A BABY DOES IT

Forget the war threats, the economic crisis, the Communist sweep in China, the predictions of a tough winter and the development of a midget-sized turkey! Everybody's happy. The world is smiling. Princess Liz's baby has arrived! Mother, child and publicity are doing well.

The world needed a baby. A V. I. P. baby, a baby that would glamorize and romanticize all babies, a Page One Infant in a day, when the grown-ups as a whole are such bad advertising for any planet.

There is something about a baby that stirs the human heart, brings out the tenderest emotions and makes the whole world kin from jungle cave to palace penthouse. It probably makes even Vishinsky a little less denunciatory. It can even make the Republicans drop their hatred of poll-takers.

Millions of 'em are born daily, many just as lovely as the Princess's honey child, but they get no press or radio. Their mothers are happy and their dads are proud, but it takes a baby like Liz's to make Old Man Earth strut around passing out the stogies.

It was easy to have misgivings about this royal infant. It was slated to come into a bitter, sour, groggy, scared and preoccupied world. Its debut was marked for a period of fist shakings, violent speeches, marching armies and a million tough problems for man and beast. There was a time when the world was a pushover for any royal babe, but this time we wondered about it.

Then it happened and—socko! the first wail of the child put global trouble flat on their backs and made also-runs of all the great figures of the planet.

The doctor had no sooner given it the usual slap before London had Moscow, Berlin, Mukden, Israel and Washington in the minor leagues.

Guns boomed, bands played and people cheered in all parts of the British empire, and there were few countries that didn't throw a hat into the air and feel better about life in general. For once the question "Do you think there will be another war?" gave away to "Is it a boy or girl, and how's mom doing?"

Even Pravda had no derogatory comment. Henry Wallace didn't disapprove and may even claim some credit. Lots of Democrats declared it couldn't have happened if Truman hadn't won.

Sourpusses that haven't known a smile in years flashed a supergrin. Lovers and old married couples felt fine. Bus drivers stopped barking at passengers. Editors smiled. Printers and proof-readers seemed their happiest in years. Here and there somebody said "Please" and "Thank you." Strikes were deferred. Picket lines seemed less menacing. A tight board of corporation directors decided to declare an extra dividend. The dog wagged his tail more. The canary went juke-boxy.

Why? Because no matter how thick your hide is, you have a deep-rooted affection for story book kingdoms, princesses, palaces, pumpkin coaches, and all on top of your natural reaction to a newborn babe.

It could be that this is just what the world needed. It can warm it up, make it more human, take that sneer off its puss. It is hard to read about a baby and still want to punch anybody in the nose. This planet needs something around which to center a publicity that will dwarf unpleasant news. It has too many unblest and not enough blessed events. Hooray for the royal youngster! It's just what the doctor ordered!

Washington Digest Christmas This Year Finds World Still Without Peace

By BAUKHAGE

News Analyst and Commentator.

WASHINGTON. — I've been looking over old Christmas cards!

Christmas, 1945! The message I sent you that Christmas came from amidst the rubble and the ruin of shattered Nuernberg where I experienced the saddest Holy Day season of my memory. It was spent with the ugly symbols of "man's inhumanity to man" all about me, the bitter negation of our Saviour's teachings.

I was in uniform, the uniform of a non-combatant correspondent but I felt unhappy in it, though I had dreamed of wearing what we called "olive drab" in 1918, once again.

BAUKHAGE

On that day, Christmas, 1945, I wrote:

"I was as homesick as any young soldier in a lonely outpost with the threat of battle about him. I pictured my own hearth-side, my wife and the others about the happy tree, my own finseled packages unopened and my empty hands reaching out for them vainly over the oceans too wide to span."

Everywhere I looked that cold, damp day I saw, not war, but something more tragically eloquent—stunned, cramped souls in pinched bodies, hurrying amidst the wreckage of a city which had seen the blossoming of art and handicraft in stone and canvas and parchment which had enriched the world for centuries.

Now—1945—what is Nuernberg? Seat of the trial of Nazi war criminals.

That was my Christmas, 1945! Christmas, 1946!

"The second one in seven years when one could really talk about 'peace on earth' without shamed and downcast eyes." That's what I wrote in this column then and I wrote on:

"While armies struggled who could think of the message to the shepherds from the angel's chorus promising peace on earth for all men of good will."

There was, indeed, much to be thankful for and much to be hopeful about on Christmas, 1946.

Then came—Christmas, 1947!

I was far away from fields whitened with snow. No bright red of the holly berry. Instead, the burning hibiscus and beyond it the feathery tops of the Royal palms.

The day started not with the creak of shoes over the frozen snow or a wind which "checked mid-vein, the circling race of life-blood to the sharpening face," but with the soft lap of water against the prow of our little boat which lulled me to lazy reminiscence.

We slipped along the river and into the inlet. High above coursed a flock of graceful, never-lighting, man-of-war "frigate" birds. To see them so far inland, said my nature-wise companion, meant a rough ocean. These tireless creatures, it seems, prefer to hunt in the ocean unless the white-caps are breaking too wildly.

Out sweeps a fish-hawk. In close pursuit, an eagle, who prefers a pilfered meal to one he must work for. The fish-hawk darts ahead, holding his dinner in his bill. The eagle sweeps down but the kingfisher banks and turns sharply. The big bomber must make a wide circle before it can change its direction. On the straight course he gains but loses again at each turn.

This goes on until finally the eagle, disgusted, gives up the chase and the kingfisher fades, fat meal in mouth, to a tiny spot in the sky. The man-of-war come back, high above us, even at this distance, with their seven- to eight-foot wing spread. There is poetry of motion! They

Two of the world's architects for peace, President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall, were the chief figures in the launching and implementation of the Marshall plan to aid Europe and curtail Communism. It was America's Christmas gift to the world in 1948.

Explosive Mines Still Jeopardize World Shipping

NEW YORK.—Despite the mine-sweeping efforts of the navies of many countries since the end of World War II, the world's seaways are still not free from the danger of mines.

More than 200 ships have been sunk or damaged by mines since the war's end.

The United States navy says no guarantee can be given that even after all the sweepers have been called home, a mine will not pop up occasionally in the next 20 years. A World War I mine was discovered last July off Cape May, N. J.

The worst mine disaster since World War II was the recent sinking of the Danish steamer Kobenhaven. The small coastal excursion vessel blew up in the Kattegat with a reported loss of 200 lives.

Figures released by a New York risk insurance authority show that 251 ships of all nationalities have struck mines since V-E day in the Atlantic and Mediterranean, and since V-J day in the Pacific. Of this total, 116 were either sunk or declared a total loss.

Although the danger from mines has not yet been eliminated, it has been reduced immeasurably by a two-pronged international effort. First, all navies with minesweeping facilities launched a coordinated program of mine clearance. This began with the establishment and maintenance of swept channels to permit resumption of essential traffic. Later, known minefields were swept.

The second phase of the program was the setting up of a system to enable shipmasters to pass safely through areas mined during the war.

In the Pacific the United States hydrographic office branch at Honolulu was designated as the agency to collect and disseminate all mine information. This data is circulated in a series of radio messages called "hydrocasts" (Hydrographic information Pacific).

Interested governments were asked to forward information to Honolulu. These radio dispatches are given wide distribution throughout the area and are then issued in booklet form for the use of shipmasters.

In the Atlantic the main problem was centered in European waters. An international committee was set up in London known as the International Routing and Reporting Authority (IRRA). This body operates in much the same manner as the United States hydrographic office in the Pacific.

Lights Lure Pests to Trap, Help Them Commit Suicide

WOOSTER, OHIO.—One of these days, bugs that cause so much wreckage among crops may be obliging American farmers by simply committing suicide.

