Much To Be Thankful For

BARUCH PREDICTS INFLATION WASHINGTON. — Elder States-man Bernie Baruch revealed some interesting figures on inflation recently in an off-the-record session with 14 younger congressmen at his Shoreham hotel apartment. Baruch's prediction was that the nation was hell-bent for inflation—and soon.

Piecemeal increases in wages, profits and the cost of living have been uneven, Baruch said, with wages lagging behind. For that rea-son he no longer favored his prewar idea of a freeze on both prices and wages. Our only hope, said the elder statesman, is that we can weather the next six to nine months with-out running into serious inflation. If we do that, our chances of a strong recovery from the war boom are

"The huge pent-up demand for products which we will see during the next nine months is a very serious threat," said Baruch, stressing the importance of holding prices down.

He amazed his listeners by saying that he is completely opposed to tax reduction of any nature at this time. "Not only does the government lose needed revenue, but it is an unhealthy thing for our general economy," argued Baruch.

Rep. Andy Biemiller of Milwaukee asked what Baruch thought of the statement by General Motors' president C. E. Wilson that if wages are raised 30 per cent, prices must go up 30 per cent. Baruch talked at some length on the general question of rising prices, but gave no direct answer. Finally, Biemiller repeated his question.

"I'm afraid I can't agree with Mr. Wilson," Baruch said.

WAGE NOT PRICE INCREASE "Isn't it true that industry can give a 30 per cent wage increase without having to raise prices more than about 7½ per cent?" Biemiller persisted.

"You are approximately right,"
Baruch agreed. "I believe the figure you may have heard is actually 81/2 per cent.

Baruch also told his guests that he felt we were making a mistake in speeding manpower demobilization. "With the world in its present situation," he said, "it seems to me it would be wiser to proceed slowly with demobilization, in order that we not weaken ourselves at a time when power is apparently still an important thing."

He agreed also with an idea proposed by one of his guests, Estes Kefauver of Chattanooga, to have cabinet members and other high officials appear on the floor of congress where they can be questioned by congressmen. Such a practice would make for much greater cooperation between the executive and legislative departments, Baruch

. . . CHURCHILL IN DEFEAT

Winston Churchill recently told friends how he felt after his defeat in the British elections. The first few days after his defeat were terrible, Churchill confessed. The very next morning he arose and fretted because there were no diplomatic cables to read. Through the war, his first morning chore was to read the top-secret military and diplomatic cables from all over the empire; and he paced up and down intermittently for days, fretting because there were no cables coming in and because, though he felt things were going wrong, there was no one to whom he could send cables to straighten things out.

"Finally I went down to the south of France," Churchill confessed.
"They treated me well there. I painted several pictures and they fed me some wonderful food. But still I couldn't get over this idea of no cables coming in and no cables going out. Each morning I fretted when I read the papers. But finally one morning I felt better. It sud-denly dawned on me that I wasn't prime minister any more and it wasn't my worry, and I've felt better ever since.'

Note - Churchill's health is touch and go. His doctor has ordered him to cut down on his food and drinking.

gora wool are a very special breed
—the White Angora. It is probable that this strain originated in Turkey, but it has been much improved by breeders in England and France. It is a true alibino, so its fur is always pure white.

Three years ago Mrs. Vera Messier of Candia, N. H., decided to raise Angoras. Starting with two does and a buck, she has painstakingly nursed her flock along until it now numbers around 300. These rabbits of the Luxor strain are not particularly delicate, as pedigreed animals go. The only special care they require is combing to keep their fur from matting.

Grains and good quality hay comprise about 60 per cent of the rabbits' ration. Whole grains such as oats, wheat and barley are preferred

The vogue of angora sweaters, | by the animals to the same grains hats and mittens has made rabbit-raising quite a prosperous business ment of soybean, peanut or linseed of late. Not just any rabbits, of course. The bunnies that grow the beautiful fluffy white fur called angora wool are well are a prosperous business intent of soybean, peanut or linseed meal promotes growth and a glossy coat. Using a self-feeder the rabbits eat about 2½ pounds of concentrates for every pound of hay. Alfalfa, clover, lespedeza or peavines, cut into three to four-inch lengths, provide the best fresh greens.

She shears her rabbits three or four times a year, adults yielding from 12 to 16 ounces of wool annually. Average length of wool over the back and sides is three to four inches. It is fine and silk-like in tex-ture and wavy or krinkly in form. ture and wavy or krinkly in form.

