Plan Campaign to Reduce Drunk Driving

A campaign to reduce drunk driving was laid out at a meeting of law enforcement officers and Isosco tavern and bar operators held Wednesday afternoon at the Holland Hotel. The meeting was called by Sheriff Ivan O'Farrell, and special emphasis was placed on the campaign during the coming holiday season.

The meeting was opened by Sheriff O'Farrell, who stated the purpose of the meeting and introduced the law enforcement officers of the area. He then introduced the two principal speakers, Kenneth J. Daniels of the Michigan Liquor Commission and James Dotsch, executive director of the Michigan Table Top. Both pointed out the liabilities and duties of tavern and bar operators in conducting their establishments.

Sheriff O'Farrell then turned the meeting over to Chief Deputy Charles Kurtzrock, who outlined the enforcement program that would be used during the campaign in this area. He pointed out that of the large number of persons placed in the county jail, a great portion of the offenses were committed while these persons were under the influence of intoxicating liquors.

In closing the meeting, Sheriff O'Farrell said that through the inspections of the department during his period of office he had found that the operators were doing a commendable job. He stressed the point regarding closing all establishments at 9 o'clock Christmas Eve and remaining closed until 7:00 a. m. December 26. He urged all operators to watch out for that final request, "Let's have one for the road" from some overly enthusiastic customer.

In the evening more than 200 Table Top members of the area and guests were in attendance at an annual banquet held at the Barnes Hotel.

Iosco-Arenac to Try Regional Library Plan

Arenac and Iosco counties have been selected by the state for a 15-month demonstration of a regional library. Iosco county has a library program, but Arenac has not had a county library since WPA days.

Many people in Arenac county have been working toward securing a county library for the past year. Monday an agreement was made by Arenac county to cooperate with the state in Michigan's first trial in a regional library.

Work will start immediately on setting up the regional demonstration. Most of the organization work will be completed during January, February and March. A one-year run of the demonstration is scheduled to begin April 1.

Much of the money to finance the demonstration comes from a $13,130 grant from the Public Library Development Funds. The state is also sending 6,000 new books into the demonstration which will stay in the region if the library is continued but must be returned to the state if Arenac does not continue at the end of a year.

A great deal of credit for securing the library demonstration for Arenac county must go to the Sterling Parent-Teacher Association which started seeking information about libraries a little over a year ago.

The area was selected because of need, the library background in Iosco county and because the state board felt there was a strong possibility of the library being continued after the year-long demonstration is completed.

Headquarters for the library will be in Tawas City with Miss Lenora Hass acting as regional librarian. Community libraries will be set up as provided by various localities and other portions of the county, including all schools, will be served by the bookmobile now owned by Iosco county. Stops will be scheduled at community and road-road stores.

The Tawas Area School basketball team started off its season with a bang, winning 65 to 44 from AuGres last Friday and 89 to 29 Tuesday from Harrisville. Both games were played at the school gymnasium.

The Tawas Area Reserves also came up with victories in their games with AuGres and Harrisville. They defeated AuGres, 43-15, and Harrisville, 43-31. Tuesday night the Area Varsity squad had an easy time of it, over-running Harrisville, 39-29. Morley went over the 30 mark with 32 points while Bird, with 22, was second, and Davidson, 11, third. High for Harrisville was Townsend with 11.

These two games were hardly a test of strength against these over-running Harrisville schools when they were in the yardstick of power will be seen Friday evening (tonight) when the Braves meet Oscoda at Oscoda.

Bible Comment:

Christmas Story Rooted in Triumph Of Jesus Christ

OUR celebration of Christmas centers chiefly, if not entirely, around the infant Jesus and the story of the birth in Bethlehem.

Christmas emphasizes the cult of home, motherhood and the child. But Christmas ought to have a deeper significance as well. It is not enough to glorify the birth of the Babe, bringing adoration like the shepherds and gifts like the Wise Men.

The true celebration of Christmas must be related to the whole life, death, and resurrection in the ministry of the Savior of Mankind.

The note of tragedy, crowned with glory and triumph, is in the story of Christmas. It began in sadness as well as joy, as Mary pondered in her heart the strange sayings and the prophecy of the sword that should pierce through her own heart.

That prophecy was fulfilled as she followed her Son to Calvary and stood by the cross, a marvelous revelation of strength, courage and devotion.

In that hour on Calvary one could see the climax of that problem of suffering, set forth so poignantly in the portrayal of the Suffering Servant in the 53rd chapter of Isaiah.

