BAPTIST CHURCH

Are you prepared? You believe in preparing for life; in saving for a "rainy day." You want to be prepared when the winter of life comes, too. You believe in good management and economy as a safeguard against want in the future.

You are prepared to take care of the needs of the body. Are you prepared to take care of the needs of your soul? Are you prepared to overcome temptation? It is well to be prepared to meet God in death. But, first of all, are you prepared to meet adversity and unseen misfortune? It is well to have the strong arm of the Almighty to lean on in such a time.

Life's successes do not come like fruit from a tree. You must work for them. Neither does stability of character and soul security come without preparation. You must exert your own will, and exercise your own faith before God can lend His aid.

You scorned our administration for lack of preparation in time of war. Is it not just as unwise to be lax in preparing the soul for the wars that the powers of Sin will wage?

Are you prepared? Think what it means to live in a house without warmth, to exist without food, to live in old age without a friend, and you have a picture of the soul that is not prepared to meet God and the storms of life. Will you heed the warning and prepare?

Morning service, 10:00; Subject, "Our Great Ally"—An Armistice Day service.

Sunday school, 11:15.

Evening service with the Methodist church.

Wednesday evening, Fellowship social.

Homer W. Grimes, Pastor.

AMERICAN UTILITORS IN FOREIGN FIELDS

American export trade is growing rapidly, according to commerce reports reaching Washington. The American manufacturer has adopted a new policy. Instead of trying to force American goods made to meet American needs upon foreign peoples, he is now studying foreign markets and endeavoring to supply existing needs.

Take the American automobile. At first complaints were received from Europe that American cars, with their left hand controls were responsible for many accidents. American manufacturers had overlooked the fact that in some countries they keep to the left. The change was made at once, and last year our exports in motor vehicles reached $166,000,000.

The department of agriculture recently reported that American tractors, since they pull two, three and four plows, are too large for economical operation on farms of less than 130 acres. This same dictum meant that American tractors were not suited for European export trade, where the farms are small and intensive farming is the rule. How did the American manufacturers meet this situation?

In an interview just published, Dr. D. H. Andrae, commercial attache of the Netherlands, said that more than 98 per cent of the farms of Holland are of less than 125 acres, while 72 per cent are from 2 to 25 acres.

"I have recently returned from a trip to the middle west," said Dr. Andrae. "In Indianapolis I visited one of the factories that make utilitators. I am very much interested in this small, one-plow utilitor and as soon as I receive the catalogs and illustrated material description of this plowing machine, I will forward it to my government."

These manufacturers of utilitators have studied foreign agricultural methods. They have learned the farms are small, and that the European farmer cultivates all the fence corners and close around the trees. They realized the necessity for a moderate priced machine that would do this work—that would plow, harrow, cultivate and do any work that would be done by one horse, ox or mule, and do it better and cheaper.

The same policy is being adopted by other manufacturers. America is better equipped to compete in the world market than any other country today, and we are in a fair way to secure our share of the business, now that American manufacturers are learning that all peoples do not keep to the right.

Randall Parrish

This son of Illinois is one of the most prolific and successful of American writers. Aided by a fertile imagination, his own career and experiences have furnished plots in abundance. Educated for the law, he has been plainsman, prospector, miner, country editor, city reporter and novelist, and has also taken a dip into commercial waters. Many kinds of life are depicted in his books, but he doubtless shows to best advantage in stories of the West. You are sure to like his "Comrades of Peril," a true western narrative which soon will be reproduced in serial form in these columns.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL NOV. 11-25

As we have been asked frequently what is the use of continuing the Red Cross now that the war is over, we will try in a few words as possible to explain it.

First, The Red Cross is essential in completing necessary war work and for the development of community life.

Second, Our Home Service section has frequent calls for aid in getting some soldier to headquarters wherever he may be ordered for examination before he can get help from the government.

Third, The Red Cross provides preparedness against disaster. Our membership is only $1.00 and 50c of this amount is retained in our own county for emergency, and 50c sent to National headquarters.

