Foster, deputy commissioner of the State Highway Department, told an inter-club meeting of the Tawas and West Branch Kiwanis Clubs at Tuesday's luncheon at the Holland Hotel.

"We are extending our highway program in Michigan as rapidly as conditions will permit," he said. "Our department is meeting the most crying needs first. We know that all traffic is up 50 percent since the war and truck traffic is up 90 percent. For us the problem is to distribute the projects where the need is greatest."

The blacktopping of M-65 between Turner and Whittemore, which will occur late this summer or early next year, will allow further improvement of that important highway, he said. The road is now graded to Whittemore, with pavement and curbs in Whittemore and two new bridges.

National Plans Extensive Plant Expansion

Will Install New Stripping Equipment In Quarry

The National Gypsum Company, one of Northeastern Michigan's largest industries, announced last week through Charles H. Hill, plant superintendent, a quarter of a million dollar expansion program.

Included in the expansion program will be the purchase of heavy equipment whereby the company will take over its own stripping operations. For the past seven years this operation has been done under contract.

"We feel that by doing the work ourselves we can better level off our employment and give our own men steady, year around employment," Hill said.

All of the equipment, which is new and even more up-to-date than that being used by the present contractor, has been ordered and is expected to arrive any time. The company plans to start its own operation on a new tract north of its present operation by March 1.

"Another factor in the operation is the erection of a new garage to house and service all of this equipment. We will follow our recently instituted policy of purchasing all possible material for this project locally," Hill said. "Our own men will also do the construction work," he added.

Cpl. Robert D. Belson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Belson of Whittemore, is scheduled for release from active duty February 6, 1953, at Camp Atterbury, Indiana, where he is serving with the 31st Infantry Division.

Not for Sale
Lesson for February 8, 1953

IF THE modern reader of the parable of the laborers in the vineyard is puzzled, he at least has the comfort of knowing that great Bible scholars have been puzzled too. He also has the discomfort of knowing that no interpretation he can put upon it will have unanimous agreement. To be sure, there are some things it does not mean. This parable does not give a model for labor and management. Jesus was not talking about wages literally. He was saying something about God, and his dealings with man. Furthermore, this parable does not mean that God's only reason for doing things is "because," that is one whose act have neither rhyme nor reason. But what does this parable mean? Among the various plausible interpretations that have been given it by Christian thinkers, let us pick out one of the most important truths that this peculiar story suggests.

Nothing to Sell

That truth is: The grace of God cannot be earned. To desire the loving favor, the "grace," of God, is to desire the greatest gift God can bestow. But it cannot be bought. It cannot be earned. We can see that this is true by thinking a moment. Think whose it is. We can pay for business favors, we can tip a waiter or a porter for doing something special for us; but we can't tip God. We can employ the services of all sorts of people; but God's services are not for hire. We can earn anything on earth, or many things; but the grace of God is from heaven. What he does for man is a gift, not a payment.

Dr. Foreman

And then think who we are. Suppose we really thought we could do a bookkeeping business with God. If we get it into our foolish heads that he owes us something, what about our debt to him? If we must have it on a bookkeeping basis, we shall always be in the red.

Earning God's Grace
Still, the race of man includes many fools. And some of these have tried to do the impossible, to earn the infinite grace of God. One way they have tried is to buy it. A lifelong rascal's conscience will finally begin to hurt him, and so to get God on his side he will build a cathedral or endow an orphanage or pour money into some church treasury, hoping that God will overlook the villainous ways in which he earned the money because of the pious way in which he spends it. Other men (a little more on the "religious" side) seem to think that they can sweet-talk God into being their friend. They would not put it that way; they would say that God will listen to their many prayers. Do they not regularly attend prayer meetings, or early communions, and should not God be expected to do something for them in return?