That suffering could not be in vain, but could be a part of the divine plan of blessing and redemption, was the message of that chapter, confirmed and fulfilled in the suffering and triumph of the Christ.

Whether or not the portrayal referred to some earlier Suffering Servant, or to the suffering remnants of Israel, or directly to the coming Christ, the fulfillment in the life, death and resurrection of the Master is none the less real.

Even in the dark hour as the cross awaited Him, Jesus could say to the disciples, "Be of good cheer, I have overcome the world."

So, let our Christmas celebration be one of joy and beauty, of rejoicing in the glorious birth, of the sanctity of love and home and children—of the Christ who took them up in His arms and blessed them!

But let it be also a celebration of victory and triumph, the Christmas of a Christ who died that we, and all men, might live.

And Away We Go . . .

It has a quieting effect on uterine contractions — pain often cause "terrible" pain!

Great Lakes License Coming?
Despite adverse pressure from the resort industry, a fishing license for Great Lakes waters seems to be on the way. Sports clubs are looking at potential revenue from this source for fisheries investigation in the big lakes now coming out of inland lakes license money — which doesn't add up! The Governor is well supplied with reasons for the license — and it's due for serious consideration this coming session.

Revival of Wild Turkey Shoot?
In the good old days wild turkeys gobbled their way thru Michigan woods furnishing good sport and better meat for the hunter. Now there's a suggestion on the Governor's desk urging our Conservation Department's game division to re-establish the wild turkey. A few sportsmen's clubs are more than mildly interested; they're planning to start a wild turkey farm of their own, planting the resulting stock in suitable areas.

"LET'S CHANGE THE LAW!"
A recent meeting between Governor G. Mennen Williams and representatives of southern Michigan Sportsmen's Clubs brought forth some interesting suggestions for changes in our fish and game regulations — changes that were designed to better fit today's conditions.
"Maybe Michigan's climate is getting warmer as time goes by," said one representative. "At least, for the last couple of years a good many warm days early in the deer season have caused serious meat spoilage for the hunter whose venison is left hanging in camp. So how about a deer season that starts with Thanksgiving week end and runs the normal two weeks from that time?"
It's true — a lot of venison did spoil this year, and somewhat less in 1952. So here's an idea that might appeal to lots of hunters!

First Atlantic Telephone Cable System Planned

The Long Lines Department of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company this week announced plans to construct the first telephone cable system across the Atlantic Ocean.

The announcement stated that an agreement had been signed for the construction of the cable by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, the British Post Office which organization provides telephone service in Great Britain, and the Canadian Overseas Telecommunication Corporation, which furnishes overseas communications for Canada. It will be owned jointly by these three organizations.

To take three years to complete at a cost of $35,000,000, this cable will provide physical telephone connection between the United States and the British Isles to supplement radio circuits now in use, and will have three times present circuit capacity.

Meat-Stuffed Potatoes Make a Lusty Dish

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

NO matter what the season, meat and potatoes are still the basis of most good meals. With potatoes now so plentiful and a wide variety of canned meats available, meal planning is much easier.

We've tried the following recipes at our home. Everyone, including the two boys with lusty appetites, voted them "big time."

Meat-Stuffed Potatoes (4 servings)

Four large baked potatoes, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 to 2 cans deviled ham or potted meat, ¼ cup milk, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley.

As soon as potatoes are baked, cut slice from top of each. Scoop out potato; do not break skin. Mash potatoes with butter; stir in deviled ham or potted meat and milk; beat until light and fluffy. Stir in parsley. Add salt to taste. Pile into shells. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) until lightly browned.

Vienna Sausage Dinner (4 servings)

Four and one half tablespoons dry skim milk, 1½ cups water, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 4 tablespoons flour, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1½ pounds small white onions, cooked, 2 cans Vienna sausage.

Sprinkle dry skim milk on top of water. Beat slowly with rotary beater until dissolved; reserve. Melt butter. Add flour, salt and pepper; stir to a smooth paste. Add reserved liquid and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Add onions; heat. Heat Vienna sausage in own liquid. Turn creamed onions into serving dish; top with Vienna sausage.

Luncheon Meat—Sweet Potato Puff (4 servings)

Two pounds sweet potatoes, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 tablespoons unsulphured molasses, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¼ cup raisins, 1 can luncheon meat, 1 orange (peeled and sliced), 1 tablespoon brown sugar.

