A PROCLAMATION

By the President of the United States of America

In proclaiming American Forest Week, I desire to bring to the attention of all our people the danger that comes from the neglect of our forests.

For several years the Nation has observed Forest Protection Week. It is fitting that this observance be enlarged. We have too freely spent the rich and magnificent gift that nature bestowed on us. In our eagerness to use that gift we have stripped our forests; and we have permitted fires to lay waste and devour them; we have all too often destroyed the young growth and the seed from which new forests might spring. And though we already feel

COMPLETES TWO WEEKS SPECIAL M. E. SERVICES

Rev. George Smith of the M. E. church of work last Sunday, one week consisting of home prayer meetings and two weeks of preaching. His first week of preaching consisted of five sermons on "The Beginnings of Sin," and the week of April 5 the five sermons were on "Kinds of Sin." On Good Friday his sermon subject was "Sin: It's power broken," and Sunday evening "Come Unto Me."
In addition on April 4 he lectured on "Where Our Christianity Came From," a tracing of Christianity from the present time back to the time of Christ, and on April 11 he lectured on "Below the Surface," a story of his experiences in the slums of Liverpool and Manchester, England.

Although the week day meetings were not largely attended, that they were productive of good results was manifested on Sunday evening when the church was comfortably filled, eight children receiving baptism and eight adults being received into the church.

KLENOW-BOLEN

A very pretty wedding took place Tuesday morning, April 14, at 7:00 o'clock at the St. Joseph's church, when John Bolen and Miss Helen Klenow, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Klenow, were united in marriage by Rev. Brogger.

The bride was attired in a blue suit, trimmed with grey squirrel fur hat to match and Mrs. Clara Bolen acted as bridesmaid. She wore a tan suit with hat to match. Both wore a beautiful corsage of roses and sweet peas. The groom was attended by Edward Klenow. A wedding breakfast was served to forty-five guests at the home of the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Klenow. The young couple left on a wedding trip to Detroit and Canada and will make their home in East Tawas. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Klenow of Detroit were out of town guests.

LINCOLN BUSINESS HOUSES NOT TO BUY FROM TRUCKS

Every business house in Lincoln has agreed not to patronize trucks operating in competition with the D. & M. Railroad, but to have all shipping done over the local rail line.
With the opening of spring, truck traffic, the owners of these vehicles who load up in the cities to the south peddle their loads along M-10 have commenced operations and are now calling daily on merchants along the highway.
The business men of the village feel that it is unfair competition inasmuch as the railroad is compelled to maintain its lines and to pay heavy taxes, while the state maintains the highways for the trucks and their contribution in taxes is a license fee which is negligible.—Alcona County Herald.

FORD SOLVES USED CAR PROBLEM

Much interest has centered during the last week in the announcement of the Ford used car plan. This interest has been evidenced by both the public and the automotive industry generally, for it is the first move made by any large automobile concern toward solution of the so-called used car problem.

Under the plan, which is supervised by the company, all authorized Ford dealers place a guarantee upon used Ford cars sold by them, thus insuring to the purchaser satisfactory mechanical operation of the cars under ordinary driving conditions.

Reports received during the week from branches throughout the country, it was said at the offices of the Ford Motor company in Detroit, indicate two things—greater buyer confidence on the part of the public and a general feeling among Ford dealers that the plan is certain to promote customer satisfaction.

These reports, it was said, are not based upon expressions from Ford dealers alone. They also include public reaction toward the plan as reflected through the vast dealer organization which, because of its extensiveness, is an excellent barometer of automobile marketing conditions.

TOURIST SEASON WILL BE BIGGEST THIS YEAR

T. J. Ferguson, manager of the Alpena News, who is an enthusiast regarding the recreational advantages of East Michigan, in a statement declares that the forthcoming tourist season will be the biggest in the history of East Michigan, according to present indications.

Mr. Ferguson is augmenting the big results which are being secured from the East Michigan tourist blotter, by adding to each letter in which one is inclosed a postscript in red ink, with some to "Vacationland." Each postscript is different and Mr. Ferguson says that he often gets a reply when no reply is necessary to the main letter.

Here is an example of Mr. Ferguson's postscript:

"By the Way—About time to plan the summer vacation. Perhaps the enclosed blotter might solve the problem. You will like Alpena and its surrounding lakes, and the auto trip over the fine roads. Leave Chicago at noon and get there next night. Good going all the way after you leave Illinois."

MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our loved one, Irene Crego, who gave up this life one year ago the 12th of April.

"It's night again—we dream of your returning.

With loving smiles to greet us as of yore—
But we're waiting while the empty year's are yearning.

For the sound of your footsteps at the door."

"Once again the dreary star shine glistens.

Around the home that once loved so dear—
Once again we bow our heads in sadness.

And whisper, "Could it be God's will?"

"Tho far away tonight we know your dreaming,

Of your loved ones and the home you held so dear.

For your spirit comes to soothe us in the gloaming,

While your loved ones souls will guide you with their prayer."

"May Christ in all his glories keep you smiling,

May he give you sweetest blessings o'er and o'er;

When some day we shall meet beyond the river,

Where there's peace, sweet peace, forevermore."

Your sad mother, sister and brothers.

Who Calls the Frogs?

Frogs and toads in winter are deeply buried in the mud or beneath some stump, log or stone. Nature awakens them at the proper time, however, says Nature Magazine. "How it is that they know when it is time for them to come forth is one of the mysteries of nature that has never been satisfactorily solved. Nevertheless they are never late."

A PROCLAMATION
The first grip of timber shortage, we have barely begun to save and restore.
We have passed the pioneer stage and are no longer excusable for continuing this unwise dissipation of a great resource. To the Nation it means the lack of an elemental necessity and the waste of keeping idle or only partly productive nearly one-fourth of our soil. To our forest-using industries it means unstable investments, the depletion of forest capital, the disbanding of established enterprises, and the decline of one of our most important industrial groups.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
