OBITUARY—GEORGE SHAW

George E. Shaw, for the past thirty years a resident of Tawas City, died at his home in this city last Thursday, February 26, aged 69 years. Mr. Shaw had been ill only a short time and his death was unexpected.

George Shaw was born at Point Ann, Ontario, in 1851. He was united in marriage in 1878 to Mrs. Margaret Gipson, who preceded his in death on June 18, 1908. To this union four children were born, three of whom survive him. They are George Shaw of Pigeon, Mrs. Zella Wielsma of Grand Rapids and Caire M. Shaw of this city. Another son, Zene, died in 1913. He also leaves two sisters and two brothers, all of whom reside in Canada.

In 1881 Mr. Shaw moved to Tawas City with his family and has since resided here.

The funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon, Rev. E. McMichael officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the Tawas City cemetery.

CLUB CHAMPIONS TO RECEIVE SCHOLARSHIPS.

Champions in both county and state divisions of boys and girls club work are to be awarded scholarships sufficient to meet their entrance fees at the Michigan Agricultural College, according to an announcement made recently by R. A. Turner, state leader of club work.

Winners of state championships who enter a regular course at the college will be given the equivalent of the matriculation and incidental fees for one year—a total of $50. State champions who enter the sixteen weeks short course will be awarded $25, a sum equal to the entrance fees for two years. County champions who enter the sixteen weeks short course win $15 scholarships, or enough to defray entrance fees for one year.

Added interest in boys and girls club work in the different counties of the state is expected to follow the scholarship awards. The winners in the different counties will be determined by the county agent or club leader, with the state leader serving where there is no farm bureau.

The scholarships were made possible when the state board of agriculture at their last meeting adopted resolutions which provided for the awards.

TO SUBMIT BOND ISSUE OF $6000.

Considerable difficulty was experienced by the board of supervisors at the special session held this week in deciding the question of rebuilding the county infirmary, which was destroyed by fire a short time ago. The better part of two days was devoted to this question and a number of propositions were submitted by various members of the board before one was found that met the favor of a majority of the board.

The sentiment of the board was almost unanimous in regard to selling the present farm if a suitable price could be realized from same, and purchasing a smaller piece of land where to erect the new infirmary. The opinion is that the present farm is too large for economical operation, as it has always shown a deficit, and it is thought that a smaller farm can be operated with less expense and a consequent saving to the taxpayers.

The proposition which was finally adopted by a majority vote of the board was as follows: To advertise the present farm for sale, asking sealed bids to be submitted by May 10, all bids to be subject to rejection by the board if not satisfactory. To submit to the voters at the spring election the proposition of issuing bonds in the sum of $6,000, to be used in rebuilding the infirmary if needed. If a satisfactory bid for the county farm is received, to sell same and buy a smaller farm of at least 40 acres and build thereon. If the bids received are too low, to rebuild on the present site as soon after May 10 as possible.

If the present farm is sold it is estimated that the proceeds of the sale, together with the insurance from the burned building, will be nearly if not quite sufficient to purchase a smaller farm and erect the necessary buildings but the bond issue is advocated in case the farm is not sold or in case the proceeds from same are not sufficient to carry out the plans.

A new infirmary is an absolute necessity, and only by a favorable vote upon the bond issue can those in charge be assured of sufficient funds to go ahead with the work under any circumstances.

COWS LEAD ALL FARM ANIMALS

The expansion which has been taking place steadily in the dairy industry of this country during the last seven years has at last put milk cows at the head of the list of farm animals so far as value is concerned. This is shown by a recent report by the Bureau of Crop Estimates, United States Department of Agriculture. The value of these animals now exceeds that of horses and cattle other than milk cows, the two classes formerly standing higher on the list. On January 1 of this year there were approximately 23,747,000 milk cows in this country, an increase of 272,000 head, or 1.2 per cent, as compared with a year ago. The aggregate value is placed at $2,021,681,000.

Ten years ago the average milk cow was worth $35.29, compared with $78.20 a year ago and $85.13 January 1, 1920. It is generally recognized that the quality of the milk cows of this country is improving at the same time that their number is increasing.

The class of cattle, consisting of calves, steers, bulls, and cows not kept for milk production and designated as "other cattle" shows a decrease of 700,000 head or 1.6 per cent. Ten years ago the average value per head of animals of this class was $19.07, a year ago it was $44.22, and $43.14 this year. The number of "other cattle" in this country at the present time is approximately 44,385,000 and their value $1,914,575,000.

