MANY ATTRACTIONS FOR FAIR

Many people have been inquiring what the entertainment at this year's fair would consist of, and as the officers desired to give patrons as much entertainment as possible, they searched an amusement people's catalogue and letters until they were satisfied that they had all they could get for the money available and by being in no hurry to book, were able to secure open dates that actors were glad to fill at cut rates thus enabling the association to give an unusual large list of acts for the approval of those who patronize the fair. It will be no disappointment to most people to hear that Archie Royer will return this year. The acts he carries have been playing the past winter at indoor circuses in various large cities throughout the country including Detroit and Chicago.

There will be the Venus-Adoris statuette act, this act is put on by four ladies and represent some of the master pieces of the world's art. They carry new costumes and their act is refined. The famous Selbini sisters in a rolling globe act includes many difficult feats on rolling globes, including rolling up and down inclines and in various difficult positions.

Eugenie Climax the aerial wonder works in a 30 foot trapeze and performs many difficult and sensational feats. Although less than 20 years of age she is classed as one of the best lady trapeze performers in the country. The trick house and various comedy acrobatic stunts will be the feature of another act by this famous combination. Spade jumping, balancing, juggling and acrobatic work feature the next act and last but not least is Patty the girl Jack Dempsey.

Besides this combination the officers have booked Geyer Marie equilibrist supreme and sensational gymnasts with a high diving monkey, and performing dog. These acts come very highly recommended by several state fairs and large country fairs throughout the United States. From Charleston, West Va. fair comes the following: George and Marie combine a number of elements and have the audience holding their breath for fear something will happen to the artists while doing their unusual feats, as equilibrist they have few if any equals and amaze their audience in their perilous work. They carry more

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

We are pleased that our enrollment shows a decided increase over that of last year with a possibility of even more foreign students.

The library is open for reference and reading se.

Our students are very much pleased with the splendid large commercial room which has been provided for by a partition through the assembly room also several new typewriters were added to the necessary equipment, making possible more competition for the state honors this year.

Our physics laboratory equipment is now as complete as that of any of the larger city schools.

Prin. W. A. Crowe and Inez Frazee are the only new members of our faculty this year.

Dora Kulzeski, Lucille Kane, Leota Marzinski, Walter Schlechte, Forest McCaskey, Stanley Daley, Irene Sommerfield, Glen Wolf and Mary Prescott visited school the past week.

Seventh and Eighth Grades

School has opened with an enrollment of 36 pupils, and room enough to provide for only 34. There are several others planning to enter soon. We hope that accommodations can be made for the pupils coming in late.

We expect to have every pupil supplied with books in a few days.

The seventh and eighth grade room has been furnished with new desks. It certainly makes a great improvement in the appearance of the room.

We have several pupils transferred from other schools: one from East Tawas, one from Whittemore and four from the German school.

Fifth and Sixth Grades

The present enrollment of the fifth and sixth grades is forty nine. Nineteen of these are in the sixth grade. It is expected that the enrollment will increase.

Our room is brightened this week with some very pretty flowers.

The second grade are starting out very good in spelling, most everyone had perfect marks.

BAPTISTS HOLD BIG MEET IN RENO

The Alpena Baptist association meeting held Wednesday and Thursday of last week at the Reno Baptist church was a record gathering. From first to last the attendance and interest at the six sessions were high and the spirit of the meeting was excellent.

Dr. Severn of the Kalamazoo college, speaking on education, was frankly questioned by some ardent conservatives and answered the questions with equal directness, candor and clarity.

It was regretted that the destruction of the rim factory at Onaway had led to the closing of the Baptist church there. Ninety per cent of the sustaining members having left the town. These have mostly been transferred to the sister church at Alma.

The few, who remain in Onaway have decided to co-operate with the Methodist church.

As a result of an interesting account by Miss Florence Latter of the school in Porto Rico where she teaches Spanish and does missionary work, voluntary contributions were presented sufficient to secure an additional scholarship for the present year.

Sickness and just plain absence kept the Tawas team personnel that was unable to cope with Alabaster and they lost to the tail-enders to the tune of 8-2. Oxl Johnson tried a come back but coupled with his mates errors he found himself unable to compete with the Alabaster bats.

