This summer term marks the largest representation Iosco county has ever had at the Ypsilanti state normal college. We are proud to find that our enrollment in this college reaches the thirty mark. The occasion was celebrated by a picnic at River Brink given by the Iosco county students.

Each town was represented and each contributed their share towards the general good time.—From one of the students.

The Herald editor is indebted to Frank Schneider of Sherman township for a liberal sample of the fine comb honey with which the Schneider brothers having been furnishing the market for some years. Mr. Schneider states that the early part of the season this year was very favorable for honey making, but the hot dry weather of the past few weeks has dried up the vegetation so that the bees can make but little honey at present.

L. D. S. CHURCH
This same gospel that Jesus preached and that Paul summed up in his statement of principles again has been discovered to our attention by angelic administration under God's direction. We affirm its perfection and divine potency to save all men who accept it. It is being preached again in all the world for a witness ere the end comes. It is the angel's message to this age. By what authority did Jesus preach this gospel? He said: My doctrine is not mine but his that sent me.—John 7:16. Who sent him? He answers: The spirit of the Lord is upon me because he has anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor.—Luke 4:18. The father which sent me he gave me a commandment what I should say.—John 12:49.

VARIED PROGRAM FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Public opinion with regard to any movement or event determines its success and it has been said that "Enthusiasm is the barometer of public opinion." This being true, the success of our Community Chautauqua is assured, because everyone who has seen the program folders, and nearly everyone has is enthusiastic about the talent and reports coming from towns where the program has already been heard are even more enthusiastic.

The program shows a well developed plan of entertainment. The Community Chautauqua system has endeavored to make each day radically different from any other day—both in music and lectures.

Many folks are including the Chautauqua in their vacation plans. Those who planned on going away intend to stay in town until the five days session is over. Those who stay at home will have in the Chautauqua an economical vacation time.

This big program is opened by the Theodore Knox Concert Party and "Bob" Seeds. The members of the Knox party play saxophones, violin and piano, and offer child readings and songs. A feature is Mr. Knox with his character studies—done with paint and oils in full view of the audience. This popular quartet sets the pace for all who are to follow.

Mr. Seeds' lecture is a big talk about you and your community. "Bob" Seeds is a veteran of the platform with an unparalleled record of successes and return engagements. You'll like him, and he already likes you.

The second day brings the Omar Wilson singers—a quintet of vocalists—four men and a soprano soloist. These people, one of the new Chautauqua features, will surprise you.

Electrical entertainer, Louis Williams, appears on the second day also. Here is the novelty of novelties—a complete and costly equipment of dynamos, motors, generators and chemical apparatus. Mr. Williams will show the "Wonders of Electricity"—demonstrating and talking as he entertains. This performance is a magical, scientific and humorous entertainment all rolled in one.

The third day is Denton C. Crowl, "the second Sam Jones," who gives "The Spirit of Service"—a lecture full of punch, pep and humor. Mr. Crowl is one of the great speakers and writers of the country. His popularity is nation-wide. If you want to laugh and think of things worth while, hear Mr. Crowl.

The music on the third day is furnished by Cammarata's Mediterranean musicians—a trio from southern Europe. The novelty of this part of the program lies in the music of the "Wizard of Accordions," Antonio Cammarata. Special costumes will lend an Italian atmosphere to the musical efforts of these entertainers.

The fourth day heralds the great production "Poly of the Circus." Special scenery, professional New York actors and proper costuming will make this production an event of importance. This play, the most beautiful story ever written by an American author, has been presented all over the world. It is a comedy-drama of circus and country life—particularly adapted to Chautauqua work.

An elaborate up-to-date entertainment which is certain to please young and old equally well.

Louise L. McIntyre, exponent of health and clean living, will also talk to us on the fourth day. Her lecture "Keeping in Trim" is a most beneficial and interesting health talk. Press, pulpit and medical profession acclaim her as a great teacher on health subjects.

The Philippine Quartet, a company of natives from our island possessions, in a catchy, snappy program of music and entertainment, and Dr. C. W. Wassam, noted educator of the faculty of the Iowa State University, will close this splendid five days' program. The whole five days' program is truly one of variety.