ECONOMIZE IN USE OF SUGAR

Sugar is a useful and valuable food. It must, however be remembered that it is a concentrated food, and therefore should be eaten in moderate quantities. Further, like other concentrated foods, sugar seems best fitted for assimilation by the body when supplied with other materials which dilute it or give it the necessary bulk.

Persons of active habits and good digestion will add sugar to their food almost at pleasure without inconvenience, while those of sedentary habits of delicate digestion, or with a tendency to corpulency would do better to use sugar very moderately.

COUNTY AGENT COLUMN

C. P. Milham

Meetings

Those few who attended the soils meetings in the county last week were well repaid for their time and effort in that they learned some things about soils, soil fertility and the proper handling of barnyard manure which they did not know before. At the present time the following meetings are arranged for which is hoped will draw a larger crowd than did the soil meetings. Mr. Murphy, crops specialist, will be at the Grange hall at Whittemore, Wednesday evening, March 10, at eight o'clock, at the Sherman town hall, Thursday afternoon, March 11, and Tawas City court house, Friday afternoon, March 12. Mr. J. W. Nicholson, crops specialist, and the man who has charge of the distributing of pure bred seeds in the state will be at Hale on March 18, to explain methods of buying, selling and inspecting quality seeds. These meetings will be worth while. An effort on your part to attend will benefit you.

Farm Accounts

When you market your potato, oats, wheat or any other crop this year will you be able to figure out the profit you have made per acre and per bushel? Will you know whether you have profited or lost? It is important to know these results with every crop. With your figures before you at the end of the year you have a basis for judgment of your farm management. Some farmers have changed their farming system in Iosco county because they kept cost of production figures last year. By studying the cost of production various crops he was enabled to raise more of the profitable crops and cease growing the less profitable ones. You can do the same if you will keep accounts after the system recommended by the farm management department of the agricultural college. The account books can be secured at the county agent's office with full instructions for making entries.

Crop Production in 1919 in Iosco Co.

The total value of the twelve most important crops grown in Iosco county last year was very near $750,000.00. Iosco county ranked as follows in production of crops in northeastern Michigan: First in beans, vetch and clover seed; second in barley and buckwheat; third in corn, rye and spring wheat; fifth in oats; sixth in potatoes and hay; and eighth in winter wheat.

Following are the acreages of the various crops grown and the total yield:

Crop	Acreage	Production
Winter wheat	170	2,550
Spring wheat	760	7,144
Corn	2,450	88,200
Oats	5,620	108,468
Barley	1,525	22,418
Rye	3,260	46,944
Buckwheat	360	4,788
Potatoes	760	67,640
Hay	11,400	11,628
Beans	1,040	12,584
Clover seed	570	1,010
Vetch	102	430

ADVERTISING HELPS FARMING

Not long ago a South Dakota farmer gave a country editor in his vicinity one of the surprises of his life. Stepping into the editor's office he announced briskly: "I want to contract for some space in your paper for the coming year." The editor gasped but then smiled happily. "I always have something to sell or trade or else want to buy something," the farmer continued, "and so I want this space reserved for me. That will save my running to town every time I have an advertisement to insert. Regular advertising is the sort which gets results."

That editor is losing no opportunity to point out that in one very real sense a farmer is a real business man and can promote his business by intelligent systematic advertising.

NOT AN IDEAL LAW

The new railroad law is not ideal. No laws ever are. But it is an honest effort on the part of congress to provide a sound basis for the future development of our railroads. It makes it mandatory for the Interstate Commerce Commission to provide a level of rates that will provide for the greatly increased payrolls and the higher costs of materials. How much this increase in rates will be has not been determined, but it is believed that there will be an average increase in freight rates of something like 25 per cent.

BIG RESULTS FROM N. E. MICHIGAN LANDS

Northeastern Michigan scored heavily at the Shorthorn congress show and sale, held at Chicago in February, when ten head of Shorthorns from the Prescott ranch sold for an average of $1,477.50 each, a figure considerably above the average of all the sales of the congress. Three of these Prescott heifers sold for $3,300, $3,050 and $2,250 respectively. The figures show not only what sort of cattle Northeastern Michigan can produce but they also show that it pays to raise thoroughbred stock.

