School Consolidation
Endorsed at Tawas
City Annual Meeting

Voters Adopt
5-Mill Sinking
Fund Tax Levy

Fox and Bronson
Reelected to Board
Of Education

"That our school district go on record as supporting an area school district consolidation for the purpose of creating a centralized school system," is the text of a resolution adopted Monday evening at the annual school meeting of Tawas City district and school district No. 7, fractional, Tawas township. The resolution was adopted unanimously.

The business of the meeting Monday evening included the election of two trustees and receiving the reports of the secretary and treasurer of the district.

A proposition to increase the school tax levy five mills to create a sinking fund was adopted by a vote of 27 yes and 9 no. The proposition replaces a similar five mills levy adopted five years ago, which ends this year. The levy is for creating a sinking fund for erecting new school facilities and for the improvement of existing facilities. During the past five years the levy was used to construct the new lower grade rooms now being used.

Randall Fox and Arnold Bronson were unanimously re-elected trustees at the meeting.

The resolution supporting a school district consolidation was adopted following the reading and a discussion of the report of the Tawas Area Study Committee. This report was carried on the front page of The Tawas Herald a few weeks ago. W. F. Clapp, assistant superintendent of public instruction, in a letter to Russell A. Rollin, secretary of the County Board of Education, states that the department has reviewed the report, and the general ideas in the plan are good. The department lays the matter directly in the hands of the people of the districts involved.

The action at the school meeting Monday evening indicated that the people of this district were interested in an improved school system and better facilities for teaching our young people. The people of the whole Tawas area, without doubt are of the same opinion. The only problem which remains is for the several districts involved to work out a definite workable plan for a consolidated district. The findings of the Tawas Area Study Committee provides an excellent basis for preparing such a plan of consolidation and school organization and the securing of the necessary facilities.

Plasma Centers
To be Set Up Here

Blood Collection Unit
Here in August

A five-day community blood procurement program designed to secure sufficient blood for plasma and fractions to meet the future needs of this community will be opened in Isosco County the week of August 1, under the auspices of the Isosco Chapter of the American Red Cross and county physicians.

Plasma procurement centers will be set-up in East Tawas, Oscoda and Hale, with the aid of a Michigan Department of Health plasma procurement mobile unit which will be staffed by a doctor and four nurses from the Department and local volunteers.

These centers will be open on the following dates, times and places:

East Tawas—August 1-2, Community Building, 3:00-7:00 p. m. Mrs. J. Homberg, plasma chairman.

Oscoda—August 3-4, Town Hall, 3:00-7:00 p. m. Dr. D. L. Gordon, plasma chairman.

Hale—August 5, Township Hall, 2:00-6:00 p. m. Mrs. Kenneth Salisbury, plasma chairman.

Blood collected here will be returned to our community as plasma and blood fractions. Amount received will depend wholly upon the number of donations. The Michigan Department of Health has one of the few plasma fractionating laboratories in the country and residents of Isosco County are fortunate to be able to obtain these products without charge since their cost would make purchase by many individuals almost prohibitive.

"This is your community program, it was requested by your community physicians, its success depends upon the cooperation of every healthy citizen between the ages of 18 and 60. Help safeguard the lives of your family and friends by registering now to donate a pint of blood for the benefit of you and your community. The life you save may be our own," says H. V. Patterson, Jr., chairman of the Isosco Chapter.

Warns Against
Reckless Boat
Operation

U. S. Coast Guard to Rigidly Enforce
Boat Regulations

Captain James A. Hirshfield, Commander of the Ninth (Great Lakes) Coast Guard District announced today that within the last few weeks numerous complaints have been registered with the Coast Guard against reckless and negligent motorboat operators, and advises that the Coast Guard will rigidly enforce all Pilot Rules and Motor Boat Regulations.

Owners of pleasure craft are creating an increasingly dangerous situation not only to themselves but to others by the careless and negligent manner in which they operate and allow their boats to become unseaworthy.

The following are a few specific violations that have been found:

1. Traveling at excessive rates of speed in a congested area.
2. Failure to keep to the right hand side of the channel.
3. Failure to observe restricted areas.

4. Unnecessarily holding the right-of-way in a narrow channel, when safe navigation for small vessels exists outside the dredged channel, thereby creating a dangerous or difficult situation for large, unmaneuverable, seagoing vessels.
5. Operating a pleasure craft while under the influence of liquor.

The following list depicts a few of the cases wherein lives were lost due to the unseaworthiness of pleasure craft:

1. Faulty ignition resulting in explosion or fire.
2. Lack of proper ventilation resulting in explosion.
3. Lack of general knowledge relative to upkeep of machinery on small craft.
4. Careless handling of fuel.
5. Insufficient lifesaving equipment on board.

Motorboating is practically the same as driving an automobile. There are rules and regulations that must be obeyed. Copies of these rules and regulations may be obtained by writing to the U. S. Coast Guard, Motorboat Inspection Section, 1700 B. F. Keith Building, Cleveland 15, Ohio.

The Board asked action to be taken by the Farm Bureau Services advisory board as there is general dissatisfaction with the present set up.

The general opinion of Isosco community groups favors having a county veterinarian. The details are being handled by the county agent.

Mr. Clark urged the farmers to help cut down the barrier between rural and urban communities by helping the merchants to understand his current problems and pending needs. Mr. Clark invited a delegate from the Farm Bureau to join Agricultural Advisory Council made up of delegates from every agricultural organization in the county.

The importance and significance of Farm Safety Week was stressed by Mr. Clark, who noted the variety of accidents which happen on farms.