Cook potatoes in boiling water until tender. Drain and peel. Mash potatoes. Add butter, molasses and salt; beat until light and Cut luncheon meat into 6 slices; arrange meat on top of potatoes with halved orange slices. Sprinkle meat with brown sugar. Bake in a moderate oven, 375 degrees F., 20 minutes.

Construction Starts on Northern Michigan's New Television Station

Construction of northeastern Michigan's first very high frequency television station was begun this week with the laying of the foundations for the tower and transmitter buildings of WJEN-TV soon to be telecasting on Channel 5. The tower and transmitter buildings will be located between Bay City and Saginaw, on Becker Road, just west of Portsmouth Road.

Officials of the North Eastern Michigan Corporation, operators of the Channel 5 television station, announced that much of the equipment has already been received.

Erection of the tower was expected to begin Thursday, December 10. The tower and antenna will range more than 500 feet in height, making it the tallest structure in northeastern Michigan.

A target date has not yet been officially announced although corporation officials say that all possible speed will be maintained and the station, barring extraordinary weather conditions, will be on the air very soon.

Channel 5, since it a VHF station, will be received on all television sets without the necessity of a converter.

One of the principal owners and promoters of Station WJEN-TV is Milton Greenbaum, who has his summer home on Lake Street in this city.

EXTENSION SERVICE—FARM NOTES

Calendar:
December 11—Conference Room, Federal Building, East Tawas.
December 14—Wilber Township Hall.
December 15—Grant Township Hall.
December 16—Reno Township Hall.
December 17—Plainfield Community Building.
December 18—Whittemore Grange Hall.

Last week your attention was directed to the fact that ASC (Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee) is the Department of Agriculture's new name for the committee that directs the work of the ACP. Also that a first change in its administrative plan is that farmers wishing to participate in the agricultural conservation practices offered by this program in Isosco county must present their own request to do so. No one will call at your farm to help you sign up.

The schedule of meetings listed above has been arranged to make a convenient time and place for you to go, make your requests, and sign up for those practices that apply to your business.

Dornace Bellville, ASC chairman, and Mrs. Mary Byrd, county office manager, explain that this part of the program is to be completed by January 1, be sure to attend some one of the meetings.

A third difference in the program as reorganized has to do with a closer cooperation between all USDA agencies serving agricultural people and interest. We think this a worthwhile effort in improving our services to you, and believe you will agree.

Already representatives of Isosco USDA agencies have met with local ASC (formerly PMA) committeemen to select and plan the agricultural conservation practices that will best serve Isosco county farms, and to arrange for the series of sign-up meetings.

At the meetings December 11 to 18 one or more of the other Isosco county USDA agency representatives will be working with ASC chairman, Dornace Bellville. This opportunity for all of us to become better acquainted and more familiar with Isosco farming practices and needs will help all of us.

Remember the meeting dates. Each is an afternoon meeting, beginning at 1 o'clock.

One of our readers reminds us that farmers wishing to secure a copy of the new manual about bulls that have been proved by records of milk and butterfat production from at least five of their daughters may do so by contacting Harry Lichfeld, ABA inseminator at Prescott, as well as Thomas Nelkie, the inseminator in this area, or your Extension Service office.

"Our present information is enough to control Bang's Disease if we will do what it is known can be done," stated Dr. Glen Read, Michigan State College extension specialist in animal pathology, to the 56 Isosco county livestock producers attending meetings in Wilber and Reno Township Halls last week.

Bang's Disease causes losses of $100,000,000 a year in the United States. One-half this loss is due to the 22 percent production drop, the other half to calf crop losses, and loss of infected animals. To these losses must also be added the cases of undulant fever which humans contract.

Blood testing in 1948 and ring tests in 1952 and 1953 indicate that about one in each 10 Isosco county herds is infected with Bang's Disease, and that the problem is increasing rather than decreasing.

What is the control program which will work? (1) Isolate and eliminate the reservoirs of infection, (2) set up a vaccination program, (3) raise own replacements, (4) more frequent testing, (5) aim for a clean herd in a clean community.

Such a program can succeed if livestock producers: (1) study their problem, (2) gather the facts, (3) share opinions and suggestions, (4) decide upon a course of action, (5) carry it out.

The Isosco County Agricultural Extension Council will sponsor an opportunity for representatives of Farm Bureau, Grange, board of supervisors, adult agricultural classes, 4-H Club livestock project members and local veterinarians to get together for consideration of the Bang's Disease problem and development of a program to control it.

