

War Romance in the Stars.
Almost overhead in the early evening are some faint stars, constituting the constellation Coma Berenices, or "Berenice's Hair." It commemorates Queen Berenice, wife of Ptolemy III, who offered her hair to Venus to secure his safe return from war. The queen's hair was sacrificed, but disappeared from the temple. Hence the legend that her golden locks had turned into a constellation.

Another to Be Found.
A tracer went to locate the old-fashioned man who wore a peachstone watch chain, reports from Clearfield, Pa.: "Located my man. He also carries a combination pen, pencil, toothpick, and rubber stamp. Any instructions?" Certainly; draw for expense money and hunt for the old-fashioned woman who used to grease the pancake griddle with a pork rind.—Buffalo News.

AMERICA AND ITALY

"Italy gave to the world the discoverer of this great country. America now gives the land of Columbus food and fighting men to aid in the common battles against arrogance and anocracy. During the 426 years which marks the lapse of time between the discovery of America and the sailing of the first transport of American soldiers for the European battlefield, many changes have been recorded by history for these countries. Italy has had her Mazzini and her Garibaldi; America her Washington and Lincoln. But today we find these two countries drawn together to fight a common foe, that threatens the future not only of the Allied nations but of all civilization.

"The courageous rally of the Italian army after temporary disaster will always stand out as one of the dramatic incidents of the war. Italy, like the other Allies, has become war weary. She has had to summon all her moral and material forces to keep in the fight. She needed America's reinforcement. How keenly she appreciated it when it came and how quickly she has responded to it is shown in the following words of welcome to our boys: "A cause which by force of its ideals has succeeded in drawing to itself the aid of so great a people cannot fail to triumph." We shall triumph! We shall conquer! Is Italy's rejuvenated resolve.

"America's responsibility in fostering and maintaining this resolve does not end with the sending of her soldiers. There is the further responsibility of sharing her food with Italy. Contrast for a moment the following food conditions: America is being asked just now to confine her beef consumption to the lighter cuts of beef; otherwise there are no special meat restrictions. A weekly meat report in a Milan paper during July reads: Meat is so scarce that it will either have to be limited to sick people or be sold but two days in the week. There is a great scarcity of pork." In Genoa the new meat regulations as published in July contain the following items: "The quantity is limited to 100 grm. (This is about 3 1/2 oz.)

"The butcher must write down all meat sold daily, as well as the number of the meat card license, and the name of the buyer." "The Turin meat ration is 200 grm. (about 7 oz.) per person per week as decreed by the mayor. Offal will be subject to rationing, and requires meat coupons, the same as meat." "Take the sugar situation. Italy's sugar rationing is but one pound per person per month, just half our own. The Courier d' Italia of July 6 says: "The total lack of sugar in Viterbo continues. Only a very small quantity is allotted to the city. Even hospitals and sick people have none."

"The use of sugar beets for any purpose other than the manufacture of sugar is forbidden." "Nowhere is the need of sugar as a fuel and energy-giving food greater than among the Italian soldiers where the war is being carried on in the cold of the hazardous Alpine region."

"The menus of all public eating places are sharply censored and regulated. A stamped copy of the bill of fare must be posted conspicuously in the restaurant and the prices charged for food must not exceed those posted. It is also forbidden to serve any dish which does not appear upon the bill of fare."

"America has already sent her fighters to the Italian front. The American people must now save food in order to share with these and with the soldiers and civilians of that country of Columbus."

M. A. C. TO CALL MORE BOYS FOR STUDENTS ARMY TRAINING CORPS

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 8—A word of cheer for the hundreds of young men who were unable this fall to secure immediate admission to the student's army training corps of M. A. C. was offered by Dr. F. S. Kedzie, president of the college, today. Numerous calls for more boys will be made at intervals throughout the year, according to President Kedzie, to replace members of the corps now located here who may be transferred elsewhere.