Girl Drowns in Lake Huron

Lapeer Girl Falls
From Moving Boat

Jean Carpenter, 14 year old Lapeer girl, was drowned early Sunday afternoon in a motorboat accident near Greenbush. The body was recovered at about 5:00 o'clock.

The girl was with her uncle, Durwood Barber of Flushing, in a 12-foot motor boat on Lake Huron near her father's cottage. The girl reached over the side of the boat and fell into the lake. In attempting to rescue her, the uncle fell overboard and the motorboat continued on its course. After pulling the struggling girl for about 300 feet toward shore, Barber became so tired that he lost hold of her and she disappeared.

After a two hour search the body was located by the Coast Guard. U. S. Coast Guard, State police, Army crash boat and private planes participated in the search.

Tawas City
Gains 6-2 Win
Over Prescott

Local Team Plays
At East Tawas Diamond
This Sunday

Tawas City added another win to their season's record, with a 6 to 2 win over Prescott last Sunday at the local athletic field.

Merv Warner, on the mound for Tawas City, allowed Prescott only five hits, until the ninth when his shut-out was spoiled. In the last inning, two singles, an error and a fielder's choice that backfired gave the visitors two runs.

The game started out as a pitcher's duel, with Tawas City taking a one run lead in the fourth. They added two more in the sixth, when Don Youngs, first up, tripled, Rolin was hit by pitched ball, and singles by Wegner and Warner sent the runs across.

The locals added to their lead in the eighth, with three runs on Look's walk, Westcott was safe on an error, a single by Warner and doubles by Groff and B. Rollin.

The Tawas City Club had a total of nine hits, five of them for extra bases, triples by Warner and Youngs, and doubles by Youngs, Groff and Rollin. Warner hit safely three times and Groff and Youngs two each. McCord hit safely twice for Prescott and Fallo hit the only extra base knock for Prescott, a double in the fourth.

Tawas City will play East Tawas this Sunday, July 16, at the East Tawas Athletic Field. Why not drive over and watch these old rivals battle it out.

Two important changes were made in garbage removal service by the rules adopted at the July meeting of the common council. The city will provide only one collection each week. 2. Such containers shall be located for easy accessibility at all times.
3. The moisture content of garbage must be kept at the lowest possible minimum.
4. All garbage must be wrapped during freezing weather to prevent freezing in the container. Otherwise no attempt will be made to empty the same.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Cold War Flames Into Hot War
On Korea Front; U.N. Condemns
Invasion by Communist Forces

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

KOREA:
A Hot War

The cold war, which has caused one crisis after another in recent months, had flamed into a hot war on one front. Soviet sponsored armies of North Korea invaded South Korea, established by the United Nations with the blessing and aid of the United States.

First reports of the attack were confused. It was known, however, that the invaders advanced as much as 12 miles into South Korea by using ground forces totaling as many as 40,000 men, plus 90 tanks. An additional 10,000 men were believed ready to reinforce the invaders.

Some reports indicated the invaders had penetrated within 12 miles of Seoul, capital of South Korea, while others said the northerners had been checked almost immediately. There were reports also of amphibious landing on the east coast of South Korea.

The main attack was directed along the Uijongbu valley, for centuries the path of invaders. Maj. Gen Choi Byung Kud, chief of staff of the South Korea army, reported. Sihng Sung Mo, acting Premier and defense minister, said he had evidence that of northern tanks captured in the first attack, half of the crews were Russian. Minister Kim Yong Ju was in Tokyo when the attack was launched.

Meanwhile, the United States began the evacuation of 600 Americans from the Seoul area. They were leaving Korea by sea with U.S. air protection. The evacuation plan was completed only a week before the sneak attack.

According to American military men who have been directing the training of the South Korea army, the defenders have 95,000 men to battle the invaders. They will be handicapped, however, by the lack of an air force and tanks.

North Korea is reported to have 106 military planes, including 70 Russian Yaks and 25 Stormoviks.

FARM SUPPORTS:
Senate Approves

After a hot floor debate, the senate completed congressional action and sent to President Truman a bill to give the Commodity Credit Corporation an additional $2,000,000,000 to finance its federal farm-price-support programs. The President was expected to sign the measure.

The debate developed over a provision in the bill which would shut the door on imported foreign farm crops if they threatened to upset the domestic farm-support program.

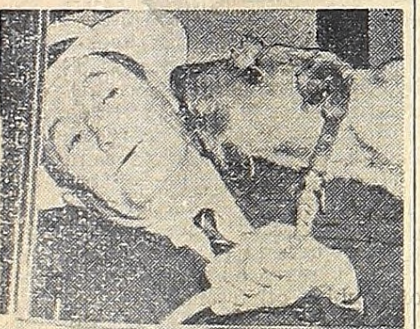

The provision was included in the bill and requires Secretary of Agriculture Brannan to demand an investigation of the tariff commission whenever he believes foreign imports are interfering with domestic farm programs.

The additional $2,000,000,000 would increase the C.C.C. total borrowing authority to $6,750,000,000. Most of the money now available to the agency is tied up in price-support loans and purchase agreements.

The measure barely got through the senate, 36 to 35 after Vice-President Barkley exercised his constitutional vote to break a 35-35 tie.

Critics of the measure said it would wreck the reciprocal-trade program, sometimes called the key-stone of the nation's foreign policy.