Fourth, Every man and woman in this county has a responsibility in, as well as a benefit from Red Cross, therefore no apology need be offered in asking for membership, but consider it a privilege to join. All we ask is $1.00 to renew your membership or to join if not already a member.

Yours,
Frank F. Taylor,
Secretary Iosco County Chapter.

BOYS AND GIRLS CLUBS SHOW STEADY GROWTH DURING 1920

During the first six months of 1920 208,257 boys and girls in the northern and western states enrolled in the clubs which are supervised by the U. S. department of agriculture and the state colleges. The large enrollment in these clubs promises that soon, possibly before the next census is taken, the exodus from the country to the city will be definitely checked. Club work has already dignified agriculture in the eyes of thousands upon thousands of farm boys and girls, and made them satisfied with country life for the organization brings new interests into the lives of its members and enables them to make money of their own. While club work encourages boys and girls to procure a higher education if possible—987 northern and western club boys and 607 club girls are in agricultural colleges this year—it does not educate them away from the farm.

One per cent of the total population of the country, or 1,041,441 persons, were reached the first six months of the current year through the juvenile club events. When the boys and girls put on an exhibit it is popular with all ages and all ages attend. The work in the clubs was carried on by 173 permanent county club agents and 8,046 volunteer local leaders. The number of permanent club agents has nearly doubled in six months. Large numbers of farm bureaus now are paying the salary of a club leader as well as that of a county agent and a home demonstration agent.

Preparations for the world's greatest live stock exposition at Chicago during the first week of December are now well under way. Each season this spectacle of animal life is given a new stage setting, involving the labor of hundreds of men for several weeks and an expenditure of many thousands of dollars. Part of this is necessitated by essential conveniences for man and beast; part goes to furnish the coloring that has given the exposition atmospheric brilliancy, intensified as each season rolls around. An enormous sum is required for light effects, a feature of the "International" that has always been abreast and much of the time in advance of such improvement as electrical ingenuity develops. This year a number of scenic novelties have been introduced arrangement of exhibits has been perfected and a more elaborate setting given the latest addition to this aggregation of spectacles—the Grain and Hay Show, under the auspices of the Chicago Board of Trade.

When the gates are thrown open to the public Nov. 27th, all this elaborate and expensive getting-ready program will insure the most successful International Live Stock Exposition since the inauguration of that enterprise, which has been effective in promoting the welfare and progress of the live stock industry of all sections of North America.

SPORES SCATTERED BY WIND

Remarkable Reproduction of Species of Fungus is One of the Wonders of Nature.

We often wonder at the amazingly sudden upspringing of mushrooms and toadstools. Today the green of the lawn is unbroken. In the night a gentle rain falls, and we wake to see a crowded group of yellowish-white "inkycaps" spreading their parasols in the very shadow of our doorstep. Mr. Burton O. Longyear in the Outer's Book describes the marvelous reproductive powers of these fragile and short-lived plants.

Each species of fungus produces upon or within some part of its fruit body countless numbers of minute reproductive bodies, called spores. So small and light are they that they float in the air as an invisible dust. Many of them fall to the ground and are washed into the soil by rains. Others are wafted away on every breeze, carried possibly for days, to be brought down at length by rain many leagues from their starting point. In this way they are carried to the ends of the earth, dusted into every crack and cranny, lodged on every exposed surface of wood or soil and caught on every dew-moistened leaf or twig.

The amazing number of spores produced by a single fungus can be realized only by knowing their relative size. Thus in the case of most puffballs at least three thousand of the globular spores, when laid side by side, would be required to form a line one inch long. A compact mass of such spores, the size of a parlor-match head, would contain the incomprehensible number of thirty millions of these microscopic bodies, enough to cover an acre of ground with four spores for every square inch of surface.

PIPE MAKERS USING BIRCH

Wood Has Been Found to Be Eminent-ly Suitable, After Treatment by a Special Process.

American birch since the war has acquired a South American name. Nowadays it is fashioned into pipes and then called something besides birch. The only evident reason for the change seems to be the fact that the process that converts soft birch into a hard pipe was originated in a Latin American country, according to the New York Evening Sun.

