Ideal Weather Steps Up Silver Valley Sports

Dance to be Held at Tawas City High School Gymnasium

The Tawas Winter Sports Area is buzzing about the ideal weather conditions at Silver Valley for tobogganing and skating and at Perchville for fishing. The weatherman found the area getting ready for their annual winter carnival to be held February 6, 7 and 8. A young Prince and Princess will be chosen from that week-end instead of a Queen as in past years.

Festivities are getting under way this Saturday, January 31, with a dance to be held at the Tawas City Gymnasium. This dance is of the utmost importance for that is when the Prince and Princess will be chosen from a group of fourteen children representing seven schools in Isoco County. On hand to pick the Royal Couple from a five to seven year age group will be well known men and women from Northeastern Michigan. They are: Francis Letchfield, D. D. S., president of the East Michigan Winter Sports Council; John B. Hecox, Producers Refining Company, West Branch; Bert Leidecker, Dossin's Food Products, Detroit; Margaret Allison, Bay City Times; and Ralph Nuttal, insurance representative from Standish.

Interest in the Tawas Area is really snow-balling around Detroit. Last year 147 Explorer Boy Scouts spent the week-end at Silver Valley. This year 325 joined the outing. Bert Leidecker's Lutheran Caravan has been heading north to the Tawas for seven years. Twelve busses are making the trip this coming week-end with a similar group making the trip later in the season. Mumford High School made the Tawas for the first time this year with 126. They have already made reservation for 250 students next year.

Col. Connor Dies Monday at Milwaukee

Services for Former Tawas City Resident Held Thursday

A telegram arrived Monday announcing the death that morning of Col. Edmund M. Connor at his home in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Colonel Connor was a former resident of Tawas City.

The son of Thomas E. and Sarah Connor, he was born in this city May 13, 1887. As a young man he went to Detroit and entered the automobile industry. During the Mexican War he served on the border with the 32nd Division as an enlisted man. During the Second Battle of the Marne he was made company commander and commissioned captain. Following World War I, he continued his interest in the army and as a reserve officer was commissioned major. Pearl Harbor brought him back into active service, and he received a commission as lieutenant colonel. He served through World War II.

He and Mrs. Connor have resided at Milwaukee for about 30 years, going there shortly after the close of World War I. He took an active part in the civic life of his city and for a number of years served in the juvenile court.

Elks Mark Up 2 More Victories

Play AuGres Team Monday Night

The Tawas City High School Elks continued on their rampage through Northern Michigan opponents with two more victories the past week. Last Friday the team swamped Hale 80 to 45 at the Tawas City High School Gym and Tuesday night turned back Mio 44 to 40 on the Oscoda county team's home floor. Combining snappy passing, accurate shooting and teamwork, this year's team has been running roughshod over all opposition and boast ten wins and two ties.

Their only loss was to Whittemore, 52-50, two weeks ago. The Varsity has scored 672 points in ten games, against 397 for their opponents. Coach Defibaugh has also used capable reserve strength to the team's advantage.

The next game will be played against AuGres on Monday, February 2, at the local gymnasium.

The Elks squeezed past Mio last Tuesday night 44 to 40. The Elks led throughout the game and had a 35-point lead at the end of the third quarter. A final quarter 13 point drive by Mio fell short as Tawas City made nine.

Smith of Mio, took high scoring honors for the evening with 20 points. Gary Humphrey paced (Continued No. 4, Back Page)

Former Isoco Girl Selected as 'Personality of the Week'

"She is an R. N. who's working for her B. S. degree—she's a full-time career woman who is also a housewife," is the opening sentence of an inspiring feature story which appeared in the Lansing State Journal's "Personality of the Week."

The woman is Mrs. John H. Corbin, director of the Lansing Practical Nurses Center, a former Isoco county girl, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Lattor of Reno township.

In telling the story of Mrs. Corbin's very active life, the State Journal continues as follows:

"This remarkable woman is a registered nurse who runs the center and her own home with a capable hand and finds time to be a student on the side working for her bachelor of science degree."

"All this, plus a colorful background which includes time spent as a lieutenant in the navy, work as one of the first WAVE recruiters and overseas duty in New Caledonia."

"Mrs. Corbin's career home is Technical High School where the center is located. She supervises the nursing students, teaches and handles school publicity."

Mrs. Corbin doesn't call herself a career woman—just a woman who gets into things and can't get out.

"And because she's extremely competent and bored with inactivity, Mrs. Corbin has been 'getting herself into things' for years."