It's done with ordinary electric light bulbs, researchers at the Wooster experiment station said. The station has been working on them for ten years.

"Everyone who has ever tried to sit on an unshaded porch in the summertime knows that the porch lights will attract a bothersome gang of insects," said C. R. Neiswander, station entomologist. "We have put that knowledge to practical use in constructing a light trap."

The lamp is placed in a dome with a funnel leading to a mason jar screwed on the bottom. The insects hit the lamp or the side of the dome, fall into the funnel and on into the trap.

What Neiswander likes about the light treatment is that it gets to bugs that have been showing an annoying immunity to poison sprays. Here is one result:

The May beetle. This bug is the parent of the white grub that feeds on plant roots. During the flying season as few as 12 to 15 traps have caught 20,000 beetles. No daddy beetles—no baby grubs.

Lumberjack Claims Eating Championship of U. S. Army

FT. MONMOUTH, N. J.—Ft. Monmouth claimed the eating championship of the U. S. army—it said it had a private who "thinks nothing of a breakfast of three dozen eggs, four to five grapefruit, a pound of bacon, a pitcher of coffee or a half gallon of milk."

The post public information office identified the man as Pvt. George Newhall, 22-year-old ex-lumberjack from Marquette, Mich. The announcement said Newhall had gained 30 pounds since he joined the army in 1944.

Newhall, 6 feet tall and weighing 223 pounds, takes his place regularly at the end of the mess line, the PIO announced, and cleans up anything remaining in the kitchen "after all his buddies have been served."

His dinner diet at one recent sitting, the announcement said, consisted of "a five-pound meat loaf, a head of lettuce, creamed chicken and rice on the side, two ears of corn and a whole pie."

HOUSING: Realtors Critical

State socialism was the goal seen by the National Association of Real Estate Boards for the promoters of public housing.

A pamphlet published by the board's legislative committee charged a "clever propaganda campaign" about housing has been developed by a coalition of planners, socialists and radicals.

"The objective of this powerful coalition is simple," the pamphlet continued, "state socialism with all its dangerous implications. Control of housing is their first and logical step."

THE PAMPHLET, entitled "The world owes me a living," appeared to be an attack on public housing features of the Taft-Elliender-Wagner bill. President Truman is committed to ask congress in January to revive and enact this measure. The bill failed to pass in the 80th congress. It would lay down a long-range housing program, including incentives for private industry, and federal subsidies for construction of 500,000 units of low-rent housing.

The real estate group pointed out that many people think meat costs too much. Yet few of them, the pamphlet added, would propose that the government go into the meat business.

YET, ALL OBSERVERS of the situation were agreed that no answer would be forthcoming to the continuing and aggravating national housing shortage until more rental units were constructed.

NO MONEY: No Draftee

Army draft calls for January and February were reduced more than two-thirds when military officials realized this was necessary if limits on defense spending fixed by Mr. Truman were to be observed.

THE JANUARY QUOTA was cut from 20,000 to 10,000 and the February call, which had been set to take 25,000 to 30,000 men, was lowered to 5,000.

The army stated simply that the proposed budget for next year isn't big enough to build the 900,000-man army authorized by congress.

The armed forces had asked for 23 billion dollars for the fiscal year beginning July 1. President Truman set a 15 billion dollar ceiling on defense spending.

Of this total, 600 million dollars must be spent on stockpiling strategic raw material. The balance of $14,400,000,000 will be split among the armed forces, with the army expected to get about 5 billion dollars.

BECAUSE OF THAT, the army figures it will have to limit its strength to 677,000 officers and men. This is 223,000 (24.8 per cent) under the 900,000 authorized by congress last summer.

Army officials saw in the budget difficulty probability of sharp reductions in later draft calls, too. Instead of some 225,000 or 250,000 men marching off to the colors this fiscal year ending June 30, prospects were that the total would be but a fraction of either of those two figures.

Safe conduct for evacuating Americans was considered imperative as the desperate battle for Suchow between Chinese Reds and Chinese Nationalists went into its final phase. ### WARNING: Doctors Must Offer

It's up to the nation's doctors themselves whether they'll be drafted. Physicians attending the interim session of the American Medical association in St. Louis were warned they must volunteer in sufficient numbers or face a special draft.

Dr. James C. Sargent, chairman of the AMA council on emergency medical service, said "many doctors are going into uniform in the months ahead—make no mistake about that." Sargent said a special draft would be undesirable, but that it may have to come. "We must provide adequate medical care for our fighting men," he said.

HUNGRY FED: U. S. Great Sharer

America's millions shared with the hungry of the world in record amount during the past crop year, and yet managed to feed themselves better than in all their previous history.

Exports during the crop year ended July 1 totaled 19,347,000 long tons. This is the largest quantity of food ever shipped by any country in a single year. It topped American exports of the previous crop year by 187,000 tons.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

U. S. Cooling to Chiang Kai-shek; Russians Agree to Blockade Talks; Truman Wary on Deflation Prospect

EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

HOLE CARD: China's Missing?

With stakes terrifically high and the Communists having him beat showing, China's Chiang Kai-shek fingered the pasteboards for a look at his hole card. In a quick double-take, he looked again. Was it gone, or had it dwindled to a deuce?

That's the way poker players might have described the tense situation which faced beleaguered China and her generalissimo. The United States, China's only and all-powerful ally, appeared waning in ardor for the generalissimo's leadership. No less an authoritative U. S. foreign-policy spokesman than Senator Tom Connally (D., Tex.), who will head the senate foreign relations committee in the 81st congress, had spoken.

PUTTING IT BLUNTLY, Senator Connally had said, in effect, that China generally, and Chiang Kai-shek especially, should have done more to help themselves in the battle against Chinese Communist forces before pressing an 11th-hour appeal for American aid.

The senator emphasized his viewpoint: He stated that the visit of Madame Chiang Kai-shek to the United States was "not by invitation of the United States government." He made it clear that Madame Chiang was "just a protagonist of the Chinese government."

WOE PILED UPON WOE for the Chinese. Coincident with Senator Connally's statement, press services carried the following despatch from New Orleans: "William McCleskey Martin, president of the U. S. Export-Import bank, said the bank would not even consider a loan now to Nationalist China. He said the Export-Import bank does not have on hand as much money as China probably will want, and that China is a 'poor business risk.'"

Why was Connally giving the back of his hand to the generalissimo? Hear the senator: "Chiang is a generalissimo except that he doesn't go out and generalize. . . . If he took command of one of his armies in the field, he would do more to revive the morale of his people than anything else."

The Texan was but voicing publicly what other administration officials have been saying privately—that they are not too keen about Madame Chiang's all-out propaganda drive to divert more money and materials to China, possibly at the expense of the Marshall-plan countries. Connally summed up by saying that he was not prepared at this time to pass any opinion on increasing the aid to China, but added, "I am not in favor of sending combat troops to China."

MEANWHILE, CHIANG'S Suchow garrison was under orders to sally forth in an effort to save Nanking and rescue an entire army group trapped by the rampaging Communists—but gave no indication of heading the call. The fate of the frightened capital depended on the ability, or willingness, of the 250,000-man Suchow force to quit its fortress 211 miles northwest of Nanking.

While the garrison was deliberating its next move, latest battle-front dispatches said the government's 12th army group, totaling about 140,000 men, was encircled by Communists 67 miles south of Suchow and 145 miles northwest of Nanking. Little defense remained on the route to Nanking.

BERLIN: Blockade Talks Set

Hope for an early end to the Berlin blockade flared upward. Russia had accepted a new formula by the neutral nations of the U. N. Security Council for mediating the Big Four deadlock on the German capital issue.

Juan A. Bramuglia, Argentine foreign minister, announced that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky had agreed to the plan at a meeting with him. It called for the naming of a "neutral" commission of currency experts.