Alabaster 5, East Tawas 4.
Hale 7, Omer 2.

Our First Shutout

"Babe" Zink pitched a four hit game against Hemlock Sunday and with our boys playing a sterling brand of baseball behind him, shut out our Hemlock neighbors easily. Also the boys earned five good runs and added nine more than perfect baseball, such as the home hopes showed. would not have been scored.

It was sure good to see the boys eating up everything coming their way. The only error was a fumble by Mart Musolf on the first man up and it really wasn't his ball either. After that the boys played perfect baseball and had Art Zink been proficient on holding men close to the bases, (and he will soon learn that) not a Hemlock man would have reached second base. Five bases were stolen, three getting to second and two of these to third. But nary a man touched the fourth station.

Merle Nelem has certainly found his niche behind the plate, and he is there with the wallops, too, getting two singles and a triple in five times up. "Babe" Zink poled out three long hits, two of which counted for singles with him and the other took him to third base, which rap everyone will agree must have been a peach. When Zink gets trained down he sure will be a world beater.

All of the boys played good shutout baseball. The feature was a foul catch by Nelem after a hard run.

Next Sunday Tawas City goes down to Omer again and we expect to have Art Siefel off the flinging. Nelem will be catching him. With the rejuvenated team that we now have, it is possible that we will duplicate our feat of four weeks ago and bring home the bacon. A big bunch of rooters can help a lot. We had a pretty fair bunch the last time but we should have more and we believe our prospects now warrant a big bunch of backers.

The race is getting close now and even Tawas City has a chance. Next Sunday's game will tell the story. There are eight more games to play and we believe that a percentage of .667 has a good chance of winning the pennant. Do you get us?

ILLEGIBLE WRITERS.

About the only thing a business man writes with his own hand is his name and that, as often as not, is illegible. His letters are typewritten with a rule line at the end where he carves his name in cabalistic strokes. It may be a relic of the old idea that in order to forestall forgery there should be something peculiar, even cryptic, about a formal signature, but however it be, the fact remains that many men boast a signature that is as good, or as bad, as anything Horace Greeley ever did, says Toledo Blade. The trick or affectation of illegibility is an irritating habit and it is surprising that some efficiency expert hasn't figured out before this how many working hours are lost every day because of the puzzled efforts of receivers of letters to decide whether the communication is from Rudyard Kipling, author, or John Smith, junk dealer.

The demand of the Roman freeman was for "bread and the circus." That was more than twenty centuries ago, and today the descendants of Rome, in the Iberian peninsula, are still demanding "bread and the circus." Of course, the bull ring is a very insignificant affair compared to the Colosseum or the great amphitheater at Verona, and they only massacre bulls there, not human beings. Still, it apparently must be classed with bread as a necessity, says Christian Science Monitor. Thus the government, though increasing the taxes on luxuries, omits the bull ring like the baker's shop. The matador remains as ever the most popular figure in the country. The baker planks down his pesetas to see the matador do his killing, which is more than the matador would think of doing to see the baker bake.

The gospel of forestry and reforestation is not a matter of times and seasons; it is for all times and all seasons. But in the summer it ought to be easier to arouse interest in it. Hence the call should be louder and more insistent than ever right now, says New York Financial Chronicle. Let us all resolve here and now to strive more vigorously than ever to save the forests we love so well, the forests that have sheltered us from the heat in our vacations and given us some of the greatest pleasures of our lives. A program with this end in view has been outlined in the form of demands for action by national and state legislators.

Cleveland is proposing to try, in its fight against banditry, the toxic bombs used in the army to prevent the escape of prisoners of war. Think how it would simplify the work of our morals squad to be able to sneak up on a house, throw a toxic bomb through the window, put the crap shooters to sleep and then wait for the patrol wagon to cart away the guilty and all the evidence!