From Comins, Mich., located in the center of the Northeastern Michigan district, little known to the outside world because it is not reached by a railroad, but containing thousands of acres of fine farm lands, comes a letter from Meno Steiner in which he says that from 19 acres of Alsike clover he received $2,236.89 for seed and chaff last year and that in 1918, from nine acres of this same piece, he received $676.12 for the clover seed and chaff. He says "We bought this land 15 years ago at $8 per acre and the more it is cultivated the better it gets."

A 21-acre tract of reclaimed muck land near Pinconning, which was planted to sugar beets last year brought the owner $3,722, which paid the $2,800 which the owner paid for his farm and the remaining went into a house on the property.

The booklet "Ranching in Northeastern Michigan," which the Development Bureau published a few weeks ago, is attracting wide attention among stockmen. Prescott & Sons distributed a number of them at the Shorthorn congress last month many of them going to stockbreeders from Dakota and the result has been that they are receiving requests for many more copies from neighbors of these people.

THAT'S DIFFERENT.

It takes an organization to land a man a presidential nomination. It takes money to provide the organization.

At Grand Rapids the government is starting the trial of Senator Newberry and the men who comprised his organization because it is claimed money was spent in large sums to make this organization effective.

All over the United States today men are traveling and working to perfect organizations for favorite candidates for the presidency. It is being done in Michigan. Rogers City has seen several political workers recently and those men are not traveling around at their own expense either entirely for love of party or country. They are playing the game of politics in the same way it has always been played. They are not playing it any different than those men who are on trial at Grand Rapids.

If it is criminal to use these methods to elect a United States senator, it is equally criminal to go about selecting a president in the same way.

To indict as criminal one set of men for doing in one instance what is being repeated the country over today in another case, is not equity. It looks to us more like politics.—Presque Isle County Advance.

TO THE MEN OF AMERICA.

(By Rose Trumbull, Scottsdale, Ariz.)
You talk of your breed of cattle
And plan for a higher strain,
You double the food of the pasture,
You heap up the measure of grain;
You draw on the wits of the nation,
To better the barn and the pen;
But what are you doing, my brothers,
To better the breed of men?
You boast of your Morgans and Herefords,
Of the worth of a calf or a colt,
And scoff at the scrub and the mongrel
As worthy a fool or a dolt;
You mention the points of your roadster,
With many a wherefore and when,
But, ah, are you coming, my brothers,
The worth of the children of men,
And what of your boy? Have you measured
His needs for a growing year?
Does your mark as his sire, in his features,
Mean less than your brand on a steer?

Thoroughbred—that is your watchword,
For stable and pasture and pen;
But what is your word for the home-stead?
Answer, you breeders of men!

$1,300 WORTH OF POTATOES

FROM $400 WORTH OF LAND

A year ago Wellington Rouse of Greenbush bought the old Burton place, paying $400 for it. This property is located in the sand west of the village and had been in disuse for many years. Last week Mr. Rouse sold $1200 worth of potatoes raised on this cheap land and has $100 worth of spuds left, besides the crop from five acres of millet.

Let's see now—$400 from $1200 leaves $800 in cash to pay for seed and labor and the land. He has the extra potatoes and millet for good measure—all in one season.

Looks like a pretty good profit and furnishes an object lesson for boosters for the light lands that are to be found in some sections of Northeastern Michigan.—Alcona County Review.

SUSPENDED NEWSPAPERS

Until within recent years newspapers never quit—they just merely passed on from one owner to another. But now publishers fail in business just like other business men. Publishing has become a matter of first importance in the nation, and likewise its hazards have increased. The time has passed when you can take a dull boy and "make an editor out of him," as the poet, Will Carleton put it. Twenty-five hundred newspapers have suspended publication since July 1918, but still the Postoffice Department cries savagely for higher rates for second-class mail matter. They lay their deficits at the door of the publisher, and even try shifting some $58,000,000 annual loss in the rural free delivery service to the newspapers.

WOMEN ENDORSE NEAR EAST RELIEF

The National League of Women Voters, during its convention in Chicago, unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"Whereas, one hundred thousand Christian Armenian women are still held in Turkish harems, and two hundred and fifty thousand orphans must perish unless fed, therefore be it Resolved that we urge a generous cooperation of American women with relief work, and we protest against the proposal to leave Armenia under the rule of the sultan as one of the greatest crimes of history."