"First it was nursing school—Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit. During depression days it was hard to finance an education but Mrs. Corbin, then Iva June Lattor, worked her way through."

"And then it was the navy. She reported for duty in Detroit December 2, 1941—just five days before Pearl Harbor."

"At that time, Mrs. Corbin pointed out, navy nurses were relatively rare. Soon however, the navy gave its nurses status, and Mrs. Corbin was known as ensign. The rank of lieutenant came later."

"Mrs. Corbin was assigned to Brooklyn Naval Hospital as ward supervisor. This duty led her straight into matrimony for she (Continued No. 3, Back Page)

Our Government and Us

By John R. Rood, Recognized National Authority on the American Constitution.

Nobody should be permitted to run his own affairs, say the racketeers. A politician could do it better. Every time the legislature meets a 100 to 500 bills are introduced to provide a new law against it. Nobody should be permitted to do this or that without a public license, a grave digger's license, a junk dealer's license. With every new law, to regulate things, out goes our liberties and up go the taxes. Every Tom, Dick and Harry wants a law to prevent competition in his business.

The first million dollar tax ever levied by the State of Michigan was in 1900. This year Gov. William says his $365,000,000 budget will leave a $40,000,000 deficit.

The classical justification for a government was that without a government private groups would take the law into their own hands to do themselves justice as they saw it, that nobody is wise enough or good enough to sit as judge in his own case, the decision would be in favor of the parties using the force the redress would be worse than the injury complained of, and constant civil war would result. The system installed to prevent the chaos of everybody doing himself justice was a set of regulations to control the other fellow. The insiders were exempt. The governors decided who should be overlooked, and that is still largely true.

The remedy to correct these abuses was to be a government of, by and for the people. The only system by which such a result has ever been attained has been one in which minorities were represented by a separate house in the legislature, so the victims could veto adverse action, like the original system under the constitution of the United States, in which the Senate, elected by the state governments and the minority groups. It cannot be done by a two house congress or legislature both elected in the same manner by the same votes, like our present Congress and state legislatures.

If we could get an amendment to the state constitution that the senate of the state should be elected by the boards of supervisors in supervisor districts; nobody to vote for supervisors but taxpayers, and that nobody could be a supervisor who was not a substantial taxpayer, nor anybody a senator unless he was a much larger taxpayer, it might work. That was the substance of our first state constitution, except that the taxpayers voted direct for senators.

Public welfare cannot endure concentration of power in private hands stronger than the state itself. It now stands demonstrated that all strikes are against the public not against the employer; that the strikers themselves are the first victims, the public the worst suffers in total damage, and the employer, though a victim seriously injured, his total damage is nothing to that generally suffered by the public.

Another result now also demonstrated, though little understood by the public, is that if the strike wins, the public pays the bill. For example, if it be a strike for more pay, the increased pay is added to the price and passed on the public. Again the increased price cuts down the sales and the result is less employment to supply the market.

Poor Rich Man

Lesson for February 1, 1953

THE MAN had everything. He was young, he was in an executive position, he was in vigorous health, he was respectable, he was very rich. And still he felt something missing. After all this, what? What was there for him over and beyond the pleasant and powerful life he was then living? He was spiritually sensitive; he could feel that all he had was still not quite the thing.

Camel and Needle

The man in the famous story (Matthew 19) never did get what he wanted, so far as we know. The reason is, he did not want it enough. The price was high: nothing less than everything he had, and his health was great. So he "went away sorrowful" and that is the last we see of him. What Jesus said as he watched him go has caused a great deal of discussion, both at the time and ever since. According to Matthew, Jesus said that it is harder for a rich man to enter God's Kingdom (that is, to have eternal life, or to be saved) than for a camel to get through a needle's eye.

All sorts of efforts have been made to show that Jesus could not possibly have meant this. The words translated "camel" and "needle's eye" could possibly mean something else, but they probably don't. We may as well face it. Jesus meant to say that the only way a camel could get through a needle's eye is by a miracle; and it is more of a miracle for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God than for a camel to pass through a needle's eye. He did not say it was impossible; he did say it was possible only with God. This is as shocking in 20th century America as in first century Palestine.

Riches Are Risky

Actually there are many more warnings against wealth, in the Bible, than against poverty. The "have's" are in more spiritual peril than the "have-not's." Why this is, can be shortly stated. A minister who had had many contacts among the super-rich of one of America's Gold Coasts remarked to the writer that wealth makes the first generation hard, the second generation soft. The man of wealth may easily trust in his possessions and not in God, in short to make a god out of his own property. He may test right and wrong by what the effect is on his holdings.