Others, again, hope that God can be made to feel so sorry for them that he will pour out on them his special grace if they do not have natural troubles they will make artificial troubles for themselves. They will go without proper food and clothing, they will wear hair shirts or iron chains around their waists, they will roll on beds of spikes or go without baths for years and years. But God's grace does not go to the highest bidders; it does not go to the most long-winded prayers; it is not offered as a reward for self-inflicted wounds. God's grace must be taken as a gift or not at all.

Grace and Gratitude

Then does it make no difference what we do? Will God be just as good to us, no matter what? Shall we even "do evil that grace may abound," that is, shall we make God's grace even more gracious by being as bad as we can be? Not by any means. The truly good life is not a way of earning the grace of God; it is a way of responding to the grace of God.

Some one has said that religion is gratitude. Religion is our response to God, not his to us. Religion is our reply to the infinite goodness of the Almighty, not his reply to our part-way, badly mixed and human goodness. Indeed, the good life is more than a lifelong act of gratitude; the good life itself is the effect of God's grace.

Our Government and Us

By John R. Rood, Recognized National Authority on the American Constitution.

To any thinking person it must be a conundrum why any sane person should fall for the communist line. What is the lure? As we understand it the lure is the supposition that other persons can be induced to labor to provide us with the comforts of life, food and shelter, without pay. That it is possible to get these things for nothing. That by some hook or crook immense quantities of worldly goods are being created and gathered into the hands of the favored few, which could be taken over and distributed to all whereby those who have nothing could live in ease and in comfort.

It is an old dream. Older than Plato, much older. It has never tried over and over. It has never worked. But it does not seem to make any difference with the mass of ignorant dreamers. The followers continually increase in numbers in spite of universal failure.

Who falls for the lure? Of course it can only be the ignorant and the foolish. For the facts are open to all. But that makes no difference either. The ignorant wishful thinkers are never bothered by the facts.

Why does the dream never work? Because it violates the first great law of nature and the second law also. The first law is that nature decrees that all forms of life shall seek self-satisfaction first and only. The second law of nature is that life shall seek that satisfaction by taking the easy way, put forth no more effort on its own part than is absolutely and unavoidably necessary.

Further the dream runs up against a hard fact. To make it work, somebody must have absolute despotic power to order the procedure, and here all freedom goes out the window; and those who are entrusted with the enforcement, follow the first law of nature, and make everybody their absolute slaves in work for them.

But let no dreamer despair. The very best brand of communism is now available to him for the mere asking, and without waiting for any change of law. All he need do to get it is to commit some felony not punishable with death, and get committed to prison for life. There he will get all the blessings of communism, every necessity of life provided without any effort on his part—food, clothing, shelter, medical care and even recreation. Of course he will have to submit to that regulation, which always goes with all communism, of course that element is no part of the dream; but without it nobody would do anything to produce anything for anybody.

Now let us take a look at history. The first English settlement in America was a communist experiment. About 1515, Sir Thomas More, leading English lawyer, wrote "Utopia," an account of a people on an imaginary island in the ocean somewhere west of England, where everything was provided by the government. When a charter for a settlement in America was granted to a company of adventurers they decided to make it like "Utopia." The first ship arrived in Chesapeake Bay in the spring of 1607, unloaded at the mouth of the river they called James, in honor of the English king, and went back for more settlers and supplies.

The settlers, 630 in number, went sturdily to work clearing ground for a ball park, and spent the summer playing ball and living out of the stores brought with them. They planted nothing. The next winter all would have died of starvation and exposure but for aid by the Indians. When the next shipload arrived the next spring 570 of the original adventurers were dead.

The experiment was financed by the stockholders in England. In 1619, after 12 years of experiment and 100,000 pounds of English money spent on the plan there were but 400 settlers surviving.

An investigator was sent over to see what was the matter. He ordered the experiment abandoned. Parceled out a piece of land to each family and informed them they must support themselves. Immediately everybody went to work to keep the wolf from the door. New settlers came attracted by the promise that they should own what they produced and could get wild land to clear for farms. In four years the settlement had increased to 2,000. In 30 years (1650) there were 15,000, and the settlement in Virginia was on its way.