A meeting date for that purpose was set for Monday, January 4, by members of the agricultural extension council in their short meeting with Dr. Reed and Dr. Ronald Humrick, house following the discussions last week. Council members present were: Thomas Nelkie, president; Warren Britt, Charles Kobs, Harold Black and Joseph Barnes. Further details will be announced later.

'SNO SNOW—Little Kathy Roche of New York City demonstrates how she is going to have plenty of "clean" fun trimming the Christmas tree with soap suds "snow" and "icicles." With Iosco 4-H Clubs

By DOROTHY SCOTT

We have had questions about the community 4-H Club corn project which has been a part of the Taft Junior Farmers 1953 4-H Club program.

It has been an experimental idea for conducting a 4-H Club project, and one which the co-operators rate as quite successful as you will see. Other 4-H Clubs might wish to try a similar one.

Much credit is due the young people, leaders and parents, and we say, "Congratulations for a project well one."

That all of our 4-H Club column readers may know what the community 4-H Club project was and what it has accomplished, we asked for a story. The 4-H Club selected their community leader, Norman Sibley, to write it. The story is so interesting that we want to share it with all of you this week.

There are grateful and happy hearts in the Taft Junior Farmers 4-H Club. Grateful to the hybrid seed corn dealers and other interested folks who have helped them harvest their first Community 4-H Club crop. It has supplied some cash for the crops project boys and funds for their treasury so that they have hopes of starting their first 4-H Club bank account.

Despite the poor early cropping season and some other difficulties, the six one-half acre plots of hybrid seed corn matured well. There was some variation in crop yields because the soil was not uniform. Some plots had wet areas, two plots were two rows smaller in size, different fertilizers were used, and some of the boys took better care of their projects by hoeing and cultivation than others. It was not felt that this cooperative corn project could be any test as to the quality or productivity of the different varieties of hybrid seed corn used because a single year would supply no conclusive records under so many varied conditions. Such conclusions would require a number of years with rotated plots. However there was an interesting study for anyone who wished to stop and go through the plots. They could note the difference in corn size, variations in ear positions and number to stalk, color or corn where the crop had been kept clean as compared to that where it had not, and the better ear formation where freedom from grass had permitted fuller utilization of the commercial fertilizers. The half-acre plot yields varied from a high of 38 baskets to low of 23 baskets.

"We would like to mention again the names of the dealers who furnished the hybrid seed corn and commercial fertilizers for the six plots:

- Elmer Britt, Turner—KeKalb.
- A. W. Miller, Paragon Mills, Whittemore—Manteys.
- Charles Harsch, Whittemore—Kings Cross.
- Jesse J. Sibley, Whittemore—Funks.
- Wayne Soper, Prescott—King-Row.
- Frank Smith, Whittemore—Jacques.

"These boys drew lots for their plot numbers and variety of hybrid seed corn: Vernon Smith, David Smith, Oliver Peters, James Smith, Franklin Smith and Robert Waters.

"These six boys shared their plot income with their 4-H Club treasury on a 50-50 basis.

"The total yield for the six plot project was 189 baskets, which were sold at 50 cents per basket. The boys and the 4-H Club would each receive $47.25. The 4-H Club is in receipt of $37.50, to date, for its treasury.

"Probably one of the greatest virtues we can possess is generosity, a feeling or desire to help other people. It surely is one which acquires for us many friends and consequently a large part of our happiness. Cooperation might be an equally important virtue throughout our whole lives, whether we live in the city or the country, and regardless of our occupation we must continually work with other people in our homes and in our communities. Here we need friends and make friends if we learn to cooperate with other people.

"If we can, encourage these characteristics in our young people.

"The Taft Junior Farmers Community 4-H Club corn project has been a means toward that end for the cooperating corn dealers, parents, leaders and the 4-H boys and girls themselves.

"The corn dealers' generosity in helping these young people is certainly recognized and highly appreciated by everyone.

"Earl Daugharty is to be commended for his generosity in contributing so unstintingly of his land and time, having fenced the plot and helped plow and fit it.

"Willard Williams, the project leader, is also to be commended for his generosity in giving of his time and work on this project, patiently.

"And I want to commend George Waters and Marshall Smith as parents with a sincere and helping interest in the project. George Waters picked the corn for the boys, with Willard Williams on hand to oversee the job.

"We shall remember The Tawas Herald's kind assistance and contribution of printed posters, and covering the project in the paper.