Because his friends are mostly among other rich people, he is constantly tempted to habits, diversions, recreations, customs which are not Christian. Further, the possession of wealth tends to make the owner near-sighted; like the rich young ruler who turned his back on Jesus, he can neither see clearly his own best interest nor the needs of men and women in the shadowed ways of life.

Don't Be Ruined by Riches

Now it is not true that Jesus taught that all first-class Christians must be complete paupers. It is not true that Jesus taught that no one with property can be a Christian. It is not true that Jesus laid it down as a rule for all his followers that they must give away everything they have. One of his best-loved disciples was John, who owned a home of his own. We can recall Lydia and Barnabas among the early Christians; we can all name Christians who have served God and their fellow-men with their money. When a doctor tells a patient he must get rid of his appendix, he is not saying that all healthy persons must do the same. But when an appendix is a danger, out it must come. Now wealth may be a danger, a source of moral infection. The one best way to keep from the dangers of possessions (and these begin as soon as we have as much as one surplus dime) is to learn to think of them, and to use them, as a trust from God.

To be Christian in the earning and acquiring of what we have; to be Christian in the using of it; to spend what we have as if Christ were spending it; to remember that of him to whom much is given, much shall be required; to regard what we own as so much opportunity for doing good, instead of so much insurance against hardships; this calls for the grace of God.

THE TAWAS HERALD

To Present in Film 'The Greatest Story'

Presented by Hale, Whittemore, Turner Methodist Churches

"The Life of Jesus Christ" proclaimed as the greatest story ever filmed will be shown this week-end at Hale, Whittemore and Turner, under the auspices of the local Methodist Churches. The film is in natural color, feature length (90 minutes), and covers the complete life and ministry of Jesus Christ.

Here is a picture you'll be talking about long after you have seen it! For emotional power, for dramatic sweep, for tender pathos, for crushing tragedy and majestic triumph, this portrayal of the life of Christ is unequalled.

Out of the pages of your Bible and onto the silver screen walk the flesh-and-blood characters of the greatest story ever told—Peter, James and John; Mary, the mother of Jesus; Mary of Bethany, Mary Magdalene, and all the familiar names of the Sacred Record. They live and walk and talk as though the pages of your Bible had suddenly become alive.

We would like to invite every family in our area to see this film. It is Christian in its emphasis and we are sure it will make a great contribution to the spiritual forces of our community," the Rev. Wesley Dafoe said. The picture will be shown three times as follows:

Hale, Saturday, January 31, at 8:30 p. m. at the Community Building.

Turner, Sunday, February 1, at 2:30 p. m. at the Methodist Church.

Whittemore, Sunday, February 1, at 7:30 p. m. at the Community Building.

Altar Society Meets Sunday at VFW Hall

4-H Club Notes

By MARVIN DAVENPORT
There are 23 4-H Club Leaders better informed on Handicraft, Clothing, Knitting, Conservation and Dairying as a result of our Wednesday night Leaders' meeting at Hale. Mrs. Gordon Helmbold, Mrs. Blanche Douglass, Mrs. Nita Grear, Mrs. Elsie Hutchinson and son, Lloyd, Sarah Johnson, Mrs. Carl Libka, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bergeron, Mrs. John Webb, Mrs. Clara Waters, Richard Parkinson, Elbert Barnes, Robert Douglass, Ross Williams, Mrs. Pauline Chipps, Mrs. Paul Kaven, Gerald Belen, Harold Black and Pat Nardizzi shared experiences with Assistant State 4-H Club Leaders Ken Ousterhout and Miss Amalie Vasold. We agree with Pat Nardizzi when he asked, "Why aren't these Leaders' meetings earlier in the fall?" Our answer was, "We don't know the lead was late in December, and at as late a date as this we can't tell you the leaders, officers of the Sherman or Grant Clubs because they haven't completed their organization." Secondly, we have planned a 4-H Club Leaders' meeting for October 13, 1953, with our Assistant State Leaders. A 10 month's notice should give us time to arrange other dates around it. It would be a big help just as Mr. Nardizzi suggested.

This Saturday some of our 4-H Club members may be attending a Jr. Vegetable Growers' Association meeting on the campus of Michigan State College. Robert Douglass has received notice. Maybe some of you older members and Robert can arrange to start at 10 a. m. at the Union Building, Room 34, on the campus.