When the Pilgrims arrived in Massachusetts in 1620, the same plan was tried there for several years with the same result. In 1822 the governor of the Plymouth colony (William Bradford) wrote a report of the experiment, from which we quote: "At length, after much debate of things, the Governor (with ye advise of ye cheefest amongst them) gave way that they should set come every man for his owne particular, and in that regard trust to themselves."

trious, so as much more corn was planted then other ways would have been by any means.

"The women now wente willingly into ye field, and tooke their litleons with them to set corne, which before would aledg weakness, and inability; whom to have compelled would have bene thought great tiranie and oppression."

"The experience that was had in this comone course and condition, tried sundrie years, and that amongst godly and sober men, may well evince and vanitie of that conceite of Plato and other ancients, applauded by mene of later times—that ye taking away of propertie, and bringing in comuntie into a comone wealth, would make them happy and flourishing; as if they were wiser then God."

Look what's worrying the low-priced three!

THERE'S a big story in the price of this beauty—but an even bigger one in what you get for that price.

You get the highest horsepower and compression ratio ever engineered into this Buick Series—from the extra-thrifty F-263 Fireball 8 Engine newly designed for this Golden Anniversary SPECIAL.

You get an even wider front seat than this roomy Buick had before—plus a new tilt-away feature that means easier in-and-out.

You get real big-car comfort, from deep, soft cushions with new zigzag type springs in both the seats and the backs.

You get the steady going and the sweet handling ease that come of a still finer Million Dollar Ride. Steering ratio is increased. Front wheels have been brought to zero-caster. And here, of course, you get coil springs on each wheel, full-length torque-tube drive, rigid and massive X-braced frame—ride features you get in no other car at the price.

But—you get the idea. And when you realize that the figure on this big, brawny, beautiful Buick SPECIAL is just a few dollars more than you'll pay for one of the so-called "low-priced three"—we're sure you'll say: "This is for me!" Come in and try it out—then tell us if we're wrong or right.

Elks Defeat AuGres High

Elks Play Oscoda Team Tonight

With a second quarter 20-point uprising the Tawas City High Elks broke a 11-11 first quarter tie and went on to send AuGres High down to defeat, 63-37. The game was played Monday night at the Tawas City gym.

This game marked the Elks' 11th win in 12 starts and haven't lost a game in Huron Shore League competition. This Friday night Tawas City will play Oscoda who are currently in second place in the league. They have lost one game to Tawas City earlier in the season.

Monday night's game started as if it might be one of those close hair-raising games. But after the first quarter, the Elks began to roll and at the half had a 11 point lead piled up, 31-20. They pulled further away in the third quarter with the score reading 40-25. In the final quarter the Elks looped 23 points to AuGres's 12.

High scorers for the evening were: Gary Humphrey with 21 and Dittenber of AuGres with 15. The rest of the Elks' scoring was spread over three men with Tom Morley dunking in 12 and Art Anschuetz and Rollie Gackstetter, 10 each.

The Tawas City Reserves also won their game, 37 to 29, against the AuGres Reserves. High scorers for the Elks were Erickson and Bird with eight each, and high man for AuGres was Willette with eight.

The Elks have six games yet to play and look to be in fine shape for the Class "C" District Tournament in AuGres in March. Other Class "C" entries in the Tourney will be East Tawas, Standish and Oscoda. Area teams competing in Class "D" will be Hale, AuGres, Whittemore and Arenas Eastern.