"Having worked with these people, I know that they know the meaning of cooperation. They have made no complaint about having to give more than their share of time and effort, setting a fine example for our young people.

"The boys and girls in their 4-H Club project, like their elders, have found a great satisfaction in sharing their work and in activities with other 4-H Club members. They will live richer and fuller lives because of it.

"All in all, we feel that the Taft Junior Farmers 4-H Club Community Corn Project was a great success and is a kind of a project worthy of consideration by other 4-H Clubs in the future." Norman O. Sibley, community leader.

Today's local delivered price of the BUICK SPECIAL

2-Door, 6-Passenger Sedan
Model 48D (illustrated)

$2223.88

Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities due to shipping charges. All prices subject to change without notice.

WE feature the delivered price of the Buick pictured here to make a point about the big trade-in allowances we're giving today.

The price you pay for the car itself—the local delivered price—is the first thing to look for when you're bargain-hunting.

It's this figure less what you get on your trade-in that determines your real cost—the dollar difference you pay.

That means—keep your eye on the dollar difference. The more car it buys, the better deal you make.

So with our low delivered price and the high trade-in allowances we're giving right now—we think we have a whale of a buy for you.

And when you check into things, we believe you'll discover this:

You get more room and power for your money in this Buick than in any other car on the market.

You get hundreds of pounds more automobile here—more strength in the brawnier frame, more durability in the heavier chassis, more safety in the thicker structural members—than in a long list of cars at this Buick's price or higher.

You also get a lot more in a Buick that the specifications don't show—more fun, more thrill, more comfort, more pride and pleasure.

But why waste another day—with time growing shorter, winter coming closer, and your present car getting older? If you're looking for a real automobile at a real buy in a real deal—come look at Buick right now.

G.I. INGENUITY—Proving that even in Korea the American soldier refuses to compromise with comfort, Pfc. George P. Zibell of Albany, N. Y., relaxes in his tent and demonstrates his "state-side smoking stand." Zibell nailed to a stick a sand-filled, gallon-sized jelly can; a candle holder and ash tray modeled from a sweet potato can, a tomato can full of water and a pack of cigarettes. Says Zibell, "My apparatus is not only a comfortable, attractive piece of furniture, but it also includes safety features."

Scientist Tells How to Keep Weight Down

Dr. Fredrick J. Stere, a research scientist from the Harvard School of Public Health, says that one way to keep from being overweight is to be a nibbler. Nibblers are likely to have an easier time keeping their weight down than those who refrain from eating between meals, according to Stere.
 One suggestion put forth by research scientist for those who are losing the battle of the waistline, is to eat candy—a piece of candy before dinner, that is. This, according to the theory, cuts down the appetite and will probably prevent your eating that piece of pie for dessert which contains about 300 calories, compared to the candy's 100 calories.
 Of course, there must be some discipline in one's nibbling. First of all, the individual must learn the caloric count of the food being nibbled, else he may wind up even worse off than before in trying the nibbling experiment.

On the other hand, experiments show those who eat a breakfast of cereal, bacon and eggs, with their high protein contents seldom eat big lunches and therefore come out better in the long run. This is the advice we have been waiting for many years and we intend to demand a serving of dessert before each meal, hereafter. If this system does not work and we suspect it won't, and we continue, desisting desserts after meals as well as before, we will confine our opinion that we are the exception to the rule.

Auxiliary Make Christmas Plans

The American Legion Auxiliary met on Monday evening at the Legion Hall. Plans were made for Christmas work. The unit voted to purchase gifts for the Bluebirds sponsored by the Legion to the children at Otter Lake, and a gift of money toward gifts for children of the community and to remember the shut-ins.

Mrs. Mary Anshuetz was elected secretary in place of Mrs. Junita Bartlett, who has moved away. Miss Helen Apollinis appointed child welfare chairman.

Refreshments were served by Mildred Gardner, Carrie Swales and Martha Klinger. Table decorations were a noisettia centerpiece and red candles.

Gives Tips on Picking Christmas Tree

Want to know how to pick your Christmas tree? Here are some tips from the Department of Agriculture.
 The most important thing in buying a tree is freshness, the department said. If the needles are turning brown, the tree has already dried out, making it not only unattractive but also a fire hazard.
 To keep it fresh, the department advised sawing off the butt end at least one inch above the original cut and standing the tree in a container of water as soon as possible. Since the tree absorbs the water, the container should be refilled daily.
 Other points to watch in the selection of a tree are whether it has a filled-in end, symmetrical shape with strong limbs for holding ornaments.
 Non-prickly foliage with good color is another factor to be considered in the selection.