Roy Bergeron's Handicraft group of the Ottawas Community Club have been meeting every Thursday at the Tawas City High School. This is the report I received of the meeting. "We had our Handicraft meeting on January 15, 1953, at the Tawas City workshop. We worked on our bench hook. Our next meeting is January 22 at the Tawas City workshop at 7:00 p. m."

May I ask these questions of that reporter. Who are you? Who was at the meeting?

The Hale Hustlers 4-H Club reporter, Heins Siekmann, sent us this account of their January 17 meeting: "Mary Jane Douglas and Sherrill Scofield gave a demonstration on hem marking at the regular Hale Hustlers 4-H meeting. They showed three different methods that it is possible for everyone to do without extra equipment and costs."

Supervisors' Proceedings

January Session Jan. 12, 1953

The Board was called to order at 10:00 a. m. by the Chairman, who ordered roll call. The following supervisors were present: Anderson, Monroe, Burgess, Webb, Little, Stickey, Webb, Black, Staebler, Long, Rodman, Klenow, Look, Kochenderfer, Mielock, King, Brabant, Everett, Nyswaner.

The clerk of the Board asked that the reading of the minutes of the November 10th special session be waived as the supervisors presently had copies of the published proceedings.

Upon motion by Little supported by Bellville the reading of the minutes were unanimously waived.

A communication was read from H. Read Smith, attorney for the AuSable Township petitioners on the proposed boundary change, asking that the consideration of the Board be deferred to April 15, 1953. Upon motion by Everett supported by Long the hearing was postponed until the requested date.

The clerk called attention to the consideration of the deputy bond which must be decided at this session. After January 26, 1953, sheriffs are no longer responsible for the acts, defaults and omissions of their deputies by an act of the legislature. The Board of Supervisors will determine the size of the bonds required and who will pay the premium. The matter was referred to the Bond committee.

Communications were read and referred to the proper committee by the Chairman.

The clerk addressed the board calling attention to the date of publication calling for bids on the furniture for the new courthouse. Bids will be opened at 1:30 p. m. the afternoon of January 14, 1953.

The clerk asked that all supervisors please fill out their vouchers for committee work during the past quarter.

A written communication was presented to the Board by the County Clerk asking that Mrs. Lansky be given an increase in salary retroactive from January 1, 1953.

Mr. Little read the following resolution. To the Honorable Board of Supervisors, Iosco County, Michigan, Gentlemen,

Whereas, during the hunting season of 1952 the Conservation Department opened said season in Iosco County and other counties for the taking of any deer during the last three days of said season; and

Whereas, information has now been received by the members of this Board that the deer kill was extremely heavy as a result of said open season.

And whereas, numerous complaints have been received by this Honorable Board from hunters and sportsmen living permanently in this area in addition to other sportsmen registering their disapproval of said open season;

Now Therefore be it resolved hereby that the Honorable Board of Supervisors asked that the Conservation Department refrain from setting an "any deer" season in Iosco County during the hunting season of 1953.

Lloyd S. Little, chairman
George G. Webb
Edward Burgess

Mrs. Gordon, president of the Iosco County Red Cross, addressed the Board asking that the County take over the maintenance of the resuscitator equipment operated by the State Police for the benefit of Iosco County residents.

The matter was referred to the Finance and Apportionment Committee. Committees were ordered to their respective duties, balance of the Board to be at ease subject to the call of the chair.

Mr. Werth addressed the Board and stated that he had talked with Mr. Shattuck of the Peoples State Bank and that Mr. Shattuck had suggested that a portion of this money could draw a little over 1% interest if put into government bonds for a minimum of 90 days. He asked that the Board seriously consider making a recommendation to that effect. The matter was referred to the Finance and Apportionment Committee.

Committees were ordered to their respective duties subject to the call of the chair.

To Give Benefit Basketball Game

Will be Held February 3 At Plainfield Twp. Gym

On Tuesday evening, February 3, at eight o'clock in the Plainfield Township School Gym the Parent-Teachers Association will sponsor a benefit basketball game for Barbara Huber. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Huber, longtime residents in the Hale community. Mr. Huber has served for several years on the County Road Commission and has been a deputy sheriff. The Hubers have many friends in Hale and the surrounding communities and this benefit basketball program has originated among these many sincere friends who have wished to do something for Barbara.