Jackson did much better, in fact a home run was the only earned run off him in the last 7 2-3 innings, by Tate.

Stan Noel scored the first run for Tawas when he parked the ball outside the lot in the first inning, Charlie scored the other counter on an error.

Next Sunday Alpena comes to Tawas Beach to officially close the season. A meeting of the league directors will be held at 1 o'clock before the game to wind up affairs for 1926.

This is the last chance for the fans to see local baseball this year.

AUTO ACCIDENTS FATAL TO THREE

Two people were killed in the accident Tuesday morning when a car driven by Mrs. Thomas Seel overturned on the Wilber road near the Thomas Harris farm. The car contained Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Seel and Mrs. Seel's sister, Miss Edna Schleben. Mr. Seel and Miss Schleben were instantly killed. Mrs. Seel suffered severe injuries.

The Seels were returning to their home at Detroit after spending the week end and Labor Day at the home of relatives at Roger City. They had left Roger City at about seven o'clock that morning. While attempting to pass a Ford coupe driven by J. V. Sharkey of Detroit, Mrs. Seel discovered that something was wrong with the steering gear of the car, at that moment the car swerved and overturned, at the same time slightly grazing the car driven by Mr. Sharkey.

Mr. Sharkey immediately stopped his car, called to the Harris place for help and ran back to the overturned roadster. He with the help of his mother, Mrs. Sharkey, Mrs. Thomas Harris and Neal Black, who just arrived at the scene of the accident, extricated Mrs. Seel from the overturned car. A large crowd soon gathered at the scene.

The gruesome remains of the two unfortunate people were taken to East Tawas and an inquest was held by prosecuting attorney, John A. Stewart Tuesday afternoon at the W. A. Evans Furniture Co's. store, before justice W. C. Davidson.

Ezra Mead, 49 years of age, of Flint was fatally injured at four o'clock Sunday afternoon and died several hours afterward, when the car he was driving overturned in the ditch. Mr. Mead accompanied by his two brothers, Hugh and Burton Mead, and Mrs. Burton Mead, were returning to Flint after attending a reunion of the Mead family at Alpena. The deceased was driving and while turning a corner on M-10 in Wilber township and attempting to pass another car, his car swerved on some grass over which he was forced to pass and overturned. The other occupants of the car were uninjured.

PERSONAL QUESTIONS

In the coming primary election, have you the will power and backbone to vote for the candidate for governor who you know will safeguard your sovereign interests best?

Are you voting for candidates who have made vague political promises? Something on the order of that fifth normal. Have you had interest enough in this great high-taxed state of ours to study the administrative board act? the road building costs, the prison parole system in vogue or the conservation department?

Do you realize the tremendous power for good or evil placed in the hands of the governor by the present administrative board act? Do you want this changed? Are you satisfied to have an accounting system for the state taken from the Auditor General (this office created by the constitution) and placed elsewhere?

Do you know how much the present highways of the state are costing the taxpayers? (Tell the folks the cost per mile). Do you know that as a state we have a bonded indebtedness of 95 millions? (that's how free of debt we are). Tell us how much does the state owe to Iosco County? Mayor Fred W. Green, candidate for governor on the republican ticket has promised a change if elected. He does not ask a fourth term nor a third term.

Place a cross before the name of Fred W. Green, for governor and help keep Michigan Green.

Three Big Essentials

Before you vote, know the facts and if you do you will vote for Alex J. Groesbeck. A hard working governor always on the job, not a millionaire or rubber stamp.

1925—Returned to county from Automobile license fees .....$8,247.73

1925—Paid to county on state rewards account .....$5,130.14

Wheat Products for Food

It has been calculated that wheat flour bread and crackers, pastry and similar products constitute 19 per cent of the total food of the average American family, furnishing about 27 per cent of the total protein, 6 per cent of the total fat and 46 per cent of the total carbohydrates. They contain a high percentage of starch and may be profitably combined with materials rich in protein, meat, eggs, etc., to form a well-balanced diet.

