AVERAGE OF TAX COLLECTIONS GOOD

County Treasurer W. H. Price has furnished the Herald with a table of the percentage of taxes collected in the various townships and cities of Iosco county for 1920, which shows an average of a little over 87%. Some of the best townships in the county show the lowest percentage of taxes collected. The low percentage in AuSable township and AuSable city was caused by the injunction which prevented the collection of the special tax of $4,000 levied for the erection of a school building.

Following are the percentages:

Tawas township	99 3/4 %
Tawas City	99 2-3 %
East Tawas	99 1/2 %
Baldwin township	99 1-3 %
Whittemore city	99 %
Oscoda township	98 3/4 %
Albaster township	98 %
Wilber township	94 1/2 %
Burleigh township	90 %
Plainfield township	80 %

BAPTIST CHURCH

Eight times in the Old Testament do we read that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." The thought must be important!

The Christian religion has always inspired her followers to seek wisdom. She has been the power behind the schools and colleges of our land and in heathen lands. But, on the other hand, there are many times when Christianity and wisdom cannot walk together. First of all, Christianity deals with things beyond the grasp of material speculation. She imparts her powers to the ignorant as well as to the scholar. Her great reform movements have often risen from the zeal of the common people. Paul also warns us of a brand of knowledge that "puffeth up," and tells of the incompleteness of material knowledge—"now we see through a glass darkly."

Another branch of wisdom is fostered here. A brand that is not computed by the standards of books and theories. A brand dealing with realms ethical and spiritual. One may be worldly wise, may know all of the proofs concerning the existence of God and yet remain more ignorant than a child regarding this wisdom. It is knowledge in the highest sense because it deals with the soul. It is the wisdom that knows God to be more than Creator—that knows Him to be "our Father." A knowledge that knows Jesus Christ to be more than a supreme character of history—that knows Him as Savior and Friend. It is truly a wisdom that is "born from above."

This "heavenly" wisdom begins when one begins to "fear the Lord." Of course, the first conception will be faint but, like a photographic film, will become plain with development. Why not add this branch of wisdom to your life? There is much to learn and in learning there is much to gain. "And this is life eternal—that they might know thee and Christ Jesus whom thou hast sent."

Passion Week begins Sunday. Rev. Thomson preaches at all services.

L. D. S. CHURCH

The practice of Christ in the blessing of little children, given as an example to the church is the practice of his church today. He is "the Apostle and High Priest of our profession,"—Hebrews 3:1.

Children under the age of accountability were not sprinkled by the church of Jesus Christ but were blessed through the ordinance of laying on of hands. Then were there brought him little children that he should put his hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven. And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.—Matthew 19:13-15. Verily I say unto you, whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms put his hands upon them and blessed them.—Mark 10:15-16.

M. E. CHURCH

"The Cross of Christ"

It is really fair to say that whatever a man's view of the ministry of the cross, it has implicitly or explicitly included this idea of the winning power of the great sufferer, Christ. Friendship is made over again when we learn that our friend is willing to suffer for us.

Love is transfigured when it bends under a burden of heavy pain. A God who keeps out of the strain and stress and woeful struggle of human life can never speak to us with compelling authenticity. A young man who entered the great war early was astonished at the close of a certain engagement to find his father in a Red Cross uniform moving among the wounded. As he clasped his father's hand and looked into his father's eyes, the father he met on the battlefield he had never fully known before The Christ of Calvary's cross is the Christ that meets us on the battlefield of life and is not absent from us in our direst need. He is burdened, He is weary, He is wounded, He is heartbroken, and He is killed at last. There is nothing of human pain that he evades. There is nothing of human suffering which he avoids.

And as with awed and sobered eyes you look upon His cross you know that in Jesus Christ you have seen and learned the heart of God. Sin is seen as it appeared to Jesus upon the cross and God is seen, as the cross made God's love pure, high and visible. By this men are won and mastered and transformed by the God who broke his way into the passionate evil of the world and died for men.

The poetry of God's forgiveness through the sacrifice of Christ, as it sings itself in the New Testament is not deceptive music. It tells of a new life transfused of the Christ like and life in the receptive heart. "I came," said Jesus, "that they might have life and that they may have it more abundantly. And if I, even I, be lifted up from the earth will draw all men unto me."

HOW AN EDITOR GETS TO SLEEP

Here is a remedy for sleeplessness that is declared by a newspaper editor to have never failed him: He starts thinking of all the words he can remember that begin with A. When he has exhausted the A's he starts on the B's and so on.

At first he generally reached the ninth or eleventh letter before being rewarded, but now he has not completed the A's before he is sleeping as soundly as a two-year-old.

Beauty or Abundance?

Which is more important to the farmer, a strain that produces beautiful individual specimens or one that gives an abundant yield of consistent good quality? Do you want blue ribbons—or bushels per acre? A new way of judging farm produce is described in

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

A. R. Rice tells of agricultural exhibits where corn, for example, is judged on its germinating and producing qualities—not on its good looks. It sounds like a sane idea.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is the business farmer's weekly—it is edited to help make the farm pay. And a strain of corn or of hogs or of beef or dairy cattle that produces the yield that brings in the profit is the strain that pays the business farmer to grow. This national-service weekly of progressive farm methods always reports to its 800,000 prosperous readers the developments and improvements that will show on the farm bank account. Every week it brings a helpful and inspiring message—on each Thursday of the next 52 weeks it will visit you—if you send me just $1.00 today.

Misses Alma Johnson and Vera Bissonnette of Tawas City spent the week end as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson.

