shells and turn them in to the local Red Cross organization and thereby help to save our boys at the front from the effects of the terrible poison gas used by the Huns.

A PLEASANT AND PROFITABLE MEETING

Last Thursday evening thirty-five men from Tawas City and East Tawas gathered at the Iosco hotel, Tawas City, for a little banquet and get-together meeting to meet Mr. L. E. Buell, state Y. M. C. A. secretary, who has just returned from the battle front in France.

After the supper, Jas. E. Dillon, acting as toastmaster, called on several local men for short talks. J. A. Campbell of this city gave the address of welcome, which was responded to by W. A. Evans of East Tawas. Both these speakers emphasized the necessity of community gathering where may all get together on a common plane.

Rev. T. W. Albin, Rev. C. A. Ehrhardt and Rev. L. G. McAndrew gave short talks all tending toward the principles of character building. L. H. Braddock, N. C. Harting and H. C. Hilton brought messages filled with patriotism and L. J. Patterson brought out some pertinent points regarding the conduct of the Fourth Liberty Loan. Ensign Carl Taylor, who is just back from service on a U. S. transport, gave a very interesting description of the work in which he has been engaged, and Joseph Cobb of Alpena contributed a wee bit of humor which was very timely and much appreciated.

The principal speaker of the evening, L. E. Buell, was then introduced. His address was in two parts, one on the county work of the Y. M. C. A. and the other on the next patriotic war fund and his experiences in the front line trenches and in other parts of France. Mr. Buell is a splendid speaker and those who heard him felt that they were just a little nearer to the boys over there from hearing him.

It is Mr. Buell's desire that the people unite in the next drive in November the same as the boys in France have united, forgetting race, creed and social position, and all fighting to overcome the common evil.

NEWS ITEMS OF THE Y. M. C. A.

By O. G. Prettyman

3,953 men had been approved for army and navy "Y" work up to August 31. 1,000 a month are required.

August 31st there were overseas in War "Y" work 660 men and 533 women.

The Y. M. C. A. is doing work for 20 nations and has 190 foreign secretaries. The country Y. M. C. A. work is in Canada, India, Hawaiian Islands and Uruguay.

I am very anxious to learn of any boys or men that are going to any of our large cities to work or going away to school. We would like to get them in touch with our Y. M. C. A. there so that it may be of service to you and you to them.

At the Y. M. C. A. college at Chicago, Ill we have room for a number of students in addition to those already enrolled. AMERICANS GO SINGING TO BATTLE

Lansing, Sept. 22.—At the time of Foch's big offensive, the London Daily Chronicle said: "The Americans have gone singing into battle like our own splendid fellows. Hour after hour, when the great rush of Yanks across the Channel began, far into the night, thousands upon thousands of Americans marched to embark in the darkness. They went like Crusaders. And what do you think their bands played, so near the battlefields? They played "Onward Christian Soldiers" and "O come, All Ye Faithful." The men who sang these hymns are in the present fighting.

Yes, and they are to stay until the fight is won.

One of them wrote recently: "I, for my part, will gladly stay on the job, as long I am needed to beat the Hun."

For three years the Allies fought, their ratios getting lower and lower. While we lived in peace and plenty, they fought for us.

America awoke to this fact. She began to arm herself and enter the fight. Her preparation for and actual contribution to those battles three thousand miles away have been stupendous.

Together we now have the enemy on the run. Now is no time to relax in our pursuit. This is the time to redouble our efforts and keep the fight in our hands.

More soldiers must be sent and more food must be saved. The more severe the fighting, the greater is the need of certain foods to restore their energy and strength.

They need the heavy beef, not we at home. They need the sugar, not we. Save and send, that together we may bring about a glorious victory.

TO ANNOUNCE AGRICULTURAL DRAFT ADVISERS

Agricultural advisers, one of whom is to be associated with each district draft board in the country, are to be announced soon by the Department of Agriculture, which is appointing them after consultation with agricultural leaders in the various states. The agricultural advisers, in accordance with a plan agreed upon by the War Labor Policy Board, Provost Marshal General, Secretary of War, Secretary of Agriculture, and Secretary of Labor, are to present facts to the draft board relative to the supply of necessary agricultural workers.