Retires

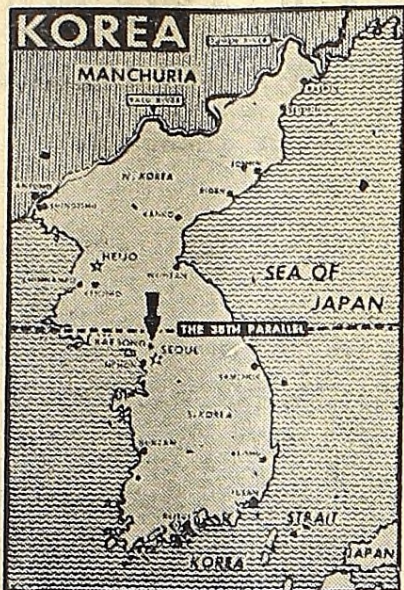

Joe McCarthy, 63, has resigned as manager of the Boston Red Sox and retired from baseball because of his health. He led the New York Yankees to seven world championships before retiring in 1946. He came out of retirement to take over the Sox. Above he gets a friendly kiss from the family pet as he arrives home.

ERICKSON:
Goes to Jail

Frank Erickson, called America's greatest bookmaker and king of a nationwide gambling business, has been sentenced to two years in jail and fined $30,000.

Erickson, could have been sentenced to one year on each of 59 counts of bookmaking. He was sentenced to one year on the bookmaking counts and one year for conspiracy.

War Scene

Troops from Communist-dominated North Korea are reported pushing their way southward following the sneak attack on U.S. backed South Korea. Four thousand troops were reported killed in the initial phase of the shooting. This map shows the 38th parallel which separates North Korea from the south.

UNITED NATIONS:
North Korea Guilty

The United Nations, in an emergency session shortly after the sneak attack by Communist dominated North Korea on South Korea, branded the north the aggressor and ordered an immediate cease-fire throughout Korea.

The Soviet Union was conspicuous by the absence of its delegates from the emergency session.

Acting swiftly and bluntly, the U.N. termed the assault an "unprovoked attack" and a "clear threat to international peace and security."

The resolution called for immediate cease-fire and implicated that the U.N. would move to take stronger measures if North Korea flouted the council.

Meanwhile, reaction in the United States was immediate and to the point. President Truman cut short a visit to Missouri and returned to Washington. A conference was called between top diplomatic and defense chiefs.

The problem they faced was a critical one. The situation demanded a clear and strong reaction since too much was at stake in terms of American prestige in the Far East.

As a result, a "critical amount" of arms aid was said to have been started to Korea immediately. It was also reported General MacArthur had been authorized to draw on stocks of equipment available in Japan rather than let Korea wait for shipments to be put together in the United States.

Many American observers saw the attack on South Korea as a Soviet test of U.S. reaction toward aggression. They did not believe, however, that the Communists are ready for any military aggression on a broad international scale.

It was recalled by many that World War II started with acts of aggression against minor powers and not from declarations of war. With this view in mind, the question arose whether the North Korea attack is an early test of physical and moral strength of the democratic nations.

The present situation calls for firmness, political-observers agree.

PLANE CRASH:
Worst in History

The worst commercial airline tragedy in the nation's history took place in Lake Michigan at St. Joseph, Mich., when a Northwest Airlines plane plunged into the lake during a severe thunderstorm with 55 passengers and three crew members aboard.

Two days after the giant craft disappeared, parts of the plane, a section of an airplane log book, and parts of two bodies were dragged from the lake.

The plane, filled to capacity, vanished on a flight from New York to Seattle by way of Minneapolis.

St. Joseph is about 110 miles southeast of Milwaukee on the eastern shore of Lake Michigan.

Teachers

The nationwide shortage of teachers and classrooms is going to get worse unless something "drastic" is done. Willard E. Givens, executive secretary of the National Education association reports.

In his annual report, Givens estimated school population in the next decade will increase almost 7,500,000, from 26,635,000 to 34,091,000. He said 750,000 more teachers will be needed.

THE PRESS:

A New Note

It has been a number of years since the press of this country has raised a united howl on any one subject. A new note was evident, however, shortly after the invasion of South Korea by Communist sponsored North Korea.

The day following the attack every leading newspaper in the United States carried editorials on the subject. It seemed a spontaneous and combined effort of the editors to focus public attention on the seriousness of the Korean situation and its possible repercussions.

In general the editors seem to agree that the United States and the United Nations must act on Korea. A few of the opinions:

New York Times: War in Korea will, in the immediate future, force upon the United States the necessity for a decisive and unequivocal policy in respect to Asia.

Portland, Ore., Journal: America has no other choice than to move necessary force to save South Korea from the rape of the Communists.

Denver Post: If this aggression is not stopped, the U.N. has but one choice. It must authorize its member nations to supply a strong force of men and arms, and must step in to stop the Korean war. If it does not do this, if it fails to respond to this desperate situation, then the U.N. is doomed to go the way of the League of Nations. If the Russians are not made to back down in this instance, we must arm to the teeth.

RELIGION:

Once in 2,000 Years

In a ceremony without precedent in the nearly 2,000 years of Catholic history, a mother witnessed the canonization of her child.

Maria Goretti, who died at 11 defending her virtue, was raised to sainthood before half a million Roman Catholic faithful.

The ceremony was unusual in many respects. Never before had there been an open-air sanctification ceremony in Rome. In a place of special honor near the Pope's throne sat the saint's 86-year-old mother. With her were two sons and two daughters. One of the sons, Angelo, lives in New Village, N. J.

The country youth who stabbed the child to death in 1902 when she would not submit to him, now 63 years old, lives in a monastery, haunted by visions of his victim. He was not at the ceremony, but was reported "in prayer more intense than ever."

The ceremony was one of the highlights of holy year. Thousands have flocked to Rome in recent months in observance of the religious celebration.

STOCK MARKET:

War Jitters

Evidently suffering a case of war jitters, the New York stock exchange experienced one of its worst slumps in a number of years shortly after the opening of the present Korean conflict.