Rev. E. L. Hughes, pastor of the M. E. church here, and Miss E. J. Monk of Leeds, England were married in Bay City March 7 by Rev. Smart.

John Carey left Tuesday for Butter- nut, where he will accept a position as manager of the cheese factory, a lucrative and responsible position.

Rev. John A. Hughes of Gwinn, U.P., Mich., is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Hughes. He gave an interesting lecture in the M. E. church Tuesday evening.

Frank Friedman is moving his family to Rose City this week. Mr. and Mrs. Friedman will be missed in our community. Our best wishes go with them to their new home.

Word from Brace Shattuck tells that he is located at Asheville, N. C. Brace has never fully recovered from a severe attack of "Flu" two years ago, and is making the change of climate in the hope of benefitting his health.

While assisting a crew of men buzzing wood last Friday, Howard Ostrander accidentally got his hand on the saw, cutting it so badly that he was taken to the Rose City hospital where the hand was amputated. He is a nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tottingham and has been making his home with them for the past few months.

At nine o'clock Sunday morning people were aroused by the ringing of the church bells and cries of "Fire!" The fire was found to be at Thomas Allen's, and in spite of heroic efforts by the townspeople with fire extinguishers and buckets the building burned to the ground. All the furniture on the lower floor was saved. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

On the evening of March 11, a reception was given Rev. E. L. Hughes and his bride, who recently arrived from Leeds, England. About one hundred friends partook of a bountiful chicken supper. At the close of an excellent program comforters and a gas lamp were presented to the honor guests. Rev. Aaron Mitchell and son and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Evans of East Tawas were present and ably assisted in the evening's entertainment.

Last Friday Chas. Clement, Albert Syze, Cecil and Walter West were called to Whittemore to settle some of the affairs of their deceased father. The roads were impassable and the boys made the trip on a railroad motor car. As they were returning about 6:30, they met a hand car with some boys going to Whittemore. The two cars collided with the result that Mr. Syze and Cecil West were seriously injured and the others badly shaken up. They were taken to Dr. Smith in Whittemore, where temporary aid was rendered, and a special train was ordered, which took them to the Jones Clinic in Bay City. An examination disclosed the fact that Mr. Syze had a broken shoulder and was severely cut and bruised, while Cecil West had a fractured skull. After an operation the latter recovered consciousness and both are now doing nicely and are on the road to rapid recovery. Walter West was badly bruised, but was able to leave for home on Wednesday, while Chas. Clement escaped with only a shaking up. The boys on the other car jumped and escaped without injury.

EMERY JUNCTION NOTES

Mrs. Aug. Freel was in Tupper Saturday.

S. A. Nowlin was in Hale on business this week.

Will Dubay was in Omer Saturday to see his father, who is not expected to live.

Rev. and Mrs. Chas. Roberts spent the week end at County Line conducting quarterly services.

Mrs. Demonte is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Rhodes, for a few days.

John McInerney is acting as relief agent at the depot during the absence of Mr. Field, who is having some dental work done.

A few Emery Junction lads narrowly escaped serious injury last Friday evening. They were on their way to Whittemore with the hand car and met a motor car coming at full speed from the opposite direction. The men on neither car realized the situation until it was too late. The boys from Emery Junction jumped from their car but could not remove it from the track before the other car struck it. The three occupants of the motor car, Albert Syze of Hale and the two West boys, were quite seriously injured and were taken to the hospital at Bay City as soon as a special train could be summoned from Tawas.

More Power, Less Weight = Economy!

HERE is the most economical tractor—the one that furnishes the greatest traction power with the lightest tractor weight and smallest fuel consumption. It pulls three 14" plows, turns an acre an hour, and is light enough to work on plowed ground without packing it down.

It uses little more fuel than many two plow tractors—does half more work in the same time and saves labor cost; does half more work every mile it travels and saves maintenance, repairs and depreciation.

Just as the three-horse team is the right animal unit for heavy work on farms of all sizes, the Huber Light Four is the right power unit.

It plows, harrows, pulls the binder, hay loader and manure spreader economically and will run the small thresher, silo filler, hay baler, etc. So simple that a woman or boy can operate.

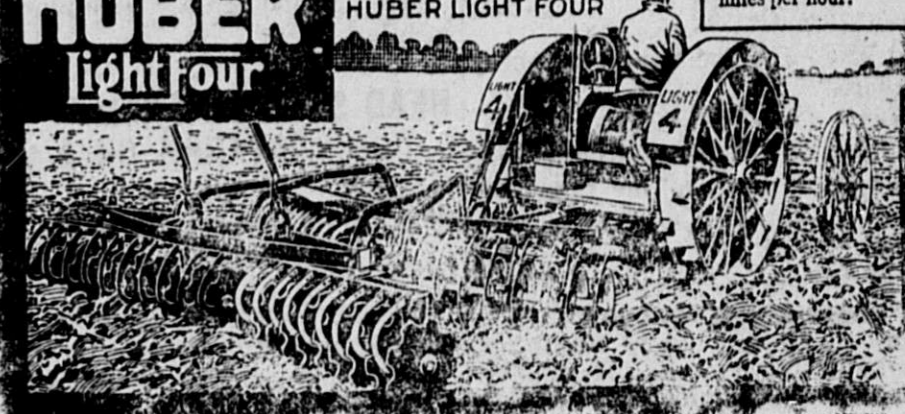

Makes better crops possible by getting work done at the right time. Often pays for itself in a single season.

Let us show you the Huber and tell you what it will do for you.
