Now, therefore, I Harry S. Truman, President of the United States of America, in consonance with the joint resolution of Congress approved Dec. 26, 1941, designating the fourth Thursday of November in each year as Thanksgiving Day, do hereby proclaim Thursday, Normely one deed covered 40 actions are actions. These figures represent the amount of Deeds recorded today, five, ten and twenty-five years ago for the month of October. This shows a considerable increase in the number of real estate transactions during the years past. Possibly this increase can be contributed to the number of new plats in this office. So far this year 14 plats have been filed and four more are in the process of being made. In 1943 one plat was filed and in 1938 two plats were filed. As the number of plats on file in the office increase, the more deeds are drawn. Where formerly one deed covered 40 actions are the first of res, today, after a plat has been made, about 75 deeds would have to be recorded to cover the same

Thanksgiving Day

the news that elephants - are cheap. Pachyderm prices have been slashed. You can get an elephant at a bargain and you won't have to wait your turn on the list, What's more, you won't have to turn in the Ceremonial Indian elephants are down as low as $60. (Good condition, low mileage and without the need of an overhaul job!)

It is due to the maharajah situation which is all bad. For centuries an Indian maharajah sat on the top tier of those men who made a specialty of sitting pretty. No curtailment could touch him. He had his own principality and carried a spare; he boasted a palace for every occasion and an elephant for every mood.

Of all his trappings the pachyderm was close to a number one spot. A maharajah was known by the elephants he kept. It took hay, but the expression "that ain't hay" never applied to a rajah's money. A rajah never seems to start with one elephant and work up. He was born with a big supply. And those elephants had to be good.

There were rigid tests and the minute an elephant showed wear and tear he was through. No deteriorations were stood for. You never heard of a reconditioned Jumbo.

But the new order in India has changed all that. The maharajah business is in worse than a slump. It is busted wide open. Cheap as a secondhand elephant is, you can get a brand new maharajah for less, and with time payments.

The best of them are scrimping to make both ends meet and the problem is not made any simpler by the fact there is an elephant at each end. In the past it has been traditional that a maharajah has been able to charge off the upkeep of his elephants to the state, billing his country for all the hay, hide polish and incidentals. But with India's freedom and the growing revolution this has been discontinued without notice. The Gaekwar of Baroda used to get 10 million dollars a year from the state, payable in advance, but now he, too, may have to go to work, and not in an elephant howdah.

Maharajahs have been forced to dispose of their palaces and drop their retinues of servants and dancing girls. Some of them are without visible means of support. Here and there you can find one who would give anything for a nice little quonset hut with just room enough to hang his elephant memories.

Throughout the world of rajahs there rings the command, "Take them there elephants out and unload 'em for what they will bring!" There are few left who are not complaining, "Things are not what they used to be. I am using the old Jumbo this year."

A man paid $2,600 for a painting by Ike Eisenhower the other day. He liked the way the General attacked a subject, struck such firm decisive strokes and achieved his goal with firmness.

-WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS-

President Truman Astounds Nation By Winning Election Over Dewey; Senate. House Go Democratic, Too

-By Bill Schoentgen, WNU Staff Writer-(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

ELECTION: Ghost Walked

The night of November 2-3 was supposed to have been a wake for the defunct Democratic party but the corpse wouldn't lie still. It not only sat up but went around slapping the premature mourners on

IN THE FACE of the supposedly cut-and-dried nature of the campaign between President Truman and Governor Dewey the results of the election were fantastic. Everybody had been wrong-from the second-guessers on every street cor-ner to the "infallible" pollsters of public opinion.

It was Truman all the wayfrom the first early returns which indicated the trend until the great, pivotal states of Ohio, Illinois and California swung over into the Democrats' camp, crushed Dewey and forced him to concede.

MR. TRUMAN'S two million-plus plurality which gave him 304 electoral votes (to Dewey's 189) was nothing less than a popular direc-

Thus, for the first time since he entered the White House, President Truman was able to feel that he had full, untrammeled control of the administration.

MORE THAN that, the President was enormously elated about the fact that the Democrats had gained control of both houses of congress. How justifiable that elation will turn out to be, however, is a question for time to answer.

"We have a congress now, and I'm sure we'll make some progress in the next four years," he said. Yet, full cooperation between a U. S. president and his congress, even when they are aligned politically, is, if not quite a rarity, at least unusual.

Personalities

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York must have been the most tormented man in the nation for a few days after November 2.

AT 46, an age when most men in politics are only beginning their climb to the top, he had sat for a few weeks on an imaginary pinnacle - created by himself, with yeoman help from the pollstersonly to feel it dissolve under him when the votes were counted.