BASIS for the resurgence of hope that the issue could be amicably resolved was a statement by U. S. Senator Connally that he believed the Russian land blockade of Berlin "would be lifted soon."

Senator Connally told a news conference that "there is bound to be a way out" of the deadlock over Berlin. He said the argument over the circulation of Russian currency in Berlin does not justify the cost of the air lift supplying the city, and does not "relieve us of any threats of conflict." He insisted on joint control of any currency distributed in Berlin.

Red Mayor

German Communists named Fritz Ebert, son of the late President Friedrich Ebert of the Weimar republic, as mayor of Berlin at a frenetic outdoor rally before Berlin university. The "rump" city assembly, attended only by Communists, voted for the immediate resignation of the acting mayor, Ferdinand Friedensburg.

The United States, France and Britain gave approval in principle to the Bramuglia proposal. Bramuglia stated he hoped for immediate formal acceptance by the three western powers and saw a possibility for the new mediation effort to get results.

THE NEW FORMULA of the "neutrals"—China, Colombia, Syria, Canada, Argentina and Belgium—was aimed at meeting western objections to talks on the currency issue under the threat of the Soviet blockade of Berlin. It was also known to contain provisions for a commission of experts to try to unravel the Berlin currency problem in consultation with the Big Four's own experts.

The plan would recommend a complete and final lifting of the Berlin blockade at the same time the Soviet-zone mark is introduced in Berlin as the sole currency.

The four powers agreed on the use of the Soviet mark August 30, but became entangled in a dispute over when the measure should take effect and what kind of currency controls should be established.

DEFLATION: Truman on Lookout

Like the horseman who galloped off in all directions, President Truman is sprinting both to and fro in the vexatious price control rise.

Just as the administration was girding to battle mounting living costs, prices sagged and now its economic experts are debating the need to don armor against deflation. Most economic policy-makers believe inflationary forces still dominate the national scene—but some of them feel these forces are just about spent.

ONE TOP-LEVEL fiscal official declared, "inflationary pressures still outweigh the deflationary forces. But they aren't as great as they were a few months ago."

Inflationary pressures have subsided somewhat in recent weeks, but many government economists have adopted a "wait and see" policy. They want to know, first, how much President Truman will ask for "cold war" spending.

The cost of living is one of the important economic barometers indicating at least a temporary slackening of inflationary pressures. As measured by the bureau of labor statistics, living costs dropped slightly between mid-October and mid-November for the first time in seven months. And department store sales have been below their usual pre-Christmas levels.

However, economists point out that heavy spending for the armed services could quickly change the picture.

They expect President Truman's 15 billion dollar ceiling on defense spending to be boosted, and military aid for China and lend-lease arms for western European governments, they add, could swell the cost of foreign aid.

THAT KIND OF SPENDING economists point out, puts more money in circulation and reinforces inflationary pressures by bidding up the price of labor and scarce material.

The Cross Triumphant

Church Operates Underground in Russia

Millions of Christians are worshipping God in Russia despite Soviet opposition. The Rev. Kurz Szkalala, who recently visited Moscow in disguise, said that during his travels through Russia he discovered that Christians of all faiths, opposed to what he called the Moscow orthodox church, have formed a "cave church."

They are active, he said, in the western part of the Soviet union, particularly along the Don and the Dnieper rivers. He said the underground church has millions of followers, but he does not believe the time ripe to reveal details concerning the movement. Its leaders, he said, are being vigorously prosecuted by Soviet authorities.

KATHLEEN NORRIS

Greatest Mystery

Bell Syndicate.—WNU Features.
By KATHLEEN NORRIS

CHRISTMAS started as a mystery and it continues through the ages as a mystery—perhaps the world's greatest or even only mystery.

When people tell me that they really would believe in God, in that superhuman fount of goodness and fatherhood and power that guides so many lives, if they could see a miracle, I am forced to regard them as not particularly bright.

The great miracle lives. It thunders all about us. It is in your house and in mine this Christmas-tide. It is in the streets and the store windows and the faces.

It is the miracle of the life and influence of a carpenter's son who lived and died in a faraway oriental country some 2,000 years ago, a man who never wrote a word, who had no influential friends, who gave us a few rules completely opposed to common sense and human usage and who died the shameful death of a common criminal.

Yet stop the first ragged little girl you meet running along a snowy street this morning and ask her His name—and she'll know it. Pause by the old, grizzled bookseller down in the subway and put to him the same question and he'll give you a puzzled stare, coming to my conclusion mentioned above—that you're not bright.

What Makes It Different?

Not long ago I asked a particularly lucid and garrulous unbeliever how he accounted for the story of Christ. What happened that a handful of bewildered fishermen could carry that story on into the centuries? What made it different from the histories of a hundred young religious fanatics?

"Oh, I suppose," he said carelessly, "it was the miracles. The blind seeing, the dead brought to life, the loaves and the fishes."

"It takes facts..."

"But you are the one who doesn't believe in miracles!"

"Well," he said, "it takes facts to convince me."

Whereas the shattering truth is—and here is another miracle—that if the knowledge of God ever came into any heart through mere convincing facts, it couldn't be divine.

But even the facts are stupendous. Draw a ring on your map that takes in western Russia and northern Italy, Scotland and the Scandinavian countries. Insignificant against the big other spaces of sea and continent, yet in that little circle was formed what we call "Christianity."

For centuries, until our new world was opened, here was the very nucleus of all that makes our civilization today. We called it "Christian," and we put all our dealings, marriage, law, real estate, birth and death under our dedicatory promises to an eternal Father.

Christian Way of Life.

Oh, but much more than this! We planted charities—countless and inexhaustible—hospitals, almshouses, hospices, homes, free clinics and schools and libraries. We established laws that struggled to keep life fair for the unfortunate, the underprivileged, the friendless, blind, poor, sick, insane, helpless, orphaned, enslaved.

Look for any of these activities in the oriental countries. You look in vain. Beggars starve in India and China; superfluous babies are allowed to die; wounded men by the wayside evoke only smiles from passers-by; anything free in the way of food, shelter, medicine, hospitalization or generosity evokes only a puzzled contempt.

This isn't exactly a Christmas letter, though I am wishing every one who reads these lines the joy of knowing in his own heart the secret of Christ's power and His love. But the times are too serious for talk and merriment and gladness.

What I am asking you instead is to notice the shocking omission of God's name from all these international conferences we are so anxiously watching. Three years ago, in San Francisco, when the first one took place, we were told that it was because one single nation objected to our invocation that it was omitted. God's name was not mentioned in servile deference to this outrageous request and it has been omitted since. There will be no resulting peace from all these conferences until the name of God is brought back.

HEALTHIEST 4-H CLUBBERS . . . Here's a healthy looking young couple—and they really are. They're James A. Pritchett, 16, of Stone Mountain, Georgia, and Margie Meier, 15, of Hillsboro, Oregon. Both are 4-H Club enthusiasts. During the first week of this month they journeyed to Chicago to attend the 4-H Club national convention. In connection with convention activities a contest was held to determine who were the healthiest couple present. James and Marge entered and as a result they were proclaimed "healthiest boy and girl in the United States."

HE TALKED TOO MUCH . . . A German citizen is shown being led away by Berlin police, under arrest, after he was struck down, beaten, and his bicycle smashed. A group of Berliners entered the Russian zone to welcome back a delegation that had visited Russia for the Soviet anniversary. This man shouted at the delegation that they had only been shown the best things in Russia. "You didn't see the truth," he shouted, and then was struck down by angry members of the group. Police were called to quell the disturbance.

