Mrs. Carl Gnath and family.

TO HOLD NEXT COUNCIL MEETING IN NEW CITY HALL

Building Completed Except for Minor Outside Work to be Finished in Spring

Notice has been given that the common council will meet at the new city hall after March 2. The fire engines and apparatus were moved into the engine room this week. Nelem & Halterman, the contractors, have a small amount of work to do before the building is completed. As this is mostly outside work, it has been held up until warmer weather.

With the completion of the building the people of this city will have a city hall to which they can point with pride. It is brick and tile construction, 44 feet wide and 60 feet long and contains an engine room, council chamber, clerk's office, voting room and vestibule. The council room is finished in dark oak and the remaining rooms in southern pine. It is equipped with heating plant, lavatories and toilets. The clerk's office contains a large fireproof vault. The building is altogether a well planned and constructed city hall.

The ground was broken for the new city building on September 25 and the work was pushed forward rapidly until enclosed. The plans were drawn by Robert E. Bickel of Bay City. It is well constructed and equipped and has a fine appearance. Messrs. Nelem and Halterman have done an exceptional good piece of work. The heating plant, plumbing and wiring were installed by Fred T. Leudtke. This equipment is the best that could be procured.

PARENT-TEACHERS VOTE "NO" ON CHILD-LABOR AMENDMENT

A goodly number of members of the Parent Teachers Association gathered in the high school room last Monday evening for their February meeting which was adjourned from the previous Monday.

The music committee was asked to prepare a list of victrola records that they could recommend for purchase by the members of the Parent Teachers Association.

The child labor amendment received a negative vote from the members present.

Rev. C. E. Edinger gave an interesting talk on the full education of the child which in his opinion included the so called arts, such as music. His talk was enthusiastically received.

Rev. Edinger was then prevailed upon to sing the Founder's Day song in memory of fathers, mothers and teachers and led the community sing that closed the meeting.

On Monday, March 9, the annual meeting of the association will be held in the high school room and every member is urged to be present. Election of officers will be held and L. H. Braddock, Mrs. Geo. Pringle and Mrs. J. F. Mark, appointed as nominating committee last Monday evening, will give their report.

PARK ASSOCIATION BENEFIT SHOW FEB. 23 AND 24

The park association have secured Hoot Gibson in "Hit and Run" for their benefit show which will be given Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 23 and 24. This is a high class western comedy drama starring a well known popular artist. It is full of pep and laughs and is one of the most entertaining pictures on the screen. Hillard Karr and Harry McCoy in "Traffic Jams" will also be shown. The two pictures will give a full evening of laughs.

The committee handling this show has given a great deal of work to make it a success and undoubtedly there will be a packed house each night. The money raised at this show and the picture shown by the association a few weeks ago will be used in preparing the tourist park on the beach. The park will be of exceptional benefit to the city during the summer and the association should have the support of all the people here.

"The Acquittal" starring Claire Windsor and Norman Kerry, a universal super jewel, Auditorium, Sunday, February 22.

CARL AUGUST GNATH

Carl August Gnath, age 66 years, highly respected resident of Baldwin township, died last Thursday at his home after an illness of several months.

Carl August Gnath was born May 1, 1858 in Damsdorf Pommerania, Germany and was baptized and confirmed at the place of his birth. In the year 1883 he entered the state of holy matrimony with Bertha nee Pohuke. This union was blessed with seven children of which three have preceded their father in death. In the year 1889 he emigrated to America and made his home in East Tawas and several years later he took up a farm in Baldwin township.

In 1898 his beloved wife was laid to rest. During the following year he was married to Miss Louise Stuh of Standish. This union was blessed with two children, Meta and Paul.

Mr. Gnath was, during his life in Tawas, a devoted member of Zion Lutheran church and for many years a valued member of the church board. He was interested in everything that pertained to the welfare of the community in which he lived.