Birchwood owes its new name and its present prominence in the pipe industry to the war, which cut off the supply of briar and sent the prices of the stocks in America sky high.

Substitutes have been sought for the expensive imported briar. The cessation of importations with the war— they haven't been resumed yet—intensifies the search for an American wood that would provide a suitable substitute.

Many native hardwoods were tried without success. Most of them were either too hard to be worked into pipes or too heavy to rest comfortably between a smoker's lips. Then some one hit on the expedient of trying a soft wood and employing a process that would give it the required hardness for use in pipe manufacturing. Birch was found the most suitable for the purpose.

Oil Wells Detected Electrically.

New uses for electricity are constantly appearing. One of the latest is the detection of crude oil in the earth instead of boring for it.

It is stated that crude petroleum has been located electrically in the shallow offield near Corsicana, Texas, and that further tests are being made around Burk Burnett. A series of batteries is used for the test, the negative terminal being connected to a wire which is dropped into dry waterhole, valley or indentation, and the positive terminal being connected to a "land wire," which is used to make contact at various points on the surface of the field investigated. It is stated that the higher electrical resistance of oil compared with other constituents of the earth, permits it to be located by the reduced deflection of a sensitive instrument in the circuit.

Washington Knew Value of Oil.

There has been recently discovered a letter of George Washington in which he shows great interest in the possibility of an "oil spring" in Virginia. He called the especial attention of his trustees to the importance of the matter.

Killed Value of Old Coins.

Old-fashioned copper cents of the years 1817, 1818, 1819 and 1820 were formerly very rare and corresponding-ly valuable; but bags full of them were found in an old bank and the market was flooded.

SIMS EXPRESSES WARM TRIBUTE TO RED CROSS

"Government officials can make no expenditures, even for the relief of suffering and in aid of our disabled heroes, in the many urgent cases that have not been foreseen and provided for by law; and often the necessarily cumbersome machinery of government departments renders prompt action difficult if not impossible. "The Red Cross can and will perform these essential services promptly and efficiently to the extent rendered possible by public support. It has demonstrated its efficiency both in the great war and in peace, and deserves the support of all who have the health and welfare of our people at heart. "WILLIAM S. SIMS, "Admiral."

RED CROSS HELPS SOLDIERS IN CAMP

Life in any military or naval camp at present, especially in the hospitals, would be considerably dull were it not for the Red Cross. It is the same ever-helping Red Cross these veterans, sick or well, find serving them, now, even though two whole years have elapsed since the war ended.

One of the principal features of its work is the entertainments it arranges. Each night in every theater or hut in camp, a movie show is given, with a full vaudeville show as an added attraction at least once a week. In the hospital wards where the patients are too ill to leave their beds, these shows are staged there for them. The convalescent houses and huts of the Red Cross are the enlisted men's clubhouses. In them are held not only the shows, but frequent parties as well, just as was done when most of America's young manhood was frequenting such places. Excursion trips for the wounded, too, are furnished by the Red Cross. Athletic equipment of almost every description can be had at every camp for the asking.

The work of the Military Relief service in the Central Division at present is confined to the five camps in this section—Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Camp Grant, Ill.; Ft. Des Moines, Ia.; Camp Custer, Mich., and Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

Thousands of the wounded, sick and well soldiers and sailors in these camps swear by the Red Cross—not any more stanchly, however, than the many other thousands still in the service and the millions who have left it. They have the Red Cross to thank for many pleasant hours and attentions they would not enjoy had the organization demobilized its army of military workers and let the memory of the men still in the hospitals and camps slip from its mind.

Health is the second blessing that we mortals are capable of—a blessing that money cannot buy.—Isaak Walton.

Hot Cross Buns.

Eating hot cross buns on Good Friday is an old custom, dating back to the early centuries. All manner of superstition seems to attend the custom. One is that the eating of buns on Good Friday protects the house from fire. Another, that hot cross buns hung up in the kitchen will insure prosperity for the coming year. Hot cross buns baked on Good Friday and hung over the front door will ward off evil, is another.