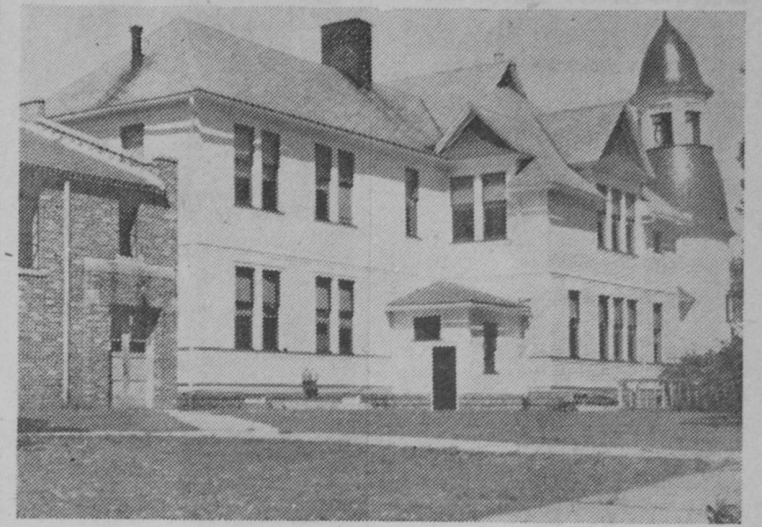

This Friday night the Elks will play Oscoda there. The following Friday, February 13, they will meet Rose City at the Tawas City gym as part of the annual homecoming activities.

Many Attend "Crazy Hat" Party

The Stanley Star Hostess "Crazy Hat" party, attended by many from this community, was held last Friday night at St. Ann's Hall, Alpena.

More than 200 women were present and everyone had a grand time.

The "Crazy Hat" parade wasn't only a wonderful sight to see, but the display of originality and artistic ability of the many individuals was amazing.

Al Elzerman of Detroit, "master of ceremonies, left the group "in stitches" with his witty mannerisms. The tap dancing, singing and musical selections by local talent were outstanding.

Lois Harlan of Flint gave a talk on the Stanley program before closing with all singing "America."

Many look forward to having the recording radio broadcast.

Mrs. Lillian Barson, Mrs. Lucille Kawalsky, Anna Fisher, Mrs. Margaret McConnell, Mrs. Winnie Webster and Mrs. Sophia Marrell sponsored the party. Many beautiful gifts were given the guests, including a rhinestone set wrist watch with matching earrings and necklace. The sponsors wish to thank everyone who has helped make this affair such a wonderful success.

The Pilgrimage Play Verv Well Received

The Pilgrimage Play, the story of the life of Jesus Christ, which was shown in Hale, Turner and Whittemore last week-end was very well received. The feature length colored film started with the aged disciple, Peter, in prison telling two of his friends why he did not fear persecution or death. Asked the reason for his faith, Peter tells of the birth of Christ and his experiences as a follower of John, the Baptist, and a disciple of Jesus.

The acting, voices and coloring on the film were superb. The picture carried a warm message yet was done with dignity and reverence. Time and again the audiences were awed at the power of Christ to perform miracles, and the way He loved people in spite of the way He was falsely accused.

Although it was very cold, we had capacity audiences at each of the three showings. It was a pleasure to sponsor an effort so well received by all. We wish to express our appreciation to the Tawas Herald for the generous publicity we received in behalf of the film," the Rev. Wesley Dafoe, pastor of the Methodist churches said.

Needlecraft News

by Nancy Baxter

WHETHER expectant mother, grandmother or aunt, the active woman-in-waiting is busily making "little things" for the royal welcome. There are so many things the new baby will need to give him or her an important start in life—so many items that you can make with your capable and loving fingers.

Most infant-size layette garments may be worn for four months or sometimes longer, but it would be wise to make a few things in sizes 1, 2 or 3 to keep up with a quickly-sprouting baby.