"Monthly Pains" stopped or amazingly relieved in 3 out of 4 cases in doctors' tests

Chances are you're putting up — unnecessarily — with the functionally caused pains, cramps and weak, "no good" feelings of menstruation.
 For, in actual tests by doctors, Lydia Pinkham's Compound brought complete relief from such distress in 3 out of 4 of the cases!

Lydia Pinkham's is modern in its action!
 So get Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound — or new, improved Tablets with added iron. See if — taken through the month — it doesn't give relief from those backaches, jitters — help you feel better before and during your period!

Or — if you suffer from functional "hot flashes" of "change of life," find out how wonderful Pinkham's is for that, too!

It has a quieting effect on uterine contractions that often cause "terrible" pain!

Hand-Crocheted Organzas Enhance Your Wardrobe

BY EDNA MILES

THE best you can afford to buy is still a good rule of thumb when you're out shopping for clothes.

The dress or suit that's a sound investment will serve you season after season, long after the so-called bargains have vanished from your closet.

For any special, late-day or evening occasion, or for small, informal weddings, there's a gossamer hand-crocheted organza that looks fragile but is actually sturdy.

It packs beautifully and takes seasons of hard wear without showing signs of use.

This hand-crocheted organza is a favorite of designer Ann Fleischner, who often uses it in medallions of two sizes to create a cobwebby look in a dress.

These organzas are made over net, usually a matching net to lend a one-color look to the dress. Some of the blacks and browns, however, have slips in pink, orchid or even red.

Tiny medallions appear in lacy dresses that are in tones of maple, sugar, taupe or cocoa. Beige organza looks young in a dress with high neckline, scalloped Johnny collar and short, turned-back sleeves.

For the informal wedding, there are hand-crocheted dresses in white that can be worn many seasons after the wedding.

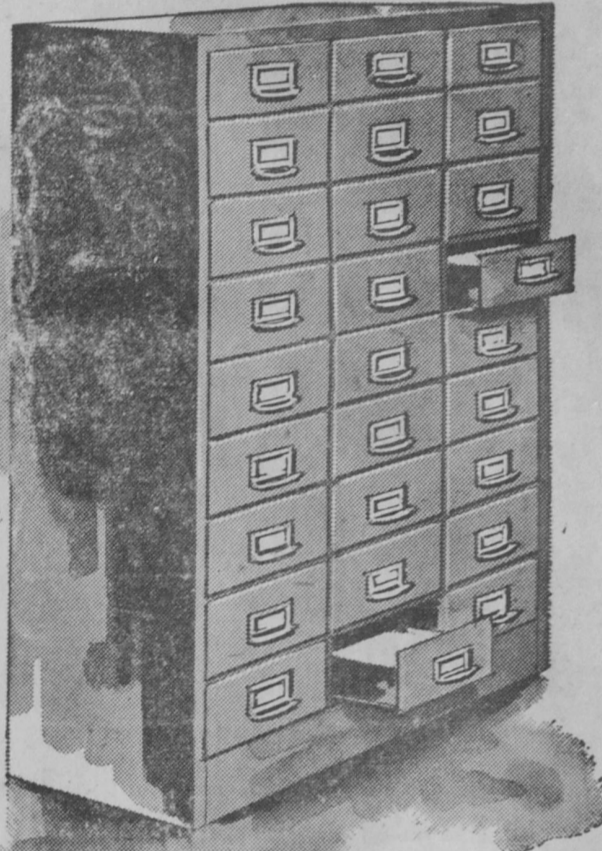

This cobwebby, hand-crocheted organza dress has various-sized medallions, flaring skirt and scalloped neckline.