Barbara was stricken with rheumatic fever while in the sixth grade several years ago and has been its unfortunate victim ever since. She was out of school for two years because of this illness. At present, Barbara is a member of the sophomore class at the Plainfield School.

About two weeks ago, Barbara and her parents went to the Hahnemann Hospital in Philadelphia, where Barbara has been undergoing examinations and tests to see if a delicate operation can be performed upon the mitral valve in the heart in order to assure her better health and longer life. This is an operation recently developed for young victims of rheumatic fever, where the disease has affected the heart.

Realizing the considerable expense involved, many of the Huber's friends have wished to help Barbara and her family. They have decided upon this basketball game as the best means of offering something in return. The evening's entertainment will be well worth while for fun, laughter and relaxation, so nothing of the hope and joy it will bring to Barbara.

The Women's Independent Team at Hale will be dressed as men to play basketball against the Men's Independent Team, who will be dressed as women, thus assuring some humorous contradictions from the start. The rules of the game will be modified considerably, and there will be surprises in store for the most avid fans of the game. Two well-known citizens of the town will be dressed in clothes of the opposite sex and will wear masks to serve as referees. A ladies' barberhop quartet will be prepared to stir your hearts in both song and dress. A men's quartet will put on a performance, including the singing of several negro spirituals.

Barbara's friends hope that there will be a large and enthusiastic attendance for the game Tuesday evening, February 3, at the Plainfield School Gym. Admission prices will be 60 cents for adults, and 35 cents for students and children. Tickets will be on sale during the days preceding the benefit and may be purchased from any students or order through the school office. Those friends of the Hubers who cannot attend the benefit performance, but who wish to contribute towards this fund for Barbara are invited to do so. Checks for this purpose may be made out to Guy H. Lagro and sent to the principal's office at the Plainfield School. Since the evening's entertainment is being staged completely by home talent, every cent contributed towards this fund will go for the benefit of Barbara. Let us all wish her well.

Meadow Road Farm Bureau
The Meadow Road Group of the Farm Bureau met at the William Sherman home Wednesday, January 21. The topic for discussion was "State Fire Regulation and Rural School Districts." This was a very interesting topic as some schools have very poor heating conditions. Fourteen members and two guests were present.

Lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting is at the James McArdie home February 18, 8:30 p. m.

"Hot Flashes Stopped" or strikingly relieved

in 63-80% of cases in doctors' tests

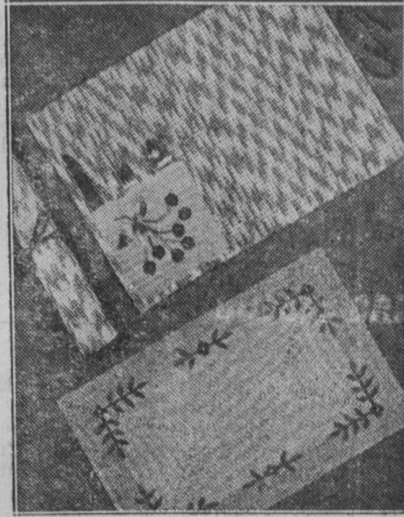

If you're miserable from the "hot flashes," and accompanying irritable, restless feelings of "change of life," you may be suffering unnecessarily!

For... in tests by doctors... Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound and Tablets brought relief from such functionally caused suffering to 63% and 80% (respectively) of the women tested! Complete or striking relief!

Needlecraft News

by Nancy Baxter

HOMEMAKERS have long been striving to reduce their work week and are rightly doing so by making the most of informal dining in their homes. The accent is on table settings with tasteful pottery ware on versatile place mats. Pieces such as these take the minimum of cleaning effort—a welcomed relief to busy women.

MORE ABOUT PLACE MATS

Name the occasion and you are sure to find that place mats are appropriate for it. The family's breakfast, lunch or supper can appear to be a real occasion when the table is set with cheerful-looking mats to complement your dishes. At parties, festive mats will focus special attention on each place setting. Here's a party thought in advance: The cherry-trimmed place mat shown here, would provide a harmonious table setting for a George Washington Day party in February. When your women friends are at your house for luncheon, set the table with the posie-trimmed mats for feminine appeal.

DUAL PURPOSE MAT

The place mat featured at the top has more than the one function. Notice the cord attached to the right of it. It's used for tying the mat in a neat package after it has been rolled, like the one on the left. Slip one setting of silverware in the pockets, roll up the mat, and you have a fine container for storing your eating utensils. This method will also keep your mats from being crushed in a drawer.