Mrs. Messier spins the wool into yarn herself on a specially built spinning wheel. She knits some of it into sweaters, hats, mittens, shawls and such things for her custom trade.

Most of the yarn she sells, however, and at a fancy price—around $1.75 a half ounce. A complete sweater of angora wool costs $50 or more.

The warmth of angora wool is unsurpassed, and it is as light as thistledown. Angora is now being used in combination with sheep's wool in order to improve the quality of the latter. It played its part in the war, too. It was used in flying suits for its warmth. It is flameproof, does not shrink and its fluffiness improves with washing.

Combing to prevent matting of the fine hair is a chore that angora rabbit raisers have to perform faithfully (upper left). From the time the fur reaches one and a half inches until it is ready for shearing at three to four inches in length, combing and brushing are periodic jobs. This big bunny is getting his last grooming before being clipped. Mrs. Messier cuts the fur with an ordinary scissors.

This clipped angora (above) ruefully contemplates the fluffy pile that was his coat. In about three months, however, it will be grown out again, thick and long as ever. An adult rabbit yields from 12 to 16 ounces of wool a year, with proper feeding, housing and grooming.

Pirate Gold Dug Up in Massachusetts

A small copper chest filled with | to escape Canadian authorities seekpieces of eight, gold sovereigns, doubloons and various French and Spanish coins has been unearthed on Nauset Beach, Mass., by Edward Snow, a writer of histories. Discovery of the treasure, valued at about $2,000, climaxed a long and romantic search over a two year period.

Snow originally heard rumors of the buried treasure from two Chatham natives in 1943. One of them was one-legged John Nuskey, who went about his duties as island caretaker on a wooden leg.

Six months after Nuskey disclosed the secret, his body was found under a dory on the beach-a towline tight about his neck.

Undeterred, Snow continued the Well, as the phonograph said to the needle—"Den't look now, but sometime between 1854 and 1882 you're in a rut." search. He learned that the chest The "king" came to Boston in 1854 location until he died in 1882. Snow discovered the old Italian book which held the key to the mystery. It was in an abandoned house on an island in the Brewster group. He took the book, printed in 1690, to the Boston Public library, where a librarian who is a skilled linguist decoded the message. It was pricked between the lines on page 101, where Snow had been told it would be found. After that it was easy. The little chest was right where the directions said it would be.

Women with the round face commit more errors in their coiffures than the women of any other type. The hair should be high and firm on the top, soft at the sides, with angles to give balance and break up that "square contour." A side part, and height on side is very flattering. If the neck is short, never allow the hair to touch the collar-

your car your truck yourself

• Farm folks know you can't trust winter weather. You have to be prepared for blizzards at any time. Highways that are clear today may be dangerous skidways tomorrow with fresh fallen snow hiding treacherous patches of ice. That's why WEED TIRE CHAINS are found on millions of farm cars and trucks.

This would be a bad winter in which to lose the use of your car or truck through a skid crash, for new vehicles are still scarce. So are new tires and good recaps. Better look after your tire chains right away. For when your wheels spin in snow or on ice, the heat quickly damages your tires.

Repair serviceable used chains and, if you need new ones, tell your WEED CHAIN dealer at once.

HETHER or not he is the greatest, Harry Gilmer of Alabama is beyond any argument the most amazing back that football can Doc Bianchard, army's brilliant back, weighs 205 pounds and can run the 100 in 10 flat.

Glenn Davis, another army brilliant, 180 pounds, is the fastest man in football.

Harry Gilmer, barely 19 years old, weighs 158 pounds and he has no such speed as against Duke last winter, while tackling all over the field. This fall he threw three touchdown passes against a strong L. S. U. team to carry Alabama into a 26 to 7 victory over the team that wrecked Georgia. He then passed and ran Tennessee dizzy to win by 25 to 7.

Gilmer has already proved himself to be one of the best passers of all time. I'd rank him as the greatest passer in football today, college or pro. But the most amazing part of this 158-pound kid is that he is one of the best all-over-the-field tacklers you'll see in many years, that he is a fine ball carrier who is not only elusive but who can hold his feet with a 190-pound back. Also that he is one of the most accurate kickers in the game today.

Batters Big Linesmen

Against Tennessee he kicked out of bounds on the Volunteers' 4-yard line. The play was called back. On his second shot Gilmer again kicked out on the 4-yard line. Also against the big forward walls of L. S. U. and Tennessee he drove his way through the lines as well as he cut around the flanks, carrying 200pounders for 4 and 5 extra yards.