"The War Department must raise an army; military needs are first," says a letter from the department to the advisers already selected. "The advisers will aid in this in such way as will least cripple agriculture and industry."

DEATH OF ODILLON GRISE.

Odillon Grise, who for over fifty years has been a resident of Tawas City, passed to his last reward on Wednesday, Sept. 18, after an illness lasting for seven or eight years.

Mr. Grise was born in St. Augustine, Canada, 89 years ago, and came to Tawas City more than fifty years ago. He followed the trade of blacksmith until his age precluded further activities, when he turned the business over to his sons.

His wife died two years last May, and since that time he has lived on with his children at the old home in this city.

There are left to mourn the death of a loved one six sons, Philip of Chicago, Wilfred of Detroit, Eli of Muskegon, Charles, Adolph and Peter, and one daughter, Miss Elizabeth, at home. Also three grandsons, Walter of Crosswell, Mich., Gilbert of Chicago, and Harold at home.

The funeral services were held at St. Joseph's Catholic church, East Tawas, last Friday morning, Sept. 20, at 9:30, conducted by Rev. T. W. Albin, who preached a very impressive sermon. The pall bearers were his six sons. The children of St. Joseph's school attended in a body. The remains were laid at rest in the Catholic cemetery.

The death of Mr. Grise leaves another vacancy in the ranks of Tawas City's oldest pioneers, and he leaves numerous friends whose sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones in the loss of a loving father.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the many friends who offered their sympathy and assistance during the illness and death of our loved father, and for the beautiful flowers.

Philip Grise, Wilfred Grise, Eli Grise, Charles Grise, Adolph Grise, Peter Grise, Miss Elizabeth Grise.

THE LIBERTY LOAN POSTERS.

Ten million posters and display cards in eleven designs will be used by the Treasury Department in the Fourth Liberty Loan campaign. All of the designs were donated by distinguished American artists.

The brutality and atrocity with which the Germans wage war are vividly portrayed in most of the posters, and the duty and vital importance of protecting our country and our women and children from such an enemy, and of rescuing the world and humanity from its curse are emphasized with all the appeal of art.

One of the posters, by Strothmann, is the menacing face of a German soldier with a bloody bayonet; the ruins of a cathedral appear in the picture. A poster, by Norton, shows a pair of bloody German military boots with the injunction: "Keep These Off the United States." There is a strong appeal in the picture, by Everett, of a mother, with an infant at her breast and another child clinging to her skirts, with one arm stretched out in agonizing appeal; the legend is "Must Children Die and Mothers Plead in Vain."

The Statue of Liberty crumbling under German shell fire and New York City in flames is pictured, by Pennell, with the legend, "That Liberty Shall Not Perish From the Earth." "Hun or Home?" is the caption of a picture, by Raleigh, representing a German soldier invading a home while a little girl with a baby in her arms gazes in mortal fear and apprehension.

The bloody imprint of a hand, "the Hun—His Mark," makes a striking poster, by St. John, with the exhortation, "Blot It Out With Liberty Bonds." "Remember Belgium" appears in a poster by Young above a silhouette of a German soldier dragging away a terrified Belgian girl; the background is vivid fire and ruin.

A new note is struck in the poster, by Williams, "For Victory"—the figure of Victory bearing a sword in one hand and the American shield in the other leading our troops; the American eagle and flag appear in the picture. "Come On" is the caption of a picture, by Whitehead, of a determined American soldier with a bayonet standing over a body of a dead German. Victory figures again in the beautiful female figure standing out against the American flag and pointing out to sea. She towers above a gun crew in action upon an American battleship when a gun is being actually served. This picture, which is by Howard Chandler Christy, is declared by experts to be technically accurate even to the marking of the shell which shows it to be an actual service shell for sinking submarines and not a target shell.

Exhortations to buy bonds and support the Fourth Liberty Loan are carried on all the posters.