LONG DISTANCE TELEPHONE SERVICE CHANGES

Effective October 1, 1926

Reductions in Long Distance Rates to Points Outside Michigan

To points outside Michigan that are 150 miles or more distant, Long Distance rates will be reduced substantially—the greater the distance, the greater the reduction. For example, from Detroit to St. Louis the basic station-to-station rate will be $2.30 instead of $3.00; to Denver, $5.25 instead of $7.40; to San Francisco, $9.30 instead of $13.45; to New York, $2.40 instead of $3.15. Reductions in rates from this city will be in like proportions.

Rates for distances between 24 and 110 miles will be adjusted, in many cases, to make the schedule consistent throughout, but in these cases any increase of the basic station-to-station (Anyone) rate will be only five cents.

Reversed Charges on Station-to-Station (Anyone) Calls

Heretofore the reversal of charges has been available only on person-to-person (Particular Person) calls. As a further convenience to the public, this privilege will be extended to station-to-station (Anyone) calls where the rate is 25 cents or more, both to points outside of Michigan and between points within the state.

Longer Reduced Rate Period

Reduced rate hours for station-to-station (Anyone) calls, both to Michigan points and to outside points, will begin at 7:00 p. m., instead of 8:30 p. m. as formerly. Between 7:00 p. m. and 8:30 p. m., the discount will be approximately 25 per cent of the day station-to-station (Anyone) rates; from 8:30 p. m. to 4:30 a. m., the discount will be about 50 per cent of the day rates. These discounts will apply where the day station-to-station (Anyone) rate is 40 cents or more, with a minimum reduced rate of 35 cents. Because of the unsatisfactory service conditions which it brought about, the midnight discount still in effect on calls to points outside Michigan will be discontinued.

The net result of these rate changes will be a saving to the telephone users of the United States of approximately $3,000,000 a year. The service changes are made in the interests of public convenience, to relieve the burden now imposed by the congestion of business at midnight and to furnish still better long distance service.

Reductions and adjustments in long distance rates between points within the state became effective July 10.

Reason for Cold Weather

The naval observatory says while it is true that in the northern hemisphere the maximum difference between the heat lost at night and that gained by day occurs about December 21, it is also true that there is more lost at night than gained by day for some time after that. In other words one might say that the northern hemisphere cools off most rapidly about December 21, but still continues to cool after that time, though more slowly.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

By F. A. WALKER

MAKING OPPORTUNITY

WHATEVER may be the common belief about opportunity and its disinclination to knock more than once at your door, will, if you look into the matter, be found wholly untrue.

A plain, cut and dry explanation concerning the activities of opportunity disproves its alleged caprices and its unwillingness to be helpful to mankind, for it is ever ready to serve men and women, whether it knocks at their doors, or is attacked in the street, and made to stand and deliver by the mere force of a smile. Alas! for the man who does not recognize opportunity when he meets it, which may be a dozen times a day while he is bemoaning his lot or lamenting his fate.

He flounders and pants through mazes of doubt and despair, when, if he would sit down a while and take stock of his surroundings, he would probably find that opportunity had been playing hide and seek with him all day, and wondering why he was so blind.

Tried as you may be by the squalls and cross-currents, opportunity is often sitting beside you waiting for a friendly nod, or a good, old-fashioned handshake.

It suspects your aspirations and knows your shortcomings. It knows, too, your inward resolution, your weakness, lack of faith and hope, and would at the slightest hint rush to your assistance.

"Well, when?" you may ask cynically.

"Right now," comes back the reply, "but you must do your part and play the man in doing it."

Stick a flower in the lapel of your threadbare coat, draw in your chin, puff out your breast, inhale the life-giving morning air and walk like a supercilious drill-master, and opportunity will give you a snappy salute.

Never drag your feet, wear a woe-begone expression, nor let the crowd trample you down. Never admit defeat.

Make friends with faith and cheerfulness. Pursue this course from the moment you open your eyes in the morning, and you will find before night that opportunity has been waiting for you in places you had heretofore labeled "impossible."

Opportunity is yours whenever you may elect to accept it, notwithstanding all the time-worn sayings to the contrary.