To the American war department has come many reports concerning post-war conditions in Turkish possessions, as well as in other war devastated areas. Hence the following statement by Secretary of War Baker is based on first hand and official information:

"The whole problem of extending American aid to these stricken people depends upon the Near East Relief, and I know of no language strong enough to state adequately their need at this time. Before and during the war Armenia was especially devastated; all the plagues of disease, famine and massacre laid their heavy hand upon its population, and if the remnant of these hardy people is to be saved to re-establish the country, it must be done this winter when their own means of subsistence are utterly inadequate. I trust that the appeal for funds will be generously responded to."

FUTURE STOCKS

The forest service has called attention to the Swedish system where the mills employ technically trained foresters who prepare accurate figures concerning the growth of young forests. This Federal bureau even supplies the belief that young forests can be produced and reproduced in the vicinity of the paper mills. And the layman who reads the forestry literature can see young trees fed into the hopper like sugar beets passing through a factory. But Uncle Sam is insistent that he has the right "dope," and it is declared that young thrifty growing forests "will produce yields scarcely imagined by one who has been accustomed to deal exclusively with old timber." A sad commentary on the spirit of national wastefulness is the fact stated by the Forest Service that in the saw mill waste in slabs and edgings now taking place that 1,600,000 cords of wood that could be made into pulp and paper is lost. The publishers' hopes for the future evidently lie in new methods of getting pulp wood, perhaps along the lines referred to above.

FAMOUS FRENCH SCULPTOR TO VISIT THIS COUNTRY

Monsieur Raphael Peyere, the distinguished French sculptor, whose latest production, "Crusading for Right," has been purchased by the officers and men of the U. S. marine corps, arrived here with his wife on the S. S. Touraine on March 2.

Early last year this famous Paris sculptor announced his intention to fashion from bronze a representative figure of the American crusader of the 20th century. He chose a marine wearing a trench helmet, displaying the globe, eagle and anchor. This insignia makes the statue typically marine and influenced the personnel of the marine corps to purchase it by voluntary contributions at a cost of $11,000.

Arrangements are being made to move the statue from Paris to this country. It will probably be placed in the Corcoran Art Gallery temporarily, until arrangements can be made for its permanent installation in a public square in that city.

YALE GETS WEBSTER'S HOUSE

Historic Building at New Haven Has Recently Become the Property of the University.

In purchasing and taking possession of the famous Noah Webster house, Yale university has come into possession of one of the oldest and perhaps the most historical building in New Haven.

When the venerable lexicographer wrote the dictionary a century ago, he never dreamed that the home in which he performed his literary labors would prove the quarters of United States troops in the greatest of world wars. Yet that was the destiny of the plain wooden building. The university turned it over to the Student Army Training corps and it was occupied by soldiers till the final demobilization.

It was the home of Webster while he resided in the city, although part of his dictionary was written at Amherst, Mass. He was one of Yale's most famous professors, his work ranking in world value with that of his fellow professors, Samuel F. B. Morse and Eli Whitney.

The home stands at the corner of Grove and Temple streets and was formerly the property of Courtland T. Trowbridge, a relative of the lexicographer. The university has acquired it because of its scheme to fill the square bounded by Wall, Temple, Grove and College streets with dormitories for the Sheffield Scientific school. The entire group, it is expected will be given by Frederick W. Vanderbilt of New York city, a graduate of the class of '76. He already has given two large dormitories.

SALE OF SHIPS UP TO CONGRESS

Business Men Will Take Over "Farmers' Delivery Wagons" of Merchant Fleet.

TO SCALE DOWN WAR COST.

Senators Told How English Competition Can Be Overcome and Our Flag Kept on the Sea.

By WINFIELD M. THOMPSON, Editor The Marine Journal, New York.

Washington, D. C.—"Ships are the farmers' delivery wagons."

"We must interest the whole people in ships."

"The inland states are as much interested in the merchant marine as those on the seaboard."

"In these times our manufacturers cannot profitably do business with the rest of the world without ships under the American flag to carry their goods to the world's markets."

These are a few of the expressions heard at the hearings on a merchant marine policy for the country, now being conducted before the Senate Committee on Commerce, which is shaping mitted is that the whole country—the farmer, the manufacturer, the producers of all sections—must enter equally with the shipping men into the boosting of the merchant marine, if we are to keep it going.

It is pointed out that between three and four billions are invested in these ships, and that under proper conditions shipping securities should be attractive investments to the people at large, whereas now they are rarely thought of.

