"CURRIE FOR CONGRESS"

As the time for the primary election approaches the people become more and more interested in the qualifications of the various candidates for public office, and among the more important offices which are receiving their attention is that of congressman. Here are some of the reasons why the Herald believes that our present congressman, Glibert A. Currie, should be renominated and elected for another

Throughout his entire service in the lower house of Congress Mr. Currie has stood for out and out, pure, unadulterated Americanism. He has unfalteringly upheld the ideals that have made the United Stafes the leading nation of the world and one whose good-will and cooperation is eagerly sought by the other nations.

There has never been any question as to Mr. Currie's position on any question affecting the people at large as he has always taken the stand that would afford the greatest good to the greatest number, regardless of how it might affect his political future. His position on the labor bills which came before the recent session of Congress has earned him the opposition of a large element of the railroad brotherhoods and the coal miners' union, but he took the stand on these questions that he considered best for all the people, well knowing that it might easily defeat him in the next election. He was not playing for votes but was doing his duty as he saw it with the which is a breastplate embossed with full knowledge that it would alienate the garter arms, the garter sword a large percentage of the voters in his district. In other words he voted and talked as his convictions dictated, instead of concealing his opinions under a camouflage of words that would have left the people in the dark as to his real position, as the astute politician would have done. For this open fight against that which he considered against the best interests of the country he has been "blacklisted" by the A. F. of L., but we believe there are enough fair-minded people in the Tenth congressional district to insure his renomination and election despite this opposition.

Mr. Currie also incurred the enmity of the liquor forces by his attitude on the Volstead act, but as the prohibition law is now a part of the constitutional law of the land, it was vitally necessary that legislation should be enacted to compel its observance, and Mr. Currie should be commended for his position on this question.

Besides his official acts in the House Mr. Currie has always been ready to use his influence wherever possible for the benefit of any of his constituents and many people can testify to the painstaking care with which he has handled even the smallest matters which were brought to his attention and in which his aid was solicited.

The Herald believes that a majority of the voters f the Tenth congressional district appreciate a man of Mr. Currie's caliber, and that they will reward his stalwart Americanism by renominating him at the coming primary election with a splendid majority.

The Military Knights of Windsor is the oldest military body in the world, having been founded by Edward III from the veterans of Crecy and Poictiers, originally having had the prefix "Sir." They are now selected by the king from the old regular officers of

The Windsor knights are picturesque old gentlemen, their uniforms consisting of a scarlet coat with gold epaulets. Their somewhat expansive waists are lashed round with a crimson sash and they have a very dandylooking cross-belt of white leather, on bright crimson stripe on the outside of their trousers. Their hats are the most luxuriant creation of feathers. plumes and cockades.

The duties of these old warriors are not now very exacting. At one time they were bound to attend the chapel of St. George at Windsor twice a day. Their devotional duties were later reduced to their presence at divine service only once a week and on the birthdays of certain members of the royal family. The strength of the corps at the present time is only 18, which consists of 13 knights of the upper foundation and five in the lower.

Deportation of "undesirables" is not innovation in this country. The Pilgrim Fathers, confronted with the ones overseas. Governor Bradford's lowing for your consideration; story of the Plymouth colony shows how things were done in those days.

According to Bradford's story the "reds" in the Plymouth colony were represented by John Liford and John Oldham, who conspired together, both against the church and the governtrial, all the members of the colony being present. They were convicted,

Oldham came once again to the colony and created a serious breach of the peace, whereupon "they committed him till he was tamer, and then apwas to pass through, and everyone was ordered to give him a thump on ye birch, with ye butt end of his musket and then was conveyed to ye waterside, where a boat was ready to carry him away. Then they bid him goe and mende his maners."

Straight talk on Cream Separators by C. H. Prescott & Sons Tawas City, Mich.

NO MATTER what anyone may claim, there is only one speed at which a cream separator should be turned in order to get all the cream and cream of uniform thickness. That's the speed plainly indicated on the crank of every separator, of whatever make.

Full speed is the only assurance of full capacity and full efficiency.

Every De Laval now has a Bell Speed-Indicator. The bell warns the operator if the separator is turned too slowly. There can be no mistake about it.

The Bell Speed-Indicator adds nothing to the price but much to the value of the De Laval Cream Separator

Come in, examine the machine and see how the Bell Speed-Indicator works.

These Are by Test Two of the Best

The JOY ECLIPSE has been thoroughly tested and has fulfilled the requirements of Good Housekeeping Institute of New York City. This range can be furnished in either the enameled or plain trim as illustrated. This spotless white enameled range looks mighty attractive in any kitchen. Front base strip, two front legs, reservoir panel, feed and ash door, and oven door frame are nickeled. An accurate thermometer furnished on every Joy.

ECLIPSE

This is the plain or original form of the JOY from which more elaborately trimmed styles are made. The plain smooth castings are easy to keep clean. There is just the right touch of nickel to break the dullness so often associated with too plain a stove. Call at our store and we will show you both styles-no obligation on your part whatever.