"The first one of you to go to sleep shall have an orange," she finally said. Dead silence followed. Presently Tottie called: "Auntie, give me my orange; I is the first one asleep. Me dest woke up again."

Immunity From Second Attack.

The United States public health service says that it is well known that an attack of measles or scarlet fever or smallpox usually protects a person against another attack of the same disease. To some extent this appears to be true also of influenza. Just how long such protection lasts is not known.

Valuable to Science.
The telescope gives enlarged views of distant objects, the microscope shows only what is almost in contact with its lens, and by giving a means of making intermediate observations the modifications of the Davon microscope have proven a boon to the naturalist. With great depth of focus and a large field of view, the short focus type, for example, has a working distance of 10 to 18 inches, and magnifies 15 to 38 diameters. An adjustable rubber-tipped rod serves as a rest to support the instrument at the desired height for studying such objects as insects, plants and rocks.

Would Be Missed.
One day while out in the yard playing with his knife my little boy broke the blade and came in feeling badly about it. I told him I was sorry, too. He thought about it a little while, then he said: "My, but my pocket will be lonesome without my knife."—Exchange.

Safety First.
Preparatory to showing Charlie his new sister, his father said, "What do you say to getting a new baby at our house, sonny?" Charlie thought a moment and then said, "We'd better be careful, daddy; let's just rent one till we see how we like it, for Billy (Charlie's chum) says he is tired of us; it yells all the time."

FIRST AID TRAINING TO MEN AND WOMEN

American Red Cross Is Teaching Hundreds of Thousands Life-Saving Methods.

The purpose of instruction in First Aid to the injured offered by the American Red Cross is to train men and women to administer First Aid treatment promptly and intelligently when emergencies demand it. First Aid treatment is not intended to take the place of a physician's service. A surgeon should always be summoned as a precautionary measure where there is an injury of any consequence, but when one cannot be secured a few minutes' delay may mean a fatality. In such a case a person trained in First Aid is invaluable not only to the individual, but through him to the community in which he lives.

There is perhaps no way of ascertaining the number of deaths or serious disabilities which result from lack of proper safeguards or prompt emergency treatment. It is safe to assert they number thousands daily. There can be no doubt that the application of First Aid methods to each case would immeasurably lighten the country's toll of suffering and death.

The dissemination of First Aid training and information has already produced a far-reaching and beneficial influence in the prevention of accidents on railroads, in mines and in great industrial concerns.

The benefit of a widespread knowledge of First Aid in the event of a great disaster, such as a train wreck, an explosion, an earthquake, etc., is obvious. Laymen who have had First Aid training can render efficient assistance. Many lives may depend upon such emergency care.

Red Cross First Aid work includes (1) the formation and conduct, through Red Cross chapters, of classes for instruction in accident prevention and First Aid to the injured among men and women in all communities and in every industry; (2) the introduction of courses of instruction in high schools and colleges.

The Red Cross is prepared to supply First Aid books and equipment at reasonable prices.

Every person in this country able to do so should, in his own interest, receive Red Cross First Aid instruction. Information about the course and instruction classes may be had at the nearest chapter headquarters.

RED CROSS EXTENDS RELIEF TO POLAND

More than $5,000,000 has been spent by the American Red Cross in aiding the stricken people of Poland. The organization has nursed the sick, fed the starving, clothed the naked, sheltered the homeless, schooled the children and cared for the orphans there. It has conducted a relentless fight against typhus, cholera and other terrible diseases. So today millions of men and women in that resurrected nation speak in grateful appreciation of "The Greatest Mother in the World."

Nearly 200 American Red Cross workers are now engaged in relief activities in Poland. Four large relief bases are in operation and eleven mobile units are in the field. During the last twelve months this organization was largely instrumental in the re-establishment of a million refugees at a cost for general relief of more than $1,000,000. Last winter one-half million war orphans were aided materially, and since then a series of large orphanages have been established to give them permanent care.

But for American Red Cross aid, officials of Poland declared recently, millions of people in that country would have perished of disease, exposure or starvation the last eighteen months. And the work there must be kept up for another year.

