Michigan automobile license plates for 1920 will not carry the state seal as they have before, because the numerals have become so numerous that room has to be provided for the additional digit. Orders for next year call for 325,000, which it is believed, will last until the middle of next summer.

A letter from P. J. McCombs, Oakland, Calif., renewing his subscription to the Herald, states that the family are enjoying the best of health and sends regards to all their old friends here. Mr. McCombs says they expect to make a trip East next summer and hope to spend some time in Tawas City.

The Herald is informed by Sergt. John Tkacik, Alpena, recruiting officer, that the air service has been recruiting up to its full strength and no more enlistments for this branch will be received. There are still vacancies, however, in all other branches, and the recruit has his choice of the branch in which he wishes to serve.

Mrs. R. G. Harting shipped her household goods to Pontiac this week and with her daughter, Mary, will leave for their future home Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harting have been lifelong residents of Tawas City and it is with great regret that their many friends here see them depart. The Herald join with these friends in wishing their success and happiness in their new home.

At the recent eighth grade examination a series of questions in agriculture were furnished by the officials of the state fair, the boy standing highest in answering these questions and also in the regular examination to be rewarded by a trip to the state fair at the expense of the management. The distinction this year fell to John Follett of Hale, with Charles Hughes of Tawas as alternate.

Mrs. Eugene Bing left Wednesday for a short visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. L. D. Jacobs, in Detroit.

Miss Belle McRae accompanied her little nephew and niece, Alexander and Jean McRae to their home at Flint Thursday.

Misses Fern and Elizabeth Mark and Misses Rhea and Mae McDougall returned to Detroit via boat from Oscoda Wednesday, after a ten days visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mark.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kirby and Mrs. Clifford Gandy and Harold Sanford returned Wednesday to their home at Decatur, Ill. after visiting for a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Culham and other relatives.

A tax homestead sale of property in Iosco county was held at the court house Tuesday, in which several pieces of city property were sold. The Eliza Wood property was purchased by Collie Johnson, the lot next to the Kelly building by Mrs. Lida Stickney and several lots in block 18, Porterfields addition by Birt Fowler.

A Tawas City young man has been the subject of considerable "joshing" this week on account of his haste in getting away from a bear which he saw in a blackberry patch last Sunday. It is reported that the speed he made through the brush and over logs would compare favorably with some motor cars. His clothes suffered considerable damage, but he got out of sight of the bear in record time.

In celebration of his ten years of services as teacher of the Zion Lutheran school, about 100 friends of Martin C. Grueber gathered at the school last Thursday evening and gave him a surprise. The evening was very pleasantly spent in games and music and an address was made by Rev. H. J. Reithmeier, pastor of the Zion church. Refreshments were served and Mr. Grueber was presented with a $25 present in token of the occasion.

The I. O. O. F. lodge at East Tawas and the Federated crafts of the D. & M. car shops have combined for a big Labor Day celebration at Tawas Beach next Monday. A basket picnic, games, sports and dancing will furnish the entertainment for the day and everyone who attends is guaranteed a good time. There will also be a big auto parade starting at the City hall, Tawas City, at 9:30 a. m. and proceeding through East Tawas to the Beach, with prizes for the best decorated cars.

BOND ISSUE CARRIED

Only a small percentage of the voters of Tawas City turned out last Monday to vote on the question of bonding the city for the sum of $10,000 to purchase a motor fire engine and hose.

Of those who voted, however, about four to one were in favor of the proposition, which was carried by a vote of 54 to 14.

It is now up to the city council to expend this money in a manner that will give the city the maximum of protection at the minimum expense. It is probable that a motor pumping engine and a chemical engine will both be purchased, together with enough new hose to adequately handle any fire at which it may be needed.

This is an improvement which the city has long needed, the present old hand engine having seen about 55 years service and being worn out.

MEATS SHIPPED ABROAD

From July 1 to August 4 last, 15,114,047 pounds of fresh and frozen beef, 6,794,538 pounds of canned and pickled beef, 15,297 pounds of lamb and mutton, 3,153,832 pounds of fresh and frozen pork, 50,367,813 pounds of hams, shoulders, and bacon, 55,281,142 pounds of lard and lard compound, 1,304,472 pounds of sausage, 57,007,129 pounds of salted and pickled pork, and 253,966 pounds of poultry and game were exported from New York to Belgium, Holland, and Sweden. In this period, also 420 horses were exported to France and 126 head of cattle were shipped to Belgium, according to records of the United States Department of Agriculture.

