ANNUAL MEETING OF EAST TAWAS BOARD OF COMMERCE

The annual meeting of the East Tawas Board of Commerce was held in the new Community building on December 2, 1921. President Pinkerton called the meeting to order and Secretary-Treasurer Piper read the minutes of the meeting of August 1.

President Pinkerton made a short address summarizing the situation here and said that East Tawas was in better shape than other towns in this locality. The shops have been shut down but are opening up and labor conditions here are better than might be expected. He said the housing situation has only been temporarily met.

More D. & M. employes will probably want to bring their families here in the spring.

The report of the secretary-treasurer was read and adopted and it was requested that he send out notices for dues for the coming year at $1.00 each. The dues from 57 men were taken in that evening and it is aimed to have the membership this year reach 150.

President Pinkerton spoke of the roads in this locality and said much should be done on them. The road from East Tawas along the shore to AuSable should be built and this should be talked up strongly. Oscoda and AuSable are now interested in it and the state may furnish aid. Roads in and to the National Forest should be improved. The Townsend bill provides for aid in this connection and a motion was passed requesting the secretary to take up this matter with Mr. Chas. E. Townsend and Mr. F. F. Rogers.

John McCray, secretary of the state park board, spoke of the state park here and of our Community house finances. He told of the deficit of $4,000 which had been incurred by the board to get the building into shape so that it could be used immediately. To provide for the payment of this he suggested that the deficit of $4,000 be spread on the city tax roll for a period of two years. A discussion followed and then, since it seemed to be favorably received, Mr. McCray put the motion that the city council be requested to call a special election to fund the debt of $4,000 plus $1,000 for further immediate expenses that should be incurred for seating in the hall and for plumbing; this amount to be spread on the tax roll for two years. The motion was carried unanimously.

Fred C. Holbeck of Long Lake told us of his ranch and the dairy operations he is carrying on there. He was very interesting and enthusiastic about the possibilities of Iosco county and this city.

Rev. C. E. Edinger sang, accompanied on the piano by Miss Mary Gardner. They were heartily applauded.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Arthur Evans.

Vice-Pres.—Chas. A. Pinkerton.

Sec.—Treas.—R. G. Shreck.

George Wakeman spoke on the proposed Kiwanis club started here and said it was to support in every way and not hinder the Board of Commerce. It is planned to have it work in connection with the Board of Commerce.

THE DOOR OF OPPORTUNITY IS WIDE OPEN

Opportunity to pass some of the long winter hours away has been obtained by the consent of Mr. Berube to allow ten to twenty minutes of any picture show night to any person or persons giving some entertaining feature of general interest. It is ridiculous to say that no talent exists in Tawas City. How does anyone know that it does not, when a real opportunity to show it has never been offered before? Line up everybody to bring out this talent. It is open to the young to educate themselves in public speaking, singing, etc., and we old ones to rub off the dust and show some of the wonders we used to do.

The performer will have free entrance to the picture show and when this gets under good headway an amateur night will be given and good premiums allowed. The writer will furnish a sermon he has been tinkering along with for about 18 years, the text being Job 19th chapter and 20th verse, "My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth."

More about this opportunity next week, but get busy for the writer will be after you, as this was born to be a success.

GanG CLASS PARTY

Last Thursday evening the GanG class of the Presbyterian Sunday school gave a party at the home of Arvid Carlson in honor of one of their old members, Ernest Grinke, who was lately discharged from the Canadian service, where he had been at various hospitals in Canada and England since the close of the war, as a result of the flu taken in the trenches in France. The boys had invited friends, and about fifty were present, about thirty of them being members.

The house was decorated in crepe paper streamers in the GanG class colors, red and blue, with an archway of red and blue fringed curtains. The program opened with a GanG class song, "Always true to the GanG class."

Harry Haight then gave the address of welcome in which he gave a short history of the class, organized in 1913 with 12 members, now having 30 active and 12 associate members. He mentioned that the class had given 12 boys to the service and that one of their stars had turned to gold, Walter Sylvester, president of the class for years, having made the supreme sacrifice. He finished by stating that the class had a soft spot in their hearts for Canada, Walter having been in the Canadian forces, besides five other members. "The Maple Leaf Forever" was then sung for the Canadian boys.