MORTGAGE SALE

Default has been made in the payment of the moneys secured by mortgage dated September 17, 1919, executed by Jesse B. Warner and Harriet Warner, his wife, of Tawas City, Michigan, to Gustave T. Wojahn and Louise Wojahn of Tawas City, Michigan; said mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Iosco County in Liber 22 of mortgages on page 243, on the 17th day of September, 1919. The amount claimed to be due on said mortgage at the date of this notice is the sum of one thousand one hundred dollars, principal, and one hundred eighteen dollars and ninety-eight cents, interest, and an attorney fee of thirty-five dollars, making the whole amount claimed to be due and unpaid the sum of one thousand, two hundred fifty-three dollars and ninety-eight cents. No suit or proceedings have been instituted at law to recover the debt now remaining secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, wherefore the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative. Notice is hereby given that by virtue of said power of sale and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by sale of the premises therein described at public auction to the highest bidder, at the front door of the court house in the city of Tawas City, County of Iosco, State of Michigan (that being the place where the Circuit Court for the County of Iosco is held) on the fifth day of October, 1921, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

The premises to be sold are described in said mortgage as follows, to wit: The E 1/2 of the SE 1/4 of Section 18, Town 22 North, Range 7 East, all in the Township of Tawas, County of Iosco, of the State of Michigan. Gustave T. Wojahn and Louise Wojahn, Mortgagees. Dated July 6, 1921. John A. Stewart, Attorney for Mortgagees. Business address, Tawas City, Mich.

Patented June 30, 1920.
To stop street cars at a road crossings or drawbridges, should a motor-ist ignore a signal, an inventor has designed a spring bumper to be raised level with their front sills.

The curved edges of the bumper are patented by a North Carolina inventor, the form being such as to give the tone of the instrument.

Evening dresses are costing more. At least one advertiser announces that they will be one-third off, whereas our impression is, remarks Houston Post, they have been not over one-third on here; ofore.

It is announced that the surtax on Paris gowns intended for export has been cut off. With that gone it ought to be possible to send them out letter postage.

The reports of "tight money" are so prevalent everywhere that we are beginning to understand how the people have dissipated their dollars.

The silk shirt market is all the slower because people are beginning to be ashamed to wear 'em.

When the home brewers brew they seem mostly to brew trouble.

"Jephthah Vow."
This is a vow which is to be kept regardless of consequences, and is commonly supposed to be derived from the Bible story of Jephthah, the leader of a band of brigands. Before going to battle against the Ammonites he vowed, if successful, he would offer as a sacrifice whatever was the first thing to cross the threshold of his own door when he returned triumphant. His daughter was the first one to advance to meet him. It is recorded that he sacrificed her according to his vow.

The disclosure that a billion more pounds of sugar, or three times that shipped to Europe in 1918, left our shores last year may explain why it was so scarce at home. Also European prices were much higher.

This country spends $600,000,000 a year on music, and when a person talks about selling things for a song, nowadays, he doesn't exactly mean giving it away.

One sees by the papers that Constantinople is going to have a sewer system, so it must be that the Turks are going to move out, after all.

It begins to look as though Paderewski might beat D'Annunzio to the American pocketbook.

This ghost was a 1921 model

LAST MONTH, on a bet, WITH THE boys up home, I SPENT a night, ALONE IN the old, HAUNTED HOUSE, AND WHEN I heard, MOANS AND groans, I SAID "The wind," AND TRIED to sleep, I HEARD rappings, AND SAID "Rats," AND ROLLED over, THEN I heard steps, AND IN the light, OF A dying moon, A WHITE spook rose, I WASN'T scared—much, BUT DIDN'T feel like, STARTING ANYTHING, BUT THEN I caught, JUST A faint whiff,

OF A familiar, AND DELICIOUS smell, WHICH TIPPED me off, SO I gave the ghost, THE HORSE laugh, AND SAID "HEL, YOU FAT guys, MAKE BUM ghosts, BUT BEFORE you fade, LEAVE WITH me one, OF YOUR cigarettes, THEY SATISFY."

THAT spicy, delicious aroma of fine tobaccos, both Turkish and Domestic, makes you almost hungry for the "satisfy-smoke." And there isn't a ghost of a chance you'll ever find its equal anywhere—for the Chesterfield blend is an exclusive blend. It can't be copied.

Have you seen the new AIR-TIGHT tins of 50?