"CRESTFALLEN"

THIS is a word popularly used in common speech to indicate dejection, to describe one in a dejected mood. The term comes to us from the parlance of the barnyard. For while the crest which gave the word its origin is correctly the upper part of the head of any bird or animal, it is associated particularly with the comb of the cock who struts animatedly about poultry domain.

Frequenters of the barnyard know that when life goes hard with the cock his crest, which at other times protrudes proudly up into the air, is seen to fall dejectedly. This might be said, like the wagging or drooping tail on the part of the dog, to be his medium of self-expression.

The aptness of the term "crest-fallen" in its figurative use for a person who is dejected and aggrieved can hardly be questioned.

DODGE BROTHERS 1926 OUTPUT PASSES ENTIRE 1925 PRODUCTION

When the 746th motor car shipped from Dodge Brothers factory at Detroit on August 26, 1926, left the freight yards at 1:30 in the afternoon, a new record had been established. The shipments to dealers this year had reached 259,967, the output for the entire year of 1925.

The consistent growth of Dodge Brothers business is revealed clearly by the statement from the factory showing the dates on which shipments for 1926 passed the figures for previous years. The 1921 production was passed April 5th; the 1922, May 27; the 1923, June 9, and the 1924 July 22.

"This constantly accelerating demand for Dodge Brothers products," says Wilbur C. Roach of the local Dodge Brother dealer, is convincing evidence of public recognition of the fact that dependability and sound investment value are the result of the policy adopted twelve years ago by the Dodge Brothers, that of constantly improving a well tried standard design instead of attempting to stimulate sales by radical changes in appearance and construction and by annual announcement of new models.

"ALL FOR A SONG"

"HE HAS sold his future for a song," they said of a rich man's son who, instead of taking advantage of the unusual opportunities open to him for a worth-while career, was willing away his golden years on the Great White Way.

"All for a song" has come to mean to us "paying too much for a whistle," any undue sacrifice or waste for something that is worthless or only of transient moment, particularly the superficial. It has come down to us from the day when its significance was literal.

Queen Elizabeth, as a token of her appreciation of the poet, Edmund Spenser, had ordered Lord Burleigh to present him with £100, which in those days was a small fortune. Upon this Lord Burleigh is said to have exclaimed: "All this for a song!"

Fred C. Holbeck
Republican Candidate for State Representative

We can all find lots of fault and sometimes there is plenty of fault to be found, but let us not forget that this country of ours is the best and most prosperous country on the earth.

The greatest heritage that can come to any man or woman is his or her American citizenship and the greatest privilege is going to the polls and taking their part in the government of the land.

The successful operation of our splendid system of government depends upon all the people voting at every election. Let us all be good citizens next Tuesday.

Remove Dent in Table

To remove a dent from a table apply moisture and heat. Wet a cloth with warm water, not hot, and lay it over the dent. Hold near a hot iron, but not near enough to scorch or char the wood. Repeat until the bruise comes up, then lay over the bruised surface a cloth dipped in linseed oil. Finally rub with a mixture of equal parts of turpentine and linseed oil and polish.

Barn Larger Than House

The old idea that the barn should be larger than the house still maintains, but not that the barn should be better than the house. We are now getting the big thrilling idea that human beings have some rights as well as domestic animals.

Temperature for House

One hundred years ago 50 to 55 degrees was considered a good house temperature. Fireplaces provided the heat in those days. When stoves came into use about 70 years ago, the temperature rose to about 62 degrees. With the increasing use of furnaces, some 30 years ago, a heat of 72 degrees was quite usual. Today a temperature of 70 degrees is considered standard.

Fish Culture Plants

America has 500 establishments for the artificial rearing of fish. Less than one-tenth of the eggs reach maturity.

Love Gives Profusely

Love never reasons, but profusely gives; gives, like a thoughtless prodigal, its all, and trembles then lest it has done too little.—Hannah More.

Cause of Failures

Self-distrust is the cause of most of our failures. In the assurance of strength there is strength; and they are the weakest, however strong, who have no faith in themselves or their powers.—Bovee.

You Can Be Warm and Comfortable in Coldest Weather

THE last five years have seen a great change in small-home heating.