Dewey was through, a man to be pitied. Never again would he find the ambition or the chance to be president of the United States. BUT FOR President Truman these were days of such happiness and triumph as few men savor in a lifetime. He had pummeled his way through the allotted number of rounds in the campaign almost sin-

WHAT NOW?

Program

Now that it is going to be President Truman again for the next four years, what can the nation expect of him to do along legislative

His program will probably be elucidated in two phases, his annual message to be delivered to the January 3 opening of congress and his inaugural address on January 20. In the meantime, if his campaign speeches are taken as being reasonably reliable, Mr. Truman has committed himself to a program involving these principal issues:

PRICES: "I'm still in favor of action to hold down the cost of living." He wants price control laws, the President indicated.

LABOR: "The Taft-Hartley law is the opening gun in the Republican onslaught against the rights of the working man. It should be re-pealed." He also is expected to He also is expected to ask for the raising of the minimum wage from 40 to 75 cents an hour. COMMUNISTS: "We are on guard against them."

CIVIL RIGHTS: "We cannot be satisfied until all our people have equal opportunity for jobs, homes, education, health and for political ex-

AGRICULTURE: "Full markets for farm products . . . a floor under farm income . . increased farm income through cooperatives, market development and research."

SOCIAL SECURITY: "A comprehensive insurance system to protect units on a war-ready basis.

THAT'S ALL, BROTHER Won't Seek Presidency Again: Dewey

Two hours after he had conceded | by everyone in this room," said he. the election to President Truman, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey had made his decision: He would not consider running for the presidency a third time.

At a post-election press conference the first question fired at Dewey was, "What happened?"
"I was just as surprised as you are and I gather that that is shared they had waged a and constructive campaign."
"We have no regret in the way the defeated candidate said.

Dewey maintained that there had been no error in strategy in the conduct of his campaign. He added that he had talked the situation over with his running mate, Gov. Earl Warren, and that they had

JOY ABROAD: About Harry

Astonishment at the re-election of President Truman was not confined within the boundaries of the United States, and United Nations delegates in Paris received the news with a mixture of incredulity and happi-

MAJORITY opinion among the delegates seemed to be that it was

First, the western European leaders said, the continuity of the American government will hasten Atlantic pact negotiations. If Governor Dewey had been elected an inevitable delay would have resulted, pending the switch in administrations.

Second, most of the delegates of Russia and the eastern bloc of Europe, although chagrined at the miserable showing of Henry Wallace, asserted they preferred Mr. Truman to Dewey because they will be dealing with a man and administration with which they are acquainted.

THERE IS some doubt, however, as to whether that is the real Soviet attitude. The Russians and their satellites had been banking on a Republican victory because they were sure that if a GOP administration took over in the U.S. the last great depression that would destroy western capitalism would inevitably

They do expect, however, that Mr. Truman, now having the support of congress, will make a fresh approach toward improving U. S.-Soviet relations, probably renewing an effort to untangle the Berlin puz-

Concensus of all the delegates is that the success of President Truman demonstrates the unexpected strength of the liberal element in America combined with a powerful anti-Communist attitude.

Western Problem

One of the greatest sins of the western United States has been the pasturing of too many cattle and sheep on the range—over-grazing, in other words.

Despite the apparent remoteness of the subject, it vitally concerns every housewife and every consumer who likes to eat meat, for much of the beef and lamb in the butcher shop originates in the 11 western congress, the Democratic party did Yet, the evidence seems clear By the time Dewey conceded the that when livestock or big game election, the Democratic party was eat black grama grass, for examassured of at least 18 senators ple, too close to the ground it eventually dies.

IT IS still the subject of hot debate among western stockmen and the U. S. forest service, however, whether the vast, public-owned lands are grazed too much or too little.

Meat-producing grasses are driven out and replaced by worthless or inferior plants such as snakeweed, bitterweed, cactus, yuccas, creosotebush and the mesquites.

THIS condition is becoming more common throughout the West and Southwest. In southwest Texas, for instance, more than a million of acres of good grasslands have been depleted. Drouth and over-grazing has killed the choice grama and buffalo grasses and their place has been taken by mesquite, cedar and catclaw brush and by an assortment of low-value weeds. As a result of this abuse, meat production has been slowed definitely.

Nevertheless, there is definite proof that such a situation need not exist. ON THE Jornada experimental range, a 192,000-acre cattle ranch owned and controlled by the U.S. forest service just north of Las Cruces, N. M., the cows are plump and the calves fat despite the third year of the worst drouth in 50 years. There is a good stand of black grama grass.

