CHARLIE CHAPLIN'S SHOES ARE WORTH MILLIONS

Shoes. Battered, old, misshapen, weary, pathetic, flat at heel. Shoes salvaged from rubbish heaps.

A pair of such shoes have earned their owner a revenue of millions of dollars. They are the trademark of Charlie Chaplin, known as the most prosperous and most popular comedian of all time. The screen has sent him into the far corners of the earth to set humanity laughing—with his eloquent shoes. They are the same in Charlie's newest comedy, "The Circus," coming to the State Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, April 22, 23 and 24, as they were in "The Floorwalker" and "The Immigrant."

The derby, moustache, cane and baggy trousers also belong inefaceably to Charlie Chaplin, but the feet—the shoes—are the basic trademark. Physically Charlie Chaplin's feet are as small and symmetrical as a woman's. But the huge shoes make them grotesque and promote the inimitable waddling that endears the comedian to his boundless public. They epitomize the make-up of Charlie.

Charlie Chaplin, in character, is the only actor who can be infallibly identified by his shoes alone. Pictured the shoes, and they spell the name.

Valuable shoes, Charlie Chaplin's. To date, Charlie has appeared in over a million feet of comedy film, with, as one "leg" has said, "A laugh in every foot." Those shoes!

CIRCUIT COURT

In the case of Mrs. Fanny Alstrom vs. M. C. Sherman, highway commissioner of Tawas township Judge Barton decided that the highway commissioner acted without jurisdiction in laying out a private road across Mrs. Alstrom's farm. This road was to give access to a parcel of land owned by Henry Lietz.

Petitions had been filed and the road was laid out last fall, but the plaintiff contended the highway commissioner had failed to file proof of notice to the interested parties with the township clerk and the highway commissioner had no jurisdiction to lay out the road.

Judge Barton of Grand Rapids acted in place of Judge Herman Dehnke, who, prior to his appointment as judge of this circuit, had been interested as an attorney in the cases tried this week.

The jury brought in a verdict of negligent driving on the part of the defendant in the case of William A. Davison, minor, by David Davison, his next friend, vs. Frank Karziski and allowed the plaintiff $816.50 damages.

This case originated July 4th last, when Frank Karziski, in driving onto the highway from the Karziski home, hit the car of William A. Davison, which was passing. The Davison car was completely wrecked, but the six occupants only received slight injuries. Karziski was brought before Justice W. C. Davison and paid a $50.00 fine, with costs, for reckless driving. Suit was then started in circuit court to recover the cost of the wrecked car, which was new. This came to trial Wednesday before Judge Barton and the verdict was brought in by the jury Thursday afternoon.

In driving into the highway a driver must use every precaution as cars on the highway have the right of way.

A LETTER

Oscoda, Mich.
April 14, 1928

Editor
Tawas Herald
Tawas City, Michigan
Dear Sir:

In the summer time it is not unusual to see automobiles with small trees exposed to view, and usually the roots unprotected, so that it is practically assured that the trees will not live, wherever they may be planted.

The stretch of road from Lincoln to Tawas formerly had promising evergreens growing, so that they beautified the scenery and promised added beauty for the future.

Occupants of cars from the south seem to have the view that such trees are common property. This sort of ruthless vandalism ought to be stopped, and I believe that the officers of the law could find methods of doing so, if they could be stirred into action.

Perhaps a few signs along the main arteries of travel in Iosco and Alcona counties, supplemented by activity on the part of the law-enforcing officers, would prevent much of the spoliation of our landscape.

I would suggest that it would be eminently useful, if your publication would stir up public appreciation of the desirability of self-protection.

Yours very truly,
Carl E. Schmidt.

HALE

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Merchant returned on Tuesday from their winter's sojourn in Florida.

Charles Clement has purchased the farm one mile south and one mile west of Hale, owned until recently by William Addy.

Charles Taulker made a business trip to Davison, Mich., last week to complete the purchase of the W. W. Brown farm ¼ mile north of Hale.

Mrs. Chris. Armstead, who has been seriously ill for several weeks, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Brandal, who have spent the winter with their daughter in Flint, returned home Sunday.

Miss Bessie Brandal spent the week end visiting Flint relatives.

Much excitement has existed in our village during the past week over the meanderings of a large bear in the vicinity of the school four miles north of Hale. He has devoured 12 sheep and a calf. A posse was out after him several days, but failed to capture him. Mr. Bruin was headed toward the Kingdom Swamp on the Au Sable when last seen.

Miss Edna Shattuck has been drawn to serve on Grand Jury to convene at Bay City May 1.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lake, on April 10, a boy. He has been named Orin Judson.