PICNIC A SUCCESS

The largest and probably the most enjoyable picnic ever staged in Iosco county was held at Sand Lake August 21st. Early in the morning a down-pour of rain prevented work in the fields and improved the roads leading to the picnic grounds.

At ten o'clock teams drawing loads of happy people bringing well filled baskets began to arrive, and at one o'clock it was estimated that there were 100 Fords, 40 other automobiles, and nearly 100 teams, making an attendance of at least 1,500 people. The grounds were so spacious that crowds were well distributed, everyone enjoying the shade afforded by the beautiful oak trees.

After a basket dinner the crowd assembled in the open space for the races, the prizes for which were donated by merchants of Tawas City and East Tawas who were interested in making the picnic a success. The races were entered into with much enthusiasm. Mr. Michael taking charge of the sports, assisted by Mr. Merchant and Mr. Milham.

Winners of the events are as follows:

Boys race 15-18—First, Rex Jennings; Second, Gen Long.

Girls race 10-12—First, Jessie Robinson; Second, Evelyn Butler.

Boys race 12-15—First, Roy Raferty; Second, Clair Smith.

Girls race 12-15—First, Flossie Figley; Second, Florence Humphrey.

Boys race 15-18—First, Rex Jennings; Second, Basil Humphrey.

Girls race 15-18—First, Clara Lety; Second, Myrtle Johnson.

Married Ladies race—First, Mrs. A. Bartlett; Second, Mrs. Koehn.

Young Ladies race—First, Bessie Mark; Second, Dorothy Strauer.

Mens Race—First, Willard Robinson; Second, Earl Flynn.

Young Mens race—First, Rex Jennings; Second, Arthur Anschutz.

Fat Ladies race—First, Mrs. E. R. Henry, Ohio; Second Mrs. Chas. Cotrell.

Following the races the following program of speaking was heard by a large audience:

Miss Jennie Buel, Secretary of the State Grange gave a very interesting talk pointing out the changed conditions through which we were passing.

E. B. Follett, who acted as chairman emphasized the statement that it should be the plan of everyone on a farm to keep cost production records to find out whether a crop was a paying proposition to raise.

C. P. Milham, County Agricultural Agent, spoke a few minutes urging the farmers and business men of the county to "wake up" to the great problems confronting both country and city people, to get together in a friendly way to promote a better feeling between the two.

T. W. Michael State Organizer for the Grange, spoke at length on the advantages and opportunities of cooperation, urging the farmers to cultivate a better cooperative spirit among themselves and the business men. Especially did he urge the farmers to support the cooperative elevator.

Following the speaking an interesting, but one sided ball game was played between the east and west half of the county for a cash prize of $25 presented by the banks of Iosco county. The east side won 13 to 0.

Batteries for the winners Allen and McCordle, for the losers, Mark and McCrum.

Merchants of Tawas City and East Tawas closed their stores on the proclamation of the mayors of the towns, and many expressed the hope that the event be made an annual affair. Others expressed the hope that in the near future the county should purchase the site and make of it a county picnic ground. Both suggestions are good and all thinking people will strive to make both a reality.

One event which was forgotten in the good times, was the securing of names of men bringing the largest number in one load to the picnic, the prize for which was a years subscription to the Tawas Herald donated by Mr. Ballard. One load of eleven was seen, but the name of the driver was not secured. If you who read this drove the team carrying eleven or more to the picnic, inform either Mr. Ballard or Mr. Milham and secure the prize.

VICTORY BUTTONS FOR THE RETURNED SOLDIERS

The War Department has notified Secretary F. F. Taylor of the Iosco County Red Cross that at an early date a distribution of the Victory Buttons for all men who saw active duty in the late war, will be made through the agency of the local Red Cross societies.

