POST NO. 189 AMERICAN LEGION MEETS TUESDAY, NOV. 18

A meeting of Post No. 187, American Legion will be held at the court house, Tawas City, Tuesday evening, November 18. All service men are requested to be present and take part in this meeting. It is to your interest to help make Post No. 189 one of the best in the state.

We want you and your comrades to join the American Legion at once. The American Legion is to the world war veteran what the G. A. R. is to the civil war veteran, and more, because it springs from all sections of our country and includes all world war service men. Here are some of the immediate benefits:

We unite in bonds of comradeship and fraternity all citizens who have served honorably in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps of the United States of America, or our immediate allies, during the world war between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918.

We shall honor the memory and preserve the graves of our dead and shall assist the Community Council of Michigan in providing suitable memorial halls throughout Michigan.

We shall perpetuate the memories and collect and preserve the records of service of our comrades in the world war.

We shall uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America; to maintain law and order, and to create and perpetuate a one hundred per cent Americanism; to inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation; to combat the autocracy of both the classes and the masses; to make RIGHT the master of might; to promote peace and good will on earth; to safeguard and transmit to posterity the principles of justice, freedom and democracy; to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to duty and mutual helpfulness.

We require every member of the American Legion to perform his full duty as a citizen according to his own conscience and understanding, always remembering, however, that the American Legion is absolutely non-partisan and shall never be used for dissemination of partisan principles or for the promotion of the candidacy of any person seeking public office or preferment.

Remember the American Legion will help its members to solve any of the following problems as they may arise:

Vocational Education: If you are entitled to disability compensation you should also learn how the government will assist in fitting you for future work.

Compensation: If you were not in as good shape when you came out of service as you were when you went in, we will assist you in securing your just deserts in the way of compensation.

Allotment and Allowance: If you had any difficulty in securing these, we will help you straighten the tangle.

Employment: We shall especially help you in getting proper employment.

Medical Attention: If your case is compensable, you are entitled to free medical attention, whether your ailment originated in service or not.

Legal Advice: We will give you assistance, free of charge, on service matters.

Citizenship: We will assist you in getting citizenship papers if needed.

Uniform: You are entitled to certain articles of clothing and equipment, and a red discharge chevron, and we help you get these if wanted.

YOU CAN WIN A CASH PRIZE

Liberal Rewards Await Those Who Are Persevering in Solving the Puzzle.

On another page of the Herald this week appears a full page announcement of our big $150 Prize Puzzle Contest, mention of which was made in last week's issue.

There is no "catch", sham or deception about this contest in any manner whatsoever, and every person who enters has just as good a chance to win the big prize as any other person. The only condition is that the first solution sent in by any person must be accompanied by a yearly subscription to the Herald. If the contestant is already paid in advance the amount sent will be credited to extend his subscription. If any person wishes to send in more than one solution, each additional solution after the first must be accompanied by $1.00 for a six months subscription, which will extend that person's subscription just that much further.

In case two or more contestants are tied for any prize they will be required to submit solutions to another puzzle, as stated in the conditions, and the same number of prizes that there are contestants tied will be reserved for them before any others are paid.

If a subscriber is in arrears on his subscription, all arrears must be paid and one year's subscription in advance in order to make him eligible for the contest.

Here is a chance to win a very substantial prize by a little patience and effort, and we hope that a goodly number of our readers will enter the contest.

The contest will close Saturday, Jan. 16, and the prizes will be awarded as soon thereafter as it is possible to complete the work of classifying the answers and ascertaining the winners.

TOP PRICES FOR IOSCO COUNTY CATTLE

Just what raising the right kind of cattle on the right kind of range will bring the stockman was exemplified on the Miller ranch, in Iosco county, a few days ago, when L. W. Oviatt paid 12 1/2 cents a pound for a carload of Hereford's directly off the range, which he shipped to his son's farm near Bay City for winter feeding.