IT'S ALL DONE WITH CROCHET

You need only to know the ABC's of crochet to make a few balls of cotton become lovely place mats like these. For the Cherry-Roll Mat, you will need crochet cotton in shaded blues for the background, light blue for the three-sectioned pocket, red and green for the cherries and leaves. Follow the crocheting directions and Presto!—a pretty 13 x 18 inch place mat. The Garden Party Mat appears in yellow with a green border, red flowers and green leaves. Instructions for making these CHEERY PLACE MATS may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper with a request for Leaflet No. 67-13.

HDA NOTES

By Dorothy Scott

Ten home demonstration leaders went home enthusiastic about stenciling after our training class last week.

They will be giving other group members an opportunity to try it at February meetings.

Everyone attending the next meeting of their groups will have more fun if they go prepared to experiment right along with the others. Needed will be:

Pieces of white fabric—muslin, flour or sugar sacking, organdy or voile will do. Have it washed and ironed smooth.

Pins, scissors, pencils, single edge razor blade, thumb tacks, toothpicks, ruler, also as many as you can of the following items: colored pencils or crayons, thin paper for tracing pattern, old plate, pieces of window glass, paper towel and board on which fabric could be fastened for painting.

Group teachers for February will be: Mesdames Donald MacDonald, Helen Schmitt, Laidlawville; Carl Libka, Irwin Rupert, Roy Bergeron, Tawas City; Harold Black, James Mielock and Tracy Vary, Reno; William Curtis and Leo Sylvester, Whittemore; Frank Abbinate and Donald Stilts, Hale.

Gives Advice on Improving Rural Medical Service

Small towns and rural areas without doctors may lift themselves up by their own bootstraps and help to solve this problem by preparing their top high school students for a medical career, according to investigations by University of Michigan medical authorities.

It is generally agreed that physicians throughout Michigan are not properly distributed to serve best the population as a whole. Dr. Albert C. Furstenberg, dean of the U. of M. Medical College, indicates.

A recent national survey, seeking answers to this alarming shortage of small town doctors, he explains, reveals that the new doctor usually returns to his home town or one of similar size to practice.

CATCH MORE FISH IN '53!
A lot of fishermen are impatiently awaiting the coming of the spring and summer months, resolving that this year they're going to catch more and bigger fish than last. Most of them go along with the theory that the one big factor in fishing success is luck. A little analysis of the situation would prove this an unworthy alibi—and while there may well be times when fish go berserk and bite on anything from a pocket handkerchief to a red rubber band, don't count on being around when it happens!

Look at your own fishing friends. Aren't there a certain number of them who always seem to be "lucky"? Every week end they'll come back from the lake with all the fish they want. Meanwhile you may have been fishing in the same lake, but you just weren't "lucky." Even when this happens day after day most of us are reluctant to admit that those friends might know a little more about the art—and what they know you could know too, with just a little application.

Twenty Million Fishermen
Scattered throughout this great nation of 48 states are more than twenty million fishermen. About one out of ten buckles down to the job of learning enough about fishing to deliver a feeling of self-satisfaction. If you're one of these "students" of the art you're going to catch more fish than the other fellows—and even on days when everything fails you'll come home with the feeling that at least you gave it the old "college try," and you'll be satisfied with the knowledge that the law of averages will take care of you next time!

Get Smart—Now!
So, during these winter months in Michigan, study fishing while you're waiting for spring. How? Well, if you know what lakes you'll be fishing, ask the Conservation Department if they have made a map showing weed beds, deep holes, reefs and other contours which would be helpful in locating natural fishing grounds. These maps are very inexpensive—yet very valuable to a fishing "student." And how about your accuracy with a bait-casting or fly rod? It's easy to "put a fish down" by making too many casts in an effort to get your lure in just the right place. Learn to hit the spot the first time. Most communities have winter sessions in bait and fly casting in school gymnasiums or large halls. Join the class! Or get one started in your town. Then learn more about the fish you're after—their feeding habits, favorite foods at various times of the year, and its feeding temperament.

When the season opens put all this knowledge in one boat and watch what happens! You'll find yourself up in that "lucky" ten percent wherever you go in Michigan Outdoors!

FLASH! "Michigan Outdoors" will soon become a full half-hour show on television... watch for the announcement of a new, more exciting than ever "Michigan Outdoors" with Mort Neff!