IOSCO SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Supt. Giddings of Tawas City represents the Iosco County Council of Religious Education at the week-day Church School Workers' Conference at Lansing, April 20-21.

A new class in Leadership Training was organized April 11, offering a continuation course in the New Testament, with Rev. Metcalf as instructor. Everyone welcome.

During the month of April the Council is asking from the various Sunday schools financial aid for carrying on the work. The officers thank you for your 1927 gift. The year was a notable one in this great work. A new spirit of goodwill and Christian fellowship was developed among the Sunday school workers of all denominations.

Our series of Rallies inspired the workers, the Young People's Conference proved popular, the Leadership Training classes are mines of golden suggestions, the Adult meeting awakened a new sense of responsibility.

To vote a retreat, a Sunday school needs only to forfeit this appeal. "To hold the fort," one may repeat its 1927 gift. To vote a "Forward Move," a school may increase its figure indefinitely.

Already comes the cheering report that some of the schools are over-subscribing their suggested share. Thank you!

More financial reports next week.

WHITTEMORE SCHOOL

The freshmen show ability in declamatory work. Ten spoke before the P. T. A. last Wednesday evening. The judges gave Warren Curtis first, Marion Jacques second and Ruth Schuster third. There were four tied for fourth place.

Mr. Gordon is leaving at the close of this year to attend college at Ypsilanti, where he will secure his A. B. degree in June. Mr. Stelter will take his place as Superintendent next year.

In spite of the disagreeable weather the track team is beginning work.

Commencement is set for May 22 with Rev. Joseph Green of Ionia as speaker for the occasion.

Remember the next lyceum number next Wednesday evening, Over the Roll Inn. The Mason Jubilee Singers in a Joy Night Program—The Noted Colored Songsters.

BASEBALL MEETING

A baseball meeting will be held Sunday afternoon, at 1:30, at the Holland Hotel, East Tawas for the purpose of forming a league for 1928. Everyone interested should be present.

OVER 100 ATTEND INSTITUTE WEDNESDAY

The Children's Division Institute held at the Baptist church Wednesday morning and evening, under the auspices of the Iosco County Council of Religious Education proved to be a decided success. Over one hundred were in attendance, representatives being present from most of the Sunday schools of the county.

The program at both sessions was most interesting and of great benefit and help to teachers, workers and parents of children under the junior age.

The musical numbers given by the Gang class of the Presbyterian Sunday school, the girls of the Tawas City M. E. church, and the girls of the Tawas City Baptist Sunday school were very much enjoyed by all.

We were very fortunate in being able to secure Miss Ione Catton, State Children's Division Superintendent. She is a most capable and efficient children's worker, and the splendid way in which she presented the work should be an inspiration to the Sunday School teachers of our county in carrying on the religious education of our children more efficiently and successfully.

About 15 students and teachers accompanied the school's representatives last Friday evening at the sub-district oratorical and declamatory contest at Alpena. Our oratorical contestant, Onalea Main, and our declamatory contestant, Billy Robinson, each won second place. Both of these young people received a handsomely bound dictionary, a reward from the Detroit News. The places which our representatives took in this contest certainly speak well for the efforts of our students in public speaking, and also for the work of our English teacher, Miss Crosby.

The class in advanced Civics obtained some first hand information Wednesday morning by attending a session of the Circuit Court.

The botany class is learning to name and recognize all of the divisions and subdivisions of a flower. Parents should remember that report books will be given out in all

Seventh and Eighth Grades
We are reviewing the work of the last six weeks and are also having tests. Report cards will be given out on Wednesday.

The pupils have written up many of the penmanship drills and have more to write. We hope that most of them will be good enough to send to the Palmer Method Company to be judged.

Madaline Coyle visited us last week.

Fifth and Sixth Grades
Bernard and Allen Stepanski, Billy Brown, Buddy Sims, and Kathleen Davis visited our room last week.

The fifth grade reading class is studying Longfellow's "Hiawatha." We have drawn and colored many interesting pictures illustrating the poem.

We are spending the first part of the week reviewing for our last six weeks examination.

Repeat until the bruise comes up, then lay over the bruised surface a cloth dipped in linseed oil. Finally rub with a mixture of equal parts of turpentine and linseed oil and polish.

SHIRTS

DON'T let a low price lead you into a low service shirt. Good shirts do cost a little more than the so called "special" shirts, but they last a good deal longer. It's like buying a cord tire. The first investment may be a bit larger, but the "wearage" you get out of the shirt more than squares you on the additional outlay. It's worth your while to look into our Arrow showing.

About Your Coat

Almost always the entire ensemble of your new wardrobe is built about your coat, so the utmost care should be exercised in its selection. In making that selection you will be especially wise if you come here and inspect our offerings. The newest of the new, in values that will mean practical economy.