Miss Mildred Hewson gave a violin solo, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Price. A vocal duet was given by Misses Neva and Evelyn Butler which was applauded and responded to by an encore. Fred Johnson and Clifford Swales talked on their trip to the state boys' conference at Saginaw. The GanG class song, "The Red and Blue," was then sung by the members, bringing out their motto and slogans. After the announcement, the program ended with all singing the "Star Spangled Banner."

The remainder of the evening was spent with the new game "Progressive Bug," after which a delicious lunch was served. All report a splendid time.

The Social Message of Jesus

By S. J. DUNCAN-CLARK
(Chicago Evening Post.)

NEVER did the world need more than now to hear the authoritative voice of Jesus.

If we are to bring order out of chaos, peace out of conflict, brotherhood out of clash of class and group, we must return in humble spirit to the Bethlehem manger, to the Nazareth shop, to the market place, the seashore or the mountainside, where the message of Jesus was spoken to the hearts of men.

Jesus believed in man. It is well to emphasize this fact in an age of cynicism. There was no room for despair in His philosophy. He came into a world where force and fraud and oppression prevailed, and to the hour of His triumphant death He never doubted that love and justice and freedom were possible in human relations.

Jesus believed in man as a potential Son of God. His ideal for society contemplated the emancipation of man from the control of material things. Mammon should not rule; there should be no occasion for anxious thought concerning any need of the body; the spiritual nature of man should be free to realize its highest destiny.

In the program that He worked out as He toiled at the bench He planned that service should be the motive and co-operation the method in human industry. We have substituted self-advantage for service, and mutual exploitation for co-operation. While these rule in motive and method we shall never realize the happiness He desired for us—the happiness we seek.

Jesus set small store by charity. The philanthropy of almsgiving was to Him a mere cloak for the imperfections and inequities of human relations. He put all the emphasis of His teaching and example upon justice and love. In a world where these prevailed charity would be unnecessary.

We have traveled so far from the ideals of Jesus it is not easy to restore them. But there is no other way to find a permanent solution for the troubles that disturb us. His road is the only road. It involves sacrifice. We cannot avoid the cross. But beyond Calvary lies the realization of our hopes.

It is not enough that the spirit of Jesus should be worshipped in our temples or revered in our homes. It is not enough that His sympathy and help should be expressed in our hospitals, our orphanages, our institutions for the poor and the afflicted. To be satisfied with this is to evade the real challenge of His message and to lose the real meaning of His promise.

The spirit of Jesus must be brought into factory and mine and bank and railroad system; into store and office.

It must reveal to us that man is more than the machine with which he works; that material wealth was meant to be the servant, not the master, of the human soul; that the making of a life is the supreme thing, for which the making of a livelihood is merely incidental.

Until we get this vision, we will approach the solution of our problems without true understanding.

It is time that men who believe in Jesus should make their faith count—not merely in religious observance, but in human relations; in civic duty; in business; in industrial management; in the tasks of office and workshop.

The hope of the world rests upon the leadership of Jesus.

CHRISTMAS 300 YEARS AGO

First Yuletide Eve of the Pilgrims Was One Saturated With Grave Fear of Attack.

SITTING about their campfires on Christmas eve, 300 years ago, the Pilgrims on shore heard a cry in the woods and jumped to their feet, expecting a sudden onrush of whooping Indians. The attack failed to materialize. How the Pilgrims spent Christmas is told in the journal they have left, which says: "No man rested that day."

The settlers were nervous, and again at night they left well-armed men on guard.

These poor fellows on shore did not have any Christmas beer to drink. About this time, it seems, the beer supply was running low, and Captain Jones of the Mayflower was guarding his stock. Apparently he put everybody on a water basis. But Christmas night he relented. Beer was served to those of the Pilgrims who were on the ship.

THE BIG COMMUNITY HOLIDAY

Christmas Should Not Be Confined to Family Celebrations; Make It General Joy Fest.