With thousands of cattle hitting the Chicago and Buffalo markets at this season of the year and at prices as low as 6 cents for feeders, the Oviatt purchase shows what Northeastern Michigan range will do for first class stock and the money it will put into the pockets of the man who runs his ranch intelligently. The difference between the 6 cents paid at Buffalo and Chicago for the poorer grades of cattle and the price paid on the ranch by Mr. Oviatt for high-grade stuff, is so marked as to make one wonder why farmers and others will bother with the cheaper stuff, which costs just as much to feed as the high grade animals and also to wonder why more men, both those already settled in Northeastern Michigan and those who are farming and raising stock on $200 to $400 per acre land elsewhere, don't wake up to what can be done with the comparatively cheap grazing lands to be found in this part of Michigan.

BE REPRESENTED

No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This applies to all kinds of business—general stores, dry goods, groceries, furniture dealers, manufacturing establishments, automobile dealers, mechanics, professional men and in fact all classes of business men. This does not mean that you should have a whole or half or even a quarter page ad in every issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned if you do not use more than a two-line space. A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell just what business is represented in a town by looking at the business mentioned in the paper. This is the best possible town advertiser. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and his town. He is the man who expects the newspaper to do the most for him without his town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to a town but refuses to advertise his business is not a valuable addition. The life of any town depends upon the live, wide-awake and liberal advertising business men.

TRI-COUNTY Y. M. C. A. NOTES

A. R. Gold, Secretary
The Seventeenth Annual State Boys' Conference will be held in Flint, Nov. 28 to 30. Delegates are expected from Harrisville, Oscoda, Lincoln, East Tawas, Tawas City, Whittemore and Hale. Churches, high schools, Scouts, Sunday schools, and Y. M. C. A.'s, are entitled to representation. All registration must be in the hands of the county secretary by the twelfth. The conference theme is "Christian Citizenship."

The registration papers for two scout troops from the Tawas have been completed and sent in, and work is now begun in accordance with the regulations laid down by the National Council.

An offer has been made to the county secretary to finance a number of pig clubs and to purchase pedigreed pigs at wholesale prices for boys of these counties. This offer should be taken up. The reign of high prices is sure to continue for some time to come and even if prices should fall it will always pay to keep good stock.

The Tri-County Foultry Club has been the means of distributing a lot of fine Buff Orpingtons through this territory, and in the near future a report of the number of birds hatched and reared will be obtained and published.

Michigan is honored this year with the International Convention of the Y. M. C. A.'s, of North America, which is to be held in Detroit Nov. 19 to 23.

REMEMBER, REMEMBER THE ELEVENTH OF NOVEMBER

You arose at the sound of a shotgun,
Fired close by the side of your home;
Then for work it was cease day,
For was it not Peace Day,
The eleventh of November had come,
You rattled the drum and the dishpan,
You yelled till your lungs were sore,
You'd loved-and had hated,
You'd fought, or had waited,
So you shot every shell in the store,
You hammered the bell and the boiler,
You laughed, for the noise was great;

For Fritz had his fill
And the skids under Bill
Slid him clear beyond Germany's gate,
Now hushed is the bell and the boiler,
In Europe they've altered the map,
But the Gompers, and Garrys,
And all the O'Learys
And still in an awful big scrap,
Go rattle the scuttle and shovel,
Go look at the coal in the bin,
I still owe for one ton,
But I'll pay it by gum,
What kind of a fix are you in.

CONGRESSMAN CURRIE IN THE LIMELIGHT

Congressman Gilbert A. Currie of the Tenth congressional district has been receiving considerable publicity in the daily papers of late, and it is the kind of publicity that shows that he is on the job and is striving for the best interests of his constituency at large.

On November 4th he issued an open letter to the coal miners of Bay County, who constitute the majority of the coal miners of the state of Michigan. In his letter he appealed to the loyalty and good Americanism of the miners and asked them to heed the call of the government and return to work. That the miners refused to heed the appeal of Congressman Currie detracts nothing from the sound logic and patriotism of the appeal, and we believe that the majority of the people of this district will honor Mr. Currie for his effort.

A few days later Congressman Currie received another notice. In this case he had been mulcted by a Washington shoe dealer for $20 for a pair of shoes. Mr. Currie believed that this price was too high and immediately began gathering figures on the costs of production and selling of shoes with the idea of putting the matter before the national lawmakers when his data was complete. He believes that at the present prices there is profiteering somewhere in the shoe business and he means to put a stop to it if possible.