American Railroads Will Carry Quarter Billion Gift Parcels Daily

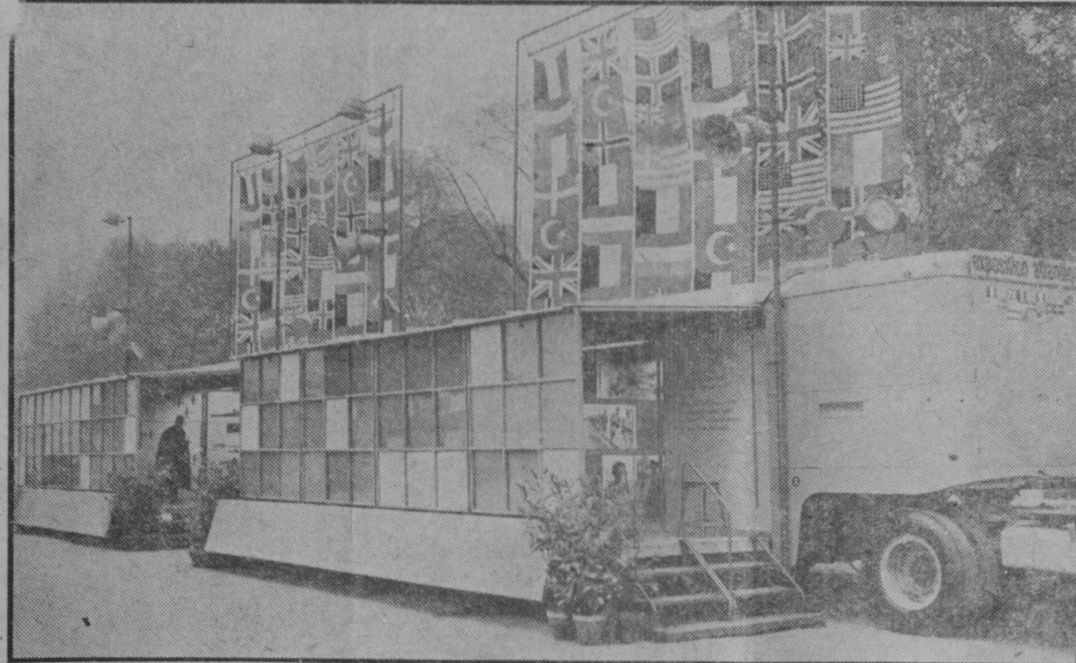

The nation's railroads beginning December 1 will carry a mail load that is expected to average nearly a quarter of a billion gift parcels and greeting cards every day up to Christmas, according to the Michigan Railroads Association.

The association estimate that during the 24-day pre-Christmas period, inter-city mail, the great bulk of which is transported by railroad, will aggregate about 5,796,000,000 pieces, filling 56,823,500 mail sacks or three percent over the 1952 holiday season.

This is equivalent to delivering an average of one gift package or greeting card each day from December 1 until Christmas to every person in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

To move such a tremendous volume of holiday mail, the American railroads must provide 3,760,162 square feet of mail car space, equal to 62,669 standard size mail cars that would make up in excess of 5,200 solid mail trains of 12 cars each. To accomplish this the railroads expect to press extra cars into service.

EAST TAWAS

Expect Record Year in Winter Activities

The winter resort operators of eastern and central Michigan are in high gear for what is expected to be their biggest winter sports season," according to Frank Davis, secretary-manager of the East Michigan Tourist Association at Bay City. The increased volume of early retail sales of winter sports equipment during the past few weeks backs up this contention, he said. He also pointed to the unusually successful fall tourist season as another indication.

According to Cliff Abbs of West Branch, president of the East Michigan Winter Sports Council, a committee of the association, the most rapidly growing winter sport is skiing, although it is still exceeded by the number of ice fishermen. His organization this year is planning a $7,500 promotional campaign to increase winter patronage.

Organized skiing is offered in 11 areas:

Snowsnake Mountain, located between Clare and Harrison, has three improved rope tows and five slopes for the skier.

Graying, Michigan's pioneer in winter sports, has several fine slopes and four rope tows, plus one of the most complete winter sports parks in the Midwest, including a three course steel sided toboggan run.

One of the newest parks is Griswold Mountain, one mile north of Indian River in Cheboygan county. They have several fine slopes and two tows.

Sheridan Valley Ski Park near Lewiston has some of the highest hills in Michigan with three broad slopes and two mechanical rope tows.

The AuSable Ski Bowl, nine miles west of Oscoda, is a relatively new ski area offering 11 slopes and three mechanical rope tows.

One of the largest ski areas is Snow Valley, located on the west shore of Otsego Lake near Gaylord. This park has 20 slopes and eight electrical rope tows. The club room has been expanded to seat 300 additional skiers.

Al and Stevie's Ski Village, 19 miles south of Gaylord, offers day and night skiing, four ropes served by five rope tows.