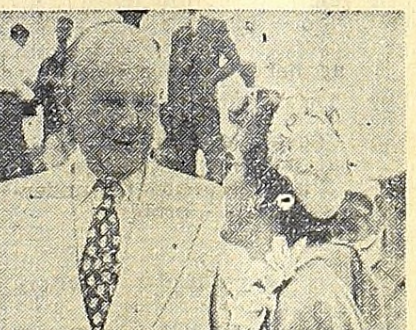

Trading involved 3,910,000 shares, the largest volume in 10 years. Some $4,000,000,000 was cut from the market value of all stocks listed on the exchange.

The trading was a clear indication of Wall street thinking. Tin and rubber, the principle Far East commodities, advanced in the spot market. The buyers also flocked to the commodity pits, sending most grains, foodstuffs and raw materials soaring.

Bonds followed stock in the plunge, rails taking the sharpest fall in more than 2½ years in one of the largest volumes traded this year.

The last big break in the market was the day after Labor Day, 1946, when approximately $4,700,000,000 was whittled from the listed market value of stocks on the exchange.

LIVING COSTS:

Take Big Jump

The cost of living is still below a year ago, but led by meat prices, the consumer's price index took an increase of eight-tenths of 1 per cent between April 15 and May 15. It was the highest jump of any month in almost two years.

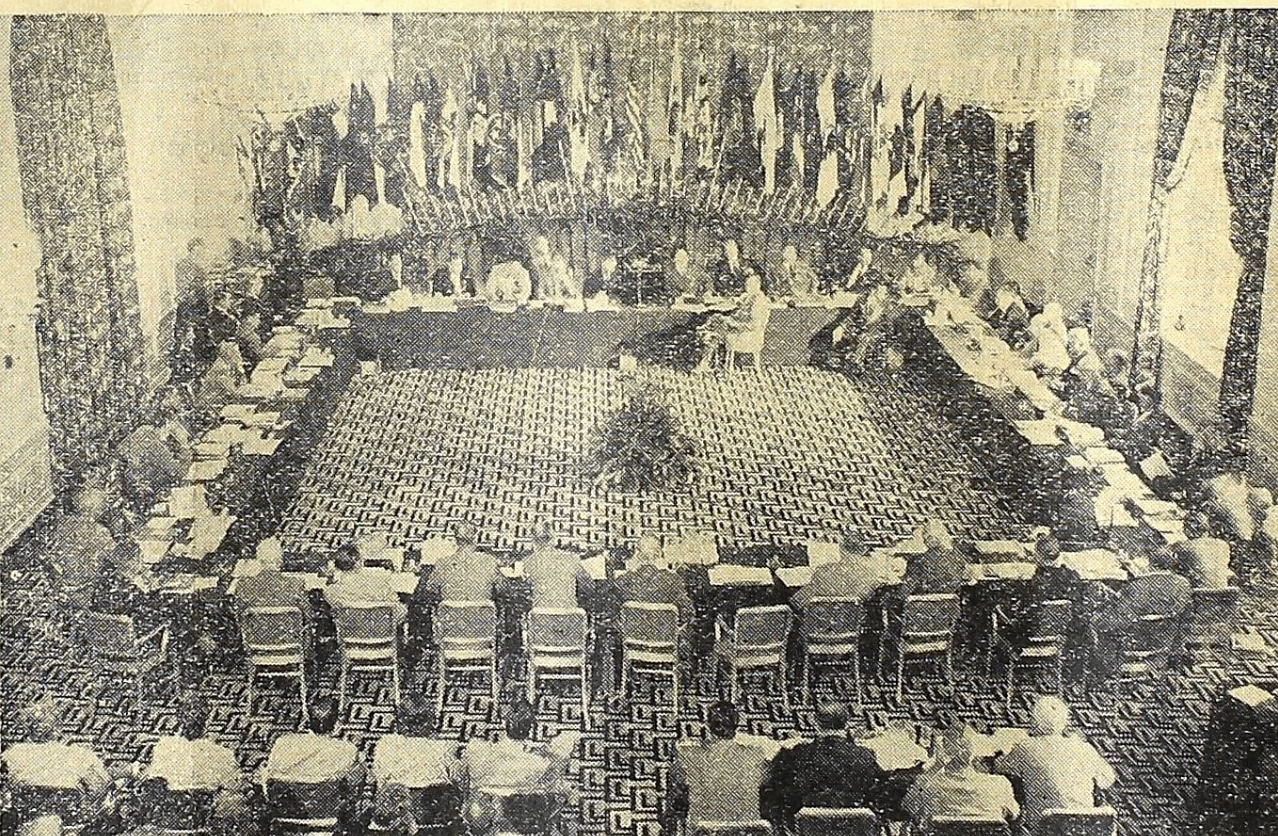

Food prices went up 1.9 per cent between April and May, and were responsible for the sudden rise in the cost of living index throughout the nation.

PRECIOUS AS GOLD . . . A mounted policeman keeps watch while a farmer delivers milk to a downtown Pittsburgh store. Milk was almost impossible to secure during the dairy workers' strike. Thousands of gallons were dumped and fed to farm animals during the strike. Housewives and youngsters watch as the milk is delivered. Rationing and special allotments supplied thousands of infants with milk during the violence marked conflict in which 68 companies were struck. The strike was called by AFL Dairy Workers union.