As to ways and means of accomplishing the desired end, the testimony of practical shipowners has been sought by the senators. These views have been placed before the committee in the concentrated form of a statement from the American Steamship Owners' Association, an organization including virtually all the American firms owning seagoing ships, a few being large companies, but the great majority being small. Members of the association own ships aggregating 2,500,000 tons, and operate 4,000,000 tons more for the government, a total six times greater than the country's deep-water tonnage before the war.

To Charge Off High War Costs.

The views of these shipowners, whose vessels sail from every port in the country, were presented by the president of their association, H. H. Raymond of New York. Mr. Raymond told the senators that as a first step to keeping the flag on the seas, the government must charge off the extra war cost of the new ships, as it has charged off costs on war camps and supplies, aeroplanes and naval vessels, and sell them at a price that will allow them to be operated on an investment, top

A modern freighter. One of the "Farmers' delivery wagons" of the new Merchant Marine. This vessel will carry from 12,000 to 14,000 tons of wheat in a single cargo.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

"THE CATHEDRAL OF COMMERCE"

THE Woolworth building, New York city, the highest office building in all the world, is often referred to as "The Cathedral of Commerce." This marvelous building is 792 feet or 69 stories tall. About 8,000,000 human beings reside within the bird's-eye view visible from the observation gallery on the fifty-eighth floor. This view, so unusual, so wonderful, has attracted representatives from more than sixty different countries.

About four hundred feet of the outside of the upper portion of the tower is doped lighted at night. This causes the building to present a bold and imposing spectacle—visible, 'tis said, 40 miles at sea. The structure weighs 223,000 tons, this tremendous weight being supported by 69 caissons, the largest 19 feet in diameter, all going down to bed rock or 110 feet below the sidewalk. Engineers claim its construction is so solid and safe that it would withstand a wind having a velocity of 200 miles per hour.

About 250 people are required to operate and maintain the building, which contains almost thirty acres of floor space. The tenants and their employees number about ten thousand. To serve them and those who enter to transact business with them, 28 elevators are required. About 25,000 people, on an average, ride in them daily. Approximately 250,000 pieces of mail matter are delivered in the building daily. The two elevators which operate to the tower are the fastest elevators in the world, having a speed of 700 feet per minute.

In a Quandary.

A charming hostess, who was entertaining a party of children, discovered one little fellow sitting in a corner apparently lost in thought. "What are you thinking about, Harry?" "Mother told me not to take two oranges," piped the little man, "and I was thinking I would be mighty lucky if I got one."

TO THE VOTERS OF IOSCO COUNTY:

I wish to announce myself as a candidate for County Treasurer on the Republican ticket at the August primary. I have lived in Iosco county over 35 years; taught school at East Tawas, Whittemore and other points for eight years; in mercantile business at Oacoda and Whittemore 16 years; postmaster at Whittemore 13 years; served as county school examiner 2 years and over 20 years in various township, city and school offices. I will appreciate your support if you think I am qualified for the office.

Yours very truly,
 W. H. PRICE.

Use for Waste Lands.

Every state in the union has some part of the swamp and wet lands that for the entire country have an aggregate area of 102,800,000 acres—larger than Iowa, Illinois and Indiana combined and three-fourths as large as France. The agricultural value of these lands varies considerably, but specialists of the United States department of agriculture believe that large areas, if properly drained and cleared by public or private co-operation, could be transformed into productive farms.

Glass Bricks Now in Use.

A novel idea of building construction which has been introduced in some European cities is the use of glass bricks for certain parts of the outer walls.

Those Blundering Authors!

We referred recently to one of John Galsworthy's American characters calling for "A flash of beer," now here's another writer, Arthur J. Rees, saying, "He is, to use an American colloquialism, 'quick on the uptake.' Tut! This, as Barrie lovers know, is Scotch.—Boston Transcript.

Antiquity of Gloves.

Gloves are of great antiquity, having been worn in England as long ago as in Saxon times. Practically the only change which there has ever been in styles of gloves has been in their decoration. Sometimes they were richly adorned with jewels, £5 having been paid for a pair in the fourteenth century.—St. Petersburg Times.

Women Senators of Old.

Rome, as early as the year 218 A. D., recognized a senate of women. This senate, though, differed from most others by confining its considerations and its discussions to matters of etiquette and dress. The assembly had the approbation of Elagabalus and held its meetings in the Quirinal. Cruelty, extravagance and vice were the outstanding characteristics of the reign of Elagabalus. Hence, the necessity of having conferences of the sort.

The Beneficent Bat.