THE RED CROSS SEAL SALE

Lansing, Nov. 10—The expenditure of $43.33 during 1920 for every person in Michigan who during 1919 died of tuberculosis does not seem like an extravagant sum, according to the Michigan Anti-tuberculosis Association now engaged in preparing for the Christmas Seal Sale that will be held from Dec. 1 to Dec. 10. That is the estimate of the 1920 budget made by the National Association for the campaign throughout the United States. In Michigan it will be a trifle more, the number of deaths from August 1, 1918 to August 1, 1919, being 3,125, while the quota to be realized from the Seal Sale in this state is $155,000.

There is no other way of making a fight against the white plague in Michigan than via route of the Christmas Seal Sale. To carry on the campaign against tuberculosis funds are needed, and the cost of doing this work has gone up as has the cost of everything else. It costs a good deal more to employ nurses, physicians, and other needed in the work of this kind than it did five years ago, and moreover, Michigan is planning the biggest drive against the white plague in 1920 that is has ever attempted.

Though work of this kind costs real money; tuberculosis itself, if allowed to go unchecked, will cost a great deal more, the Michigan Anti-tuberculosis Association points out. The campaign is launched for the purpose of preventing the disease, and every case prevented means the saving of thousands of dollars, to say nothing of the conservation of human happiness that comes with good health.

THE UNORGANIZED MILLIONS

Doubtless the majestic "public" would like very much to have the country get back to normal conditions, but the delays in restoring peace-time stability has prompted the President to say that "it is time for plain speaking." In view of the attempts to bring on more strikes the President says: "These matters with which we now deal touch not only the welfare of a class, but vitally concern the well being, the comfort, the very life of all people." And the Secretary of War has communicated with the Governor of every State, authorizing him to call upon the nearest division Commander of United States troops, without waiting to obtain authority from Washington, for forces to supplement the State officers in putting down disorder, if the Governor finds such action necessary. The Governors of the States have been advised of the intention of the Government to keep order, to protect the citizens of this country against lawlessness and force, and to sustain the authority of the Government of the United States.

Senator Freylinghuysen says that "the time has come for every red blooded American to stand up and be counted," and there are signs in plenty that the Government and Congress are going to take sides with the more than 100,000,000 people of this country to see that they are protected against the millions whose numbers can be checked off on the fingers of one hand, who threaten such calamities as starving and freezing the country, in order to carry their point.

One eminent Congressman who is on the job, and who is laboring for better conditions and better Americanism, stated recently that "we are going to stay right here and see things through till the Constitution wears out." "And" he added, "the Constitution is not going to wear out."

COUNTY AGENT COLUMN
C. P. Millham

MARKETINK IN OGEAW CO.

Cooperative marketing has proven profitable in Ogemaw County this year. Two flourishing associations are doing business in that county and are giving satisfaction. The largest one is in operation at West Branch. Here the farmers bought the elevator and are carrying on an extensive elevator business besides the selling of the farmers' produce. Since their organization they have done an immense business in potatoes, grain, cream, etc.

The organization at Rose City has a storage house and cream station, and handle cream, potatoes, hay, eggs, poultry, etc. Though its volume of business is not so great it is a flourishing association, and expects to expand until it is handling practically all the farmers' produce in that section. Since these two organizations have been doing business long enough to show the producers that it is the form of organization that they want, another is being started at Lupton.

All these associations are what is known as the Cooperative non-profit form of organization. That is, no one who has anything to do with the handling, grading, or selling of the produce can make a profit from it in any way, but all work on a straight salary, and all realize that their job depends on their producing the goods and getting the best possible prices for the produce. It is known as the "Ten dollar membership and one hundred dollars note form of organization. This form of organization is the form which is giving the best satisfaction in the western part of the state, where cooperation has increased so rapidly. Every man gets the selling price of his product after the expense of selling has been taken out. No one receives dividends or profit on any of the products of anyone else. Every man is used just exactly the same, has just as much to say about the methods of the organization as anyone else through his one vote, has just as much invested in the organization, and feels it is his property.