LITTER OF LONG-AND-SHORTS . . . The proud mom, a dachshund with the impressive sounding name of "Potter's Schones Gretchen," looks fondly along the line formed by her latest litter, and doubtless ponders in her canine way that a long, but low, life faces her children. The dachshunds, in case you don't know them, are those pooches that are two dogs long and one-half dog high. This batch is owned by Mrs. Alvin Potter of Toledo. It is Gretchen's third litter.

FIRST AID to the

by Roger C. Whitman

QUESTION: Is there any remedy for crumbly brick?

ANSWER: A partial remedy is to give the bricks two coats of a cement base paint, to be bought from a dealer in mason supplies. This is a powder to mix with water. This will protect the surface of the brick only; it will not harden them throughout. Very poor bricks should be replaced with a harder burned variety.

QUESTION: I intend to put in a new cement walk in the gangway, and need to know the amount of sand, gravel and cement that I will need.

ANSWER: There is much more to be said about laying a sidewalk than the proper mixture of cement, etc. For complete information on laying concrete walks as well as proportions and amount of necessary material, ask the Portland Cement association, 33 West Grand avenue, Chicago, to send you a copy of their booklet on this subject.

QUESTION: We had planned to use a creosote stain on a white cedar rustic fence, but understand that this would be injurious to the adjacent shrubbery. What type of paint would you recommend?

ANSWER: As the cedar is resistant to deterioration, it will hardly be necessary to apply any kind of finish unless you have a special reason for doing so. A liquid wood preservative that can be brushed on could be used instead of the creosote, or else a good spar varnish.

For Joyful Cough Relief, Try This Home Mixture

This splendid recipe is used by millions every year, because it makes such a dependable, effective medicine for coughs due to colds. It is so easy to mix—a child could do it.

From any drugist, get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, well-known for its soothing effect on throat and bronchial irritations.

Then make a syrup by stirring two cups of granulated sugar and one cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, instead of sugar syrup.

Put the Pinex into a pint bottle and fill up with your syrup. This gives you a full pint of cough medicine, very effective and quick-acting, and you get about four times as much for your money. It never spoils, and is very pleasant—children love it.

You'll be surprised by the way it takes hold of coughs, giving quick relief. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

Pinex Saves You Money!

Swaps Cathartics For Real Relief

"I loathed taking cathartics. Now I don't use them any more, for KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN every morning keeps me well regulated."—John Vargis, Detroit, Mich.

If your diet lacks bulk for normal elimination, this delicious cereal will supply it. Eat an ounce every day in milk—and drink plenty of water. If not satisfied after 10 days, send the empty carton to the Kellogg Co., Battle Creek, Mich., and get DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK.

IF PETER PAIN SHOOTS YOU FULL OF HEAD COLD

● Rub in Ben-Gay for gently warming, soothing, speedy relief from cold discomfort! Ben-Gay contains up to 2 1/2 times more of those famous pain-relieving ingredients known to every doctor—methyl salicylate and menthol—than five other widely offered rub-ins. Insist on genuine Ben-Gay, the original Baume Analgesique. It acts fast!

Also for Pain due to RHEUMATISM, MUSCLE ACHE, and STRAINS. Ask for Mild Ben-Gay for Children.

This Week in History

December 12 to December 18 by the Editors of the World Book Encyclopedia

Thirty-seven years ago this week on December 14, 1911, Roald Amundson, Norwegian-born explorer, reached the South Pole, the first to stand on the spot on earth from which one can look only North. Amundson had first prepared to discover the North Pole, but when he learned that Peary had beat him to it, he turned to the Antarctic, discovering the South Pole one month before the Englishman Scott. In 1928 Amundson was lost in the Arctic during an attempt to rescue the Italian Noble, who had tried to fly over the North Pole in a dirigible.

Preventing Erosion
Slowing down the speed of run-off water and dividing drainage areas so that large amounts of water do not concentrate in one place are necessary to prevent erosion on plowed land.

Iosco County Fair Officers Elected

The Iosco County Fair Association held their annual membership meeting at Hale, Tuesday evening, December 7 at the Hale Grange Hall at which over 75 people enjoyed an interesting program, Clarence L. Bolander, of the State Department of Agriculture, presented two colored movies, "Harvest Parade" and "By Land We Live." In his talk he reminded the audience of the great diversification of industries and resources that we find in Michigan. His display of articles which were made from waste materials amazed the group. He showed material as impervious as metals made from straw, fireproof wool made from sand, the finest rayon stockings made from coal, milk and plastics made from soybeans and the highest quality cloth made from skim milk. He said the resourcefulness of our scientists will tend to change our standards of production and our good earth is increasingly more important as the basis of our resources.

The new directors elected to serve in the board for three years are William Herriman and Mrs. Ralph Burt of Grant township, Andrew Matthews and Thurman Scofield of Hale. The other members of the board are Harold Clark, president, Glenwood Streeter, vice president, Harold F. Black, treasurer, Mrs. Jack McArdle, Mrs. Henry Schatz, Waldo Curry, Sr. John O. Johnson and George Prescott, III. The retiring directors are Ralph Bohl, secretary-manager; Harry VanPatten, Nelson Ostrander and Gerald Bellon. All refused re-nomination.

Dorothy West of East Tawas delighted her audience with her accordion playing and all enjoyed the duet by Mrs. Joseph Johnson and Mrs. Fox, and were accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Burt.

tangle on the local hardwood. The doors will open at 7:30 with the game getting underway at 8:00.

Not to be outdone by the Varsity the Reserves and the Girls won from their East Tawas opponents in close well played games by both sides. The Reserves winning 21 to 18, with Gingerich making nine points, Phillips two, Lansky four, and Herriman six. Clark led the Indian Reserves with eight.

The Girl's game at East Tawas Tuesday night was probably one of the hardest fought and best played games played here, with the Tawas City lassies coming out on the long end of a 23 to 9 count over their East Tawas opponents. The game started off in one to one deadlock at the end of the first quarter. In the second quarter things livened up a bit with the Tawas City girls racking up 10 points and the East Tawas Girls six. In the third quarter the Tawas City Girls came up with six points while holding the East Tawas Girls with two points. The last quarter was the same as the third with Tawas City hitting the hoops for six and East Tawas two.

Kendall led the Tawas City team with 14 points, while Montgomery followed up with nine.

Tuesday night's game with Hale has been postponed until January 11, because of Christmas holidays.

In treatment of insomnia, drugs should be withheld, if possible, as the condition tends strongly to establishment of a drug habit of more harm than sleeplessness. Fresh air, moderate exercise, and freedom from worry and from noise should be secured.

SGT. WALKER URGES MOTORISTS TO TAKE IT EASY

With Christmas just around the corner, Sergeant Frank W. Walker of the Michigan State Police, is urging motorists not to forget that the holiday season is also the period of the highest traffic rate of the year.

"Don't let death take your holiday," the December traffic safety slogan, should be borne in mind by every driver so that the gayest season of the year does not become saddened by an accident, Sergeant Walker said.

"In the winter months the accident rate per 100 million miles of travel jumps 68 per cent, while the death rate is 17 per cent higher," Walker continued. "The peak in total number of accidents is reached in December."

Sgt. Walker pointed out that last winter nearly six out of 10 fatal accidents occurred on highways that were wet, snowy or icy; eight out of ten of these accidents took place during hours of darkness, one out of eight drivers involved had his vision obscured by rain, frost, snow or ice, and nearly one out of eight vehicles had defective equipment.

High speed was not necessarily a factor in the fatal accidents, seven out of 10 occurring at speeds of not more than 35 miles an hour, but nevertheless too fast for conditions.

Pedestrians accounted for nearly one-half of the persons killed.

"We don't want to take the joy out of Christmas by citing unpleasant facts," Sergeant Walker said, "but one way to keep the joy in Christmas is by remembering that this is the season of the greatest driving hazards, and the danger is emphasized because there is considerable celebrating and more drinking. So make it a genuinely merry Christmas by being doubly vigilant and doubly careful."