CHISTMAS should not be confined to our own family. Christmas is of all days Community Holiday and the entire community should be taken in for celebrating the occasion. Every community should have in the local church, or schoolhouse Christmas exercises of some sort or other. The giving of recitations is one of the very best trainings for children and cannot be started too soon. As soon as they are able to lip they should be given a part in Christmas entertainments. It is a means of much pleasure to them and something they will remember as long as they live.

Christmas, in the country of all places, should be a community holiday. It's too big a thing to be kept all within your family.

He Couldn't Wait Forever.

A young fellow who was the crack runner of his town—somewhere in the South—was unfortunate enough to have a very dilatory laundress. One evening when he was out for a practice run in his rather airy costume, he chanced to dash past the dusky lady who at the time was a couple of weeks in arrears with his washing. He had scarcely reached home again, when the bell rang furiously and an excited voice was watted in from the porch:

"For de Lawd's sake, won't you all tell Marse Bob please not to go out no morn (til) I kin git his clo'es round to him?"

Boston's policemen have been furnished with a suite of rooms furnished in pearl gray and gold, soft lounges and easy chairs—oh, yes, and a mirror.

Kerensky evidently believes that Paris is a safe place in which to start a movement to organize the anti-Red factions for a counter revolution in Russia, and it probably is.

Price cuts are pleasing enough as far as they go, but the tenant would be more pleased if he could rent a cheaper place in which to keep the cheaper things he could buy if he had such a place.

The new postal rates to Spain are not yet in force, so you can save at least 3 cents by delaying your response if you have been queried about any castle or "estates" you are supposed to have inherited over there.

Cakes by Parcel Post.

Cakes can be sent long distances by parcel post without so much as cracking the icing, if they are packed in this way: Place the cake on a large sheet of heavy waxed paper and apply the frosting, allowing a generous portion of the frosting to extend on the paper. Plastering the cake to the paper helps to keep it in position. Fold the rest of the paper neatly around the cake and slip under it a piece of cardboard or thin board the exact size of the cake. Put both cake and board into a strong cardboard box. A corrugated box is preferable, as it lessens the jar upon its contents. Fill the box with sawdust or bran, which should be allowed to settle to the bottom of all the crevices. Finally, wrap the box in heavy paper and tie it with a strong cord.

Discrimination.

"Mammy," said Pickaninny Jim, "I wants you to do me a favor."
"Whut kind of a favor?"
"I wants you to shet youself out o' sight same as me on Christmas eve."
"Whuffoh?"
"Well, I ain' gineter say dat Santy draws no color line. But las' Christmas I looked de neighborhood over an' I kain't he'p s'picionin' dat mebbe I'd stan' a better chance foh presents if we didn' give him no chance to notice dat dis ain' a white folks' residence."

SHE WAS WILLING
Yuletide fast is coming, dear,
If you my wife will be,
I'll draw the cash and start right in
To be your Christmas tree.

$550 for a Christmas Tree.

An electrical firm in London has been busy for some months on a remarkable Christmas tree, which had to be sent overseas in time for Christmas day. An immense "fir" tree, all in metal, is festooned with bunches of "fruit." Even the grapes have a tiny bulb inside them. By turning on a switch the tree becomes a blaze of light. The cost of this novel tree is $550, but it will last for many years.—Tit Bits.

Death of Mrs. Ephriam Webb
Mrs. Ephriam Webb died at her home in Saginaw late Thursday evening, Dec. 1, after an illness of nine months with cancer. She underwent an operation about six months ago and has been ill ever since.

To this union ten children were born, all but one of whom survive her. Walter preceded her to the Great Beyond just eleven months ago.

Those left to mourn are the bereaved husband, three sons and six daughters, Edward Webb of Aron Lake, Ohio, Mrs. Joseph Freel of Tawas City, Robert Webb of Alabaster, Mrs. Judson Freel of Tawas City, Mrs. Glenn Hughes of Cheshire, Ohio, Mrs. Willard Shotwell of Detroit, Earl, Alma and Ida Webb, all of Saginaw, who were all present at the funeral.