Young men between the ages of 18 and 21, who are physically fit, are entitled to apply for admission to the corps, the new orders say, whether they are high school graduates or not. The suggestion is being made to interested individuals that they write to M. A. C., submitting their high-school credits and listing their other qualifications. If accepted, their will be placed on file, subject to call.

Young men who are accepted will upon their arrival at the college be given their uniforms, board, lodging and education free, together with a private's pay of $30 a month, and in time will be sent to officers' camps, detailed for special training, or sent to army cantonments, depending upon their ability.

At present there are approximately 1350 men in the students army training corps at M. A. C. In a few days, however, (probably Oct. 10) 83 of them will be sent to officers training camps. It will be to fill vacancies created in the corps by just such transfers as these that new calls will be made. Boys who have filed application at the college will be given first consideration.

FROM OUR SOLDIER BOYS

FROM VIRIL V. HILL
Camp Upton, Long Island, N.Y., Sept. 29.

Dear Parents and All:— I guess its about time I let you know where I am and how I like it. I am at Camp Upton, Long Island.

We left Georgia Sept. 25 and arrived at 3:30 yesterday. We had a fine trip, came by way of Richmond, Washington, D. C. Philadelphia and New Jersey, just across the river from New York city. I sure saw some great sights. We saw the Statue of Liberty that is at the mouth of N. Y. harbor and two of the tallest buildings in the city. A big steamer came in from France and had a lot of soldiers coming home on deck. They were pretty happy lot of boys. But they did not have us stopped for being happy. We were sure glad to get out of Georgia.

The only thing we did not get much to eat on the trip. We were up at 3:30 the 26th when we left Ga. Had a good breakfast but no dinner, and a sandwich for supper. The 27th a sandwich for breakfast, no dinner, supper at D. C., all the fried cakes and coffee we could eat. The 28th we woke up in Jersey City and took the ferry across to Brooklyn. The Red Cross there gave us a sandwich and some coffee, that was at 8:00. No dinner, and supper at 9:30 last night. So you see there was not much in our stomachs.

It is pleasant here today, the air is so much nicer than in the south. The fellows from the south nearly froze to death last night, but I thought it was just right. They have Spanish fever here. It is like the gripe and not a bit dangerous if you do not catch cold, and if you do it turns to pneumonia. We are not going to stay here long if they do not quarantine us in, which they are quite apt to do. I saw a train load of Michigan boys in N. Y. city yesterday. They were class two B men from Syracuse, N. Y., but I did not know any of them. Some were from Bay City, Grayling and Alpena, and all over, but none from Tawas.

I guess I will have to close and go to work.
With love,
Viril

October 2
Dear Parents and All:— Received your letter and Red's yesterday and was pleased to hear from you. I have not got the box yet, but the mail is coming soon and perhaps it will be on it.

We leave for Hoboken tomorrow, that is where we sail from. It is just across the river from N. Y. city. Of course we don't know just the day we sail, that is kept secret you know. You need not worry about me. I can take care of myself very well I think. At least I have so far. We got our pay yesterday so I am rich again.

Just wish you could see me in my overseas clothes. They sure are great. Wool underwear and wool all through, wrap leggings like officers, and caps like the aviation corps wears. I got another pair of number nine hobbis. Gosh! they are heavy boys. I think I will be all O. K. without a sweater. I think I can buy one. Well, mess is ready and I am ready to eat.

I am back again and am full of slush and other stuff. This is a big camp and a good one, as much as I have seen of it. Must close and do my washing. Ha! Ha! I am pretty good at washing.

I am sending my old hat cord. It is an ordnance cord, and hat straps, and mechanic's collar emblem and maybe some other stuff as soon as I can look it up.

The weather is nice here and I like it, but am anxious to get to France and help do the job up for Bill! We are all writing cards and they keep them at Hoboken and as soon as we arrive overseas they mail them to you at home and let you know we are safe in France. That way you find out two weeks quicker about our trip. Must close.