EAST TAWAS DEPARTMENT

Devoted to the General and Personal News of the Week From Our Neighboring City on the East

Mrs. Joseph Dimmick is visiting friends in Grand Rapids this week.

Miss Helen Bischoff returned Monday from Detroit, where she has been visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fraser, who have been visiting in Flint returned home the past week.

J. E. Dillon and J. G. Dimmick are in Grand Rapids in attendance at the state republican convention.

Mrs. Robt. Alford and infant son, Kenneth, left Wednesday for a few weeks visit with friends in Bay City.

Mrs. Charles Wright of Maxwell Station is suffering from an extremely sore hand, the result of having a pitchfork time run through the palm.

Mrs. Benj. Sauve of Madison, Wis., is in the city visiting at the homes of Mrs. Robt. McElheron and Mrs. Nolan.

Miss Mary Gardner made a business trip to Bay City Tuesday.

Word has been received here that Miss Mythilde Lonsbury, who went to Detroit a few weeks ago to visit relatives, has been taken to a hospital there, suffering with scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martindale have returned from Standish where they attended the Arenac County Fair. The inclemency of the weather spoiled what otherwise would have been a splendid fair and carnival.

Mrs. Ernest Larson, who has been seriously ill for some weeks in a Port Huron hospital, is expected to arrive here next week. She will spend the winter here at the home of her mother, Mrs. Joseph Trudell.

Mr. and Mrs. Oakes of Albion, former East Tawas residents, who have been visiting friends in the city since Monday left Thursday morning for Detroit, from whence they will go to New Jersey to spend the winter.

Rev. S. Howarth of the Methodist church has been transferred by recent conference to the church at Sandusky, this state. Rev. Edw. Stevens, of Pickford will be in charge of the East Tawas church the coming year.

A rainbow of unusual brilliancy arched the eastern sky late last Thursday afternoon. The arch was complete and remained at least twenty minutes before beginning to fade. A secondary bow was visible for nearly the same length of time outside the northern half of the primary arch.

Charles A. Gardner, of Port Arthur, Ont., visited from Saturday until Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Gardner. Mr. Gardner had been in attendance at a pulp manufacturers convention in Montreal, and took this circuitous route home, in order to make East Tawas a short visit, he not having been here for five years.

Delbert Trudell was badly bruised (but fortunately escaped serious injury) by being knocked down by the auto driven by David Small, near the side entrance of the Holland Hotel Tuesday. It was one of those accidents in which neither side is at fault. Mr. Trudell stepping from behind an auto directly in the path of the other, neither pedestrian nor driver being able to see the other in time to avoid the collision.

The vandals who recently broke into the ranch house of J. W. Brooks and J. W. Sanderson, on the Huron shore, were possessed of at least a fair share of assurance as there is evidence of their having lived there for several days at least, and when they went they took all the sheets, pillow cases, blankets, dishes, etc., with them; also for some inexplicable reason they piled up and carried away two of the large cement spheres, at least three feet in circumference, a row of which ornamented the edge of the cement walk in front of the house.

THE JACKIE BAND

The Jackie Band entertained a large concourse of people of the Tawas and vicinity Monday evening at the Holland corner. Because of an epidemic of Spanish influenza among them only about half of their number were here, and fearing a further depletion of their ranks they did not remain here over night as planned, but hastened on their way the same evening, the railroad authorities holding the evening train here fifty minutes instead of the usual twenty, to give the audience which had been gathered despite the inclement weather a chance to hear the famous Jackies.

On the arrival of the train the Jackies were escorted to the Holland dining room, where dinner was served to them and while they were doing justice to the tempting meal, County Chairman Len. J. Patterson, on the hotel veranda introduced the speakers, A. H. Vandenberg, of Grand Rapids and F. L. Fenton, who each addressed the audience with stirring appeals for a record breaking subscription to the Fourth Liberty Loan.

Mr. Vandenberg spoke feelingly of the four Iosco county boys who have made the supreme sacrifice and are now sleeping beneath the French sod. He said: "These boys have given their appeals for a record breaking subscription to the Fourth Liberty Loan. They may not have died in vain."