Iosco Dairy Herds Average Fine Production

Clarence Carpenter, supervisor, reported that the 194 cows in the 13 herds in the Iosco Dairy Herd Improvement Association averaged in December, 379 pounds of milk and 31.7 pounds of butterfat. The eight class leaders including the two and three year olds produced over eight tons of milk during this 31 day period or six cans of milk daily.

The top cow in the county was Margie, a registered aged Holstein, owned by Arthur Povish, producing 2360 pounds of milk containing 94.4 pounds of butterfat. Diana, a first cross, three year old, Red Dane, owned by William Waters, was second with 1940 pounds of milk and 83.4 pounds of fat. Two outstanding two year olds are Blackie, owned by Arthur Povish, and Topsy, owned by Charles Timreck, both registered Holsteins which produced 2090 pounds of milk and 62.7 pounds of fat and 1840 pounds of milk and 60.7 pounds of fat respectively.

Arthur Povish's 25 registered Holsteins topped the county herds with an average of 1396 pounds of milk and 47.7 pounds of fat per cow. In second place were William Waters' four Red Danes which averaged 967 pounds of milk and 41.1 pounds of fat per cow. The Prescott-Campbell herd of 14 Holsteins was a close third with an average of 1107 pounds of milk and 40.2 pounds of fat.

The woodlands yield health, wealth and security. Protect them from destruction. Keep your communities green and productive. Stamp out forest fires now and always.

1953 INTERNATIONAL TRUCKS SHOWN

A completely new line of International trucks, with 168 basic chassis models in 296 wheelbases, was introduced this week in the Tawas area. It was announced by Gordon Everett, manager of the Ottawa Equipment Company, International truck dealer for the Tawas area.

Mr. Everett said trucks of the new line, designated the R-line, are being shown at 603 US-23.

"The International R-line, most complete line of trucks in the world, consists of light, medium and heavy-duty motor trucks whose gross vehicle weight ratings range from 4,200 to 90,000 pounds," Gordon Everett said.

The line, announced nationally by W. C. Schumacher, general manager of the motor truck division of International Harvester Company, Chicago, is being shown in International branch and dealer showrooms throughout the country.

"The R-line trucks offer 307 new features developed at our engineering and test laboratories at Fort Wayne, Indiana, and proved at our Phoenix, Arizona, desert proving ground," Gordon Everett said.

"The new International trucks are identified by the distinctive IH emblem, which replaces the traditional Triple Diamond.

"Truck-to-job specialization is possible with the R-line to a degree never before achieved," Gordon Everett said. "There are 29 engines—gasoline, LPG and diesel—whose horsepower ratings range from 100 to 358, and a wide selection of transmissions, auxiliary transmissions, axles and axle ratios. The many variations and options available make it possible for any truck operator to meet his job requirements precisely with a new R-line model."

Besides its Standard chassis models, the 168-model International truck line include a number of chassis series specialized for truck operations. These include:

Schoolmaster/chassis models for extra safe, dependable school bus operation.

Roadliner models for tractor, semi-trailer operations over the highway.

Loadstar models for hauling heavy, compact loads over rough terrain which subjects the truck to a high degree of twisting and shock.

Cab-Forward models for truck operations requiring the maximum in loading space and maneuverability. In this group are two new models, the RC 190 and RC 200, both equipped with a Tiltcab-type Comfo-Vision cab.

Six-wheel truck models for on and off highway operations.

Highly specialized Western-built extra-heavy-duty conventional and cab-over engine chassis for extra-heavy service on or off the highway.

Specialized fire truck chassis models.

Twenty-six dairymen attended the sixth annual meeting of the Iosco-Tawas Artificial Breeders Association, Thursday at the Tawas Township Hall. A. C. Baltzer, secretary-manager of the Michigan Artificial Breeders Cooperative, was the speaker. He showed the new colored movie entitled "The Right Semen to Produce the Right Calves," which was made in Michigan and showed the activities of the state association at the central and on local farms. Baltzer revealed that each year since the formation of the cooperative in 1944, the membership has increased substantially and now the membership is nearly 35,000 cooperators. Over 125,000 cows that are progeny of the MABC bulls are now milking in Michigan and are making a substantial improvement to the income of their owners.

Baltzer praised the local board of directors for keeping complete records and making prompt reports. He commented that Tom Nelkie has always ranked with the top inseminators in the state and the local association was fortunate in having had Mr. Nelkie serve them since the origin of the local association.

The three directors elected to three years are William Heriman, Lyle Long and James Sturtevant. The directors serving unexpired terms are Julius Anderson, P. A. Murray, William Olsen and Howard Britt.