And on similar land outside the ranch over-grazing has all but destroyed the grama grass. Worth-less snakeweed has taken control

Prankster's 'For Sale' Sign Gets Good Results

VALPARAISO, IND. - Somebody played a joke on Wilbur White while he was out of town. It started the telephone at the Valparaiso First National bank ringing about every five minutes.

The bank president, Paul Nuppnau, said some one posted a "for sale" sign on the White home. The sign placed the sale price at the rather low figure of $6,500 and said details could be obtained by dialing a certain number.

The number was that of the bank. The telephone rang every five minutes for several days, Nuppnau said.

Finally, he said he went out to the house to erase the telephone number and then sat back patiently for White's return. The sign went down when the home owner saw it.

Designed by Hitler and manufactured by Mercedes-Benz, the car was given by Hitler to Field Marshal Mannerheim of Finland. Shortly after the Russians entered Finland it was sent to Stockholm. There Janus bought it in a barter deal. The machine has adjustable armor-plate and bullet-proof glass.

Janus, at the pier to receive the car, said he would drive it to Chicago.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL.—The car toad told the head shack and the hog head that something was wrong on the crummy so that Annie was delayed a few hours.

Confused? You well might beunless you're a railroader.

These are just a few of the slang phrases used by railroad men. The sentence means: The car inspector told the brakeman and the engineer that something was wrong on the caboose so the Ann Rutledge train was delayed a few hours.

Although most of the train nicknames have been replaced by numbers, railroadmen still refer to the "Annie" and the "Abé" instead of the Ann Rutledge and Abraham Lincoln trains running between Springfield and St. Louis and the "Doodlebug" traveling between Springfield and Beardstown.

Other railroad lingo terms are: the yardmaster, a "dinger"; the switchmen, "snake" or "stingers," depending on their union affiliate; an engine not equipped with an automatic stoker, "armstrong"; an engine and caboose only, "caboose bounce," and an attentive telegraph operator, "dispatcher's delight."

Abolish Post Exchanges? Oh! Perish the Thought

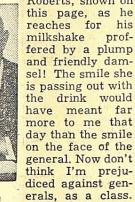

By BAUKHAGE

News Analyst and Commentator.

WASHINGTON .- Members of a sub-committee of the armed services committee of congress have recently completed a highly interesting tour of investigation. It was ordered because of a spirited controversy now going on in Washington.

I can't help mentioning the subject because its background is made up of some ancient vivid memories-memories of the day when, as a lonely recruit in an ill-fitting uniform and sagging wrap-leggings, I wandered into an army post-exchange for the first time, more than three

As I looked around the dreary setting my loneliness was not alleviated. I was at that moment yearning for the corner drugstore back home. I can hardly reconcile that mental picture with the one of Corporal Roberts, shown on

Baukhage

(Some of my best friends are generals). But I must say that what I missed most in the gloomy PX of my rookie experience was not the gleam of a general's

Since that sad day, I have visited many army post exchanges and some ships' service stores (the navy equivalent), and I was a little startled when I heard just recently that they were being threatened with abolition.

Of course there are two sides to every story. I'll try to forget personal prejudice in favor of anything that gives the armed services a break, and present both sides.

One side is represented by private businessmen. They charge that the exchanges which sell the soldier and his family a lot of things at reduced prices is "big business" subsidized by the government, competing with "little business" run by private enterprise.

The exchanges take in about $130 million gross annually. According to a recent analysis, quoted by the "Army Times" (a non-official but approved newspaper for servicemen) the average soldier spends $24 a month in the PX.

Three-fourths of this $24 goes, according to the analysis, for "tobacco, food at fountain, cafeteria and snack bar, for uniforms and insignia, and for candy and bottled drinks." The remaining one-fourth goes for all other purchases, including the "special orders" which many merchants object to, "although special orders constitute less

This 25 per cent of the total sales of the exchanges (or 40 million dollars) is only a tiny fraction of the billions spent by the American people every year in private stores on jewelry, watches, radios, cosmetics, toilet goods, and semi-durable house furnishings which come under the head of the "all other purchases" bought in the exchange.

The Army Times points out that the PX competition is chiefly with the stores in the immediate vicinity of army posts. But would those business people rather have no post there at all? The soldier spends plenty off post. Enough, anyway, to have the congressman very anxious and very active in trying to obtain or hold army and navy installations within his constituency. Looking at the other side of the picture, it is true that some servicemen and ex-servicemen have taken advantage of the exchanges. They have made purchases for re-sale and bought for friends who had no service connections. Also retired personnel have made purchases when they no longer legally should exercise the privilege.