Base-burners, oak stoves, and other types of coal-and-wood-burning room heaters have gone out of style. People are no longer willing to put up with the expense and inconvenience of tending several stoves and fireplaces; they are no longer content to shut off some of the rooms in winter, or to imperil health by living in drafty, underheated rooms.

Instead, they have turned to the Estate Heatrola, the heating plant that looks like a fine mahogany cabinet and works like a furnace. Introduced five years ago, it attained instant popularity. Today, in all parts of the country, in tens of thousands of homes, Heatrola has replaced ugliness with beauty, half-heated heat with solid comfort, fuel waste with fuel economy. And please note particularly this fact—ONE Heatrola does the work of several stoves or fireplaces.

No matter where you live there are Heatrola owners near you. Every state, every section of every state, almost every neighborhood, has its quota of enthusiastic users. Heatrola is recognized as the standard heating appliance for small homes, old and new, one-story and two-story; it is used, too, in stores, halls, churches, schools, garages, and in many other types of buildings.

Heatrola users verify all the facts in this booklet. Upon request, we will send you a 64-page booklet (ask for Booklet No. 736) in which we have reproduced letters from more than 500 users. But any dealer will gladly let the Estate Heatrola sell itself to you, installing it in your home on an absolute guarantee of satisfactory service.

We will display this wonderful Heater at the Fair. Be sure and see it.

MICHIGAN

MANY ATTRACTIONS FOR FAIR
comments from Bloomington, Ind., Mnongaholin, Pa., Richmond, Va., Birmingham, Ala., Lorraine, Ohio and other points, so the association feel that they have acts that will equal any fair in northern Michigan.

Many changes have taken place during the past few years in the class of entertainment furnished patrons of the county fairs of the state. Many residents of Iosco county can remember the day when our fair was a real agricultural fair, with a three story building filled with products of the farms, stock barns filled and other entertainment was scarce. A few horse races were held and sometimes they had a band but more times not. Then times changed and exhibits began to fall off and it was up to the officers to provide entertainment to draw crowds and keep pace with more prosperous fairs through the state. It is only a few years since the Iosco County fair started to provide this class of entertainment but with the providing of new and better building to house exhibits more interests is taken and now we have some extra fine exhibits combined with entertainment such as free acts, races, a band, rides for the children and dancing makes it an ideal place for the folks of the city and country to meet and renew acquaintances.

This year a new stock barn has been built and if all who have promised to exhibit stock do so it will be filled to capacity but it was located so that an addition can be put on if it is found necessary. If interest continues it will only be a few years before Iosco County will have one of the best equipped grounds in the state as at the present time there are few its equal.

Fred C. Laffer, secretary of the agriculture society, inspecting of the rapidly approaching county fair, said:

In line with the best fairs we are boosting the agricultural side, cutting out to a large extent games of chance and questionable concessions.

This will probably cause us a loss of revenue, but we believe the people wish it. We are counting on your support that we can make it one of the cleanest in the state.

We are making plans for a much larger exhibit in all departments, and have secured attractive premium ribbons, tags, etc. will have trained judges for the live stock and poultry.

As stated last week school children must have tickets for school day (Wednesday). Have your teacher write to the secretary stating number wanted.

COMPETITION IN WORDS

One who goes into the market to buy a motor car today is naturally confused.

He has read the words best and greatest so often that they have ceased to be convincing. Where all is best, he reflects, there can be no best.

Thousand-dollar cars have been described to him in ten-thousand dollar language. And vice versa.

He finds himself the target in a war of adjectives; the helpless victim in a gigantic competition of words.

And so he is forced to rely on chance—the advice of friends—or his own limited experience.

Dodge Brothers, Inc., have never participated in this verbal competition.

They are content with the position they have long maintained in the far more vital competition of honest value.

They have continued steadily to improve their product, not only in comfort and beauty, but basically—beneath the body and hood where fundamental values lie.

Yet they have not unduly stressed each betterment that has marked the steady progress of their motor car toward a higher perfection.

And when economic conditions or greater sales have permitted them to reduce prices without reducing quality, they have announced the fact without excessive emphasis.

Unexaggerated truth is not spectacular. But in the long run, implicit public confidence has been Dodge Brothers reward, and this they propose to preserve forever by continuing to build just a little better than they tell.