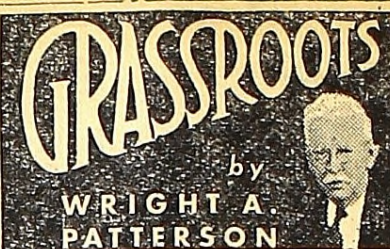

AWAITS FIFTH APPARITION OF VIRGIN MARY. . . Mrs. Mary Ann Van Hoof, 40 (center) kneels with a number of men, women and children—some with incurable diseases—at a designated spot on her farm near Necedah, Wis., awaiting what she called the "fifth apparition of the blessed Virgin Mary." She reported the Madonna had previously promised to appear at noon on the Feast of the Sacred Heart. The other four appearances have been since April, she reported.

FORTY-SECOND GOVERNORS' CONFERENCE . . . The 42nd annual governors' conference got underway at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., with talks on reorganization of state governments and water power development. The Communist issue dominated conversation outside the meeting hall. Governors James Duff of Pennsylvania and Earl Warren of California, two top-ranking Republicans among the more than 40 governors attending the conference, voiced blunt disapproval of what they termed the "blanket" accusation of Senator McCarthy of Wisconsin. Among outstanding speakers the governors heard Secretary of State Dean Acheson who submitted to a barrage of questions in reply to which he stoutly defended the state department as an honest, loyal, clean outfit.

SWIMMING GRANDMA TO TRY THE CHANNEL . . . Mrs. Betty Cohn, 50, America's swimming grandma, expects to swim the English Channel this summer. Here she is shown taking time off from strenuous training to take her two grandchildren swimming at the Palisades Park pool. The grandchildren are Michael, 6, and Zena, 3. Mrs. Cohn says she looks at the Channel attempt as "just another swim." For a tune-up she swam from Palisades Park to the Statue of Liberty, a distance of 10 miles. Channel swimming will reach a new high this summer. Besides the "swimming grandma," four-year-old Russell Tougay of Miami will make the attempt. It has been announced.

Labor's Freedom Grows

NO WORKER in industry or transportation need now be a member of a labor union in order to secure or hold a job. He can hold a union membership if he wishes, but if he does not he cannot be barred from employment because he is not a member.

That has been true on the railroads since the enactment of the railway labor act some years ago. It has been true in industry since the passage of the Taft-Hartley act.

The railway unions now have bills before congress that would, if passed, reestablish the closed shop and the check off provisions as they apply to the railroads. It is not probable that they will pass at this session, but if President Truman is successful in securing the election of a Fair Deal congress at the November elections the bills will pass at the next session opening in next January.

The unions have made a vigorous effort to ignore the closed shop provisions of the Taft-Hartley law, but without success. Management has stood firmly against the provisions of any contract that would violate the provisions of that law.

The Chicago Typographical Union was especially insistent that any contract they accepted must provide for the closed shop, but newspaper publishers fought it out, and after a year the new contract without a closed shop provision was signed.

In practically all the strike settlements management has stood pat against accepting any closed shop provision. It has insisted on a strict obedience of the Taft-Hartley law. Management accepts without an argument what the Taft-Hartley law describes as "the American shop."

That provides that all workers who wish to join a union may do so, and the union becomes the bargaining agency for all employees, for those who do not join, as well as for those who do, but no employees may be discharged because they do not join.

The one possible exception is the Chrysler company. The United Auto Workers claim their new contract with Chrysler provides for the closed shop, but Chrysler has not admitted that in the case of Ford, others of the big automobile manufacturers, and U.S. Steel, the closed shop probably will not be considered again as a part of a strike settlement argument, unless President Truman should succeed in securing the repeal of Taft-Hartley.

It all means that the workers now can join or remain out of the unions. They no longer will be forced into union membership in order to secure or hold a job, and the unions will not again place a prohibitive cost price on membership.

Under the labor laws as we now have them, the unions will continue to serve and represent the workers as they have in the past. The present laws have not weakened their effectiveness; they have not proved to be "slave laws" as union executives so loudly proclaimed them.

The labor unions have accomplished wonders for American workers, in the matter of wages, working hours and working conditions. Well do I remember the conditions in printing offices more than half a century ago. One and a half dollars for a 12-hour day, with no overtime pay, was considered good wages for printers. That is a far cry backwards from the standards of today, and the unions can be credited with the greater part of the difference.

With growing accomplishments the labor executives in many cases became arbitrary and arrogant. They would not account for the expenditures of union funds, they perpetuated themselves in office. Such things were encouraged under the Wagner act.

Now the workers are entitled to and receive an itemized statement of the purposes and amounts for which their money is expended. The executives must recognize the rights of their members. In fact the members are no longer slaves to their executives. Under the Taft-Hartley law the unions have grown in numbers, with a greater membership today than they have had at any time in the past.

Do we Americans realize the efforts our ancestors made to lay a foundation for our nation? A foundation on which to build our prosperity, our freedoms, our liberties; a foundation on which has been built 60 million good paying jobs that put into the pockets of the average American family $5,000 a year or more. Do we know the details of our past, or do we care what happens to us in the future? The children of today are taught but little of American history. We can sink and lose it all, or continue to a glorious future.

GOOD CITIZEN

American's Right to Vote Often Abused, Corrupted, Neglected

This is the second of a series of 10 articles from the booklet "Good Citizen," published by The American Heritage Foundation concerning the rights and duties of an American.

Of the nine promises of a good citizen the first is: I will vote at all elections. I will inform myself on candidates and issues and will use my greatest influence to see that honest and capable officials are elected. I will accept public office when I can serve my community or my country thereby.

The right to vote — to vote in secret and to have your votes counted — is a great right.

It is grounded in the faith that the average judgment of all of us together in the long run will be right — that "you can't fool all the people all the time." It has many flaws. It has been corrupted, abused and neglected, but by means of it the American people over more than a century and a half have done pretty well for themselves.