Sgt. Walter W. Wynhoff and Capt. C. A. Cubbler look over a counter that Wynhoff built for the 34th general hospital at Seoul, Korea, during his off-duty time.

Restrictions have been tightened up, however, and every effort is being made to defeat the serviceman who is trying to cut off his own nose to spite his face when he violates regulations.

I think the returning congressmen will verify this.

The army and navy don't say so, but it is no pleasure to them to have to take on the burden of a business simply to offer advantages to servicemen and women and their families which make life easier and cheaper. Ask any post exchange officer how much of a headache an inventory is. He would far rather be inspecting foot-lockers or standing reveille. The biggest gripe the retailers have against the post exchanges and ships' service stores is the fact that such stores don't have to pay (or charge for) excise taxes. In fact the retailers have demanded that the department of justice kok into the legality of the situation.

How the department decides has nothing to do with the army and navy-that is, it will be a matter for the civilian branch in this respect: If the justice department says it's OK by them, the merchant probably will carry their lament to the congress. Then the congress which makes the tax laws and is elected by the people who pay those taxes and also the people whose sons and daughters are in the armed forces, will decide the matter.

And there is also this to be remembered: true, the exchange does have the excise tax-exempt privilige, but otherwise it must meet many if not most of the expenses any retailer has to meet. The exchange manager has help to pay and insure, has maintenance, supervision and accounting costs along with a host of other expenses faced by any merchant—costs and burdens which seldom occur to the av-which the law demands they must clear over all expenses and turn into welfare funds. Their "mark-ups" are, of course, less than those of the merchant. The Army Times puts the argument this way: "Out of these markups, the exchanges run themselves and pay the 6 per cent to welfare. That is, the GI buying in an exchange pays enough over costs to return to himself over 70 per cent of the expense of a multitude of off duty activities -music, service clubs, day rooms, hobby shops, soldier shows, library service, athletic facilities and equipment, and the like. "The theaters ante under 10 per; cent of the welfare requirement; the taxpayers put up just about 15 per cent of the vitally necessary welfare and recreation bill."

If the exchanges didn't turn in that 6 per cent profit, the taxpayer would have to provide the welfare items mentioned above. Or the GI of today would have even less diversion to brighten the barren surroundings of camp or post than did this lonely rookie when he walked into the decidedly limited institution which the regular army post provided where your correspondent began his none-too-brilliant but nevertheless unforgettable army ca-

Kate went north in 1900 in boy's clothing when she was 20 years old. She joined a vaudeville troupe and in a short while she was undisputed queen of the Yukon.

Dollar a Dance.

Sourdoughs paid a dollar a dance in those days and the girls received 25 cents of the dollar and got a cut on the drinks. The girls drank iced tea, wore high necked shirtwaists and skirts to the ground.

"They were very decorous," Kate explained.

The Yukon proved to be a bonanza for the little Spokane girl with golden hair and an Irish smile. She financed Alexander Pantages' first theater venture and performed in his first vaudeville show. Pantages became a successful west coast theater owner and producer.

It was in 1900 that the queen of the Yukon met bashful Johnny Mattson, on Christmas eve. Johnny a trapper and miner, fell in love with Kate, but it took him 33 years to propose. When he did, Kate accepted.

But meantime she had met, married and divorced Floyd Warren, a handsome cowboy, after a courtship by correspondence.

Wed a Second Time.

Johnny and Kate were married in Vancouver, B. C., on July 14, 1933. After the wedding Johnny went back to his claim, 100 miles from Dawson, Yukon territory. Kate returned to Bend, where friends changed her name from Klondike Kate to Aunt Kate.

Johnny and Kate met in Dawson once a year and twice a year he wrote to her. In October, 1946, Kate became worried because Johnny's usual letter failed to arrive. She instigated a search and a trapper found the 83-year-old sourdough dead on a frozen trail seven miles from his lonely cabin.

Kate had flown to Dawson and was there when the news arrived. She returned to Bend, sad and lonely. She had known Van Buren for several years and when she was 68 the two were married in Vancouver. Wash.

They moved to their home here and settled down for a quiet life.

The call of the wild has died to a whisper as far as Kate is concerned.

Roof Louvres

With Each Insulation Job during months of November and December.

Turn Over to Us Your CHILLY ROOMS

No use piling on more fuel. Insulation is the only permanent cure for a chilly house. Install CAPITOL ROCK WOOL and your house is uniform in temperature upstairs and down. Heat losses thru walls and roof are cut approximately 80%. In summer "bakeoven" temperatures are reduced 8° to 15°. Winter fuel saving quickly pays for the entire job. Phone or write for full details.