How often do you see a star passer, a fine ball carrier and a good kicker starring in a defensive role? After the Duke-Sugar Bowl game last winter I ran into Tom Davis, Duke's fast, 190-pound back.

"Gilmer?" he said. "He is no 158pounder. He must have nailed me 10 times today, and I thought he was going to tear me apart." But 158 to 160 is Gilmer's weight, with which he does the job of four men. For example, in three big games against Duke, L. S. U. and Tennessee, he was largely responsible for the 77 points Alabama scored.

Gilmer's three main ingredients are poise, timing and skill. The Alabama star has thin shoulders, a rather thin chest, but he also has a pair of powerful legs and two big,

Knocking on wood for the sake of Frank Thomas, he is also as durable as hickory. He can handle a heavy battering without slowing down. The kid is as cold as an iceberg. You never see him rattled or hurried. He has a pair of blue-gray eyes that get the picture before him in a flash-even when he is in midair throwing a pass. Handling the ball from center on a running or a passing play, he always seems to be taking his time, and yet he gets the ball away or starts his run without any waste of time.

Coolness and Timing

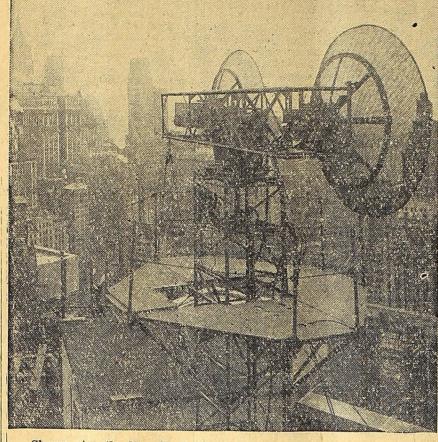

Frank Thomas tells me that no breaks of the game ever upset him in the least. "I've never seen any one," Thomas says, "who knows better exactly what to do under all conditions. He can whip a bullet pass as Baugh does, or give you a 50yard arm throw of the Luckman type. And he rarely misses his target. If he ever made a single bad or wild pass, I never saw it. But it is his coolness, his timing, his durability that makes his skill stand out. He throws his shorter passes with a wrist flip that can't be intercepted. And he can also nail a receiver 50 yards away, after leaving his feet for the jump."

While Gilmer has been a leading factor in carrying Alabama to victory, he isn't the only football player Frank Thomas has on his squad. Big Mancha, one of the best centers in football, heads a strong, fast charging line. Tew and Hodges are two hard running backs. This is the best team Alabama has sent into action in some years, and Alabama has had more than her share of winning games and winning years. Also such stars as Don Hutson, Pooley Hubert, Mack Brown, Howell, Hurry Cain, Jenkins, Whitmire and now Gilmer and Mancha.

Fumbling All Around

If you happen to look over various accounts of football games around the map you will run into stories of constant fumbling. This is partly due to the shape of the modern football which is fashioned largely for a passing attack. It is built more like a short javelin than anything else, being narrow and pointed. A fumble, recovered by the other side, usually costs from 40 to 50 yards. The shape of the ball is at least a big part of the epidemic.

CHRISTIANS WORKING TOGETH ER IN THE COMMUNITY

LESSON TEXT: John 17:20-23; Acts GOLDEN TEXT: We are laborers to-gether with God.—I Corinthians 3:9.

Unity within the Church is God's plan and purpose, but that does not mean that some man-made plans for unity are either scriptural or desirable. There is much pressure being exerted now to unite the Church on the basis of a vast ecclesiastical organization, quite apart from any doctrinal or spiritual unity.

Such unity was not in our Lord's mind. He wants spiritual unity, and in such fellowship the Church will find its only real bond of united life

I. Unity in Spirit (John 17:20-23). Here we enter the veritable holy of holies of Scripture. Facing the time of His departure and death, the Lord prayed for those who believed, or would believe (v. 20) on Him.

What was His prayer? That they should be one with the Father, with Him, and with one another. This had to be accomplished while they remained in this wicked world (see John 17:13-16). How? By the cleansing and sanctifying work of the truth.

The Word of God-the Bible-is the instrument used by the Holy Spirit in this work of sanctification. Small wonder that there is little holiness and spiritual unity when the Word has so little opportunity to touch and to cleanse. Reader, do you study God's Word?