The buttons will be issued to all officers, enlisted men, field clerks and members of the Army Nurses' Corps who served on active duty in the army of the United States between April 6, 1917, and Nov. 11, 1918, and whose service was honorable. The buttons will be of silver for those who were wounded in action and bronze for all others.

Victory medals will not be issued to the following classes, as they rendered no service to the War Department and were never on active duty within the meaning of the phrase as applied to the button:

1. Conscientious objectors who refused to wear the uniform or accept service in a branch of the army.

2. Men accepted by local draft boards but rejected at camps before entering upon regular duty thereat.

It has been suggested that the date for the distribution of these buttons be made the occasion for a regular "Welcome Home" for all Iosco county boys who have returned from service. If the war department gives sufficient notice so that such a celebration can be arranged it would be an excellent feature and should be carried out.

Watch for further announcement of date of the distribution.

POSTMASTER EXAMINATION

At the request of the Postmaster General the United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination to be held at Bay City, Mich. on September 24, 1919 for the position of postmaster at Tawas City. This office has an annual compensation of $1500.

To be eligible for this examination an applicant must be a citizen of the United States, must actually reside within the delivery of the office and have so resided at the time the present vacancy occurred.

Applicants must have reached their twenty-first but not their sixty-fifth birthday on the date of the examination.

Application Form 2241 and full information concerning the requirements of the examination may be secured from the postmaster at the place of vacancy or from the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C. Applications should be properly executed and filed with the Commission at Washington, D. C. in time to arrange for the examination of the applicant.

CAN'T BAR FISHERMAN

An opinion of deep interest to fishermen was handed down by Attorney General Grosbeck recently at the request of the Big Rapids sportsmen, who had been barred from the Little South by property owner who had posted "No fishing" signs on their lands.

The stream runs through the lands and is a tributary to the Pere Marquette. The fisherman were ordered out of the stream though they had gotten into the stream at the bridge where the stream crosses the highway.

Attorney General Grosbeck ruled that the general public has rights on the stream which private owners are exceeding their limits in forbidding. Under the ruling it will necessarily follow that the action of some owners in fencing the stream in such a manner that fisherman cannot wade under or get through, will have to be altered.—Oscoda Herald.

TAWAS CITY SHUTS OUT HEMLOCK

Tawas City shut out Hemlock last Sunday at the fair grounds by a score of 4 to 0. The game was fast and three double plays by Hemlock helped greatly. Biggs, who started twirling for the Hemlock boys was taken out in the fourth after four hits and two hit batsmen. This inning counted for three runs for Tawas City. McCordle, who finished was in his usual good form, striking out seven and allowing but three hits, two of which coming in one eight gave Tawas their other run. Hemlock reached third twice, but was unable to put a run across the plate. Mark who was pitching for Tawas pitched his usual good game. (Continued on last page).

FOR SALE

My house and five lots in Tawas City. Also a kitchen range, hard coal burner, some household goods and 16 hens. George Laidlaw, Tawas City, Michigan. 36-4f

LABERGE-McMURRAY

The marriage of Miss Mary Hortense LaBerge, youngest daughter of Mrs. Noe LaBerge to Roy J. McMurray son of Mr. and Mrs. William McMurray was solemnized at six o'clock last Monday morning at St. Josephs Catholic church, Rev. T. W. Albin being the officiating clergyman.

The bride wore a traveling costume of black velvet with hat to match and carried pink and white rose buds. She was attended by Miss Genevieve Taylor in a blue tailored suit and carrying pink rose buds. The groom was attended by Mr. Clare McGuire.

Miss Ruth Toska played the wedding march, and also rendered other selections during the ceremony.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, at which thirty-three guests were seated. The tables, beautifully decorated with the brides colors, pink and white, were ingeniously arranged so that the bridal party faced all the guests. The rooms were festooned in pink and white and the arch between the parlors was hung with dainty ferns.

The bridal couple left on the morning train amid a shower of confetti and rice for a short wedding trip after which they will make their home in Saginaw, where Mr. McMurray has a position as teacher.

The pre-nuptial social activities in honor of the bride were a granite shower and six o'clock dinner given August 9th by Miss Genevieve Taylor, at which fifteen intimate friends of the bride were entertained. The decorations were flowers and a floral wedding bell from which real wedding chimes rung.

