We are inspired by the fervor and truth in the Christian writings of the earlier centuries. They have given us the essence of Divine wisdom clothed in all of its beauty and power. With the progress of the years we have not seen fit to ignore or forget their interpretation of God and His creation. But, in spite of the strength of their thought, we must declare our age far removed from those ancient days. We day. now have access to new truth.

This new truth of which I write does not cost us our fidelity to the old writings, but rather serves to vindicate them. The pick and shovel of the archeologist has unearthed tablets and stones in Bible lands that bear the record of truth.

The Hale Fair

One of the largest exhibits ever shown in Iosco county was viewed by a large number of visitors at the second annual Hale fair on Wednesday of last week.

R. D. Brown's big warehouse was packed to its fullest capacity with fruits, vegetables and poultry. More than 700 exhibits were made by 105 exhibitors. The large display of apples showed what wonderful fruit can be raised in this country. All varieties of fruit raised in the state were shown, even peaches. S. B. Yawger had the largest collection of fruits and vegetables, showing 16 varities of the former and 9 of the latter, with his name spelled in letters formed with dark red apples. Ed. Tottingham also had a beautiful display of apples with the words ,'Welcome to Hale Fair" formed of a dark red variety.

Wm. Addy had a large collection of regetables, showing all kinds ever grown in Michigan. Corn stalks were on exhibit 12 feet tall.

The display of fancy work held in the back rooms of H. E. Nunn's store excelled anything ever shown in the county. The exhibition of canned fruit baked goods and pickles was also held in this building, filling three large rooms with no space to spare. The stock made a good showing. Full blooded Guernsey cattle from the shown, some Aberdeen Angus owned by Bert White at Hale, also a Durham cow owned by S. B. Yawger, which drew first prize. Other cattle drawing prizes were shown by Alfred Graves. Cattle, hogs and sheep, all extra fine given in the Whittemore hall. A sad accident occurred last Thurs- and of the best grade, were included

What Caused Queer Sounds. Complaints made about a woman's club in London because of a noise of thumping on the walls that began at 7:30 every morning brought out the fact that a woman of sixty and a woman of seventy-five, trying to reduce flesh, were competing in high kicking. "I have hit the wall at four and one-half feet," said the sixty-year-old woman, "and have lost. two pounds. The old lady of seventyfive has kicked seven inches higher, but I won't be beaten by her."

A Pair of Shares and a Pair of Shoes

With the present price of shoes, think what a sense of satisfaction to say: "Well, this pair of shoes is paid for, without any effort of mine—praise be!" And that's just what you can say too if you have $190 working for you day and night, right here in your own home town.

Consumers Power Company Preferred Stock Yields in Dividends 7.37% Interest on Your Investment

That means that the modest sum of $19000, buying two shares of this Preferred Stock, will pay you in interest $14.00 a year, or the price of a pair of good substantial shoes. And it will pay you this dividend not only this year, but for all years to come.

If you purchase your stock now, as it is issued, the price is but $95.00 a share on a par value of $100.

Remember you are buying stock in a company producing a staple. The world has to have light and power. This means that your investment will be secure.

And you are buying Preferred Stock-on which it is required that all dividends must be paid before dividends can be declared on the Company's Common Stock.

Furthermore, the Company is right here in your own home town-inviting your investigation.

You can pay for the stock in easy installments, and you get 7% interest on all you pay in, until payments are complete and you own the stock.

No Reduction in Price of Oakland Sensible Six

At this time when the public mind is disturbed by sensationally announced price reductions of automobiles and other merchandise and commodities we desire to give assurance to those who require Personal Passenger Transportation, such as provided by the Oakland Sensible Six, that we do not anticipate reducing the price of our cars.

Starting with the production of the raw material required and continuing through to the finished product, over 80 per cent of the cost an Oakland Sensible Six is labor.

Over 80 per cent of the cost of all other automobiles produced in large quantities is labor.

When wages paid to labor are reduced, or when labor produces more per man, then may manufacturers of honestly priced automobiles legitimately consider the reduction of their selling prices.

We have not heard of any instance where automobile workers are receiving lower wages.

If wages may be lowered eventually we see no immediate trend in that direction.

In the production of so essential a factor in our economic life as the passenger automobile-increasing as it does the personal efficiency of owners by nearly 57 per cent—we believe the workers whose toil produces the vehicle should be large beneficiaries of the constructive character of their

If abnormal demand has been responsible for over-enthusiastic expansion and inflated profits in certain instances, the wage earner shold not be made to suffer as he must if powerful forces effect lower automobile prices whether or no.

True enough, there have been many instances of inflated prices. There has been profiteering. And true enough, abnormal profits must be eliminated.

And that is what has been going on all around you recently—the price reductions you have witnessed in automobiles and other merchandise are the belated shaking out of abnormal profits. The normal profits are still there.

Manufacturers whose goods have been priced on actual cost to produce, plus normal profit, have no inflated figures with which to appeal to the uninformed public in sensational announcements of "Price Reductions." Prudent, studious buyers will not be misguided by erroneous principles.

Oakland Price Advance in 5 Years Due to Increased Cost of Labor and Material, Only 27.4 Per Cent

In 1915 Model 32 Oakland Sensible Six was put on the market at $795 f. o. b. factory.

Since 1915 the wheelbase of the Sensible Six has been lengthened five inches, its weight increased about four hundred pounds, its horsepower materially increased, its frame made deeper, and in many other ways the car has been enlarged, strengthened, improved and refined.

If the present Model 34-C had been built in 1915 it is more than conservative to say that, based on labor and material costs at that time, we would have been compelled to list it to sell at $1095, or more, f. o. b. factory.

We are therefore able to say with great conservatism, that the present price of Model 34-C represents an increase, due solely to increased costs of labor and material, of 27.4 per cent. Larger production each year has kept this increase at a low figure.

Compare this increase with the increase of other automobiles and with commodities—with the things you buy every day.

Nowhere have we been able to find a standard article of merchandise that has increased as little in selling price as the price of the Oakland Sensible

In the event of unexpected reductions in the cost of the labor and material that enter into the construction of the Oakland Sensible Six to a point where we may properly and legitimately reduce the list price our cars between October 1, 1920, and May 1, 1921, we will refund to every Oakland purchaser who buys within the above mentioned period of time the amount of such reduction. (The guarantee does not apply to second hand cars or former models