Your"Telephone World" Is Getting Bigger Every Day

Your telephone is such a reliable instrument that perhaps you never stop to think how it increases in value to you day after day.

It becomes more valuable, more useful, because we are constantly adding more telephones to the system. That makes it possible for you to call more persons, do more telephone errands.

It may be a friend you haven't talked to in years, a relative who lives a great distance away . . . a professional or business man you want to reach in a hurry. Whatever the reason, your telephone is always ready to serve you better-in a wider and wider field.

Can you think of many other things that grow in value every day?

Woman's World Assure Good Looks for Holidays By Starting Grooming Schedule

By Ertta Haley

T'S not completely true, and some experts would say, it's not true at all, that clothes make the woman. If you have lovely clothes, they certainly help, but if your skin is cloudy, your hair dull and figure dumpy, then clothes can't do much.

Clothes are something money can buy, but good grooming, which is the basis of true beauty, can be achieved only by your own efforts. Nothing will take the place of a hundred strokes of the hairbrush on your locks; nothing takes the place of a good facial; nothing takes the place of a good figure.

If you want to look truly lovely for the holidays when you will be out calling-and be called upon-probably more than usual, start a beauty program now to assure yourself of truly radiant good looks. Time may be brief, but a beauty program followed faithfully will show results, even if you've been on it a short

Tip to Toe Loveliness Should be Sought

If you want to look your best, strive for loveliness from the top of your head to the tips of your toes. If you have lovely hair, this is not enough. Your figure should be able to stand up to critical inspection just as should your nails.

Another good reason for striving for complete good grooming is to give yourself confidence. You need never be the girl who to herself says, "I'm making my face up so beautifully that they won't notice my hands are rough and my nails not what they should be.'

Naturally we can't reach perfection in all departments, but the point is that we should try, and in trying, attain some improvement. Nature may not have endowed us all with shapely legs, but by learning to walk gracefully, clothing ourselves properly, and minimizing our weaker points, we can overcome many defects. This is different than concentrating only on one feature and ignoring our weaker spots.

A good beauty schedule includes hair and skin care, proper hairdress and make-up, hand care as well as foot care, and, of course, figure care. Cleanliness is the basis of several of these cares, so plan a time right now when you'll brush hair, use soap-and-water on your-face, and when it's best to tub or shower.

Figure care is just as important, but in this case your care is controlled by diet, either to thin or fatten the figure. If your curves are not in the right place, plan to trim them down or change them with exercise. The latter is best done first thing in the morning for five minutes, and completed in the evening before bedtime for 10 to 15 minutes.

Time-Tried Tips Given on Care

A mild soap and water cleansing for the face is generally advisable. You may apply this with a soft cloth or a complexion brush, but do get a good lather and work it into the pores. Follow this with a thorough rinse ending with cold water which acts as an astringent. Creams and lotions are also good, but they can never take the place of soap and water. Use them with it. Many different types of make-up creams and preparations are available, and the choice is up to your personal preference. They help you to achieve a smooth base for the make-up and will make "your face" look nicer, smoother, and help it last longer. No extremes in make-up are advisable. It is best to study the face and to use a light hand in applying rouge, powder and lipstick. Simply accent the natural lines and bring out the best, but do not try to change radically your mouth or eyebrow

Short hair is, of course, now in style. This should be styled to the shape of your face. If clever, you not. Doctors say that most of us are plump, not because of glandular God that we began our story. difficulties, but because of eating more than we require. The two tips I've given are easy enough to follow if you exert yourself. Also, give yourself 15 to 20 minutes of exercise daily.

For those who are slim, the routine also falls into two classes. They should eat richer foods-foods fortified with milk or cream, butter and starches as well as sweets. Rest is also important to the slender person, for these are the people who are always on the go, thus using up

There are several other items that should find a place in your care sheet and all of these would do well to find a place in the daily beauty check-up. First, how is your smile? When you take the daily tubbing, give a care to your feet. The nails should be kept trimmed, and any ailments immediately attended unless you want to mar the lines of the face. Treat yourself to a pedicure and see how much fun it is. Check Clothing Habits For Good Grooming

Hang clothing promptly as you undress so that wrinkles are not caused unnecessarily. Press clothing on a regular schedule—not just before you wear it.

Do your mending before laundering, or while ironing. A good idea is to have the sewing kit right next to the ironing equipment.