THE INFANT'S LAYETTE

Of the many tiny articles needed for the new-born babe, almost all can be made by you and your knitting pins, crocheting or sewing needles. Here's a check list of layette necessities, should you run out of ideas:

- six to eight wool soakers
- two jackets or sacques
- two knitted bonnets
- two fabric bonnets
- four to six pairs of booties
- one pair of mittens
- four nightgowns
- two flannelette kimonos
- two wool wrappers
- one wrap with hood, or bunting coat with bonnet
- three to six dresses
- three to six slippers
- carriage cover
- two cotton receiving blankets

BABY-FINE FINISHINGS

Should you be trimming the dainty items, remember to use edgings that will not chafe the baby's tender skin. Avoid placing any stiffening around the neckline. Embroidery or lace trimmings should be applied on the shoulders, yoke, or down the front. Easily-made rosebuds, ribbon bows or smocking are pretty, too. Use ribbon bindings for crib blankets, coats and kimonos, applied with a hidden slip stitch. This stitch is also used for appliques on play clothes and spreads.

WOOLLY WONDERS FOR INFANTS

Soft baby wool clothes are easy to make, easy to launder and easy on tender bodies. Crochet or knit a few for the new arrival. Start with the delicate pieces shown here. The crocheted shell-stitch sacque, bonnet, ankle-strap booties and mittens are luscious in pastel green and white. Knit the rompers, size 2 or 3, in peach-colored wool and the soaker in a white garter stitch. For crocheting and knitting directions, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper and request Leaflet No. C-30.

THE LICENSE DILEMMA
The coffers of the State treasury are said to be in dire need of a bit of bolstering, and the Michigan legislature doesn't know which way to turn to raise the needed funds. Believing that every little bit helps we're surprised they haven't investigated the possibility of (1) raising the cost of fishing and hunting licenses, and (2) demanding a license for fishing on the Great Lakes. It's possible to raise nearly two million dollars of added revenue through such channels.

License Sales Insufficient
Some folks are under the impression that the Conservation Department is supported by license sales—a belief that's far from true. A good deal of money is appropriated by the legislature from the State's general fund each year—a general fund which is the accumulation of various taxes, of course. Most sportsmen would like to see a larger percentage of the cost of operating the Conservation Department borne by revenue from license sales. And surely most sportsmen would raise no great objection to paying $2.00 for the privilege of fishing in any one of our 11,000 inland lakes for a full year. Today's price of $1.50 for the license is absurdly low—and at $2.00 we'd still have the biggest bargain in outdoor fun ever offered under the sun!

FLASH! "Michigan Outdoors" will soon become a full half-hour show on television... watch for the announcement of a new, more exciting than ever "Michigan Outdoors" with Mort Neff!

Hale Methodist Sponsor Father-Son Banquet
The men of the Hale Methodist Church are sponsoring a Father-Son Banquet for the "men-folk" of the community at the Masonic Hall dining room, February 12.

A fine program is being arranged for the occasion, and the ladies of the Methodist church are prepared to serve the meal family style.
The dinner has been set for 7:00 p. m. with the program following immediately.

"Piles were daily torture until I found Pazo gives amazing relief!"
says Mrs. F. M. L., San Gabriel, Cal.
Amazing Pazo relieves torture of simple piles fast. Acts to relieve itching, pain, burning, soothes raw, inflamed tissue. Lubricates and softens dry, hardened parts. Helps reduce swelling, heal cracking, prevent agonizing soreness. So don't suffer needless misery of simple piles. Get Pazo, get real comfort right away. Ask your doctor about it. Suggestory form—also tube with perforated pile pipe for easy thorough application.
*Pazo Ointment and Suppositories*

The Great Lakes Question
An estimated 250,000 fishermen toss their lures into the Great Lakes bordering Michigan, and no license is required. If you lived in Ontario just across Lake St. Clair or Lake Huron you'd pay $6.50. Surely legislation could be passed to require a $2.00 license for the privilege here. Oddly enough resort owners along the Great Lakes grow violent when the idea is suggested, yet we fail to see how a vacationist could resent having to purchase a license. If he travels at all he knows that at $2.00 he's still paying less than the national average cost of a fishing license—and in Michigan he's getting a lot more!