For eleven years he held the office of road commissioner in Baldwin township and for the last four years was a member of the school board of School District No. 3.

For the last year or so he was failing in health and some weeks before Christmas he was afflicted with a malignant tumor which sapped the rest of his strength.

He is mourned by his beloved wife and six children, Lina Vierheller of St. Louis, Mo., Otto of Detroit, Minnie Haahn of Millington, Fred, Meta and Paul of Tawas, five grandchildren and many friends.

The funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon from Zion Lutheran church, Rev. F. A. Sievert, officiating. The remains were laid to rest in the Zion Lutheran cemetery. I fall to sleep in Jesus wounds, There pardon for my sins abound, Christ Jesus' blood and righteousness, My beauty are, my glorious dress, With these arrayed, for God I'll stand, When I shall reach the promised land.

100 MEN WANTED

One hundred men wanted to attend a meeting for men only. No age limit, just "lads and dads."

Where? In the M. E. church at Hale. When? Sunday, Feb. 22. Time, 2:30.

Evangelist R. J. Traynor will deliver his lecture on the subject "Escape for thy Life."

The knights of the Klu Klux Klan are invited to attend.

In this lecture Mr. Traynor strikes hard at some of the cardinal sins of the day. He wants the public to know that this is no prayer meeting but a straight from the shoulder blow. He tries to make men see and beware of the eminent dangers which lie ahead and which we must face. This explains the invitation to the above order.

Don't forget the time and place, Hale, Methodist church, Sunday, Feb. 22 at 2:30. Come.

FATHERS AND SONS MEET AT BANQUET TABLES

Dr. H. H. Mallison of Bay City Gave an Excellent Address to Audience

One hundred and fifteen fathers and sons sat down to a bountiful banquet in the Masonic temple on Thursday of last week and under the direction of Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. King and Mrs. Oeborne, the committees were served with a meal that filled everyone to capacity.

After the banquet the entire assembly joined in songs and yells that could be heard many blocks away.

Mark Beardslee, representing the sons, welcomed the fathers in well chosen words and assured them that the boys were more than willing to make a real pal of dad.

L. H. Braddock, representing the fathers, in his talk, "O Little Gab," spoke of the marvellous capacity of a boy and gave a few ways he thought could be used to help fill that capacity.

J. H. Nisbet, as toastmaster, after a few words to the fathers and sons urging them to work hand in hand more than they had been, introduced Dr. H. H. Mallison of Bay City, who gave the address of the evening. His thought was that in this wonderful world that we live in the secret of happiness is work; that working together makes us happier and that with a full development of the spiritual side of our natures we reach the apex of happiness. His address was interspersed with witty take-offs on people present and was enjoyed by everyone present.

Rev. Davis gave the invocation and Rev. Smith the benediction. If every year's Father and Son banquet is as good as this year, it will surely be productive of much good.

The Twentieth Century Club cleared about fifty dollars that will be turned over to the park committee for use in developing he city park.

FAIR DATES SET, SEPTEMBER 15, 16, 17 AND 18

The officers of the Isoco County Agricultural society decided Wednesday evening to hold the fair this year on September 15, 16, 17 and 18. There will be a day and night program. They are now making arrangements for some exceptionally big attractions. Something of particular interest to school pupils will be announced at a later date. The 1925 premium list is now being prepared for the printers.

NOTICE

The common council of the city of Tawas City will meet in the new city hall on and after Monday, March 2, 1925. W. C. Davidson, Clerk.

U. S. AIR SERVICE OFFICERS GUESTS AT ANNUAL MEET

9th Annual Banquet of East Tawas Board of Commerce Proves Great Success

The annual meeting and banquet of the East Tawas Board of Commerce held last Monday evening proved to be the most successful meeting of the kind held in this section. Over 250 people of East Tawas, Oscoda, Alabaster and Tawas City were in attendance and the dining room and lobby of the Hotel Holland were filled to capacity. The thing that elated the sponsors of this meeting mostly was the exceptionally fine spirit which prevailed. It is thought that this meeting will bring the different communities represented into a closer contact and help to increase the spirit of co-operation.