Love to all,
Viril.

COUNTY AGENT COLUMN

C. P. Milham.

Nearly everyone has the gripe, the county agent included.

A meeting of importance to the farmers of Plainfield township was held Monday evening. The purpose was to organize themselves into a co-operative shipping association. Mr. Follette acted as temporary chairman. Mr. Streeter was elected president, Mr. Scofield, secretary; and Mr. Bills treasurer. The association has nearly nine thousand bushels of potatoes to ship. The first carlot going out the first part of next week.

A meeting of farmers in Reno township will be held in the town hall October 16th, at eight o'clock in the evening. Honor badges earned by boys who enrolled in the U. S. Boy's Working Reserve will be presented, and general agricultural problems discussed.

Literature explaining the Federal Farm Loan has been received, anyone interested may have them sent or come to the office for them.

A copy of "Farmers Account Book No. 1" has been received at the office. There need be no reason now, why everyone owning or renting a farm cannot tell just what they have received for their year's work. The account books cost only 15c which merely covers cost of material and printing. The account books are sent out through County Agents and banks. Every farmer should get one of these simple record accounts. There is also in the book a place for a personal statement sheet, or agricultural credit sheet which makes it easier to get short time loans from local banks. Farmers organizations get your orders in early. A good time to start the accounts is the first of January, so in case there is any question about income tax the account book will show it. The books have been used successfully in other states, and there is no reason why they should not prove popular in Iosco county.

SHORTAGE OF SEED CORN IMMINENT, M. A. C. DECLARES

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 8—A shortage of seed corn is imminent in Michigan, according to the department of farm crops of the Michigan Agricultural college, which has just completed a survey of the seed corn situation in the state. The dry weather, coupled with the fact, that much of the corn brought to Michigan this season was unsuited for the production of seed stock, is responsible for the condition, the report from the department declares. The lack is especially acute in Presque Isle, Cass, Van Buren, Mecosta, Wayne, Gladwin and Midland.

"Don't select ears and then leave them in a pile or in crates," warns J. W. Nicolson, extension specialist in farm crops for the college. "The ears may be sound, but most ripe ears contain from 25 to 35 per cent moisture and molds readily attack them. Your corn may suffer serious injury from these molds unless the ears are handled carefully—stored, that is, so that each ear can dry separately in a well-ventilated place."

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

TO THE ELECTORS OF IOSCO COUNTY:

I have decided to run on slips for the office of County Treasurer at the November election, for the reason that I believe I was defeated for the nomination at the August primaries by my opponent circulating the report that I was not qualified to fill the position. He also stated that I could not do the work of supervisor and that I could not make my tax roll. Dimmick lied when he circulated these reports. I make my tax rolls, and as to my work on the board of supervisors I will leave that to the taxpayers to decide. If a majority of the supervisors had voted as I did on the book question and on the Flynn and Wilkins attorney fees, it would have saved the taxpayers several thousand dollars. I will admit that I did not fill the office of supervisor to suit the bunch that controlled the board for several years.

Mr. Dimmick has been asking the electors if they are going to trust me to handle the county money, and then tells them if they do the taxpayers will pay for it.

Dimmick asked the electors to look at the two men, that ought to decide who should hold the office. I do not know what he means by this, except that if you are sunburned from working on a farm you are disqualified from holding any office except a taxpayer. I have been that 42 years. I came from the business college in Toronto to Michigan, and I can do the work of County Treasurer.

Dimmick said in his campaign eight years ago that he did not want to make a family affair of the County Treasurer's office like Stockman did, all he wanted it was two terms.

If I am entrusted with the office it will be properly attended to.