The government of the United States has discovered that the bat, instead of being useless and worthless, as is generally thought, is really most valuable. He is the inveterate enemy of all insects that fly at night. In recent investigations bats shot in the evening after flying for 12 minutes were found with stomachs so gorged with mosquitoes, gnats and small flies that it was difficult to see how they could eat any more.

Koreans Well Advanced.

The Koreans are much superior to both Japanese and Chinese in culture of heart and in mentality. They are progressive on constructive lines; in economies they equal America, and their spiritual side is well balanced, both men and women being eager for knowledge on ethical lines. They are efficient and refined in their moral nature.—Chicago Daily News.

Pisa's Leaning Tower.

The famous leaning tower of Pisa is of pure white Carrara marble in the Gothic style. Its departure from the perpendicular has been variously interpreted, but there is little doubt that it arises from the softness of the soil on which it stands and which has given way.

Senators Wrestle With Problem.

Nineteen senators on the Commerce Committee are wrestling with the problem of what to do with these ships. Included in the nineteen are five from Middle Western states—statesmen who understand the needs both of the producers of the great grain and manufacturing states, and also the principles on which ships must be managed if they are to show a profit and keep the seas in competition with the vessels of other nations.

These midwest senators are Sherman of Illinois, Nelson of Minnesota, Reed of Missouri, Harding of Ohio, and Lenroot of Wisconsin.

The gravest question before these senators is how to get the government out of the business of managing these ships into which it got during the war. It is taken for granted by Congress that the government should now get out of the shipping business, just as it is getting out of the railroad business, now that peace is here.

The main business before the senators is to provide means for selling the government-owned tonnage of the vast new merchant fleet to American business men, and to pass legislation under which the ships can overcome the competition of England and other European nations that are straining every nerve to drive the new American commerce fleets from the ocean.

"Now is the Accepted Time." The view of the senators on the proposal to sell the ships was very well expressed the other day by Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota, who at the end of a long session on the subject of the sale remarked:

"In the language of holy writ, 'Now is the accepted time'—to sell the ships."

The witness then before the committee, a shipping man from New York, echoed the thought in somewhat more modern language by replying:

"Go to it while the going is good." It being agreed in principle that the ships shall be sold by the government—the House of Representatives has already passed favorably on the proposition now before the senate by a vote of 240 to 8—the main questions are the price at which they shall be sold and the conditions under which they can be operated by their buyers.

Views of Shipping Men. The senators have heard the views of a wide variety of witnesses, including bankers, farmers, manufacturers, lawyers, insurance men and others. The substance of the testimony submitted is that the whole country—the farmer, the manufacturer, the producers of all sections—must enter equally with the shipping men into the boosting of the merchant marine, if we are to keep it going.

for ton, approaching that of shipowners under other flags. The unit of value in a ship is the deadweight ton; that is, a ship is worth so much for every ton it will carry. The average war cost of the merchant fleet is believed to be less than $200 a ton, but the United States Shipping Board, which has charge of the vessels, has been trying to get more than that for them, with very few sales.

Mr. Raymond told the senators a fair price was $100 a ton, and the difference should be charged off as part of our expense in winning the war and making the continuance of American prosperity possible.

Competing With the English. It is only by putting some such valuation on the ships that they can be operated at a profit against the English merchant marine, the representative of the shipowners said. To attempt competition on trade routes of the world with England's formidable fleet, said Mr. Raymond, on a war-cost basis for American ships, would prove disastrous. To prove his point the witness submitted figures covering the charges against capital invested in two ships of 10,000 tons capacity each, one under the English flag, valued at $100 a ton, the other under the American flag, for sale by the Shipping Board at $220 a ton. These figures showed: Annual interest charges at 5 per cent on capital invested, English $50,000, American $110,000; annual depreciation, at 5 per cent, English $50,000, American $110,000; insurance, English $30,000, American $66,000; totals, English annual charges $130,000, American $286,000; difference in favor of the English vessel, $156,000.

To Keep Up American Wages. Wages on an American ship of the size noted, said the witness, amount to between $12,000 and $15,000 a year more than on the British ship. There is no disposition to scale down American wages; but to meet the added charge the shipowners believe they should be allowed to charge off 10 per cent annually as depreciation on their ships before paying their income tax.

To encourage a continuance of shipbuilding in American yards, the shipowners proposed this plan to the senators: That ships bought from the government and kept under the American flag in foreign commerce be exempted from federal excess profit taxes, on condition that an amount equivalent to such exemption be invested by the owner of the ships in additional vessels, to be built in American yards.