Among the guests of the evening were the officers of the pursuit squadron from Selfridge field now at Van Etan lake for winter maneuvers. H. N. Butler presided over the meeting and after presenting his annual report Fred C. Holbeck took charge of the meeting as toastmaster.

Major Lamphier, in charge of the pursuit squadron, told of the aims and needs of the air service and enlightened the audience to real conditions in that service. He said that the pursuit squadron now at Van Etan lake was the only one in the entire air service. He urged them to support General Mitchell in his efforts for its improvement.

W. A. Mara of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce spoke on conditions at Selfridge field. He said that the officers and their families were compelled to live in barracks that are unfit for human habitation. T. F. Marston, of Bay City, spoke on "Tourists, Fish and a Live Board of Commerce." Harry Hogan, secretary of the Detroit Retail Merchants' bureau, had as his subject, "Backing Home Business" and the principal speaker was S. T. Murray, field agent for the Michigan Tourist association who discussed the summer resorts of Northeastern Michigan and the great possibilities which they presented for bringing business to the state. Music for the evening was furnished by the East Tawas High School Glee club while Rev. C. E. Edinger and Miss Mae Mitchell sang solos. Before the close a series of movie pictures were shown by A. J. Berube.

Mrs. Darby was a member of the M. E. church of this city. Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon and she was buried beside her husband in the Greenwood cemetery, Rev. J. Strike officiated.

Mrs. Darby had been in poor health for the past four months and in the forepart of February she was taken to Mercy hospital, Bay City, for treatment. The disease was to far advanced to yield to treatment and she gradually became worse and on February 10 was brought home to East Tawas until death relieved her of her suffering February 12 at six o'clock.

Mrs. Darby was a member of the M. E. church of this city. Funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon and she was buried beside her husband in the Greenwood cemetery, Rev. J. Strike officiated.

Origin of Familiar Words

Some of our words owe their present form to the mistakes of our forefathers. A beffy, which originally had nothing to do with a bell, is correctly a beffy, i. e., a watch tower. A certain kind of apple used to be known as a costard, and a dealer in this fruit as a costardmonger. Similarly, a grocer was originally an engrosser, or a dealer in gross, while a butcher was a bocher or killer of goats.—London Mail.

Only a Dream

There is no El Dorado. This land of gold-a promise was mythical—like so many other golden promises in this life. The proof that it does not exist lies in the simple fact that, if it did exist, we should all go there.

Don't forget the Marion Male Quartet at the Auditorium tonight (Friday).

SLAT'S DIARY

Friday—Got a interesting letter from my cuzzen way out in the east. His grampa froze his foot and run a thorn in his hand and they have got a big bunch of new little pigs to. All we hear these days at skool is Thift and save your money, and don't spend it foolish.

It looks like to me if the govrnment wants to save money they could save a lot by cutting out the skool & ect. But when ever a fellow mentions that subject why they look at me like as if I aint got all my Buttons.

Saturday—Saturday wood be a grand ole day if it oney wassent for a few things. Its fine to be let out of skool. But I sure will be tickled when I get to be a man like pa is and I wont half to take no bath evry Saturday nite like I do now. When the wether is warm.

Sunday—Even after all the thift tawk we ben handed when I practise it why pa and ma go and jump all over me. Now today pa gives me a dime for Sunday skool, and when I come home and they found out I had saved a nickle of it and invested it in lickorish, they sent me to bed. Bewtiful day to.

Monday—Had a test today in arithmetick. After I seen the teacher looking over my paper I ast her what she thot about it and she sed. Well I will say this. You are consistant in your paper. I sed what do you mean and she sed. Well the ansers is all rong evry 1 of them.