Mrs. Wakeman calling on friends while the doctor was on professional duty. The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bronson of Burleigh has been very ill the past two weeks and at this time grave doubts are entertained for its recovery. A telegram was received by Theo. St. James on Wednesday of last week announcing the very serious illness of his son, Victor, at a training camp in New Jersey. He left immediately for that place and a message received here Monday conveys the glad news that he is somewhat improved. "Germany's Peace Note" sounds good to us so far as it goes; but—inasmuch as we have been compelled to sacrifice our young manhood and womanhood, with tear-stained eyes, and hearts filled to the brim with sorrow, we stand with our president for peace that will endure to the end of time, that those who may come after us will not have to suffer the awful realities of war.

LONG LAKE BREEZES.

H. H. Bates autoed to Rose City Sunday. J. D. McCrum of Tawas City was in town over night Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Nicholls entertained the Nisbet family at dinner Sunday. Harry Wolfson left Tuesday for his home in Cleveland, Ohio, after spending the summer here with his brother, Frank. Mr. and Mrs. Obrien and Miss Roseavier of West Branch visited Mrs. Obrien's brother, William Thompson, Saturday. Some people think preachers never work at anything but their own work. If you have any doubts in your mind about it just take a peep inside Fred Holbeck's silo. On Thursday, Oct. 3, the funeral took place at South Branch cemetery of the baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Berry of Maltby. The service was conducted by Rev. C. J. White of Curtisville and Long Lake. At Curtisville Baptist church last Sunday afternoon the funeral service of the late John Bowser was conducted. The service was largely attended and the sermon was preached by Rev. Joshua Roberts of Tawas City. Rev. C. J. White, the resident pastor, was also present and assisted with the service. The late Mr. Bowser was well known and highly respected, having resided at Curtisville for many years. He leaves a widow and one son to mourn his departure. Last Sunday morning the funeral of the late Private Melvin C. Ros of Maltby took place. The service was conducted by pastor C. J. White of Long Lake and was very impressive. The body was brought home on Saturday from Irvin hospital, Syracuse, N. Y. The chief mourners present were his father and mother, four brothers and four sisters. Melvin was a bright and industrious boy and he will be greatly missed. He was only 27 years of age. The funeral was very largely attended.

Hatton and son, Howard, spent Sunday at the Main cottage at Island lake. Miss Hazel McLeod spent a few days with her parents this week, owing to the East Tawas school being closed on account of so much sickness.

TOWNLINE TOPICS.

Mrs. David Ulman and children left Monday for a short visit with Mrs. Pete Hammond of Emery Junction. Rev. McMichael visited on the Townline the first of the week. Mrs. Aug. Freel of Emery Junction was a business caller here Monday. Remember the M. E. church service begins at 10:30 o'clock sharp now and Sunday school starts as soon as the service is over. So everybody be on time. David Ulman left for Bay City Monday to seek employment. There was quite a lot of excitement Sunday over the false news received, but it showed the people's spirit.

CASUALTIES

What do they mean to you-- those ever-lengthening columns of names?

Are they just the unfortunate victims of "the emergency," those men whose names appear each day under the stereotyped "Roll of Honor" heading?

Or do those lists make your heart jump, your jaws set tight and your fists clench?

They are the martyrs to the cause of Liberty!

They have offered for sacrifice their all; and our holy cause has taken all, or at least-- even in the slightest wound--more than all our dollars can ever buy back again.

What wouldn't you give to stop those grim lists!

Think of it, YOUR boy, son, brother, husband, sweetheart--his name might be there.

Would Iosco County's entire quota of Liberty Bonds be too much to give to keep that dear name out of the dread "Roll of Honor"? A thousand times "No!"

Then for God's sake don't argue, don't hesitate, don't quibble.

It isn't a question of will you buy; or how much shall you buy, but--

CAN YOU BUY ONE MORE?

For their sake buy and buy.

And when you begin to feel you are really sacrificing, when buying really hurts a little-- then read today's casualty list; thank God for boys like those who gladly sacrificed ALL--and buy some more.

The least you can do for the Fourth Liberty Loan--and for Them--is to buy twice as many bonds as you did last time.