At West Branch a form of stock company was first started, but before they began operations they decided that the non-profit form had many things to recommend it above the stock company form and decided to switch over to that form.

It has been estimated that the organization has turned back into the pockets of the producers of that vicinity $5,000 in two months over and above what they would have gotten for their produce judging from the prices obtained at towns around that part of the state where no cooperative companies existed. At no time have the farmers received less than a dollar a bushel for potatoes, and it has brought the price of cream up from four to six cents a pound for butter fat above the general Michigan price. The directors declare that the profit in the cream business alone would pay the salary of the manager and give a neat profit besides. It is undoubtedly the most efficient and form of marketing, giving the producers all that his products bring, less the actual cost of handling.

MARKETING IN IOSCO COUNTY

Iosco county marketing contrasts strongly with Ogemaw county. When the county agent took up his duties in this county he was told that marketing was the big problem. He did all that was possible to help work out a system of marketing and gave his assistance in helping organize. But the minute the organization was completed the county agent was cut out entirely.

A great deal of dissatisfaction exists at the present time because no one knows what is being done. The county agent knows that should three associations be organized in this county just as they are organized in Ogemaw county there would be something done immediately toward handling farm products in a business like way. West Branch has been organized about two months, and they have been doing business almost from the minute they were organized. Are not the farmers of Iosco county as capable as the farmers of Ogemaw county? If any people are skeptical and afraid to come into this organization until they are shown, they are given a cordial invitation to see what kind of a business the young organization is carrying on. Everyone who visits that association will return fired with enthusiasm and will insist on something being done in Iosco county to bring her in line as a progressive marketing county. If you wish to know more about this organization work ask the agent to come to your meetings and explain; he will be glad and willing, because anything he can do for the benefit of agriculture, and therefore the whole county will be done for the best interests of all.

What the auto learned from the United States

NEARLY a third of a century ago the UNITED STATES Cream Separator introduced oil-splash lubrication. All the UNITED STATES gears and bearings run in a constant oil bath.

Today the better automobiles use this system. It assures long life and smooth running.

The same engineers who invented this and other exclusive UNITED STATES features have constantly worked on other refinements. In the last two years seven exclusive patents have been granted on the UNITED STATES Disc Separator.

Besides being the last word in mechanical perfection, it is the separator that holds the world's record for close skimming.

10 Cash Prizes

GREAT CIRCLE PUZZLE CONTEST

The Herald Offers 10 Cash Prizes, Having a Cash Value of $150.00, to Those Submitting the Best Solutions of Its Circle Puzzle. Everyone May Enter This Contest, Which is Merely a Test of Accuracy and Perseverance.

THE PROBLEM

Count the circles in the Puzzle Chart. Every circle is complete and the chart is entirely free from tricks and illusions. However, to pick out every circle and count it requires patience and care. Those who do this the best will win the valuable cash prizes offered for solving the puzzle.

Any method which contestants hit upon that seems to be best adapted to making the count may be adopted. The Herald will be glad to receive short notes explaining how the results were obtained. As many different solutions may be submitted as contestants wish. Before sending in a solution, however, read the general rules carefully.

This contest will not only prove profitable to the winners of the prizes, but solving the puzzle will also prove to be a pleasant and fascinating pastime.

The plan of this contest permits everyone to work out his own results. He will not only know what he has done himself, but will also have an opportunity to check up the work of his competitors.

Read carefully all the rules, then make up your mind to enter this very interesting contest. It is open to all present subscribers, as well as to those who wish to become subscribers.

Additional puzzle charts may be obtained at the Herald office, or they will be mailed to all who send a self-addressed, stamped envelope for them.

How to Participate

This contest may be participated in by any present resident of Iosco county or the State of Michigan, or any present subscriber outside the state upon the stated conditions.

To enter the contest present subscribers are required to pay all arrearages and one year in advance. New subscribers may enter by paying one year's subscription, which is $2.00. This payment will entitle you to submit a solution of the Circle Puzzle.

If after you have submitted one solution or answer you should want to send in a different one you may do so upon making an additional payment of $1.00, with each additional answer. These additional amounts will be applied to your subscription extending it that much further. Therefore, it costs nothing to participate in this contest beyond paying whatever amount you wish upon a continuous subscription to The Herald.