The Misses Gladys Owen and Mary Richards entertained at a luncheon on the sixteenth, and the guests presented the bride with an electric iron. The center piece was a tiny bride and groom in a floral bower, and the place cards were snap shots of the prospective bride and groom attached to pink and white balloons.

Last Friday the Misses Kunze entertained at a linen shower at their home, eighteen guests being present. The rooms and porch were masses of bloom, and the special feature was the appearance at the head of the stair of little Miss Rosemary and Master Laddie McKay, attired as tiny bride and groom. They descended the stair to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Grace Richards. The tiny bride carried a floral basket in which were the gifts of linen, which she presented to the guests of honor. The table decorations were a Cupid standing on a mirror plateau, surrounded by pink and white sweet peas.

Beside these pre-nuptial gifts, the bride received a beautiful array of silver, china, and cut glass pieces which express the esteem and affection in which the young people are held in their home town.

A host of friends join in extending to Mr. and Mrs. McMurray best wishes for a happy married future.

NOT LIKE THE OLDEN DAYS

In the Congressional Record for August 11 action was had to reimburse contractors on postoffice buildings and other Government structures throughout the United States, including the Lincoln Memorial, for losses sustained by them by reason of increased costs of labor and material. Senator Fernard stated that eighty-two contractors were caught in the upward curve that wiped out their profits and left them considerably over two million dollars in the hole. Good old Uncle Sam will see them through. On the same day a resolution adopted by the legislature of Montana asking for appropriations of $50,000,000 by the Government for work on the Government irrigation projects throughout the West, was presented. The resolution cites the fact that the droughts have ruined the crops of Montana, and that the farmers are "all in." In consequence they ask that the work on the irrigation projects be pushed, and they cite among the benefits that it has been clearly demonstrated that work must be done for the purpose of storing and retaining vast quantities of flood waters which flow to waste each year, which, "if made available, would reclaim a vast acreage of the lands of the state and make them more certain and profitable for the raising of such crops as are necessary for the support of the nation in time of peace and war." To this appeal presented by Senator Walsh, the Senate is giving earnest attention, and it is quite probable that federal relief will be furnished Montana and other suffering States. And this, too, is quite different from the attitude assumed by Washington in the old days when North Dakota had successive crop failures, and foreclosures of mortgages by the wholesale; or the more recent days when South Dakota and Nebraska were burned dry with droughts, resulting in great privations to the settlers.

CONGRESS IS A TIGHTWAD

According to a recent statement issued by the "Patent Office Society," as a protest against the neglect of the urgent needs of the Patent Office by Congress, there was on January 1, 1919, a "net surplus accumulated of inventors' money of $8,150,464." Thus it appears that the Patent Office is one of the Government's money-makers, not withstanding which, the Society is compelled to make the shameful admission that the Patent Office is "run down at the heel."

Just why Congress has taken away the straw that softens the nest of the American goose that lays so many golden eggs of science and industry, we are unable to state. But things must be pretty desperate when it is necessary for a society of officials and employees of the Government to depart from the usual methods, and appeal to the press and the public "bring about effective pressure to bear upon Congress to give it proper facilities."

When one goes on a "personally conducted tour" of Washington—as happens very frequently, the resident "conductor" will likely point to the exterior of the Patent Office, but if you are his friend he is not apt to take you inside. Possibly this is because it is mostly a collection of files, papers and documents and rather uninteresting. But it is more than that—and that's why its inmates are making their present protest—it's pretty close to what somebody once described as a "hurrah's nest."

The Patent Office is regarded as a fire-trap, and its priceless records are not properly housed or protected. For years Congress has denied sufficient appropriations for even necessary maintenance and efficiency in carrying on the work. The result is that inventors need the patience of Job, or of the maiden who stood "waiting at the church," because of the frequent interminable delays that occur "getting matters through." The Patent Office pulls off the lid, and declares that its good money, earned in the collection of fees, would be sufficient for every purpose of the Patent Office. But these funds are converted into United States Treasury, and Congress has grown into the habit of making niggardly appropriations for the maintenance of this great feature of Government systems.