He urged all to give as liberally as possible—not being content with a fifty dollar bond, when they were able to give $500.

One of the speakers told his hearers that it cost $2040 to keep one of our boys in France one year. "They are sending us daily bulletins of gains made along every mile of their front. Let us encourage them by sending them news of an abundance of funds to provide them with all the needs and comforts possible to them," he said. Each speaker met with hearty applause.

The Jackie Band then appeared on the hotel veranda and was met with a storm of applause. Although their ranks were depleted those who were able to appear rendered some splendid music. Besides the instrumental music, the boys sang the popular "K-k-katie," and "Buy a Liberty Bond Today," assisted in the latter song by several young ladies of East Tawas. Then their time being up, they gave a yell for "East Tawas" and boarded the train, hearty applause following them.

We regret the abbreviated visit they paid us, but are grateful to have had them with us for even so short a time.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank the members of the Masonic Order, the Eastern Star, the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the Lady Rebekahs, the Pastime Club, the City Council, the Woman's Guild, the D. & M. shop employees and friends, for the sympathy and kindness shown us and for the beautiful floral tributes sent at the time of the death and burial of our husband and father.

Mrs. Georgia Hanson, and family.

ARRANGE WEARING TEST OF SHOES

In cooperation with the War Department, the leather and paper laboratory of the Bureau of Chemistry has arranged for wearing tests of shoe leather to be made by a regiment or a less number of soldiers in the field. The laboratory is having between 1,000 and 1,500 pairs of shoes manufactured, and they are to be issued to a regiment that is to be designated by the War Department. Complete records, from the hide to the worn-out shoes, are to be kept, and it is expected that the information obtained will be valuable to the general public as well as to the military authorities. Approximately 12 kinds of sole leather, sole leather substitutes, and materials for uppers are to be tested. It is expected that the wearing test will last six months. The shoes are to be distributed among the men of different companies in the regiment, so that the results will be strengthened by the law averages.

OUR INDIVIDUAL PART.

Some observers think that the most characteristic thing about the American soldiers in France, something which astounds the enemy, and excites the admiration of our allies, is the capacity of the American soldiers to do individual thinking and fighting. The German fights successfully only in mass formation, in organized bodies, while every American soldier has an initiative and independence of action which gives him remarkable efficiency in open fighting. They are not senseless cogs, but each is an individual working unit in a great fighting machine.

Every American at home should feel an individual responsibility and do his or her individual part in winning the war. There is not an American citizen who can not help win the war. The Fourth Liberty Loan drive, which begins September 28, offers a great opportunity for concerted action and for individual action, and the loan will be a tremendous success if each American will do his or her individual part as each American soldier in France does his part. Our soldiers deserve such support from the people at home.

SOME LIBERTY LOAN SLOGANS.

Liberty Bonds or German taxes. A bond slacker is the Kaiser's backer.

A man who won't lend is the Kaiser's friend.

The more bonds you buy the fewer boys will die.

Let all get on the bond wagon. Be one of the millions to lend the billions.

Dig up the coin and bury the Hun. Buy bonds before it's verboten. Idle dollars are pro-German.

Put the "pay" into patriotism. Bonds speak louder than words. If you can't fight, your money can. Freemen buy bonds; slaves wear them.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors who rendered their assistance and sympathy during the illness and death of our loved wife, mother and sister. Also for the beautiful flowers.

Orlando Westcott and Children Mrs. John McMullen Mrs. John Dilworth.

NOTICE

The party who borrowed or stole the buggy pole from my barn will do well to return same, as I have a reasonable suspicion who they are. If returned no questions will be asked. adv-38 THOS. H. HILL

NO CONVENANTED PEACE WITH GERMANY

America, unless we repudiate civilization and abandon humanity and put a premium on savagery and brutality can make no conventioned peace, no peace by agreement or negotiation with Germany. It would be a covenant with hell a partnership with infamy.