LET'S MAKE IT A SAFE CHRISTMAS

Every year at this time, according to the State Fire Marshall, a plague of fires rages up and down the state. Many of these are of hazards which exist only during the holiday season. They occur in school buildings as well as homes and stores and often are the result of carelessness which would not be tolerated at any other time of the year.

We all enjoy the beauties of Christmas spirit. Yet Christmas trees without proper care are a use trees without proper care are a use represent a definite fire hazard. Fresh trees should be used, and only for a short period. When the tree arrives, an angle cut should be made at the base of the tree, at least one inch above the original cut. The tree should be kept standing in a can of water during the entire period it is in the building. This method, used with fresh trees, reduces the flammability as effectively as any fireproofing chemicals.

Trees should be kept well away from stoves, radiators, or other sources of heat. Smoking should not be permitted near the tree. The tree should be well secured against falling, by inconspicuous wires attached to the wall. It should be placed so that, standing or falling, it cannot block a doorway. Open flame candles should always be kept at a safe distance from a Christmas tree, window curtains, or burnable decorations.

Flammable decorations, such as ways represent a definite hazard. Those made from crepe paper, also a good fire extinguisher should be kept near by. In auditoriums and assembly places, these dangerous types of decorations are prohibited by law. Metal, glass, and asbestos decorations are available and are quite as attractive as those made from dangerous paper, cotton or pyroxylin. Cotton batting and paper, used for costumes, also represent a definite hazard because they ignite easily and burn with great intensity.

Christmas time in schools usually means gatherings of various types. Aisles and exits in gymnasiums and auditoriums must be unobstructed. Exits must be clearly marked and exit doors must be unlocked. The law also requires that crowds be limited to room capacity.

Sprinklers, hand hose, and fire extinguishers should be kept ready to operate. Even buckets of water widely distributed, may mean the difference between a trivial flare-up and a serious fire involving loss of life. Immediately after a type of Christmas ceremony, gift wrappers should be removed from the building.

Santa Claus handed gifts to every one and in return each one recited a Christmas poem. A very lovely pot luck dinner was served to the seventeen ladies present. Decorations were the usual Christmas trimming with lighted tree. A good time was had by all.

Value of Vegetables and Fruits

Vegetables and fruits should be included in the daily meals of every family. They are protective foods. By using them we can get many of the necessary minerals and vitamins which help to maintain good health. Actually they are better for one's health and cost less than tonics and cathartics. Since many fruits and vegetables are low in calories, they can be used generously by those who want to keep their weight under control. Vegetables and fruits make good eating. They are versatile, so they can be used in many ways. If they are varied and served properly prepared, the family will never tire of them.

At Our COUNTY BUILDING

Ninety years ago the woodman's axe felled the beautiful pines that were cut into building material by the saw mills for the first settler's homes in this county.

According to the records in the office of the Register of Deeds on October 11, 1858 the first mortgage was recorded in Iosco county. This mortgage was given by Samuel R. Hutchinson and wife and Henry C. Williams and wife of Sandusky, Ohio and Wm. S. Mills and wife of Lexington, Michigan to Moss brothers, a banking house of Sandusky, Ohio. It appears that the Hutchinsons, Williams and Mills families were in the lumbering business as they were the owners of a saw mill in Lexington, Michigan. The property covered by this mortgage is located in Burreleigh and Sherman townships.

The first deed recorded on December 7, 1858. Jeatunus Bird of Hampton, Bay County, Michigan sold to Benjamin Bird of Hampton, Bay County Michigan the following described property in Iosco County, Mich.: The Northeast Quarter of Section 29, Town 22 North, Range 7 East containing 160 acres. Also the Northwest Fractional Quarter of Section 31, Town 22 North, Range 8 East containing 2 acres. The first parcel described is now owned by Waldo Curry of the Hemlock Road. Their home is located on this land. The second parcel described is located in Tawas City. The approximate description of this property would be: Beginning at the mouth of Dead creek, thence easterly to the shore of Tawas Bay, thence southerly, along the shore to Trudell's old fish house, thence north to the mouth of dead creek. The writer was advised by Fred Whittemore that Mr. Bird's home was located near the present residence of Karl W. Bublitz. Mrs. Bird's name was Pamela and they had two sons Alden and John. Mr. Bird also owned land in Elkton, Tuscola County and Portsmouth, Bay County, Michigan. How long the Bird family resided in Ottawas Bay, now Tawas City, is not known.

They apparently came to this area for furs and fishing which was the occupation of the early settlers.

On December 10, 1948, the first deed was recored in Liber 100 of Deeds. Mr. Austin G. Forward and wife conveyed a parcel of land in Scheffler & Co addition to East Tawas to Karl W. Bublitz and wife of Tawas City. It is coincident that the party who resides on the parcel of land which was conveyed by the first deed recored in Iosco County also has the first deed recored in Liber 100 of Deeds. Before Iosco County was organized, deeds conveying property in this county were recorded in Mackinac or Saginaw counties.

In 1858 the County of Iosco consisted of two townships, AuSable and Tawas. The county records at that time were kept at the G. O. Whittemore and Co. store. This building was located on the present site of the Collie Johnson residence in Tawas City. The county officers in 1858 were: Sheriff, Charles H. Whittemore; Clerk James O. Whittemore; Treasurer, Benjamin F. Pierce; Register of Deeds, James O. Whittemore; Judge of Probate, Gideon O. Whittemore; Surveyor, Henry Daggett; The original Deed, Mortgage and Entry Books used by Mr. James O. Whittemore are in excellent condition having been rebound a few years ago. Anyone who is interested in the history of Iosco County is invited to see these books at the office of the Register of Deeds.

Notices were recently mailed by the Iosco County Sheriff to the persons, whose names were drawn for the purpose of serving on the jury for the December term of Circuit Court, which was opened at the Courthouse in Tawas City on December seventh.

The jurors were notified to be present on December eighth, the second day of the term, in accordance with the law. The first day of the term is used by the Court in setting dates for trial of cases and arranging other details for the term, also for hearing cases which do not require a great deal of time.

When a case to be tried by Jury is ready to be heard the County Clerk, who is Clerk of the Circuit Court, draws twelve names from the jury box, out of the thirty names contained in such box. In a recent article it was explained how these twelve names are obtained. These twelve people are then questioned by the Circuit Judge, regarding their qualifications to sit as Jurors in the particular case to be heard. If any juror appears to be disqualified he is replaced by another drawn by the County Clerk, and he is in turn questioned. In addition to those removed from the panel because of being disqualified, both the Plaintiff and Defendant have the right to remove jurors without giving any reason. Should any of the jurors be removed in this way, additional names are drawn by the Clerk to fill the places of those removed. Picking of the jury proceeds in this manner until a panel of twelve persons, suitable to both sides, has been selected. Should the entire thirty names be drawn without obtaining a jury of twelve, the Judge directs the sheriff to obtain additional persons as prospective jurors.

After the jury has been drawn and sworn by the Clerk for trial of the case, testimony is taken before the Court and Jury. When the testimony is completed each attorney has a specified length of time to present his arguments to the jury. Following the arguments of the attorneys, the Judge charges the Jury, presenting them in such charge with the law applicable to the case. The jury then retires to the Jury room, where it is their duty to arrive at a verdict. The Jury does not consider legal points, but determines what the testimony shows the facts in the case to be.

If the Jury finally cannot agree, they report such to the Court and are dismissed from further consideration of the case.

Throughout the entire hearing of the case, procedure is governed by the Circuit Judge, so that there shall be an effective and expeditious ascertainment of the truth, in accordance with law.