In response to a question from a senator if this was government aid to shipping, Mr. Raymond made this reply:

"Of all our great national industries, American shipowning and shipbuilding for overseas commerce have been left without aid and encouragement from the government—other industries, as we all know, having long been protected in some degree by our national tariff laws. We submit that it must be acknowledged that ocean shipbuilding and navigation are as much entitled as any other industries to some form of national aid against foreign competition."

STATE OF MICHIGAN.

To the Circuit Court for the County of Iosco in Chancery.

The petition of Oramel B. Fuller, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State, respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth and marked "Schedule A," contains a description of all the lands in said County of Iosco upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein, and which were returned as delinquent for non-payment of taxes, and which taxes have not been paid; together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for sale, and collection fee and expenses, as provided by law, extended against each of said parcels of land.

Your petitioner further shows to the Court that said lands were returned to the Auditor General of the State of Michigan for non-payment of said taxes for said years respectively, and that said taxes remain unpaid; except that lands included in said "Schedule A" for taxes of 1890 or prior years were returned to the Auditor General as delinquent for said taxes under the provisions of the general tax laws in force prior to the passage of Act 200 of the Public Acts of 1891, and which taxes remain unpaid.

Your petitioner further shows that in all cases where lands are included in "Schedule A" as aforesaid for taxes of 1890 or of any prior year, said lands have not been sold for said taxes or have been heretofore sold for said delinquent taxes and the sale or sales so made have been set aside by a court of competent jurisdiction, or have been cancelled as provided by law.

Your petitioner further shows and avers that the taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as set forth in said "Schedule A" are a valid lien on the several parcels of lands described in said schedule.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on the said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year after they were returned as delinquent; and the said taxes not having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee and expenses, as computed and extended in said schedule against the several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed, that the said parcels of land, that each of said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien aforesaid.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

Dated January 21, 1920.

ORAMEL B. FULLER,
Auditor General of the State of Michigan,
for and in behalf of said State.

Was Bound to Go Along.
Harry's father and a friend were going for a walk one Sunday afternoon, and Harry insisted on going along. His father said he would give him a nickel if he stayed home. Harry refused. The father then promised to bring him back a bicycle if he stayed at home and was a good boy. Harry pondered this for a moment and replied: "No, I'll go along and ride it back."

Gem Has Tragic History.
The "Regent" diamond, which is treasured in Paris, and is the queer of all the French national gems, was picked up in 1701 at the Parthenon mines on the Kistna, by a slave, who, concealing it in a hole cut for its reception in his thigh, escaped with it to the coast. Here he sold it to an English skipper, who, instead of paying the small sum demanded, treacherously killed the slave.

INCOME TAX RETURNS DUE

Business Men, Farmers and Wage Workers Must File Schedules of Income for 1919.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.
Net Incomes of $1,000 or Over, if Single; or $2,000 or Over if Married, Must Be Reported.

The Income Tax imposed by Act of Congress on earnings of the year 1919 is now being collected. Returns under oath must be made on or before March 15 by every citizen and resident who had a net income for 1919 amounting to:

$1,000 or over, if single; or if married and living apart from wife (or husband); or if widowed or divorced.

$2,000 or over, if married and living with wife (or husband).

The status of the person on the last day of the year fixes the status for the year with respect to the above requirements.

Under any of these circumstances a return must be made, even though no tax is due.

Husband and wife must consider the income of both, plus that of dependent minor children, in meeting this requirement; and, if sufficient to require a return, all items must be shown in a joint return or in separate returns of husband and wife.

A single person with minor dependents must include the income of such dependents.

A minor who has a net income of $1,000 or more is not considered a dependent, and must file a separate return.

Personal returns should be made on Form 1040 A, unless the net income exceeded $5,000, in which case Form 1040 should be used.

Residents of Michigan should send returns and payments to John A. Grogan, Collector of Internal Revenue, Detroit, or E. J. Doyle, Collector of Internal Revenue, Grand Rapids.

How to Figure Income.
The best way to find out whether one must file a return is to get a Form 1040 A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income, and if a return is due it tells how to prepare and file it.

If in doubt on any point as to income or deductions, a person may secure free advice and aid from the nearest Internal Revenue office.

Guesswork, estimates and other hit-or-miss methods are barred when a person is making out his Income Tax return. Accuracy and completeness must be insisted upon. The return is a sworn statement. As such it must be thorough and accurate.