Should you wish to send two or more solutions at the same time, use a separate blank for each one. These blanks will be furnished free upon application to The Herald in person or by mail.

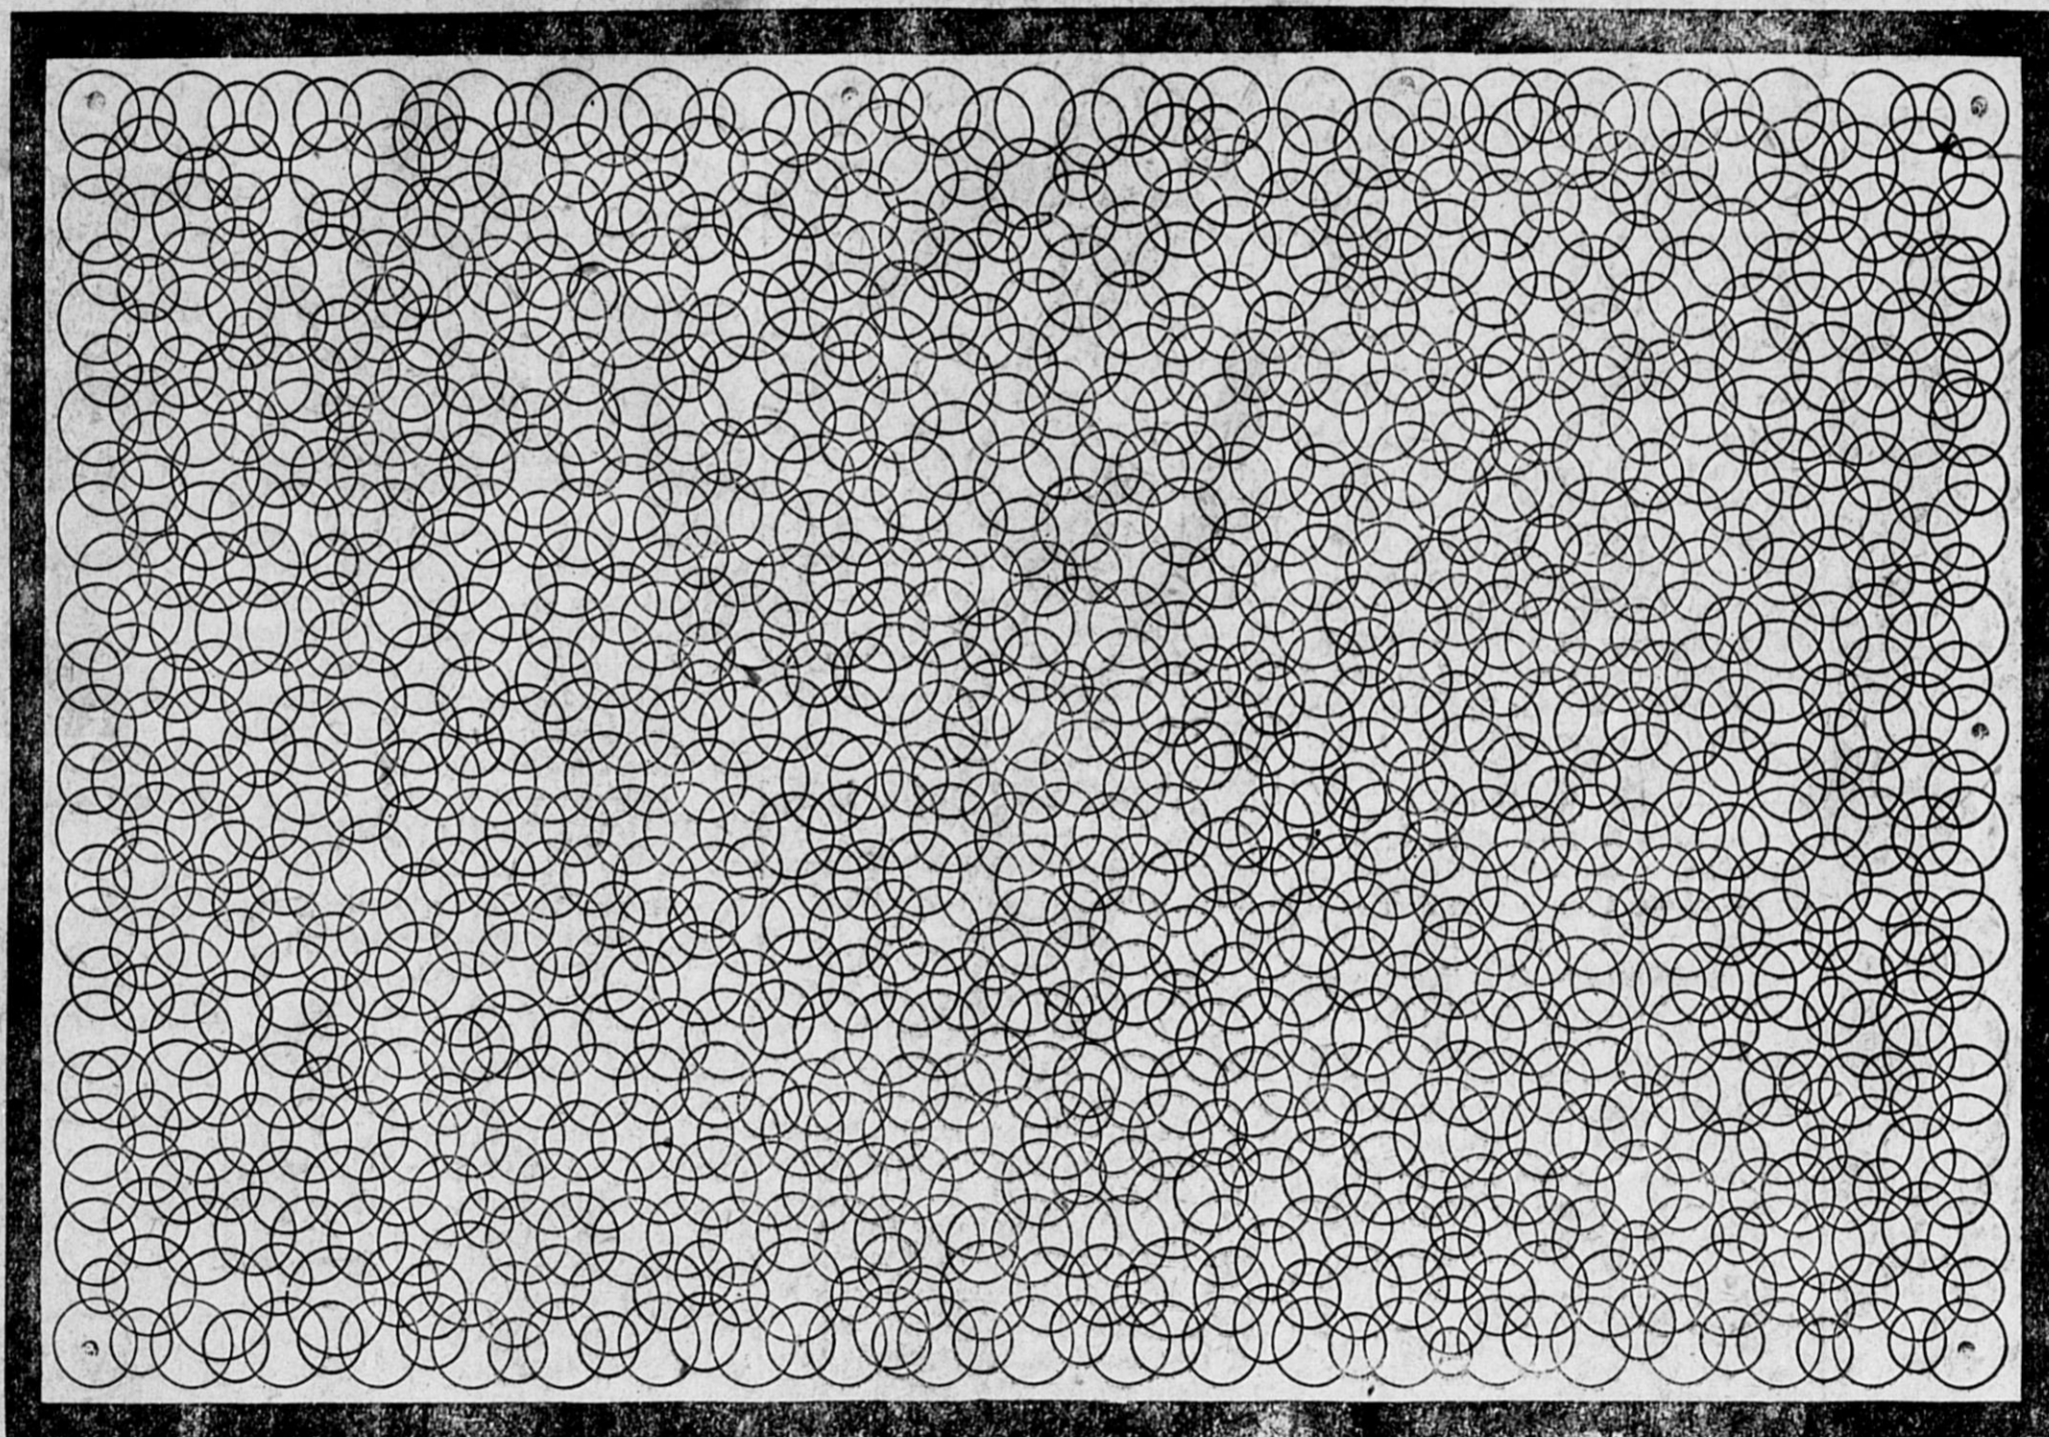

The sooner you send in your first solution the longer time you will have to go over your figures and send in another solution if you find you can do better.

General Rules and Information

There is no objection to several members of one family or several friends working together to obtain a solution, provided only one of them turns the solution in.

If the paper is already being sent to you or some member of your family send in the renewal in the name of the person who is already subscribing. If some other member of the family wants the solution credited to him, or to her, merely attach a note to the blank giving the name of the one who wants to have credit for the solution. The purpose of this is to avoid sending two papers when only one is needed.