Skyline, located at the junction of US-27 and M-18, 10 miles north of Roscommon, offers four fine ski slopes and five rope tows. Modern facilities have been added this year to the club house. A new beginners rope, a quarter of a mile long, is another new feature.

Rate Hearing Adjourned to January 11

Hearings in the Michigan Bell Telephone Company rate case are in recess until January 11, at which time the company will cross examine witnesses for the staff of the Public Service Commission and the City of Detroit. Dr. Lionel W. Thatcher of the University of Wisconsin and Grover C. Wirick of the commission staff, testified that cost of capital to Michigan Bell would be from 6 to 6.35 percent if the company raised its debt to 40 or 45 percent of its capital structure. Less than 25 percent of Michigan Bell's capital is now debt. The company has contended that the cost of money is at least 7 1/2 percent, based on a capital structure of one-third debt.

Dr. Thatcher, also testifying on inflation, predicted a retreat from the current high-price level.

Robert J. Demorest, commission staff accountant, agreed the company's return for the year ending last September was only 6.6 percent, even with an assumed theoretical tax savings of $1,300,000 which he said would result if Michigan Bell's debt was raised to 45 percent.

HDA NOTES

By DOROTHY SCOTT
It always helps a little to better appreciate a picture when we know something about what the painter was thinking. The picture on the 1953 Christmas Seal of the National Tuberculosis Association was designed by Elmer Jacobs of Chicago.

Mr. Jacobs says he wanted the seal to express "faith, purity, love and all things that should be foremost in our thoughts, particularly during the Christmas season." All these things are symbolized by a small child, and what child doesn't like to sing Christmas carols?

For years and years we have made square cakes as well as round ones, but who ever makes a square pie?

Chances are you will, if you are a freezer owner, for oblong pie pans are now on the market. They have the same capacity as a regular round nine inch freezer. The pan comes marked off so that six even pieces may be cut. It can be used for other refrigerator deserts and frozen salads, too. A Christmas gift idea for someone, maybe?

This year let us be especially careful in our selection of Christmas gift merchandise and avoid the extra trouble involved by returning it to the store for exchange. Have you ever thought about how much may be added to the price of goods to make possible this special service of returning for exchange?

When you shop, know the right size, don't guess. Get the right color, bring samples of colors you wish to match with you.

Check for soiled spots, torn stitching and damaged places before you buy. Look for tags, labels and instructions for care. Do not buy an unsatisfactory style because you are rushed or because there is a crowd. Shop before noon, there are fewer people in the stores and on the streets.

On purchase gifts that have no size complication. One such is a book. A young library visitor commented to the librarian, "You know what?—The books I get for Christmas make Christmas last all year." What more could the giver ask? And have you considered the book, "The Magic of Christmas." It is the delightful story of author Mary Ellen Chase's own childhood.

Of course, the holiday poultry will be roasted—with stuffing! What stuffing? When and how will the stuffing be done? Are there dangers of food poisoning from stuffing poultry well ahead of roasting time? What temperature must be reached in the center of stuffed poultry to be sure all common food poisoning bacteria will be destroyed? What method of testing will indicate to us when the right doneness is reached? Because bread stuffings have been "suspects" in food poisoning outbreaks, the American Institute of Baking has done considerable research to find answers to the questions above and others. The information was released just about a year ago.

Recommendations include roasting time enough for the stuffing to reach 165 degree F. at its center. A regular meat thermometer inserted between the first and second ribs and directed toward the center of the stuffing is an accurate way to be sure.

Roast poultry allowed a 20 minute rest before carving time, and after the thermometer says it is done will have a five to ten degree rise in temperature at the center of the stuffing, which is all to the good, say the researchers. In addition the juices are reabsorbed and carving is easier.

More research information on bread stuffings will be given next week, right now we went to give you a recipe for oyster bread stuffing, very special for turkey.

¾ cup butter or margarine.
2 cups finely chopped celery.
¾ cup finely chopped onion.
1½ teaspoon salt.
¼ teaspoon pepper.
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
1 quart drained oysters.
4 eggs, beaten.
1 pint milk.
1 gallon soft bread crumbs.

Melt fat in skillet add celery and onion and saute for five minutes. Add salt, pepper, parsley, oysters, beaten eggs, milk and soft bread crumbs. Yield: two quarts oyster bread stuffing, enough for an eight pound ready-to-cook turkey.

The unused portion of an old lipstick will give you the coloring you need to make those floating candles—by melting down old candle stubs.

It seems that both major political parties are now two-headed monsters.