EARLY ORDERING OF FERTILIZER ADVISED

Early ordering of fertilizer is advised by county agricultural agent, Harold Clark. After you've planned next year's operations and determined the amount and kinds of fertilizer needed, it should be ordered so you have it next spring when you need it.

Fertilizer that you have on hand can be stored so it will remain in good condition. Agent Clark suggests these storage rules:

1. Store sacks of plant food only in the barn or some other dry building that has flooring off the ground.
2. If you have to use earth or cement floors, stack fertilizer bags on a crib of blocks and boards.
3. Stack the bags closely together. This will reduce the circulation of air from which the fertilizer may soak the moisture.
4. Put no more than seven or eight bags high in a stack! In high stacks the pressure of the top bags will tend to cake the fertilizer on the bottom of the pile.
5. Keep broken bags separate from the main pile. Loose fertilizer soaks up moisture.

NO ICE FOR HENS!!

If you've tried to drink a glass of frozen water, you'll know how the hens feel when they get up in the morning and find the water solid. They need plenty of water for egg production. You'll help you'll keep their water drinkable, the hens and help your income if its cheap egg production insurance.

Wooden Boxes As Toys

Wooden boxes are valuable as outdoor play equipment, and all sizes and shapes can be used. One day the child will use these boxes to make a train, and the next day they will serve for table and chairs at a tea party. There is no end to the pleasure and satisfaction children may realize from an assortment of boxes.

For the Good of Your Service . . . Adequate Telephone Rates are Essential

You want good telephone service and we want you to have good service. But to be able to continue it, another increase in telephone rates is essential.

The rate increases put into effect in October were based on conditions in a past period, and already the effect of those increases has been wiped out by rising costs.

Elsewhere in this newspaper, in accordance with the State law, legal notice of our intention to ask the Michigan Public Service Commission for a further increase and details of the proposed rates appear.

1 TELEPHONE RATES ARE UP MUCH LESS THAN MOST OTHER THINGS YOU BUY

The recent increase in Michigan Bell rates—the first in nearly a quarter of a century—plus the new one now being asked, would boost the average customer's bill only about 25% over prewar telephone rates. Most businesses have had to raise their prices not once but many times. Compared with other prices, as you can see from the chart, telephone rates will still be low.

180% over 1939. But the cost of giving you service has gone up even faster . . . 237%. Wages, for example, make up more than half of our total expenses; and our wage bill is now over four times as big as in 1939. And the return on the money people have invested in our business is down more than a third.

3 TODAY EACH NEW TELEPHONE COSTS MORE . . . AND EARNS LESS

As the chart shows, the higher cost of labor and materials makes the cost of providing the equipment needed to serve a new telephone about one-third more than in the period through 1939. But the return per telephone is down more than a third from what it was in 1939.

2 MICHIGAN BELL TAKES IN MORE . . . BUT HAS LESS LEFT

With all the telephones being put in, perhaps you've assumed that we're making a lot of money. With the recent increase in rates, our "revenue"—the money we take in—is up . . .

RETURN ON MONEY INVESTED (per Telephone) DOWN MORE THAN 1/3

4 $162,000,000 SPENT SINCE VJ DAY FOR MORE AND BETTER SERVICE . . . MILLIONS MORE NEEDED

Since the war, Michigan Bell has been carrying on one of the largest construction programs—if not the largest—in the State. It is not yet completed. Even though over 500,000 more telephones have been connected, a lot still must be done to give everyone the kind of service he wants and to provide a telephone for everyone who wants one. But to build telephone plant, of course, takes money—at today's prices, lots of money.

500,000 MORE TELEPHONES

56 NEW BUILDINGS AND ADDITIONS

MORE EQUIPMENT OF ALL TYPES

1 1/2 MILLION MORE MILES OF TELEPHONE LINES

5 MONEY FOR SERVICE IMPROVEMENT AND EXPANSION MUST COME FROM INVESTORS

This money must come largely from people all over America who have savings to invest in the telephone business. Naturally, they'll invest their money only if they're convinced it will earn a reasonable return. We compete with other businesses for this investment money. And our return is substantially below that of representative companies in other industries.

We want to continue our improvement and expansion program because it is for your good. • We can go ahead with it if investors continue to put money into our business.

ADEQUATE TELEPHONE RATES ARE NEEDED

It all boils down to this: The money to provide you with the service you want can be obtained from investors only if their return is adequate. Unfortunately, it's not. So, although we'd rather not be asking for this second rate increase, adequate rates are needed—and needed right away—to protect the future quality of your telephone service.

DO'S and DON'TS of Submitting Insect Samples

If you've ever tried to put a mashed bug back together again, you'll know the problem that sometimes faces the entomologists at Michigan State College.

When people send insects to East Lansing for identification, they are often received in such a condition that it is almost impossible to recognize them. Work recently received from the entomologists by Harold R. Clark, county agent, give some of the "do's and don'ts" for submitting insect samples.

Insects mailed in envelopes, whether alive or dead, are sure to be crushed, they say. When sent alive in boxes, they may either eat their way out or the box becomes broken and they escape. To insure good results in forwarding insects to the MSC entomology department to find out what they are and how to treat them, Agent Clark gives these directions.

1. Collect a half dozen or more of the insects to be identified.
2. Kill the insects by placing them in rubbing alcohol. Other types of alcohol may also be used.
3. Place the insects between soft tissue paper in a small box. Enough tissue to fill the box is ideal.

Notice of Application to the Michigan Public Service Commission by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company For Authority to Make Effective Certain Schedules of Rates, Rentals, and Charges

In accordance with statutory requirements, notice is hereby given that an application will be presented by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company to the Michigan Public Service Commission in the City of Lansing on the 29th day of December, 1948, for authority to make effective increased schedules of rates, rentals and charges for the furnishing of telephone service and facilities in the exchanges of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company in the State of Michigan, as set forth below. The application also will request the Commission to set a date for the hearing of the matter.

revenues now needed to assure good telephone service in the future. The authorized increases were based on the financial condition of the Company in the period beginning September 1947 and ending August 1948. The increases were not large enough to meet the steadily rising costs since the Company filed its application in 1947. The Company now asks that the Commission consider increases to meet conditions as they exist today and as they will be in the near future. To meet present needs, the Company will ask approval at once for increases in certain rates and charges as shown immediately below. Those increases would remain in effect until the Commission has had an opportunity to determine that the remaining increases shown in the following tables are reasonable and proper.

Rate increases authorized by the Commission in October were insufficient by a large margin to provide the

PROPOSED INITIAL RATE INCREASES

Pending complete consideration of all the rate changes proposed below, the following initial rate increases are proposed:

Exchange Rates

- Increase the present basic monthly rates for business main tele- phones 50c.
- Increase the present basic monthly rates for residence main tele- phones 25c.
- Increase the present basic monthly rates for private branch exchange trunk lines 75c.

- Increase the present daily guarantee for semi-public coin box service 2c.
- Increase the present monthly switching rate for service stations 25c.
- Miscellaneous Rates
Increase service connection charges the full amount as proposed below.
- Intrastate Toll Rates
Increase intrastate telephone and teletypewriter message toll rates the full amount as proposed below.

EXCHANGE RATES (Excluding Federal Tax)

For rate purposes, exchanges are grouped according to the total number of telephones that can be reached, at the rates shown below, without payment of a toll charge. In the case of present rates, there are 8 groups. The total number of telephones in service on March 31, 1947 in all exchanges and zones of the Company is the basis used generally to determine the group rates applicable for local area service and those applicable for "Extended Area Service." In the case of proposed rates, there are 7 groups. The current total number of telephones in service in all exchanges and zones of the Company is the basis used to determine the group rates applicable for local area service and those applicable for "Extended Area Service." In the majority of the Company's exchanges "Extended Area Service," which will increase the number of telephones that can be reached without payment of a toll charge, is to be furnished when facilities are available. Meantime, a lower schedule of rates is applicable in most exchanges until "Extended Area Service" is furnished. In a few exchanges, the furnishing of "Extended Area Service" will not change the rates. In a few cases, "Extended Area Service" will not be furnished. In a few other cases "Extended Area Service" already is being furnished.