Tuesday—Ant Emmy may lern sum time but she is awfull slow at it. Today pa happened to mention about a yung fellow witch has got saint Vituses dance and she wanted to no of pa where at he lernit and if it was so very hard to do.

Wensday—Pa was telling ma that Joe Dugan had announced that he was going to Yurrope agen. Ma sed. Why I diddent no he had ever been to Yurrope and pa sed Well he haint but he has told that he was a going lots of times and he done it agen today.

Thirsday—Ma was reading about a man witch was a rested for stealing and he layed it on his wife. Ma sed. Well I call a man witch hides behind a womans skurt a mitey little man dont you. And pa sed. Ill say I do. Mitey small. Then ma seen the point and flew up.

LONGEVITY EXPLAINED

Wifey—Would you believe it? There's a man in Waybackton who has lived a hundred and ten years.

Hubby—Not surprisng—there's not an auto in the place.

FURNISH THE CONTRAST

Mrs. Nurich—We should sympathize with the common people—they're so necessary.

Mrs. Aristah Kratt—Necessary to what?

Mrs. Nurich—How could one know one was so well off without them, my dear?

RIGHT UP-TO-DATE

Visitor—I suppose you have a clean-up week in this place?

Native—Sure thing! Footpads and bandits are putting me through now.

THEY NEVER MISCARRY

Ed—It's astonishing how many different kinds of mail reach the del-letter office.

Ned (sadly)—Yes—all except the bills.

A TICKLISH JOB

"Mending a broken watch must be delicate work."

"No doubt a tick-lish job."

TO MAKE HIM SHARP

His Wife—It ain't good manners to scratch your back on the door post that way.

Mr. Talltimber—I ain't scratchin' my back. I'm jest streppin' my shoulder blades.

FOLLOWED BY WOLF

Tourist—The stork would seem to be the only animal that ever visits this community.

Native—Wrong, stranger. It's frequently followed by the wolf when it makes its calls.

Sets Colors Permanently

To set the color in any cotton material, add a handful of salt and two tablespoonfuls of turpentine to three-quarters of a pail of hot water. Put goods in and allow to remain until water is cold. This should set the colors permanently so that neither sun nor washing will fade them afterward. —Washington Star.

PA ON SAVING

By DOUGLAS MALLOCH

IT DOESN'T matter what you make. What great amount of money. If you're not saving for the sake of days that aren't sunny. Some people brag about the dough they're making ev'ry minute. Unless you save a little, though. My boy, there's nothing in it.

A dollar man who saves a dime, A little of the dollar. Is really richer all the time. However they may holler, Than those who make a five or ten. When things are rather humming. And then just pass it on again, No better for its coming.

Not what you make but what remains. How much of it you're saving. Will show how much you have of brains. How well you are behaving. So when a dollar bill has gone Tomorrow through your fingers, Just see that when it passes on A little of it lingers.

MOTHER LOVE WINS OUT IN DESPERATE BATTLE WITH SNOW

Blizzard Traps Family in Bleak Mountain Pass—Woman Goes for Aid.

Pagosa Springs, Colo.—Trapped for three days in a swirling blizzard near the crest of Wolf Creek pass, one of the most dangerous in Colorado, almost frozen, nearly exhausted by hunger and exposure, and the victim of thievery, the family of N. R. Stites of Oklahoma, including Mr. Stites, his wife and several children, were rescued and brought here only through the heroism of the wife and mother.
Despite the fact that Mrs. Stites battled her way for ten miles through almost impassable drifts and in the face of a howling blizzard, the aid she obtained from the ranch-house of Oscar McCoy almost came too late, for her four-year-old daughter was suffering from severely frozen hands and feet when brought here.
While Mrs. Stites was struggling through the huge drifts for aid and her husband was caring for the children and vainly trying to comfort them and keep the spark of life burning in their chilled bodies, thieves rifled the Stites' machine and stole their bedding, ax, shovel and other tools.
Stalled by Engine Trouble.
There was a hint of snow in the air when the Stites' machine, struggling up the sharp ascent of the pass, developed engine trouble and stalled. In vain did Mr. Stites endeavor to repair the machine as his wife and family hovered near, lending what aid their inexperienced fingers could give. Then the storm descended. Swirling gusts of snow first whipped through the pass, getting heavier as the snow began to form into drifts. Driven from his work on the car through the numbing cold, Mr. Stites was forced to abandon his attempt at making repairs and herded his family into the nearest shelter.