Through agents chosen by you and others like you all laws are made. No man, regardless of his station in life, wields more power than you in the voting booth.

You can also vote by not voting, for by staying away from the polls you can help a self-seeking minority make the wrong decision.

Don't be afraid to "lose your vote." The vote that doesn't elect a man still influences what he does.

A candidate who just squeaks through knows that you and others like you can repudiate him next time.

In this atom-splitting age you are voting on the gravest issues in the history of mankind.

WHEN YOU REACH voting age you become a member of the "ruling class"—the one and only ruling class of this country.

Use this power to vote. Vote during the big year elections, of course—and at state elections.

Vote at your party primary. Vote also for your city's mayor or village president.

Vote for members of the school board. Vote on policies and officers of your union.

Vote as a stockholder of any company you have invested in. Vote on civic improvements and bond issues.

Vote on officers of your club, your lodge, your grange. In general, all citizens over 21 years of age have the right to vote, but the various states have different laws as to how long you must live in the same place, when to register, etc. In certain states literacy tests or poll taxes are required. In no state is property ownership a requirement.

But don't consider you have done your duty merely by voting in national elections every four years. There are also congressional elections, state elections, city elections, and local elections of various kinds.

THERE ARE three ways to vote. You can vote for (1) party, (2) issues, (3) people.

If the total party program, as expressed in its platform, appeals to you as being best for the country, it is sound to vote a straight ticket for the people pledged to put that program into effect.

If a single issue seems to you more important than anything else, it is sound to vote for persons who support your view of that issue, regardless of party.

If the ability of an individual to judge each issue fairly and to keep the interests of the people uppermost appeals to you, it is sound to vote for that individual, regardless of party or any particular issue.

But even if you spent your life at it, you couldn't be fully informed on all the candidates and issues.

The answer is to do the best you can. It is better to vote on the basis of party allegiance and your own "sense of things" than not to vote at all. Your own knowledge and convictions, whatever they are, will be combined with the knowledge and convictions of a lot of other people. As a group we are usually wiser than we think we are.

THE FICTION CORNER

REPUTATION AT STAKE

By Richard H. Wilkinson

MIKE DIDN'T INTEND to be unreasonable about it. He had a reputation for fairness, and he meant to live up to it. There wasn't a person alive who didn't have faults. And knowing this to be a fact, Mike could understand why such a gorgeous creature as Serena Wood fell short of being a paragon. Not that Serena's faults were anything to worry about. If they had been Mike would never have asked her to marry him.

Serena's greatest fault, he thought, was her inability to get ready to go any place on time.

Mike adopted a unique method in order to cure this deficiency. For a time he decided to fall in with Serena's habits.

Thus, he would dispel any possible doubt in her mind regarding his purpose. Presently he would begin to get himself ready on time and sit around waiting. Serena couldn't help noticing and take heed.

During the next half year Mike noted with some satisfaction that Serena had already begun to feel his stronger personality. She was allowing herself a bit more time to get dressed for parties, and once or twice suggested to Mike that he hurry up.

By the time the six months was up, Serena had improved greatly. He decided to forego his tapering off, letting well enough alone. Three months passed and the situation had taken on quite a new aspect. Serena, unconsciously, was doing a lot of walking from one room to another switching off lights that Mike had left burning.

THINGS REACHED a point at the end of a year that called for some sort of undertaking. Oddly, it was Serena who brought matters to a head.

"I realize," she told Mike crossly, "that everyone has their faults. But it does seem to me that you could attach a little more importance to things around the house. I've done my best to make you change your ways. I've even resorted to artifice."

"Artifice?" "I mean, like telling you we have to be at a party 15 minutes before hand in the hopes that you'll get ready on time. I've deliberately gone into the bedroom to switch off the lights after you come out, hoping that you would notice. I've got out of bed and padded way to the kitchen to shut of a dripping faucet

"I didn't mean that you were weakminded or anything like that. We all have our faults.

that you've left running. I declare, Mike, you can't have a very strong personality."

"Now wait a minute, Serena. Something's wrong here. We've got to have an understanding."

"We certainly have. From now on if you leave the lights burning they stay burning and you can pay the bill. If you're late for parties I'll go on ahead and you can make your own excuses."

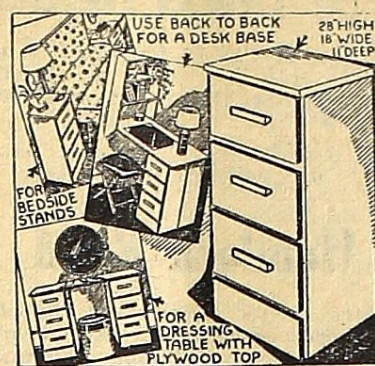

"But about this personality business. Now—"

"I didn't mean that you were weakminded or anything like that. We all have our faults. Why, even I have some, I suppose. I've tried to help you overcome yours. But from now on you'll have to shift for yourself, unless you can give me some co-operation."

"Co-operation! Why, hang it, I did those things deliberately to break you of them, and now I find myself doing them automatically—and liking it!" Mr. and Mrs. Mike Graham stared at each other. "It's my fault that you have faults and I have faults because of your faults. Oh, darling, Mike, don't you see what's happened? We made the mistake of—of thinking ourselves perfect. Let's start all over again—now that we have an understanding, and work the other way."

"O. K.," said Mike. "O. K.," He grinned, remembering he had a reputation for fairness.

BROADWAY AND MAIN STREET

Let's Show World There's Life in the Old Liberties Yet

By BILLY ROSE

Hon. Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

I see by the papers that the Freedom Fair which was scheduled to open in Washington in 1951 has been called off. I respectfully suggest that you press a few buttons and call it back on again, and with your patience and permission I'd like to tell you why.

