THE SOLDIERS' BONUS
One of the questions upon which the electors of Michigan will be asked to vote on the 4th of April is that which proposes that the state of Michigan bond for a sufficient amount of money to pay to its soldiers who served in the world war $15 a month as a bonus to recompense them for the time they lost while in the country's service. Statisticians have made a computation showing that while the war was on the laboring man who remained at home and took advantage of the high wages caused by the war, made a saving of $400 and over each year, while the soldier who fought to whip Germany saved only $60 out of his wages. Every war has a similar after story. The civil war in the sixties brought the same question up for debate. There were many instances where men went to the war, either as volunteers or as drafted men, who remained two, three or four years, and came back penniless. The men with whom they were associated at home before the war, and who remained at home and profited by high price conditions, became rich. The man who went to save his country became a pauper. The man who did not go to save his country became wealthy. This is a gross inconsistency. Thousands of men remained home in the world war and took off their big profits, while the young fellows went into the army or navy at a minimum wage and came out poorer than they went in, counting the money that father and mother sent to them while in the service. These are the men asking the people of the state to pay them at least a portion of the amount they could have earned and saved if they had remained at home.—Bay City Times-Tribune.

Wood of Baldwin is again in charge of the AuSable district and located at the Seven Mile Hill ranger station near Footed dam. George Lake will again be in charge of the Beal nursery at East Tawas. Forest Ranger Azer, who has been located at the Silver Creek ranger station during the winter, will return to the Long Lake ranger station south of Mio and assume charge of that district for the summer season.
The U. S. Forest Service expects to begin planting operations as soon as weather conditions permit in the extension of the Buck Creek plantation. Death of Mrs. Love
Mrs. A. Love passed away early last Friday morning after many months of suffering. Mrs. Love's illness began with an attack of "flu" in the spring of 1920. Late in August she consulted Saginaw specialists, who pronounced the disease cancer. All that loving hearts could do was done to relieve her suffering. Death was rest for the tired, pain-racked body.
Mrs. Love was a loving, devoted mother and a kind friend and will be missed in the community life. She was a member of the M. E. church, and Rev. Dibley, who was pastor in charge at the time of her conversion, preached her funeral sermon, paying tribute to her many sterling qualities of character.
Arvelia A. Harris was born Feb. 15, 1865, in Iosco county, and was married to John A. Love Sept. 29, 1883. Two daughters were born to this union, Reta and Ruby, both of whom with the bereaved husband, survive her. She also leaves two brothers and one sister, besides other relatives. The funeral services were held in the M. E. church and interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

L. D. S. CHURCH
After Jesus was baptised of John he made the announcement: "I will build my church."—Matthew 16:18. His first move in church organization was the selection of twelve apostles and he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.—Matthew 10:1. Also telling them that: whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.—Matthew 18:18. As to complete church polity Paul tells us that: God has set some in the church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers; after that miracles, then gifts of healing, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.—Corinthians 12:28. And in Ephesians 4:11-14 he discloses what they were placed there for and how long these officers were to remain in the church. And he gave some apostles and some prophets; and some evangelists; and some pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ. till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ; that we henceforth be no more children tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive. Mother.
When Eve was brought unto Adam, he became filled with the Holy Spirit, and gave her the most sanctified, the most glorious of appellations. He called her Eve—that is to say, the Mother of All. He did not style her wife, but simply mother, mother of all living creatures. In this consists the glory and the most precious ornament of woman.—Martin Luther