Waldo Curry, secretary-treasurer, reported that the association received $3379.00 for services. Tom Nelkie, inseminator-manager made 509 first services for 76 active members for a non-return rate of 80%. Nelkie divulged some statistics that showed real progress in milk cow production that has occurred in Iosco county since 1940. The 1945 cows showed a gain of 500 pounds of milk per cow over the 1940 cows, while the 1950 cows showed a gain of 923 pounds of milk per cow over the 1945 cows.

Nelkie reported that he could serve more dairymen and urged that all members unite in promoting the local association. He added that better results from the service could be received if calls were made promptly and before the 3:00 a. m. deadline, if cows are properly identified and all necessary papers are on hand.

"It happened 40 years ago..."

Hal W. Cobb, Central Division safety supervisor for Michigan Bell, talking to Field Engineer Warren A. Pickering outside the telephone building in Saginaw, recalls that the Benefit-Pension Plan started the same year he began his telephone career.

"I'll always remember my first day with the Telephone Company back in January, 1913. It was 12 below zero the day I started as a lineman."

"That same month the Company's Benefit-Pension Plan was established. The Company put up the money in 1913 to get it started and has paid all the costs ever since."

"The Telephone Company's Plan not only provides retirement pensions. It also gives financial help to employees of all ages in meeting emergencies that may come with sickness, injury or death."

"For instance, there were the times when I was sick in a hospital for weeks and got my pay checks just the same, thanks to the Benefit Plan."

"One of these days I'll be retiring and, believe me, it's mighty comforting to know that I can count on a good pension when that day rolls around."

"Having our Benefit-Pension Plan with me all these forty years has meant a lot to me in peace of mind. It was a good, sound plan to begin with. And it's been kept up to date to meet the needs of changing times. I'll stack our Plan against any of them."

"It's People Who Make Telephone Service Good"

Michigan Bell Telephone Company

AN IMPORTANT KEY TO GOOD TELEPHONE SERVICE

Michigan Bell's Benefit-Pension Plan is one of the oldest of its kind in industry.

It is one of the things that makes the Telephone Company a good place to work.

Telephone men and women have the protection and security of a complete benefit and pension program with all costs paid by the Company. This includes liberal benefit payments for sickness and accident disability, death and retirement.

Folks do a better job when they have a feeling of security. The Plan contributes to that feeling among telephone people. So it's a good thing for your telephone service, too.

The Benefit Plan is an important part of what we mean when we say... "Our policy is to furnish the best telephone service at the least cost to the public, consistent with financial safety and fair treatment of employees."

met her husband there when he was a pneumonia patient.

Next Lt. Corbin became a WAVE recruiter, one of the first. She was sent to Buffalo to establish a recruiting office and arrived, ahead of her supplies, to find that no one was quite sure just how the office should be set up.

"But things turned out all right, and soon Lt. Corbin was recruiting WAVES, SPARS, Women Marines and navy nurses.

"In time, however, Mrs. Corbin grew tired of recruiting and requested Pacific assignment which she got.

"After her discharge in 1946, she began studying at Michigan State College, but left to take up nursing at Edward W. Sparrow Hospital. A job as nursing arts instructor at the practical nurses center followed her administrative appointment in June of 1950.

"The school, established in 1948, has thus far graduated some 202 from its one-year courses.

"And Mrs. Corbin is justly proud of all the grads who serve all over the United States and even in Alaska.

"Our graduates," she said, "are filling a vital need. The demand for them is far greater than the supply. Sparrow Hospital, for example, uses 30 practical nurses all the time and would take more if we could supply them."

"During the past week, Mrs. Corbin was in a flurry of graduation activities for the nursing class which graduated Friday. She'll have time for a brief rest before the next class which starts February 2.

"In carrying out her 'round the clock schedule, Mrs. Corbin finds her husband's help indispensable. Mr. Corbin is a social studies teacher at West Junior High School.

"Once a week the Corbins take a night course at M. S. C. where he is working for his Ph.D. The Corbins are both firm believers in education. They go to classes together, study together, and even compete for grades!"

The bridge would be 24,421 feet long, which includes the existing breakwater extending from the north shore of the Straits. The suspension span is approximately 3,800 feet long with clearance carrying from 131 feet to 148 feet.

Colonel John D. Bristor, district engineer, is today issuing a public notice requesting that those who have comments affecting navigation forward same to his office at 1900 Cadillac Tower on or before February 13, 1953.