As this lopsided eight-ball of a planet currently shapes up, about the only thing worth talking about is freedom, or the lack of it, and as you yourself have repeatedly pointed out in your speeches, our people ought to know what they're talking about when the subject comes up.

Well, what's the best way to demonstrate that there's still plenty of life in the old liberties? Fastidious facts and figures? Cliche'-studded press releases? Rah-rah-rah editorials? No, Mr. President, not in this day and age.

As I see it, the best way to stand off the sugar-coated strychnine being handed out by the kids in the Kremlin is to hand out a few lollipops of our own, and I can't think of a better place to do it than a 200-acre fairground within eyeshot of the Lincoln Memorial.

Impact-wise, what would such a shindig actually accomplish? Not much, Sir, if it were just a run-of-the-flushing-meadows type of fair. But it would do a potent plenty if it were a mammoth, hot-tem-in-all-five-senses whoopdy in which everything from spectacle to side-show were built around one simple theme: The Freer the Enterprise, the More Enterprising the Freeman.

ONCE AND FOR ALL, let's con-cretize in terms of daily living and loving how well our Joe Doakeses are doing compared with the Josef Dokezes in the Iron Curtain countries.

For example, in the exhibit area let our big auto outfits trot out their cars alongside a few Russian cars, and then let them dramatize how many man-hours of work it takes to make one—and, even more important, own one. And alongside the big General Motors building, let's have an even bigger U. A. W. building in which Walter Reuther can dramatically document how much better off his men are in terms of union contracts, working conditions and pension plans than the auto workers in the various Commiellands.

Once and for all, let's pull out all the stops and compare the homes, schools and churches with theirs. Let's exhibit an American voting booth with a curtain on the door, and next to it a Russian voting booth with an N.K.V.D. man where the curtain ought to be.

In short, let's give the Pinkos the lumps they've been asking for and make it clear as the nose on Jimmy Durante's face that there's no freedom unless everybody can exercise his taste and tonsils as he sees fit.

Let's even show them, up on the midway. Instead of the usual Chamber of Horrors, let's restage the trial of Cardinal Mindszenty, and instead of the old-hat Ubangi sideshow, let the populace take a peek at a Siberian slave labor camp.

WITH NO POMP but plenty of documented circumstance, one big lesson is a cinch to emerge from the fair I envision: That "degenerate democracy" still provides the bestest for the mostest; that our way of life has got what it takes, and it would be downright silly to let the Commies take what we've got.

Of course, Mr. President, there isn't a chance of getting such a fair on by next year, but if the right words were dropped into the right ears pronto, there's no reason why the grand opening couldn't be set for '52. And, according to my astrologist, that would be an auspicious year for a fair, seeing as how around that time a certain party will be doing its damndest to convince the voters that it has a special talent for making democracy work.

If you think well enough of this notion to get behind it, Sir, I'll be glad to pitch in and help—whether it's making policy or pink lemonade. Of course, I wouldn't do it for free. My fee would have to be the same as I'm getting as advisory director to the California World Progress Exposition which will be held in San Diego in '53—a one-pound can of good smoking tobacco.

Respectfully,
Billy Rose

Softball--

Beckett's Real Estate continued to lead the Tawas Softball league, this week when they added two more wins to their belts, the Junior Fire Department and the City Fire Department being their victims. Last Thursday night in a game which would decide the tie between Nelkie's Dairy and Beckett's, the Real Estate men kept their record intact and whipped the dairymen. The Junior Firemen beat Fletcher's Friday night, for their first win of the season, which was well deserved by the youngsters.

Wednesday night's games began the start of the second round of the league schedule. The new league has shown a lot of promise this summer, with some very good crowds at both diamonds. Bleachers have been set up at the Tawas City diamond for the comfort of the fans. Games begin at 6:30 sharp and are held every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Neil Thornton, league secretary, requests that team managers write up a summary of their games, or bring in the scorebooks so that a better account of the league games may be had in both of the local papers.

Several teams have games to make up this week in the first round schedule.

Thursday Night, July 6

The Tawas City Fire Department won over Roll-in Auto Body 7 to 2 at the Tawas City diamond. Lansky allowed Roll-in's four hits while his mates pounded out eight hits off the combined pitching of Wright and Gingerich.

Beckett's Real Estate and Nelkie's Dairy tangled at the D&M diamond last Thursday night with Beckett's coming out on top 8 to 6. The two teams were in a tie for first place, and the Nelkie team made a good showing despite their numerous errors.

Friday Night

The Junior Firemen won their first game of the season Friday night, when they won over the Fletcher All-Stars 9 to 8. The game youngsters, under the managing of Carl Libka, fought an uphill battle all the way.

Fletcher's .. 1 3 0 0 4 0 0-8
Batteries: Junior Fire Dept., Libka and K. Rollin. Fletcher's: Barnett and Horen.

The League leading Beckett's Real Estate beat the Junior Fire Department 12 to 2 at the D&M diamond.

Tuesday Night

Nelkie's Dairy dropped Roll-in Auto Body 5 to 4 Tuesday night at the D&M diamond. Roll-in's led most of the game, but missed the boat in the seventh when a double play ball was missed, with two runs scoring, sending the game into extra innings.

Nelkie's .. 0 1 0 0 2 1 1-5
Roll-in .. 0 3 0 0 1 0 0-4
Batteries: Roll-in Auto: Hill and B. Myles. Nelkie's: T. Nelkie and Katoch.