Such separation to God will result in real spiritual unity between those of all denominations and creeds. It is not some artificial thing to be put on from the outside. It comes from the heart of man and reaches out into his life and into the lives of oth-

II. Unity in Action (Acts 15:22-27). Satan tried to thwart the mission-ary efforts of the Church at the very outset by starting a doctrinal controversy.

Although the first council at Jerusalem (Acts 11) had decided that "to the Gentiles also hath God granted repentance unto life," the question did not stay settled, for there were persistent Judaizing teachers who now contended that even though the Gentiles could be saved, they had to come into the church by way of Judaism and first fulfill the Jewish rite of circumcision.

The story of how this vital and fundamental question came up is found in the early verses of Acts 15. The entire future of the gospel ministry was in a sense dependent on the solution of this problem. Christianity is the only religious faith in the world that presents justification by grace as the way of redemption; all others follow (more or less) the path of salvation by works.

The question now was: works of the law be mingled with grace? Can Jesus Christ alone save men, or is salvation through Jesus Christ plus something else?

How was such a serious question to be settled? Should argument and strife be permitted to go on until the stronger party prevailed? Better judgment indicated the desirability of a Christian method of settlement.

The final decision of the council is sent not only by Paul and Barnabas, but also by a committee from Jerusalem, a gracious gesture of fellow-

As a matter of record (a wise procedure in such a case), a letter was sent which, after addressing the Gentiles as "brethren," reviewed the history of the matter and then, without mentioning circumcision at all, put upon the Gentiles "no greatburden than the necessary things." And what were those? Those things which relate to purity of life as those who were enjoying Christian liberty. The law of Moses need not be kept as a ground of salvation. They were saved by grace. But grace can never be the cloak of careless living, nor can liberty in Christ be interpreted as license to live in sin. We are set free in Christ, not that we may sin, but that we may "go and sin no more."

III. Unity in Doctrine (Acts 15: 28, 29).

In non-essentials we should exercise toward other believers the greatest love and consideration. Men have a right to differences of opinion, and must follow the dictates of their own consciences. Let us not be betrayed into controversy on such matters.

There are certain foundation doctrines which must be held if a church is to be Christian; concerning these we stand together. There is a faith for which we are to earnestly "contend" (Jude 3). We are never, even on the grounds of supposed courtesy, to give aid and comfort to false teachers (II John 9-11). Kindly, tactfully, but definitely the Christian Church must stand true to its doctrinal convictions, standing united against an unbelieving world, and if need be, an unbelieving religious world.

Church Built of Paper Has Stood for 50 Years

One would probably think that a building made of paper would not last long, yet St. Owen's church, at Downham-in-the-Isle, England, is made of brown paper and has been standing 50 years.

Still in good condition, the building, also used as a school, was built of compressed brown paper with strands of wire interspersed. Architects come to see the church regularly, and an official said he believes the building will last another 50 years.

Investigation proved this area to be within the government gunnery and bombing range and this matter wold be taken up as soon as the government re-leased this area to civilian use again. The condition of the Bissonette Road as far as Cooke Site is in bad shape as possible especially do we recommend that some work be done to improve this much traveled road before hunting season. The feasability and advisability of the blacktopping of the AuSable River Road from Oscoda to the Lumberman's Monument is also a fact well known throughout the county and early construction, of this improvement would be of mut-

Supervisor Brayman. Reno Twp. The Lester Robinson road in the words of Supervisor Van-Patten needs, "a general overhauling and repairs to make it look more like a road." Townline Road between Reno and Grant near Myer's residence is in need of general repairing. The rest of roads in Reno in fairly good shape.

Grant Twp. We found the roads in this town in fairly good shape with the exception of one half mile on the Deming Road which should be graded.

Tawas Twp. The Road running north of the Buckhorn is in bad shape with many holes and is badly in need of grading and filling. Samshape for about 20 rods. School bus and mail route- we recommend that this be given immediate attention.

The balance is in pretty good shape. Baldwin Twp. The bridge west of Winer's Corner is cracked and settling. It should be examined by roadmen with a view to repairing on replacement. The bridge after crossing Tawas River going tward the Buckhorn on the lower end of the Hemlock Road will need repair. The road from the cemetery north reporshape, due to trucks hauling pulpin fine condition, also the Pink same is traveled by many tourists Drain, Elm Creek Drain, Gregory and hunters. We recommend grading and the Pringle Drain which ing so that water will drain off and other necessary repairs. The branch off this read to the old Oscar Swanson place should be graded.