Lucky Non-Resident
Visitors from other states pay only $3.00 for a non-resident angling privilege—a figure that's way below the national mean. Some States charge $25 for similar permits—and they don't offer as much. Surely this fee could be raised to $5.00 in Michigan.

The same analysis reveals that hunting fees could be raised slightly without fear of putting a crimp in any sportsman's pocketbook—and from the combined results the hard-pressed state treasury would be a couple of million bucks better off annually. Michigan Outdoors is a big box-office attraction. Its management should be at least self-supporting, don't you agree?

A sweeping austerity program in government spending has been launched according to Washington reports. As many as 500,000 jobs could be lopped off the Federal payroll without harm to the efficiency of government service, if the new economy blueprint is followed, presidential advisers state.

As of January 1, 1953, the commission has received over 98,000 American prisoners of war applications under Public Law 303. The current rate of adjudication is more than 1,500 a week and will be increased in the near future; around 12,000 of these claims have been adjudicated to date.

Deadline for Prisoner Of War Claims Three Months Off

With the April 9, 1953, deadline for filing prisoner of war claims under Public Law 303, 82nd Congress, only three months away, the War Claims Commission urges all American ex-prisoners of war of World War II who have not yet filed under this law to do so promptly.

Public Law 303 provides a maximum compensation of $1.50 a day for each day such veterans were held as prisoners of war in any theater during World War II and were subjected to violations of certain provisions of the Geneva Convention of 1929 Respecting the Treatment of Prisoners of War. Claim must be made on WCC Form 611, "Application for Living Ex-Prisoner of War Compensation for Compulsory Labor and, or Inhumane Treatment," and the questions contained in this application should be fully answered so that the claim can be adjusted without further development. However, as the commission has previously announced if the individual veteran eligible under Public Law 303 has forgotten his claim number and, or the dates and places of capture and confinement, he should submit his application without delay or resorting to correspondence as this information is generally available to the commission.

The "marching flags" poster of the late N. C. Wyeth, first used by the Red Cross in 1933 and repeated in 1947, will be used again as the poster of the 1953 Fund Campaign because of its great popularity. Repeated also is last year's slogan, "Answer the Call."

Boy Scouts Celebrate 43rd Birthday

Official Boy Scout Week Poster

Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7 to 13, marking the 43rd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, will be observed throughout the nation by more than 3,250,000 boys and adult leaders. Since 1910, more than 20,200,000 boys and men have been members.

"Forward on Liberty's Team" is the birthday theme and the emphasis is on "The Scout Family" of programs meeting the interests of boys in three age groups: Cub Scouting for boys 8, 9 and 10; Boy Scouting for those 11, 12 and 13 and Exploring for boys 14 and up.

The high point of Scouting in 1953 will be the third National Jamboree. More than 50,000 Boy Scouts will camp at a 3,000-acre tent city on the Irvine Ranch in the Newport Harbor area of southern California next July 17 to 23.

4-H Club Notes

By MARVIN DAVENPORT

The Friendship 4-H Club of Tawas and Grant townships have completed their enrollment and program plan for 1953. Their next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, February 19, at Grant Town Hall. It will be a Valentine's party for those attending plus the presentation of program booklets for the year. Having these booklets will tell each member and family where and when each meeting is to be held each month of this year. Mrs. Fred Phahl, Mrs. Clayton Ulman, Mrs. Walter Laidlaw, Mrs. Victor Herriman and Franklin Bischoff were on hand to hear the discussion on organization. Projects for which there was leadership included vegetable gardening, dairy, handicraft, clothing and food preparation. A complete list of all the members is not available for each project. The project reporters will be telling us about their meetings and who is in attendance.

The delegates to the Jr. Leader Training School at Higgins Lake on February 9-11 will be Eileen Barnes of the Hale Hustlers 4-H Club and Patricia Williams of the Taft Jr. Farmers 4-H Club. They will leave Monday morning with delegates from Alcona and Osceola counties. Following their return on Wednesday plans will be made for a recreation training school in their respective counties. This is an all-expense trip paid for by the 4-H Club Department of Michigan State College and the Sears Roebuck Foundation.