Congress acquires habit that become chronic, and unfortunately for the Patent Office, it is one of the victims. The "Patent Office Society" deserves to be supported in the reforms it is trying to bring about.

MINOR

Isn't it peculiar that, although coal is an important product in this country, digging it is a miner industry?

VEGETABLES GIVE HEALTH WHEN COOKED PROPERLY

Fresh vegetables, served freely, spell vigor and freedom from sickness for those who eat them. They keep the blood as it should be and the whole body in good condition. The whole family will ask for a second helping if the vegetables are cooked so they are refreshing and palatable.

Vegetables just out of the garden taste best when simply cooked—steamed, boiled, or baked—and served with a little salt, butter, milk or cream. Often a heavily seasoned sauce covers up the more desirable vegetable flavor.

Overcooking of vegetables impairs their flavor. Very delicate flavors are destroyed, while vegetables with very strong flavors, such as cabbage or onions, become disagreeably strong if cooked too long. Overcooking also destroys the attractive colors of some vegetables.

Cook summer vegetables as soon after they are gathered as possible, in order to preserve the flavor. If they must be kept over, keep in the ice box or some other cool place.

Let wilted vegetables soak in cold water to freshen them. If vegetables must stand after paring, cover with cold water to prevent wilting and discoloration.

Before cooking, put head vegetables and greens in cold water for one hour with a tablespoon of vinegar to remove insects, then wash very carefully.

Drain all boiled vegetables as soon as tender—they become soggy if allowed to stand undrained after cooking. The water drained off may be saved for soup stock.

Most vegetables are better when cooked in a small amount of water because a part of the mineral salt dissolves out into the water and is lost if the water is thrown away. Cook whole when possible.

Tender spinach or lettuce leaves require no added water for cooking. If thoroughly washed, enough water will cling to the leaves to prevent burning. Delicately flavored vegetables should be steamed or cooked slowly in a small amount of boiling water until tender and the water boils away.

Strongly flavored vegetables may be cooked uncovered in a large amount of rapidly boiling water, and the water changed several times during the cooking.

Starchy vegetables should be put on and cooked in a sufficiently large amount of boiling water to cover them. Boil gently and keep kettle covered.

The time required for cooking vegetables depends on the kind, size, and age of the vegetable. Judgement must be used in deciding when they are quite done but not overdone.

"BETTER SIRES—BETTER STOCK"

This is the slogan of a national better live-stock crusade, to get actively in motion Oct. 1, that is announced by the United States Department of Agriculture, working in cooperation with the State agricultural colleges and other agencies interested in live-stock improvement. The campaign looks forward to the future food needs of this country's increasing population and results from long and careful observation of the live-stock industry in this country, and was planned after extensive consultation with specialists and breeders. The plan is to hasten this replacement of the multitude of scrub domestic animals in the United States with pure-bred or high-grade stock, and also to improve the quality of pure breeds themselves. The goal in view is greater efficiency in production.

The campaign will be the first organized crusade in a large country to improve all live stock simultaneously. It will interfere in no way with any work in live-stock improvement now being conducted, but makes all the work more definite and effective by providing official recognition for progressive breeders.

The campaign will be supervised from the Department of Agriculture in Washington, and in each State by the State agricultural college. County agents and other field workers of the Department of Agriculture and of the State colleges will handle the campaign locally. Every live-stock owner actively cooperating and keeping and using none but pure-bred sires of good quality will be given an emblem as an official recognition of meritorious effort.

"MINOR TROUBLES" OF A COUNTY AGENT

A county agent in one of the Eastern States believes in diversified activities. He reports as follows for one month's work: "Burnt up 90 gallons gasoline, 5 quarts of oil, had 6 punctures and one blow-out. Trailer broke away and upset load; pig fell out of the car and was caught with difficulty, afterwards jumped from sty and was run over by an auto. Buried three pigs with all the profits and lost $28 besides. Tore best trousers getting over pasture fence; broke watch crystal loading corn planter; but outside of a few minor troubles had a very satisfactory month's work."