Burleigh Twp. The town hall road is badly in need of grading and all roads in the township need resur facing. Supervisor Bellville reports he would like to see some action on this long promised black top on the Prescott Road.

THE STORY THUS FAR: Adam Bruce FBI operator, and Inspector and Mrs. Tope met while on vacation in Northeastern wilds. Tope discovered the body of a murdered man at the auto camp of Bee Dewain, a friend of Bruce's. He called Bruce, who brought State Trooper Quill. Upon the arrival of the D. A., Nat Cumberland and Dr. Medford, they decided to keep the murder a secret as long as possible. The body was moved to the home of Amasa Dewain for further investigation. Mrs. Tope told her husband that she recognized the body as that of Mr. Ledforge, head of New England utilities. Bee stated that a musky smell on murdered man's hair reminded her of semcone.

CHAPTER V

"Mrs. Priddy was busy Saturday, so I made the beds, changed the linen. I smelled this same musky smell on one of the pillowslips in Little Bear. Oh, I'm sure of it." "Who were they?" Cumberland

"I don't know," Bee confessed. "Earl Priddy took them to the cabin. They came late Friday night and left very early. I didn't see them at all. But I'm positive about the smell."

There seemed no more to say, They moved out of doors again, and Cumberland asked heavily: "What did they do to him, Doc? How'd they kill him?"

Doctor Medford said unsteadily: "I can stand most things all right; but this gets me."

And he continued, without prompting: "It was more or less luck that I hit it so soon. I didn't find any wounds, knife, bullet, nothing like that; so I went into the abdomen, thinking of poison. I found the an-

He hesitated and Cumberland urged: "Go ahead, Doc."

The Doctor said grimly: "All right. It's hard to believe; but this man died of peritonitis, from a ruptured appendix. Rupture resulted from a gangrenous condition produced by a crease in the omentus that bent a fold in an artery, the way you do a hose, and shut off the blood-supply. That's how he died!" For a moment no one spoke, till Cumberland muttered:

"Then it's not murder, Tope!" The Inspector said impatiently: "They tied him up, gagged him, left him half-smothered with a blanket around his head when he was running a temperature and pretty sick

The trooper considered. "I'd run it into the woods," he decided.
"There are a lot of old roads that nobody uses except to park in, on moonlight nights; and nobody would notice one more car among so many.

Tope shook his head. "That's not good enough! Some one might spot it the first day. Is there any place where a car could be sunk in deep

So she and Adam departed toward the garden, and the Inspector and Mrs. Tope got under way; at once he proposed: "Now ma'am, we'll drive down to Ledforge's summer place and see what they say there!" She assented; but first he bade her stop at the Mill; and he went to talk with Priddy for a while.

"They put him under the bed in Faraway.

When he returned to the car, there was a deep excitement in his eyes; but he only said: "All right, let's go along." Not till they were on the road did he explain. Then he told her: "Some one else is on this trail we're running."

Stunning Fur Accessories Are Worn With Unfurred Costumes

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

FUR is playing a spectacular role in the fashion world this season. There are so many breath-taking ways in which fur is being maneuvered by designers, adjectives fail to do justice to the theme. Only seeing is believing how smartly and attractively fur accent is being worked into the scheme of costume

This year fur craft is making a striking new gesture in way of accessorizing the unfurred suit or coat or smart wool dress with a striking fur hat-and-bag ensemble, or the fur hat may be teamed with a muff or a belt of matching fur that gives a nipped-in waistline to a smart wool tunic coat.

You will be seeing more fur hats worn this winter than you have ever seen before. The types range from youthful berets to most imposing fabulous hats styled of the choicest of furs. The big idea is to wear a fur hat with your winter costume, the simplest types with daytime wool casuals and the more elaborate fur chapeau with your most fetching dress-up gowns and evening wraps.

Whitlock at Dewain's Mill last Centered in the picture one sees just how intriguing a fur hat can len car. The way he described it, it look with a brown and beige striped was this car. But if Holdom hasn't jersey dress which is softly tailored. with a fly-front bodice and gathered skirt. The wider brimmed hats l usually have a fur facing with a felt top. The handsome mink facing for the hat tunes to the brown color scheme of the costume.