Nor would such a peace secure peace, except so long as it suited Germany. We can judge the future only by the past, and to Germany sacred treaties are scraps of paper only. Germany's whole history is a record of national treachery, national bad faith, national dishonor, national murder, and national infamy.

Article 56 of the Hague Convention, to which Germany solemnly subscribed, is: "Family honor and rights, the lives of persons and private property, as well as religious convictions and practice, must be respected. Private property can not be confiscated."

The world knows how Germany has observed this article. There are millions of individual witnesses to her flagrant breaches of it. Every acre of foreign soil Germany has occupied bears mute, but unimpeachable evidence of it. There is plenty of German evidence of it, too.

"The goods of different sorts seized in the enemies' territories are in such large quantities that the difficulty of knowing where to put them increases day by day. At the request of the Prussian minister of war, all chambers of commerce have been asked to give all possible information with regard to storehouses, sheds, etc., which could be used temporarily to warehouse the spoil." (From the Frankfurter Zeitung, January, 1918.)

The German papers have been crowded with advertisements of sale of property taken from France and Belgium. Members of the Reichstag have boasted of, others have censured, the amount of booty brought to Germany from the occupied territory, and the destruction has been far greater than the confiscation.

Of the old men and children murdered, of the women and girls ravished, of the noncombatants taken from their homes and deported to work for their conquerors, of the merchant ships sunk and passengers and crews murdered, of the hospital ships sunk, the hospitals and unfortified cities bombed, of the mutilation and murder by crucifixion and otherwise of wounded and captured soldiers—of all this beastliness there is plenty of evidence, evidence that no one can disbelieve.

The best answer to German peace propaganda, is sinking more U-boats, sending more men to France, speeding up our work along every line and a heavy subscription to the Fourth Liberty Loan. Peace must mean the triumph of right and justice, the defeat of Germanism, not a truce with it, not a compromise with it.

Our soldiers in France are gloriously doing their part toward victory; the Liberty Loan subscription must show them that the people at home are doing theirs.

TO CONSERVE SHIPPING SPACE

Chicago, Sept 23—Maj. Gen. George W. Goethals, Chief of the division of purchase, storage and traffic of the general staff of the Army, has commissioned Arthur Hammerschlag, President of the Carnegie Institute, and Lieut. Col. J. W. McIntosh, Subsistence Division, Q. M. C., N. A., to co-operate with the Chicago packers in experiments which may save up to 40 per cent of the tremendous cargo space now required for shipping fresh beef. President Hammerschlag and Col. McIntosh have already reached the stock yards and the experiments have begun.

The experiments contemplated not only the conservation of shipping space, but also the problem of having the packages small enough to be handled by the class of labor available at unloading ports overseas and the quick and convenient issue at supply depots in France.

They range from the mere cutting of the carcass into more convenient sizes and shapes to the entire boning of the carcass to be packed in boxes. It is estimated that if the plans prove practicable a saving of from 15 to 40 per cent of the room now used in transporting the same amount of beef will be made possible. Since fresh beef constitutes a considerable part of some 350,000,000 pounds of beef and pork products now sent monthly to allied countries, the saving by the new methods may prove to be considerable if found practical. The bones and surplus fats salvaged by the operation will be converted into various by-products.

The chief difficulties encountered so far have been the necessity of obtaining enough labor sufficiently skilled in this particular work and the providing of facilities necessary to handle the quantities required without interfering with production of other meat products being prepared for our armies and those of our allies.

It's billions for defense or billions for indemnity.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists, 75c. P. J. CHENEY & CO. Toledo, O.

THE WHITE HOUSE WASHINGTON

Again the Government comes to the people of the country with the request that they lend their money, and lend it upon a more liberal scale than ever before, in order that the great war for the rights of America and the liberation of the world may be prosecuted with ever increasing vigor to a victorious conclusion. And it makes the appeal with the greatest confidence because it knows that every day it is becoming clearer and clearer to thinking men throughout the nation that the winning of the war is an essential investment. The money that is held back now will be of little use or value if the war is not won and the selfish masters of Germany are permitted to dictate what America may and may not do. Men in America, besides, have from the first been now dedicated both their lives and their fortunes to the vindication and maintenance of the great principles and objects for which our Government was set up. They will not fail now to show the world for what their wealth was intended.