Famous Landmark.
The old windmill on the famous Wimbledon common, a few miles out of London, has been shorn of the chief feature that has made it a landmark for many generations. Its four sails, which could be seen many miles away, have been removed; the common conservators having been advised that owing to their great age they were a danger, not only to the structure, but to those living in the mill house underneath. The old windmill presents a strange appearance without the sails.

Always Unpopular Number.
Whether unlucky or not, number 13 is thoroughly unpopular. If 13 sit down to a meal, the first to rise will be within a year, says superstition. The person born on the thirteenth of the month will be unlucky throughout life; no one should embark on a journey or start an enterprise on the thirteenth of the month; while the thirteenth house in a row is nearly always untenantable, or renumbered 11A or 15.

Up-to-Date Lone Jack.

Confining himself to an actual list of community calamities, Mayor King of Lone Jack, Mo., reasons convincingly that the blowing up of the local electric light plant, the quitting of his job by the jitney bus driver, the departure from the midst of them of the sole barber and the robbery of the local bank—all in a short space of time—indicate the secret arrival of a Jinx in town and a high-pressure distribution of his malign influence. But it is to be observed that 25 per cent of Lone Jack's ills is due to preventable accident and 25 per cent to crime of unusual magnitude and daring, while 50 per cent is due to labor troubles.

Life within Lone Jack is only typical of the larger life outside of Lone Jack. It is a cross section of a status prevailing in the entire country; indeed, throughout the world. Lone Jack is just up to date.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Rudyard Kipling's Autograph.

They say that a bank check bearing the signature of Rudyard Kipling fetches a bigger price for its autograph than for the amount of money named in the check. Probably much depends on the size of the check. A distinguished poet of Boston once sent a poetic contribution to a well-known periodical. It was promptly accepted and published and in due course he received a check for $3 for it. Instead of cashing the check he had it mounted, framed and hung up in his library for the edification and amusement of his friends. Possibly Mr. Kipling may have had similar experience to verify the current item about the autographic and cost value of checks sent to him.—Boston Globe.

Overeducated.

"It was too much education that landed me here, mum," said the burglar to the visitor at the penitentiary. "I had an assistant who was born in Boston. One night we had a good second-story job, but he queered the whole thing at the last minute."

"How do you mean?" asked the visitor.
"When I told him to climb up the down spout to get the swag out of the second story he said: 'I refuse to do anything so paradoxical,' and just then the copper woke up and collared us."—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

The robbery of graves is the only crime for which under Chinese law the thief may be killed on the spot by anyone discovering him in the act.

Hats off to the Gloom Buster, who puts the kibosh on the Crepe Hanger. He radiates Cheer like a Warm Cat dispenses Purrs and laughs at Worries that cause the Average Man's hair to Curl. The Gloom Buster has a Good Word for Everybody and Everybody has a Good Word for Him, What's More!

Reason for Program.

One of the churches has recently installed a motion picture machine. The Sunday service consists of an address by the pastor, followed by the pictures. The children grow impatient waiting for the pictures, and when I suggested to little Bonita that the pictures ought to be shown first and then permit the children to go home she promptly replied: "Yes; but then nobody would stay."—Exchange.

Timely Love.

Jack, four, could tell the time for his mother by locating the nearest numbers. One day when he came back to tell his mother, his eyes were as big as saucers, as he said: "Why, mother! They're both at ten! They're loving each other!"

Very Rude, indeed.

"I'm not going to that woman barber's again; there's a rude girl there, don't you know. Why, she looked at my moustache, and asked me if I would have it sponged off or rubbed in."—Edinburgh Scotsman.

It Has Been Done.

Make 'em cry? Any onion can do that! But you show me a vegetable that can make people laugh.—New York Herald. An overripe tomato, spud on its way by a good pitcher, has, upon landing, been known to cause uproarious mirth.

Dread Surprise.

"Oh, doctor, tell me quick!" moaned the fair patient, clasping her lap-dog and convulsively nibbling a thousand-dollar check. "How sick am I? Is it California, Florida or Europe?"

