At a meeting of the directors of the N. E. Michigan Baseball league, held in the Holland hotel Saturday evening, the June 7th, Alabaster-Harrisville game was awarded to Alabaster.

In the best ball game of the 1925 season, Oxel Johnson for Tawas and Joe Halligan for Alabaster, hooked up in a mound duel that was well worth watching. Not an earned run was scored off Johnson, the one run Alabaster received being error on the paths, while Halligan allowed Tawas but one little earned run, though they got another via the error route. Both pitchers were good. Tate kept warm to relieve Halligan while Miles Main kept in shape to take Johnson's place if it was found necessary to switch. The game was very well played but when the boys went wrong they sure went up in the air as the score by innings will show.

Noel was the only Tawas man to get more than one hit. Woods of Alabaster got three of Alabaster's four hits. Musolf's lone single in the fourth scored Syze with the only earned run of the game. The large—

JULY 24, 25, 26, 27 JOY TIME IN TAWAS CITY

The people of Iosco county are looking forward with pleasant anticipations to this year's Chautauqua which will be held at Tawas City, July 24, 25, 26 and 27.

The officers and committee chairmen of the Iosco County Community Chautauqua association have announced a program for this year's assembly which appears in every respect to be the best that we have ever had.

The attractions selected include the Community Players in the four act comedy "In Walked Jimmy"; The MacMurray-Kackley Players in the three act drama "His Honor-Abe Potash," the best known play of the Potash Perlmutter series; the Imperial Syncopators, a group of instrumentalists, presenting unique programs of musical contrasts; the Lombard Entertainers; the Philippine Concert Co., in a program of tropical music; Arthur MacMurray in a dramatic recital; Arthur Holden in a literary lecture; Joel Eastman and Henry Black Burns in discussions of present day problems.

With such an array of attractions several of which would alone be worth the price of a Chautauqua season ticket, the Chautauqua officers feel confident that the public will heartily support them and take advantage of the season ticket plan to attend the assembly. This program is brought here purely as a civic or community enterprise, by the citizens sponsoring it and deserves the hearty support of everyone.

Chautauqua Entertainers

THE LOMBARDS

TWO programs will be given by the Lombard Entertainers on the fourth day of the Chautauqua. Harry Lombard, who has for eight years been leading baritone with the English Opera Co., is well known for his splendid voice, as well as for his ability as a comedian of high rank. He is ably supported by Miss Jessie Vyvian, soprano, pianist and reader. Their program in the afternoon, which precedes the work of the children of the Junior Chautauqua, and their entertainment prelude to the lecture by Joel Eastman in the evening, offers many surprises and much variety. Vocal solos, duets, humorous impersonations, rag pictures, lightning oil paintings and clever sketches will be presented from a platform elaborately set with imported Japanese tapestries. The Lombards invariably delight their audiences.

Put "Pep" Into Workers

A freak story from the France-American excavations at ancient Carthage brings also an interesting lesson in the psychology of labor. The workmen, like all Africans and most other people, were lazy and shirked the job. So the excavators put in moving pictures of the work in progress. Every digger worked like mad, and there was a rush of unpaid volunteers, all digging to get into the pictures.—Tit Bits.

NOTICE

I, the undersigned, hereby give due notice to such persons or persons who have been in the habit of parking, and hanging about at all hours of the night in school yards, side roads, driveways and all other public places in the township of Tawas, that said practice must cease. The present conditions require such a measure as the farmers have suffered so many losses in farm products, especially in the line of poultry, and it is not up to the farmer to ascertain if such persons are sneak thieves or some respectable party or parties. The farmers are forced to stand between their property and said sneak thieves with a shot gun to save what is left.

I also wish to say to those parties who stole on the 15th and 16th of June a flock of chickens from Andrews Anschuetz's farm, while he was taking his wife to the hospital for an operation, they can settle without being made public or being prosecuted, if they so desire.
Dated this 30th day of June, 1925.
Henry Anschuetz,
Supervisor of said township.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our dear husband and father, Charles Brown, who died one year ago today, July 3, 1924:
Like the petals of a rose that drop and fade away,
So was our dear one life just fading day by day,
And when at last the sad end came,
While we stood by in tears,
To think of all the loneliness through all the coming years,
But some day we hope to meet him
When our day is o'er, on the beautiful Isle of Somewhere,
Where sorrow is no more.
His loving wife and daughter.