Since suede is so popular for gloves, shoes and bags, keep suede dressing and a stiff brush handy so you can treat your accessories before they become dusty and shabby. Keep veils pressed and felt hats

KATHLEEN NORRIS Return to Religion

Bell Syndicate.-WNU Features. By KATHLEEN NORRIS

AS LONG as we can, let us make our little corner of the world a serene and happy place. As long as we can, let's give all we can, to the suffering overseas, to the community chest, to the various members of the family who are not as fortunate as we are.

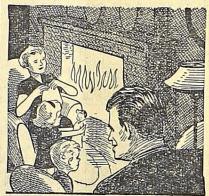

As long as we can, let's hold home together, keep up the customs of Christmas and birthdays, the family group about the supper table, the good winter fires, the first picnics among the crocuses and green grasses of spring.

We don't know what's ahead, what changes, what shocks. But we can steel ourselves to meet them by building close and tight the dear familiar pattern of our American ways, by clinging to the law. The law of each individual heart-to forgive, to share, to serve. That is our creed. It is upon that creed that our childhood lives were formed. Blessed are the merciful. Forgive your enemies. Inas nuch as ye have done it for the least of these, ye have done it for me.

Under today's doubts and distresses we must try to return to these laws. Internationally no nation is doing this. It is too late to hope for that. But each one of us may create his own tiny corner of heaven by a simple return to the Ride Out the Storm.

We can't influence great international groups to come back to God. We can't stem the terrible force of events already in motion. But you and I, safe in the obscurity of our own simple, small-town lives, can begin to regulate and strengthen our own souls and minds to ride out the storm.

Right in your home and mind, the greatest philosophy ever voiced can live as it did 2,000 years ago in a carpenter's shop in Nazareth. It is the only law. You can find it by simply thinking of it, wondering about it and finally accepting it. Not all the thousands of magazine and newspaper articles that flood us today, boiled down into one, say more than does any line of that law.

It says that hate and fear only beget more hate and fear. That swords and guns are but puny things, destined to fall into rust and decay. That the overwhelming, the irresistible weapon is trust, is goodness, is brotherhood. That to meet the onrushing foe with this armament is to disarm and conquer him by a law higher than he dreams. Had those who call themselves His followers kept this law, through all the hot ages of bitter warfare, we would not be where we are today. The word "war" would have been long forgotten.

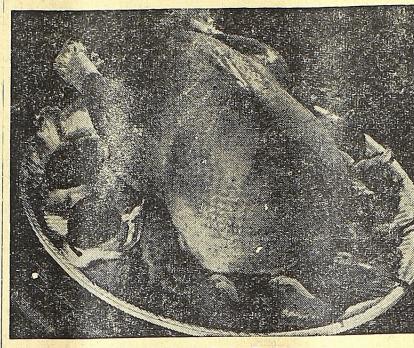

We can't go back. But every one of us who clings to this law is safe. And some of us may live to see the miracle hidden in the old rule. Overcome not evil with evil, but overcome evil with good.

'Lonely Hearts' Ad Results In Marriage of Widow, 72

LOS ANGELES.—A romance that started with a "lonely hearts" advertisement came to a climax when 91-year-old George W. Sears married Mrs. Martha Williams, 72. Some 150 relatives attended.

Three months before they were married, Sears answered the widow's ad in a newspaper for elderly persons. It read: "Looking for a Christian gentleman, I am no fortune hunter."

Thanksgiving Topics THANKSGIVING IS ONE of the important feast days of the year, and in a sense it's the beginning of the holiday season. Let's make it hearty, gay, full of thanks and cheer.

Since everyone expects a big feast on the table for the special occasion, plan it carefully and start working on it in advance so everything can be picture perfect. Plan an all white or ivory cloth and napkins as a simple background for the table. Have your glasses sparkling, silver shining, and the china washed to spic and span neatness.

IF YOU WANT to have a first course, plan an easy soup like cream of mushroom or asparagus or celery, a clear soup made beforehand. Here's a baked oyster dish that makes a nice appetizer:
*Baked Oysters

Use four to six oysters for each serving. Open the shells, cover oyster with Thousand Island dressing and sprinkle with a sharp grated American cheese. Bake until heated through and the cheese is melted and browned. Serve in the shells with crisp crackers.