"Cold in the Head"

TOWNLINE TOPICS

The proceeds of the box social held last Friday night was $40.00.

People living on the Townline are sorry to learn of the departure of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Preston, who have gone to make their home in Battle Creek. They sold their farm through the Strout farm agency to George W. Ross of Chicago, who has taken immediate possession.

"Easter Riding" in Bohemia.

In various parts of Bohemia, now the principal state of the new Czechoslovak republic, a curious old custom prevails, that of "Easter riding." On each Easter day, at four o'clock in the morning, the riders assemble, dressed in black and carrying crosses, flags and other emblems. From Schonwald they proceed on a three-hour's ride to Kulm, where they attend service. The priest, after a sermon wherein he refers to the horse as a symbol of power, bestows his benediction on the animals and their riders. This done, the riders visit the neighboring castles, where they receive hospitality, subsequently making their way homeward, escorted by a band and a large crowd. The origin of this curious custom is lost in the mists of antiquity.

China's Tea Industry.

Indications are that the Chinese government intends to make every effort to encourage the tea industry in that country and to increase China's tea trade with foreign countries. The Peking cabinet recently decided to establish a tea bureau under the ministry of agriculture and commerce. It is stated that the tea industry of China is not keeping pace with the world's increasing consumption of tea, and while China is still holding its trade in the finer qualities, India and Ceylon have practically captured the market from China as to the common black teas.

Date Interesting to Women.

The first woman's rights convention met at Seneca Falls, N. Y., July 19, 1848, and lasted two days. The leader of the gathering was Lucretia Mott, the Quakeress, and her leading assistant was Elizabeth Cady Stanton. This date is regarded as the greatest anniversary of the woman's suffrage movement in America.

Vague Description.

Little Betty running from a luncheon where some very dainty sandwiches were served said: "Mother dear, will you make some of those nice little sandwiches for me some day without any bark on?"

End of This Great Pathe Phonograph Sale is in Sight

YOU CAN no longer put off, if you would take advantage of the opportunity this sale affords you, to own a perfectly wonderful phonograph and procure $25 worth of genuine Pathe records absolutely FREE.

This sale is virtually at an end.

Only four of the beautiful Pathe Phonographs, of which we had fifteen, remain.

Three or four days at the most, and the sale is over.

We believe it to be a truthful statement, when we say that this has been the most successful sale of its kind ever held in this vicinity.

It has done what we started out to do: It has demonstrated, conclusively, every point of superiority possessed by the Pathe Phonograph.

The people of this community have been quick to see the advantages of the indestructible Sapphire Ball as a means of playing a record in contrast with needles which scratch and wear out the records and have to be changed every time the record is changed.

So, come in at once. Make it a point to come in. To hear and know the Pathe Phonograph is well worth the time it takes. For sooner or later you will own a phonograph, and to know the Pathe is to want it in preference to all other makes.