EFFECTS OF NOTED BATTLES
Probable Results if Outcome Had Been Different, Explained in Book by English Writer Years Ago.
About 60 years ago an English writer, Sir Edward Cressy, published a book which he called "The Fifteen Decisive Battles of the World." His purpose was to describe those great military events which have had the greatest influence upon human history.
Each battle described, had it resulted differently, would have completely changed the course of civilization, says the World's Work. Had Charles Martel not have won the battle of Tours, for example, the whole of Europe, and that means also North and South America, would very likely have become Mohammedan in religion. "Perhaps the interpretation of the Koran," says Glibson, describing the consequences of this battle, "would now be taught in the schools of Oxford and her pupils might demonstrate to the English people the truth of the revelation of Mohamet."
Ten of Cressy's epochal battles have been fought since the beginning of the Christian era. Four of them represent victories which were won on French soil—the battle of Chalons, A. D. 451; the battle of Tours, 732; Joan of Arc's victory at Orleans, 1429, and the battle of Valmy, in 1792. Another was a great French victory won on English soil—the battle of Hastings in 1066. Two others—the battle of Blenheim, in 1704, and the battle of Waterloo in 1815—were great French defeats. It appears, therefore, that of the ten most decisive battles fought in the Christian era five were great French victories and two were French defeats. No other nation has any such military history as this. This mere record indicates the part which France has played in advancing civilization. So far as Europe is concerned the greatest events in modern history have taken place on French soil. At this time, when the democratic nations have joined hands to deliver France from the cowardly attack which Germany has made upon her, it is well to keep this fact in mind.

Council of National Defense.
The Council of National Defense was created under an act of congress passed August 29, 1916, and the same act provided for the creation of an advisory commission of seven to act with, under and by the authority of the council. By the terms of the act this council, with the "co-ordination of industries and resources for the national security and welfare," and with the "creation of relations which will render possible in the time of need the immediate concentration and utilization of the resources of the nation." The main body, or central council of defense at Washington, consists of the secretaries of war, navy, interior, agriculture, commerce and labor. The advisory commission consists of railroad presidents, financiers, manufacturers, educators and specialists in particular lines. The board acts as a clearing house for the war industry needs of the nation with authority to determine the most effective ways of meeting them, and the best means and methods of increasing production, including the creation or extension of industries demanded by the emergency; the relative urgency of the different needs, also considering price factors, industrial and labor aspects and conditions affecting food supplies and prices. The authority of the council is nation wide.

Non-Freezing Mixture.
Protection against possible freezing of wet materials in a cement mixer during cold weather is obtained at low cost by using an oil-burning heater which can be attached to practically any mixing machine. Such a device unquestionably can save money for a contractor by making it safe to operate continuously when the temperature is low, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The heater is provided with a 25-gallon tank which is mounted above the mixer and is connected by a pipe with a burner situated at the opening in the side of the mixing drum. compressed air, obtained either from a hand pump or a compressor, is used to vaporize the oil and in this way a flame is forced into the interior of the drum, keeping the materials there thoroughly warm.

Save Tin Plate.
The housewife will do her bit in the conservation of the limited supply of tin plate by soaking and cooking her own dried peas and lima beans in the kitchen and thereby releasing a proportional amount of tin cans for use in the packing of perishable foods, where they are greatly needed. Consumers are urged by the department of agriculture, to read labels of canned peas and lima beans carefully in order to see whether they are getting a fresh or a soaked dried product.

Vacuum the Horse.
The latest application of the vacuum cleaning principle is to the grooming of horses. Walter B. Guild of Roxbury, Mass., has invented a kind of glove which takes the place of the old curry comb and brush and cleans the hide thoroughly and quickly, says Popular Science Monthly. Between the fingers of the glove small, stiff bristles are set. These stir up the dust in the hide. The brushes are separated from the walls of the glove.