SPORTSMEN LOOK OUT FOR BANDED DUCKS

Scientific Society asks Cooperation of Hunters in Determining Migratory Lines of Flight

This fall, it is hoped sportsmen will carefully examine all ducks killed, to ascertain whether or not any are banded. The American Bird Banding Association, with headquarters at the American Museum of Natural History, New York City, the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and several individuals are making a practice of banding waterfowl, to ascertain their migratory lines of flight.

Wild ducks are trapped by those having permits and again liberated after having an aluminum band firmly fastened to one leg. These bands are numbered and also are stamped with the address of the person or association doing the work. A card index system is kept by those releasing the bird, listing all data in connection with each bird, liberated. When the bird is killed, the hunter is requested to communicate with the address on the band, giving the number, species of duck and place and date killed. From these facts it is very easy to determine the routes traveled by the birds, and as more and more of this information accumulates, the more certain we will be of their exact movements.

To successfully protect waterfowl and to better shooting conditions over the country, it is imperative that we know more about the habits of these birds than we do at present. By some method, yet to be devised, we must know to a certainty as to increase and decrease. If birds are scarce in one shooting locality while they are plentiful in other sections, we should know the reason why. It has been proved that birds follow the same migratory routes year after year. Individuals and their broods winter and nest at approximately the same points each season and follow the same air lanes during migration.

Comparatively speaking, very few ducks nest east of Hudson Bay and the general trend of the migration of waterfowl is from the northwest to the southeast. The majority of ducks wintering along the Atlantic Coast are hatched in that vast area of marsh and prairie land lying west of Hudson Bay. The bulk of the ducks that nest within the boundaries of the United States from Kansas and Nebraska northwest, migrate to the Mississippi Valley and the Gulf Coast for the winter. Their flight also has a south-eastward tendency. California's ducks are supposed to come straight down the coast line in a direct southern flight. These conclusions have been arrived at by the gathering of much data by men who have devoted their life to this work and in the main they are undoubtedly correct. However, there is much important information still to be secured from tracing the lines of flight of banded ducks.

Just recently a banded duck has proved conclusively that occasionally ducks bear to the west in their southward migration. On October 20, 1918, Mr. H. S. Osler, 801 Dominion Bank Building, Toronto, Canada, banded and released an adult male black duck which he had trapped for this purpose at Lake Scugog near Port Perry, Ontario, Canada. This duck was banded No. 36932 Am. Museum, New York. That same fall, Harry Meier took this black mallard in the state of Michigan, near Marine City.

This bird had worked approximately 175 miles to the westward and only 90 miles to the south on the 200 mile migration. It seems probable that had not this duck been taken, its line of flight would have been down the Mississippi Valley, by way of the Kankakee, or to the Wabash and Ohio and then along the Mississippi to winter either among the many birds using the swamps and marshes along this river, or to continue the trip on down to the delta and gulf country.

WHEAT TESTED FOR SMUT AT M. A. C.

East Lansing, Aug. 26—The great prevalence of Stinking Smut of wheat in Michigan this last year, and the importance of planting clean seed, has led the botany department of the Michigan Agricultural College to establish a free wheat testing service for the farmers of the state. Samples, which need be no larger than a pint or half pint, will be examined by the centrifuge method, and a report on the smut spores found will be made the owner of the sample. Information as to the proper smut treatment for the particular batch of grain, and whether or not it is too smutty to be planted at all, will be given at the same time. Samples should be addressed to the Botany Department, East Lansing, and have the sender's name attached.

COUNTY AGENT COLUMN C. P. Millham

The following men sent exhibits to the State Fair through the county agent: S. A. Ross, R. A. Bentley, E. F. Bills, W. W. Putnam, E. B. Follett, Claude Salisbury, Mr. Noble, Chas. White, Piper and Goodale, F. A. Meyers, and J. Mielock, entries consisting of corn, rye, wheat, barley, beans, and vetch. The county agent will attend the fair next week.

Rosen Rye seems to be small this year. Common rye also is nearly a failure, due in all probability to the dry month of June. The fact that Rosen is not as good as usual should not discourage people who are trying it for the first time. It will be a good policy to stick to Rosen Rye, as it has proven its worth in Michigan since 1912, and has held Michigan in first place as a rye producing state.