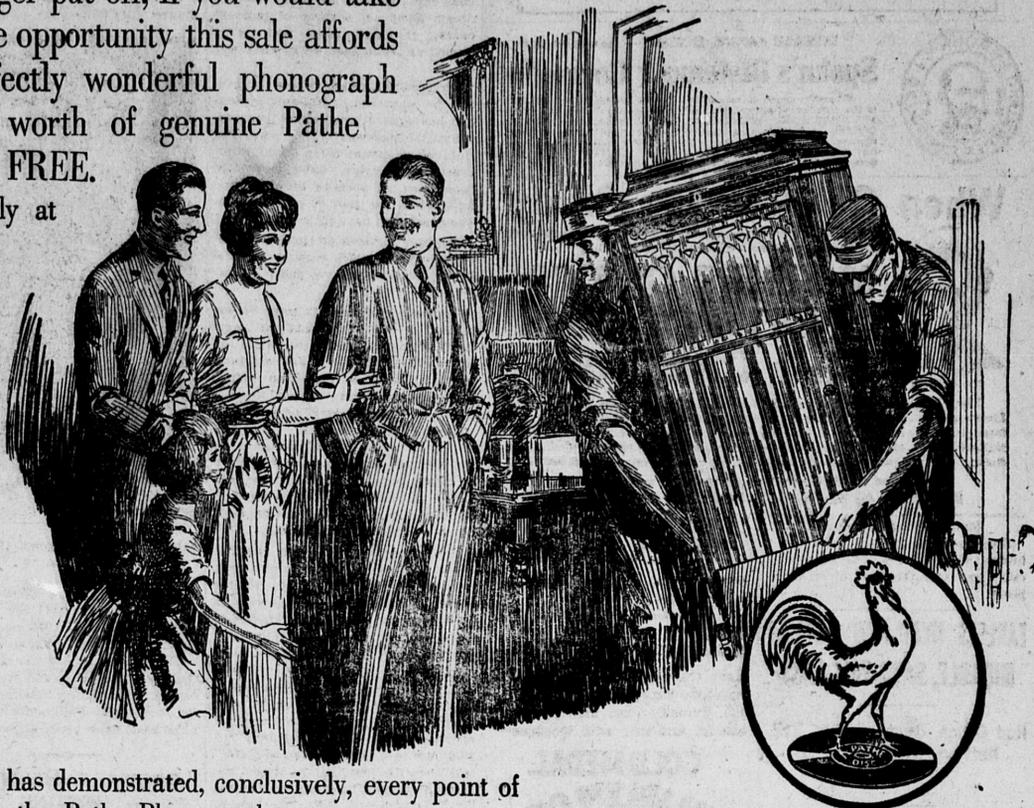

The "Conditions of Sale" are identical with those prevailing in Boston, Chicago, New York, San Francisco, and every other metropolitan city where this sale is being held.

The Main Points of this Unusual Sale

1. This is a co-operative nation-wide demonstration sale of Pathe Phonographs and Pathe Records.
2. The sale is one of approximately five hundred similar sales which are planned to be held in five hundred cities and towns of the United States.
3. The plan, advertising, price of the phonographs, and general conditions of sale are identical in every city and town where the sale will be held.
4. The reason back of this great nation-wide demonstration campaign is to better acquaint the public with the superiority of Pathe Phonographs and Pathe Records by letting the people see and hear them direct rather than to reach them indirectly through magazine advertising alone.
5. The entire outfit offered through this special demonstrating campaign consists of:
  - One genuine 1921 Pathe Phonograph, regular Model 10, as shown in cut.
  - One Universal tone arm and sound box for playing all makes of records.
  - One indestructible Pathe Sapphire Ball (full-tone), and one Pathe Sapphire Ball (half-tone), for playing Pathe Records.
  - $25 worth of genuine Pathe Records given Free.
  - One hundred steel needles.
6. The price for the full equipment is $150.
7. Your first or initial payment may be as little as best suits your convenience.
8. The balance you may spread out over a period of one year.
9. You may exchange the phonograph procured through this sale for any other higher priced Pathe Phonograph at any time within six (6) months and receive full allowance for every penny you have already paid.
10. Every Pathe Phonograph sold during this sale is guaranteed in writing for one (1) year, both the manufacturer and ourselves agreeing to replace any defective parts without charge should any appear within that time.

Why you should own the Jeweled Pathe

There are five distinct and definite reasons why you should own the genuine jeweled Pathe in preference to all other phonographs. And this great nationwide Demonstration Sale is to prove the superiority of these points, beyond the question of a doubt.

- 1st. Because the full, clear tone of each individually toned instrument is reproduced by the pure tone chamber and the famous Pathe Sapphire Ball. The music flows from the records. It isn't scratched off.
- 2nd. Because there are no needles to change on the genuine Pathe. The Sapphire Ball never wears out, neither does it wear out the records.
- 3rd. Because the Pathe plays all makes of records, and plays them with more natural and lifelike tone than any other Phonograph. The entire wealth of music of the phonograph world is available to you, if you own the Pathe.
- 4th. Because the Pathe is always ready to play. Just slip on a record and the Pathe is ready.
- 5th. Because the Pathe Controlla enables you to play any record loudly or softly with the same Sapphire Ball.