PRESENT SCHEDULES OF MONTHLY EXCHANGE RATES

Group 2 rates (See note below), as shown in the following table, now are applicable in Tawas City. When "Extended Area Service" is introduced, rates would not change under the present schedule.

| GROUP | NUMBER OF TELEPHONES | BUSINESS SERVICE    |                        |                |                     |                        | RESIDENCE SERVICE |           |                     |                     |                      | BUSINESS & RESIDENCE | At All Exchanges PRIVATE BRANCH EXCHANGE TRUNK LINES: With Flat Rate Service Commercial Rates— The rate is 1 1/2 times the rate for individual business or residence lines. Cadillac

PRESENTS ITS CREATIVE MASTERPIECE...

The world's newest engine—for the world's finest car!

White Sidewall Tires available at additional cost.

No Cadillac announcement has ever been more significant than the one which appears on this page. For, this year, Cadillac presents its creative masterpiece—a wholly new V-type eight-cylinder engine—which is, beyond all doubt, the highest development yet attained in automotive power plants. * This great power plant has been twelve years in the building—for basic development work started in 1936. It has many unusual qualities which set it apart from all other creations of its kind. It is far more alert, powerful and responsive to the throttle—yet it affords an increase in gasoline economy of approximately twenty per cent. And the manner of its performance actually challenges the imagination. It is liquid smooth; it is quick and eager beyond all experience; yet the power application is so effortless that the driver is scarcely aware of the engine's existence. The car seems almost to move by automatic propulsion. * Even experienced Cadillac owners must put aside all previous conceptions of performance when they drive the 1949 Cadillac. It is a revelation—from silken start to silken stop. * There are, of course, many other advancements in addition to the history-making engine. There is new beauty in the front ensemble; there is a newly-designed, more attractive instrument panel, with all driving controls at your finger tips; and throughout the chassis and body will be found those characteristic refinements which result from Cadillac's unceasing search for perfection. * But the big Cadillac story, for 1949, is performance. It is not only the world's new standard—it is beyond the world's current conception.

Giraffe Clothes Tree
Attracts All Children

CHILDREN frequently become deeply attached to one of their playtime toys and will spend countless hours talking over imaginary trips and adventures. Because this Giraffe Clothes Tree seems to understand almost everything a child says, he quickly takes first place in the heart of every little child who sees him.

Anyone can build this delightful piece of whimsy by following the full size pattern offered below. All materials needed can be purchased at your local lumber yard at small cost. The pattern tells you what to buy and where to use each piece. No special tools, skill or decorating ability is needed. Merely trace the pattern on the wood, saw and assemble.

Step by step directions are written in language everyone can understand. To simply decorate and to insure painting the giraffe exactly as illustrated, full size outlines of the nose, eyes, mouth, etc., are printed on the pattern. These are traced on the wood and painted with the colors the pattern specifies.

Christmas Toys For Every Need

Be a careful shopper when you select Christmas toys. Just as there are different types of toys for each age level, so there are toys that serve different purposes in each age group.

There are manipulative toys, toys for physical development, balance and skill, toys for dramatic, imaginative play, toys to teach arts and handicrafts, and toys to encourage an interest in nature, science, hobbies and pets.

A child needs some of each in the form best adapted to his age level. Toys for babies should be selected primarily from the standpoint of safety. They should have no sharp edges, no loose parts small enough to be swallowed. Animals with eyes glued or pinned on, toys covered with poisonous paint or made of glass or china are taboo. The best choice is something that can be washed when it becomes soiled.

Great Royal Feasts Once Marked Yule

A modern Christmas dinner is a mere "snack" compared to the royal Yule banquets of Kings and Queens in history.

For one of Edward III's Christmas feasts 2,000 oxen were prepared. The guests ate as much as they could and the vast leftovers were distributed to anyone who happened to come along. Edward was the first English king to employ French cooks for a Christmas feast.

When Henry III spent Christmas of 1241 at Gloucester, he ordered the sheriff to buy 20 large salmon to put into pies for the Christmas dinner. Richard II feasted 10,000 people at a banquet in 1399. He kept more than 1,000 cooks, each of whom specialized in one kind of food.

Hang Stockings For Santa Claus

Why have stockings come to be a traditional receptacle for Christmas gifts?

Although historians can give no authentic answer, they point out that children's stockings are usually hung by the chimney to keep warm or dry out, so it was natural that Santa Claus should pick them as the place in which to deposit gifts.

In certain regions of France it is the shoe that is put out on Christmas Eve. Some authorities say that shoes and stockings were put near the fireplace for the same reason that an old boot was associated with a wedding—in order to bring good luck and drive away evil spirits.

Good Yule Stories By Americans

Probably the most famous American story is Kate Douglas Wiggin's "The Birds' Christmas Carol." Others worth reading are Louisa May Alcott's "Christmas at Orchard House" and Vincent Starrett's "Snow for Christmas." Christopher Morley's "The Worst Christmas Story" happens to be almost one of the best.

Yule Record Begins In Fifth Century

There is no mention of a Christian observance of December 25 as Christmas before the fifth century. There is, in fact, no record to indicate what date Jesus was born.

Various researchers have set the day as January 6, March 25, May 20, April 19 and November 17. In order to win Christian converts away from their observance of the pagan mid-winter festival, early churchmen induced them to observe the birth of Christ Jesus at that time instead. Thus December 25 came to be established as Christmas.

Real Santa Claus A Youthful Saint

The name of Santa Claus is merely slurring the Dutch San Nicholas, which is, of course, St. Nicholas. American children are probably the only ones who say it exactly that way.

Nicholas was an actual person. He was Bishop of Myra, in Lycia, Asia Minor, in the first part of the fourth century. He was also the youngest bishop in the history of the church.

From the day of his birth Nicholas revealed his piety and grace. He refused on fast days to take the natural nourishment of a child. But Nicholas was not a barefoot recluse vowed to poverty. His father was a wealthy merchant, and his riches enabled him to be a dispenser of the good things of life.

The feast of St. Nicholas was originally celebrated on December 6. Later, when church people in the late Middle Ages tried to suppress the festivities which grew up around the Boy Saint's day, his festival came to be associated with Christmas day.

Santa's Enemies

In Newark, N. J., Santa is required to pass a stiff physical examination before he can serve in a department store. And even then it is verboten for him to kiss any of the children who perch upon his knee.

In Charleston, S. C., charity Santas have been forbidden to make a pitch on public streets on the grounds that children flocking to see them may create a traffic hazard.

DEANNA DURBIN joins the list of American stars making pictures in Italy. Her film will be a musical, of course, backed by Universal-International and Scaleria Productions. The director will be Goffredo Alessandrini, who directed "Furia," an Italian picture now being shown in this country. It is reported that Miss Durbin may stay there indefinitely. Can she be contemplating an

When President Truman was in Los Angeles on his campaign tour, Dorothy Lamour, star of Columbia's "Slightly French," got his autograph for her son by reminding him that when he was Senator Truman she gave him hers for Margaret.

Fifty years ago George Bernard Shaw insisted that a young British actor be hired for one of his plays, never dreaming that one day his protegee would win an Academy Award—which Edmund Gwenn did as Santa Claus in "Miracle on 34th Street." He will recreate the role on the Christmas broadcast of the Lux Radio Theater, December 20, on CBS, with the other members of the original cast.