People desiring Red Rock wheat, which is the best winter wheat in this state can secure it from two growers Jesse Carpenter and E. F. Bills. Both fields have been inspected by the county agent and are very good quality. A yield of 30 bushels per acre is looked for.

In going over the county this week many corn fields were inspected, and some fields are ready to cut at the present time. If you have pure corn, which is early, by all means go into the field and select your seed. If you wish to learn how to do it properly ask the county agent to show you.

It will pay you to go into your potato field and stake the best plants before frost, for as like produces like, and high yielding seed will produce high yielding potatoes. There are many diseases prevalent in the county. If any group of farmers wish to have a demonstration meeting the county agent will be glad to come and point out to you the potato troubles and suggest remedies.

PROVISIONS OF NEW STATE REWARD LAW

In view of legislation at a special session closed June 25, in which provisions of former passed acts are effected State Highway Commissioner Rogers has issued the following communication to the county road commissioners of the state:

"Owing to the overlapping of some of the recent legislation this condition arises:

"The trunk line highway act as amended at the regular session of the legislature providing for 'Triple' reward instead of 'Double' reward was not given immediate effect and therefore could not be operative before August 14. At the special session the Daprato-Evans bill was passed and given immediate effect, providing for the payment of reward on a percentage basis, namely 25 per cent of the cost of non-trunk line roads and 50 per cent of the cost of trunk line roads. Since this law is given immediate effect, when signed by the governor, it will take the place of the so-called 'Triple' reward act, which will not be operative.

"Roads which have been completed and accepted prior to the taking effect of the percentage act will be paid for under that old law at a flat rate per mile in accordance with the class and width of road built.

"All roads accepted for state reward after the percentage act becomes operative will be paid for on the percentage basis in accordance with the provisions of the act. Special blanks for reporting costs will be forwarded at an early date.

"The Aldrich bill, which provides for the state taking over for construction and maintenance all of the trunk lines, will supersede all forms of trunk line reward in the future; provided, however, that trunk line roads now under construction may be completed for trunk line reward, which will be 50 per cent of the cost. Therefore, no future applications will be received for state reward on trunk lines, but applications may be filed on blanks which will be provided asking the state to take over and construct or complete the construction of trunk line roads under the Aldrich act.

"At an early date I wish you would report to this office all roads in your district, whether trunk lines or non-trunk lines, which were under construction on July 1. Non-trunk lines which had been applied for, whether placed under construction or not, on that date will be reapplied for on blanks furnished by the department for the payment of reward on the percentage basis.

"Trunk line applications for roads which were not under construction on that date will be considered automatically cancelled on the date when the Aldrich bill went into effect, namely, on March 18, 1919.

Acre of Bananas.

In India and the Malay peninsula the produce from one acre of bananas—or plantains, as the fruit is termed in that region—will support a much greater number of people than a similar area under any other crop. Plantain meal is made by stripping off the husk, slicing the core, drying it in the sun and then reducing it to powder, and finally sifting. It is calculated that the fresh core will give 40 per cent of meal, and that an acre of average quality will yield over a ton.

NATIONAL GARDENERS TO MEET IN MICHIGAN
East Lansing, Aug. 4—The Vegetable Growers' Association of America, an organization composed of most of the leading vegetable growers of the United States and Canada, will hold its annual meeting at Detroit from September 9 to 12. Points of interest to vegetable men in and around Detroit will be visited by the delegates.
Two Michigan men are officers in the association. Eugene Davis of Grand Rapids is treasurer, while C. W. Wade, garden specialist at the Michigan Agricultural College, holds the office of Vice-President and is also chairman of the committee on weights and measures and of the committee on organizations. Mr. Wade is serving as chairman of this year's convention committee, and is preparing special "Michigan" features of entertainment for the national delegates.