Information will be furnished and rulings made on any points contestants may want information about. The Herald reserves the right to decide any and all questions which arise, and those entering the contest as a part of the contract must and do agree to abide by such rulings.

The date a solution is filed has nothing to do with its winning a prize. It is always safe however, to send in a solution as early as convenient. Then you will have ample time to go over your figures and if you find you can get a better solution, you will still have an opportunity to profit by your later effort.

As many prizes will be reserved as there are people tied before any prizes are awarded for less correct solutions. That is, if three people should tie on the best solution the first three prizes would be reserved for them, and they would be awarded these prizes in the order of the standing of their solutions of the next puzzle. That is, the best solution would be awarded the first prize, the next best the second and the third best the third prize.

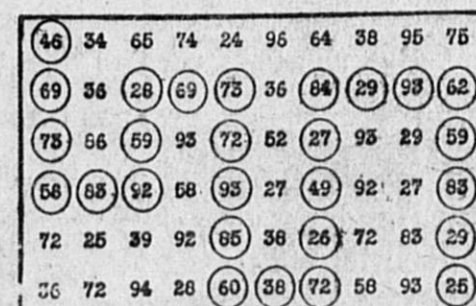

All solutions must be sent in on the blank herewith. No solution unaccompanied by a cash subscription will be accepted. No solution may be changed after it is once registered.

No one directly or indirectly associated with the Herald will be allowed to participate in this contest.

Deciding Ties

Ties on solutions of the Circle Puzzle for any prize or prizes will be disposed of by requiring those tied to solve a second puzzle of the same type but larger than the small illustration below.

The puzzle will consist of drawing a chain of circles across the face of the puzzle chart, so that the figures within the circles will total the highest amount. It will not be necessary to get the highest total that can be gotten. Those whose totals are higher than any others submitted will receive the prizes. Should any ties ensue on this puzzle the conditions will be slightly changed and those tied will be required to solve the puzzle again. If necessary to dispose of still further ties this process will be repeated for as many as three more times after which should any ties ensue those tied will receive the full value of any prize tied for.