Night descended. The blizzard roared with increasing force. Morning came, but with it no lessening of the fury of the storm. One day passed. Cold and hunger brought whimperings from the children, and comforting words were all that the father and mother could offer.

Came a second night and a second day. The whimperings of the children had grown to tearful appeals for food and for warmth.

Mother Starts for Aid.
With the courage born of the danger to her loved ones, Mrs. Stites determined to make a desperate effort to obtain aid. Clinging her children to her breast for what might be the last time, she set off alone, facing the deadly perils of the blizzard, plunging into the unknown.

Hours dragged by. Exhausted by hunger and her own exertions, she struggled through the drifts, sometimes falling, sometimes almost forced to relinquish her quest, but always there remained the thought of her loved ones. She went on.

At last she reached the ranch-house of McCoy and told in incoherent words her story.

Aid immediately was rushed to the husband and the children and they were brought here. A brother of Mr. Stites in Ophir was notified and he came here for the family.

Dream Wins Freedom

London.—A dream has given Mrs. James Burrows of Eastbourne a divorce. While ill in a hospital she dreamed she saw a blonde woman in the life of her husband. So started was she that she begged hospital authorities to let her "run home." They did, and she found a note which resulted in her locating her husband with a girl whom he called "his dream girl." Mrs. Burrows told the court.

We are more than delighted with the increase in our attendance at all the meetings, and we are still more desirous that others should come and take part in our meetings, come you cannot do anything better.

Our Sunday schools for you and your children, and we are very anxious to reach the 100 mark. Come, lets go, and we can do that easy on or before Easter. Will you do your part?

Young people, we want you to keep right on coming to our Thursday night meeting. They had their Valentine-social at the church last Friday and over 70 young people gathered and had the greatest time of their lives. You come.

We are arranging to have a series of revival services to be held in our church conducted by the pastor, commencing with a week of prayer on March 23 and continuing until Easter Sunday. That day will be a red letter day in the history of our church. Watch for the hand bills giving all particulars about these services. The series of sermons that will be preached are entitled "A Broken Heart" or "Sin and its Cure."

The Sunday night sermon will be another one of the remarkable conversions of the Bible. We specialize in the word of God.

TAWAS CITY BAPTIST CHURCH

Topic for next Sunday morning will be, "How about the Steering Gear." This will be the third sermon on the agents of the soul—the feelings and the intellect. Ask those who have heard the two previous ones if they think it will be worth while hearing next Sunday's discourse.

Sunday school session at 11:15. Our Sunday school lessons are bringing us wonderful messages for these days and the interest shown and the number in attendance go to show that they are having their good effect.

7:00 p. m., the closing service of the day. We are glad to note the attendance of the boys and girls at this service, and also the interest they showed in the singing and the sermon on the topic, "Heroism and Common Folk."

Wednesday evening, 7:30. week-night meeting at Mrs. Lucy Brown. We had a fine meeting there last week. If you would like one of these good meetings in your home, speak your wishes to the pastor and arrangements will be made for it.

Of Icelandic Origin
The word "tee" which is so commonly used on the golf links and curling rinks is derived from an old Icelandic word, which originally meant "to point out." In time it came to stand for a starting point, a place which was specially pointed out to competitors.

Where Coin Is No Good
Money as a circulating medium in Labrador is useless since there are no stores. The traders accept fish in payment and as for the natives, they prefer to receive food or clothing for their services.