Salaried persons and wage earners must ascertain the actual compensation received. Overtime, bonuses, shares in the profits of a business, value of quarters and board furnished by the employer and other items which are compensations for services must be included.

It must be borne in mind that compensation may be paid in other forms than in cash. A bonus paid in Liberty Bonds is taxable at the market value of the bonds. A note received in payment for services is taxable income at its face value, and the interest upon it is also taxable.

Other Returns Due.
Every partnership doing business in the United States must file a return on Form 1065; and every personal service corporation must file a similar return.

Corporations must file annual returns on Form 1120.

Trustees, executors, administrators and others acting in a fiduciary capacity are required to file returns. In some cases, Form 1041 is used; in others, Form 1040; and still others, returns on both forms are required.

Information returns, on Forms 1099 and 1096, must be filed by every organization, firm or person who paid, during 1919, an amount of $1,000 in salary, wages, interest, rent, or other fixed or determinable income to another person, partnership, personal service corporation or fiduciary. These information returns should be forwarded directly to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue (sorting division), Washington, D. C.

Cultivate Worthy Thoughts.
Such are the habitual thoughts, such also will be the character of the mind; for the soul is dyed by the thoughts. Dye it, then, with a continuous series of such thoughts as these: for instance, that where a man can live, there he can also live well. But he must live in a palace; well then, he can also live well in a palace.—Exchange.

Economy in Telephone Use.
A Brazilian newspaper has been for some time enjoying the privilege of using one telephone line for three simultaneous conversations. With three telephone sets at each end of the line, one pair of users talks English, one pair French, and one pair Portuguese. The listeners seem to find no difficulty in selecting the sounds intelligible to them and ignoring the others. The newspaper people express great satisfaction with the result, especially as they pay for only one line.

Worth More Than That Now.
On June 20, 1632, the patent of Maryland, granted to George Calvert, Lord Baltimore, was after his death made over to his son, Cecilus Calvert. King Charles signed the new patent and gave to the grant of land the name of Maryland, in honor of his queen, Henrietta Maria. While Lord Baltimore held the grant he paid for it yearly to the crown of England two Indian arrows, which are still on exhibition at Windsor castle, England.

INCOME TAX RETURNS DUE
Business Men, Farmers and Wage Workers Must File Schedules of Income for 1919.

MARCH 15 LAST FILING DATE.
Net Incomes of $1,000 or Over, if Single; or $2,000 or Over if Married, Must Be Reported.

The Income Tax imposed by Act of Congress on earnings of the year 1919 is now being collected. Returns under oath must be made on or before March 15 by every citizen and resident who had a net income for 1919 amounting to:

$1,000 or over, if single; or if married and living apart from wife (or husband); or if widowed or divorced.

$2,000 or over, if married and living with wife (or husband).

The status of the person on the last day of the year fixes the status for the year with respect to the above requirements.

Under any of these circumstances a return must be made, even though no tax is due.

Husband and wife must consider the income of both, plus that of dependent minor children, in meeting this requirement; and, if sufficient to require a return, all items must be shown in a joint return or in separate returns of husband and wife.

A single person with minor dependents must include the income of such dependents.

A minor who has a net income of $1,000 or more is not considered a dependent, and must file a separate return.

Personal returns should be made on Form 1040 A, unless the net income exceeded $5,000, in which case Form 1040 should be used.

Residents of Michigan should send returns and payments to John A. Grogan, Collector of Internal Revenue, Detroit, or E. J. Doyle, Collector of Internal Revenue, Grand Rapids.

How to Figure Income.
The best way to find out whether one must file a return is to get a Form 1040 A and follow the instructions printed on it. That form will serve as a reminder of every item of income, and if a return is due it tells how to prepare and file it.

Guesswork, estimates and other hit-or-miss methods are barred when a person is making out his Income Tax return. Accuracy and completeness must be insisted upon. The return is a sworn statement. As such it must be thorough and accurate.

WEDDING RING IS CHANGED.

The wedding ring was not always plain, as we see it today. It was frequently highly ornamented and wrought with various designs. But as other rings began to be worn the wedding ring was made conspicuously plain. The practice, however, was long in vogue of inscribing appropriate mottoes on rings. The ring may be said to be symbolic. It is of gold and typifies purity and refinement, whereas its roundness signifies "the round flowing of mutual love and hearty affection."