Edmond O'Brien is through with practical jokes. During a showing of an old horror picture in his home he painted his face green, flashed a flashlight on it and shouted "Boo!" Mary Hatcher fainted.

Bing Crosby is always willing to oblige a friend. When Al Jarvis, the disc jockey, wanted to impersonate Bing in Columbia's "Make Believe Ballroom," he phoned to ask permission. Crosby not only gave his okay but also sent Jarvis a battered hat and a brilliantly checked sports jacket, to add authenticity to the performance. Gave everything but his voice!

The second round of the match between Jack Dempsey and Luis Firpo in 1922 was used as a model for one of the prizefight sequences in RKO's "The Set-Up," starring Robert Ryan. Director Robert Wise studied more than 200 reels of professional bouts, and concluded that the second round of that one contained some of the heaviest hitting ever seen in the prize ring.

Way back in 1936, Teri Keane and Michael O'Day worked together as two of the original ten New York radio juveniles. Now they are back together again—but this time they appear as husband and wife on CBS's "Big Sister."

Three years ago Glenn Ford and his wife, Eleanor Powell, were entering a theater when a 15-year-old girl asked for his autograph. He was late, so he gave her a nickel, told her to phone him when she was 18, and he'd show her around the studio. During the filming of "Return of October" he was called to the phone by the girl. "Where are you?" asked Ford. "Just look across the set and get ready to escort Terry Moore on a tour of the studio," said Terry, who plays opposite him. "And thanks for the nickel," she added impishly.

Two-year-old Guy Mansfield, son of Arthur Godfrey's "Talent Scouts" producer, Irving, may live to regret this. Walking through Central Park with his father, he was chucked under the chin by Greta Garbo—and he turned his back on her!

ODDS AND ENDS—Barbara Whiting of CBS' "Junior Miss" is getting her hair back to its normal "Irish brown"—had it dyed for her role in the screen's "Amboy Duke." . . . Hedy Lamarr made her first technicolor test for "Lamson and Delilah," in which she plays the latter. . . . Skeets Gallagher returns to the movies after four years' absence, in Republic's "Duke of Chicago." . . . Michael Chapin, one of the kids on the Phil-Harris-Alice Faye radio program, will play the son of co-stars Martha Scott and Jeffrey Lynn in RKO's "Sam Wynne." . . . Sterling Hayden will play the lead in his first western, "El Paso," starring John Payne.

JUST

Big Program
Refreshments, a thin sandwich and two olives, had just been served at the town dance in the hill country.
"Is your program filled?" asked a local Romeo of a hillbilly belle when the dancing was resumed.
"Filled!" glared the girl. "Look here, young feller, it takes more than a skinny sandwich and two green plums to fill my program."

Tricks of the Trade
The night was dark and the hour was late as a solitary wayfarer passed along the deserted street. Suddenly three slinking figures emerged from the shadows, marked their prey, and then attacked him.
Three to one is powerful odds, but the wayfarer held his own. One by one his assailants landed with a thud on the ground, battered and bruised, their clothing torn.
A policeman hurried up and surveyed the wreckage.
"Fine work!" he said, addressing the hero, who was calmly lighting a cigarette. "Ju-jitsu!"
"No," answered the hero. "Railway porter."

You can breeze through a good part of your Christmas shopping by simplifying your gift list. It's probably a fact that a good many of your friends enjoy cigarette or pipe smoking. You can easily please these friends by ordering several cartons of mild, mellow Camels and pound tins of rich-tasting Prince Albert from a local dealer. Both these popular gifts come ready-wrapped in gay holiday dress. No other gift wrapping is necessary. There's even space for your personal greeting. Save time and energy this Christmas season by giving cool, mild Camels and mellow Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco. (Adv.)

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smarting and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder.

World's Best Golfer

IN THE midst of this weird, wild and woolly football upheaval, now reaching a magnificent anticlimax, the time seems to be ripe for a much quieter and much more sensible game known as golf.

Golf is played by a great many more people than football has ever known in any single year. It is a much sounder game for the average citizen. It is also a game that doesn't lend itself to as much bickering and vituperative conflict as football does.

Ben Hogan

Also it has a top man who stands far above any top man in football. His name is Ben Hogan, the 137-pound Texan, who today is by all odds the greatest golfer in the world.

Hogan has proved his worth, not in a few games each autumn, but in many tournaments from the Pacific to the Atlantic and back, from the massive lakes of the North to the Gulf, month after month after month. He competes against the pick of the field—not nearly so many setups as football knows—in the main.

Why is Ben Hogan the world's best golfer? We discussed this matter with Al Ciuci, veteran golf pro, star instructor and one of the ablest students of the game.

"Let's take the fellow apart," Al said. "What makes a great golfer—first, a fine swing. Second, a smart head. Third, a stout heart on the competitive side. Fourth, ability to work for the top.

"Hogan has all these things. He has one of the finest swings in golf. He has one of the best heads golf has ever known, not even barring Walter Hagen, one of the smartest of them all. You can ask Gene Sarazen and Bobby Jones what they think of his competitive ability or his willingness to outwork a horse.

"In my opinion, Ben Hogan combines more of the factors that make a great golfer than anyone I have ever seen play in the last 30 years—on back to Vardon through to Jones, Hagen and Sarazen. At 137 pounds, Ben isn't equipped physically as well as they were, but he has always been long enough—able to hit a 500-yard green with two shots."

This statement is completely true. No one can say that from 1920 to 1930 Hogan could have beaten Jones, Hagen and Sarazen. Certainly no one can say that Jones, Hagen and Sarazen could have handled Ben Hogan from 1944 through 1948.

In the matter of scoring, Hogan is well ahead of any rival. But perhaps conditions have changed.

The Last Move

"Hogan," Al Ciuci continued, "made his last and smartest move this past season. Through 1947, Ben had been bothered here and there with a hook. Not too much, but enough to get him into trouble at times. A hook can nearly always get you into more trouble than a slice. It travels farther.

"So this last season, Hogan decided to give away a few yards and play for a slight fade, rather than a hook. You can control a fade. No one can control a hook steadily. From that point on, Texas Ben became unbeatable. Now and then he would drop a tournament against a band of brilliant scorers. Someone would get unusually hot, or Ben would have a slight lapse in concentration or determination or timing.

"No one can keep at the peak physically, mentally and emotionally all the time. They'll tell you football teams can't even do this three times a season. But Hogan plays in 30 or more big tournaments.

"Hogan has marvelous use of his hands," Ciuci continued. "His left hand remains firm and strong all the way through the swing. The left hand controls the club head. But in Ben's case his right hand has one of the finest finishes I've ever seen in golf. It lashes out with terrific force, banking on the left hand and wrist to keep the club face where it belongs.

"Then watch Ben in putting. One of the biggest mistakes most putters make is letting the body or knees move through the action of the putt. Not Hogan. Ben locks his body and knees before his hands start the putter blade in motion.

"He turns over the physical action of the putt to his hands. He has already decided on the correct line and the speed of the green. These two details are all set. So, for a final move, all he has to concentrate on is the smoothness of the swing, which is rarely hurried or turned into a jab or a stab.

"More golfers should follow this method—I mean deciding in advance what the right line is—the speed of the green—and then giving their entire concentration to the smoothness of the putting stroke."

Household Hints

Keep salt, pepper, sugar bowl, salad dressing, napkins and preserves on a tray and take them to the table in one trip.

To prevent paper napkins from sliding off the lap, anchor them firmly in place with short strips of scotch tape.

If your tube of toothpaste springs a leak, apply a strip of scotch tape over the break and it will work like new. This may be applied on anything that comes in a tube.

In removing buttons from clothing, you won't snip the fabric if you slide a comb under the button and cut the thread carefully with a razor blade.

Leftover bones used in making soup, stew and other meat dishes may contribute important calcium to family meals.