Friday a seven county Adult Recreation Training School will be conducted at Hale by Arden Peterson, recreation specialist from Michigan State College. Only seven delegates per county will be invited to attend. The Iosco 4-H Club Council is serving the dinner and the money raised will be used to send 4-H Club members to the State 4-H Club Show.

Dates to remember:
 March 7-15—National 4-H Club week
 March 9—Iosco 4-H Club Leaders Council meeting.
 March 17—Standish advisory Board meeting at Standish.
 March 30—Iosco Demonstration Clinic.

HDA NOTES

By DOROTHY SCOTT

What would you do with that 25th hour if there were more hours in the day? Hale Home Demonstration Group members had some answers for this roll call question at their last meeting. It seemed to us most of them reflected a need for more rest than most people allow themselves, or rather allow other activities to crowd out ample time for that rest.

One member, Mrs. Frank Abbinante, said she would go for a tramp in the woods, and she could do just that with the small amounts of snow we have this winter. And do you know, we suspect that kind of use of an extra hour could do more for our morale than sleep.

The group voted to aid in putting over a blood typing program in their community. The four provided a hospital gown and some money toward the hospital furnishings project.

The lesson about meal planning, a daily task with all of us, was so interesting. The four scrambled menus tried their skill, and only a few were put together correctly, according to their leader, Mrs. Rod Heilman. "Doing them was such fun we were all hungry and really enjoyed the meal planned from the lesson. Members had brought different dishes as requested by the leader, and figures on their cost were added and divided among us all. One thing is sure, we shall all be meal 'color' conscious from now on," says Mrs. Charles Attwell, news reporter.

A visitor, Mrs. Amos Hendrickson, plans to join their group, and Mrs. George Dodge is back again as a member. Present were: Mesdmes Frank Abbinante, George Bissenette, Amos Hendrickson, George Dodge, Lou Hatfield, Ira Scofield, Roderick Heilman, Donald Stiltz, Charles Attwell, Melvin Dorsey and Neva Caton.

The chairman initiated the new gavel made for the group by Mrs. Caton's son.

Do you have trouble adding the right amount of moisture to your pastry flour and shortening mixture? Then you will welcome this idea for another use to make of your clothes sprinkler.

Measure the amount of cold water needed, put it in the sprinkler bottle, then gently shake the water over the pastry mix, tossing it with a fork as you go. It's a never-fail method, reports a pie-making expert.

You receive greater return for your money spent in the purchase of skimmed milk than money spent for any other commonly used food.

Wayne U. Home Economists Offer Easier Methods of Housekeeping

Doing household tasks with the least expenditure of energy is demonstrated by two Wayne coeds in a home economic laboratory. Senior Mary Ann Greiner of Mt. Clemens uses a light weight cart for a one-trip table setting and Helen Kertes, a sophomore from Port Huron, sits to prepare vegetables.

Many housewives can learn to save up to 68 per cent of the energy used in performing daily household tasks, home economists at Wayne University in Detroit report.

Financed by a grant from the Michigan Heart Association, Wayne researchers made a time and motion study of the work habits of homemakers. The project, aimed at developing a program of simplified work methods for women limited in their activity by heart disease, showed that unnecessary steps, reaches, stoops and bends were the greatest wastes of energy.

"Much of the bending could be eliminated," Mrs. Frances G. Sanderson, chairman of the Wayne home economic department states, "by using long-handled push brooms, wax applicators, and bath tub brushes. A long handle may also be fitted into the dust pan to save stooping."

Sitting to do jobs whenever possible is another way of saving energy, she reports. Such things as washing dishes, preparing vegetables, mixing ingredients, ironing and dusting can all be done while sitting.