Anderson Coach defeated the Fletcher's All-Stars Tuesday night at the Tawas City diamond 9 to 2. Anderson Coach took a liking to Davenport's offerings, combined with some Fletcher misplays and didn't have too much trouble winning. Batteries: Anderson Coach Jarvis and Seymour. Fletcher's: Davenport and Horen.

Wednesday Night

The league leading Beckett's Real Estate topped the City Fire Department 14 to 8 at the Tawas City diamond. Beckett's jumped off to a four run lead in the first inning and had seven runs by the third, only to have the game tied up by the Fire Department in the third, 7-all. Beckett's cut loose with seven more runs in the last inning. Lansky led the firemen with three hits, while W. Lixey and J. Lixey each had three.

Batteries: Fire Dept. Lansky and Darling. Beckett's: J. Lixey and Phillips.

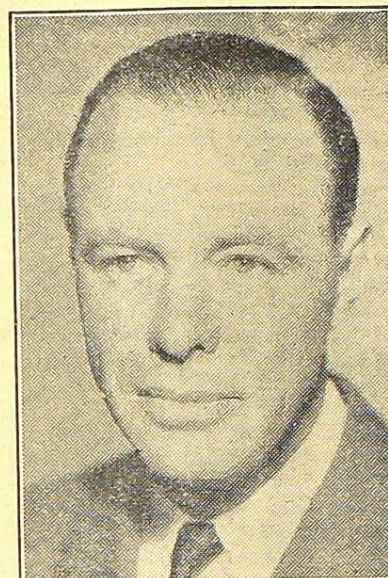

The Tawas Lutheran defeated Roll-in Auto Body 6 to 4 at the D&M diamond. It was the Lutherans all the way when they pounded out .. hits, including a home run by Burtzloff.

Povish Herd Leads Iosco D. H. I. A.

Plainfield Gurnsey Farm 2nd; Curry Herd 3rd

The Arthur Povish herd of fourteen registered Holsteins led the Iosco County Dairy Herd Improvement Association with an impressive record of 17,685 pounds of milk containing 5823 pounds of butter fat average per cow. This was revealed in the report given at the third annual DHIA meeting which was held at the Grant Town Hall, Thursday evening. His top cow "Margie" led the association with 19,590 pounds of milk and 649 pounds of butterfat. "Margie" produced over three times as much milk as the average Michigan cow.

The Plainfield Gurnsey Farm's herd was second with 10,912 pounds of milk and 449 pounds of butterfat and the Waldo Curry herd came in third with an average production per cow of 11,156 pounds of milk and 408 pounds of fat.

The twenty herds completing in 1950 had a total of 247 cows on test which averaged 9960 pounds of milk and 364 pounds of butterfat per cow. This is a substantial increase over the 1949 averages, and is an indication that Iosco dairy farmers are using their DHIA records to guide them in selecting improved dairy cattle. This increase in production means increased profits. The Arthur Povish herd showed an increase of 75 pounds of butterfat per cow over last year's record, and the herds of Tom Nelkie and the Plainfield Gurnsey Farm increased their average by 58 and 54 pounds of butter fat respectively.

Eighteen of the twenty herds averaged over 300 pounds of butterfat per cow and are as follows:

J. G. Hays, Extension Specialist in Dairying, Michigan State College was the main speaker. He stated that tested in a DHIA were the better than average farmers. They know more about their business and are generally using the improved farm management practices. Their systematic study of profits in relation to production records prompted them to adapt measures that would increase their profits. He reported the results of some of the latest studies in nutrition disease control and management.

Harold R. Clark, County Agricultural Agent complimented the members for their excellent showing in improvement since they started testing three years ago. He pointed out that higher costs and lower prices were creating a squeeze for the farmer who must now look to improved efficiency to maintain a satisfactory income. He said improved efficiency can be obtained if the dairyman will remove his low producing and unprofitable cows, breed for higher production inheritances, feed economically through improved pastures, and higher quality roughages, and through the maintenance of good herd health.

A DHIA movie was shown.

Burning Rubbish

Safety officials warn against burning rubbish in open piles. Sudden gusts of wind, they point out, often carry flaming particles to dry rooftops where many destructive fires break out. The recommended method of burning rubbish calls for the use of galvanized steel rubbish burners. These containers permit rubbish to burn rapidly inside of a safe all metal framework.

CARELESSNESS MAIN CAUSE OF FARM ACCIDENTS
Careless use of high speed farm equipment, especially at harvest time, is the main cause of farm accidents, according to Harold R.
Clark, County Agricultural Agent.
Harvesting time is the season safety must be practiced.
Putting your harvesting equipment in good condition is the first thing any farmer can do to prevent accidents, the agent points out.
Seats, controls, steps, and other features should be in good condition before the harvest rush gets underway.
In connection with Farm Safety
Week, which will be July 23
through 29, the National Safety Council recommends the following rules be followed: (1) Always stop all machinery before oiling, adjusting, or unclogging. (2) Avoid wearing sloppy or ragged clothing.
(3) Always operate tractors at a safe speed and use extra precautions on highways. (4) Small children are definitely out of place around harvesting machinery. (5)
Avoid jumping off equipment before it has come to a full stop. (6) Remember to look both ways as you approach a highway and cross with care. (7) On a highway obey the signs and rules of the road and don't forget to use headlights and tail lights at night.

Remove Fresh Stain
The fresher the stain, the easier it is to remove. How to remove it depends upon the type of stain, the color and kind of fabric, and washability of the garment. Here are some suggestions: For egg and fruit juice stains—scrape excess food off with a dull knife, then soak stain in cold water. Wash in warm suds. Hot water will set the stain if not first treated with cold water.