For the turkey, allow from threequarters to one cup of bread crumbs for each pound of bird. Here's an interesting stuffing which you'll like for variety: *Apple Sausage Stuffing (For 12 pound turkey) pound pork sausage links 12 cups bread cubes 2 tablespoons minced onion Salt to taste 1 teaspoon pepper

2 tablespoons minced parsley 6 tart apples, diced 2-tablespoons sugar Cut sausage in thin slices. Saute and add other ingredients. Toss lightly and stuff bird. *To Roast Turkey Allow 30 minutes to each pound for roasting time, using a moderate (350-degree) oven. Baste frequently. If turkey becomes too dark, cover with water-moistened cheese-

*Cranberry Salad (Serves 8) 1 pound cranberries 2 navel oranges

2 cups sugar 1 package lime-flavored gelatin ½ cup boiling water 1 cup diced celery 1 cup chopped nutmeats

Put cranberries and oranges through food chopper. Add sugar and let stand for two hours, stirring frequently. Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. When cool, add the fruit mixture, celery and nuts. Pour into a mold and chill until firm.

*Baked Stuffed Sweet Potatoes (Serves 6) 6 medium-sized sweet potatoes ½ cup chopped walnuts 2 tablespoons butter 1 teaspoon salt 1 dozen marshmallows

Juice of 1 orange Bake the potatoes until tender, then scoop them out of the shells. Mash the pulp well, adding the butter, salt and orange juice. Stir

1 cup shredded pineapple

LYNN SAYS: Give Contrast to Menus With Careful Planning

Certain food combinations are so good together because of contrast in flavor, texture and color that the meal seems more satisfying Here are some foods you'll like for family or entertaining:

A sweet potato casserole with ham loaf makes a delicious main course. Creamed cabbage adds further contrast, and an apple dessert adds just the right finish.

THANKSGIVING MENU

in nuts and pineapple, making sure of getting an equal distribution. Refill shells with this mixture. Cut the marshmallows into small pieces and spread over the tops. Bake in a hot (375-degree) oven until brown. *Broccoli au Gratin

(Serves 6)

Use one pound of broccoli. Select stalks with dark green, tightly closed buds. Cook in boiling, salted water until easily pierced with fork. Drain. Make one cup thin white sauce, using one tablespoon butter, one tablespoon flour and one cup milk. Place broccoli in buttered casserole, pour over the white sauce, top with buttered bread crumbs and grated American cheese. Bake until cheese melts. Baked Squash With Green Peas Select small squash, split and bake until tender. Fill with cooked green peas, seasoned and buttered, and sprinkle with crumbled bacon. *Pumpkin Pie (Makes 2 9-inch pies)

3 cups steamed and strained pumpkin or 1 large can of pumpkin

1 cup light brown sugar

1 cup white sugar 4 teaspoon powdered cloves

3 teaspoons cinnamon 3 teaspoons ginger 1 teaspoon salt 4 eggs, slightly beaten

2 cups scalded milk

Mix ingredients in order given and bake in crust-lined pie plates. Set pie on bottom shelf of oven (450-degree) for 10 minutes, then move pie to middle shelf and reduce heat to moderate 350°F.) and bake for 40 minutes or until a silver knife comes out clean.

As a variation for pumpkin pie, add one teaspoon of grated orange rind to the filling before baking, if desired. *Finger Rolls

(Refrigerator)

½ cup sugar 1 tablespoon salt 2 tablespoons lard

1 tablespoon butter 2 cups boiling water 2 yeast cakes

1/4 cup lukewarm water 1 teaspoon sugar 2 eggs, beaten light 1½ pounds flour

Dissolve first four ingredients into boiling water. Let cool. Dissolve the yeast and sugar into the lukewarm water. Combine first two mixtures, add the eggs. Add onehalf of the flour and beat thoroughly, for 10 minutes. Add remaining flour and beat until mixture blisters. Brush top with melted butter, cover and place in refrigerator until mixture doubles. (Four to six hours). Shape into rolls. Let rise for two to three hours before baking in a hot (400-degree) oven for 10 to 15 minutes, or until golden brown. Released by WNU Features.

With the blandness of veal as a main dish, you can properly add contrast with an onion soup as first course, and a cottage pudding with chocolate sauce as dessert.

Whitefish is so mild that it can easily be served with a piquant shrimp sauce, spinach or beets as a vegetable, and a tart lemon des-

With a simple baked ham dinner, serve oven browned potatoes and green peas with butter sauce. Lemon or pineapple ice or sherbet completes the menu.

N THE opinion of George Widener, one of our ablest turfmen, foreign horses are never given a chance to win over here.

"These foreign entries are sent over from five days to three weeks before the race," Widener said. "They should be sent over from six months to a year ahead of time. Otherwise they will have no chance. "Years ago, I recall when Meadowbrook was challenging for the cup. Harry Payne Whitney sent all the American ponies to England at least six months in advance. He said that it would take six months or longer to have them ready for their best work. 'Now we all know that most of Grantland Rice the foreign horses we have seen run those from France, Belgium, Ireland, etc .- are much better horses than they proved to be. Their air voyages were badly upsetting, and they had little chance to get in anything like real shape. "It is really a shame, and I hope that in the future, owners of all invading foreign entries give their thoroughbreds at least some sort of a chance. There isn't the least doubt about Widener's opinion. I could tell you about any number of foreign horses to prove his point.