It is hard to imagine anything more eye-appealing, more refreshingly new looking, more appealing to discriminating taste than the stunning suit which is accessorized with a "last word" fur hat and bag set, as shown to the right in the illustration. It has that patrician look of elegant simplicity which is so characteristic of the better fashions this winter. The suit is of soft beige wool. The four-button jacket has three bands of the self fabric applied to resemble pocket flaps. The beret and bag are beaver, a favored high-fashion fur this season. It's a grand idea, if you happen to have a worn and out-of-style fur garment, to take it to your furrier, who perhaps will find enough good fur in it to make one of the now-so-fashionable hat and bag sets.

This season's styling technique also calls for fur used in a trimming way. It's quite the smart thing to prettify the simple black velvet gown, both the formal long-skirted type or the ingenue short-length dance frock with lovely white ermine, as shown in the illustration. The deep rounded neckline and short sleeves are edged with lovely white

This is a season when scraps of fur are to be treasured and not lightly thrown away. Now that accessories and trimming accents of fur are so outstanding, it's worth one's while to turn every swatch of fur into costume decor. This year clever items that add the touch that tells to even a simple dress include a whole host of intriguing ideas. The fur headband is a novelty brought out this year. If you have a strip of ermine, tie it about your coiffure with ribbon at the back or conceal an elastic fastening under a cluster of ermine tails that dangle over one ear. A belt of spotted leopard fur will impart swank to your cloth suit or dress. If you have enough mink or Persian lamb to make a costume bow you can use it to advantage in many attractive ways, pinned on your cloth coat instead of a jewelled clip, worn on the bodice of your dress just below the shoulder. You'll find lots of ways to use a white ermine bow. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Satin-Brocade Suit

You will see a lot of brocaded satin this season. It is used here in solid black for a chic, sequintrimmed cocktail or after-five restaurant suit. The sequins trim the collar of the jacket, which is closed with three brocade-covered buttons.

These charming dress-up suits are worn under fur top-coats.

Hair Ornaments Made Of Feathers, Jewels

What with the many gala events planned for a brilliant winter social season, there is a steadily increasing demand for festive hair ornaments, that reflect the elegance that fashion demands. The handsome feather fantasies shown in the new collections are very "great lady" looking. Women of fashion are wearing ostrich tips, ostrich plumage, simulated birds with dramatic trailing tail feathers in exotic colors and other varied feather clusters. These all have comb or clip anchorage. The new headbands are just as gorgeous as jewels and sequin embroidery can make them. These include scroll designs, butterflies and flowers worked in a solid allover patterning. Topping everything in evening swish is a clip-on band, or call it wreath if you will, of sequin flowers in black or multi-color. Fur headbands are very attractive and new looking.

Subtle Neutral Tones Are Favored for Day Wear

In the better dress collections, the emphasis is on subtle neutral tones for daytime dresses and sweaters. The favorite soft tones are subdued grays and beiges, winter blond and oatmeal shades. Then there is a green that is grayed into a soft indefinite effect that is most attractive. Dresses and toppers made in these refined tones fascinate with their striking simplicity and their patrician appearance. There is wide call for fine cashmere sweaters in these fashionabe neutrals. They are perfect for the college girl.

Twenty-five years ago passenger cars used only three to five pounds of rubber, not counting tires. Today the average car contains fifty pounds of rubber products.

More than half of all the estimated 100 million automobile wheels in America are now rolling on synthetic rubber.

Nanking University is experimenting with a new type of seed with a view to growing rubber in some of the arid regions of Ching.

New automobiles built this year will be delivered without spare tires.

Made with Gin-Seng Extract!

Treat yourself to the pleasure of this fine smoke—a smooth, mellow, mild clearette—made of selected tobaccos, especially blended to the popular American taste. Pinehurst is truly one of America's standard clearettes—not a shortage substitute—enjoyed for years by smokers who demand satisfaction from their clearettes. Pinehurst's exclusive Patented Panax Process employs extract of Gin-Seng root for modern moisture conditioning—the only cigarette permitted to do so.

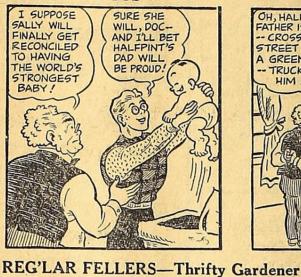

The use of Gin-Seng Extract as a hygroscopic agent is an exclusive, patented process of this Company. The mollifying features of Gin-Seng Extract may help to relieve dry throat, clearette cough, and other irritations due to smoking. These cigarettes may be found much more pleasant and safe for those with ordinary colds and other respiratory difficulties such as hay fever, asthma, etc.