RESORTERS COMING TO N. E. MICHIGAN
The fact that the people, especially of the middle states, are waking up to the splendid facilities which northern Michigan, with its many island lakes and its miles of streams in which good trout fishing is to be had, offers the most enticing of propositions for a summer outing is evidenced by the hundreds of camping parties which have come into the territory this summer and which are the forerunners of many more to come between now and the end of the hunting season.
Every day such parties are to be seen bound for some quiet spot in the north, with automobiles and often with trailers, loaded down with their camping outfit.
All of these people come with money to spend and they help to add to the prosperity of the district, and the many states from which they hail are an indication of the fact that North-eastern Michigan is being well advertised as a summer resort, while it is certain that when those who come once go back to their homes, its fame will be spread further and further each year.
Two examples of what outsiders think of the district as a summer resort have been furnished to the North-eastern Michigan Development bureau very recently. A party from New Jersey, who had planned to spend their vacation on a western ranch, where the daughters of the family could get plenty of horseback riding and out-of-door life, were induced by a friend to try Michigan instead. They went to a ranch at Waters, where not only were horses provided for the riding, but there was the added inducement of fishing, bathing and other out-of-door sports, and at the end of their stay at Waters they made an automobile trip which included Mackinaw and the island, and then a ride down the Huron shore, taking in Rogers City, Alpena, Tawas and Bay City, from which place they took a train for home, delighted with their experience and announcing their determination to come again.
A short time ago a party of eight people, bound for the Soo, by auto, were forced to stop at Mio on account of illness of one of the ladies in the party, and although the illness was slight and the recovery was complete within a day or two, that was the end of the trip to the Soo, for during the first two days of enforced stay, County Clerk Alex Bissland had taken the men out on a couple of fishing trips, some of the women in the party had found that huckleberries and raspberries were plentiful all about them and they all decided that "the Soo didn't have anything on the spot where they were" and instead of wasting time on the long, hard trip to the upper peninsula, they spent all of their vacation in the vicinity of Mio.

HOPPERS CAUSING BIG POTATO LOSS
East Lansing, Aug. 26—Serious damage to potatoes, especially in the northern part of the lower peninsula of Michigan and in the Upper Peninsula, is being done at present by leaf-hoppers, according to reports received by the Michigan Agricultural College. The dry weather of the present summer is said to be responsible for the excessive number of the pest, which are reported as having already caused close to a million dollar loss in the Upper Peninsula alone.
The hopper causing the injury is a little green leaf-hopper which flies on slight provocation, and which causes the leaves to curl and become brown at the tips and edges, producing what is commonly known as tip-burn. Prof. R. H. Pettit, Entomologist at M. A. C., gives the following information on the control of the leaf-hopper:
"The control of this pest at this season of the year depends on sitting the insects themselves with a spray of nicotine sulphate. Black leaf 40 diluted 800 or 1000 times with water and with the addition of soap furnishes an effective spray. It is necessary to apply this spray so as to hit the hoppers on the under side of the leaves with force. One pint of black leaf 40 to 100 gallons of water makes a solution of 1 to 800, and the addition of 4 pounds of common soap makes the spray much more effective.
"The control of leaf-hoppers depends on the destruction of rubbish late in the season after cold weather sets in. Rake up and burn as soon as the hoppers hide themselves under the rubbish and get ready for winter. It will be well to rake up whenever one can, and then burn during a dry, cold spell in the fall. This has proven very effective in the control of the grape leaf-hopper, which is a very similar pest."

MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE
Default having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage made by Leo C. Tefft and Dorothy E. Tefft, his wife, of Jackson, Michigan, to Thomas Davison of Tawas City, Michigan, dated the twenty-eighth day of September, A. D. 1912, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Iosco and State of Michigan on the eighth day of October, A. D. 1912, on page 142 in liber 19 of mortgages, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice for principal and interest, the sum of three hundred and twenty-six dollars and twenty-five one hundredths dollars and an attorney fee of fifteen dollars, as provided for in said mortgage, and no suit or proceedings at law having been instituted to recover the money secured by the said mortgage or any part thereof.
Notice is hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and the statute in such case made and provided, on Monday, the eighth day of September, A. D. 1919, at two o'clock in the afternoon the undersigned will, at the front door of the court house in the city of Tawas City, that being the place where the Circuit Court for the county of Iosco is held, sell at public auction to the highest bidder the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount so as aforesaid due on said mortgage, with seven (7) per cent interest, and all legal costs together with said attorney fee to wit: The west one half (1/2) of the northwest one fourth (1/4) of Section eighteen (18) Town twenty-three (23) North Range eight (8) East.