Argentina's Top Horse

Some years ago, Charley Howard, owner of Sea Biscuit, bought Sorteado, winner of Argentine's triple crown. He paid $40,000 for the horse. After several weeks training, I saw his first start at Santa Anita. Sorteado reared up and was doing a jig on his two hind legs when the race started.

Weeks later he was little better. But a year later, in New York, I sat with owner Howard while Sorteado broke a world's record for a mile and a half race. He beat War Admiral's best time by one-fifth of a sec-

"He is the greatest horse in the world today," Howard said at the time. "He can outrun any horse I've ever seen." Sorteado went out for a new record a few days later, stepped in a hole, broke a leg, and was destroyed.

Neil McCarthy bought an Australian horse known as Shannon II. He was an Australian champion. He was an American flop the first few months. Now Shannon II is winning big stakes and beating such horses as On Trust. He's one of the best. Even Jimmy Jones told me he made a mistake in flying Armed to California five days in advance of his race. "I should have sent him three weeks ahead, since he traveled by plane," Jimmy said. A race horse needs ample time to accustom himself to new surroundings, climate and environ-ment, especially after a long trip. If we sent our horses abroad, including Citation, under the same conditions, they would be run into the ground. Foreign owners should either keep their thoroughbreds at home or give them from six months to a year to go after the rich purses they can win from Belmont to Santa Anita, from Chicago to Hialeah.

Fighting Horses

John Partridge, the veteran trainer, was telling a story about Col. E. R. Bradley, the famous Kentucky breeder.

"This was years ago," John said.
"Colonel Bradley had hired a trainer to help look after his fighting chickens and also his horses. The colonel was kind of proud of those chickens.

"One night there was a private party where several of his game chickens were entered. They didn't look any too good. In fact three of his fighting chickens turned and ran. The trainer felt pretty bad about this, and naturally the colonel was angry. To have his game chickens run away was the last word.

"Next day," John continued, "the trainer started across a field There were several horses around, including two of Bradley's stallions. The two stallions began fighting. The trainer rushed over and tried to separate them. He didn't do a good job. Both were badly cut up.

"When Colonel Bradley heard about it, he was furious. He sent for the trainer and gave him a terrible bawling out. Then he fired him.

"'This is the best break I ever had,' the trainer said to the colonel, 'For this is the craziest place I ever worked. I don't want any part of it.'

"'What do you mean, the craziest place you ever worked?' the colonel said. "'What's wrong with

"T'll tell you what's wrong with it,' the trainer said. 'I've been three weeks at this great Bradley place in Kentucky, and all I've seen is running chickens and fighting horses.'

"I don't think it is necessary for me to say," John added, "that Colonel Bradley not only didn't fire the trainer but gave him a nice

"He's very intelligent, don't mention any thing about s-a-l-a-r-y in his presence!"

Selective Service Pre-Induction Exams Rejects 66.37 Per-cent

Inventory of Selective Service pre-induction examination results throughout the twelve state Fifth Army Area indicates a high rejection rate of 66.37 per cent. Of the 6,185 men examined between October 11-22, only 2,080 were found acceptable for military training and service.

Main Stations in the Fifth Army area during the month of September, only 1,535 or 12.22 per cent were disqualified by the physical. High rate of rejection among Selectees during October is laid to the fact that many of the men reporting in the first call are from age brackets already called by previous Selective Service calls.

for Detroit to spend the winter months with her children in Detroit.

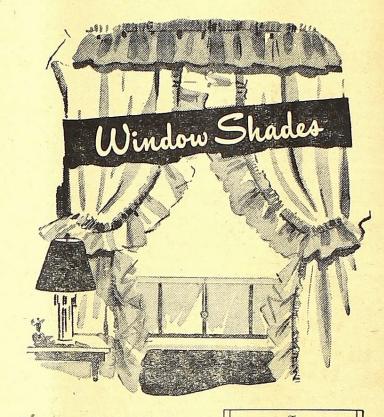

William Goodale of Lansing was one of the lucky hunters on Monday. He came up Sunday afternoon and returned Monday evening. He the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Goodale.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Young and two children of Essexville are months with her children in Detroit to spend the winter and service.

According to Fifth Army officials, failure to meet requirments of the physical examination given by the services of consulting physicians to screen obvious rejects.
